Upon complying with the provisions of this chapter, a foreign or alien company organized as a stock, mutual, or reciprocal company, or as a Lloyd's organization, but not otherwise, may be authorized by certificate of authority to transact in the District the kind or kinds of business which a domestic company similarly organized may be authorized to transact under this chapter. Such certificate of authority shall be issued as provided under section 35–1305. The issuance of a certificate of authority to a Lloyd's organization shall be subject to the provisions of section 35–1324. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1073, ch. 792, § 20, ch. II.)

§ 35–1324. Lloyd's organizations—Requirements—Limitation of risk—Surplus—Filing copy of power of attorney—Annual statement—Verification.

Individuals and aggregations of individuals transacting an insurance business upon the plan known as Lloyd's whereby the individual underwriters become liable severally for specified proportions of the whole amount insured by a policy, heretofore organized under the laws of a State of the United States, or of a foreign government, may be authorized to transact business in the District, upon the following conditions:

1. They shall comply with and be subject to the same terms, conditions, and provisions as are imposed by this chapter upon foreign stock insurance companies, except as provided in the next succeeding paragraph and except that the maximum amount of insurance to be assumed by an individual underwriter upon any single risk for each kind of insurance shall not exceed 10 per centum of the value of the cash and securities deposited in trust by such underwriter, plus the share of admitted assets other than underwriter's deposits of such Lloyd's belonging to such underwriter, less the share of liabilities and reserves of such Lloyd's allocable to such underwriter, but in no event shall it exceed 10 per centum of the value of cash or securities deposited in trust by such underwriter;

2. They shall have and shall at all times maintain surpluses of not less than $300,000 in the aggregate and shall at all times have on deposit with an insurance department of a State of the United States, or with a bank or trust company designated by such insurance department, for the benefit of all policyholders within the United States the sum of at least $350,000 in cash or in securities such as are required for the investment of the assets of insurance companies authorized to do business in the District: Provided, That they shall not be required to establish or maintain such a deposit if they have on deposit in the hands of a bank or trust company in the United States as trustee cash deposits or securities issued by the United States worth not less than $2,000,000 in the aggregate and held in trust for the benefit of all policyholders in the United States;

3. They shall file with the superintendent an authenticated copy of their powers of attorney and an authenticated copy of the trust agreement, or other agreement under which deposits made by underwriters are held:

4. They shall notify the superintendent forthwith of any amendments to their powers of attorney, deposit agreement, or other documents underlying their organization, by filing with the superintendent an authenticated copy of such document as amended.

5. They shall notify the superintendent forthwith of any change in their names or change of attorney in-fact, or change of address of their attorney-in-fact;

6. In the case of an alien Lloyd's, their annual statement shall embrace only their condition and transactions in the United States, and may be verified by the oath of their resident manager or other person or persons having proper authority;

7. There shall be filed with the superintendent by the attorney-in-fact at the time of filing the annual statement, or more often if the superintendent requires, a statement verified by the appropriate official of such Lloyd's, setting forth—

(a) the names and addresses of all the underwriters of such Lloyd's;

(b) a description of the cash and securities deposited in trust by each underwriter;

(c) the maximum amount of insurance assumed by each underwriter upon any single risk or each kind of insurance;

(d) that the maximum amount of insurance assumed upon any single risk for each kind of insurance by any individual underwriter does not exceed the limitation provided for in paragraph one of this section. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1073, ch. 792, § 20a, ch. II.)

A foreign or alien company shall deliver to the superintendent (a) application of the company for a certificate of authority; (b) a copy of its articles of incorporation or articles of association and amendments thereto, duly certified by the proper officer of the state or country under whose laws the company is organized or incorporated, or if reciprocal, the power of attorney of the attorney-in-fact; (c) if an alien company, a copy of the appointment and authority of its United States manager, certified by a proper officer of the company; (d) a copy of its by-laws and regulations; (e) forms of contracts and policies it proposes to issue in the District, and forms of the applications therefor, if any; (f) the instrument authorizing service of process on the superintendent required by section 35–1327; (g) a statement of its financial condition and business as of the end of the preceding calendar year, complying as to form and verification with the requirements of this chapter for annual statements, or financial statement as of such later date as the superintendent may require; (h) a copy of the last report of examination, certified to by an insurance commissioner or other proper supervisory official; (i) a certificate from the proper official of the state or country wherein it is incorporated or organized, that it is duly incorporated or organized and is authorized to write the kind or kinds of insurance which it proposes to write in the District. Before a certificate of authority to transact business in the District is issued to a foreign or alien company, such company shall satisfy the superintendent that (a) the company is duly organized under the laws of the state or country under whose laws it professes to be organized and is authorized to do the business it is transacting or proposes to transact; (b) its name is not the same as, or so deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic company, or the name of any department of the federal government or existing corporation authorized to transact business in the District as to mislead the public or cause confusion; (c) if a stock company, it has a paid-up capital and surplus at least equal to the capital and surplus required by this chapter, or, if a mutual company or reciprocal, it has a surplus and provision for contingent liability of policyholders at least equal to the surplus and provision for contingent liability of policyholders required by this chapter; (d) its funds are invested in accordance with the laws of its domicil, and in securities or property which afford a degree of financial security substantially equal to that required for similar domestic companies. Before issuing a certificate of authority to a foreign or alien company, the superintendent may cause an examination to be made of the condition and affairs of such company. § 35–1327. Process, service upon foreign or alien companies by service on Superintendent—Force and effect—Registered letter to company—Proof of service—Penalty for failure to designate attorney for service of process.

(a) Service of process upon unauthorized company.—(1) The issuance or delivery of a policy or contract of insurance in this District, to a citizen or resident thereof, by a foreign or alien company transacting business in this District without a certificate of authority, shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such company of the superintendent and his successor or successors in office to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action or proceeding against it, arising out of such policy or contract of insurance, and said issuance or delivery shall be a signification of its agreement that any such process against it which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the company.

(2) Service of such process upon the superintendent, and the responsibility of the superintendent in regard thereto, shall be in accordance with the provisions for service of process upon authorized companies as provided in subsection (b).

(b) Attorney for services of process.—Every foreign or alien company now or hereafter authorized to transact business in the District shall file with the superintendent a duly executed instrument appointing and constituting him and his successors true and lawful attorney for such company, upon whom all lawful process in any action or legal proceeding against it in the District may be served, and therein shall agree that any lawful process against it, which may be served upon its said attorney as herein provided, shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon the company, and that the authority thereof shall continue in force irrevocably so long as any liability of the company in the District shall remain outstanding. Such process shall be served by delivering to and leaving the same with the superintendent or his deputy, and service thereof upon such attorney shall be deemed service upon the company. The superintendent shall forthwith forward such process by prepaid registered mail to the company, or, in the case of an alien company, to the United States manager or last-appointed United States general agent of the company. The registry receipt evidencing the deposit by the superintendent, or his deputy, of such process, in the United States mails in the manner herein prescribed, shall be prima facie evidence of the completion of such service. Failure of any such company to file such an instrument, or failure on the part of any such company to authorize such filing, shall not invalidate any service made by serving the superintendent. By accepting a certificate of authority to transact business in the District, every such company shall be held to have appointed the superintendent its true and lawful attorney. Any such company transacting business in the District without designating an attorney for service of process as herein provided shall, upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District in the police court of the District, be fined upon conviction not less than $10 nor more than $500 for each day during which the company shall have operated in violation of this section. § 35–1328. Names of mutual or reciprocal companies—Requirements—Exceptions.

Except as otherwise provided in section 35–1317, no mutual company shall be authorized to transact business in the District unless the name of such company shall include the word "mutual," and no reciprocal or interinsurance exchange shall be authorized to transact business in the District unless the name or designation under which reciprocal or interinsurance contracts are to be exchanged shall include the words "reciprocal" or "interinsurance exchange," or be supplemented by the following words immediately below the name or designation under which such contracts are exchanged: "A reciprocal" or "an interinsurance exchange." (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1076, ch. 792, § 24, ch. II.)

§ 35–1329. Premiums of mutual companies—Maximum required to be stated—Contingent premiums.

The maximum premium shall be expressed in the policy of a mutual company, and it may be solely a cash premium, or may be a cash premium and an additional contingent premium, which contingent premium shall be not less than the cash premium, but no mutual company, except as otherwise provided in section 35–1317, shall issue any policy for a cash premium without an additional contingent premium until and unless it possesses a surplus of not less than $300,000. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1076, ch. 792, § 25, ch. II.)

§ 35–1330. Reserves, computation.

In determining the financial condition of companies authorized under this chapter, allowance shall be made for proper and adequate reserves for liabilities, including reserves for—

(a) Unpaid losses and the expenses of the adjustment thereof;

(b) Unearned premiums;

(c) Commissions, taxes, and all other legal obligations, contingent or otherwise, of which the company has knowledge.

The computation of such reserves shall be in accordance with the provisions of the form of annual statement required under section 35–1311, and every authorized company shall maintain such reserves at all times. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1076, ch. 792, § 26, ch. II.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION OF POLICIES

Words used in automobile insurance policy should be given their common, ordinary, or "popular" meaning, rather than meaning of lexicographers or those skilled in niceties of language. Unkelsbee v. Homestead Fire Ins. Co. of Baltimore (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 168).

The maxim "expressio unius est exclusio alterius" as applied to an automobile insurance policy is an aid to construction of policy and not a rule of law, and is not to be arbitrarily applied. Unkelsbee v. Homestead Fire Ins. Co. of Baltimore (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 168).

§ 35–1332. Accident and health policies, required provisions.

The Superintendent may require that the provisions and conditions contained in any policy of insurance against loss or damage from sickness or bodily injury or death of the insured by accident issued by any company authorized by this chapter to transact business in the District be made to conform to the requirements prescribed under section 35–712. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1076, ch. 792, § 28, ch. II.)

§ 35–1333. Discriminations prohibited.

Discrimination between individual risks of the same class or hazard in the amount of premiums or rates charged for any policy, or in the benefits or amount of insurance payable thereon, or in any of the terms or conditions of such policy, or in any other manner whatsoever, is prohibited, and the superintendent is empowered after investigation to order removed at such time and in such manner as he shall specify any such discrimination which his investigation may reveal. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1077, ch. 792, § 29, ch. II.)

§ 35–1334. Agents and brokers—Policies to be executed by licensed and authorized agents—All agreements contained in policy—Rebates prohibited—List of agents to be filed—Payment of premium to broker—Soliciting agent may not sign policy—Life, title, and ocean marine agents excepted.

No company authorized to do business in the District shall, by its representatives or otherwise, make, write, issue, or deliver any contract of insurance, surety, or indemnity, except life, title, and ocean marine insurance, on any person, property, business activity, or insurable interest within the District except through regularly constituted policy writing agents or authorized salaried employees licensed in the District as provided in this chapter.

No such contract covering persons, property, business activities, or insurable interests in the District, except contracts of life, title, and ocean marine insurance, shall be written, issued, or delivered by any authorized company or by any of its representatives unless such contract is duly countersigned in writing by a person who is licensed as provided in this chapter to countersign such contracts, and no salaried officer, manager, or other salaried employee of any authorized company, unless he be licensed as provided in this chapter, shall write, issue, or countersign any such contract.

No company, agent, or salaried company employee shall make any agreement as to a policy other than that which is plainly expressed in the policy issued.

No company, agent, salaried company employee, or broker shall pay or offer to pay or allow as an inducement to any person to insure any rebate of premium or any special favor or advantage whatever in the dividends to accrue thereon, or any inducement whatever not specified in the policy.

Every company authorized by this chapter to do business in the District shall file annually with the Superintendent on or before the 15th day of April, and at such other times as they may be appointed, a list of agents and salaried employees of said company who are authorized to solicit, write, effect, issue, or deliver policies for such company in the District, except that the names of soliciting agents may be filed either by the company or by the policy-writing agent.

Any policy-writing agent or salaried company employee authorized by any company to solicit, negotiate, bind, write, or issue policies or applications therefor shall, in any controversy between the insured or his representative and the said company, be held to be the agent of the company which issued or effected the policy solicited or so applied for, anything in the application or policy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any payment made by or on behalf of the insured to any broker for policies issued to such broker for delivery to the insured or issued directly to the insured on the order of such broker, shall, in controversies between the insured and the company, be deemed to have been paid to the company.

No soliciting agent shall have any authority to countersign any policy. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1077, ch. 792, § 30, ch. II.)

§ 35–1336. Agents and brokers, license—Form of application—Request by company or agent, form and contents—Bond of brokers—Written examination—Requirements for license—Waiver of examination—Issuance to individuals or firms—License for own business prohibited.

Any person hereafter desiring to engage in business in the District as a policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, broker, or salaried company employee, as defined by this chapter, shall, before engaging in such business, secure from the Superintendent a license authorizing him to engage in such business. The person to whom the license may be issued shall file sworn answers to such interrogatories as the Superintendent may require on forms furnished by the Superintendent. Before the Superintendent shall issue a license to any policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, or salaried company employee, he shall require the company or policy-writing agent desiring the appointment of such person to certify—

(a) That the person to be appointed, if not a salaried company employee, is a resident of this District, or that his principal office for the conduct of such business is in or will be maintained in the District;

(b) That he is personally known to the person making the certification;

(c) That he has had experience or instructions necessary to the proper conduct of the kind or kinds of business to which the license is to extend;

(d) That he has a good business reputation, is trustworthy, and is worthy of a license.

Resident and nonresident brokers shall, as a prerequisite to the issuance of a license, file with the Superintendent a corporate surety bond in an amount not less than $1,000 for the benefit of any person who may suffer loss resulting from fraud or dishonesty on the part of said resident or nonresident broker. Before the Superintendent shall issue a license to any policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, salaried company employee, or resident broker, he shall personally, or through his deputy or any person regularly employed in the department, within a reasonable time, and in a designated place within the District, subject each such person to a personal written examination relating to such person's knowledge of the kind or kinds of business to which the license may extend and his competency to act as such policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, broker, or salaried company employee. The Superintendent may in his discretion limit the scope of such examination to such particular kind or kinds of business in which the person to be licensed is to be principally engaged. Following such examination the Superintendent shall issue such license as may be applied for when he is satisfied that the person to be licensed is (a) competent and trustworthy and intends to act in good faith in the capacity involved by the license applied for, and that not more than 25 per centum of his commission income from business to which the license applies will result from policies the premiums on which are paid or are to be paid in the manner set forth in paragraph (f) of section 35–1340; and (b) that he has a good business reputation and has had experience, training, or education, or is otherwise qualified in the line or lines of business in which the license would entitle him to engage, and, except in the case of a nonresident broker or salaried company employee, is a resident of the District, or maintains his principal office for the conduct of such business in the District; and (c) is reasonably familiar with the insurance laws of the District, and with the provisions, terms, and conditions of the policies he is proposing to solicit, negotiate, or effect, and is worthy of a license. In the case of a nonresident applying for a broker's license, the Superintendent may waive the examination requirement and accept in lieu thereof evidence that the applicant holds a license as broker or agent in the State where his principal business is conducted. The Superintendent may also waive the examination requirement in the case of any person who has been licensed in the District prior to the effective date of this chapter. Licenses may be issued in the names of individuals, or in the names of firms, partnerships, or corporations, including banks, trust companies, real-estate offices, and building and loan associations: Provided, That on such licenses there shall be listed the name of every member or officer of such firm, partnership, or corporation who solicits insurance or who countersigns policies: And provided further, That such named persons shall be subject to all requirements of this chapter, and that no officer or employee of such organizations other than those specifically named in such license shall be required to comply with this section, unless the duties of such officers or employees include soliciting or the countersigning of policies. No person shall be licensed as agent, broker, or salaried company employee when it appears to the Superintendent that said license is sought primarily for the purpose of obtaining commissions on policies on which he on his own account pays or is to pay the premiums, or on which the premiums are paid or are to be paid by any person who receives or is to receive any benefit, direct or indirect, from the commissions obtained, or on which the premiums are paid or are to be paid by any partnership, association, or corporation of which he is a member. The Superintendent may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license of any policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, broker, or salaried company employee when and if, after investigation, it appears conclusively to the Superintendent that any license issued to such person was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, or that such person has—

(a) Violated any of the provisions of the insurance laws of the District; or

(b) Has failed within a reasonable time to remit to any company all moneys which he has collected, and to which the company is entitled; or

(c) Has been guilty of rebating or has misrepresented the provisions of the policies which he is selling, or the policies of other companies; or

(d) Has countersigned policies in blank; or that

(e) More than 25 per centum of his commission income from business to which the license applies results from policies the premiums on which are paid or are to be paid in the manner set forth in paragraph (f) of this section; or that

Before the superintendent shall revoke or suspend the license of any such person he shall give to such person an opportunity to be fully heard, and to introduce evidence in his behalf: Provided, That, in lieu of revoking or suspending the license of any policy-writing agent, soliciting agent, broker, or salaried company employee for causes enumerated in this section after hearing as herein provided, the Superintendent may subject such person to a penalty of not more than $200 when in his judgment he finds that public interest would be best served by the continued operation of such person. The amount of any such penalty shall be paid by such person through the office of the Superintendent to the collector of taxes, District of Columbia. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1079, ch. 792, § 36, ch. Except as provided in section 35–1344, no person shall act as agent in the District for any company which is not authorized to do business in the District, nor shall any person directly or indirectly negotiate for or solicit applications for policies of, or for membership in, any company which is not authorized to do business in the District. The term "company" as used in this section shall include any association, society, company, corporation, joint-stock company, individual, partnership, trustee, or receiver engaged in the business of assuming risks of insurance, surety, or indemnity, and any Lloyd's organization, assessment, or cooperative fire company, or any reciprocal or interinsurance exchange, fraternal beneficial association, order, or society, and any company, association, or society, whether organized for profit or not, conducting a business, including any of the principles or features of insurance, surety, or indemnity. Any person who violates any provision of this section upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for each offense, or be imprisoned for not more than twelve months, or both, and any such person shall be personally liable to any resident of the District having claim against any such unauthorized company under any policy which said person has solicited or negotiated, or has aided in soliciting or negotiating: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who negotiates with an unauthorized company for life insurance, or for policies covering his own property or interests, nor shall the provisions of this section apply to the officers, agents, or representatives of any company which is in process of organization under the laws of the District, and which is authorized temporarily to solicit or secure memberships or applications for policies for the purpose of completing such organization. Prosecutions for violations of this section shall be upon information filed in the police court by the corporation counsel or any of his assistants. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1080, ch. 792, § 39, ch. II.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DEFENSES

Accused charged with soliciting insurance for company unauthorized to do business in District of Columbia could not defend on ground that company had been granted permits to do business where such permits were not perpetual. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536).

EVIDENCE

In prosecution for soliciting insurance for company unauthorized to do business in District of Columbia, evidence which had a direct bearing on solicitation was properly admitted. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536).

In prosecution for soliciting insurance for company unauthorized to do business in District of Columbia, evidence that company once had permit to do business as a fraternal organization was properly excluded as immaterial in view of inclusion of fraternal organizations in section 35–1342 on which prosecution was based. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536).

INSTRUCTIONS

In prosecution for soliciting insurance for company unauthorized to do business in District of Columbia, instruction to acquit if accused did not personally solicit was properly refused, since Congress never intended that liability should be limited to those who personally solicit. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536.)

PROSECUTION, PENDING PROCEEDINGS AS BAR

The trial judge properly refused to continue prosecution for soliciting insurance business for an unauthorized company, pending trial of suit by company to enjoin officials from interfering with its business. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536).

QUESTIONS FOR JURY

In prosecution for soliciting insurance for company unauthorized to do business in District of Columbia, accused's guilt was for jury. Stover v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 536).

§ 35–1344. License to write policy in unauthorized company when no authorized company available—Taxation—Reports, form, and contents—Revocation or refusal.

Any agent or broker licensed in the District may, upon payment of a license fee, as provided under section 35–1345, be licensed to procure policies from companies which are not authorized to do business in the District where such person is, after diligent effort, unable to procure policies to cover the kind or kinds of business required from companies duly authorized to transact business in the District. Each agent or broker so licensed shall pay to the collector of taxes, through the superintendent, on February 1 and August 1 of each year, a sum equal to 2 per centum of the amount of the gross premiums upon all kinds of policies procured by him during the immediately preceding six months' period ending December 31 and June 30, respectively, and, in default of such payment, the superintendent, through the corporation counsel, may bring suit to recover the same. Each agent or broker so licensed to procure policies from unauthorized companies shall execute and file with the department on or before the 10th day of each month an affidavit covering the transactions of the previous calendar month, setting forth (1) the description and location of the insured property or risk, and the name of the assured; (2) the amount insured in the policy or contract; (3) the gross premiums charged thereon; (4) the name of the company whose policy or contract is issued, and the kind or kinds of business effected; and (5) that said agent or broker after diligent effort was unable to procure the policies or contracts required to protect the property or risk described in the affidavit from companies duly authorized to transact business in the District.

Each agent or broker so licensed to procure policies from unauthorized companies shall keep a separate account of the business transacted thereunder, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of the superintendent. The license provided for in this section may be revoked or renewal thereof refused for failure to pay the tax or to file the affidavit specified herein, or if the agent or broker procured policies from unauthorized companies without exercising diligent effort to secure the required business in duly authorized companies, or if the agent or broker procured policies from unauthorized companies whose standards of solvency and management do not meet the requirements necessary for the protection of the policyholders, or if the agent or broker has placed with any unauthorized company any risk which could be placed with an authorized company except for abnormal provisions of the policy, or if the agent or broker has procured from an unauthorized company any policy which covers a risk of a class generally covered in the District by authorized companies and which authorized companies would cover at a rate not higher than that charged by authorized companies on other District risks of the same class. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1080, ch. 792, § 40, ch. II; Apr. 22, 1944, 58 Stat. 192, ch. 173, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of Apr. 22, 1944, cited to text, amended section by adding proviso to last paragraph.

§ 35–1345. License fees.

Annual fees to be paid through the superintendent to the collector of taxes for licenses issued under this chapter shall be as follows:

(a) For policy-writing agent or for firms, partnerships, or corporations licensed as such, $50, without regard to the number of companies represented: Provided, That, in the case of firms, partnerships, and corporations, an additional fee of $5 shall be charged for each person in excess of two who is named in such license as required under section 35–1336.

(b) For soliciting agent, $5 for each company represented by such soliciting agent, or for each company represented by any policy-writing agent through which such soliciting agent solicits: Provided, That no soliciting agent shall be required to pay for soliciting agents' licenses a sum in excess of $15 for any one licensing year.

(c) For salaried company employee authorized to sign policies and to solicit insurance, $50, without regard to the number of companies represented by such salaried company employee.

(d) For salaried company employee authorized to solicit but not authorized to sign policies, $5 for each company represented by said employee: Provided, That the aggregation of such fees shall not exceed $15 for any one license year.

(e) For nonresident or resident brokers, $25, except that the fee shall be $5 in case the applicant for a resident broker's license is subject also to the fee prescribed under paragraphs (a) or (c) hereof.

(f) For license to procure lines in unauthorized companies, $15.

(h) Broker's licenses may be issued in the names of individuals, firms, partnerships, or corporations. In the case of firms, partnerships, or corporations, the authority to solicit shall extend only to the individuals who are designated in the license and in the application therefor as having authority to solicit, and there shall be charged for each such individual in excess of two an additional fee of $5.

(i) Licenses to procure lines in unauthorized companies shall be issued in the names of individuals only. (Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1081, ch. 792, § 41, ch. II.)

§ 35–1346. Testimony—Production of books—No refusal because of self-incrimination—Exemption from punishment except for perjury.

No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing books, accounts, and papers in any proceeding based upon or growing out of any violation of the provisions of this chapter, on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture; but no person having so testified shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may have testified or produced any documentary evidence: Provided, That no person so testifying shall be exempted from prosecution or punishment for perjury: Provided further, That the immunity hereby conferred shall extend only to a natural person who, in obedience to a subpena, gives testimony under oath or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise, under oath. § 35–1401. Definitions.

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires—

"District" means the District of Columbia;

"Superintendent" means the superintendent of insurance of the District of Columbia;

"Company" means any insurer, whether stock, mutual, reciprocal, interinsurer, Lloyd's, or any other form or group of insurers;

"Agent" means and shall include any individual, co-partnership, or corporation acting in the capacity of or licensed as a "policy-writing agent", "soliciting agent", or "salaried company employee", as defined under section 35–1303; and

"Broker" means any person who for a consideration acts or aids in any manner in the solicitation or negotiation on behalf of the assured of contracts of insurance. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 267, ch. 224, § 1.)

REPEALS

Section 10 of the act of June 1, 1944, cited to text, provided: "All laws or parts of laws, insofar as they relate to business affected hereby and in conflict with any of the provisions of this Act [chapter], are hereby repealed."

SAVINGS CLAUSE

Section 11 of the act of June 1, 1944, cited to text, provided: "Should any section or provision of this Act [chapter] be decided by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, the validity of the Act [chapter] as a whole, or of any part thereof, other than the part decided to be unconstitutional, shall not be affected."

§ 35–1402. Rates included in and excluded from regulation.

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to insurance in the District of Columbia against loss of or damage to property or any valuable interest therein by or as a consequence of fire, lightning, tornado, windstorm, and explosion, or any one or more of such hazards, including all supplemental, additional, or extended forms of coverage written in connection with fire insurance, and including any policy which insures property, while it is at a permanent location, against the hazard of fire, lightning, tornado, windstorm, or explosion; but this chapter shall not apply to ocean marine, transportation, boiler and machinery, or motor-vehicle insurance, nor to insurance covering the property of interstate common carriers, nor to any form of insurance designated by the Superintendent as inland marine insurance. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 267, ch. 224, § 2.)

§ 35–1403. Adjustment of rates—Powers and duties of Superintendent—Removal of discriminations—Appeal from Superintendent's rulings.

The Superintendent is empowered to investigate the necessity for an adjustment of the rates on any or all risks or classes of risks within the scope of this chapter, and to order an adjustment of such rates whenever he determines, after investigation of the experience showing premiums and losses for a period of not less than five years next preceding such investigation, that the rates for any one or more classes of risks are excessive, inadequate, or unreasonable. In determining the necessity for an adjustment of rates, the Superintendent shall give consideration to all factors reasonably attributable to the risks, to the conflagration or catastrophe hazard, both within and without the District, and to a reasonable profit. The Superintendent is also empowered, after investigation, to order removed, at such time and in such manner as he shall specify, any unfair discrimination existing between individual risks or classes of risks.

Any person, firm, or corporation aggrieved by any order, ruling, proceeding, or action of the Superintendent, or any person acting in his behalf and at his instance, may appeal to the Commissioners of the District, or contest the validity of such order, ruling, proceeding, or action in any court of competent jurisdiction by appeal or through any other appropriate proceedings, as provided under sections 35–1348 and 35–1349. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 267, ch. 224, § 3.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

APPROPRIATE PROCEEDINGS

Under this section provision that any person aggrieved may contest validity of superintendent's order fixing insurance rates in any court of competent jurisdiction by appeal or through any other "appropriate proceeding", a civil action for injunction is an appropriate proceeding. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

BURDEN OF PROOF

In order to sustain the burden of proof that fire insurance rates as reduced by order of Superintendent of Insurance of District of Columbia were confiscatory, it was incumbent upon individual insurance companies complaining of Superintendent's order to demonstrate that the result would be confiscatory as to them. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. v. Jordan (D. C., D. C. 1946, 67 F. Supp. 76, reversed 169 F. 2d 281).

CONFISCATORY ORDERS

A conjectural calculation as to effect of order of Superintendent of Insurance of District of Columbia reducing fire insurance rates based on average of the several insurance companies complaining of Superintendent's order, without showing the effect of the order on the various companies individually, was not sufficient to demonstrate that the result would be confiscatory as to them. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. v. Jordan (D. C., D. C. 1946, 67 F. Supp. 76, reversed 169 F. 2d 281).

CONTEST VALIDITY

Under this section providing that any person aggrieved may "contest validity" of superintendent's order fixing insurance rates in any court of competent jurisdiction by appeal or through any other appropriate proceedings, the quoted clause means to test validity in every or any respect in which order might be invalid and includes right to present evidence and to explore evidence on which superintendent acted and the reasons and calculations upon which he reached his conclusions. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

Under this section requiring that insurance superintendent must find that existing insurance rates are excessive, inadequate, or unreasonable before adjusting rates and that he must give consideration to all factors reasonably attributable to conflagration or catastrophe hazards, and to reasonable profit and permitting aggrieved person to contest order in any court of competent jurisdiction, the superintendent's findings as to such factors can be tested. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

DUE PROCESS

Where insurance companies had right under this section to file bill in equity court, to seek therein an enjoinder of enforcement of order fixing insurance rates and as a necessary incident to such procedure to have, upon proper preliminary showing, a stay of enforcement of order pendente lite, to participate in trial de novo on issue of validity of order and to have court decide that issue, if such statutory rights were satisfied, the insurance companies could not claim procedural contravention of the due process clause. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

FUNCTION OF DISTRICT COURT

Under this section authorizing any person aggrieved by insurance superintendent's rate order to contest validity of order in any court of competent jurisdiction, function of District Court is not that of a federal court acting on a state-made order, but is one of the functions which it possesses as local court of general jurisdiction. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

The congressional plan for determination of local insurance rates in District of Columbia can include the District Court as part of the procedure. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

HEARINGS

This section authorizing insurance superintendent to adjust insurance rates whenever he determines after "investigation" that rates are excessive, inadequate, or unreasonable, does not require that a quasi-judicial hearing be conducted. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

Even if requirement of this section that there be an investigation before establishment of insurance rates by superintendent could not be satisfied in absence of hearing, such requirement as an element of investigation, without more, was satisfied by hearing at which insurance companies were given an opportunity to state and support their objections to report and rate order, already issued. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

This section providing that any person aggrieved by insurance superintendent's order adjusting rates may contest validity of order in any court of competent jurisdiction gives complete right to full hearing de novo upon which court will determine validity of order in all respects in which it is contested, and, therefore, mere lack of quasi-judicial hearing before superintendent is not fatal. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

INJUNCTION

An order of Superintendent of Insurance of District of Columbia reducing fire insurance rates, based on an ex parte informal investigation and Superintendent's own personal knowledge, without according interested insurance companies an opportunity for a formal hearing, was not authorized by this section, and enforcement of such order would be enjoined. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. v. Jordan (D. C., D. C. 1946, 67 F. Supp. 76, reversed 169 F. 2d 281).

INVESTIGATION

The word "investigation", as used in this section, means a proceeding in which a full and fair hearing is accorded to all interested parties, evidence is taken, a record is made, and findings of facts are reached on the basis of the record. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. v. Jordan (D. C., D. C. 1946, 67 F. Supp. 76, reversed 169 F. 2d 281).

REMAND

In action to enjoin enforcement of insurance superintendent's order fixing insurance rates, where trial court in opinion stated that court reached conclusion that insurance companies had not sustained their contention that rates fixed by superintendent were confiscatory but findings of fact and conclusions of law were silent on that issue, the trial court had not determined such issue, so that, where trial court was in error in view on which it rested judgment, that order was invalid, case would be remanded in order that complete determination of issues might be made. Jordan v. American Eagle Fire Ins. Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 281).

§ 35–1404. Organization of rating bureau—Membership—Powers and duties—Apportionment of expenses.

Within one hundred and twenty days after June 1, 1944, and under the supervision of the Superintendent, the insurance companies authorized to effect insurance in the District against the risk of loss or damage by hazards within the scope of this chapter shall organize a rating bureau for the purpose of administering rates for such insurance, and all such companies now or hereafter authorized to transact such business in the District shall be members of such bureau. The government of the rating bureau shall be vested in its members and it shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other bureau, association, corporation, company, individual, or group of individuals. The rating bureau shall have power to establish reasonable agreements and bylaws for its governance, and shall be permitted to adopt reasonable rules and regulations necessary to carry out its functions, but such agreements, bylaws, rules, and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, and the same and amendments thereto shall be approved by the Superintendent before becoming effective. The rating bureau, subject to the approval of the Superintendent, shall apportion the expenses of its operation among its members in proportion to the premium income on risks in the District. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 268, ch. 224, § 4.)

§ 35–1405. Standard provisions required in policies—Deviations—Duration of deviation—Rate in excess of standard.

No company, agent, or broker shall issue or deliver, or offer to issue or deliver, or knowingly permit the issuance or delivery of, any policy of insurance in the District which does not conform to the requirements approved by the Superintendent: Provided, however, That a company may deviate from such requirements if the company has filed with the rating bureau and with the Superintendent the deviation to be applied, and provided such deviation is approved by the Superintendent. If approved, the deviation shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of approval by the Superintendent, unless such approval is withdrawn by the Superintendent for cause after notice to the insurer, or withdrawn by the insurer with the approval of the Superintendent.

It is further provided that a rate in excess of that promulgated by the rating bureau may be charged, provided such higher rate is charged with the knowledge and written consent of the insured and the Superintendent. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 268, ch. 224, § 5.)

§ 35–1406. Rating bureau records—Agency records.

The rating bureau shall keep a record of all rates, schedules, and proceedings. Every agent shall keep a record of every policy contract issued by or through his agency (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 268, ch. 224, § 6.)

§ 35–1407. Examination by Superintendent—Consolidated reports of classified experience by rating bureau.

The Superintendent, his deputy, or duly authorized examiner, is authorized and empowered to examine all records of the rating bureau, companies, and agents, and to require every company to furnish statistical reports of premiums and losses in such form and according to such classifications as the Superintendent shall prescribe and any other information which the Superintendent may deem necessary for the administration of this chapter. The Superintendent may require the rating bureau to consolidate the reports of classified experience. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 269, ch. 224, § 7.)

§ 35–1408. Effectiveness of rates, rating methods, rules, policy forms, etc., dependent upon filing with and approval of Superintendent.

No rate, premium, schedule, rating method, rule, bylaw, agreement, or regulation shall become effective or be charged, applied, or enforced in the District by the rating bureau, or by any company, agent, or broker governed by the provisions of this chapter, until it shall have been first filed with and approved by the Superintendent: Provided, That a rate or premium used or charged in accordance with a schedule, rating method, or rule previously approved by the Superintendent need not be specifically approved by the Superintendent. No company, agent, or broker shall issue any form of policy, clause, warranty, rider, or endorsement until such form shall have been filed with and approved by the Superintendent. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 269, ch. 224, § 8.)

§ 35–1409. Penalties.

Any company or any agent or broker guilty of violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of sections 35–1306 and 35–1340. (June 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 269, ch. 224, § 9.)

UNCONSTITUTIONALITY

Section 12 of Act May 20, 1948, cited to text, provided: "SEC. 12. Unconstitutionality.—If any section or provision of this Act is held unconstitutional or invalid, the validity of the Act as a whole or of any part thereof, other than the part decided to be unconstitutional or invalid, shall not be affected."

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 13 of Act May 20, 1948, cited to text, provided: "This act [§§ 35–1501 to 35–1510] shall become effective thirty days after approval."

§ 35–1502. Scope of chapter.

This chapter shall apply to all forms of casualty, motor vehicle, explosion, sprinkler leakage, and inland marine insurance in the District and to all forms of insurance within the scope of chapter 13 of this title, except those forms of insurance not enumerated herein which are within the scope of chapter 14 of this title: Provided, That this chapter shall not apply to reinsurance other than joint reinsurance to the extent provided in this chapter, and shall not apply to:

(a) Insurance of vessels or craft, their cargoes, marine builders' risks, marine protection and indemnity, or other risks commonly insured under marine, as distinguished from inland marine, insurance policies; (b) title insurance; (c) accident and health insurance; (d) insurance against loss of or damage to aircraft or to liability, other than workmen's compensation and employers' liability, arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of aircraft; (e) to insurance issued to self-insurers and insuring against loss in excess of at least $10,000 resulting from any one accident or event, except when rates therefor are made by a rating organization. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 242, ch. 324, § 2.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1503. Making of rates.

(a) Rates for insurance within the scope of this chapter shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(b) Due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience within and outside the District, to physical hazards, to safety and loss prevention factors, to underwriting practice and judgment, to catastrophe hazards, if any, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies; to dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by companies to their policyholders, members, or subscribers; to past and prospective expenses both country-wide and those specially applicable to the District; to whether classification rates exist generally for the risks under consideration; to the rarity or peculiar characteristics of the risks; and to all other relevant factors within and outside the District.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prohibit as unfairly discriminatory the establishment of classifications or modifications of classifications of risks based upon the size, expense, management, individual experience, location or dispersion of hazard, or any other reasonable considerations attributable to such risks provided such classifications and modifications apply to all risks under the same or substantially similar circumstances or conditions.

(d) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require uniformity in insurance rates, classifications, rating plans, or practices.

(e) Nothing in this chapter shall abridge or restrict the freedom of contract of companies, agents, brokers, or employees with reference to the commissions or salaries to be paid to such agents, brokers, or employees by companies.

(f) Rates may become effective immediately upon filing or at such future time as the company or rating organization making them may specify. They shall thereafter remain in effect unless and until changed by the company or rating organization making them, or adjusted by order of the Superintendent in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Rates for contracts or policies described in the last sentence of subsection (c) of section 35–1504 may become effective when made and filing thereof shall be made promptly thereafter.

(g) No company, agent, or broker shall make, issue, or deliver, or knowingly permit the making, issuance, or delivery of any policy of insurance within the scope of this chapter contrary to pertinent filings which are in effect for the company as provided in this chapter, except that upon the written application of the insured stating his reasons therefor, filed with and approved by the Superintendent, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 243, ch. 324, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1504. Supervision of rates.

(a) On and after July 1, 1948, every company shall file with the Superintendent, either directly or through a licensed rating organization of which it is a member or subscriber, except as to rates on inland marine risks which are not made by a rating organization and which by general custom of the business are not written according to manual rates or rating plans, all rates and rating plans, rules, and classifications which it uses or proposes to use in the District.

(b) Whenever it shall be made to appear to the Superintendent, either from his own information or from complaint of any party alleging to be aggrieved thereby, that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the rates on any or on all risks or classes of risks or kinds of insurance within the scope of this chapter are not in accordance with the terms of this chapter, it shall be his duty, and he shall have the full power and authority, to investigate the necessity for an adjustment of any or all such rates.

(c) After such an investigation of any such rates, the Superintendent shall, before ordering any appropriate adjustment thereof, hold a hearing upon not less than ten days' written notice specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing, to every company and rating organization which filed such rates, provided the Superintendent need not hold such hearing in the event he is advised by every such company and rating organization that they do not desire such hearing. If after such hearing the Superintendent determines that any or all of such rates are excessive or inadequate, he shall order appropriate adjustment thereof. Pending such investigation and order of the Superintendent, rates shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with the terms of this chapter. No order of adjustment shall affect any contract or policy made or issued prior to the effective date of such order unless (i) the adjustment to be effected is substantial and exceeds the cost to the companies of making the adjustment and (ii) the order is made after the prescribed investigation and hearing and within thirty days after the filing of rates affected. In no event shall an order of adjustment affect an existing contract or policy other than one of workmen's compensation or automobile liability insurance required by law, order, rule, or regulation of a public authority, or a contract or policy of any type as to which the rates are not, by general custom of the business or because of rarity and peculiar characteristics, written according to normal classification or rating procedure.

(d) In determining the necessity for an adjustment of rates, the Superintendent shall be bound by all of the provisions of section 35–1503.

(e) The Superintendent is further empowered to investigate and to order removed at such time and in such manner as he shall specify any unfair discrimination existing between individual risks or classes of risks. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 243, ch. 324, § 4.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1505. Cooperative and concerted action authorized.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, two or more companies may cooperate or act in concert with each other—

(a) as a rating organization, for the purpose of making rates, rating plans, or rating systems. No company shall be deemed to be a rating organization;

(b) as an advisory organization, for the purpose of preparing policy forms, making underwriting rules, surveys, or inspections incident to but not including the making of rates, rating plans or rating systems, or collecting and furnishing to companies or rating organizations loss or expense statistics or other statistical data, and acting in an advisory as distinguished from a rate making capacity;

(c) as a group or fleet of companies operating under the same general management and control, for the purpose of conducting a complete insurance service;

(d) as a group, association, or other organization for the purpose of joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, or of equitable apportionment and proper rating of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to but who are unable to procure such insurance through ordinary methods.

No company shall be required by this chapter to be a member or subscriber of any rating organization. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 244, ch. 324, § 5.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1506. Cooperative and concerted action regulated.

(a) Every group, association, or other organization of companies authorized to act as such under the terms of this chapter, except groups or fleets described in subsection (c) of section 35–1505, shall file with the Superintendent (1) a copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association, or its certificate of incorporation, and of its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business; (2) a list of its members and subscribers, if any; (3) the name and address of a resident of the District upon whom notices or orders of the Superintendent or process affecting it may be served; and shall notify the Superintendent promptly of any change in the foregoing.

(b) No group, association, or organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice in the conduct of its business.

(c) No rating organization shall conduct its business with respect to insurance on risks located within the District without a license from the Superintendent. To obtain such a license, a rating organization shall, in addition to the matters specified in subsection (a) of this section, supply to the Superintendent a statement relating to its qualifications as a rating organization and its ability adequately to administer the rates, rules, and regulations which it may make in behalf of its members and subscribers.

If the Superintendent finds that the applicant is competent, trustworthy, and otherwise qualified to act as a rating organization, he shall forthwith issue a license specifying the kinds of insurance and subdivisions thereof for which the applicant is authorized to act as a rating organization, but, if the Superintendent does not so find within thirty days after he has received such application, he shall, at the request of the applicant, give the applicant a full hearing.

Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in effect until suspended or revoked by the Superintendent unless voluntarily surrendered by the rating organization. The fee for said license shall be $250 and shall be paid by the applicant through the Superintendent to Collector of Taxes, District of Columbia. Licenses issued pursuant to this section may, at the request of the rating organization, be amended by the Superintendent so as to include authority with respect to additional kinds of insurance and subdivisions thereof, provided the rating organization satisfies the Superintendent that such amendment would not in any way be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That an additional fee in the amount of $50 shall be charged for such amendment.

The license of any rating organization may be suspended or revoked by the Superintendent for failure to comply with this chapter or for incompetence or untrustworthiness. The Superintendent shall not revoke or suspend the license of any rating organization until he has given it not less than thirty days' notice of the proposed revocation or suspension and of the grounds alleged therefor and has afforded the rating organization an opportunity to be heard. In lieu of revoking or suspending the license of any rating organization after hearing and for the causes named herein, the Superintendent may subject such rating organization to a penalty of not more than $250 when in his judgment he finds that the public interest would be best served by the continued operation of the rating organization. The amount of any such penalty shall be paid by the rating organization through the Superintendent to Collector of Taxes, District of Columbia.

(f) Every member of or subscriber to a licensed rating organization shall adhere to the filings made on its behalf by such organization except that any such member or subscriber may deviate from such filings if it has filed with the rating organization and with the Superintendent the deviation to be applied and information necessary to justify the deviation and provided such deviation is approved by the Superintendent. If approved, the deviation shall remain in force until such approval is withdrawn by the Superintendent after notice to the company or withdrawn by the company with the approval of the Superintendent. The Superintendent shall approve any such deviation unless he finds that the deviation to be applied would not be uniform in its application or would be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, but unless he approves the deviation within thirty days he shall, within a reasonable time, grant a hearing to the applicant at the applicant's request. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 245, ch. 324, § 6.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1507. Information to be furnished by companies.

(a) Every rating organization and every company which makes its own rates shall, within a reasonable time after receiving written request therefor and upon payment of such reasonable charge as it may make, furnish to any insured affected by a rate made by it, or to the authorized representative of such insured, all pertinent information as to such rate.

(b) Every rating organization and every company which makes it own rates shall provide within the District reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its rating system may be heard, in person or by his authorized representative, on his written request to revise the manner in which such rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded him. If the rating organization or company fails to grant or reject such request within thirty days after it is made, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if his application had been rejected. Any party affected by the action of such rating organization or such company on such request may, within thirty days after written notice of such action, appeal to the Superintendent, who, after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to the appellant and to such rating organization or company, may affirm or reverse such action.

(c) No company, agent, broker, or rating organization may willfully withhold required information from or give false or misleading information to the Superintendent.

(d) No company, agent, or broker shall fail to furnish to an insured any policy or comparable evidence of insurance to which the insured is entitled. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 246, ch. 324, § 7.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1508. Authority and duty of superintendent.

In addition to any powers hereinbefore expressly enumerated in this chapter, the Superintendent shall have full power and authority, and it shall be his duty, to enforce by regulations, orders, or otherwise all and singular, the provisions of this chapter, and the full intent thereof. In particular he shall have the authority and power—

(a) to examine all records of companies and rating organizations and to require any or every company, agent, broker, and rating organization to furnish under oath such information as he may deem necessary for the administration of this chapter. The expense of such examination shall be paid by the company or rating organization examined. In lieu of such examination the Superintendent may, in his discretion, accept a report of examination made by any other insurance supervisory authority;

(b) to make and enforce such reasonable orders, rules, and regulations as may be necessary in making this chapter effective, but such orders, rules, and regulations shall not be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter;

(c) to issue an order, after a full hearing to all parties in interest requiring any group, association, or organization of companies and the members thereof to cease and desist from any unfair or unreasonable practice;

(d) The Superintendent may designate one or more rating organizations or other agencies to assist him in gathering statistical data and in making such compilations thereof as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. Such compilations shall be made available, subject to reasonable rules promulgated by the Superintendent, to companies and rating organizations.

The Superintendent shall have no authority at any hearing to compel the attendance of witnesses and he shall not be required to adhere to formal rules of pleading or evidence. At the request of a party or parties in interest made prior to any hearing, he shall administer oaths to witnesses and shall permit such party or parties, at the cost and expense of one who so requests, to have made a record of the hearing, which record upon request of such party or parties the Superintendent shall certify. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 246, ch. 324, § 8.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1509. Penalties.

Any company, broker, or agent guilty of violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any order, rule, or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, shall be subject to the provisions of sections 35–1306 and 35–1340, respectively. (May 20, 1948, 62 Stat. 247, ch. 324, § 9.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

See note following § 35–1501.

§ 35–1510. Judicial review.

Any person, firm or corporation aggrieved by any order, ruling, proceeding, or action of the Superintendent may contest the validity of such order, ruling, proceeding, or action in any court of competent jurisdiction by appeal or through any other appropriate proceedings, as provided under section 35–1349. § 36–121. Purposes of chapter.

It is the purpose of this chapter to open to young people in the District of Columbia the opportunity to obtain training that will equip them for profitable employment and citizenship; to set up, as a means to this end, a program of voluntary apprenticeship under approved apprenticeship agreements providing facilities for their training and guidance in the arts and crafts of industry and trade, with parallel instruction in related and supplementary education; to promote employment opportunities for young people under conditions providing adequate training and reasonable earnings; to relate the supply of skilled workers to employment demands; to establish standards for apprentice training; to establish an apprenticeship council; to provide for the establishment of local joint trade apprenticeship committees to assist in effectuating the purposes of this chapter; to provide for a director of apprenticeship within the District of Columbia; to provide for reports to the Congress and to the public regarding the status of apprenticeship in the District of Columbia; to establish a procedure for the determination of apprenticeship agreement controversies; and to accomplish related ends. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 204, ch. 267, § 1.)

REPEALS

Sec. 13 of the act of May 21, 1946, cited to text, provided: "Sections 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 20, and 21, chapter 2 of title 15 [§§ 36–103, 36–104, 36–105, 36–107, 36–108, 36–110 and 36–111] of the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia are hereby repealed".

§ 36–122. Apprenticeship council—Membership—Term—Compensation.

Without regard for any other provision of law with respect to the appointment of officers and employees of the United States or the District of Columbia, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall appoint an Apprenticeship Council, composed of three representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively. The Superintendent of Schools in the District of Columbia or, if he shall so designate, his representative in charge of trade and industrial education, and the Director of the District of Columbia Employment Center shall, ex officio, be members of said council, without vote. The terms of office of the members of the Apprenticeship Council first appointed by the Commissioners shall expire as designated by them at the time of making the appointment: One representative each of employers and employees being appointed for one year; one representative each of employers and employees being appointed for two years; and one representative each of employers and employees for three years. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of three years. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term of his predecessor shall be appointed for the remainder of said term. The compensation of each member may be fixed without regard to the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, and each member of the council, not otherwise compensated by public money, shall be paid not more than $10 per day for each day spent in attendance at meetings of the Apprenticeship Council. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 204, ch. 267, § 2.)

§ 36–123. Director of Apprenticeship—Assistance furnished.

The Secretary of Labor shall appoint a Director of Apprenticeship who shall serve without compensation and who shall have no vote. Without regard for the provisions of any other law with respect to the appointment of officers and employees of the United States or the District of Columbia, the Director of Apprenticeship shall be chosen from among the employees of the Apprentice-Training Service actually engaged in formulating and promoting standards of apprenticeship under the provisions of Public Law Numbered 308. The Apprentice-Training Service is further authorized to supply the Director or the council with such clerical, technical, and professional assistance as shall be deemed by said Service to be essential to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 204, ch. 267, § 3.)

§ 36–124. Meetings of Apprenticeship Council—Rules and regulations—Reports.

The Apprenticeship Council shall meet at the call of the Director, or the chairman thereof, and shall aid in formulating policies for the effective administration of this chapter. Subject to the approval of the Secretary of Labor, the Apprenticeship Council shall establish standards for apprenticeship agreements in accordance with those prescribed by this chapter, shall issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of said chapter, and shall perform such other functions as are necessary to carry out the intent of this chapter. Not less than once every two years the Apprenticeship Council shall make a report through the Commissioners of its activities and findings to the Congress and to the public. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 205, ch. 267, § 4.)

The Director, under the supervision of the Secretary of Labor and with the advice and guidance of the Apprenticeship Council, is authorized to administer the provisions of this chapter in cooperation with the Apprenticeship Council and local joint trade apprenticeship committees, to set up conditions and training standards for apprentices, which conditions or standards shall in no case be lower than those prescribed by this chapter; to act as secretary of the Apprenticeship Council and of joint trade apprenticeship committees; to approve, if, in his opinion, approval is for the best interest of the apprentice, any apprentice agreement which meets the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter; to terminate or cancel any apprenticeship agreement in accordance with the provisions of such agreement; and to perform such other duties as are necessary to carry out the intent of this chapter: Provided, That the administration and supervision of related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of the instruction with job experiences, and the selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction shall be the responsibility of the District Board of Education. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 205, ch. 267, § 5.)

Local joint trade apprenticeship committees in any trade or group of trades may be approved by the Apprenticeship Council. Such apprenticeship committees shall be composed of an equal number of employer and employee representatives appointed by the groups or organizations they represent, or the committee may consist of the employer and not less than two representatives from the recognized bargaining agency. In a trade or group of trades in which there is no bona fide employee organization, the Apprenticeship Council may appoint a joint trade apprenticeship committee from persons known to represent the interests of employers and of employees, or the council may act itself as such joint committee. Subject to the review of the council, and in accordance with standards established by or under authority of this chapter, joint trade apprenticeship committees may set up standards to govern the training of apprentices and give such aid as may be necessary in effectuating such standards. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 205, ch. 267, § 6.)

The term "apprentice", as used herein, shall mean a person at least sixteen years of age who has entered into a written agreement, hereinafter called an apprenticeship agreement, with an employer, an association of employers, or an organization of employees, which apprenticeship agreement provides for not less than four thousand hours of reasonably continuous employment for such person and for his participation in an approved program of training through employment and through education in related and supplemental subjects. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 205, ch. 267, § 7.)

§ 36–128. Apprenticeship agreements—Contents.

Every apprenticeship agreement entered into under this Act shall contain—

(1) the names and signatures of the contracting parties, including the apprentice's parent or guardian if he be a minor;

(2) the date of birth of the apprentice;

(3) a statement of the trade, craft, or business which the apprentice is to be taught and the time at which the apprenticeship will begin and end;

(4) a statement showing the number of hours to be spent by the apprentice in work and the number of hours to be spent in related and supplemental instruction, which instruction shall be not less than one hundred and forty-four hours per year;

(5) a statement setting forth a schedule of the processes in the trade or industry divisions in which the apprentice is to be taught and the approximate time to be spent at each process;

(6) a statement of the graduated scale of wages to be paid the apprentice and whether the required school time shall be compensated;

(7) a statement providing for a period of probation during which time the apprenticeship agreement shall be terminated by the Director at the request in writing of either party, and providing that after such probationary period the apprenticeship agreement may be terminated by the Director by mutual agreement of all parties thereto, or canceled by the Director for good and sufficient reasons;

(8) a provision that all controversies or differences concerning the apprenticeship agreement which cannot be adjusted by conference between the apprentice and the employer or under the terms of the apprenticeship standard shall be submitted to the Director for determination as provided for in section 36–129;

(9) a provision that an employer who is unable to fulfill his obligation under the apprenticeship agreement may, with the approval of the Director or under the direction of the joint trade apprenticeship committee, transfer such contract to any other employer: Provided, That the apprentice consents and that such other employer agrees to assume the obligations of said apprenticeship agreement;

(10) such additional terms and conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the council not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 206, ch. 267, § 8.)

§ 36–129. Registration and approval of agreements—Agreements extending into majority of apprentice.

No apprenticeship agreement shall be registered or approved by the Director under the provisions of this chapter unless it conforms with the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter and is in the best interests of the apprentice. Where a minor enters into an agreement for a period of training extending into his majority, and such agreement has been approved by the Director, then such apprenticeship agreement shall, if the parties therein so provide, have the same force and effect during the period covered by the majority of such minor as if such agreement were entered into during the majority of such minor. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 206, ch. 267, § 9.)

(a) Upon the complaint of any interested person or upon his own initiative, the Director may investigate to determine if there has been a violation of the terms of an apprenticeship agreement made under this Act, and he may hold hearings, inquiries, and other proceedings necessary to such investigation and determination. The parties to such an agreement shall be given a fair and impartial hearing after reasonable notice thereof. All such hearings, investigations, and determinations shall be made under authority of reasonable rules and procedures prescribed by the Apprenticeship Council, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Labor.

(b) The determination of the Director shall be filed with the council. If no appeal therefrom is filed with the council within ten days after the date thereof, as herein provided, such determination shall become the order of the council. Any person aggrieved by any determination or action of the Director may appeal therefrom to the council, which shall hold a hearing thereon after due notice to the interested parties. Any person aggrieved or affected by any determination or order of the council may appeal therefrom to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia at any time within thirty days after the date of such order, by service of a written notice of appeal on the Director. Upon service of said notice of appeal, said council, by its secretary, shall forthwith file, with the clerk of said district court to which said appeal is taken, a certified copy of the order appealed from, together with findings of fact on which the same is based. The person serving such notice of appeal shall, within five days after the service thereof, file a copy of the same, with proof of service, with the clerk of the court to which such appeal is taken; and thereupon said district court shall have jurisdiction over said appeal, and the same shall be entered upon the records of said district court and shall be tried therein de novo according to the rules relating to the trial of civil actions, so far as the same are applicable. Any person aggrieved or affected by any determination, order, or decision of the district court may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner as provided by law for the appeal of civil action. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 206, ch. 267, § 10.)

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to any person, firm, corporation, or craft in the District of Columbia which has voluntarily elected to conform with its provisions. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 207, ch. 267, § 11.)

§ 36–132. "Secretary of Labor" defined.

As used or referred to in this chapter the term "the Secretary of Labor" shall mean the administrator of that Department or agency of the United States Government authorized to administer the provisions of Public Law Numbered 308. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 207, ch. 267, § 12.)

§ 36–133. Saving clause.

If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter, and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (May 21, 1946, 60 Stat. 207, ch. 267, § 14.)

Chapter 2.—CHILD LABOR AND WORK PERMITS

Sec.

36–201. Regulation of child labor—Employment of children under fourteen years of age—Distribution of newspapers permitted.
36–202. Employment of children under eighteen years of age—Hours of employment—Notice to be posted in place of employment—List of minors employed.

§ 36–202 [7: 112]. Employment of children under 18 years of age—Hours of employment—Notice to be posted in place of employment—List of minors employed.

No minor under eighteen years of age shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in, about, or in connection with any gainful occupation, except in agricultural work, or housework, or in the distribution or sale of newspapers, as prescribed in section 36–201, and except in newspaper stuffing, subject to the provisions of section 36–217, more than six consecutive days in any one week, or more than forty-eight hours in any one week, or more than eight hours in any one day, nor shall any girl under eighteen years of age or boy under sixteen years of age be so employed, permitted, or suffered to work before the hour of seven o'clock in the morning or after the hour of seven o'clock in the evening of any day, nor shall any boy between sixteen and eighteen years of age be so employed before the hour of six o'clock in the morning or after the hour of ten o'clock in the evening of any day. Every employer shall post and keep conspicuously posted in the establishment, in or about which any minor is employed, permitted, or suffered to work, a printed notice, furnished by the official authorized to enforce this chapter, setting forth the legal regulations governing the employment and hours of work of minors and occupations prohibited to minors in such establishments, and, in addition, shall keep accessible in the place of employment a list of minors under eighteen employed, permitted, or suffered to work, and an accurate time record showing the hours of beginning and ending work each day and the hours when the time allowed for meals begins and ends for said minors. The presence of any such minor in the place of work for a longer time in the day or week than stated in the printed regulation hours shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the provisions of this section. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 999, ch. 908, § 2.)

§ 36–203 [7: 113]. Employment dangerous or prejudicial to life prohibited—Board of Education to prohibit such employment by general or special order.

No minor shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in any place of employment, or at any employment, dangerous or prejudicial to the life, health, safety or welfare of such minor. It shall be the duty of the Board of Education of the District of Columbia, and the said board shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority, after hearing duly held, to issue general or special orders prohibiting the employment of such minors in any employment or at any place of employment dangerous or prejudicial to the life, health, safety, or welfare of such minors: Provided, That no such order shall permit the employment of any minor at any employment specified in sections 36–204 to 36–207 at a lower age than the age therein specified. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 999, ch. 908, § 3.)

§ 36–204 [7: 114]. Employment of minors under 16 years of age prohibited in certain occupations.

No minor under sixteen years of age shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work at any of the following occupations: (1) In the operation of any machinery operated by power other than hand or foot power; or (2) in oiling, wiping, or cleaning machinery or assisting therein. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 999, ch. 908, § 4.)

§ 36–205 [7: 115]. Employment of minors under 18 years of age prohibited in certain occupations—Employment of females under 18 in certain occupations.

No minor under eighteen years of age shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work (1) at operating any freight or passenger elevator, or (2) in any quarry, tunnel, or excavation, or (3) in any tobacco warehouse or cigar or other factory or place where tobacco is manufactured or prepared. No girl under the age of eighteen years shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in any retail cigar or tobacco store, or in any hotel or for any apartment-house, or as an usher, attendant, or ticket seller in any theater or place of amusement, or as a messenger in the distribution or delivery of goods or messages for any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of transmitting or delivering messages. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 999, ch. 908, § 5.)

§ 36–206 [7: 116]. Employment as messenger between ages of 18 and 21 years prohibited during certain hours.

No male between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work as a messenger for any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of transmitting or delivering messages before five o'clock in the morning or after twelve o'clock midnight of any day nor shall any female between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one be so employed before the hour of six o'clock in the morning, or after the hour of seven o'clock in the evening of any day. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1000, ch. 908, § 6.)

§ 36–207 [7: 117]. Employment or exhibition of minor under 16 years of age as performer.

No person having in his custody or control a minor under the age of sixteen years shall employ, exhibit, apprentice, sell, give away, or in any way dispose of such minor with a view to such minor being employed as an acrobat, or a gymnast, or a contortionist, or ropewalker, or in any exhibition of like character, or as a beggar, or street singer, or street musician, or cause or procure such minor to be so engaged. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1000, ch. 908, § 7; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 863, ch. 632, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of Dec. 26, 1941, cited to text, added the word "street" before the word "musician."

Sec. 3, of the Act of Dec. 26, 1941, cited to text, provided: "SEC. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as amending, altering, or repealing the provisions of Section 7 of the Act of May 29, 1928."

§ 36–207a. Work permits for minors between ages of 14 and 18 years authorized for stage appearances—Regulations.

The Board of Education of the District of Columbia, or a duly authorized agent thereof, is authorized to issue a work permit to any minor under eighteen years of age, said permit authorizing and permitting the appearance of such minor on the stage of a duly licensed legitimate or vaudeville theater within the District of Columbia, in any professional traveling theatrical production, or act, or in a musical recital or concert: Provided, That such minor is at least fourteen years of age and has completed eight grades of elementary instruction or a course of study deemed by the Board of Education equivalent thereto: And provided further, That such minor shall not appear on said stage in more than two performances in any one day, nor more than three hours in any one day, nor more than six days in any week, nor more than twelve hours in any week, and shall not appear on said stage after the hour of 11 post-meridian. Application for such permit should be made by the parent or guardian of such minor to the Board of Education of the District of Columbia or a duly authorized agent thereof, at least fourteen days in advance of such appearance. The Board or its agent may issue a permit if satisfied that the parent or guardian of such minor has made adequate provision for the educational instruction of such minor and for safeguarding his health and for the proper supervision of such minor.

The Board is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to protect properly the health, morals, and safety of minors coming within the purview of this chapter. (May 29, 1928, ch. 908, § 7a, as added Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 863, ch. 632, § 2.)

§ 36–208 [7: 118]. Work or vacation permit—To be procured by employer.

No minor between fourteen and eighteen years of age shall be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in, about, or in connection with any gainful occupation, except in agricultural work or housework as specified in section 36–201, unless his employer procures and keeps on file and accessible to any attendance officer, inspector, or other person authorized to enforce this chapter a work or vacation permit issued as hereinafter prescribed, except that children between fourteen and eighteen years of age may be employed without a permit outside of school hours in irregular or casual work usual to the home of the employer: Provided, That such employment shall not be in connection with nor form a part of the business, trade, profession, or occupation of the employer: And provided further, That such employment shall not be specifically prohibited by any provision of this chapter or by any order issued under the authority of section 36–203. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1000, ch. 908, § 8.)

The work or vacation permit required by this chapter shall be issued only by the director of the department of school attendance and work permits created under the board of education according to the provisions of sections 31–211 to 31–213, or by any person duly authorized by said director, and shall state the name, sex, color, date, and place of birth, and place of residence of the minor, the grade last completed by said minor, and the kind of evidence of age accepted, and such other details as may be necessary for the identification of the minor. It shall certify that all the requirements for issuing a work or vacation permit under the provisions of this chapter have been fulfilled and shall be signed by the person issuing it. It shall state the name and address of the employer for whom and the nature of the specific occupation in which the work permit authorizes the minor to be employed, and no permit shall be valid except for the employer so named and for the occupation so designated. It shall bear a number, shall show the date of its issue, and shall be signed by the minor for whom it is issued in the presence of the person issuing it, and shall be mailed to the employer by the issuing officer, and in no case given to the minor. A record giving in full for each applicant the facts with reference to his sex, color, date, and place of birth, name and address of parent, guardian, or custodian, name and address of employer, and nature of the specific occupation in which the minor is to be employed, grade and school last attended, evidence of age, and date of issuance or date of refusal of certificate, with reason, shall be kept in the department of school attendance and work permits, together with the physician's certificate of physical fitness, the school record, and the employer's statement of intention to employ the child. Lists shall be sent weekly to each school during the school term giving the names and addresses of all children from that school to whom permits have been issued or refused. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1000, ch. 908, § 9.)

The officer authorized in section 36–209 to issue work or vacation permits shall issue such permits only upon the application in person of the minor desiring employment, accompanied, if said minor is under sixteen years of age, by his parent, guardian, or custodian, and after having received, examined, and approved and filed the following papers, namely:

(a) A statement signed by the prospective employer or by some one duly authorized on his behalf, stating that he expects to give such minor present employment, setting forth the specific nature of the occupation in which he intends to employ such minor, and the number of hours per day and of days per week which said minor shall be employed, and agreeing to send the notice of the commencement of employment, and to return the permit according to the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Evidence of age as provided in section 36–211, showing that the minor is at least fourteen years of age.

(c) A certificate of physical fitness, if such minor is under sixteen years of age; otherwise no such certificate of physical fitness shall be required. Such certificate of physical fitness shall be signed by a medical inspector of the public schools of the District of Columbia, assigned by the Board of Health for such purpose. It shall show the height and weight of the minor and shall state that the said minor has been thoroughly examined by the said physician at the time of his application for a permit, has attained the normal development of a minor of his age and is in sound health, and is physically qualified for the employment specified in the statement submitted in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.

(d) A school record, if such minor is under sixteen years of age; otherwise no such record shall be required. Such school record shall be filled out and signed by the teacher of the class last attended by the minor and countersigned by the principal of the school, public, private, or parochial, which the minor has last attended or by some one duly authorized by him: Provided, That the signature of the teacher shall not be required in the case of a school record filled out during the summer vacation period of the public schools. It shall certify that the said minor is able to read and write correctly sentences in the English language, has satisfactorily completed the eighth grade of the elementary school course prescribed for the public schools in the District of Columbia, or has regularly received in a private or parochial school instruction deemed equivalent by the Board of Education to that prescribed for the completion of the eighth grade in the public schools. Such school record shall give also the full name, date of birth, grade last completed, and residence of the minor as shown on the records of the school. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1001, ch. 908, § 10.)

The evidence of age required by this chapter shall consist of one of the following proofs of age, which shall be required in the order herein designated:

(a) A birth certificate or attested transcript issued by a registrar of vital statistics or other officer charged with the duty of recording births.

(b) A baptismal record or duly certified transcript thereof showing the date of birth and place of baptism of the minor.

(c) A bona fide contemporary record of the date and place of the child's birth kept in the Bible in which the records of the births in the family of the child are preserved, or other documentary evidence satisfactory to the director of the department of school attendance and work permits, such as a passport showing the age of the child, a certificate of arrival in the United States issued by the United States immigration officers and showing the age of the child, or a life-insurance policy: Provided, That such other satisfactory documentary evidence has been in existence at least one year prior to the time it is offered in evidence: And provided further, That a school record or a parent's, guardian's, or custodian's affidavit, certificate, or other written statement of age shall not be accepted except as specified in paragraph (d).

(d) A certificate of physical age, signed by a medical inspector of the public schools assigned by the Board of Health for such purposes and based upon a physical examination, which shall state the height and weight of such minor and other evidence upon which the opinion as to the age of such minor is founded. A parent's, guardian's, or custodian's affidavit of age, and a record of the age as given in the register of the school first attended by the minor, if obtainable, or in the earliest available school census, shall accompany the physician's certificate of age. And no work or vacation permit shall be issued if any of the above possible sources shows the minor to be under the age of fourteen.

The proof of age specified in subdivision (a) shall be accepted in preference to that specified in any subsequent subdivision, and no proof of age permitted by any subsequent subdivision shall be accepted unless there be received and filed substantial evidence that the proof required by the preceding subdivisions can not be obtained. Should such preferred proof of age be later procured, or if subsequent proof of age shall be procured and shall conclusively establish the falsity of the proof previously accepted, the director of the department of school attendance and work permits shall cancel the permit and issue or refuse a new one according to the age thus established. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1001, ch. 908, § 11.)

The director of the department of school attendance and work permits, or any person duly authorized by him, shall have authority to issue a vacation permit to a minor between the age of fourteen and sixteen years, permitting employment during the regular summer vacation period of the public schools, or during the school term at such time as the public schools are not in session, if the age of such minor has been proved according to section 36–211, and such minor has in all other respects, except as to completion of the eighth grade, fulfilled the requirements for a work permit specified in sections 36–201 to 36–227. These permits shall be different in color from the work permit allowing employment while school is in session and shall state the periods during which its use is valid. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1002, ch. 908, § 12.)

§ 36–213 [7: 123]. Employer to notify department at commencement and termination of employment of minor—Issuance of new certificates.

Every employer receiving a work or vacation permit shall notify the department in writing within three days of the time of the commencement of the employment of such minor, and within three days after termination of the employment shall return said permit to the department. Failure to so notify shall be cause for the cancellation of the permit; and failure to so return it shall be cause for the refusal of further permits upon the application of such employer. Returned permits shall be filed and the proper school authorities notified. A new certificate shall not be issued to any minor except upon presentation of a new promise of employment and a new certificate of physical fitness. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1002, ch. 908, § 13.)

§ 36–214 [7: 124]. Employer to furnish, on demand, proof of age of employee.

Whenever any person authorized to enforce this chapter shall have reason to doubt that any minor employed in any occupation for which a permit is required by this chapter, and for whom a work permit or vacation permit is not on file, has reached the age of eighteen years, such person may make demand on such minor's employer that such employer shall either furnish him within ten days the evidence required for a work permit showing that the minor is in fact eighteen years of age, or shall refuse to employ or permit or suffer such child to work. In case such evidence is not furnished to such person within ten days after such demand, the employer shall not thereafter continue to employ such minor or permit or suffer such minor to work in such establishment. Proof of the making of such demand and of failure to deliver such proof of age shall be prima facie evidence, in any prosecution brought for violation of this chapter, that such minor is under eighteen years of age and is unlawfully employed. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1002, ch. 908, § 14.)

Whoever employs or permits or suffers any minor to be employed or to work in violation of any of the provisions of sections 36–201 to 36–214, or of any order issued under the provisions of section 36–203, or interferes with, obstructs, or hinders the department enforcing the child labor law, its officers or agents, or any other person authorized to inspect places of employment under this chapter and whoever, having under his control or custody any minor, permits or suffers him to be employed or to work in violation of any of the provisions of sections 36–201 to 36–214, shall for a first offense be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or in the discretion of the court by both such fine and imprisonment, and for any subsequent offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200, or by imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or in the discretion of the court by both such fine and imprisonment. Every day during which any violation of this chapter continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1003, ch. 908, § 15.)

§ 36–216 [7: 126]. Director of department of school attendance and work permits to enforce law—Inspection of places in which minors are employed.

It shall be the duty of the director of the department of school attendance and work permits organized under the Board of Education of the District of Columbia and of the authorized inspectors and agents of said department to cause all the provisions of this chapter to be enforced, to make complaints against persons violating its provisions, and to prosecute violations of the same. The director of the said department, its inspectors, and agents are empowered and instructed to visit and inspect at any time, and as often as shall be necessary in order effectively to enforce the provisions of this chapter, all places where minors are employed, and shall have authority to enter any place or establishment covered by the terms of this chapter, and to have access to work or vacation permits kept on file by the employer and such other records as may aid in the enforcement of this chapter. All persons authorized to issue certificates of physical fitness and all attendance officers and probation officers are likewise empowered to visit and inspect at all reasonable hours all places where minors may be employed. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1003, ch. 908, § 16.)

§ 36–217 [7: 127]. Limitations on employment in stuffing of newspapers—Sale of newspapers in streets—Distribution of papers on fixed routes.

No boy under sixteen years of age shall be employed in the stuffing of newspapers, nor shall the work of any boy between the ages of sixteen and eighteen so employed exceed forty hours in any one week, nor shall he be employed on more than one night in any one week. No boy under twelve years of age and no girl under eighteen years of age shall distribute, sell, expose, or offer for sale any newspapers, magazines, periodicals, or any other articles or merchandise of any description, or distribute handbills or circulars, in any street or public place, or exercise the trade of bootblack or any other trade, in any street or public place: Provided, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to boys ten years of age and over engaged in the distribution of newspapers, magazines, or periodicals on fixed routes. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1003, ch. 908, § 17.)

§ 36–218 [7: 128]. Hours of employment—Work permit to be secured.

No boy under sixteen years of age shall work or shall be employed or permitted or suffered to work at any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 36–217, in any street or public place after the hour of seven postmeridian or before the hour of six antemeridian, or, unless holding a work permit issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, during the hours when the public schools are in session. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1003, ch. 908, § 18.)

§ 36–219 [7: 129]. Badge to be obtained.

No boy under sixteen years of age shall work at any time, or be employed or permitted or suffered to work at any time, in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 36–217, unless he shall have procured and shall carry on his person in plain sight while so working a badge as hereinafter provided, issued by the director of the department of school attendance and work permits, or some person duly authorized by him, and unless he complies with all the legal requirements concerning school attendance. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1004, ch. 908, § 19.)

The officer authorized by this chapter to issue street-trades badges shall issue such a badge only upon application of the minor desiring it, accompanied by the parent, guardian, or custodian of such minor, and after having received, examined, approved, and filed the following papers: (1) Evidence that the minor is of the age required by section 36–217, which shall consist of the same evidence as is required for a work permit under this chapter; (2) evidence of physical fitness, which shall consist of a certificate of physical fitness issued as required for a work permit under this chapter; (3) a statement signed by the principal of the school and the teacher of the class which the minor is attending, stating that such minor is regularly enrolled in school and showing the grade such minor has attained, and certifying that in their opinion the minor is physically and mentally qualified to undertake the work contemplated without retarding his progress in school: Provided, That a work permit issued as required by this chapter may be accepted by the issuing officer in lieu of any other requirements for said badge. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1004, ch. 908, § 20.)

§ 36–221 [7: 131]. Information to be contained on—Record to be kept—Badges not transferable—Principal of schools to keep list—Revocation if detrimental to minor—Badges to expire annually.

Such badge shall bear a number, and every such badge on its reverse side shall be signed in the presence of the officer issuing the same by the minor in whose name it is issued and shall contain the minor's address and date of birth and such other information as the officer issuing the same shall deem necessary. A complete record of badges issued and refused, and of the facts relating thereto, including the name and address of the parent, guardian, or custodian, the height and weight of the minor, the day, year, and month of birth of the minor, the date of issuance and kind of evidence of age accepted, and school grade and name of school attended, shall be kept in the office of the director of the department of school attendance and work permits. No minor to whom such badge is issued shall give, lend, sell, or otherwise transfer it to any other person, or be engaged in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in this section without having conspicuously on his person such badge, and he shall exhibit the same upon demand to any police or attendance officer, or to any person charged with the duty of enforcing this chapter. Lists shall be sent weekly to each school during the school term, giving the names and addresses of all minors to whom street trades badges have been issued and refused. The principal of each school shall keep a complete list of all minors in his school to whom badges, as herein required, have been issued, and whenever in the opinion of said principal the possession of any such permit and badge is detrimental to the school standing or well-being of any such minor, shall recommend to the officer issuing the same that the badge of such minor be revoked. All such badges shall expire annually on the 1st day of January. The color of the badge shall be changed each calendar year. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1004, ch. 908, § 21.)

§ 36–222 [7: 132]. Penalties for violations of sections 36–217 to 36–224—Commitments to Board of Public Welfare—Probationary supervision—Revocation of badge.

Any minor who shall engage in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 36–217, in violation of any of the provisions of sections 36–217 to 36–224 of this chapter, shall for the first offense be warned by the director of the department of school attendance and work permits and the parent, guardian, or custodian of such minor shall be notified. For any subsequent violation, while under the care of said parent, guardian, or custodian, and with his or her knowledge or consent, said minor may, in the discretion of the court, be deemed to be lacking in proper parental care and guardianship, and may on petition filed for that purpose, and in the discretion of the court, be committed to the Board of Public Welfare of the District of Columbia until twenty-one years of age or for a shorter period as the court may see fit, the said Board of Public Welfare being hereby expressly authorized and required to receive minors so committed. The court may, instead of immediate commitment, suspend the imposition or execution of judgment of commitment, or may, after partial hearing and instead of proceeding to judgment, suspend further proceedings without judgment, with the consent of the parent, guardian, or custodian of said minor, and in either event may assign a probation officer of the juvenile court to exercise probationary supervision over said minor, said probationary supervision to continue in force and the said minor to remain under the jurisdiction and control of the court as a ward of the court until said minor attains the age of seventeen years, or unless sooner discharged by order of the court or committed to said Board of Public Welfare, the court hereby being given power to withdraw said case from said probationary supervision at any time during said probation period, and after a hearing may commit said minor at once to the said board if, in the opinion of the court, the best interests and welfare of said minor shall so require. Upon the recommendation of the principal or chief executive officer of the school which such minor is attending or upon the complaint of any school attendance officer, or any officer authorized to enforce this chapter, the badge of any minor who violates any provision of this chapter, or who becomes delinquent, or who fails to comply with all the legal requirements concerning school attendance, may be revoked by the director of the department of school attendance and work permits for such period as the said officer may require; and upon revocation said officer shall so notify the parent, guardian, or custodian having such minor in charge, and it shall thereupon become the duty of said parent, guardian, or custodian to surrender or require said minor to surrender said badge to the said officer. After notice to such minor and his parent, guardian, or custodian of revocation of such badge, he shall be deemed to be in the same status as a minor without a badge. The refusal of any such minor to surrender his badge upon such revocation shall be deemed a violation of this chapter. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1004, ch. 908, § 22.)

Any person who either for himself or as agent of any other person, or of any firm, corporation, or company, furnishes or sells or offers for sale to any minor under sixteen any article of any description to be used for the purpose of sale or distribution in any public place, shall first ascertain that said minor wears his own badge in plain sight as herein provided, and if said minor has no badge, no article shall be furnished or sold to him. Any person who fails to comply with the foregoing provision, or who furnishes or sells or offers for sale to any minor any article of any description, with the knowledge that he intends to sell or distribute such article in violation of any provision of this chapter, or after having received written notice from any officer charged with the enforcement of this chapter, that such minor is selling such article in violation of any provision of said chapter, or any person who procures any minor to violate any provision of this chapter, shall for a first offense be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and for any subsequent offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200, or by imprisonment for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Whoever, having under his control or custody any minor, permits or consents to the violation by such minor of any of the provisions of sections 36–217 to 36–223, shall for a first offense be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment of not less than five nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and for any subsequent offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1005, ch. 908, § 23.)

No boy under the age of sixteen years required by law to attend school shall be permitted by any newspaper publisher or printer or person having for sale newspapers or periodicals of any character, to loiter or remain around any salesroom, assembly room, circulation room, or office for the sale of newspapers, between the hours of the opening of school in the forenoon and the close of school in the afternoon, on days when school is in session. Any newspaper publisher, printer, circulation agent, or seller of newspapers shall, upon conviction of permitting newsboys to loiter or remain around any assembly room, circulation room, salesroom, or office where papers are distributed or sold during such hours, be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than ten days or more than thirty days. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1006, ch. 908, § 24.)

The Board of Education of the District of Columbia is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to appoint such a number of inspectors, clerks, and other assistants as shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That at least two inspectors shall be so appointed. Such appointments shall be made from a list of applicants obtained from open competitive examinations conducted by the Boards of Examiners of the Board of Education designed to test the fitness of the applicant for the duties to be performed. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1006, ch. 908, § 25.)

§ 36–226 [7: 136]. Invalidity of portion of law not to affect remainder.

If any provision of this chapter or the application of such provision to certain circumstances be held invalid, the remainder of this chapter and the application of such provision to circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1006, ch. 908, § 28.)

§ 36–227 [7: 137]. Board of Education to supervise and have appellate jurisdiction over agents and employees.

The Board of Education shall exercise general supervision and appellate jurisdiction over the agents and employees of said board engaged in the execution of this chapter. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1006, ch. 908, § 29.)

36–301. Employment of females—Period of employment.
36–302. Hours of employment.
36–303. Hours of continuous labor restricted.
36–304. Notice to be posted—Allowance for meals.
36–305. Time book to be kept.
36–306. Inspectors—Appointment.
36–307. Inspectors authorized to enter buildings.
36–308. Inspectors to enforce law—Reports.
36–309. Penalties.
36–310. Employers to furnish seats for female employees.
36–311. Penalty.

§ 36–301 [19: 21]. Employment of females—Period of employment.

No female shall be employed in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, or restaurant, or telegraph or telephone establishment or office, or by any express or transportation company in the District of Columbia more than eight hours in any one day or more than six days or more than forty-eight hours in any one week: Provided, That the Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board of the District of Columbia, during the period ending June 30, 1946, or such earlier date as the Congress by concurrent resolution may determine, may issue to employers engaged in businesses or occupations specified in this section, upon satisfactory showing to the said Board that such action is essential to the war effort, a temporary permit, for such period of time and in such form as it may deem advisable, to employ females for more than eight hours in any one day, or more than forty-eight hours, but not to exceed fifty-four hours, in any one week: Provided further, That in cases where said Board has issued permits under this section the employer shall pay employees working under such permits an additional sum at the rate of time and one-half for the time they are employed in excess of the limitations under existing law. A true and correct copy of all permits issued pursuant to the authority granted herein shall be displayed by the employer in a prominent place, and in such case the employer shall not be required to post the notice required in section 36–304. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 1; June 1, 1943, 57 Stat. 93, ch. 109; Apr. 27, 1945, 59 Stat. 95, ch. 97).

AMENDMENTS

The act of April 27, 1945, cited to text, amended section by substituting "June 30, 1946" for "June 30, 1945" in first proviso.

The act of June 1, 1943, cited to text, amended section by adding both provisos and final sentence and also provided for the termination of said amendment of June 30, 1945.

§ 36–302 [19: 22]. Hours of employment.

No female under eighteen years of age shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any of the establishments or occupations named in section 36–301 before the hour of seven o'clock in the morning or after the hour of six o'clock in the evening of any one day. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EMPLOYEES OF GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

This act is not applicable to female employees in Government Printing Office (33 O. A. G. 355).

§ 36–303 [19: 23]. Hours of continuous labor restricted.

No female shall be employed or permitted to work for more than six hours continuously at one time in any establishment or occupation named in section 36–301 in which three or more such females are employed without an interval of at least three-quarters of an hour; except that such female may be so employed for not more than six and one-half hours continuously at one time if such employment ends not later than half past one o'clock in the afternoon and if she is then dismissed for the remainder of the day. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 3.)

Every employer shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in every room in any establishment or occupation named in section 36–301 in which any females are employed a printed notice stating the number of hours such females are required or permitted to work on each day of the week, the hours of beginning and stopping such work, and the hours of beginning and ending the recess allowed for meals. The printed form of such notice shall be furnished by the inspectors authorized by sections 36–301 to 30–309. The employment of any such female for a longer time in any day than that stated in the printed notice shall be deemed a violation of the provisions of this section. Where the nature of the business makes it impracticable to fix the recess allowed for meals at the same time for all females employed, the inspectors authorized to enforce sections 36–301 to 36–309 may issue a permit dispensing with the posting of the hours when the recess allowed for meals begins and ends, and requiring only the posting of the total number of hours which the females are required or permitted to work on each day of the week and the hours of beginning and stopping such work. Such permit shall be kept by such employer upon such premises and exhibited to all inspectors authorized to enforce sections 36–301 to 36–309. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 4.)

CROSS REFERENCES

Employees engaged in war work, posting of hours not required, see § 36–301.

§ 36–305 [19: 25]. Time book to be kept.

Every employer shall keep a time book or record for every female employed in any establishment or occupation named in section 36–301, stating the wages paid, the number of hours worked by her on each day of the week, the hours of beginning and stopping such work, and the hours of beginning and ending the recess allowed for meals. Such time book or record shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the officials authorized to enforce sections 36–301 to 36–309. Any employer who fails to keep such record as required by this section, or makes any false statement therein, or refuses to exhibit such time book or record, or makes any false statement to an official authorized to enforce sections 36–301 to 36–309 in reply to any question put in carrying out the provisions of sections 36–301 to 36–309 shall be liable for a violation thereof. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 5.)

§ 36–306 [19: 26]. Inspectors—Appointment.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to appoint three inspectors, two of whom shall be women, to carry out the purposes of sections 36–301 to 36–309. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 6.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

As enacted this section carried the words "at a compensation not exceeding $1,200 each per annum." The salary is now governed by the Classification Act of 1923 (42 Stat. 1488; U. S. C., title 5, § 673).

§ 36–307 [19: 27]. Inspectors authorized to enter buildings.

The inspectors authorized by sections 36–301 to 36–309 may in the discharge of their duties enter any place, building, or room where any labor is being performed by females which is affected by the provisions of sections 36–301 to 36–309 whenever such inspectors may have reasonable cause to believe that any such labor is being performed therein. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 291, ch. 28, § 7.)

§ 36–308 [19: 28]. Inspectors to enforce law—Reports.

The inspectors authorized by sections 36–301 to 36–309 shall visit and inspect the establishments and places of employment named in section 36–301 as often as practicable, during reasonable hours, and shall cause the provisions of sections 36–301 to 36–309 to be enforced therein and also the provisions of sections 36–310, 36–311. They shall make a daily report to the commissioners of the District of Columbia, and also report any cases of illegal employment contrary to the provisions of sections 36–301 to 36–309 to the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 292, ch. 28, § 8.)

§ 36–309 [19: 29]. Penalties.

Any person who violates or does not comply with any of the provisions of sections 36–301 to 36–309 shall upon conviction be punished for a first offense by a fine of not less than $20 nor more than $50; for a second offense, by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200; for a third offense, by a fine of not less than $250. (Feb. 24, 1914, 38 Stat. 292, ch. 28, § 9.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

In prosecution against employer for working employees in violation of this chapter, oral testimony of inspection for Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board as to contents of payroll record prepared by employer was inadmissible, where payroll record was the best and only source of knowledge of the violations charged, record was kept pursuant to § 36–305 and was quasi-public in character and open to government inspection and so could have been used by government without violating constitutional prohibition against self-incrimination, and the records were actually in court and immediately accessible to the prosecution. Anderson v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 710).

In prosecution against employer for failure to keep proper time records of hours worked by employees in violation of § 36–305, testimony of inspector for Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board, based on owner's admission and not on inspection by witness, as to total absence of such records, was admissible without regard to the parole evidence rule. Anderson v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 710).

IMPRISONMENT

A defendant convicted for violation of § 36–305 could be sentenced to prison in event of default in payment of fines, notwithstanding that this section provided for fines only, in view of § 11–606 authorizing commitment of defendant in default of payment of fine imposed. Anderson v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 710).

INSPECTORS' FAILURE TO REPORT

The failure of inspector who inspected records of employer, to make daily reports to Commissioners of District of Columbia as required by § 36–308, did not preclude prosecution of employer for working employees in violation of this chapter and for failure to keep the time records of hours worked by employees as required by § 36–305. Anderson v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 710).

§ 36–310 [19: 30]. Employers to furnish seats for female employees.

All persons who employ females in stores, shops, offices, or manufactories as clerks, assistants, operatives, or helpers in any business, trade, or occupation carried on or operated by them in the District of Columbia, shall be required to procure and provide proper and suitable seats for all such females and shall permit the use of such seats, rests, or stools, as may be necessary, and shall not make any rules, regulations, or orders preventing the use of such stools or seats when any such female employees are not actively employed in their work in such business or employment. (Mar. 2, 1895, 28 Stat. 964, ch. 192, § 1.)

If any employer of female help in the District of Columbia, shall neglect or refuse to provide seats, as provided in sections 36–310 and 36–311, or shall make any rules, orders, or regulations in his shop, store, or other place of business, requiring females to remain standing when not necessarily employed in service or labor therein, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be liable to a fine therefor in a sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars, with costs, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 2, 1895, 28 Stat. 964, ch. 192, § 2.)

SUBCHAPTER I.—MINIMUM WAGES

§ 36–401 [19: 211]. Definitions.

Where used in this subchapter—

The term "Board" means the Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board created by section 36–402;

The term "commissioners" means the commissioners of the District of Columbia;

The term "woman" includes only a woman of eighteen years of age or over;

The term "minor" means a person of either sex under the age of eighteen years;

The term "occupation" includes a business, industry, trade, or branch thereof, but shall not include domestic service. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 960, ch. 174, title I, § 1; Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This statute was held unconstitutional in the case of Atkins v. Children's Hosp. (261 U. S. 525, 67 L. Ed. 785, 43 Sup. Ct. 394, 24 A. L. R. 1238). In 1936 this case was overruled and a law of similar import, enacted by the State of Washington, was declared constitutional, the case of Morehead v. New York ex rel. Tipaldo (298 U. S. 587, 80 L. Ed. 1347, 56 Sup. Ct. 918, 103 A. L. R. 1445), being distinguished. West Coast Hotel Co. v. Parrish (300 U. S. 379, 81 L. Ed. 703, 57 Sup. Ct. 578, 108 A. L. R. 1330).

On the theory that the last-mentioned case revitalized the District of Columbia Minimum Wage Law, it is incorporated in this Code.

AMENDMENTS

The act of Oct. 14, 1941, cited to text, amended section by changing name "Minimum Wage Board" to "Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board".

STATUTORY REFERENCE

Federal Wage and Hour Law, U. S. C., title 29, §§ 201–219.

§ 36–402 [19: 212]. Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board—Members—Quorum.

There is hereby created a board to be known as the "Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board," to be composed of three members to be appointed by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. As far as practicable, the members shall be so chosen that one will be representative of employees, one representative of employers, and one representing the public.

The commissioners shall make their first appointments hereunder within thirty days after this subchapter takes effect, and shall designate one of the three members first appointed to hold office until January 1, 1919; one to hold office until January 1, 1920; and one to hold office until January 1, 1921. On or before the first day of January of each year, beginning with the year 1919, the commissioners shall appoint a member to succeed the member whose term expires on such first day of January, and such new appointee shall hold office for the term of three years from such first day of January. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified; and any vacancy that may occur in the membership of the board shall be filled by appointment by the commissioners for the unexpired portion of the term.

A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and the act or decision of such a majority shall be deemed the act or decision of the board; and no vacancy shall impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the board. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 961, ch. 174, title I, § 2; Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of Oct. 14, 1941, cited to text, amended section by changing name "Minimum Wage Board" to "Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board".

§ 36–403 [19: 213]. Officers—Compensation.

The first members appointed shall, within twenty days after their appointment, meet and organize the board by electing one of their number as chairman and by choosing a secretary, who shall not be a member of the board; and on or before the 10th day of January of each year thereafter the board shall elect a chairman and choose a secretary for the ensuing year. The chairman and the secretary shall each hold office until his successor is elected or chosen; but the board may at any time remove the secretary. The secretary shall perform such duties as may be prescribed. The compensation of the secretary and all other employees of the board shall be fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., title 5, ch. 13). None of the members shall receive any salary as such. The board shall have power to employ agents and such other assistants as may be necessary for the proper performance of its duties: Provided, That until further authorization by Congress, the sum which it may expend, including the salary of the secretary, shall not exceed the sum of $5,000. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 961, ch. 174, title I, § 3; June 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 758, ch. 474.)

AMENDMENT

Act of 1938 amended act of 1918 by striking out the words "and receive such salary, not in excess of $2,500 per annum, as may be fixed by the Board," and inserting in lieu thereof "the compensation of the Secretary and all other employees of the Board shall be fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONALITY

A statute which authorizes a commission, after hearing representatives of employers and employees together with disinterested persons representing the public, to establish such minimum standards of wages and conditions of labor for women and minors as it shall consider reasonable and not detrimental to health and morals and which shall be sufficient for the decent maintenance of women; and to grant special licenses for the employment of apprentices and women who are physically defective or crippled by age or otherwise at less than the prescribed minimum wage is not unconstitutional. West Coast Hotel Co. v. Parrish (300 U. S. 379, 81 L. Ed. 703, 57 Sup. Ct. 578, 108 A. L. R. 1330).

§ 36–404 [19: 214]. Authority to take testimony—Subpœnas.

At any public hearing held by the board any person interested in the matter being investigated may appear and testify. Any member of the board shall have power to administer oaths and the board may require by subpœna the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of all books, registers and other evidence relative to any matters under investigation, at any such public hearing or at any session of any conference held as hereinafter provided. In case of disobedience to a subpœna the board may invoke the aid of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpœna the court may issue an order requiring appearance before the board, the production of documentary evidence, and the giving of evidence touching the matter in question, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 961, ch. 174, title I, § 4.)

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to make rules and regulations for the carrying into effect of this subchapter, including rules and regulations for the selection of members of the conferences hereinafter provided for and the mode of procedure thereof. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 962, ch. 174, title I, § 5.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Rules and regulations generally, § 1–226 and notes.

§ 36–406 [19: 216]. Annual report.

The board shall, on or before the 1st day of January of the year 1919, and of each year thereafter, make a report to the commissioners of its work and the proceedings under this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 962, ch. 174, title I, § 6.)

§ 7 of the act of 1918 provided an appropriation of $5,000 for the year 1919.

§ 36–407 [19: 218]. Authority concerning wages of women and minors.

The board shall have full power and authority: (1) To investigate and ascertain the wages of women and minors in the different occupations in which they are employed in the District of Columbia; (2) to examine, through any member or authorized representative, any book, pay roll or other record of any employer of women or minors that in any way appertains to or has a bearing upon the question of wages of any such women or minors; and (3) to require from such employer full and true statements of the wages paid to all women and minors in his employment.

Every employer shall keep a register of the names of the women and minors employed by him in any occupation in the District of Columbia, of the hours worked by each, and of all payments made to each, whether paid by the time or by the piece; and shall, on request, permit any member or authorized representative of the Board to examine such register.

To assist the Board in carrying out this chapter the Commissioners shall at all times give it any information or statistics in their possession under sections 36–301 to 36–309. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 962, ch. 174, title I, § 8.)

Other provisions concerning employment of minors, title 31, ch. 2, and chs. 1, 2 of this title.

Other provisions regulating employment of women, § 36–301 et seq.

Wages of employees employed on governmental projects, § 1–815.

§ 36–408 [19: 219]. Standards of wages to be declared.

The Board is hereby authorized and empowered to ascertain and declare, in the manner hereinafter provided, the following things: (a) Standards of minimum wages for women in any occupation within the District of Columbia, and what wages are inadequate to supply the necessary cost of living to any such women workers to maintain them in good health and to protect their morals; and (b) standards of minimum wages for minors in any occupation within the District of Columbia, and what wages are unreasonably low for any such minor workers. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 962, ch. 174, title I, § 9.)

If, after investigation, the Board is of opinion that any substantial number of women workers in any occupation are receiving wages inadequate to supply them with the necessary cost of living and maintain them in health and protect their morals, it may call and convene a conference for the purpose and with the powers of considering and inquiring into and reporting on the subject investigated by the Board and submitted by it to such conference. The conference shall be composed of not more than three representatives of the employers in such occupation, of an equal number of representatives of the employees in such occupation, of not more than three disinterested persons representing the public, and of one or more members of the Board. The Board shall name and appoint all the members of the conference and designate the chairman thereof. Two-thirds of the members of the conference shall constitute a quorum, and the decision or recommendation or report of the conference on any subject submitted shall require a vote of not less than a majority of all its members.

The Board shall present to the conference all the information and evidence in its possession or control relating to the subject of the inquiry by the conference, and shall cause to be brought before the conference any witnesses whose testimony the Board deems material. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 962, ch. 174, title I, § 10.)

After completing its consideration of and inquiry into the subject submitted to it by the Board, the conference shall make and transmit to the Board a report containing its findings and recommendations on such subject, including recommendations as to standards of minimum wages for women workers in the occupation under inquiry and as to what wages are inadequate to supply the necessary cost of living to women workers in such occupation and to maintain them in health and to protect their morals.

In its recommendations on a question of wages the conference (1) shall, where it appears that any substantial number of women workers in the occupation under inquiry are being paid by piece rates as distinguished from time rate, recommend minimum piece rates as well as minimum time rate and recommend such minimum piece rates as will, in its judgment, be adequate to supply the necessary cost of living to women workers in such occupation of average ordinary ability and to maintain them in health and protect their morals; and (2) shall, when it appears proper or necessary, recommend suitable minimum wages for learners and apprentices in such occupation and the maximum length of time any woman worker may be kept at such wages as a learner or apprentice, which wages shall be less than the regular minimum wages recommended for the regular women workers in such occupation. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 963, ch. 174, title I, § 11.)

Upon receipt of any report from any conference, the Board shall consider and review the recommendations, and may approve or disapprove any or all of such recommendations, and may resubmit to the same conference, or a new conference, any subject covered by any recommendations so disapproved.

If the Board approves any recommendations contained in any report from any conference, it shall publish a notice, once a week, for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation printed in the District of Columbia, that it will, on a date and at a place named in the notice, hold a public hearing at which all persons in favor of or opposed to such recommendations will be heard.

After such hearing the Board may, in its discretion, make and render such an order as may be proper or necessary to adopt such recommendations and carry them into effect, requiring all employers in the occupation affected thereby to observe and comply with such order. Such order shall become effective sixty days after it is made. After such order becomes effective, and while it is effective, it shall be unlawful for any employer to violate or disregard any of its terms or provisions, or to employ any woman worker in any occupation covered by such order at lower wages than are authorized or permitted therein.

The Board shall, as far as is practicable, mail a copy of such order to every employer affected thereby; and every employer affected by any such order shall keep a copy thereof posted in a conspicuous place in each room in his establishment in which women workers are employed. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 963, ch. 174, title I, § 12.)

§ 36–412 [19: 223]. Licenses for less than time-rate standard.

For any occupation in which only a minimum time-rate wage has been established, the board may issue to a woman whose earning capacity has been impaired by age or otherwise, a special license authorizing her employment at such wage less than such minimum time-rate wage as shall be fixed by the Board and stated in the license. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 963, ch. 174, title I, § 13.)

§ 36–413 [19: 224]. Determination of minimum wages for minors.

The board may at any time inquire into wages of minors employed in any occupation in the District of Columbia, and determine suitable wages for them. When the board has made such determination it may make such an order as may be proper or necessary to carry such determination into effect. Such order shall become effective sixty days after it is made; and after such order becomes effective and while it is effective it shall be unlawful for any employer in such occupation to employ a minor at less wages than are specified or required in or by such order. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 963, ch. 174, title I, § 14.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 36–407.

§ 36–414 [19: 225]. Separate inquiries.

Any conference may make a separate inquiry into and report on any branch of any occupation, and the board may make a separate order affecting any branch of any occupation. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 15.)

§ 36–415 [19: 226]. Investigations.

The board shall from time to time investigate and ascertain whether or not employers in the District of Columbia are observing and complying with its orders, and shall report to the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia all violations of this chapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 16.)

§ 36–416 [19: 227]. Decisions of fact by board final—Appeals on questions of law.

All questions of fact arising under the foregoing provisions of this subchapter shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be determined by the board, and there shall be no appeal from the decision of the board on any such question of fact; but there shall be a right of appeal from the board to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia from any ruling or holding on a question of law included or embodied in any decision or order of the board; and, on the same question of law, from such court to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. In all such appeals the corporation counsel shall appear for and represent the board. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 17.)

§ 36–417 [19: 228]. Penalties for violations.

Whoever violates this subchapter, whether an employer or his agent, or the director, officer, or agent of any corporation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100 or by imprisonment not less than ten days nor more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 18.)

§ 36–418 [19: 229]. Penalties for discrimination by employer against employee who testifies.

Any employer and his agent, or the director, officer, or agent of any corporation who discharges or in any other manner discriminates against any employee because such employee has served or is about to serve on any conference or has testified or is about to testify, or because such employer believes that said employee may serve on any conference or may testify in any investigation or proceedings under or relative to this subchapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 19.)

§ 36–419 [19: 230]. Employers responsible for acts of agents.

Any act which, if done or omitted to be done by any agent or officer or director acting for such employer, would constitute a violation of this subchapter, shall also be held to be a violation by the employer and subject such employer to the liability provided for by this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 20.)

§ 36–420 [19: 231]. Jurisdiction of police court.

Prosecutions for violations of this subchapter shall be on information filed in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 21.)

§ 36–421 [19: 232]. Civil action to recover if less than minimum wage paid.

If any woman worker is paid by her employer less than the minimum wage to which she is entitled under or by virtue of an order of the board, she may recover in a civil action the full amount of such minimum wage, less any amount actually paid to her by the employer, together with such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court; and any agreement for her to work for less than such minimum wage shall be no defense to such action. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 22.)

§ 36–422 [19: 233]. Title and purpose of chapter.

This chapter shall be known as the "District of Columbia Minimum-Wage Law." The purposes of the chapter are to protect the women and minors of the District from conditions detrimental to their health and morals, resulting from wages which are inadequate to maintain decent standards of living; and the chapter in each of its provisions and in its entirety shall be interpreted to effectuate these purposes. (Sept. 19, 1918, 40 Stat. 964, ch. 174, title I, § 23.)

SUBCHAPTER II.—INDUSTRIAL SAFETY

§ 36–431. Purpose of subchapter.

The purpose of this subchapter is to foster, promote, and develop the safety of wage earners of the District of Columbia in relation to their working conditions. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 1, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 4 of the act of Oct. 14, 1941, cited to text, provided: "This Act (this subchapter) shall become effective upon its approval by the President (Oct. 14, 1941)."

APPROPRIATIONS

Section 13 of title II of the act of Sept. 19, 1918, as added by section 3 of the act of Oct. 14, 1941, both cited to text, provided: "There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of the revenues for the District of Columbia, a sum not to exceed $15,000 per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the proper administration of this title (this subchapter)."

SEPARABILITY PROVISIONS

Section 14 of title II of the act of Sept. 19, 1918, as added by section 3 of the act of Oct. 14, 1941, both cited to text, provided: "If any provision of this title (this subchapter), or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held invalid, the remainder of this title (this subchapter), or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

WAGE EARNERS PROTECTED

This chapter creating the Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board affects the relationship between employer and employee only, and safety regulations promulgated by Board pursuant to § 36–434 did not apply to plaintiff, a wall paper hanger who was not an employee of defendant operator of wall paper company, who was injured when a rod flew out of a wall paper trimming machine owned by defendant and being used by plaintiff in hanging wall paper purchased by plaintiff from defendant. Kurtz v. Capital Wall Paper Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 470).

When used in this subchapter, the following words shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Employer" includes every person, firm, corporation, partnership, stock association, agent, manager, representative, or foreman, or other persons having control or custody of any industrial employment, place of employment, or of any employee. It shall not include the District of Columbia or any instrumentality thereof, or the United States or any instrumentality thereof.

(b) "Board" means the Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board.

(d) "Place of employment" means any place where industrial employment is carried on: Provided, however, That such term shall not include the premises of any Federal or District of Columbia establishment, except to include any and all work of whatever nature being performed by an independent contractor for the United States Government or any instrumentality thereof or the District of Columbia or any instrumentality thereof. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 2, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–433. Additional duties of Board under this subchapter.

The Board, in addition to its duties defined in subchapter I shall administer the provisions of this subchapter and shall have power to make such inspections and investigations as it may deem necessary; collect and compile statistical information; require employers to keep their places of employment reasonably safe; require employers to keep such records as it may deem advisable and to furnish the Board with complete, detailed reports relative to all accidents; determine and fix reasonable standards of safety in employment, places of employment, in the use of devices and safeguards, and in the use of practices, means, methods, operations, and processes of employment; promulgate general rules and regulations based upon such standards and fix the minimum safety requirements which shall be complied with by employers within the purview of this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 3, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONALITY

Congress has power to impose on employer in District of Columbia duty to ascertain at his peril whether his equipment, used by employees, complies with set minimum safety standards. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

VALIDITY OF REGULATIONS

A regulation of District of Columbia Industrial Safety Board that general slope of cross grain in wood side rails of portable ladders built to minimum dimensions should not exceed one inch in fifteen inches was not unreasonable, either in general or as applied to employer using or causing his employees to use a ladder having greater slope of grain. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

Unreasonableness of requirement in regulation of District of Columbia Industrial Safety Board as to ladders that wood used in side rails thereof be dried to not more than specified moisture content did not render entire regulation, including provision as to maximum general slope of cross grain in such rails, unreasonable. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

COVERAGE OF REGULATION

A regulation of District of Columbia Industrial Safety Board that general slope of cross grain in side rails of portable ladders should not exceed one inch in fifteen inches was directed to employers using ladders in district rather than ladder manufacturers or retailers who might be located in any part of nation. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

§ 36–434. Rules and regulations—Public hearing—Publication—Effective date.

Before any rules or regulations of the Board shall become effective a public hearing shall be held by the Board for the purpose of investigating reasonable standards of safety in employment, places of employment, in the use of devices and safeguards, and in the use of practices, means, methods, operations, and processes of employment, and any person interested in the matter being investigated may appear and testify. If, after investigation, the Board is of the opinion that minimum standards of safety requirements are necessary to protect or safeguard the lives or health of employees covered by this subchapter, it may adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable, which shall become effective thirty days after publication of notice at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia that they have been adopted and copies are available to the public at the office of the Board. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 4, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 4, amended June 14, 1944, 58 Stat. 279, ch. 258.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 14, 1944, cited to text, amended section by deleting "they have been published at least once in two of the daily newspapers of general circulation in the District of Columbia.", and inserting in lieu thereof "publication of notice * * * office of the Board.".

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–435. Authority to take testimony—Subpoena.

Any member of the Board shall have power to administer oaths and the Board may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of all books, registers, and other evidence relative to any matters under investigation, at any public hearing, or at any session or any conference held by the Board. In case of disobedience to a subpoena the Board may invoke the aid of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence. In the case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena, the court may issue an order requiring appearance before the Board, the production of documentary evidence and the giving of evidence touching the matter in question, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 5, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–436. Variations by employers from regulations.

The Board may, upon written application of any employer affected by such rule or regulation, permit variations from any provisions thereof if it shall find that the application of such provision would result in unnecessary hardship or practical difficulty: Provided, however, That the Board shall keep a properly indexed record of all variations permitted from any rule or regulation which shall be open to public inspection. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 6, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431

§ 36–437. Employment of Director of Industrial Safety—Compensation—Duties.

The Board is hereby authorized to employ a Director of Industrial Safety, who shall not be a member of the Board and whose compensation shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended (5 U. S. C. §§ 661–663, 664–673, and 674). The Director shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board in administering the provisions of this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 7, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–438. Employers' duties—Furnish safe place of employment—Furnish required information—Report employees' injury, death, or disease—Record of employees.

(a) Every employer shall furnish a place of employment which shall be reasonably safe for employees, shall furnish and use safety devices and safeguards, and shall adopt and use practices, means, methods, operations, and processes which are reasonably safe and adequate to render such employment and place of employment reasonably safe.

(b) Every employer shall furnish to the Board any information which the Board is authorized to require and shall make true and specific answers to all questions.

(c) Every employer shall submit to the Board within ten days from the date of any injury or death, or from the date that the employer has knowledge of any disease or infection resulting from any injury, a duplicate copy of the report provided for in section 33–930, as made applicable to the District of Columbia by sections 36–501 and 36–502.

(d) Every employer shall keep an accurate record of every person employed by him so as to be able in case of accident immediately to give an accurate record relative to same. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 8, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–439. Authority to examine place of employment.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–440. Office space and supplies for Board.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall furnish the Board with such office space, furniture and equipment, stationery, books, books of reference, and other supplies as are necessary for the discharge of its duties under this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 10, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–441. Annual report to Commissioners.

The Board shall annually, on or before the 1st day of July, file with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a report covering its activities under this subchapter. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 11, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

§ 36–442. Penalties for violations of subchapter—Jurisdiction of police court.

Whoever violates any of the provisions of this subchapter, or any rules or regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300, or by imprisonment of not exceeding ninety days. Prosecutions for violations of this subchapter shall be in the name of the District of Columbia on information filed in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel or one of his assistants. (Sept. 19, 1918, ch. 174, title II, § 12, as added Oct. 14, 1941, 55 Stat. 738, ch. 438, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective date of section, see note under § 36–431.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BURDEN OF PROOF

The burden is on employer, charged with violation of District of Columbia Industrial Safety Board's regulation, with its general authority, as to slope of cross grain in wood side rails of ladders, to demonstrate clearly that regulation is beyond board's delegated authority or so unreasonable as to be void. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

WITNESSES

One who had been an inspector for industrial safety board of District of Columbia for over five years, had previously been employed as carpenter, iron worker and rigger for large construction company for over thirty years, and was member of carpenters' and iron workers' unions, was qualified to testify as expert that side rail of ladder showed cross grain of one inch in five inches in violation of board's regulation that slope of cross grain should not exceed one inch in fifteen inches. Davis v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 208).

Chapter 5.—WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Sec.
36–501. Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act made applicable to District of Columbia.
36–502. Exceptions.

§ 36–501 [19: 11]. Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act made applicable to District of Columbia.

The provisions of title 33, chapter 18, of the Code of Laws of the United States, including all amendments that may be made thereto after May 17, 1928, shall apply in respect to the injury or death of an employee of an employer carrying on any employment in the District of Columbia, irrespective of the place where the injury or death occurs; except that in applying such provisions the term "employer" shall be held to mean every person carrying on any employment in the District of Columbia, and the term "employee" shall be held to mean every employee of any such person. (May 17, 1928, 45 Stat. 600, ch. 612, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ABATEMENT

Where all matured installments had been paid at the date of compensation claimant's death without dependents the unmatured portion of the award abated. Turner v. Christian Heurich Brewing Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 681).

ACCIDENTAL INJURY

The evidence, particularly the testimony of the physician, justified the deputy commissioner in ruling that the paralysis was the natural result of the accidental injury. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 89, 69 Fed. (2d) 575).

"Accidental injury" includes any injury which is unexpected or not designed, and just as much includes injury sustained by an employee subject to physical infirmities as injury to one who is strong and robust. Commercial Casualty Ins. Co. v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 158, 75 Fed. (2d) 677).

ACTION AT LAW

An employee who elects to bring action at law against employer who failed to secure payment of compensation as required by 33 U. S. C. § 932 as authorized by § 905 has affirmative duty of showing negligence equally as great as in any other tort action. Garcia v. De Leon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 637).

APPEAL

Fact that evidence taken and certified in disregard of technical rules of procedure does not invalidate it or render it any the less entitled to consideration on an appeal when no request was made for a trial de novo. Georgia Casualty Co. v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 195, 59 Fed. (2d) 870).

In workmen's compensation case, function of United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia is limited to determining whether the finding of the deputy commissioner is supported by substantial evidence. Great American Indemnity Co. v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 241, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 306).

In workmen's compensation case, the United States Court of Appeals for District of Columbia cannot sit as reappraisers of the evidence. Great American Indemnity Co. v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 241, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 306).

APPLICATION OF STATUTE

To bring the case within the terms of the Employers' Liability Act, the defendant must have been at the time of the injury engaged as a common carrier in interstate commerce or commerce solely within the District, and the plaintiff-employee must have been employed by a carrier in such commerce or in work so closely related to it as to be practically a part of it. Poff v. Washington Terminal Co. (63 App. D. C. 86, 69 Fed. (2d) 572).

There is no substantial reason for denying the District the right to enforce its own law in its own courts, and that in the circumstances the full faith and credit clause does not require that the statutes of Alabama be given effect. United States Casualty Co. v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 284, 77 Fed. (2d) 542).

An intent to bar compensation claims before they arise cannot fairly be imputed to Congress. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 163, 107 Fed. (2d) 962).

Under the United States Employees' Compensation Act an injured employee of the United States has his sole remedy. Posey v. Tennessee Valley Authority ((C. C. A. 5), 93 Fed. (2d) 726).

Where salesman's office was in District of Columbia, though his selling contacts were largely outside and his time was nearly equally divided between the two, this section affording him protection for injuries while traveling outside the district in connection with his employment was valid and within power of Congress. B. F. Goodrich Co. v. Britton, 1944 (139 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 221).

Whether employer was at time of injury engaged in business in District of Columbia and whether deceased was an employee within District in carrying on of the business, and when injured was performing services in connection with the employment, were important considerations in determining whether this section was applicable. B. F. Goodrich Co. v. Britton, 1944 (139 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 221).

Generally, employer must compensate workman for consequences of an accident although his previous defects cooperated in producing them, and a statute creating exceptions to that general principle should be narrowly construed. National Homeopathic Hospital Ass'n of Dist. of Col. v. Britton, 1945 (147 F. 2d 561, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 309, certiorari denied 65 S. Ct. 1185, 89 L. Ed. 1977).

New York authorities interpreting New York Compensation Act, McKinney's Workmen's Compensation Law § 1 et seq., are particularly important in construing 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., since former Act served as model for latter, which was made applicable to District of Columbia by this section. Garcia v. De Leon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 637).

Where appellant was injured while working in appellee's car barn, he could not recover under § 44–401 of the Code since § 36–501 has become the applicable workman's compensation act for the District and appellee was not a common carrier by railroad and is excepted from the operation of § 36–501. Keffer v. Capital Transit Co. (C. A. D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 808).

ASSUMPTION OF RISK

A ride by employee on running board of dump truck was not so obviously dangerous or risky a method of traveling a few hundred feet that employee assumed risk of injury. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. Britton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 17, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

AWARD

Wage-earning capacity of the employee was diminished by reason of the injuries sustained by him in the course of and arising out of his employment. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. v. Hoage (66 App. D. C. 163, 85 Fed. (2d) 420).

Medical and similar benefits which the employer is required to furnish are not to be counted in applying the $7,500 limit of "total compensation" payable for death or injury, and it follows that compensation acts are to be "construed liberally in furtherance of the purpose for which they were enacted." Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. (69 App. D. C. 330, 101 Fed. (2d) 254).

When employee had hernia which caused disability, at first apparently temporary but later becoming permanent, this change is sufficient to support the modification of an award. New Amsterdam Casualty Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 172, 108 Fed. (2d) 492).

Where employee fell in course of his work and fractured right kneecap, but previous accidents, none of them connected with any employment, had fractured same kneecap and had led to amputation of left leg and left arm, and the fracture caused by the fall, combined with the previous fracture and amputations, caused permanent total disability, the employee was properly awarded compensation based on permanent total disability and on his earning capacity at time of the fall. National Homeopathic Hospital Ass'n of Dist. of Col. v. Britton, 1945 (147 F. 2d 561, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 309, certiorari denied 65 S. Ct. 1185, 89 L. Ed. 1977).

CHANGE IN PHYSICAL CONDITION

There was, within the meaning of this section, a change in the injured person's physical condition in relation to the injury, since the condition, which was temporary at one time, had become permanent. New Amsterdam Casualty Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 172, 108 Fed. (2d) 492).

COMMISSIONER'S FINDING OF FACT

When evidence sustained the deputy commissioner's finding of suicide as opposed to accident, the court should not have disturbed an order denying compensation. Del Vecchio v. Bowers (296 U. S. 280, 80 L. Ed. 229, 56 Sup. Ct. 190).

The deputy commissioner's findings of fact, if supported by evidence, are conclusive. Employers Liability Assur. Corp. v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 53, 69 Fed. (2d) 227); Malone v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 38, 73 Fed. (2d) 855); Maryland Casualty Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 160, 107 Fed. (2d) 959).

Cases in which an order of the Commissioner may be set aside as "not in accordance with law" are only those in which it appears that there is an error of law, or in which the order of the Commissioner is not supported by substantial evidence, as well, of course, in those in which it is arbitrary and unreasonable. Whitfield v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 237, 71 Fed. (2d) 690).

As the question is solely the fact of employment, and, as this fact is an essential condition precedent to the right to make the claim, the proceeding in the court below was entirely proper, and Supreme Court will not overrule lower court unless findings are clearly wrong. Metropolitan Casualty Ins. Co. v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 307, 72 Fed. (2d) 175).

Deputy commissioner was justified in concluding that the death of the deceased arose at least in substantial part from his employment. London Guarantee & Acc. Co. v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 323, 72 Fed. (2d) 191).

Conclusion reached by deputy commissioner upon the facts found by him was contrary to law, and the claim of appellant should have been sustained when he was an employee at the time of the accident, at his place of duty, and engaged in his employment. Scott v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 391, 73 Fed. (2d) 114).

Chain of causation, beginning with the inhalation of the gas and ending in his death, as found by the deputy commissioner, is satisfactorily shown by the evidence. National Casualty v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 33, 73 Fed. (2d) 850).

Findings of the deputy commissioner upon the facts in compensation case are final and conclusive when supported by competent evidence. The act does not authorize the court to reweigh the evidence when more than one inference can be drawn for the purpose of arriving at a different conclusion from the deputy commissioner. Fulton v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 232, 77 Fed. (2d) 110).

Testimony supports the deputy commissioner's finding that the employee was "mentally incompetent" from the time of his injury to the time when his committee was appointed. Hoage v. Terminal Refrigerating & Warehousing Co. (65 App. D. C. 5, 78 Fed. (2d) 1009).

Deputy commissioner, when passing upon the extent of injured person's vision, should not have excluded from consideration the assistance which he could receive from the use of glasses. Washington Terminal Co. v. Hoage (65 App. D. C. 33, 79 Fed. (2d) 158).

Deputy commissioner is authorized to award compensation using as the basis for his average annual earnings such sum as shall reasonably represent the annual earning capacity of the injured employee in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, having regard to "the previous earnings of the injured employee and of other employees of the same or most similar class." Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. v. Hoage (66 App. D. C. 154, 85 Fed. (2d) 411).

Deputy commissioner and the District Court were within their discretion in finding, in effect, that declarations concerning the injury were corroborated. Associated General Contractors v. Cardillo (70 App. D. C. 303, 106 Fed. (2d) 327).

To same effect as third paragraph of original annotation, see Groom v. Cardillo, 1941 (119 F. 2d 697, 73 App. D. C. 358).

In workmen's compensation case, findings of a deputy commissioner, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive on court regardless of whether findings result in the grant or denial of a claim to compensation. Carson v. Cardillo, 1942 (132 F. 2d 604, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 82).

In proceeding under this chapter, deputy commissioner's finding of fact is subject to review and reversal by a court only in a case in which the findings are not supported by substantial evidence. Gudmundson v. Cardillo, 1942 (126 F. 2d 521, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 230, affirming 35 F. Supp. 527).

Where district court determined that evidence did not support deputy commissioner's finding that at time of employee's death widow was living apart for justifiable cause, failure of district court to remand case to deputy commissioner for possible finding either that widow was dependent for support on employee or that she was living with him was not error where evidence would not have supported either finding. Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

To same effect as second paragraph of original annotation, see London Guarantee & Accident Co. v. Britton, 1944 (138 F. 2d 932, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 195).

In proceeding under this chapter, Deputy Commissioner's findings as to jurisdiction are entitled to great weight and will be rejected only where there is apparent error. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

Finding of Deputy Commissioner that injuries sustained by stenographer, who was struck by taxicab while on way to lunch, did not arise out of and in course of employment, was supported by evidence and was not inconsistent with law. Wetzel v. Britton (App. D. C. 1948, 170 F. 2d 285).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

This section does not violate constitutional provision for jury trial. Rowlette v. Rothstein Dental Laboratories, (61 App. D. C. 373, 63 Fed. (2d) 150, Cert. den. 289 U. S. 736, 77 L. Ed. 1484, 53 Sup. Ct. 657).

This chapter, which makes factual decision of deputy commissioner final, does not violate the "due process of law" provision of U. S. Const. Amend. 5. Gudmundson v. Cardillo, 1942 (126 F. 2d 521, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 230, affirming 35 F. Supp. 527).

This chapter, construed as applying to case where there is some substantial connection between the District and the particular employee-employer relationship regardless of place of work or injury, fully satisfies any constitutional question of due process or full faith and credit. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE

Contributory negligence of employee is no defense under 33 U. S. C. § 904 (b) and this section. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. Britton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 17, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

DEATH IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

In determining whether death arose out of employment, when store manager was accidentally killed by gunshot wound, evidence that his possession of pistol was reasonably necessary for performance of his duties was admissible. Del Vecchio v. Bowers (62 App. D. C. 327, 67 Fed. (2d) 751).

Butcher's death which was caused by the violent wrench suffered by him when handling the calf permitting the escape of colon bacili causing pus, and finally involving the lower lobe of the left lung resulting in pneumonia, was accidental. Employer's Liability Assur. Corp. v. Hoage (67 App. D. C. 245, 91 Fed. (2d) 318).

This section creates a right of action against employer on account of death of employee arising out of and in course of employment, but it does not create a cause of action for wrongful death against any other person. Webster v. Clodfelter, 1942 (130 F. 2d 434, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 171, 143 A. L. R. 280, affirming 39 F. Supp. 62, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 261, 317 U. S. 689, 87 L. Ed. 552).

Heat stroke causing death of parking lot attendant was compensable as "arising out of and in course of employment." Davison v. Cardillo, 1944 (143 F. 2d 154, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 121).

Where lease, occupancy permit, and insurance against fire and theft were all in name of operator of parking lot alone, both before and after making of "partnership agreement" with deceased parking lot attendant which contained no provision for distribution of profits, deceased was not a "partner," but an "employee," and his death was compensable. Davison v. Cardillo, 1944 (143 F. 2d 154, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 121).

Where salesman was fatally injured in automobile accident while on way back to his office in District of Columbia from a business trip in Pennsylvania, the salesman's death was compensable since it "arose out of employment." B. F. Goodrich Co. v. Britton, 1944 (139 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 221).

Where contract between employer and union required employer to furnish transportation for work outside District of Columbia and employer performed its contractual obligation by paying travel costs and allowing employees to select transportation method, Deputy Commissioner's finding that fatal injury, received by employee while driving his automobile homeward after terminating day's work, "arose out of and in course of employment", was justified even though employee was not being paid wages at time of accident. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

"Course of employment" within 33 U. S. C. § 902 (2) may include incidents of social character, the correct criterion being involvement of the incident in the employment. Hurley v. Lowe (App. D. C. 1948, 168 F. 2d 553, certiorari denied, 68 S. Ct. 1338, 334 U. S. 828, 92 L. Ed. 1756).

"Course of employment" on a specified errand or business trip, ordered by an employer, to a place different from the regular place of employment, includes all the ordinary incidents of the errand, such as the eating of meals in ordinary places at ordinary times which the employer would normally contemplate as occurring in the course of errand. Hurley v. Lowe (App. D. C. 1948, 168 F. 2d 553, certiorari denied, 68 S. Ct. 1338, 334 U. S. 828, 92 L. Ed. 1756).

Where attorney employed by law firm in District of Columbia was sent by firm on business trip to another city and during course of dinner with his father and mother at restaurant in that city sustained an injury from which he died, conclusion of deputy commissioner that dinner was of a social character and that therefore injury was not sustained in "course of employment" was not "forbidden by law" or without any reasonable legal basis, and hence could not be disturbed by reviewing court, though contrary to court's opinion. Hurley v. Lowe (App. D. C. 1948, 168 F. 2d 553, certiorari denied, 68 S. Ct. 1338, 334 U. S. 828, 92 L. Ed. 1756).

DEPENDENCY

The term "justifiable cause," in Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 902 (16), defining widow, is used in its legal sense and ordinarily a wife who lives apart from her husband does so for what is called "justifiable cause" only when she does so because of her husband's matrimonial misconduct. Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

Where employee and wife lived apart by mutual consent, so that employee would be eligible for relief, wife made no objection to employee's leaving and no attempt to rejoin him, and employee made no regular contributions to wife's support, the wife was not entitled to compensation under this chapter for death of employee on theory that she was living apart for "justifiable cause." Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

Where employee and wife lived apart by mutual consent, employee made no regular contributions to wife's support, and wife testified in effect that she earned a modest living by running a rooming house which she and her brother owned, while her husband was on relief, evidence would not sustain award of compensation under this chapter on theory that the wife was "dependent for support" on the employee or that she was "living with" the employee. Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

Partial dependency will sustain an award of compensation under the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., but occasional contributions will not sustain a finding of partial dependency unless they are necessary and relied on. Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

Compensation benefits rest solely upon statutory authority and the rights of beneficiaries are dependent upon and limited by the terms of 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., the purpose of which is to protect a disabled employee and his dependents. Turner v. Christian Heurich Brewing Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 681).

DISABILITY, DEFINITION OF

In construing statutory provision that if an employee receive an injury which of itself would only cause permanent partial disability but which, combined with a previous disability, does in fact cause permanent total disability, the employer should provide compensation only for disability caused by the subsequent injury, the relevant parts of the statutory definitions of "disability" and "injury" must be read in the place of the defined word "disability", so that the statutory phrase "combined with a previous disability" becomes "combined with a previous incapacity because of accidental injury arising out of and in course of employment". National Homeopathic Hospital Ass'n of Dist. of Col. v. Britton, 1945

(147 F. 2d 561, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 309, certiorari denied 65 S. Ct. 1185, 89 L. Ed. 1977).

ELECTION OF REMEDIES

Under this chapter, which entitles injured employee to receive from his employer any excess over reimbursement which employer recovers from third party wrongdoer, injured employee's acceptance of compensation operates as an absolute transfer to the employer of substantive rights of injured employee against the wrongdoer and strips the employee of any further right until the employer recovers an amount in excess of his expenditures and only then a new right arises against the employer for the excess. Moore v. Hechinger, 1942 (127 F. 2d 746, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 391, affirming 39 F. Supp. 427).

The alternative remedy against an employer who fails to secure payment of compensation as required by 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq. provided by § 905 authorizing an election to claim compensation or to maintain action in law or in admiralty for damages on account of injury or death of employee is elective. Garcia v. De Leon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 637).

Standard workmen's compensation and employers' liability policy obligating insurer to pay promptly any person entitled to payment under the compensation law, and providing that all provisions of the law covered should remain part of policy, secured compensation to minor injured in course of employment while allegedly employed contrary to Child Labor Law, § 36–201 et seq., for any claim properly cognizable under the law, so that minor's remedy for workmen's compensation was exclusive, and minor could not maintain a common-law suit against employer for injuries, notwithstanding provision of policy obligating insurer to indemnify employer against loss by reason of liability imposed on him by law on account of injuries of employees "legally employed". Mellen v. Hirsch (D. C. Md. 1948, 8 F. R. D. 250, supplemented 8 F. R. D. 248).

EMPLOYEES' DUTIES CONTROLLING

Where main duty of deckhand employed on a stripper dredge was to coal up dredge from scow, and coal was used to fire engine which operated scoop shovel, deckhand was not a "member of a crew," and hence his claim for injuries was covered by the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., as made applicable to a District of Columbia employer and not by the Merchant Marine Act, 46 U. S. C. § 688. Beddoo v. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corporation, 1942 (128 F. 2d 608, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 39).

EMPLOYER—SUBROGATION—PARTY PLAINTIFF

An employer or an insurance carrier who has paid compensation to the only beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled to receive the same and who has a right of subrogation may bring the subrogation action against the third person who caused the death of the employee, and the action need not be brought by the personal representative of the decedent. Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Moses (287 U. S. 530, 77 L. Ed. 477, 53 Sup. Ct. 231, revg. 57 Fed. (2d) 443).

In case there is more than one dependent and one only elects to accept workmen's compensation and the other dependent or dependents elect to bring an action under the wrongful death statute, then the employer is not entitled to sue as a subrogee but the action must be brought by the personal representative of the decedent, the employee having the right to demand that such action be brought and that he share in the recovery. Doleman v. Levine (295 U. S. 221, 79 L. Ed. 1402, 55 Sup. Ct. 741, revg. 73 Fed. (2d) 842).

EMPLOYMENT OUTSIDE STATE

In compensation proceeding under this chapter, evidence that offer of employment was made by employer's foreman in District of Columbia, that workman was not hired until he was put to work in Maryland, and that injury occurred in Maryland sustained deputy commissioner's finding that the employment relationship was created in Maryland and not in the District of Columbia and that the deputy commissioner did not have jurisdiction to make an award. Gudmundson v. Cardillo, 1942 (126 F. 2d 521, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 230, affirming 35 F. Supp. 527).

EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

Under this chapter, right to compensation depends on existence of relation of master and servant at time of injury. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Cardillo (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 529, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 72, certiorari granted 67 S. Ct. 73, 329 U. S. 698, 91 L. Ed. 610 reversed 67 S. Ct. 801, 330 U. S. 469, 91 L. Ed. 1028).

Liability under this chapter is based, not on any act or omission of employer, but upon existence of relationship which employee bears to employment because of and in course of which he has been injured. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Cardillo (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 529, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 72, certiorari granted 67 S. Ct. 73, 329 U. S. 698, 91 L. Ed. 610 reversed 67 S. Ct. 801, 330 U. S. 469, 91 L. Ed. 1028).

EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN AWARD

Where an employee within the provisions of this act is found dead and the evidence on the issue of accident or suicide is evenly balanced, the presumption created by § 20 (d) of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act that the death was not suicidal, has not the quality of affirmative evidence. The presumption may be invoked only where there is an entire lack of competent evidence. Del Vecchio v. Bowers (296 U. S. 280, 80 L. Ed. 229, 56 Sup. Ct. 190).

Evidence showed quite clearly that the possession of the pistol was reasonably necessary in the duty which deceased owed to protect his employer's property and his own life. Del Vecchio v. Bowers (62 App. D. C. 327, 67 Fed. (2d) 751).

To justify an award there must have been some substantial connection between the alleged accident and the employment. Hoage v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. (64 App. D. C. 395, 78 Fed. (2d) 874).

The weight of the evidence is for the deputy commissioner and not for the courts under the Compensation Act. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 163, 107 Fed. (2d) 962).

Where employee sustained toe injury in October which was followed by protracted infection, debility, and lowered resistance, and carbuncle appeared in June following, in workmen's compensation proceeding, fact that expert opinion regarding the links before the carbuncle was not unanimous might have detracted from its weight as evidence, but it did not destroy its substantiality. Great American Indemnity Co. v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 241, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 306).

Where employee sustained toe injury in October which was followed by protracted infection, debility, and lowered resistance, and carbuncle appeared in June following, and causal relation between carbuncle, subsequent hip injury, osteomyelitis, and osteoporosis, which caused temporary total disability, was admitted, evidence that causal relation existed between the toe injury and the temporary total disability supported an award of compensation. Great American Indemnity Co. v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 241, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 306).

In workmen's compensation proceeding presenting question whether this section was applicable to injuries sustained in Virginia, evidence sustained finding that employer, which had main office in New York, was engaged in construction work under three separate contracts, two located in the District and one in Virginia, that employer had an office in the District, that injured workmen's contract of employment was made in the District, and that no separate contract of employment was made when he was transferred from one job to another. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (141 F. 2d 364, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 394).

Evidence supported finding that claimant, who was injured when brushed from running board of truck, had observed his fellow workers riding on the running board of truck. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. Britton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 17, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

Appellant's contention that the act was not applicable since the employer had not obtained insurance covering his injury as required by the act, is clearly contrary to the evidence presented. Mellen v. Hirsch 1948 (171 F. 2d 127).

INJURIES IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

Evidence held sufficient to show that warehouse manager was injured in the course of his employment, when injury occurred while he was on his way to the warehouse on Sunday. Voehl v. Indemnity Ins. Co. (288 U. S. 162, 77 L. Ed. 676, 53 Sup. Ct. 380, revg. (61 App. D. C. 173, 58 Fed. (2d) 1074).

Garage employee proved by sufficient evidence to be employee and entitled to compensation for injury. Lumbermens Mut. Casualty Co. v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 171, 58 Fed. (2d) 1072).

Claim for compensation on ground of relationship of employer and employee. Evidence warranted finding that relation was that of partnership. Georgia Casualty Co. v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 195, 59 Fed. (2d) 870).

Newspaper solicitor, when in the course of his employment has to pass along the public streets and thereby sustains an accident by reason of the risks incident to the streets, the accident "arises out of" as well as "in the course of" his employment. New Amsterdam Casualty Co. v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 306, 62 Fed. (2d) 468).

An injury "arises out of" the employment within the meaning of the Compensation Act when it occurs in the course of the employment and as the result of a risk involved in or incidental to the employment or to the conditions under which it is required to be performed. The mere fact that the injury is contemporaneous or coincident with the employment is not a sufficient basis for an award. Speaks v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 324, 78 Fed. (2d) 208).

Injury suffered by an insurance agent, on the way home, when superior ordered him home, was compensatable as occurring in and arising out of the course of employment. Proctor v. Hoage (65 App. D. C. 153, 81 Fed. (2d) 555).

Although there were instructions by superior that employee should not touch anything alive, it was not sufficient to prevent action as one "arising out of and in the course of employment," when employee was electrocuted while repairing cylinder on street car. Capital Transit Co. v. Hoage (65 App. D. C. 382, 84 Fed. (2d) 235).

When a chef was stabbed by a crazed stranger, the injuries "arose out of and in the course of his employment." Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. v. Hoage (66 App. D. C. 160, 85 Fed. (2d) 417).

Evidence that claim adjuster handled more than 250 cases a month, being a great many in excess of adjuster's monthly capacity, and as a result suffered a severe spasm of angina pectoris which in turn resulted in coronary thrombosis, it was an accidental injury which is any injury unexpected or not designed. Hoage v. Royal Indem. Co. (67 App. D. C. 142, 90 Fed. (2d) 387).

An unexpected attack upon a cook in a restaurant who was killed by a bus boy during altercation regarding boy's work "arose out of the employment." Maryland Casualty Co. v. Cardillo (69 App. D. C. 199, 99 Fed. (2d) 432).

Injury which the employee received was a direct result of the position in which he was placed by the order of his superior and it therefore arose out of his employment. Williams v. American Employers Ins. Co. (71 App. D. C. 153, 107 Fed. (2d) 953).

Injuries sustained by employee while driving automobile owned and kept by employer for employer's personal use, such driving being under the exclusive supervision and control of employer, were injuries arising out of and in the course of employment. Williams v. American Employers' Ins. Co. (71 App. D. C. 153, 107 Fed. (2d) 953).

Injury sustained by driver-employee while returning from lunch arose out of and in the course of employment. Cardillo v. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. (71 App. D. C. 153, 109 Fed. (2d) 674).

Where one employed in a produce warehouse was engaged in loading a truck, and a checker, his superior, addressed him repeatedly as "Shorty" which the loader resented and called his superior a vile name, for which the superior assaulted him, inflicting injuries, the employee is entitled to compensation, the injury having arisen out of, and in course of, his employment. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 330, 112 Fed. (2d) 11).

To justify an award under the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., there must be a direct causal connection between the employment and the injury, whether it is the result of accident or disease. Groom v. Cardillo, 1941 (119 F. 2d 697, 73 App. D. C. 358).

An injury "arises out of employment" within Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., if it is caused by the environment, whether inanimate, animal, or human, to which the employment exposes the employee, and it does not matter whether he is struck by a machine, a mule or a man so long at least as he does not provoke the attack, and an assault by a stranger or a fellow employee clearly "arises out of the employment" where the employment provides the motive for the assault. Penker Const. Co. v. Cardillo, 1941 (118 F. 2d 14, 73 App. D. C. 168).

Where employer arranged to furnish employee transportation to and from work in employer's truck which regularly passed employee's home in lieu of a requested increase in salary and employee was struck by another vehicle while crossing road to where employer's approaching truck would stop, employee's injuries "arose out of and in course of employment" since the risks attendant on employee's crossing the road were incident to transportation in the truck and were assumed for the mutual convenience of the parties. Ward v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 260, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 343).

The general rule that injuries sustained by employee when going to or returning from regular place of work are not deemed to "arise out of and in course of employment" is subject to exceptions, one of which is where the employer contracts to and does furnish transportation to and from work. Ward v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 260, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 343).

An injury arises "out of employment" when it occurs in the course of employment and as a result of risk involved in or incidental to the employment or to conditions under which it is required to be performed. Ackerman v. Cardillo, 1944 (140 F. 2d 348, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 310).

Where employee was an ice technician working at public skating rink and stadium, his duties required that he be on job during the night, and for his and his employer's convenience he slept in small room underneath stadium seats and while in room was assaulted and injured, and where explanations of the injury which were consistent with liability were just as plausible as those which would avoid liability, court would not reverse finding that injury arose out of employment. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (140 F. 2d 10, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 255).

Where injuries occurred while employee was on premises in connection with his employment, presumption existed that injuries arose out of his employment, unless contrary was shown. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (140 F. 2d 10, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 255).

Where store manager sent employee to get lunch for all three employees to save time on exceptionally busy day, and employee was struck by automobile while carrying out manager's direction, the employee's fatal injury arose "out of and in course of employment." London Guarantee & Accident Co. v. Britton, 1944 (138 F. 2d 932, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 195).

Where employee stepped on running board of dump truck, intending to hitch a ride on way to exit from employer's premises after work but employee was brushed from running board by a support post and was injured, evidence supported finding that injury arose out of and in course of employment Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. Britton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 17, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

Generally, injuries sustained by employees when going to or returning from their regular place of work do not "arise out of and in course of employment", but exception exists where employer requires employees to travel on highways, where employer contracts to and does furnish transportation to and from work, where employee is subject to emergency calls, or where employee uses highway to do something incidental to his employment, with knowledge and approval of employer. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Cardillo (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 529, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 72, certiorari granted 67 S. Ct. 73, 329 U. S. 698, 91 L.

Where contract between employer and union, requiring employer to furnish transportation for work outside District of Columbia, was modified and employer agreed to pay each employee flat sum of $2 per day as transportation expense and each employee was free to select transportation method, fatal injury received by employee while driving his automobile homeward after terminating day's work did not "arise out of and in course of employment." Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Cardillo (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 529, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 72, certiorari granted 67 S. Ct. 73, 329 U. S. 698, 91 L. Ed. 610 reversed 67 S. Ct. 801, 330 U. S. 469, 91 L. Ed. 1028).

Under this chapter, the presence or absence of control by employer over acts and movements of employee during transportation to or from work is a factor to be considered in determining whether injury during transportation arose out of and in course of employment, but is not decisive. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

Injury sustained while an employee is going to or from lunch does not as a positive rule of law, without reference to particular facts, arise out of and in course of employment within 33 U. S. C. § 902 (2). Wetzel v. Britton (App. D. C. 1948, 170 F. 2d 285).

Injuries Outside Scope of Employment

Deputy commissioner was right in holding that the injury sustained did not occur in the course of the deceased's employment, when he was not at the time of the occurrence performing any service which he was required to do by virtue of his employment as financial secretary of the lodge. Morgan v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 355, 72 Fed. (2d) 727).

When employee went on roof of building during lunch hour for a rest and fresh air, but fell into a ventilator shaft the injury did not arise "out of the employment." Monahan v. Hoage (67 App. D. C. 174, 90 Fed. (2d) 419).

Injuries sustained by an employee in a personal difficulty with another employee of the same employer, having no relation to the employment itself and in which there is no causal connection between the injury and the employment, are not compensable. Fazio v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 264, 109 Fed. (2d) 835).

The mere fact that an injury is contemporaneous or coincident with the employment is not a sufficient basis for an award under the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq. Groom v. Cardillo, 1941 (119 F. 2d 697, 73 App. D. C. 358).

In workmen's compensation proceeding, evidence sustained finding that following removal of last load of freight from railroad box car claimant lifted fellow worker off floor, that in ensuing struggle both fell and that claimant's resulting injury was not sustained in course of employment. Ackerman v. Cardillo, 1944 (140 F. 2d 348, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 310).

Where following removal of freight from railroad box car claimant lifted coworker from floor and in ensuing struggle both fell to floor with resulting injury to claimant and claimant during same morning and against remonstrances of intended victim had indulged in similar prank, the injury did not "arise out of and in course of employment." Ackerman v. Cardillo, 1944 (140 F. 2d 348, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 310).

Injury, Definition of

Under provision of 33 U. S. C. § 902 (2) that injury means accidental injury or death arising out of and in course of employment, "injury" comprises alternative events, and it is not necessary that both "accidental injury" and "death" occur in order that "injury" occur. National Homeopathic Hospital Ass'n of Dist. of Col. v. Britton, 1945 (147 F. 2d 561, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 309, certiorari denied 65 S. Ct. 1185, 89 L. Ed. 1977).

Jurisdiction

Under this chapter, Deputy Commissioner had jurisdiction to entertain a claim by widow of an employee who had been a resident of District, who had been employed by a District employer, and who had been subject to work assignments in the District, although employee was assigned to work outside District at time fatal injury was received. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

The District Court had jurisdiction of action by administrator for balance due on compensation award to plaintiff's decedent although amount owing at time of decedent's death was less than $3,000. Turner v. Christian Heurich Brewing Co. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 681).

Legality of Employment

The Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., made applicable in the District of Columbia as a workmen's compensation act, is applicable to illegally employed employees, as well as to legally employed employees. Mellen v. Hirsch (D. C. Md. 1948, 8 F. R. D. 250, supplemented 8 F. R. D. 248).

Liability for Medical Service

Where physician called defendant's manager and asked if it was all right for him to treat an employee and manager said it was all right if patient would retain him, it constituted sufficient authorization rendering defendant liable for medical services rendered. Skolnick v. Swagart (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 523).

Limitation of Action

When injured employee elected to sue a third person and obtained judgment against tort-feasor, which was reversed, the employee then tried to proceed without paying costs and not being successful tried in forma pauperis, and then discontinued action, it was held that the employee was not entitled to compensation for the statute of limitations had run and employee failed to pursue the third-party remedy to final judgment. Chapman v. Hoage (64 App. D. C. 349, 78 Fed. (2d) 233).

Provisions relating to the time within which the claimant shall present and prosecute his claim are essential parts of the procedure. The court accordingly cannot revive a claim when barred by the limitations contained in the act. Shugard v. Hoage (67 App. D. C. 52, 89 Fed. (2d) 796).

Where a statute gives a right unknown to the common law, and limits the time within which an action shall be brought to assert it, the limitation defines and controls the right. Young v. Hoage (67 App. D. C. 150, 90 Fed. (2d) 395).

Statute of limitations applicable to this case and action must be brought by the personal representative within one year from the date of the death, or the employer must have vested in him within one year from the date of the death of the employee the right of the personal representative to bring such action. Chapman v. Griffith-Consumers Co. (71 App. D. C. 64, 107 Fed. (2d) 263).

The limitation does not begin to run until the claim to compensation arises the term "injury" being equivalent to "compensatable injury." Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Cardillo (71 App. D. C. 163, 107 Fed. (2d) 962).

Limitation of Action

Where defendant caused death of employee of another under such circumstances that, if death had not ensued, the employee would have been entitled to maintain action against defendant or to recover compensation under this section, death action instituted under U. S. C. section 1201 of Title 16 within one year after appointment of guardian for employee's infant son but more than one year after death was barred by limitation of U. S. C. section 1202 of Title 16, notwithstanding employees' compensation act provision that one year limitation on right to compensation for death should not be applicable to infants until appointment of guardian. Webster v. Clodfelter, 1942 (130 F. 2d 434, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 171, 143 A. L. R. 280, affirming 39 F. Supp. 62, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 261, 317 U. S. 689, 87 L. Ed. 552).

Where action for wrongful death was not filed within one year after the death as provided by 33 U. S. C. § 913, action was barred notwithstanding that decedent if he had lived would have been entitled to compensation from his employer or his employer's insurance carrier and action was brought within one year after appointment of guardian for decedent's infant son, which was timely under Longshoremen's Compensation Act, since cause of action against third persons was not affected by the compensation act. Webster v. Clodfelter, 1942 (130 F. 2d 434, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 171, 143 A. L. R. 280, affirming 39 F. Supp. 62, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 261, 317 U. S. 689, 87 L. Ed. 552).

PARTIAL DEPENDENCY

A partial dependency falls within the statute as well as a complete or total dependency. Harris v. Hoage (62 App. D. C. 275, 66 Fed. (2d) 801).

PLACE OF INJURY

As respects liability of employer carrying on any employment in the District of Columbia to injured employee under this section, it was immaterial that injury occurred in Maryland. Moyer v. Cardillo, 1941 (119 F. 2d 785, 73 App. D. C. 261).

Where employer, with main office in New York, maintained office and store yard in District of Columbia, workman's contract of employment was made in the District, employer was engaged in construction work under three contracts, two located in District and one in Virginia, and injured workman's contract of employment was made in the District but he was transferred from one job to another, injury sustained in Virginia was to an employee of an employer carrying on employment in the District so that this section was applicable even though the work was being performed on a federal job on land owned by the United States. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (141 F. 2d 364, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 394).

Where resident of District of Columbia was employed by construction company which had its principal office in the District and at time of injury and prior thereto was engaged in construction work in the District and in immediate vicinity, the employer was carrying on employment in the District and this section was applicable even though work being done at time of injury was on a federal job on property owned by the United States in Maryland. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (141 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 392).

Even though the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. A. § 901 et seq., was adopted as the Compensation Law of the District of Columbia, section 903 (a) of said Act excluding jurisdiction of injuries compensable under state law, has no place in this section, which expressly extends its provisions to cases of injury or death, irrespective of the place where either occurred. Travelers Ins. Co. v. Cardillo, 1944 (141 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 392).

Where salesman's office was in District of Columbia, though his selling contacts were largely outside and his time was nearly equally divided between the two, and he was fatally injured while traveling in Pennsylvania in connection with his employment, this section was applicable. B. F. Goodrich Co. v. Britton, 1944 (139 F. 2d 362, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 221).

POWER OF COMMISSION

The Federal Government may confer upon administrative agencies, such as Deputy Commissioner United States Employees' Compensation Commission, created to aid in performance of governmental functions the determination of questions of fact, including existence of master and servant relation, the test being whether the delegation concerns the exercise of judicial power in enforcing constitutional limitations. Gudmundson v. Cardillo, 1942 (126 F. 2d 521, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 230, affirming 35 F. Supp. 527).

PRESUMPTIONS

Where employee was on his employer's premises and was on his way to an exit within a reasonable time after quitting work, presumption existed that he was in course of his employment and that injury sustained at that time and place arose out of his employment. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. Britton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 17, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

Provision of 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq. that in proceeding thereunder jurisdiction is to be presumed in absence of substantial evidence to contrary applies with equal force to proceedings under this chapter. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

PURPOSE

A prime purpose of this chapter is to provide residents of the District with a practical and expeditious remedy for their industrial accidents and to place on District of Columbia employers a limited and determinate liability. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

QUESTIONS OF LAW

Meaning of "course of employment" within 33 U. S. C. § 902 (2), apart from any particular set of facts, is a question of law. Hurley v. Lowe (App. D. C. 1948, 168 F. 2d 553, certiorari denied, 68 S. Ct. 1338, 334 U. S. 828, 92 L. Ed. 1756).

REMAND

Where question whether Deputy Commissioner had jurisdiction over claim under this chapter was considered and determined by Deputy Commissioner, who was in turn sustained by District Court, and facts pertinent to that issue were not seriously disputed and matter had been fully briefed and argued before Supreme Court, even though Court of Appeals had not determined that issue, a remand for determination thereof was not required, but Supreme Court could consider the jurisdictional issue. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

RES JUDICATA

Where minor's contention, made in common-law action in the District of Columbia, that minor had right to sue at law rather than make a claim for workmen's compensation because employed contrary to Child Labor Law, § 36–201 et seq., of District of Columbia, was definitely adjudicated against minor, contention was not open to further controversy in subsequent action in federal court in Maryland. Mellen v. Hirsch (D. C. Md. 1948, 8 F. R. D. 250, supplemented 8 F. R. D. 248).

Decision of court in District of Columbia that minor had no cause of action in a suit at common-law against employer for injuries because compensation law, 33 U. S. C. § 905, provided exclusive remedy, and that such law was not rendered inapplicable because of employer's alleged violation of the Child Labor Law, § 36–201 et seq. was not ineffective as to minor in subsequent common-law suit against employer in Maryland, on ground that the suit in the District of Columbia was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Mellen v. Hirsch (D. C. Md. 1948, 8 F. R. D. 250, supplemented 8 F. R. D. 248).

REVIEW

Where employer arranged to furnish employee transportation to and from place of work in employer's truck which regularly passed employee's home, and employee was struck by another vehicle while crossing road to where employer's approaching truck would stop, and deputy commissioner concluded that injury did not arise out of and in course of employment, principle that deputy commissioner's findings when supported by substantial evidence are not subject to review was inapplicable since the question presented was a "question of law" not a "question of fact." Ward v. Cardillo, 1943 (135 F. 2d 260, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 343).

In proceeding under this chapter, even if inference made by Deputy Commissioner involves application of broad statutory term or phrase to specific set of facts and is considered more legal than factual in nature, reviewing court's function is exhausted when it becomes evident that Deputy Commissioner's choice has substantial roots in evidence and is not forbidden by law. Cardillo v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 1947 (67 S. Ct. 801, 91 L. Ed. 610).

Court reviewing compensation order must review to determine, not whether principles of law applied by deputy commissioner are correct, but merely whether they are forbidden by law, or without any reasonable legal basis, or are invalidated by some formal principle of law. Hurley v. Lowe (App. D. C. 1948, 168 F. 2d 553).

Reviewing court is limited to determining whether Deputy Commissioner's conclusion in compensation case is forbidden by law or without any reasonable basis. Wetzel v. Britton (App. D. C. 1948, 170 F. 2d 285).

RIGHT OF ACTION

Record clearly shows that the agent of the insurance carrier was a privy to all the proceedings leading to the bringing of the damage suit and its settlement, and it would also be inequitable to permit the employer and carrier to change their position to the prejudice of the claimant who had acquiesced in their position. Metropolitan Casualty Ins. Co. v. Hoage (67 App. D. C. 54, 89 Fed. (2d) 798).

Since claimant was an independent contractor, he is not entitled to claim under the Compensation Act as an employee. Cardillo v. Mockabee (70 App. D. C. 16, 102 Fed. (2d) 620).

Under 33 U. S. C. § 933 providing that acceptance of compensation under an award shall operate as an assignment to employer of all rights of injured employee to recover damages against third person causing injury, the right to maintain an action against a third person causing injury is in the employee if he does not elect to receive compensation and is in the employer if employee elects to receive compensation, and an employee cannot follow both courses. Moore v. Hechinger (D. C., D. C. 1941, 39 F. Supp. 427, affirmed 127 F. 2d 746, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 391).

Regardless of whether employer secures payment of compensation either by taking out insurance or providing for paying such compensation directly, employer remains liable, and employee is entitled to institute proceedings for an award before deputy commissioner and then before United States District Court for collection of the award. Garcia v. De Leon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 637).

SICKNESS AND DISEASE

Findings of fact by deputy commissioner that injury to hip of employee was not proximate cause of pulmonary tuberculosis must be accepted as conclusive if supported by evidence. Powell v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 99, 57 Fed. (2d) 766).

Death from "injuries in the course of employment" is proved by evidence of an epileptic seizure of employee while using hot water hose, which inflicted burns. Georgetown College v. Stone (61 App. D. C. 200, 59 Fed. (2d) 875).

Employee not entitled to compensation because contracting tuberculosis while working in a restaurant. Ayers v. Hoage (61 App. D. C. 388, 63 Fed. (2d) 364).

When there is evidence of a positive nature, and wholly uncontradicted, which definitely and conclusively traces the cause of death and places it wholly at the door of a fatal disease from which the employee was suffering and wholly away from any relation to the work, then, in such a case, the inference must yield to the actual and deputy commissioner's determination must be set aside. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Hoage (62 App. D. C. 189, 65 Fed. (2d) 822).

From an examination of the testimony, and the presumption of verity which the law accords the findings of fact by the deputy commissioner, the appellant has failed to establish a claim within the Compensation Act, as pneumonia causing death of taxicab driver was not occupational disease. Anderson v. Hoage (63 App. D. C. 169, 70 Fed. (2d) 773).

Where employee, on day of death, was engaged in carrying hod up one flight of stairs, and in course of his work he complained of being ill, collapsed, and was taken to hospital where he died because of coronary occlusion, evidence sustained deputy commissioner's denial of compensation on ground that employee did not sustain an injury "arising out of and in course of employment." Carson v. Cardillo, 1942 (132 F. 2d 604, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 82).

Evidence that pre-existing spinal arthritis was aggravated by back injury sustained by employee in 1930 and that after similar injury in 1935 employee became totally disabled from carrying out any type of gainful occupation justified an award of compensation on ground of "total disability" resulting from 1935 injury. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. v. Cardillo, 1942 (127 F. 2d 334, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 342).

That an employee is diseased does not bar his right to recover compensation for an accidental injury. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. v. Cardillo, 1942 (127 F. 2d 334, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 342).

SUBSEQUENT INJURY

Provision of 33 U. S. C. § 908 (f) that if an employee receive an injury which of itself would only cause permanent partial disability but which, combined with a previous disability, does in fact cause permanent total disability, the employer shall provide compensation only for disability caused by the subsequent injury, deals with accidental injury and does not deal with death. National Homeopathic Hospital Ass'n of Dist. of Col. v. Britton, 1945 (147 F. 2d 561, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 309, certiorari denied 65 S. Ct. 1185, 89 L. Ed. 1977).

SUNSTROKE

Death of laborer from sunstroke while working in sunny street was compensable. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Burris (61 App. D. C. 228, 59 Fed. (2d) 1042).

Heat prostration is compensable as accidental injury if suffered while delivering groceries. Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Hoage (62 App. D. C. 6, 63 Fed. (2d) 818).

THIRD PARTY, INJURY BY

Where injured employee has accepted compensation under this chapter so that right to recover damages from third party wrongdoer has been transferred to employer, employer's insurer or the employer may bring action in his own name to his own use and to the use of the injured employee. Moore v. Hechinger, 1942 (127 F. 2d 746, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 391, affirming 39 F. Supp. 427).

Under this chapter, where an injury is sustained through the wrongful act of a third party, the employee must elect between compensation from his employer and suit against the wrongdoer and he cannot have both. Moore v. Hechinger, 1942 (127 F. 2d 746, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 391, affirming 39 F. Supp. 427).

USUAL COURSE OF BUSINESS

Words "usual course" refer to normal operations constituting the regular business of the employer. Hoage v. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. (64 App. D. C. 258, 77 Fed. (2d) 381).

WIDOW

A woman must be a "widow" as defined by the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 902 (16), in order to be entitled to compensation as a "surviving wife" during "widowhood." Weeks v. Behrend, 1943 (135 F. 2d 258, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 341).

§ 36–502 [19: 12]. Exceptions.

This chapter shall not apply in respect to the injury or death of (1) a master or member of a crew of any vessel; (2) an employee of a common carrier by railroad when engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or commerce solely within the District of Columbia; (3) an employee subject to the provisions of chapter 15, Title 5, of the Code of the Law of the United States; and (4) an employee engaged in agriculture, domestic service, or any employment that is casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, occupation, or profession of the employer; and (5) any secretary, stenographer, or other person performing any services in the office of any Member of Congress or under the direction, employment, or at the request of any Member of Congress, within the scope of the duties performed by secretaries, stenographers, or such employees of Members of Congress. (May 17, 1928, 45 Stat. 600, ch. 612, § 2; June 15, 1938, 52 Stat. 689, ch. 392.)

AMENDMENT

Act of 1938 added clause (5).

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 33, ch. 18.

APPLICATION OF STATUTE

Where appellant was injured while working in appellee's car barn, he could not recover under § 44–401 of the Code since § 36–501 has become the applicable workman's compensation act for the District and appellee was not a common carrier by railroad and is excepted from the operation of § 36–501. Keffer v. Capital Transit Co. (C. A., D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 808).

CASUAL EMPLOYMENT

Death of ornamental ironworker resulting from accident while repairing door in grillwork was while engaged in "casual employment," and not in usual course of employer's business. Hoage v. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co. (64 App. D. C. 258, 77 Fed. (2d) 381, Cert. den. 296 U. S. 609, 80 L. Ed. 432, 56 Sup. Ct. 128).

EMPLOYEES' DUTIES CONTROLLING

Where main duty of deckhand employed on a stripper dredge was to coal up dredge from scow, and coal was used to fire engine which operated scoop shovel, deckhand was not a "member of a crew", and hence his claim for injuries was covered by the Longshoremen's Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C. § 901 et seq., as made applicable to a District of Columbia employer and not by the Merchant Marine Act, 46 U. S. C. § 688. Beddoo v. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corporation, 1942 (128 F. 2d 608, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 38).

SECOND INJURY

Where deputy commissioner originally awarded compensation for temporary total disability, stipulated intermediate order finding temporary partial disability was made subject to deputy's right of review when claimant's condition might change, and compensation was paid after a second injury within less than one year of claim based on total disability, even if original award was suspended during reemployment of claimant, and claimant became only partially disabled, that classification did not prejudice claimant's rights to recover for total disability resulting from second injury. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. v. Cardillo, 1942 (127 F. 2d 334, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 342).

TITLE 37.—LIBRARIES

Chap. Sec.

1. Public libraries 37–101

Chapter 1.—PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Sec.

37–101. Public library established—Authority of Commissioners—Acceptance of gifts.
37–102. Branch libraries.
37–103. Persons entitled to use of library—Deposit of fees.
37–104. Board of trustees—Appointment and tenure.
37–105. Duties—Librarian and employees—Annual report.
37–106. Submission of estimates.
37–107. Takoma Park branch—Hours of opening.
37–108. Appropriation for expenditures.
37–109. Transfer of miscellaneous books to District public library.
37–110. Advancement of funds for purchase of books, pamphlets, and periodicals.
37–111. Depository of Government publications.

§ 37–101 [20: 1421]. Public library established—Authority of Commissioners—Acceptance of gifts.

A free public library is hereby established and shall be maintained in the District of Columbia, which shall be the property of the said District and a supplement of the public educational system of said District. Said library shall consist of a central library and such number of branch libraries so located and so supported as to furnish books and other printed matter and information service convenient to the homes and offices of all residents of the said District. All actions relating to such library, or for the recovery of any penalties lawfully established in relation thereto, shall be brought in the name of the District of Columbia, and the commissioners of the said District are authorized on behalf of said District to accept and take title to all gifts, bequests, and devises for the purpose of aiding in the maintenance or endowment of said library; and the commissioners of said District are further authorized to receive, as component parts of said library, collections of books and other publications that may be transferred to them. (June 3, 1896, 29 Stat. 244, ch. 315, § 1; Apr. 1, 1926, 44 Stat. 229, ch. 98, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The second sentence was added by the act of April 1, 1926.

SUITS AGAINST LIBRARY TRUST FUND BOARD

The board may be sued in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, which is hereby given jurisdiction of such suits, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of any trust accepted by it. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1108, ch. 423, § 3; June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1921, ch. 804.)

§ 37–102 [20: 1422]. Branch libraries.

In order to make the said library an effective supplement of the public educational system of the said District and to furnish the system of branch libraries provided for in section 37–101, the board of library trustees, hereinafter provided, is authorized to enter into agreements with the Board of Education of the said District for the establishment and maintenance of branch libraries in suitable rooms in such public-school buildings of the said District as will supplement the central library and branch libraries in separate buildings. The board of library trustees, hereinafter provided, is authorized within the limits of appropriations first made therefor, to rent suitable buildings or parts of buildings for use as branch libraries and distributing stations. (June 3, 1896, ch. 315, §2 (new), as added Apr. 1, 1926, 44 Stat. 229, ch. 98, § 2.)

All persons who are permanent or temporary residents of the District of Columbia shall be entitled to the privileges of said library, including the use of the books contained therein, as a lending or circulating library, subject to such rules and regulations as may be lawfully established in relation thereto. Persons living outside of the said District, but having regular business or employment or attending school in the said District, shall for the purpose of sections 37–101 to 37–106 be deemed temporary residents. Other persons residing in counties of Maryland and Virginia adjacent to the said District may gain the privilege of withdrawing books from the said library by the payment of fees fixed by the board of library trustees hereinafter provided. All fees shall be paid weekly to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of said District of Columbia. (June 3, 1896, 29 Stat. 244, ch. 315, § 2; Apr. 1, 1926, 44 Stat. 229, ch. 98, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment added the last three sentences of this section.

§ 37–104 [20: 1424]. Board of trustees—Appointment and tenure.

The said library shall be in charge of a board of library trustees, who shall purchase the books, magazines, and newspapers and procure the necessary appendages for such library. The said board of trustees shall be composed of nine members, each of whom shall be a taxpayer in the District of Columbia, and shall serve without compensation. They shall be appointed by the commissioners of the District of Columbia and shall hold office for six years. Any vacancy occurring in said board shall be filled by the District commissioners. Said board shall have power to provide such regulations for its organization and government as it may deem necessary. (June 3, 1896, 29 Stat. 244, ch. 315, § 3; Apr. 1, 1926, 44 Stat. 229, ch. 98, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment omitted a proviso and sentence which originally followed the third sentence: "Provided, That at the first meeting of the said board the members shall be divided by lot into three classes. The first class, composed of three members, shall hold office for two years; the second class, composed of three members, shall hold office for four years; the third class, composed of three members, shall hold office for six years."

§ 37–105 [20: 1425]. Duties—Librarian and employees—Annual report.

The said board shall have power to provide for the proper care and preservation of said library, to prescribe rules for taking and returning books, to fix, assess, and collect fines and penalties for the loss or injury to books, and for the retention of books beyond the period fixed by library regulations, and to establish all other needful rules and regulations for the management of the library as the said board shall deem proper. All fines and penalties so collected shall after June 30, 1927, be paid weekly to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for deposit in the treasury of the United States to the credit of said District of Columbia. The said board of trustees shall appoint a librarian to have the care and superintendence of said library, who shall be responsible to the board of trustees for the impartial enforcement of all rules and regulations lawfully established in relation to said library. The said librarian shall appoint such assistants as the board shall deem necessary to the proper conduct of the library. The said board of library trustees shall make an annual report to the commissioners of the District of Columbia relative to the management of the said library. (June 3, 1896, 29 Stat. 244, ch. 315, § 4; Apr. 1, 1926, 44 Stat. 230, ch. 98, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment inserted in the first sentence the words "and for the retention of books beyond the period fixed by library regulations," and added the second sentence.

LIBRARIES

The Librarian of Congress may from time to time transfer to other governmental libraries within the District of Columbia, including the Public Library, books and material in the possession of the Library of Congress in his judgment no longer necessary to its uses, but in the judgment of the custodians of such other collections likely to be useful to them, and may dispose of or destroy such material as has become useless. (Mar. 4, 1909, 35 Stat. 858, ch. 297.)

§ 37–110 [20: 643a]. Advancement of funds for purchase of books, pamphlets, and periodicals.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the librarian of the Free Public Library, upon requisition previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, sums of money not exceeding $25 at the first of each month, to be expended for the purchase of certain books, pamphlets, numbers of periodicals or newspapers, or other printed material, and to be accounted for on itemized vouchers. (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 313, ch. 333, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is a part of the appropriation act for the District of Columbia and merely repeats a provision appearing in prior appropriation acts for the District. It appeared in supplements to the 1929 Code as § 643a of title 20, which relates to revenue and taxation, and is retained in that title as § 47–118 herein.

§ 37–111. Depository of Government publications.

The Public Library of the District of Columbia is hereby constituted a designated depository of governmental publications, and the Superintendent of Documents shall supply to such library one copy of each such publication, in the same form as supplied to other designated depositories. (Sept. 28, 1943, 57 Stat. 568, ch. 243.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Decisions Under Prior Law

The provision of the code with respect to mechanic's liens is "fundamentally the same as in the former statute." Lipscomb v. Hough (52 App. D. C. 313, 286 Fed. 775).

Contract of Lessee

Lessee held to be agent of lessor, in ordering improvements, so as to charge interest of lessor in land. McLean v. Nolan (44 App. D. C. 1).

"Nor does a covenant in the lease, vesting in the lessor title in the buildings, and improvements erected on the premises at the termination of the lease, create the relation of principal and agent between the lessor and lessee." Lipscomb v. Hough (52 App. D. C. 313, 286 Fed. 775), citing Albaugh v. Litho-Marble Decorating Co. (14 App. D. C. 113), Langley v. D'Audigne (31 App. D. C. 409).

"A builder contracting with the lessee of premises to furnish labor and material thereon, with notice that he is dealing with the lessee and not the owner, is estopped to complain of ignorance of the terms of the lease, where as here, it was a matter of public record." Lipscomb v. Hough (52 App. D. C. 313, 286 Fed. 775).

Contract of Owner

"In the latter case, the statutes relative to mechanics' liens * * * are reviewed at length with the conclusion that a lien upon the premises can only be imposed where the building is erected or repaired at the instance of the owner or his agent. If the work is done and materials furnished at the instance of a lessee, or tenant for life, or years, or a person having an equitable interest therein, the lien can only extend to the interest of the lessee, tenant, or equitable owner." Lipscomb v. Hough (52 App. D. C. 313, 286 Fed. 775).

Pleading

Under this section providing that a mechanic's lien may be placed on property not only for work done but also for materials furnished, complaint for removal of lien alleging that contractor did no work on one of 2 lots was insufficient where it failed to allege that no materials were furnished for improvement of such lot. Clarke v. Huff (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 247).

Status of Parties

The status of the parties at the time of the contract determines the question of the right to a lien. Deming v. Wardman Constr. Co. (59 App. D. C. 254, 39 Fed. (2d) 504).

Statutory Construction

A mechanic's lien is purely a creature of statute. "The performance of the work, or the furnishing of the materials, gives merely a right to acquire a lien. The statute prescribes the steps necessary to perfect it. These requirements relate to the remedy rather than the right." "In determining whether a right to a lien exists, the statute should be strictly construed against one claiming such right, * * * but * * * where the right to a lien clearly appears, and the sole question to be determined is whether the claimant has proceeded properly to acquire and establish his lien, the statute should be liberally construed in his favor." Fidelity Storage Corp. v. Trussed Concrete Steel Co. (35 App. D. C. 1), citing James B. Lambie Co. v. Bigelow (34 App. D. C. 49). See also Columbia Brick Co. v. District of Columbia (1 App. D. C. 351);

Alfred Richards Brick Co. v. Atkinson (16 App. D. C. 462); Alfred Richards Brick Co. v. Trott (23 App. D. C. 284) (holding that a single mechanic's lien should cover no more than a single building, except in a case where there are two or more buildings joined together and owned by a single person).

In determining whether a right to a lien exists, the statute should be strictly construed; but where the right to a lien is clear and the question is whether the claimant has proceeded properly, the statute should be liberally construed in his favor. Deming v. Wardman Constr. Co. (59 App. D. C. 254, 39 Fed. (2d) 504).

SUBSTANTIAL PERFORMANCE

In a proceeding to foreclose a mechanic's lien, a contractor who intentionally fails to perform the contract according to its terms, and refuses to remedy the defect, is not entitled to the benefit of the doctrine of substantial performance. Turner v. Henning (49 App. D. C. 183, 262 Fed. 637).

WAIVER

Taking of security generally operates as waiver of right to mechanic's lien, but a mere agreement to take such security, not carried into effect, does not operate as a waiver. McMurray v. Brown (91 U. S. 257, 23 L. Ed. 321, decided under 11 Stat. 376, ch. 17).

§ 38–102 [25: 352]. Notice.

Any such contractor wishing to avail himself of the provision aforesaid, whether his claim be due or not, shall file in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District during the construction or within three months after the completion of such building, improvement, repairs, or addition, or the placing therein or in connection therewith of any engine, machinery, or other thing so as to become a fixture, a notice of his intention to hold a lien on the property hereby declared liable to such lien for the amount due or to become due to him, specifically setting forth the amount claimed, the name of the party against whose interest a lien is claimed, and a description of the property to be charged, and the said clerk shall file said notice and record the same in a book to be kept for the purpose. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1238.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COMPLETION

Question of completion or noncompletion should be determined by what the common intelligence and the common usage regard as completion, always, of course, with reference to the provisions of the building contract. At the same time no amount of work is too small, the completion of which is required to prevent the consummation of a fraud. Riggs Fire Ins. Co. v. Shedd (16 App. D. C. 150).

The abandonment of the work by the original contractor is deemed in law to be a completion of it for the purpose of filing mechanics' liens by subcontractors and materialmen. Harper v. Galliher & Huguely (58 App. D. C. 252, 29 Fed. (2d) 452, cert. den. 278 U. S. 657, 73 L. Ed. 565, 49 Sup. Ct. 185).

DISTINCT AND SEPARATE NOTICES

Two or more distinct and separate notices of lien may be comprised in one single instrument of writing; and two or more notices of lien may be enforced in one and the same proceeding in equity where the parties may be the same. Dicta in Alfred Richards Brick Co. v. Trott (23 App. D. C. 284).

"ELEVATOR" DEFINED

Electric passenger elevator is both an engine and machine; and whether its motive power be electricity, water or steam, can make no difference in the contemplation of the statute, subjecting building to a lien under Mechanics' Lien Law. Lefler v. Forsberg (1 App. D. C. 36).

INTEREST IN PROPERTY

All persons concerned or interested in the estate are to be at least constructively notified of the interest in the property and the name against which the lien is claimed. Chamberlain Metal Weather Strip Co. v. Karrick (60 App. D. C. 316, 53 Fed. (2d) 928).

NAMING WRONG PERSON

Notice of mechanic's lien naming wrong person as owner is invalid. Chamberlain Metal Weather Strip Co. v. Karrick (60 App. D. C. 316, 53 Fed. (2d) 928).

PURPOSE OF LIEN

The purpose of mechanic's lien laws is to protect by the property those who contribute to its value by labor or materials, and it is only by compliance with statutory requirements that this can be accomplished. Chamberlain Metal Weather Strip Co. v. Karrick (60 App. D. C. 316, 53 Fed. (2d) 928).

REQUISITES

"It is apparent that, under the statute, three essential averments are necessary to constitute a valid notice. These are, first, the amount claimed; second, the name of the party against whose interest the lien is claimed; and, third, a description of the property to be charged." Fidelity Storage Corp. v. Trussed Concrete Steel Co. (35 App. D. C. 1).

TIME FOR FILING

A mechanic's lien, if filed by an original contractor, must be filed either during the construction of the improvement or within three months after its completion. Harper v. Galliher & Huguely (58 App. D. C. 252, 29 Fed. (2d) 452, cert. den. 278 U. S. 657, 73 L. Ed. 565, 49 Sup. Ct. 185).

§ 38–103 [25: 353]. Subcontractor.

Any person directly employed by the original contractor, whether as subcontractor, material man, or laborer, to furnish work or materials for the completion of the work contracted for as aforesaid, shall be entitled to a similar lien to that of the original contractor upon his filing a similar notice with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District to that above mentioned, subject, however, to the conditions set forth in sections 38–104 to 38–122. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1239.)

MATERIALMEN AS CONTRACTORS

Materialmen held to be contractors under § 1237 (§ 38–101), and not subcontractors under this section. McLean v. Nolan (44 App. D. C. 1).

SUB-SUBCONTRACTOR

Under this section, a subcontractor but not a sub-subcontractor has right to file a mechanic's lien. Battista v. Horton, Myers & Raymond, 1942 (128 F. 2d 29, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 1).

Where general contractors and subcontractor had entered into written agreements with owners not to permit or suffer any mechanic's liens to be filed against property but contract between subcontractor and sub-subcontractor did not specifically impose that condition on the subsubcontractor, it was entitled under its contract to retain all its legal rights until payment or a valid tender of payment. Battista v. Horton, Myers & Raymond, 1942 (128 F. 2d 29, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 1).

WAIVER

Subcontractors who waive their remedy under the mechanic's lien statute at the instance of the owner, who refuses to pay the contractor until such releases are executed, cannot, in the absence of fraud, have the release set aside and the lien reinstated, when it appears that the amount paid the contractor was insufficient to pay the subcontractors in full. Stevens v. Gordon (48 App. D. C. 604).

§ 38–104 [25: 354]. Conditions.

All such liens in favor of parties so employed by the contractor shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the original contract except such as shall relate to the waiver of liens and shall be limited to the amount to become due to the original contractor and be satisfied, in whole or in part, out of said amount only; and if said original contractor, by reason of any breach of the contract on his part, shall be entitled to recover less than the amount agreed upon in his contract, the liens of said parties so employed by him shall be enforceable only for said reduced amount, and if said original contractor shall be entitled to recover nothing said liens shall not be enforceable at all. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1240.)

§ 38–105 [25: 355]. Notice to owner.

The said subcontractor or other person employed by the contractor as aforesaid, besides filing a notice with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia as aforesaid, shall serve the same upon the owner of the property upon which the lien is claimed, by leaving a copy thereof with said owner or his agent, if said owner or agent be a resident of the District, or if neither can be found, by posting the same on the premises; and on his failure to do so, or until he shall do so, the said owner may make payments to his contractor according to the terms of his contract, and to the extent of such payments the lien of the principal contractor shall be discharged and the amount for which the property shall be chargeable in favor of the parties so employed by him reduced. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1385, ch. 854, § 1241.)

After notice shall be filed by said party employed under the original contractor and a copy thereof served upon the owner or his agents as aforesaid, the owner shall be bound to retain out of any subsequent payments becoming due to the contractor a sufficient amount to satisfy any indebtedness due from said contractor to the said subcontractor, or other person so employed by him, secured by lien as aforesaid, otherwise the said party shall be entitled to enforce his lien to the extent of the amount so accruing to the principal contractor. NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONTRACTOR PAID IN FULL

Where the owner pays the contractor in full, without notice of subcontractor's right, the subcontractor has no lien upon moneys subsequently accruing to contractor's surety who completes the work under the power reserved to it in the bond. Winter v. Hazen-Latimer Co. (42 App. D. C. 469).

LIMITATION OF RIGHTS

"The statute limits the right of a subcontractor to a lien upon money due the contractor from the owner at the time notice is given the owner." Winter v. Hazen-Latimer Co. (42 App. D. C. 469).

SUBCONTRACTOR'S RIGHTS

Subcontractor's rights are "dependent on the contract between the owner and the builder and on the state of the accounts between them; and * * * the subcontractors were bound by all the terms and conditions of that contract." But the subcontractor is equally entitled to the benefits of the contract as far as it inures to his advantage. Riggs Fire Ins. Co. v. Shedd (16 App. D. C. 150).

§ 38–107 [25: 357]. Subcontractor entitled to know terms of contract.

Any subcontractor or other person employed by the contractor as aforesaid shall be entitled to demand of the owner or his authorized agent a statement of the terms under which the work contracted for is being done and the amount due or to become due to the contractor executing the same, and if the owner or his agent shall fail or refuse to give the said information, or wilfully state falsely the terms of the contract or the amounts due or unpaid thereunder, the said property shall be liable to the lien of the said party demanding said information, in the same manner as if no payments had been made to the contractor before notice served on the owner as aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1385, ch. 854, § 1243.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SUBCONTRACTOR'S KNOWLEDGE OF TERMS

"The subcontractor should acquaint himself with the terms and conditions of the building contract. This information is made available by statute * * *. In the absence of anything to the contrary, we must assume that the plaintiff possessed this information." Winter v. Hazen-Latimer Co. (42 App. D. C. 469).

§ 38–108 [25: 358]. Advance payments.

If the owner, for the purpose of avoiding the provisions hereof, and defeating the lien of the subcontractor or other person employed by the contractor, as aforesaid, shall make payments to the contractor in advance of the time agreed upon therefor in the contract, and the amount still due or to become due to the contractor shall be insufficient to satisfy the liens of the subcontractors or others so employed by the contractor, the property shall remain subject to said liens in the same manner as if such payments had not been made. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1385, ch. 854, § 1244.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BAD FAITH

In suit by subcontractors to establish liens against owners who had made advance payments to general contractor prior to filing of notice of liens by subcontractors, District Court's ruling that actual bad faith on owners' part need not be shown was erroneous. Merrill v. B. R. Acker Co., 1944 (142 F. 2d 102, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 51).

Where owner has made advances to general contractor in order to speed up the work, prior to filing of notice of liens by subcontractors, bad faith cannot be presumed from mere fact of advance payments, and something more is necessary to support such an inference, in order to establish owner's liability to subcontractors under this section. Merrill v. B. R. Acker Co., 1944 (142 F. 2d 102, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 51).

EVIDENCE, SUFFICIENCY

In suit by subcontractors to establish liens against owners who had made advance payments to general contractor prior to filing of notice of liens by subcontractors, evidence did not disclose purpose by owner to defeat subcontractors' liens. Merrill v. B. R. Acker Co., 1944 (142 F. 2d 102, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 51).

EXTENT OF LIEN

Where owners had, in good faith, made advance payments to general contractor and at time notice of lien was first filed by one of the subcontractors only a few dollars remained due from owners to general contractor, the subcontractors were not entitled to mechanic's liens in excess of amount remaining due when notice of lien was filed and served. Merrill v. B. R. Acker Co., 1944 (142 F. 2d 102, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 51).

REMEDY OF SUBCONTRACTORS

Subcontractors have ample opportunity to protect themselves against advance payments by owner to general contractor under §§ 38–103, 38–105, 38–107 entitling subcontractors to require owner to disclose terms of general contract and state of account between himself and general contractor and to secure liens by filing them and giving notice to owner. Merrill v. B. R. Acker Co., 1944 (142 F. 2d 102, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 51).

§ 38–109 [25: 359]. Priority of lien.

The lien hereby given shall be preferred to all judgments, mortgages, deeds of trusts, liens, and incumbrances which attach upon the building or ground affected by said lien subsequently to the commencement of the work upon the building, as well as to conveyances executed, but not recorded, before that time, to which recording is necessary, as to third persons; except that nothing herein shall affect the priority of a mortgage or deed of trust given to secure the purchase money for the land, if the same be recorded within ten days from the date of the acknowledgment thereof. When a mortgage or deed of trust of real estate securing advances thereafter to be made for the purpose of erecting buildings and improvements thereon is given, or when an owner of lands contracts with a builder for the sale of lots and the erection of buildings thereon, and agrees to advance moneys toward the erection of such buildings, the lien hereinbefore authorized shall have priority to all advances made after the filing of said notices of lien, and the lien shall attach to the right, title, and interest of the owner in said building and land to the extent of all advances which shall have become due after the filing of such notice of such lien, and shall also attach to and be a lien on the right, title, and interest of the person so agreeing to purchase said land at the time of the filing of said notices of lien. When a building shall be erected or repaired by a lessee or tenant for life or years, or a person having an equitable estate or interest in such building or land on which it stands, the lien created by this act shall only extend to and cover the interest or estate of such lessee, tenant, or equitable owners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1385, ch. 854, § 1245.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

WHEN LIEN ATTACHES

Mechanic's lien attaches at commencement of work and sale thereafter does not affect validity. Deland v. Wagner (62 App. D. C. 54, 64 Fed. (2d) 552).

The mechanic's lien attached upon the property at the time of the commencement of the work upon the building, but was subordinate to two deeds of trust previously executed. Deland v. Wagner (62 App. D. C. 54, 64 Fed. (2d) 552).

§ 38–110 [25: 360]. How lien enforced.

The proceeding to enforce the lien hereby given shall be a bill in equity, which shall contain a brief statement of the contract on which the claim is founded, the amount due thereon, the time when the notice was filed with the clerk, and a copy thereof served on the owner or his agent, if so served, and the time when the building or the work thereon was completed, with a description of the premises and other material facts; and shall pray that the premises be sold and the proceeds of sale applied to the satisfaction of the lien. If such suit be brought by any person entitled, other than the principal contractor, the latter shall be made a party defendant, as well as all other persons who may have filed notices of liens, as aforesaid. All or any number of persons having liens on the same property may join in one suit, their respective claims being distinctly stated in separate paragraphs; and if several suits are brought by different claimants and are pending at the same time, the court may order them to be consolidated. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1386, ch. 854, § 1246.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

If claim filed under law as it existed prior to act of Congress of 2d of July, 1884, it should have been made out against the former owner of the property with whom contract was made and not against subsequent purchaser. Lefler v. Forsberg (1 App. D. C. 36).

There is no doubt of the right of the mortgagees and others acquiring an interest in the property against which the lien is sought to be enforced, to require and insist upon strict proof of everything that is essential to maintain the lien. Brown v. Waring (1 App. D. C. 378).

Burden is on plaintiffs to show by clear proof, when the buildings were commenced, the nature and character of the work and materials furnished and the time when the buildings were completed; and the failure to establish these facts, to a reasonable intent, will cause the plaintiffs to fail in their claim to a lien. Brown v. Waring (1 App. D. C. 378).

Sworn answer of defendant made it necessary for complainant to prove all allegations of bill which includes filing of notice of lien in the manner and within time prescribed by statute. Landvoight v. Melovich (1 App. D. C. 498).

To enforce mechanics' liens although a personal judgment can only be enforced against party who incurred debt, still a personal decree by subcontractors against the owner of the property as well as original contractor is proper, especially where record shows an unexpended balance in owner's hands more than enough to pay claims of subcontractors. Emack v. Rushenberger (8 App. D. C. 249).

It has never been the practice for persons holding or claiming mechanics' liens, who have been made defendants, to take affirmative action as a prerequisite for their participation in the fund to be realized by the suit. Emack v. Campbell (14 App. D. C. 186).

Notices of lien should specifically set forth the amount claimed and not the items that go to make up that amount. Emack v. Campbell (14 App. D. C. 186).

In General

This section provides means for the enforcement of such liens only when filed within the limitations of the statutes. Harper v. Galliher (58 App. D. C. 252, 29 Fed. (2d) 452, cert. den. 278 U. S. 657, 73 L. Ed. 565, 49 Sup. Ct. 185).

Bill in Equity

A bill in equity is proper proceeding to enforce mechanics' lien against trustees under deed of trust. Roth v. Eisinger Mill & Lbr. Co. (63 App. D. C. 128, 70 Fed. (2d) 294).

Reinsurance Agreements

Reinsurers are liable to materialmen upon the first reinsurance agreements. Bruckner-Mitchell v. Sun Indem. Co. (65 App. D. C. 178, 82 Fed. (2d) 434).

Fact that payment, under the reinsurance agreements, is to be made to the District of Columbia is not conclusive that only such a default under the bond as would affect the District in its own right, as distinguished from such a default as affects materialmen, is intended to be covered by the reinsurance agreements. Bruckner-Mitchell v. Sun Indem. Co. (65 App. D. C. 178, 82 Fed. (2d) 434).

Subcontractor Entitled to Lien

Under § 1239 (§ 38–103) a subcontractor is entitled to a mechanic's lien, which must be enforced by a bill in equity. Woodward v. Union Trust Co. (49 App. D. C. 173, 262 Fed. 627).

§ 38–111 [25: 361]. Decree of sale.

If the right of the complainant, or of any of the parties to the suit, to the lien herein provided for shall be established, the court shall decree a sale of the land and premises or the estate and interest therein of the person who, as owner, contracted for the erection, repair, improvement of, or addition to the building, as aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1386, ch. 854, § 1247.)

§ 38–112 [25: 362]. Subcontractor preferred to contractor.

If the original contractor and the persons contracting or employed under him shall both have filed notices of liens, as aforesaid, the latter shall first be satisfied out of the proceeds of sale before the original contractor, but not in excess of the amount due him, and the balance, if any, of said amount shall be paid to him. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1386, ch. 854, § 1248.)

§ 38–113 [25: 363]. Distribution.

If one, or some only, of the persons employed under the original contractor shall have served notice on the owner, as aforesaid, before payments made by him to the original contractor, said party or parties shall be entitled to priority of satisfaction out of said proceeds to the amount of such payments; but, subject to this provision, if the proceeds of sale, after paying thereout the costs of the suit, shall be insufficient to satisfy the liens of said parties employed under the original contractor the said proceeds shall be distributed ratably among them to the extent of the payments accruing to the original contractor subsequently to the service of notice on the owner by said parties, as aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1386, ch. 854, § 1249.)

§ 38–114 [25: 364]. Several buildings.

In case of labor done or materials furnished for the erection or repair of two or more buildings joined together and owned by the same person or persons, it shall not be necessary to determine the amount of work done or materials furnished for each separate building, but only the aggregate amount upon all the buildings so joined, and the decree may be for the sale of all the buildings and the land on which they are erected as one building, or they may be sold separately if it shall seem best to the court. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1386, ch. 854, § 1250.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Separate Notices

Where each lienor filed separate notices of lien, each in the full amount due, against each of the two lots, trustees under deed of trust were not prejudiced by release of the lien on one lot. Roth v. Eisinger Mill & Lbr. Co. (63 App. D. C. 128, 70 Fed. (2d) 294).

Whole Row of Buildings

Where the contract to erect a row of buildings related to the row as an entirety and not to the particular buildings separately, the whole row was a building in the meaning of the mechanic's lien statute, from having been thus united by the parties in one contract, as one general piece of work, and the lien could be claimed on the whole row of buildings. Phillips v. Gilbert (101 U. S. 721, 25 L. Ed. 833, decided under 11 Stat. 376, ch. 17).

§ 38–115 [25: 365]. When suit to be commenced.

Any person, entitled to a lien, as aforesaid, may commence his suit to enforce the same at any time within a year from and after the filing of the notice aforesaid or within six months from the completion of the building or repairs aforesaid, on his failure to do which the said lien shall cease to exist, unless his said claim be not due at the expiration of said periods, in which case the action must be commenced within three months after the said clam shall have become due. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1251.)

§ 38–116 [25: 366]. Extent of ground bound by lien.

If there be any contest as to the dimensions of the ground claimed to be subjected to the lien aforesaid, the court shall determine the same upon the evidence and describe the same in the decree of sale. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1252.)

§ 38–117 [25: 367]. Entry of satisfaction.

Whenever any person having a lien by virtue hereof shall have received satisfaction of his claim and cost, he shall, on the demand, and at the cost of the person interested, enter said claim satisfied, in the clerk's office aforesaid, and on his failure or refusal so to do he shall forfeit fifty dollars to the party aggrieved, and all damages that the latter may have sustained by reason of such failure or refusal. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1253.)

§ 38–118 [25: 368]. Payment into court and release.

In any suit to enforce a lien hereunder, the owner of the building and premises to which such lien may have attached, as aforesaid, may be allowed to pay into court the amount claimed by the lienor, and such additional amount, to cover interest and costs, as the court may direct, or he may file a written undertaking, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the court, to the effect that he and they will pay the judgment that may be recovered and costs, which judgment shall be rendered against all the persons so undertaking. On the payment of said money into court, or the approval of such undertaking, the property shall be released from such lien, and any money so paid in shall be subject to the final decree of the court. No such undertaking shall be approved by the court until the complainant shall have had at least two days' notice of the defendant's intention to apply to the court therefor, which notice shall give the names and residences of the persons intended to be offered as sureties and the time when the motion for such approval will be made, and such sureties shall make oath, if required, that they are worth, over and above all debts and liabilities, double the amount of said lien. The complainant may appear and object to such approval. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1254.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BOND FILED

Where bond is filed by purchaser of realty, for release of mechanic's lien, the suit to foreclose the lien is properly dismissed. Maiatico v. Fletcher (59 App. D. C. 250, 39 Fed. (2d) 295).

Upon the filing and approval of the undertaking of the owner and his surety, the property was released from the operation of the mechanics' lien. Deland v. Wagner (62 App. D. C. 54, 64 Fed. (2d) 552).

NOTICE NOT REQUIRED

"It will be observed that no notice is required under section 1254 (this section), where a money payment is made by the owner; the theory evidently being that cash speaks for itself, and that no one possibly could be prejudiced by the substitution of cash for the obligation of the owner to pay the amount due under the contract. It was for this reason that section 1255 (§ 38–119) makes no mention of a cash payment." Woodward v. Union Trust Co. (49 App. D. C. 173, 262 Fed. 627).

PAYMENT INTO COURT OF SUM EQUAL TO LIEN

"The evident purpose of sections 1254 and 1255 (this section and § 38–119) is to enable the owner, against whose building or fixtures a lien has been asserted, to be relieved of the embarrassment of the lien through the payment into court of a sum equal to the amount of the lien with interest and costs, or the filing of an undertaking to cover that amount. Where admittedly an amount is due the principal contractor, and the lien is asserted by a subcontractor, there is no contest between the owner and the subcontractor; the issue being restricted to the contractor and subcontractor. If the owner does not take advantage of these provisions of the code for the release of the lien, the statute imposes upon him no duty to notify the contractor of the pendency of the subcontractor's suit." Woodward v. Union Trust Co. (49 App. D. C. 173, 262 Fed. 627).

§ 38–119 [25: 369]. Undertaking to discharge liens before suit.

Such an undertaking as above mentioned may be offered before any suit brought in order to discharge the property from existing liens, in which case notice shall be given as aforesaid to the parties whose liens it is sought to have discharged, and the same proceedings shall be had as above directed in relation to the undertaking to be given after the commencement of the suit, and said undertaking shall be to the effect that the owner and his said sureties will pay any judgment that may be rendered in any suit that may thereafter be brought for the enforcement of said lien. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1255.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXCLUSIVE REMEDY

Where this section prescribed a specific method for removal of mechanic's liens from records by paying into court amount claimed plus interest and costs or by filing a bond, a direct action to remove the lien could not be maintained, notwithstanding plaintiff's contention that he was without funds either to pay amounts into court or to secure a bond and that delay incident to ordinary procedure would cause him irreparable damage, particularly where owner admitted that he had deposited sufficient money to cover lien with a title insurance company. Clarke v. Huff (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 247).

§ 38–120 [25: 370]. Decree against sureties.

If such undertaking be approved before any suit brought, such suit shall be a suit in equity against the owner, to which the sureties may be made parties; if the undertaking be approved after suit brought, the said sureties shall ipso facto become parties to the suit, and in either case the decree of the court shall be against the sureties as well as the owner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1256.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

OWNER AND SURETY; DECREE AGAINST

Where owner and his surety had filed an undertaking and had thereby released the mechanics' lien, the decree was properly rendered against said owner and surety. Deland v. Wagner (62 App. D. C. 54, 64 Fed. (2d) 552).

§ 38–121 [25: 371]. No action by subcontractor against owner.

No subcontractor, materialman, or workman employed under the original contractor shall be entitled to a personal judgment or decree against the owner of the premises for the amount due to him from said original contractor, except upon a special promise of such owner, in writing, for a sufficient consideration, to be answerable for the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1387, ch. 854, § 1257.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This section is applicable although the owner's contract with the contractor and the latter's contract with the subcontractor were to be performed in Maryland. Mathews v. Libbey (42 App. D. C. 272).

PERSONAL OBLIGATION

Where principal contract did not cover additional work which owner, through general contractor requested plumbing subcontractor to perform for owner, subcontractor's claim against owner was based on owner's personal promise to pay owner's own debt and not debt of another, and authorizing subcontractor to recover amount owed by original contractor from owner who specially promises in writing for consideration to be answerable for such amount was inapplicable to subcontractor's claim against owner, and such claim was not within statute of frauds, § 12–302, requiring special promise to answer for debt of another person to be in writing. Jones v. Guice (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 190).

§ 38–122 [25: 372]. Judgment for deficiency upon a sale.

In any suit brought to enforce a lien by virtue of the provisions aforesaid, if the proceeds of the property affected thereby shall be insufficient to satisfy such lien, a personal judgment for the deficiency may be given in favor of the lien or against the owner of the premises or the original contractor, as the case may be, whichever contracted with him for the labor or materials furnished by him, provided such person be a party to the suit and shall have been personally served with process therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1258.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FORMER OWNERS LIABLE

Where property was sold under a deed of trust, it was properly held that a personal judgment for the deficiency should be rendered against the former owners who contracted for the repairs. Davidson v. E. F. Brooks Co. (46 App. D. C. 457, cert. den. 245 U. S. 665, 62 L. Ed. 538, 38 Sup. Ct. 63). See also Emack v. Rushenberger (8 App. D. C. 249); McCarthy v. Holtman (19 App. D. C. 150).

§ 38–123 [25: 373]. Wharves and lots.

Any person who shall furnish materials or labor in filling up any lot or in constructing any wharf thereon, or dredging the channel of the river in front of any wharf, under any contract with the owner, shall be entitled to a lien for the value of such work or materials on said lot and wharf upon the same conditions and to be enforced in the same manner as in the case of work done in the erection of buildings, as provided in section 38–110. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1259.)

§ 38–124 [25: 374]. Artisans' lien.

Any mechanic or artisan who shall make, alter, or repair any article of personal property at the request of the owner shall have a lien thereon for his just and reasonable charges for his work done and materials furnished, and may retain the same in his possession until said charges are paid; but if possession is parted with by his consent such lien shall cease. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1260.)

§ 38–125 [25: 375]. Enforcement by sale.

If the amount due and for which a lien is given by section 38–124 is not paid after the end of a month after the same is due, and the property bound by said lien does not exceed the sum of fifty dollars, then the party entitled to such lien, after demand of payment upon the debtor, if he be within the District, may proceed to sell the property so subject to lien at public auction, after giving notice once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published in the District, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied, first, to the expenses of such sales and the discharge of such lien, and the remainder, if any, shall be paid over to the owner of the property. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1263.)

§ 38–126 [25: 376]. Enforcement by bill in equity.

If the value of the property so subject to lien shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, the proceeding to enforce such lien shall be by bill or petition in equity, and the decree, which shall be rendered according to the due course of proceedings in equity, besides subjecting the thing upon which the lien was attached to sale for the satisfaction of the plaintiff's demand, shall adjudge that the plaintiff recover his demand against the defendant from whom such claim is due, and may have execution therefor as at law. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1264.)

Chapter 2.—GARAGE KEEPERS AND LIVERYMEN

Sec.
38–201. Lien of garage keepers and liverymen.
38–202. Enforcement of lien by sale.
38–203. Enforcement of lien by bill in equity.

§ 38–201 [13: 4]. Lien of garage keepers and liverymen.

It shall be lawful for all persons keeping or boarding any animals at livery within the District, under any agreement with the owner thereof, to detain such animals until all charges under such agreement for the care, keep, or board of such animals shall have been paid: Provided, however, That notice in writing shall first be given to such owner in person or at his last-known place of residence of the amount of such charges and the intention to detain such animal or animals until such charges shall be paid. Garage keepers shall also have a lien for their charges for storage, repairs, and supplies of or concerning motor vehicles, when such charges are incurred by an owner or conditional vendee of such motor vehicles, and may detain such motor vehicles at any time they may have lawful possession thereof, after giving a notice similar to that provided for liverymen. If said charges are not paid in thirty days said lien may be enforced in the manner provided in section 38–203. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1262; Apr. 19, 1920, 41 Stat. 568, ch. 153.)

AMENDMENT

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Congress, in amending this section, seems to have taken notice that motor vehicles are sold frequently upon conditional sale contracts, and accordingly provided for a lien in favor of garage keepers, where the charges are incurred either by the owner or the conditional vendee. Barrett v. Commercial Credit Co. (54 App. D. C. 249, 296 Fed. 996).

The very fact that the statute awards a lien for work done or materials furnished at the instance of the conditional vendee, and in view of the further fact that the automobile business is largely conducted upon a credit basis, by which dealers protect themselves through conditional sales agreements, are indicative of the legislative intent to give such a lien priority over the conditional bill of sale. Barrett v. Commercial Credit Co. (54 App. D. C. 249, 296 Fed. 996).

§ 38–202 [13: 5]. Enforcement of lien by sale.

If the amount due and for which a lien is given by section 38–201 is not paid after the end of a month after the same is due, and the property bound by said lien does not exceed the sum of fifty dollars, then the party entitled to such lien, after demand of payment upon the debtor, if he be within the District, may proceed to sell the property so subject to lien at public auction, after giving notice once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published in the District, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied, first, to the expenses of such sales and the discharge of such lien, and the remainder, if any, shall be paid over to the owner of the property. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1263.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 38–203 [13: 6]. Enforcement of lien by bill in equity.

If the value of the property so subject to lien shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, the proceeding to enforce such lien shall be by bill or petition in equity, and the decree, which shall be rendered according to the due course of proceedings in equity, besides subjecting the thing upon which the lien was attached to sale for the satisfaction of the plaintiff's demand, shall adjudge that the plaintiff recover his demand against the defendant from whom such claim is due, and may have execution therefor as at law. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1388, ch. 854, § 1264.)

Chapter 3.—HOSPITALS

Sec.

38–301. Hospitals to have lien for services on recovery in accident cases.
38–302. Notice to be filed.
38–303. Liability for not paying hospital amount of its lien.
38–304. Permission to examine hospital records.
38–305. Clerk to provide lien docket.

§ 38–301 [24: 22]. Hospitals to have lien for services on recovery in accident cases.

Every association, corporation, or other institution maintaining a hospital in the District of Columbia, which shall furnish medical or other service to any patient injured by reason of an accident causing injuries not covered by the Employees' Compensation Act or the Workmen's Compensation Act, shall, if such injured party shall assert or maintain a claim against another for damages on account of such injuries, have a lien upon that part going or belonging to such patient, of any recovery or sum had or collected or to be collected by such patient, or by his heirs or personal representatives in the case of his death, whether by judgment or by settlement or compromise to the amount of the reasonable and necessary charges of such hospital for the treatment, care, and maintenance of such patient in such hospital up to the date of payment of such damages: Provided, That the lien herein set forth shall not be applied or considered valid against any one suffering injuries coming under the Employees' Compensation Act or the Workmen's Compensation Act in this District. (June 30, 1939, 53 Stat. 990, ch. 255, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Evidently the acts above referred to are the federal laws providing compensation for injured governmental employees, which are made applicable to District employees by U. S. C., title 5, § 794, and the Workmen's Compensation Act for the District, §§ 36–501, 36–502, which make the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (U. S. C., title 33, §§ 901–950) applicable to the District.

§ 38–302 [24: 23]. Notice to be filed.

No such lien shall be effective, however, unless a written notice containing the name and address of the injured person, the date of the accident, the name and location of the hospital, and the name of the person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations alleged to be liable to the injured party for the injuries received, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in a docket provided for such liens, prior to the payment of any moneys to such injured person, his attorneys, or legal representatives as compensation for such injuries; nor unless the hospital shall also mail, postage prepaid, a copy of such notice with a statement of the date of filing thereof to the person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations alleged to be liable to the injured party for the injuries sustained prior to the payment of any moneys to such injured person, his attorneys, or legal representatives as compensation for such injuries. Such hospital shall mail a copy of such notice to any insurance carrier which has insured such person, firm, or corporation against such liability, where the name of such insurance carrier is ascertained. (June 30, 1939, 53 Stat. 990, ch. 255, § 2.)

§ 38–303 [24: 24]. Liability for not paying hospital amount of its lien.

Any person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations, including an insurance carrier, making any payment to such patient or to his attorneys or heirs or legal representatives as compensation for the injury sustained, after the filing and mailing of such notice without paying to such hospital the amount of its lien or so much thereof as can be satisfied out of the moneys due under any final judgment or compromise or settlement agreement after paying the amount of any prior liens, shall for a period of one year from the date of payment to such patient or his heirs, attorneys, or legal representatives, as aforesaid, be and remain liable to such hospital for the amount which such hospital was entitled to receive as aforesaid; and any such association, corporation, or other institution maintaining such hospital may, within such period, enforce its lien by a suit at law against such person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations making any such payment. (June 30, 1939, 53 Stat. 990, ch. 255, § 3.)

Any person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations legally liable for such lien or against whom a claim shall be asserted for compensation for such injuries, shall be permitted to examine the ledger entries and similar records of any such association, corporation, or other institution or body maintaining such hospital for the purpose of ascertaining the basis for such lien. (June 30, 1939, 53 Stat. 991, ch. 255, § 4.)

§ 38–305 [24: 26]. Clerk to provide lien docket.

The clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall provide a suitable bound book to be called the hospital lien docket, in which, upon the filing of any lien claim under the provisions of this chapter, he shall enter the name of the injured person, the name of the person, firm, or corporation alleged to be liable for the injuries, the date of the accident, and the name of the hospital or other institution making the claim. Said clerk shall make a proper index of the same in the name of the injured person and the clerk shall charge such reasonable fees, not to exceed the sum of $1, as the court may by rule fix for the recording, indexing, and the releasing of the lien so filed. (June 30, 1939, 53 Stat. 991, ch. 255, § 5.)

§ 39–101 [20: 1441]. Militia—Persons to be enrolled.

Every able-bodied male citizen resident within the District of Columbia, of the age of eighteen years and under the age of forty-five years, excepting persons exempted by section 39–102, and idiots, lunatics, common drunkards, vagabonds, paupers, and persons convicted of any infamous crime, shall be enrolled in the militia. Persons so convicted after enrollment shall forthwith be disenrolled; and in all cases of doubt respecting the age of a person enrolled, the burden of proof shall be upon him. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146 amended the act of Mar. 1, 1899, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328. Some of the sections of the 1899 act were repealed, some amended, and others were entirely new sections added by the act of 1909. In the history lines of this chapter, the section number of the 1899 act refers to the section of the original act as it appears in 25 Stat. 772 et seq. The section number in the 1909 act in the history line refers to the section of the 1899 act as amended by later act and shows the new number and wording of the section as it is found in 35 Stat. 629 et seq.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–102 [20: 1442]. Exemptions from service.

In addition to the persons exempted from enrollment in the militia by the general laws of the United States, the following persons shall also be exempted from enrollment in the militia of the District of Columbia, namely: Officers of the government of the District of Columbia; judges and officers of the courts of the District of Columbia; officers who have held commissions in the Regular or Volunteer Army or Navy of the United States; officers who have served for a period of five years in the militia of the District of Columbia or of any state of the United States; ministers of the gospel; practicing physicians; conductors and engine-drivers of railroad trains; members of the paid police and fire departments. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328, § 2.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–103 [20: 1443]. Assessors to make list of persons liable to enrolment.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia shall provide for the enrolment of the militia, and for this purpose may require the assessors of taxes, at the same time they are engaged in taking the assessment of valuation of real and personal property, to make a list of persons liable to enrolment; and such record shall be deemed a sufficient notification to all persons whose names are thus recorded that they have been enrolled in the militia. Immediately after the completion of each enrolment they shall furnish the commanding general of the militia with a copy of the same. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 773, ch. 328, § 3.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–104 [20: 1444]. Duty of enrolled militia.

The enrolled militia shall not be subjected to any duty except when called into the service of the United States, or to aid the civil authorities in the execution of the laws or suppression of riots. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 773, ch. 328, § 4.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–105 [20: 1445]. Ordering enrolled militia into service.

Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the enrolled militia the commander-in-chief shall order out, by draft or otherwise, or accept as volunteers as many as required. Every member of the enrolled militia who volunteers, or who is ordered out or drafted under the provisions of this chapter, who does not appear at the time and place designated, may be arrested by order of the commanding general and be tried and punished by a court-martial. The portion of the enrolled militia ordered out or accepted shall be mustered into service for such period as may be required, and the commanding general may assign them to existing organizations of the active militia, or may organize them as the exigencies of the occasion may require. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 773, ch. 328, § 5.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–106 [20: 1452]. Organized militia—Volunteer service—Designation.

The organized militia shall be composed of volunteers, and shall be designated the National Guard of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 774, ch. 328, § 10; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146, § 10.)

AMENDMENT

Prior to the 1909 amendment, this section provided: "That the active militia shall be composed of volunteers, and shall be designated the National Guard of the District of Columbia; and in case the militia of the District of Columbia are called into the service of the United States, or required for the suppression of riots, or to aid civil officers in the execution of the laws, shall be the first to be ordered into service."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–107 [20: 1453]. Organization of National Guard units.

Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the organization of the National Guard, including the composition of all units thereof, shall be the same as that which is or may after June 3, 1916, be prescribed for the Regular Army, subject in time of peace to such general exceptions as may be authorized by the Secretary of War. And the President may prescribe the particular unit or units, as to branch or arm of service, to be maintained in each state, territory, or the District of Columbia in order to secure a force which, when combined, shall form complete higher tactical units. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 197, ch. 134, § 60.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The act of June 15, 1933, 48 Stat. 156, ch. 87, § 6, amended the above section by adding thereto the following proviso: "Provided, That no change in allotment, branch, or arm of units or organizations wholly within a single State will be made without the approval of the Governor of the State concerned."

Section 11 of the act of 1889, 25 Stat. 774, ch. 328, as amended by act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146, § 11, is deemed to have been superseded by this section. Sections 12–17 of the above-mentioned act were repealed by the act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 630, ch. 146.

STATUTORY REFERENCES

As to the composition of the National Guard, U. S. C., title 32, §§ 4 and 4a, provide as follows:

"National Guard of States, Territories, and District of Columbia; composition.—The National Guard of each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall consist of members of the militia voluntarily enlisted therein, who upon original enlistment shall be not less than eighteen nor more than forty-five years of age, or who in subsequent enlistment shall be not more than sixty-four years of age, organized, armed, equipped, and federally recognized as hereinafter provided, and of commissioned officers and warrant officers who are citizens of the United States between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-four years: Provided, That former members of the Regular Army, Navy or Marine Corps under sixty-four years of age may enlist in said National Guard. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 58, 39 Stat. 197; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 371, § 1, 43 Stat. 1075; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 5, 48 Stat. 155.)

"National Guard of United States; establishment; composition.—The National Guard of the United States is hereby established. It shall be a reserve component of the Army of the United States and shall consist of those federally recognized National Guard units, and organizations, and of the officers, warrant officers, and enlisted members of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, who shall have been appointed, enlisted and appointed, or enlisted, as the case may be, in the National Guard of the United States, as hereinafter provided, and of such other officers and warrant officers as may be appointed therein as provided in section 111 hereof [§ 81 of this title]: Provided, That the members of the National Guard of the United States shall not be in the active service of the United States except when ordered thereto in accordance with law, and, in time of peace, they shall be administered, armed, uniformed, equipped, and trained in their status as the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, as provided in this title: And provided further, That under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, noncommissioned officers, first-class privates, and enlisted specialists of the National Guard may be appointed in corresponding grades, ratings, and branches of the National Guard of the United States, without vacating their respective grades and ratings in the National Guard.

"And provided further, That in the grades of first lieutenant and second lieutenant the number shall be unlimited. (June 3, 1916, ch. 134, § 58, 39 Stat. 197; June 15, 1933, ch. 87, § 5, 48 Stat. 155; June 19, 1935, ch. 277, § 2, 49 Stat. 391.)" § 39–108 [20: 1512]. Reserve corps—Organization—Composition.

A reserve corps of the National Guard of the District of Columbia is hereby organized, to consist of honorably discharged officers and men of the Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps of the United States, honorably discharged officers and men of the organized militia of any state or territory who are residents of the District of Columbia, and honorably discharged members of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, whose military training and physical condition shall conform to the standard determined by regulations to be promulgated by the President of the United States: Provided, That the term of enlistment in the reserve and the military duties and obligations required of reservists shall be determined by regulations to be promulgated by the President of the United States: Provided further, That when called out for military duty, reservists shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers and men of like grade on the active list of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 636, ch. 146, § 72.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Section 73 of the act of 1909, relating to exemption from jury service of officers and enlisted men is compiled herein as § 11–1420.

Section 74 of the 1909 act made the act of Jan. 21, 1903, 32 Stat. 775 applicable to the District of Columbia; but this act has been superseded by the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 166, ch. 134.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–109. Government employees—Leaves of absence.

All officers and employees of the United States or of the District of Columbia who shall be members of the Officers' Reserve Corps shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay, time, or efficiency rating, on all days during which they shall be ordered to duty with troops or at field exercises, or for instruction, for periods not to exceed fifteen days in any one calendar year. (May 12, 1917, 40 Stat. 72, ch. 12.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Leave of absence of officers or employees who are members of the National Guard, § 39–608.

§ 39–110. Government employees ordered to duty—Restoration to Government position.

Members of the Officers' Reserve Corps who are in the employ of the United States government or of the District of Columbia and who are ordered to duty by proper authority shall, when relieved from duty, be restored to the positions held by them when ordered to duty. (May 12, 1917, 40 Stat. 72, ch. 12.)

§ 39–111 [20: 1454]. Disbanding companies below minimum strength.

When any company of the National Guard shall, for a period of not less than ninety days, contain less than the required number of enlisted men, or upon a duly ordered inspection, shall be found to have fallen below a proper standard of efficiency, the commanding general may, with consent of the President, either disband such company or consolidate it with any other company of the National Guard, and grant an honorable discharge to the supernumerary officers and noncommissioned officers produced by such consolidation. Officers and enlisted men discharged by reason of such disbanding or consolidation and at any time thereafter reentering the service shall have allowed to them, as part of their term of service, the time already served. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 774, ch. 328, § 18; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 630, ch. 146, § 12; June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 200, ch. 134, § 68.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 14 of the act of 1889 fixed the minimum number of enlisted men in any company at forty. This section was repealed by the act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 630, ch. 146. It is considered that § 11 of the Act of 1889, as amended by the act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146, § 11, was designed to take the place of § 14 of 1889, above referred to. Section 11 is considered as having been superseded by § 60 of the National Defense Act of 1916 (§ 39–107 herein).

AMENDMENTS

The 1909 act did not amend the text of this section, but changed the section number from 18 to 12.

The act of 1916 provided that "no organization of the National Guard * * * shall be disbanded without the consent of the President, nor, without such consent, shall the commissioned or enlisted strength of any such organization be reduced below the minimum that shall be prescribed therefor by the President."

It is hereby provided that staff officers, including officers of the pay, inspection, subsistence, and medical departments, appointed in the National Guard of the District of Columbia, shall have had previous military experience and shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for that purpose, and that vacancies among said officers shall be filled by appointment from the officers of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. (July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 127, ch. 8, § 69.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–204 [20: 1450]. Detail for adjutant general.

The President may assign an officer of the army to act as adjutant-general of the militia of the District of Columbia, who, while so assigned, shall be commissioned as such and be subject to the orders of the commanding general and the provisions of this title: Provided, however, That the officer so assigned shall receive no other pay or emolument than that to which his rank in the army entitles him when on detached service. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 773, ch. 328, § 9.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–205 [20: 1451]. Retired Army officer may be detailed as adjutant-general

The President of the United States may detail as adjutant-general of the District of Columbia militia any retired officer of the Army who may be nominated to the President by the brigadier-general commanding the District of Columbia militia, said retired officer while so detailed to have the active service pay and allowances of his rank in the Regular Army. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 671, ch. 811.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–206 [20: 1455]. Officers—Appointment—oath.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 amendment added the words "on the recommendation of the commanding general" at the end of the first sentence, omitted from the second sentence the words "In time of peace, or when not in the service of the United States they shall be previously elected or."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–207 [20: 1456]. Officers of staff departments—Appointment—Examination.

The officers of the staff departments, staff corps, and the organizations created by this chapter when organized, shall be nominated by the commanding general, subject to the examination required by law. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 775, ch. 328, §§ 20 and 21; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 630, ch. 146, § 14.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 1, 1889, read as follows: "The staff officers of a regiment or battalion shall be nominated by the permanent commander thereof. Field officers of regiments or battalions shall be nominated by the commanding general. Captains and lieutenants of companies shall be elected by the written votes of the enlisted men of the respective companies."

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–210 [20: 1459]. Examinations for promotion—Retirement for disability—Suspension for failure to appear.

The commanding general is authorized to prescribe a system of examination to be conducted at such times anterior to the accruing of the right to promotion as may be best for the interest of the service. If any officer fails to appear for examination within thirty days after notification to so appear or fails to pass a satisfactory examination and is reported unfit for promotion, the officer next below him in rank, having passed said examination, shall receive the promotion: And provided, That should the officer fail in his physical examination and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in the line of duty he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted; but if he should fail for any other reason he shall be suspended from promotion for ninety days, when he shall be reexamined, and in case of failure on such reexamination he shall be honorably discharged. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 775, ch. 328, § 23; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 630, ch. 146, § 17.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 1, 1889, read as follows: "That every person accepting an election or nomination as an officer shall appear before an examining board, to be appointed by the commanding general, which board shall examine said officer as to his military and other qualifications. If any officer shall fail to appear before the board of examination within thirty days after being notified, or shall fail to pass a satisfactory examination, the fact shall be certified by the board to the commanding general, who shall thereupon declare the election or nomination of such officer null and void. If, in the opinion of the board such officer is competent, and otherwise qualified, they shall certify the fact to the commanding general, who shall thereupon recommend him to the President for commission."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FEDERAL RECOGNITION OF OFFICERS

The withdrawal of federal recognition to an officer of the National Guard of the state does not terminate his status as a state officer. Hurley v. United States ex rel. Gladman (60 App. D. C. 69, 47 Fed. (2d) 431).

§ 39–213 [20: 1462]. Retirement after ten years' service—Increased rank—Retirement at sixty-four years of age—Wearing uniform after retirement—Service on military boards—Pay and allowances—Retirement on recommendation of commanding general.

Any commissioned officer in the National Guard of the District of Columbia who shall have served as such in the National Guard of the District of Columbia for the continuous period of ten years may, upon his own application, be placed by the President of the United States upon a retired list, which is hereby authorized, with the rank held by him at the time such application is made: Provided, however, That an officer so retired, who at the time of making such application has remained in the same grade for the continuous period of ten years, or whose services have been especially meritorious, may be retired with increased rank of one grade and shall, before being so retired, receive from the President of the United States the commission of the new grade: Provided further, That whenever any officer on the active list reaches the age of sixty-four years he shall be retired; with or without increase of rank in the discretion of the President of the United States. Retired officers on occasions of ceremony may, and when acting under orders, as hereinafter provided, shall wear the uniform of the highest rank attained by them in the military service of the United States, the militia of the States or Territories, or the National Guard of the District of Columbia. Retired officers shall be eligible to perform any military duty to the same extent as if not retired, and the commanding general may, in his discretion, by order, require them to serve upon military boards, courts of inquiry, and courts-martial, or to perform any other special or temporary duty, and for such service they shall receive the same pay and allowances as are provided by law for like service by officers on the active list of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. All retired officers shall be amendable to court-martial for military offenses to the same extent as if upon the active list of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. The names of all officers of retired rank shall be borne upon a separate roster, kept under the supervision of the adjutant-general. The commanding general may at any time recommend to the President of the United States and the President may retire any commissioned officer who shall have been ordered before a medical board consisting of at least three commissioned medical officers and upon whom such a board shall have made report showing such officer to be physically unable to properly perform the duties of his office. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 631, ch. 146, § 20.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–214 [20: 1463]. Discharge of commissioned officer.

A commissioned officer may be honorably discharged—,

Upon tender of resignation;

Upon disbandment of the organization to which he belongs;

Upon report of a board of examination, or for failure to appear before such board when ordered.

He may be dismissed upon the sentence of a court-martial; conviction in a court of justice of an infamous offense. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 775, ch. 328, § 24; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 631, ch. 146, § 21.)

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act did not amend the text of this section, but changed the section number from 24 to 21.

Chapter 3.—NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICERS

Sec.
39–301. Noncommissioned officers—Appointment—Reduction to ranks.

§ 39–301 [20: 1464]. Noncommissioned officers — Appointment—Reduction to ranks.

The commanding officers of regiments and battalions not part of regiments shall appoint and warrant the noncommissioned staff officers of their respective regiments or battalions, and they shall, in their discretion, warrant the noncommissioned officers of the companies of their respective regiments and battalions from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officers of the companies, respectively. In troop, battery, and companies not part of a regiment or battalion and in the hospital corps the noncommissioned officers shall be warranted by the commanding officer of the brigade, in his discretion, from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troop, battery, company, or hospital corps. The officer warranting a noncommissioned officer shall have power to reduce to the ranks, for good and sufficient reasons, the noncommissioned officers named in this section, but such as were enlisted as noncommissioned officers shall be discharged. Noncommissioned officers who shall be dropped vacate their positions. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 775, ch. 328, § 25; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 631, ch. 146, § 22.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146 amended the act of Mar. 1, 1899, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328. Some of the sections of the 1899 act were repealed, some amended, and others were entirely new sections added by the act of 1909. In the history lines of this chapter, the section number of the 1899 act refers to the section of the original act as it appears in 25 Stat. 772 et seq. The section number in the 1909 act in the history line refers to the section of the 1899 act as amended by later act and shows the new number and wording of the section as it is found in 35 Stat. 629 et seq.

AMENDMENT

Act of March 1, 1889, provided as follows: "That noncommissioned staff officers shall be appointed by the permanent commander of the organization to which they belong; and permanent commanders of battalions shall appoint the noncommissioned officers of companies, upon the written nomination of the respective captains; but they may withhold such appointment if, in their judgment, there be proper cause; noncommissioned officers of unattached companies shall be appointed by there [their] respective captains. The permanent commander of any battalion or unattached company may reduce to the ranks any company noncommissioned officers of his command."

Chapter 4.—ENLISTED PERSONNEL

Sec.
39–401. Term of enlistment—Re-enlistment.
39–402. Enlistment contract and oath.
39–403. Discharge of enlisted men from the National Guard.
39–404. Discharge without honor.
39–405. Dishonorable discharge.

§ 39–401 [20: 1465]. Term of enlistment—Re-enlistment.

Original enlistments in the National Guard and in the National Guard of the United States shall be for a period of three years, and subsequent enlistments for periods of one or three years each: Provided, That all enlisted men of the National Guard on June 15, 1933, may, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, be enlisted in grade, rating, and branch in the National Guard of the United States for the remaining unexpired portions of their enlistments in the National Guard: And provided further, That in the event of an emergency declared by Congress the period of any enlistment which otherwise would expire may by Presidential proclamation be extended for a period of six months after the termination of the emergency. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 200, ch. 134, § 69; June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 781, ch. 227, § 37; June 6, 1924, 43 Stat. 470, ch. 275, § 4; June 15, 1933, 48 Stat. 156, ch. 87, § 7.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 26 of the act of 1889, 25 Stat. 775, ch. 328, as amended by act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 23, is deemed to have been superseded by this section.

AMENDMENTS

Act of June 3, 1916, provided for an enlistment of six years, the first three in active organization and the remaining three in National Guard Reserve.

Act of June 4, 1920, provided for original enlistments for a period of 3 years and subsequent enlistments for 1 year.

Act of 1924 provided for subsequent enlistments of "one year or three years each."

Act of 1933 added the provisos.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

It is immaterial whether the arrest was made before or after the issue or the service of the writ to release minor son from military service. Ex Parte Foley ((D. C.-Ky.), 243 Fed. 470).

Petitioner was not entitled to a discharge, and he could not be furloughed to the Reserve when he was in actual military service. Ex Parte Roach ((D. C.-Ala.), 244 Fed. 625).

Effect of this section was at most to make the enlistment voidable by the parent. Reed v. Cushman ((C. C. A. 1), 251 Fed. 872).

CONTRACT OF ENLISTMENT

Fact that minor is under 21 when he enlisted, or that the written consent of his parent or guardian was not given to such enlistment, or that he was an alien, who had not made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen, or that he had a mother dependent upon him for support does not make his contract of enlistment void. Ex Parte Dostal ((D. C.-Ohio), 243 Fed. 664).

ENLISTED INTO MILITARY SERVICE

It was not intended that the provision containing the expression "enlisted or mustered into the military service of the United States" should apply to only one branch of that service. Hoskins v. Dickerson ((C. C. A. 5), 239 Fed. 275).

TRIAL BY MILITARY AUTHORITIES

Where petitioners were acting, under orders of the President in the discharge of a high duty, and might be ordered at any time to perform active military service, the State had no right to try the men for offense, but it was a case for the military authorities. In re Wulzen ((D. C.-Ohio), 235 Fed. 362).

§ 39–402 [20: 1466]. Enlistment contract and oath.

Men enlisting in the National Guard of the District of Columbia, shall sign an enlistment contract and subscribe to the following oath of enlistment: "I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this ____ day of _____, 19__, as a soldier in the National Guard of the United States and of the District of Columbia, for the period of three (or one) years, under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and Articles of War."

The oath of enlistment prescribed in this section may be taken before any officer of the National Guard authorized to administer oaths of enlistment in the National Guard of the District of Columbia, by respective laws thereof. All oaths of enlistment administered prior to June 19, 1935 by the officers described above are hereby validated. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 201, ch. 134, § 70; June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 781, ch. 227, subch. I, § 38; June 15, 1933, 48 Stat. 156, ch. 87, § 8; June 19, 1935, 49 Stat. 391, ch. 277, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 27 of the act of 1889, 25 Stat. 776, ch. 328, as amended by act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, is deemed to have been superseded by this section.

AMENDMENTS

The 1920 amendment substantially reworded the first paragraph.

The 1933 amendment changed the words "of enlistment" which followed the word "oath" in paragraph one to "or affirmation."

The 1935 amendment added the second paragraph.

§ 39–403 [20: 1467]. Discharge of enlisted men from the National Guard.

An enlisted man discharged from service in the National Guard, shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such classification as is or shall be prescribed for the Regular Army, and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as the Secretary of State may prescribe. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 201, ch. 134, § 72; June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 781, ch. 227, § 40; June 15, 1933, 48 Stat. 157, ch. 87, § 10.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Sections 28, 30 of the act of 1889, 25 Stat. 776, ch. 328, as amended by act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, is deemed to have been superseded by this section.

AMENDMENTS

The 1920 act added the exception with respect to men drafted into the military service.

The 1920 amendment added an exception which was deleted by the 1933 amendment.

The 1933 amendment added the words "and the National Guard of the United States," deleted the word "President" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "Secretary of War."

§ 39–404 [20: 1468]. Discharge without honor.

An enlisted man may be discharged without honor at any time by order of the commanding general on account of fraudulent enlistment, or on account of his being continuously absent without leave from his command for a period of not less than three months. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 26.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–405 [20: 1469]. Dishonorable discharge.

An enlisted man shall be dishonorably discharged by order of the commanding general upon conviction of felony in a civil court; upon discovery of re-enlistment after previous dishonorable discharge; or to carry out a sentence of a court-martial. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 27.)

Chapter 5.—ARMAMENT, EQUIPMENT, AND SUPPLIES

Sec.

39–501. Uniform, arms, and equipment—Issuance by War Department.
39–502. Regulations for reissue of equipment by commanding general.
39–503. Personal liability for equipment—Determination of value of lost equipment.
39–504. Returns of equipment.
39–505. Penalty for selling, pawning, injuring, or retaining public property.
39–506. Transfer of property on promotion, retirement, or dismissal.
39–507. Failure to transfer property—Surveying officer—Appointment—Duties.
39–508. Defective accounts—Surveying officer to fix responsibility.
39–509. Surveying officer to be appointed upon death or desertion of accounting officer.
39–510. Liability of officer or his estate until accounts are found correct.
39–511. Liability of officer's estate for property lost, injured, or destroyed.
39–512. Distinctive uniforms.
39–513. Right to own personal property—Actions for injuries.

Sec.
39–514. Armories to be provided.
39–515. Annual inspections.
39–516. Use of Washington Barracks.
39–517. Purchase of supplies.

§ 39–501 [20: 1470]. Uniform, arms, and equipment—Issuance by War Department.

The uniforms, arms, and equipments of the National Guard shall as far as practicable be the same as prescribed and furnished to the Regular Army. Every organization of the National Guard shall be provided with such ordnance and ordnance stores, clothing, camp and garrison equipage, quartermaster's stores, medical supplies, and other military stores, as may be necessary for the proper training and instruction of the force and for the proper performance of the duties required under this chapter. Such property shall be issued in accordance with section 33, title 32, of the Code of the Laws of the United States of America. The property so issued shall remain and continue to be the property of the United States, and shall be accounted for by the commanding general at such times, in manner, and on such forms as the Secretary of War may require. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 776, ch. 328, § 31; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 29.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146 amended the act of Mar. 1, 1899, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328. Some of the sections of the 1899 act were repealed, some amended, and others were entirely new sections added by the act of 1909. In the history lines of this chapter, the section number of the 1899 act refers to the section of the original act as it appears in 25 Stat. 772 et seq. The section number in the 1909 act in the history line refers to the section of the 1899 act as amended by later act and shows the new number and wording of the section as it is found in 35 Stat. 629 et seq.

Section 36 of the act of 1889, 25 Stat. 777, ch. 328, as amended by act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 634, ch. 146, is deemed to have been superseded by act of June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 204, ch. 134, § 87, as amended by June 3, 1924, 43 Stat. 363, ch. 244, § 1, and Feb. 28, 1925, 43 Stat. 1077, ch. 371, § 4. Section 87, as amended in 1925, reads as follows:

"SEC. 87. Disposition and Replacement of Damaged Property, and so forth.—All military property issued to the National Guard as herein provided shall remain the property of the United States. Whenever any such property issued to the National Guard in the District of Columbia shall have been lost, damaged, or destroyed, or become unserviceable or unsuitable by use in service or from any other cause, it shall be examined by a disinterested surveying officer of the Regular Army or the National Guard, detailed by the Secretary of War, and the report of such surveying officer shall be forwarded to the Secretary of War, or to such officer as he shall designate to receive such reports; and if it shall appear to the Secretary of War from the record of survey that the property was lost, damaged, or destroyed through unavoidable causes, he is hereby authorized to relieve the District of Columbia from further accountability therefor. If it shall appear that the loss, damage, or destruction of property was due to carelessness or neglect, or that its loss, damage, or destruction could have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, the money value of such property shall be charged to the District of Columbia to be paid from District funds, or any funds other than Federal. If the articles so surveyed are found to be unserviceable or unsuitable, the Secretary of War shall direct what disposition by sale or otherwise shall be made of them; and if sold, the proceeds of such sale, as well as stoppages against officers and enlisted men, and the net proceeds of collections made from any person or from the District to reimburse the Government for the loss, damage, or destruction of any property, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a credit to the District of Columbia, accountable for said property, and shall remain available throughout the then current fiscal year and throughout the fiscal year following that in which the sales, stoppages, and collections were effected, for the purposes provided for in that portion of its allotment set aside for the purchase of similar supplies, stores, or material of war: Provided, That if the District of Columbia shall neglect or refuse to pay, or to cause to be paid, the money equivalent of any loss, damage, or destruction of property charged against the District of Columbia by the Secretary of War after survey by a disinterested officer appointed as hereinbefore provided, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to debar the District of Columbia from further participation in any and all appropriations for the National Guard until such payment shall have been made: Provided further, That property issued to the National Guard and which has become unserviceable through fair wear and tear in service, may, after inspection thereof and finding to that effect made by an officer of the Regular Army designated by the Secretary of War, be sold or otherwise disposed of, and the District of Columbia shall be relieved from further accountability therefor; such inspection, and sale or other disposition, to be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and to constitute as to such property a discretional substitute for the examination, report, and dispostiion provided for elsewhere in this section. (U. S. C., title 32, § 47.)

The third sentence as enacted, actually reads "Such property shall be issued from the stores and supplies appropriated for the use of the army, upon the approval and by the direction of the Secretary of War, to the commanding general, upon his requisitions for the same." However, U. S. C., title 32, § 33, seems to have superseded this sentence.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act did not amend the text of this section, but changed the section number from 31 to 29.

§ 39–502 [20: 1471]. Regulations for reissue of equipment by commanding general.

The commanding general may transfer all public property, received by him for the use of the National Guard under the provisions of this chapter, to the several departmental officers of the general staff, and may make and prescribe regulations for its issue by them, and for its care and preservation by the officers or soldiers to whom issued. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 776, ch. 328, § 32; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 30.)

AMENDMENT

The act of 1909 made no change in the text of this section, but changed the section number from 32 to 30.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–503 [20: 1472]. Personal liability for equipment—Determination of value of lost equipment.

Every officer and enlisted man to whom property of the United States has been issued shall be personally responsible to the United States for such property, and no one shall be relieved from such responsibility except it be shown to the satisfaction of the commanding general that the loss or destruction of such property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the same; and in all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed shall be charged against the person at fault or to the organization to which it has been issued, and such person or organization, if not relieved from such charge by the commanding general, shall pay the value of such property to the Quartermaster-General within one year after such loss or destruction. The value of lost or destroyed property and the person or organization to be charged therewith shall be determined by a board to consist of an inspector of the staff of the commanding general of the militia and the commanding officer of the organization in which such property is lost. In case of disagreement such value shall be fixed by the commanding general of the militia. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 632, ch. 146, § 31.)

§ 39–504 [20: 1473]. Returns of equipment.

Every officer receiving public property for military use shall be accountable for the articles so received by him, and shall make returns of such property at such times, in such manner, and on such forms as may be prescribed. He shall be liable to trial by court-martial for neglect of duty, and also make good to the United States the value of all such property defaced, injured, destroyed or lost, by any neglect or default on his part, to be recovered in an action of tort, or by any other action at law, to be instituted by the judge-advocate-general of the militia at the order of the commanding general. All money received on account of loss or damages shall be paid in the treasury of the United States, and shall be accounted for by the commanding general in his returns to the Secretary of War. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 776, ch. 328, § 33; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 633, ch. 146, § 32.)

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act did not change the text of this section, but changed the section number from 33 to 32.

§ 39–506 [20: 1475]. Transfer of property on promotion, retirement, or dismissal.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 amendment repealed § 35 of the 1889 Act, and inserted in lieu thereof §§ 34–38 (§§ 39–506 to 39–510). The original § 35 provided as follows: "That until an officer, or his legal representative shall have received notice that the property accounts of such officer have been examined and found correct, the liability of such officer, or of his estate, for public property for which he is or may have been responsible shall be in no way affected by resignation, discharge, change in official position, or death. Upon the death or desertion of an officer responsible for public property his immediate commander shall at once cause the property for which such officer was responsible to be collected, and a correct inventory made by actual count and examination; which inventory shall be forwarded to the commanding general, in order that any deficiency may be made good from the estate of the deceased or deserting officer; compensation for such deficiency may be recovered in the manner provided in § 34 (§ 39–505)."

The National Guard shall perform not less than six consecutive days of camp duty in each year, at such time as may be ordered by the commanding general; and the quartermaster-general of the militia, subject to the approval of the commanding general, shall provide, by rental or otherwise, a suitable camp ground for the annual encampment of the militia, make the necessary provisions thereon for the encampment, and provide necessary transportation to and from the same for baggage and supplies. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 778, ch. 328, § 43; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 634, ch. 146, § 46.)

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act did not amend the text of this section, but changed the section number from 43 to 46.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

COMPANY DRILL AND PARTICIPATION IN MANEUVERS—ANNUAL AMOUNT REQUIRED

Under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, each company, troop, battery, and detachment in the National Guard shall assemble for drill and instruction, including indoor target practice, not less than forty-eight times each year, and shall, in addition thereto, participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, at least fifteen days in training each year, including target practice, unless such company, troop, battery, or detachment shall have been excused from participation in any part thereof by the Secretary of War: Provided, That an assembly for drill and instruction may consist of a single duly ordered formation of a company, troop, battery, or detachment, or when so authorized by the Secretary of War of a series of duly ordered formations of subdivisions or parts thereof, but in the latter case the series of formations of subdivisions or groups must comprehend and include the entire organization, and must be included within the time limit of seven consecutive days within a calendar month. The sum total of the attendance at all the separate consecutive formations announced as constituting that assembly shall be counted as the attendance at the actual military assembly for the required period of time; but no officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man shall be counted more than once, nor receive credit for more than one required period of actual military attendance even though he may have attended more than one of the formations which constitute the assembly for the required period of time: Provided further, That credit for an assembly for drill or for indoor target practice shall not be given unless the number of officers and enlisted men present for duty at such assembly shall equal or exceed a minimum to be prescribed by the President, nor unless the period of actual military duty and instruction participated in by each officer and enlisted man at each such assembly at which he shall be credited as having been present shall be of at least one and one-half hours' duration and character of training such as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 206, ch. 134, § 92; June 3, 1924, 43 Stat. 363, ch. 244, § 2.)

ENCAMPMENTS OR MANEUVERS FOR FIELD OR COAST-DEFENSE INSTRUCTION

Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War is authorized to provide for the participation of the whole or any part of the National Guard in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, either independently or in conjunction with any part of the Regular Army, and there may be set aside from the funds appropriated for that purpose and allotted to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, such portion of said funds as may be necessary for the payment, subsistence, transportation, and other proper expenses of such portion of the National Guard of such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia as shall participate in such encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field and coast-defense instruction. (June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 206, ch. 134, § 94.)

§ 39–608 [20: 1493]. Governmental employees to have leave of absence to attend parades and encampments.

All officers and employees of the United States and of the District of Columbia who are members of the National Guard shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay or time, on all days of any parade or encampment ordered or authorized under the provisions of this title. This section shall be construed as covering all days of service which the National Guard, or any portion thereof, may be ordered to perform by the commanding general. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 779, ch. 328, § 49; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 615, ch. 1352; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 634, ch. 146, § 52.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 act provided that this section should be construed as covering all days of service which the National Guard, or any portion thereof, may be ordered to perform by the commanding general.

The 1909 act did not amend the text of the section, but changed the section number from 49 to 52.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 amendment repealed § 50 of the act of 1889 and inserted in lieu thereof §§ 54 and 55 (this section and § 39–702).

COMPILER'S NOTE

Sections 102 and 103 of the act of June 3, 1916, 39 Stat. 208, ch. 134, provide as follows:

"SEC. 102. System of courts-martial for National Guard.—Except in organizations in the service of the United States, courts-martial in the National Guard shall be of three kinds, namely, general courts-martial, special courts-martial, and summary courts-martial. They shall be constituted like, and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the laws and regulations governing the Army of the United States, and the proceedings of courts-martial of the National Guard shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for said similar courts."

"SEC. 103. General courts-martial of the National Guard not in the service of the United States may be convened by orders of the President, or by the Governors of the respective States and Territories, or by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, and such courts shall have the power to impose fines not exceeding $200; to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to a reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts."

Chapter 8.—PAY AND ALLOWANCES

Sec.
39–801. Payment for active service.
39–802. Allowances for general expenses.
39–803. Musicians' pay.
39–804. Subsistence while on duty.
39–805. Annual estimates.
39–806. Deductions for lost property—Officers' clothing—Use of fines—Use of appropriations.

§ 39–801 [20: 1494]. Payment for active service.

Whenever the National Guard of the District of Columbia shall be ordered to duty in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, or whenever called in aid of the civil authorities, all enlisted men who do duty shall be paid at the rate equivalent to two times the pay of enlisted men of the Regular Army of like grade. Commissioned officers who do duty shall be entitled to and shall receive the same pay and allowances as commissioned officers of like grade of the Regular Army. Each mounted officer and enlisted man shall be paid a reasonable per diem compensation for each horse actually furnished and used by him: Provided, That when the National Guard of the District of Columbia is called into actual service of the United States the officers and enlisted men shall, during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay and allowances as are or may be provided by law for the Regular Army. (Mar. 1, 1889, ch. 328, as added Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 634, ch. 146, § 53.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 629, ch. 146 amended the act of Mar. 1, 1899, 25 Stat. 772, ch. 328. Some of the sections of the 1899 act were repealed, some amended, and others were entirely new sections added by the act of 1909. In the history lines of this chapter, the section number of the 1899 act refers to the section of the original act as it appears in 25 Stat. 772 et seq. The section number in the 1909 act in the history line refers to the section of the 1899 act as amended by later act and shows the new number and wording of the section as it is found in 35 Stat. 629 et seq.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–802 [20: 1504]. Allowances for general expenses.

There shall be allowed for the general expenses of the militia such sums as may be necessary for the rental and furnishing of offices for headquarters, stationery, postage, printing and issuing orders, advertising orders, providing necessary blanks for the use of the militia, the cost of storing, caring for, and issuing all public property, and such other contingent expenses, not herein specially provided for, as may be estimated and appropriated for; the accounts for which shall be certified to by the officer receiving the service or property charged for, approved by the commanding general, and paid in the manner provided in section 39–901. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 780, ch. 328, § 55; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 635, ch. 146, § 63.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The last phrase of this section in the original act read as follows: "and paid in the manner provided for in section 60." Section 60 of the 1889 act now appears as § 39–901, and as it does not refer to payment, it seems probable that the reference should have been to § 58 of that act which appears in this code as § 39–805.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 amendment did not change the text of this section, but changed the section number from 55 to 63.

§ 39–803 [20: 1505]. Musicians' pay.

During the annual encampment, and on every duty on parade ordered by the commanding general, there shall be allowed and paid for each day of service: To each member of the regularly enlisted bands, four dollars; to the chief musicians, eight dollars; and to the principal musicians, six dollars. In event there is no enlisted band or field music, or not a sufficient number of either, the commanding general may authorize the employment of such as he may deem necessary for the occasion: Provided, That the total pay of the enlisted musicians shall not in any event exceed the rates authorized by this section. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 780, ch. 328, § 56; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 635, ch. 146, § 64.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1030, ch. 281: Provided, That so much of the act of March 1, 1889 (25 Stat. 773), as amended by the act of February 18, 1909 (35 Stat. 629), as provides and fixes the rates of extra compensation to members of the regularly enlisted bands of the Militia of the District of Columbia, is hereby repealed.

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act changed the number of this section from 56 to 64; omitted the words "to each member of the regularly enlisted corps of field music, two dollars," and changed "chief musician" and "principal musician" to "chief musicians" and "principal musicians" in the first sentence, and inserted the final proviso in lieu of a sentence which read as follows: "The payments for bands of music and drum corps shall be made in the manner provided in section sixty."

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–804 [20: 1506]. Subsistence while on duty.

During the annual encampment, or when ordered on duty to aid the civil authorities, the National Guard shall be furnished with subsistence stores, of the kind, quality, and amount allowed and prescribed by the army. Such stores shall be issued from the stores and supplies appropriated for the use of the army, upon the approval and by the direction of the Secretary of War, to the commanding general upon his requisitions for the same. (Mar. 1, 1889, 25 Stat. 780, ch. 328, § 57; Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 635, ch. 146, § 65.)

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act did not amend the text of this section, but changed the section number from 57 to 65.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 32.

§ 39–805 [20: 1507]. Annual estimates.

The commanding general shall annually transmit to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia an estimate of the amount of money required for the next ensuing fiscal year to pay the expenses authorized by this title, and the said Commissioners shall include the same in their annual estimates of appropriations for the District; and all moneys appropriated to pay the expenses authorized by this title shall be disbursed in accordance with law. (Feb. 18, 1909, 35 Stat. 636, ch. 146, § 66.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of June 11, 1896, 29 Stat. 412, ch. 419, provided as follows: "Hereafter all leases and contracts involving expenditures on account of the militia shall be made by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia; and appropriations for the militia shall be disbursed only upon vouchers duly authorized by the Commissioners, for which they shall be held strictly accountable."

AMENDMENT

The 1909 act repealed section 58 and inserted in lieu thereof section 66 which substituted the closing words "disbursed in accordance with law" for "disbursed by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon vouchers duly certified and approved by the commanding general, and accounted for by them in the same manner as all other moneys appropriated for the expenses of the District."

§ 40–101 [20: 968]. Definitions.

As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means any vehicle propelled by an internal-combustion engine or by electricity or steam, except road rollers, farm tractors, and vehicles propelled only upon stationary rails or tracks.

(b) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or association.

(c) The term "owner" means a person who holds the legal title to a motor vehicle or trailer the registration of which is required in the District of Columbia. If a vehicle is the subject of an agreement for the conditional sale or lease thereof with the right of purchase upon performance of the condition stated in the agreement and with an immediate right of possession vested in the conditional vendee or lessee, or if a mortgagor of a vehicle is entitled to possession, then such conditional vendee or lessee or mortgagor shall be deemed the owner for the purpose of these regulations.

(d) The term "director" means the director of vehicles and traffic of the District of Columbia, including assistants or agents duly designated by the commissioners.

(e) The term "dealer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing, distributing, or dealing in motor vehicles or trailers.

(f) The term "public highway" means any road, street, alley, or way, open to use of the public, as a matter of right, for purposes of vehicular traffic.

(g) The term "trailer" means a vehicle without motor power intended or used for carrying property or persons and drawn or intended to be drawn by a motor vehicle, whether such vehicle without motor power carries the weight of the property or persons wholly on its own structure or whether a part of such weight rests upon or is carried by a motor vehicle.

(h) The term "farm tractor" means a motor vehicle designed and used primarily for drawing implements of agricultural husbandry.

(i) The term "pneumatic tire" means a tire inflated with compressed air.

(j) The terms "operate" and "operated" shall include operating, moving, standing, or parking any motor vehicle or trailer on a public highway of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, § 1, title IV; Sept. 8, 1950, 64 Stat. 791, ch. 921, §§ 1, 2.)

AMENDMENT

The act of Sept. 8, 1950, cited to text, inserted the words "or trailers" at the end of paragraph (e), and added paragraph (j).

§ 40–102 [20: 968a]. Registration of motor vehicles and trailers—Certificates—Tags—Duplicates—Dealers—Fees—Official and foreign vehicles and trailers—Transfers—Regulations.

(a) No motor vehicle or trailer shall be operated (except motor vehicles or trailers operated by nonresidents, exempted under the provisions of section 40–303, motor vehicles or trailers covered by a dealer's registration as provided in subsection (b) (1) of this section, and motor vehicles or trailers covered by a special use certificate as provided in subsection (b) (4) of this section) unless registered in the department of vehicles and traffic of the District of Columbia by the owner thereof. Upon receipt of an application from the owner of a motor vehicle or trailer and (except in the case of a motor vehicle or trailer covered by subsection (b) (2) of this section) payment of a registration fee computed as provided in section 40–103, and if there is in force with respect to such motor vehicle or trailer a valid certificate of title issued under section 40–603, the director shall issue to such owner a registration certificate and identification tags for such motor vehicle or trailer.

(b) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia by regulation shall provide for the issuance by the director—

(1) annually to any dealer, upon payment of the fee prescribed in section 40–103, of a registration certificate and identification tags bearing a distinguishing dealer's mark, for interchangeable use on motor vehicles and trailers in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Commissioners;

(2) annually, without charge, of certificates of registration and identification tags for all motor vehicles and trailers owned by the United States or by the District of Columbia, or officially used by any duly accredited representative of a foreign government;

(3) of duplicate registration certificates or duplicate identification tags, upon proof satisfactory to the director of loss, mutilation, or destruction thereof, upon payment of a fee of $1 for each set of duplicate tags or 50 cents for each duplicate registration certificate; and

(4) to any person, upon payment of a fee of $1, of a special use certificate and special use identification tags bearing a distinguishing mark, valid for a period not exceeding ten days, for use on a motor vehicle or trailer in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Commissioners: Provided, That if any person be convicted of a violation of such regulations, the director may refuse thereafter to issue a special use certificate and special use identification tags to such person for a period of one year: Provided further, That the issuance of a special use certificate and special use identification tags for a motor vehicle or trailer shall not constitute a registration of such motor vehicle or trailer for any purpose.

(c) Every registration made under this title shall expire at midnight on the last day of the registration year for which the registration was made, unless the time be extended by the Commissioners. Any such registration may be renewed for the ensuing registration year upon application made by the owner during the months of February and March, and upon payment of the fees required by law. During the month of March it shall be lawful to operate a motor vehicle or trailer registered for the ensuing registration year. For the purposes of this chapter, a registration year shall be deemed to begin on April 1 and end on March 31.

(d) Upon the sale or other transfer to another owner of any motor vehicle or trailer registered under this title, the registration thereof shall expire. The owner selling or otherwise transferring such vehicle or trailer may register another motor vehicle or trailer for the unexpired portion of the registration year upon payment of a fee of $1 and a sum equal to the difference between the registration fee originally paid and the fee computed for such other motor vehicle or trailer under section 40–103, in case the latter is the greater. Upon the death of a joint owner of a motor vehicle or trailer registered under this chapter the registration thereof shall be transferred to the survivor or survivors and the fee for such transfer shall be $1.

(e) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title and shall prescribe such forms of application for registration and for a special use certificate, such forms of registration and special use certificate, such design of identification tags, and provide for the keeping of such records of registration and issuance of special use certificates and transfers of registration as will facilitate the identification and the regulation of motor vehicles and trailers operated in the District of Columbia.

(f) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are further authorized to prescribe regulations under which the director may revoke or suspend the registration of any dealer who shall cease to be a dealer as defined in this chapter, or who shall have violated the provisions of this chapter or the regulations promulgated thereunder by the Commissioners, and to revoke or suspend and provide for the return to the director of all dealers' identification tags issued to such dealer, subject to review by the Commissioners under rules and regulations prescribed by them. Pending such review, any such order of revocation or suspension shall be stayed unless the Commissioners shall otherwise direct. No order of the director or the Commissioners hereunder shall be set aside or suspended by any court unless such order is arbitrary or capricious. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 680, ch. 690, § 2, title IV; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 359, ch. 223, § 4; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1045, ch. 313, § 1; Sept. 8, 1950, 64 Stat. 792, ch. 921, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The appropriation acts of March 3, 1909, 35 Stat. 693, ch. 250, § 1; May 18, 1910, 36 Stat. 379, ch. 248, § 1, (D. C. 1929, title 20, § 914), provided as follows:

"There shall be assessed and collected an annual wheel tax on all automobiles, or other motor vehicles, owned or operated in the District of Columbia, having seats for only two persons, the sum of three dollars; and on all such vehicles having seats for more than two persons an additional tax of two dollars for each additional seat."

It is believed that this section is obsolete. The tax is not now being collected by the municipal authorities. It has not been repeated in subsequent appropriation acts and the presumption is that provisions of appropriation acts are temporary. (27 O. A. G. 108.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act amended paragraphs (c) and (d) of the section by changing the period of registration from the calendar year to a registration year beginning on the first day of March and ending on the last day of February.

The 1939 act amended paragraph (c) by changing the registration year to begin on the first day of April and end on the last day of March.

The 1950 act added paragraph (f) and amended the balance of the section, principally by adding "and trailers" after the words "motor vehicles" throughout.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

VIOLATION

Where defendant was convicted for operating an automobile without identification tags, basic error was committed in convicting him of an offense for which he was not arrested or charged. While great strictness should not be employed in construing an information in traffic cases, it is nevertheless the law that an information must state an offense. Smith v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 766).

§ 40–103 [20: 968b]. Fees classified and use of proceeds designated.

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each registration year for each motor vehicle or trailer required to be registered under sections 40–101 to 40–105, the registration fee provided in this section.

(b) Class A. For each gasoline-propelled passenger vehicle, including passenger vehicles licensed under paragraph (b) or paragraph (d) of section 47–2331.

(1) When wholly equipped with pneumatic tires, the manufacturer's shipping weight of which is not more than three thousand five hundred pounds, $5.00; more than three thousand five hundred pounds and not more than four thousand five hundred pounds, $8.00; over four thousand five hundred pounds, $12.00.

(2) When wholly or partially equipped with other than pneumatic tires, double the above fees.

Class B. For each gasoline-propelled truck, tractor, and passenger-carrying vehicle for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more in addition to the driver or operator, with the exception of passenger vehicles licensed under paragraph (b) of section 47–2431.

(2) When wholly or partially equipped with other than pneumatic tires, double the above fees.

Class C. For each trailer, when the manufacturer's shipping weight of the chassis plus the weight of the body is not more than five hundred pounds, $5.00; more than five hundred pounds and not more than twelve hundred and fifty pounds, $10.00; more than twelve hundred and fifty pounds and not more than two thousand pounds, $15.00; more than two thousand pounds and not more than four thousand pounds, $20.00; more than four thousand pounds and not more than six thousand pounds, $35.00; more than six thousand pounds and not more than eight thousand pounds, $50.00; more than eight thousand pounds and not more than ten thousand pounds, $65.00; more than ten thousand pounds and not more than twelve thousand pounds, $75.00; more than twelve thousand pounds and not more than sixteen thousand pounds, $100; over sixteen thousand pounds, $150.

Class D. For each motorcycle, motor bicycle, motor tricycle, and motor wheel, $5.00.

Class E. Motor vehicles not propelled by gasoline, double the fees for similar vehicles propelled by gasoline.

Class F. For dealers' identification tags, first three sets of tags, $50, and $10 for each additional set.

(d) All proceeds from fees payable under this chapter and all moneys collected from the motor-vehicle-fuel tax, and fees charged for the titling of motor vehicles and trailers, including fees charged for the issuance of permits to operate motor vehicles, shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia and shall be appropriated and used solely and exclusively for the following purposes:

(1) For construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways, including the necessary administrative expenses in connection therewith;

(2) For the expenses of the office of the director of vehicles and traffic incident to the regulation and control of traffic and the administration of the same; and

(3) For the expenses necessarily involved in the police control, regulation, and administration of traffic upon the highways: Provided, however, That the total amount to be expended under this item shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total payment appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force.

For the fiscal year 1938 all moneys appropriated for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of highways and administrative expenses in connection therewith, all moneys appropriated for the department of vehicles and traffic, and 15 per centum of all moneys appropriated for pay and allowances for officers and members of the Metropolitan police force shall be paid from and chargeable against the fund hereby created. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 681, ch. 690, § 3, title IV; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 359, ch. 223, § 4; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 2; Sept. 8, 1950, 64 Stat. 793, ch. 921, §§ 4, 5, 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act amended (b) of the section by inserting "wholly" in clause (1) of Class A; "wholly or partially" in clause (2) of Class A; "wholly" in clause (1) of Class B; "wholly or partially" in clause (2) of Class B; by removing trailers from the provisions of clause (1) of Class B and inserting Class C and changing the then Classes C to E to Classes D to F.

Subsection (c) was amended in 1938 by changing "August 1" to "September 1" and in 1939 by changing "September 1" to "October 1."

The 1950 act amended (a) of the section by adding "or trailer" after "motor vehicle"; by striking out the figures and words "$25 and $5" in Class F of (b), and inserting in lieu thereof the figures and words "$50 and $10"; by adding the words "or trailer or for registration as a dealer or for issuance of dealers' identification tags" and "or the fee for issuance of dealers' identification tags" respectively, after the words "motor vehicle" and "registration fee" in (c); and by adding the words "and trainers" after the words "titling of motor vehicles" in (d).

§ 40–104 [20: 968c]. Unlawful acts—Penalty.

(a) It shall be unlawful—

(1) for any person to operate any motor vehicle or trailer upon any public highway of the District of Columbia (except motor vehicles or trailers operated by nonresidents exempted under the provisions of section 40–303) (A) if such motor vehicle or trailer is not registered or covered by a dealer's registration or by a special use certificate as required by this title, (B) if such motor vehicle or trailer does not have attached thereto and displayed thereon the identification tags required therefor, or (C) if such person does not have in his possession or in the motor vehicle or trailer operated the registration certificate or special use certificate required therefor;

(2) for the owner of any motor vehicle or trailer knowingly to permit the operation thereof contrary to any provision of paragraph (1);

(3) to use a false or fictitious name or address in any application for registration or for a special use certificate, or any renewal or duplicate thereof, or knowingly to make any false statement or conceal any material fact in any such application.

(b) Any person violating any provision of this chapter or the regulations made or promulgated under the authority hereof shall upon conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not more than $300 or imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment. All such prosecutions shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia. AMENDMENT

The 1950 act amended (a) of the section by inserting "or covered by a dealer's registration or by a special use certificate" in (1) (A); by striking out "certificate of registration" and inserting in lieu thereof "registration certificate or special use certificate" in (1) (C); by inserting "or trailer" in (2); and by inserting "or for a special use certificate," in (3).

§ 40–105 [20: 968d]. Provisions not affected.

(a) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the power of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, under the District of Columbia Traffic Act, 1925, as amended, to make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, with respect to the registration of motor vehicles.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to relieve any person from the payment of any license tax under sections 47–2101 to 47–2109, 47–2301 to 47–2350. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 682, ch. 690, § 5, title IV.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

"The District of Columbia Traffic Act, 1925, as amended" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609, 40–610, 40–612, 40–614, 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

The act of August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 682, ch. 690, § 7, title IV, provided as follows: "This title (§§ 40–101 to 40–105) shall take effect on January 1 of the first calendar year following the enactment thereof, except that the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to provide for the registration of motor vehicles under this title (§§ 40–101 to 40–105) for such calendar year, beginning with the 1st day of November preceding such effective date."

Chapter 3.—OPERATORS' PERMITS

Sec.
40–301 Operators' permits—Application—Examination—Periods for which issued—Fee—Lost permits—Age requirements—Provisions affecting personnel of armed forces of United States and foreign nations—Possession of operator—Operation without permit prohibited.
40–302. Revocation or suspension of operators' permits—Procedure—New permit after revocation—Nonresidents—Penalty.
40–303. Nonresidents exempt from registration—Period of exemption.

§ 40–301 [6: 244]. Operators' permits—Application—Examination—Periods for which issued—Fee—Lost permits—Age requirements—Provisions affecting personnel of armed forces of United States and foreign nations—Contents of permits—Possession of operator—Operation without permit.

(a) (1) Upon application made under oath and the payment of the fee hereinafter prescribed, the Commissioners or their designated agent shall issue a motor vehicle operator's permit to any individual who, after examination, in the opinion of the Commissioners or their designated agent, is mentally, morally, and physically qualified to operate a motor vehicle in such manner as not to jeopardize the safety of individuals or property. The Commissioners or their designated agent shall cause each applicant to be examined as to his knowledge of the traffic regulations of the District and shall require the applicant to give a practical demonstration of his ability to operate a motor vehicle within a congested portion of the District and in the presence of such individuals as may be authorized to conduct the demonstration, except that upon the renewal of any such operator's permit such examination and demonstration may be waived in the discretion of the Commissioners or their designated agent. Should the Commissioners or their designated agent believe that the issuance or reissuance of a permit in accordance with the provisions of this chapter may prove a menace to public safety, they or their agent may refuse the issuance or reissuance thereof. Operators' permits shall be issued for a period not in excess of three years upon compliance with such regulations as the Commissioners or their designated agent may prescribe. The fee for any such permit shall be $3. No operator's permit shall be issued to any individual under sixteen years of age. No operator's permit issued to any individual under eighteen years of age shall authorize the operation by such individual while he is under the age of eighteen years of any motor vehicle other than a passenger vehicle or motorcycle or motor bicycle, used solely for purposes of pleasure: Provided, That such permit shall not authorize the operation by any such individual under the age of eighteen years of any such motor vehicle for compensation.

(2) Upon application made under oath and the payment of a fee of $1, the Commissioners or their designated agent may issue a learner's permit to any applicant who has successfully passed all parts of the examination other than the driving demonstration test. Such permit shall entitle the permittee, while having such permit in his immediate possession, to drive a passenger motor vehicle in the District for a period of thirty days, when accompanied by the holder of a motor vehicle operator's permit who is occupying a seat beside such permittee. Any such learner's permit may be extended for one additional period of thirty days. No learner's permit shall be issued to any individual under sixteen years of age; and no such permit issued to any individual sixteen years of age or over but under eighteen years of age shall authorize the operation of any motor vehicle unless the holder of such permit is accompanied by the holder of a motor-vehicle instructor's license who is occupying a seat beside such learner or unless the holder of such permit is operating a passenger vehicle used solely for purposes of pleasure and owned by such learner or his parent or guardian and such learner is accompanied by the holder of a motor-vehicle operator's permit who is occupying a seat beside such learner.

(3) Any pupil fifteen years of age or over enrolled in a high school or junior high school driver education and training course approved by the Commissioners or their designated agent may, without obtaining either an operator's or a learner's permit, operate a dual-control motor vehicle at such times as such pupil is under instruction and accompanied by a licensed motor-vehicle driving instructor: Provided, That such instructor shall at all times while he is engaged in such instruction have on his person a certificate from the principal or other person in charge of such school, stating that such instructor is officially designated to instruct pupils enrolled in such course, and whenever demand is made by a police officer such instructor shall display to him such certificate.

(4) In case of the loss of an operator's permit or a learner's permit, the individual to whom such permit was issued shall forthwith notify the commissioners or their designated agent, who shall furnish such individual with a duplicate permit. The fee for each such duplicate permit shall be 50 cents.

(5) Enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard shall be issued, without charge, a permit to operate Government-owned vehicles, while engaged in official business, upon the presentation of a certificate from their commanding officers to the effect that they are assigned to operate a Government vehicle and are qualified to drive, and upon proving to the satisfaction of the director of vehicles and traffic that they are familiar with the traffic regulations of the District of Columbia.

(c) Any individual to whom has been issued a permit to operate a motor vehicle shall have such permit in his immediate possession at all times when operating a motor vehicle in the District and shall exhibit such permit to any police officer when demand is made therefor. Any individual failing to comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $2 nor more than $40: Provided, That this shall not apply to transient visitors from states in the Union which do not require drivers' permits.

(d) Permits issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to individuals in possession of operators' permits issued to such individuals in the District prior to May 2, 1925, may be issued with or without the examination and practical demonstration provided in subdivision (a) of this section, as the director may deem advisable.

(e) No individual shall operate a motor vehicle in the District, except as provided in section 40–303, without first having obtained an operator's permit or a learner's permit issued under the provisions of this chapter. Any individual violating any provision of this subdivision shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 or be imprisoned not more than ninety days.

COMPILER'S NOTES

Act March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 17 provided that § 7 (this section) should take effect sixty days after its enactment.

The act approved January 29, 1913 cited in paragraph (f) amended § 7, paragraph 11, of the act approved July 1, 1902. Section 7 was later amended in its entirety by act of July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, so that the same subject matter is now contained in paragraph 31 (e) (§ 47–2431 (e) in this code).

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in §§ 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

TERMINATION DATE

Section 2 of act Dec. 15, 1944, cited to text, provides that the last two pars. of subsec. (a) as added by section 1 of said act, will cease to be effective six months after the termination of hostilities of World War II, which was proclaimed at 12 o'clock noon of December 31, 1946, by Proc. No. 2714, 12 F. R. 1.

AMENDMENTS

Prior to the 1926 amendment, this section provided for the annual renewal of operators' permits and prescribed fees of $1 and $2. The 1926 amendment also added the third sentence in paragraph (a); added "which do not require drivers' permits" at the end of paragraph (c); changed paragraph (d) which prior thereto related to the issuance without charge of temporary permits to expire on March 31, 1936, to persons holding permits issued prior to that act; and reduced the penalty in paragraph (e) from "not more than one year" to "not more than six months."

The act of 1936 also provided, "(g) This act shall become effective immediately upon passage, and promptly thereafter the director shall commence the call of outstanding permits and the reissuance thereof in accordance with the provisions of this act, and shall complete such reissuance within a period of one year."

The 1929 act added the proviso to paragraph (a).

The 1931 act inserted "commissioners or their designated agent" in lieu of "director." This act became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1939 act added the proviso in paragraph (e).

The act of Nov. 25, 1942, cited to text, amended subsec. (e) of section by deleting proviso which provided that operators of Government-owned vehicles stationed outside of District were not required to have permits while operating within limits of District, and also provided that violation of subsec. (e) was punishable with $500 fine and/or imprisonment not more than six months.

The act of Dec. 15, 1944, cited to text, amended subsec. (a) by adding last two pars.

The act of April 20, 1948, cited to text, amended subsec. (a) generally.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE

In prosecution for driving without permit and leaving scene of collision, tried by court, erroneous admission of officer's testimony that persons who witnessed collision identified accused, in his presence, as driver of automobile involved in collision, was not cured by court's recognition of error and statement that such testimony was disregarded, where competent evidence of accused's guilt was far from conclusive. Penwell v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 31 A, 2d 891).

EXCLUSIVE POWERS OF CONGRESS

Congress, as to the District of Columbia, has express power to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, thus possessing the combined powers of a general and a state government in all cases where legislation is possible. When and how it shall delegate or distribute authority to make detailed regulations under the police power are questions which Congress may determine for itself. LaForest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

FINES

Fine of $275 with commitment to jail for sixty days on default of payment, held not excessive. Dorsey v. Peak (58 App. D. C. 64, 24 Fed. (2d) 892).

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Traffic regulations apply to United States employees, driving government automobiles. Croson v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 122, 2 Fed. (2d) 924).

There is no exception in favor of the vehicles of the Post Office Department, and the manifest purpose of the acts does not imply such an exception. White v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 197, 4 Fed. (2d) 163).

PERMIT IN POSSESSION

Holder of a permit is required to have it in his immediate possession when operating a motor vehicle and exhibit the same to any police officer when demand is made therefor. Dorsey v. Peak (58 App. D. C. 64, 24 Fed. (2d) 892).

SUSPENSION OF PERMIT

Failure to prove that the permit had not been restored before the date of arrest was immaterial, even though the information contained no averment of it, as such averment was mere surplusage, and the burden of proof respecting it did not rest on the prosecution. Chesevoir v. District of Columbia (58 App. D. C. 268, 29 Fed. (2d) 798).

Action of the Commissioners in suspending petitioner's permit was not based upon illegally delegated power. LaForest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

§ 40–302 [6: 250]. Revocation or suspension of operators' permits—Procedure—New permit after revocation—Nonresidents—Penalty.

(a) Except where for any violation of this chapter revocation of the operator's permit is mandatory, the Commissioners or their designated agent may with or without a prior hearing revoke or suspend an operator's permit for any cause which they or their agent may deem sufficient: Provided, That in each case where a permit is revoked or suspended the reasons therefor shall be set out in the order of revocation or suspension: Provided further, That such order shall take effect five days after its issuance unless the holder of the permit shall have filed within such period, written application with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for a review of their order or the order of their agent, and, if upon such review, the Commissioners shall sustain such order, the same shall become effective immediately: Provided further, That application to said Commissioners for a review shall not operate as a stay of such order of the commissioners or their agent when the order has been issued revoking or suspending a permit on account of mental or physical incapacity, for driving under the influence of liquor or narcotic drugs; for manslaughter when an automobile is involved, or for operating a motor vehicle equipped with a smoke screen: Provided further, That any individual whose permit shall be denied, suspended, or revoked by the commissioners or their agent may, within thirty days after such denial, revocation, or suspension is ordered, if application for a review by the commissioners of an order for revocation or suspension has not been filed, or in case such application has been filed, within thirty days after decision of the Commissioners, apply to any justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for a writ of error to review the order of the Commissioners or their agent complained of or the decision of the Commissioners. Said court is authorized to promulgate rules governing the application for the writ, and the record and proceedings thereon, and to affirm, modify, or reverse the order of the Commissioners or their agent or the decision of the Commissioners, where the writ is allowed pursuant hereto; and the decision of said court shall be final: And provided further, That the application to said court for a writ of error shall not operate as a stay of such order of the Commissioners or their agent or the decision of the Commissioners.

(b) In case the operator's permit of any individual is revoked no new permit shall be issued to such individual for at least six months after the revocation except in the discretion of the Commissioners or their designated agent.

(c) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their designated agent, may suspend or revoke the right of any nonresident person as defined in section 40–303, to operate a motor vehicle in the District of Columbia, for any cause they or their agent may deem sufficient, and the proper authority at the place of issuance of the permit, or other authority to operate a motor vehicle shall be notified of such suspension and the reason therefor, immediately: Provided, That such order of suspension or revocation shall take effect ten days after its issuance, and the same be subject to review and appeal in the manner and under the same conditions as are provided for such matters in subsection (a) of this section.

(d) Any individual found guilty of operating a motor vehicle in the District during the period for which his operator's permit is revoked or suspended or for which his right to operate is suspended under this act shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or both. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 13; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 814, ch. 739, § 3; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, 1428, ch. 317, §§ 2, 4; May 15, 1936, 49 Stat. 1273, ch. 393.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Subsection (c) of this section as amended in 1936 was § 245a of title 6 in the Fifth Supplement to the 1929 Code of the District of Columbia.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

Prior to the 1926 amendment paragraph (a) of this section provided that the director could in his discretion revoke or suspend the operator's permit of any person convicted of a violation but contained no provision for a hearing.

The 1931 amendment substituted "commissioners or their designated agent" for "director"; and in subdivision (a) substituted "five days" for "ten days" in the second proviso; omitted from the second proviso "but if the director or his assistant, such order shall thereupon be vacated;" and added the third proviso. This amendment became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1936 act amended paragraph (c) by adding the proviso and giving the right to revoke for any cause, this right being previously given only upon conviction of a violation.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FOREIGN REGISTRATION AFTER SUSPENSION

One whose operator's permit in the District of Columbia had been revoked was properly convicted of driving in the District during the suspension period though he had become a resident of Virginia and had obtained registration and operator's licenses from that state. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163, revg. 59 App. D. C. 79, 33 Fed. (2d) 375).

OPERATING VEHICLE AFTER REVOCATION

Conviction for operating a motor vehicle after revocation of license was affirmed, and it was not necessary for the prosecution to show that no new permit had been issued. Chesevoir v. District of Columbia (58 App. D. C. 268, 29 Fed. (2d) 798).

§ 40–303 [6: 245]. Nonresidents exempt from registration—Period of exemption.

(a) The owner or operator of any motor vehicle who is not a legal resident of the District, and who has complied with the laws of any state, territory, or possession of the United States, or of a foreign country or political subdivision thereof, in respect of the registration of motor vehicles and the licensing of operators thereof, shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be exempt from compliance with section 40–301 and with any provision of law or regulation requiring the registration of motor vehicles or the display of identification tags in the District. Such exemption shall cover the period immediately following the entrance of such owner or operator into the District equal to the period for which the Commissioners or their designated agent have previously found that a similar privilege is extended to legal residents of the District by such state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof. The Commissioners or their designated agent shall from time to time ascertain such privileges and cause his findings to be promulgated.

(b) Any operator of a motor vehicle who is not a legal resident of the District and who does not have in his immediate possession an operator's permit issued by a state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof, having motor vehicle reciprocity relations with the District, shall not operate a motor vehicle in the District unless (1) the laws of the state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof, under which the motor vehicle is registered do not require the issuance of a motor vehicle operator's permit or (2) he has submitted to examination within 72 hours after entering the District and obtained an operator's permit in accordance with the provisions of section 40–301. Any individual who violates any provision of this subdivision shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50 or imprisoned not less than 30 days, or both. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1123, ch. 443, § 8; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, § 2.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 17 (a) of the act of March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, provided that this section should take effect 60 days after its enactment.

AMENDMENT

The 1931 amendment inserted "commissioners or their designated agent" in lieu of "director." This amendment became effective July 1, 1931.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION OF PRIOR ACT

In the first part of this act the word "registration" is applied to the vehicle and the word "licensing" to the operator; and in the latter part the words "licensed or registered" should be treated as used in the same relation as their noun forms in the first part. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

The meaning of this act being doubtful, the District's interpretation thereof as evidenced by its agreement with Virginia as to operation of a motor vehicle in the District by a person of that State should prevail. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

DUTY OF NONRESIDENT TO OBEY REGULATIONS

This act does not relieve a nonresident operator of amenability to valid traffic regulations. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

This section does not exempt a nonresident from compliance with the laws of the District of Columbia when, while a resident of the District, his driver's permit was revoked under § 40–302 and he is subject to punishment under that section. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

EVASION OF REVOCATION

One may be convicted of operating a motor vehicle without a license who procures a Virginia license after his District license has been revoked, and drives in the District during its unexpired period. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163, revg. 59 App. D. C. 79, 33 Fed. (2d) 375), and in effect overruling King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562).

Chapter 4.—OWNERS' FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT

Sec.

40–401. Financial responsibility of owners and operators of motor vehicles for damages—This chapter not to repeal existing traffic laws.
40–402. Suspension of motor-vehicle operator's permit and registration certificate—Proof of ability to respond in damages—Provisions as to chauffeurs, operators, or members of household of nonregistered owners—Judgments or orders to be reported.
40–403. Suspension of operator's permit and registration certificate—Judgments against nonresidents—Duty of clerk of court to certify copy of judgment to commissioners—Suspension for other judgment after proof furnished—What constitutes satisfaction of judgment—Permission to pay in instalments—Operator deemed to be agent of owner—Withdrawal of nonresident's privilege to drive vehicle after final judgment for damages—Service of process on nonresident.
40–404. Proof of ability to respond in damages, what constitutes—Additional certificates for additional vehicles—Certificates not to be canceled except upon ten days' notice to Commissioners—Action on same to be brought in name of District of Columbia—Exemption of such money from attachment or execution.
40–405. Commissioners to be notified of cancelation or expiration of insurance or bond—Suspension of permit on failure to furnish other proof of ability before expiration date.
40–406. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish operating record—Fees.
40–407. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish injured person evidence of ability of owners or operator to respond in damages.
40–408. Suspended person to return operator's permit to director of vehicles and traffic—Duty of Metropolitan Police to secure possession—Penalty for failure to return permit.
40–409. Authority of Commissioners to cancel evidence of insurance after three years—Substitution of other evidence of ability for money—Return of money.
40–410. Exemption of persons required to make other provision for injury or damage.
40–411. Penalty for forging—Evidence of guilt.
40–412. Meaning of "Motor-vehicle liability policy"—Coverage—Liability under Workmen's Compensation Law and to property in charge of insured excepted—Alternative provisions—Minimum limits—Additional coverage permitted—Other provisions not contrary to sections 40–401 to 40–416 hereof permitted—Separate policies for personal injury and property damage permitted—Approval of form of policy by Commissioner of Insurance—Statutory provisions—Same need not be contained in policy.
40–413. Definitions.
40–414. Commissioners to make rules and regulations.
40–415. Plaintiff not prevented from relying upon other processes.
40–416. Saving clause.

§ 40–401 [6: 255]. Financial responsibility of owners and operators of motor vehicles for damages—This chapter not to repeal existing traffic laws.

This chapter shall in no respect be considered as a repeal of any of the provisions of the Traffic Acts for the District of Columbia but shall be construed as supplemental thereto. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 166, ch. 89, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The Traffic Acts are sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PURPOSE

The purpose of this chapter was the extension of liability of master for acts of servant to those owners who entrust their automobiles to others or give consent, express or implied, to their use by others. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A, 2d 245).

The statute has a twofold purpose: To furnish a financially responsible defendant in case a person driving a car, with the owner's consent, negligently causes damage to another; and to promote more careful driving. National Trucking and Storage Co. v. Driscoll (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 304).

§ 40–402 [6: 255a]. Suspension of motor-vehicle operator's permit and registration certificate—Proof of ability to respond in damages—Provisions as to chauffeurs, operators, or members of household of nonregistered owners—Judgments or orders to be reported.

The motor-vehicle operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of any person who shall by a final order or judgment have been convicted of or shall have forfeited any bond or collateral given for a violation of any of the following provisions of law, to wit—

Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs, as provided in section 40–609, commonly known as the Traffic Acts;

Leaving the scene of an automobile accident in which personal injury occurs without making identity known, as provided in section 40–609;

Reckless driving, as provided in section 40–609 (b), if personal injury occurs as a result thereof;

A conviction of an offense in any other State, which if committed in the District of Columbia would be a violation of any of the aforesaid provisions of the Traffic Acts of the District of Columbia; shall be suspended by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent and shall remain so suspended and shall not at any time thereafter be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name until he shall give proof of his ability to respond thereafter in damages resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle and arising by reason of personal injury to or death of any one person of at least $5,000, and, subject to the aforesaid limit for each person injured or killed, of at least $10,000 for such injury to or the death of two or more persons in any one accident, and for damage to property of at least $1,000 resulting from any one accident. Such proof in said amounts shall be furnished for each motor vehicle owned or registered by such person. If any such person shall fail to furnish said proof, his operator's permit and registration certificates shall remain suspended and shall not at any time thereafter be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name until such time as said proof be given. If such person shall not be a resident of the District of Columbia the privilege of operating any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia and the privilege of operation within the District of Columbia of any motor vehicle owned by him shall be withdrawn until he shall have furnished such proof: Provided, That in case of both residents and nonresidents, however, if it shall be duly established to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners or their designated agent, and the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall so find (a) that any such person so convicted, or who shall have pled guilty or forfeited bond or collateral, was, upon the occasion of the violation upon which such conviction, plea, or forfeiture was based, a chauffeur or motor-vehicle operator, however designated, in the employ of the owner of such motor vehicle; or a member of the same family and household of the owner of such motor vehicle, and (b) that there was not, at the time of such violation, or subsequent thereto, up to the date of such finding, any motor vehicle registered in the District of Columbia in the name of such person convicted, entering a plea of guilty or forfeiting bond or collateral, as aforesaid, then in such event, if the person in whose name such motor vehicle is registered shall give proof of ability to respond in damages, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter (and the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall accept such proof from such person), such chauffeur or other person, as aforesaid, shall thereupon be relieved of the necessity of giving such proof in his own behalf. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which any such judgment or order is rendered or other action taken to forward immediately to the said commissioners or their designated agent a certified copy or transcript thereof, which said certified copy or transcript shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 166, ch. 89, § 2; May 9, 1941, 55 Stat. 184, ch. 98, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of 1941, cited to text, added the third subparagraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COVERAGE OF INSURANCE

Where policy of liability insurance by its own terms "does not cover any liability for death sustained by named insured" the financial responsibility act was applicable, where the insured was killed in her own automobile driven by another and the administratrix of named insured could not recover. Hepburn v. Pennsylvania Indem. Corp. (109 Fed. (2d) 833).

§ 40–403 [6: 255b]. Suspension of operator's permit and registration certificate—Judgments against nonresidents—Duty of clerk of court to certify copy of judgment to Commissioners—Suspension for other judgment after proof furnished—What constitutes satisfaction of judgment—Permission to pay in installments—Operator deemed to be agent of owner—Withdrawal of nonresident's privilege to drive vehicle after final judgment for damages—Service of process on nonresident.

The operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of any person, in the event of his failure to satisfy every judgment arising from an accident, or accidents, happening subsequently to the effective date of this chapter (August 1, 1935), and which shall have become final by expiration, without appeal, of the time within which appeal might have been perfected or by final affirmance on appeal, rendered against him by a court of competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia or any State, or in a District Court of the United States, for damages on account of personal injury, or damages to property resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle by him, his agent, or any other person with the express or implied consent of the owner, shall be forthwith suspended by the said Commissioners or their designated agent upon receiving a certified copy of such final judgment or judgments from the court in which the same is or are rendered showing such judgment or judgments to have been still unsatisfied more than thirty days after the same became final, and shall remain so suspended and shall not be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name while any such judgment remains unstayed, unsatisfied, and subsisting, nor until every such judgment is satisfied or discharged, except by a discharge in bankruptcy, and until the said person gives proof of his ability to respond in damages, as required in section 40–404, for future accidents. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which any such judgment is rendered to forward immediately upon the expiration of said thirty days to the said Commissioners or their designated agent a certified copy of such judgment or a transcript thereof. In the event the defendant is a nonresident, it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners or their designated agent to transmit to the Commissioner of motor vehicles (or officer in charge of the issuance of operators' permits and registration certificates) of the State of which the defendant is a resident a certified copy of the said judgment. If after such proof has been given any other such judgment shall be recovered against such person for any accident occurring before such proof was furnished, and after the effective date of this chapter (August 1, 1935), such permit and certificates shall again be and remain suspended while any such judgment remains unsatisfied and subsisting: Provided, however, That (1) when $5,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of one person as the result of any one accident; (2) when, subject to the limit of $5,000 for each person, the sum of $10,000 has been credited upon any judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of more than one person as the result of any one accident; or (3) when $1,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for damage to property as the result of any one accident resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle by such judgment debtor, his agent, or any other person, with his express or implied consent, then and in such event such payment or payments shall be deemed a satisfaction of such judgment or judgments for the purposes of this section only: And provided further, That a judgment debtor to whom this section applies may, for the sole purpose of giving authority to the Commissioners or their designated agent to authorize the judgment debtor to operate a motor vehicle thereafter, on due notice to the judgment creditor, apply to the court in which the trial judgment was obtained for the privilege of paying such judgment in instalments, and the court, in its discretion and without prejudice to any other legal remedies which the judgment creditor may have, may so order, fixing the amounts and times of payment of the instalments. While the judgment debtor is not in default in payment of such instalments, the Commissioners or their designated agent upon his giving proof of ability to respond in damages for future accidents, as herein provided, may, in their discretion, restore or refrain from suspending his operator's permit and registration certificate or certificates; but such permit and certificate or certificates shall be suspended as hereinbefore provided if and when the Commissioners or their designated agent are satisfied that the judgment debtor has failed to comply with the terms of the court order.

Whenever any motor vehicle, after the passage of this chapter, shall be operated upon the public highways of the District of Columbia by any person other than the owner, with the consent of the owner, express or implied, the operator thereof shall, in case of accident, be deemed to be the agent of the owner of such motor vehicle, and the proof of the ownership of said motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence that such person operated said motor vehicle with the consent of the owner.

If any such motor-vehicle owner or operator shall not be a resident of the District of Columbia, the privilege of operating any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia and the privilege of operation within the District of Columbia of any motor vehicle owned by him shall be withdrawn, while any final judgment procured against him for damages, including personal injury or death caused by the operation of any motor vehicle, in the District of Columbia or elsewhere, shall be unstayed, unsatisfied, and subsisting, for more than thirty days, and until he shall have given proof of his ability to respond in damages for future accidents as required in section 40–404.

The operation by a nonresident or by his agent of a motor vehicle on any public highway of the District of Columbia shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such nonresident of the director of vehicles and traffic or his successor in office to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful processes in any action or proceedings against such nonresident growing out of any accident or collision in which said nonresident or his agent may be involved while operating a motor vehicle on any such public highway, and said operation shall be a signification of his agreement that any such process against him, which is so served, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon him personally in the District of Columbia. Service of such process shall be made by leaving a copy of the process with a fee of $2 in the hands of the director of vehicles and traffic or in his office, and such service shall be sufficient service upon the said nonresident: Provided, That the plaintiff in such action shall first file in the court in which said action is commenced an undertaking in form and amount, and with one or more sureties, approved by said court, to reimburse the defendant, on the failure of the plaintiff to prevail in the action, for the expenses necessarily incurred by the defendant, including a reasonable attorney's fee in an amount to be fixed by the said court, in defending the action in the District of Columbia: And provided further, That notice of such service and a copy of the process are forthwith sent by registered mail by the plaintiff, or his attorney, to the defendant, and the defendant's return receipt appended to the writ and entered with the declaration, or such notice of such service and a copy of the process may be served upon the defendant in the manner provided by section 13–108. The court in which the action is pending may order such continuances as may be necessary to afford the defendant a reasonable opportunity to defend the action, and no judgment by default in any such action shall be granted until at least twenty days shall have elapsed after service upon the defendant, as hereinabove provided, of a copy of the process and notice of service of said process upon the director of vehicles and traffic. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 167, ch. 89, § 3; August 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 act struck out "in excess of $100" following "or damages to property.", in the first sentence.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ACCIDENT OCCURRING BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE

The Automobile Financial Responsibility Law cannot be applied to a collision occurring before its effective date. Smith v. Doyle (69 App. D. C. 60, 98 Fed. (2d) 341).

Prior to passage of the statute imposing on the owner of a car liability for the acts of any person who drives it with his consent, a corporation was not liable for an accident of its driver merely because it had entrusted its car to him. Balinovic v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 505).

In accident occurring before enactment of this section, a corporation was not liable for damages where the driver of its car at the time of the collision was engaged in chasing a traffic violator under direction of a policeman who was riding on the running board. Balinovic v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 505).

AGENCY BASED ON CONSENT

Congress intended to establish a new rule of liability in which agency is based on consent. Forrester v. Jerman (67 App. D. C. 167, 90 Fed. (2d) 412).

This section makes express or implied consent by owner to another's operation of his vehicle on public highways the equivalent of agency. Rosenberg v. Murray, 1940 (116 F. 2d 552, 73 U. S. App. D. C. 67).

Where party, injured by taxicab owned and operated by member of unincorporated association composed of men who owned and operated taxicabs, obtained judgment against members of association on theory that they were engaged with negligent operator in joint enterprise and were responsible for his negligence, the negligent operator was "agent" of other members of association within this section, so that permits and registration certificates of members of association were required to be suspended unless judgment against them was promptly paid. Champ v. Atkins, 1942 (128 F. 2d 601, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

Proof that record title to taxicab, O. D. T. certificate, tire ration application, gas allotment papers and Public Utilities Commission certificate were in defendant's name, which was on outside of taxicab, operated by another, gave rise to presumption that taxicab was being operated by defendant's agent with defendant's consent and required proof from defendant to the contrary. Gasque v. Saidman (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 537).

In determining whether an automobile is operated with consent of owner, the usual rules governing relation of master and servant are applied and a substantial deviation from an authorized use terminates consent. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

AGENT OF OWNER

Owner of car was liable in damages for injury from accident which occurred when her car was being delivered to her by employee of a garage with which she had a monthly storage and delivery contract. Jones v. King ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 522).

Where parking lot attendant was authorized to drive automobile and park it in street in front of owner's store after 6:30 p. m. and attendant had driven four blocks beyond his usual route at time of accident at 6:45 p. m., finding that evidence did not establish that attendant had removed automobile from parking lot for purpose of delivering automobile to owner, and did establish that at time of accident attendant was operating automobile without consent of owner, did not justify judgment relieving owner from liability for attendant's negligence. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

BAILOR'S NEGLIGENCE

The better reasoned view is that the contributory negligence of a bailee is attributable to a bailor under the Automobile Financial Responsibility Law. National Trucking and Storage Co. v. Driscoll (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 304).

BURDEN OF PROOF

The effect of this section making proof of ownership of automobile evidence of owner's consent to operation of automobile by another is simply to shift the burden of proof and impose on owner the affirmative duty of proving that automobile at time of accident was not operated with his express or implied consent. Schwartzbach v. Thompson (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 624); Rice v. Simmons (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 587).

CONDITIONAL SALE VENDOR

One who had sold and delivered taxicab to another on conditional sale contract and had retained legal title solely for security, was not the owner thereof nor liable for the property damage caused by negligence of another to whom purchaser had entrusted the taxicab and was not estopped to deny such ownership though his name appeared on taxicab. Gasque v. Saidman (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 537).

DEGREE OF PROOF

Under this section making proof of ownership prima facie evidence of consent, owner must offer evidence sufficient to overcome the prima facie case. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

DIRECTED VERDICT

Under provision of this section that proof of ownership of automobile causing damage shall be prima facie evidence that driver was operating automobile with owner's consent, to justify a directed verdict for defendant, shown to be owner of automobile involved, evidence must destroy all inferences and presumptions supporting plaintiff and must raise no doubts against defendant. Hiscox v. Jackson, 1942 (127 F. 2d 160, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 293).

In action for damage growing out of operation of taxicab, where evidence established defendant's ownership of taxicab, and defendant's evidence was somewhat inconsistent and self-contradictory, and the police report of accident stated that defendant was driver of taxicab at time of accident and testimony of plaintiff and one of his witnesses, brought out on cross-examination, contradicted defendant's story that taxicab was being operated without defendant's permission and placed the defendant as operator, evidence was sufficient for jury and directed verdict for defendant was improper. Hiscox v. Jackson, 1942 (127 F. 2d 160, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 293).

To constitute a joint enterprise there must be not only joint or community of interest but also an equal right, express or implied, to direct and control the management and movement of the motor vehicle involved. Gasque v. Saidman (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 537).

Under this section, if the presumption that automobile was being used with the express or implied consent of owner at time of accident is overcome by uncontradicted proof, a motion for directed verdict for the owner will be granted, but if the evidence is contradictory or reasonably subject to contradictory interpretations, the question of liability is for the trier of the facts. Rice v. Simmons (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 587).

JOINT ENTERPRISE

Where party, injured by taxicab operated by member of unincorporated association composed of men who owned and operated taxicabs, obtained judgment against members of association on theory that they were engaged with the negligent operator in joint enterprise and were responsible for his negligence, such judgment was conclusive in suit by members of association for declaratory judgment that members' permits and registration certificates should not be suspended on ground that they were not judgment debtors within this section. Champ v. Atkins, 1942 (128 F. 2d 601, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

Whether the contributory negligence of the driver of a rented taxicab may be imputed to its owner must be based on the theory that both were engaged in a joint enterprise. But to establish such relationship there must exist not only a community of interest in the subject of the venture but also an equal right, express or implied, to direct and control the management and movement of the car. National Trucking and Storage Co. v. Driscoll (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 304).

NEW TRIAL

Where principal question was whether colliding automobile was being operated with owner's consent and Municipal Court judge in case tried without a jury made a general finding for plaintiff and assessed damages and general finding was entered on the jacket of the case and in court's minutes and docket, and before judgment was entered defendant moved to set aside and render judgment for defendant, the court was without power to reverse such general finding and enter judgment for defendant, but the court's only recourse was to grant a new trial. Rice v. Simmons (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 587).

OWNERSHIP AS EVIDENCE

Under provision of this section that proof of ownership of motor vehicle causing damage shall be "prima facie evidence" that driver operated automobile with owner's consent, with proof that defendant owned automobile involved and with no evidence on behalf of defendant, a plaintiff who has otherwise established liability is entitled to a directed verdict. Hiscox v. Jackson, 1942 (127 F. 2d 160, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 293).

Under provision of this section that proof of ownership of motor vehicle causing damage shall be prima facie evidence that driver operated motor vehicle with owner's consent, the presumption continues until there is credible evidence to the contrary and ceases when there is uncontradicted proof that the vehicle was not at the time being used with the owner's permission. Hiscox v. Jackson, 1942 (127 F. 2d 160, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 293).

Where owner of automobile involved in accident had permitted driver to drive automobile on previous occasions and the testimony, that at time of accident automobile was not driven with owner's consent was inconsistent and self-contradictory, a finding that owner had failed to break the force of the statutory presumption of consent was justified. Schwartzbach v. Thompson (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 624).

The statutory presumption that vehicle involved in accident was driven with owner's consent continues until there is credible evidence to the contrary, and ceases when there is uncontradicted proof that the automobile was not being used with the owner's permission. Schwartzbach v. Thompson (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 624); Rice v. Simmons (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 587).

PRESUMPTION

Under this section, presumption that owner consented to use of automobile continues until there is credible evidence to contrary and ceases when there is uncontradicted proof that automobile was not at time being used with owner's permission, but, when fact of deviation from authorized use is established, the issue is one of law for court. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

Except insofar as final clause of this section creates a prima facie case of owner's consent to use of his automobile at time of accident, common-law rules defining liability of employer for acts of employee are unaffected by this section. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

Evidence presented was sufficient to meet the statutory presumption of consent under Owner's Financial Responsibility Act. When a statutory presumption is met by some credible evidence, it becomes, in a sense, something like an inference and when more than a single inference may be drawn from the evidence, it bcomes a question of fact for a jury's determination. Bill's Auto Rental, Inc. v. Bonded Taxi Company and Bonded Taxi Company v. Bill's Auto Rental, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 254).

PURPOSE

This section providing for service of summons on nonresident defendant in motor vehicle accident case by substituted service on Director of Vehicles and Traffic was passed for the benefit of injured persons within the District of Columbia, not for the benefit of nonresident motorists who caused injury within the District and then by absenting themselves therefrom avoid service and prevent recovery. Seymour v. Hawkins, 1942 (133 F. 2d 15, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 376).

QUESTION FOR JURY

Where owner of taxicab driven by another was in taxicab at time of collision and the evidence was conflicting whether driver was driving with owner's consent, the inferences to be drawn from the facts were for jury. Gasque v. Saidman (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 537).

RESIDENT

Statute does not apply where person was resident of District of Columbia at time of accident and later moved from the jurisdiction. Wood v. White (68 App. D. C. 341, 97 Fed. (2d) 646).

REVIEW

On appeal from judgment for plaintiff in action against automobile owner for damages resulting from operation of automobile by another, the test is whether the showing was such as to justify a holding that defendant had failed to break the force of the statutory presumption of owner's consent, and in applying that test and in measuring the force, effect and extent of the testimony, the municipal court of appeals, like the trial court, was governed by the rules of reason, credibility, and probability. Schwartzbach v. Thompson (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 624).

STRICTLY CONSTRUED

Statute is in derogation of common law and must be strictly construed. Wood v. White (68 App. D. C. 341, 97 Fed. (2d) 646).

Where this section, except final clause making proof of ownership of motor vehicle involved in accident prima facie evidence of consent, was in identical words of statute previously enacted by other states, there was imported into its terms the construction adopted by courts of such other states. Senator Cab Co. v. Rothberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 245).

§ 40–404 [6: 255c]. Proof of ability to respond in damages, what constitutes—Additional certificates for additional vehicles—Certificates not to be canceled except upon ten days' notice to Commissioners—Action on same to be brought in name of District of Columbia—Exemption of such money from attachment or execution.

Proof of ability to respond in damages when required by this chapter may be evidenced by the written certificate or certificates of any insurance carrier, duly authorized to do business within the District of Columbia, or in the case of a nonresident by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in any of the several states, that it has issued to or for the benefit of the person named therein a motor-vehicle liability policy or policies as defined in section 40–412 which, at the date of said certificate or certificates, is in full force and effect and designating therein by explicit description or by other appropriate reference all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is granted by the policy certified to. The said commissioners or their designated agent shall not accept any certificate or certificates unless the same shall cover all motor vehicles registered in the name of the person furnishing such proof. Additional certificates as aforesaid shall be required as a condition precedent to the registration of any additional motor vehicle or motor vehicles in the name of such person required to furnish proof as aforesaid. Said certificate or certificates shall certify that the motor-vehicle liability policy or policies therein cited shall not be canceled except upon ten days' prior written notice thereof to the said commissioners or their designated agent.

Such proof may be the bond of a surety company duly authorized to do business within the District of Columbia or a bond with at least two individual sureties, each owning unencumbered real estate in the District of Columbia, approved by a judge of a court of record, and filed with the said Commissioners or their designated agent, which said bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amounts specified in section 40–402 hereof and shall not be cancelable except after ten days' written notice to the said Commissioners or their designated agent. Such bond in the case where individual sureties are offered shall contain a schedule of the real estate of said sureties and shall constitute a lien in favor of the District of Columbia upon said real estate, which lien shall exist in favor of any holder of any final judgment thereafter rendered on account of damage to property or injury to any person or persons caused by the operation of such person's motor vehicle. Said bond shall be recorded by the principal named therein among the land records of the District of Columbia before the same is filed with the Commissioners or their designated agent. If a final judgment rendered after the filing of the bond as aforesaid against the principal named in the surety or real-estate bond for damages sustained to person or property while said bond remains in force or effect shall not be satisfied within thirty days after its rendition, the judgment creditor may, for his own use and benefit and at his sole expense, bring an action in the name of the District of Columbia against the company or persons executing such bond.

Such proof of ability to respond in damages may also be evidence presented to the said commissioners or their designated agent of a deposit by such person with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia of a sum of money, the amount of which money shall be $11,000. The said clerk shall accept such deposit and issue a receipt therefor. But the said clerk shall not accept a deposit of money where any judgment or judgments, therefor recovered against such person as a result of damages arising from the operation of any motor vehicle, shall not have been paid in full. Such money shall be held by the said clerk to satisfy, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, any execution issued against such person in any suit arising out of damage caused by the operation of any motor vehicle owned or operated by such person. Money so deposited shall not be subject to attachment or execution unless such attachment or execution shall arise out of a suit for damages, including injury to property, and personal injury or death, as a result of the operation of a motor vehicle. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 169, ch. 89, § 4; Aug. 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 act struck out "over $100 in amount" following "final judgment thereafter rendered on account of damage to property" in the second sentence of the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSENT—BURDEN OF PROOF

The effect of this section is simply to shift burden of proof and impose on owner the affirmative duty of proving that automobile was not at time of accident operated with his express or implied consent. Rosenberg v. Murray, 1940 (116 F. 2d 552, 73 App. D. C. 67).

CONSENT—PRESUMPTIONS

The presumption of this section that vehicle was driven with owner's consent continues until there is credible evidence to the contrary, and ceases when there is uncontradicted proof that automobile was not being used with owner's permission. Rosenberg v. Murray, 1940 (116 F. 2d 552, 73 App. D. C. 67).

OWNERSHIP

The terms "owner" and "ownership" which are not defined in this section must be defined by judicial determination, made in a manner giving effect to the objects and purposes of this section. Mason v. Automobile Finance Co., 1941 (121 F. 2d 32, 73 App. D. C. 284).

Chattel mortgagee is not an "owner" of an automobile within this section, nor does he become such merely by virtue of a default by the mortgagor, though the right to possession may accrue immediately upon default, but something more than a lien on the automobile, though presently and summarily enforceable, is necessary. Mason v. Automobile Finance Co., 1941 (121 F. 2d 32, 73 App. D. C. 284).

Possession plus power and legal right to permit its use by another constitutes ownership within the meaning of this section. Mason v. Automobile Finance Co., 1941 (121 F. 2d 32, 73 App. D. C. 284).

PURPOSE

In absence of some definite statutory criterion of ownership, the purpose of this section was to place liability on the person in a position immediately to allow or prevent the use of the automobile and to do so by giving a lawful and effective consent or prohibition to its operation by others, and its object was to control the giving of consent to irresponsible drivers by the one having that power rather than to impose liability on one having a naked legal title with no immediate right of control. Mason v. Automobile Finance Co., 1941 (121 F. 2d 32, 73 App. D. C. 284).

§ 40–405 [6: 255d]. Commissioners to be notified of cancelation or expiration of insurance or bond—Suspension of permit on failure to furnish other proof of ability before expiration date.

The said Commissioners or their designated agent shall be notified of the cancelation or expiration of any motor-vehicle liability policy of insurance certified under the provisions of this chapter or of any surety or real estate bond at least ten days before the effective date of such cancelation or expiration. In the absence of such notice of cancelation or expiration said policy of insurance shall remain in full force and effect. Upon receipt of such notice of cancelation or expiration the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall require other evidence of ability to respond in damages, and upon failure to furnish the same before the effective date of such cancelation or expiration, the operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of the person failing to comply herewith shall be suspended by the Commissioners or their designated agent and shall remain so suspended until such other evidence of ability to respond in damages shall have been given. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 170, ch. 89, § 5.)

§ 40–406 [6: 255e]. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish operating record—Fees.

The director of vehicles and traffic shall, upon request, furnish any insurer, person, or surety a certificate abstract of the operating record of any person subject to the provisions of this chapter, which abstract shall fully designate the motor vehicles, if any, registered in the name of such person, and if there shall be no record of any conviction of such person of a violation of any provision of any statute or regulation relating to the operation of a motor vehicle or of any injury or damage caused by such person as herein provided, the said director shall so certify. The said director shall collect for each such certificate the sum of $1. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 170, ch. 89, § 6.)

§ 40–407 [6: 255f]. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish injured person evidence of ability of owners or operator to respond in damages.

The director of vehicles and traffic shall furnish any person who may have been injured in person or property by any motor vehicle, upon written request, with all information of record in his office pertaining to the evidence of the ability of any operator or owner of any motor vehicle to respond in damages. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 7.)

§ 40–408 [6: 255g]. Suspended person to return operator's permit to director of vehicles and traffic—Duty of Metropolitan Police to secure possession—Penalty for failure to return permit.

Any operator or any owner whose operator's permit or certificate of registration shall have been suspended as in this chapter provided shall immediately return to the director of vehicles and traffic his operator's permit, certificate of registration, and the number plates issued thereunder. If any person shall fail to return to the said director the operator's permit, certificate of registration, and the number plates issued thereunder as provided herein, the said director shall forthwith direct any member of the Metropolitan Police of the District of Columbia to secure possession thereof and to return the same to the office of the said director. Any person failing to return on demand such operator's permit or such certificate and number plates shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $100, and each day such person shall fail to return the same shall constitute a separate offense. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 8.)

§ 40–409 [6: 255h]. Authority of Commissioners to cancel evidence of insurance after three years—Substitution of other evidence of ability for money—Return of money.

The said Commissioners or their designated agent may cancel such bond or return such evidence of insurance, or the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia may, with the consent of the said Commissioners or their designated agent, return such money to the person furnishing the same, provided three years shall have elapsed since the filing of such evidence or the making of such deposit, during which period such person shall not have violated any provision of the Traffic Acts referred to in section 40–402 and provided no suit or judgment for damages on account of personal injury or damage to property resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle by him or his agent shall then be outstanding against such person; and the affidavit of such person that he has not so violated the motor vehicle laws and that there are then outstanding against him no suits or judgments for damages as aforesaid, shall be sufficient proof thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary then before the Commissioners or their designated agent. The said Commissioners or their designated agent may direct the return of any money to the person who furnished the same upon the acceptance and substitution of other evidence of his ability to respond in damages or, at any time after three years from the expiration of the latest registration or permit issued to such person, provided no written notice shall have been filed with the director stating that such suit had been brought against such person by reason of the ownership, maintenance, or operation of a motor vehicle and upon the filing by such person with the said Commissioners or their designated agent of an affidavit that he has abandoned his residence in the District of Columbia or that he has made bona fide sale of any and all motor vehicles owned by him and does not intend to own or operate any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia for a period of one or more years. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 9; Aug. 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 Act struck out "in excess of $100" after "damage to property" in the first sentence.

§ 40–410 [6: 255i]. Exemption of persons required to make other provision for injury or damage.

Any person who by any other law of the District of Columbia is required to make provision for the payment of loss occasioned by injury to or death of persons or damage to property shall, to the extent of such provision so made and not otherwise, be exempt from sections 40–401 to 40–416. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 10.)

§ 40–411 [6: 255j]. Penalty for forging—Evidence of guilt.

Any person who shall forge or, without authority, sign any evidence of ability to respond in damages as required by the said Commissioners or their designated agent in the administration of this chapter shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 172, ch. 89, § 11.)

§ 40–412 [6: 255k]. Meaning of "Motor-vehicle liability policy"—Coverage—Liability under Workmen's Compensation Law and to property in charge of insured excepted—Alternative provisions—Minimum limits—Additional coverage permitted—Other provisions not contrary to sections 40–401 to 40–416 hereof permitted—Separate policies for personal injury and property damage permitted—Approval of form of policy by Commissioner of Insurance—Statutory provisions—Same need not be contained in policy.

"Motor-vehicle liability policy," as used in this chapter, shall be taken to mean a policy of liability insurance issued to the person therein named as insured by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in the District of Columbia, or in the case of a nonresident, by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in any of the several States, which policy shall designate, by explicit description or by appropriate reference, all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is intended to be granted by said policy, and shall insure the insured named therein and any other person using or responsible for the use of any such motor vehicle with the consent, express or implied, of such insured, against loss from the liability imposed upon such insured by law or upon such other person for injury to or death of any person, other than such person or persons as may be covered, as respects such injury or death by any Workmen's Compensation Law, or damage to property except property of others in charge of the insured or the insured's employees growing out of the maintenance, use, or operation of any such motor vehicle in the United States of America; or which policy shall, in the alternative, insure the person therein named as insured against loss from the liability imposed by law upon such insured for injury to or death of any person, other than such person or persons as may be covered as respects such injury or death by any Workmen's Compensation Law, or damage to property, except property of others in charge of the insured or the insured's employees, growing out of the operation or use by such insured of any motor vehicle, except a motor vehicle registered in the name of such insured, and occurring while such insured is personally in control, as driver or occupant, of such motor vehicle within the United States of America, to the amount or limit of $5,000, exclusive of interest and costs, on account of injury to or death of any one person, and, subject to the same limit as respects injury to or death of one person, of $10,000, exclusive of interest and costs, on account of any one accident resulting in injury to or death of more than one person; and of $1,000 for damage to property of others, as herein provided, resulting from any one accident; or a binder pending the issuance of any such policy; or an indorsement to an existing policy as hereinafter provided: Provided, That this section shall not be construed as preventing such insurance carrier from granting any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage herein provided for, nor from embodying in such policy any agreements, provisions, or stipulations not contrary to the provisions of this chapter and not otherwise contrary to law: Provided, however, That separate concurrent policies covering, respectively, (a) personal injury or death, as aforesaid, and (b) property damage, as aforesaid, shall be considered a motor-vehicle liability policy within the meaning of this chapter.

No motor-vehicle liability policy shall be issued or delivered in the District of Columbia until a copy of the form of policy shall have been on file with the Superintendent of Insurance for at least thirty days, unless sooner approved in writing by the Superintendent of Insurance, nor if within said period of thirty days the Superintendent of Insurance shall have notified the carrier in writing that in his opinion, specifying the reasons therefor, the form of policy does not comply with the laws of the District of Columbia. The Superintendent of Insurance shall approve any form of policy which discloses the name, address, and business of the insured, the coverage afforded by such policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, the limit of liability, and the agreement that the insurance thereunder is provided in accordance with the coverage defined in this section as respects personal injury and death or property damage, or both, and is otherwise subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

Such motor-vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions, which need not be contained therein:

(a) The liability of any company under a motor-vehicle liability policy shall become absolute whenever loss or damage covered by said policy occurs, and the satisfaction by the insured of a final judgment for such loss or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the carrier to make payment on account of such loss or damage. No such policy shall be canceled or annulled as respects any loss or damage by any agreement between the carrier and the insured after the said insured has become responsible for such loss or damage, and any such cancelation or annulment shall be void. Upon the recovery of a final judgment against any person for any such loss or damage, if the judgment debtor was at the accrual of the cause of action insured against liability therefor under a motor-vehicle liability policy, the judgment creditor shall be entitled to have the insurance money applied to the satisfaction of the judgment. But the policy may provide that the insured, or any other person covered by the policy, shall reimburse the company for payments made on account of any accident, claim, or suit involving a breach of the terms, provisions, or conditions of the policy; and further, if the policy shall provide for limits in excess of the limits designated in this section, the insurance carrier may plead against such judgment creditor, with respect to the amount of such excess limits of liability, any defenses which it may be entitled to plead against the insured. Any such policy may further provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other applicable valid and collectible insurance.

(b) The policy, the written application therefor (if any), and any rider or endorsement which shall not conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

(c) The insurance carrier shall, upon the request of the insured, deliver to the insured for filing, or at the request of the insured shall file direct, with the said commissioners or their designated agent an appropriate certificate as set forth in section 40–404 hereof.

(d) Any carrier authorized to issue motor-vchicle liability policies as provided for in this chapter, may, pending the issuance of such a policy, execute an agreement, to be known as a binder; or may, in lieu of such a policy, issue an endorsement to an existing policy, each of which shall be construed to provide indemnity or protection in like manner and to the same extent as such a policy. The provisions of this section shall apply to such binders and endorsements. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 172, ch. 89, § 12.)

§ 40–413 [6: 255*l*]. Definitions.

The following words, as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(a) The singular shall include the plural. The masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, as requisite.

(b) "Person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, receivers, referees, trustees, executors, and administrators; and shall also include the owner of any motor vehicle as requisite, but shall not include the District of Columbia.

(c) "Motor vehicle" shall include trailers, motorcycles, and tractors.

(d) "Public highways" shall include any street, road, or public thoroughfare. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 173, ch. 89, § 13.)

§ 40–414 [6: 255m]. Commissioners to make rules and regulations.

The said Commissioners shall make rules and regulations necessary for the administration of this chapter. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 14.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 40–415 [6: 255n]. Plaintiff not prevented from relying upon other processes.

Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the plaintiff in any action at law from relying for security upon the other processes provided by law. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 15.)

§ 40–416 [6: 255*o*]. Saving clause.

If any part, subdivision, or section of this chapter shall be deemed unconstitutional, the validity of its remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 16.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 17 provided as follows: "This act (§§ 40–401 to 40–416) shall go into effect ninety days after its passage and approval by the President of the United States."

§ 40–602 [6: 242]. Definitions.

When used in this chapter—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means all vehicles propelled by internal-combustion engines, electricity, or steam, except traction engines, road rollers, and vehicles propelled only upon rails and tracks;

(b) The term "court" means the police court of the District of Columbia;

(c) The term "District" means the District of Columbia;

(d) The term "Commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia;

(e) [Repealed].

(f) The term "person" means individual, partnership, corporation, or association;

(g) The term "park" means to leave any motor vehicle standing on a public highway, whether or not attended;

(h) The term "public highway" means any street, road, or public thoroughfare; and

(i) The term "this chapter" includes all lawful regulations issued thereunder by the commissioners.

(j) The term "vehicle" shall apply to any appliance moved over a highway on wheels or traction tread, including street cars, draft animals, and beasts of burden.

(k) Traffic shall be deemed to include not only motor vehicles but also all vehicles, pedestrians, and animals, of every description. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443, § 2; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 812, ch. 739, § 1; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section as enacted contained the following paragraph, "(c) The term 'District of Columbia Code' means the act entitled 'An act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia approved March 3, 1901,' as amended;" this phrase appeared only in the introductory lines of those sections of the act of March 3, 1925, amending that Code.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609, 40–610, 40–612, 40–614, 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

The 1926 act added paragraphs (i) and (j).

The 1931 act repealed a paragraph of this section which provided as follows "(e) The term 'director' means the director of traffic of the District of Columbia." The 1931 act became effective July 1, 1931.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

Term "this act" includes all lawful regulations issued thereunder by the commissioners. Smallwood v. District of Columbia (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

This chapter is not limited in its scope and purpose to motor vehicle traffic only. Smallwood v. District of Columbia, 1927 (17 F. 2d 210, 57 App. D. C. 58).

HORSE-DRAWN VEHICLES

The director of traffic is authorized to exclude horse-drawn vehicles from arterial highways or boulevards. District of Columbia v. Wheeler (57 App. D. C. 106, 17 Fed. (2d) 953).

VEHICLES INCLUDED

Vehicles are limited to those that run on the land. McBoyle v. United States (283 U. S. 25, 75 L. Ed. 816, 51 Sup. Ct. 340).

Commercial vehicles with solid tires. Smallwood v. District of Columbia (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

§ 40–603 [6: 243]. Commissioners authorized to make regulations—Department of Vehicles and Traffic—Director—Congressional tags—Titling—Joint board—Arterial and boulevard highways—Commissioners may prescribe penalties—Publication of regulations—Signs on highways—Prosecutions—Excise tax imposed for issuance of motor vehicle title certificates.

(a) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make, modify, repeal, and enforce usual and reasonable traffic rules and regulations relating to vehicles, and rules and regulations concerning the control of traffic, the registration of motor vehicles, and the issuance and revocation of operators' permits; and to exercise any power or perform any duty imposed on the director of traffic, which office is hereby abolished; and in the administration of the above powers and authority the commissioners may exercise the same through such officers or agents of the District as the commissioners may designate: Provided, That no member of the Metropolitan Police Department may be empowered to perform any function under this chapter other than in the enforcement thereof.

(b) There is established in the government of the District of Columbia a department of vehicles and traffic, which, under the direction of the commissioners, shall have charge of the issuance and revocation of operators' permits, the registration and titling of motor vehicles, the making of traffic studies and plans, the installation and maintenance of traffic signs, signals, and markers, and of such other matters as may be determined by the commissioners. The commissioners shall appoint a director of vehicles and traffic, who shall be in charge of said department, and such other personnel as they may deem necessary to perform the duties thereof and as may be appropriated for by Congress. The salaries of such director of vehicles and traffic and other personnel shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673). The director of vehicles and traffic shall be responsible directly to the commissioners for the faithful performance of his duties and shall be subject to removal by the commissioners for cause.

(c) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce reasonable regulations in respect to brakes, horns, lights, mufflers, and other equipment, the inspection of the same; the registering, reregistering, titling, retitling, transferring of titles, and revocation of the certificate of title to motor vehicles and trailers: Provided, That congressional tags shall be issued by the commissioners under consecutive numbers, one to each Senator and Representative in Congress, to the elective officers and disbursing clerks of the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Parliamentarian of the House of Representatives, the attending physician of the Capitol, and the assistant secretaries (one for the majority and one for the minority of the Senate), for their official use, which, when used by them individually while on official business, shall authorize them to park their automobiles in any available curb space in the District of Columbia, except within fire plug, fire house, loading station, and loading platform limitations, and such congressional tags shall not be assigned to or used by others: Provided further, That such congressional tags shall be valid only for the Congress in which such tags are so issued, and it shall be unlawful to display such congressional tags for a period longer than thirty days after the opening of the next Congress.

Any person violating this section shall be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned not more than ninety days, or both.

(d) The commissioners shall cause to be levied, collected, and paid such fees for titling and retitling as they deem necessary, not to exceed the sum of $1 for each such titling or retitling, and they shall not, after the 1st day of January, 1932, register or renew the registration of any motor vehicle or trailer unless and until the owner thereof shall make application in the form prescribed by the commissioners, under oath, and be granted an official certificate of title for such vehicle. No registration or other fee shall be charged to vehicles owned by the federal or District government or any duly accredited representative of a foreign government. The owner of a motor vehicle or trailer registered in the District of Columbia shall not, after the 1st day of January, 1932, operate or permit or cause to be operated any such vehicle upon any public highway in the District without first obtaining a certificate of title therefor, nor shall any individual knowingly permit any certificate of title to be obtained in his name for any vehicle not in fact owned by him, and any individual violating any provision of this subsection or any regulations promulgated thereunder shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. If the properly designated agent of the commissioners shall determine that an applicant for a certificate of title is not entitled thereto, such certificate of title may be refused, and in that event unless such determination is reversed upon written application to the commissioners by the individual affected, such individual shall be entitled to proceed further as provided under section 40–302 (a), and jurisdiction is conferred upon the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for this purpose: Provided, That reasonable time for hearing be given the applicant in the first instance.

(e) The commissioners may in the administration of this chapter, section or any provision of the Traffic Acts for the District, exercise any power or perform any duty conferred on them by this chapter through such officers and agents of the District as the commissioners may designate. The commissioners are further authorized and empowered to make, modify, repeal, and enforce reasonable rules and regulations in respect to the movement of traffic, speed, length, weight, height, width, routing, and parking of vehicles, and the establishment and location of hack stands: Provided, That the commissioners shall establish and locate parking areas in the vicinity of governmental establishments for use only by members of Congress and governmental officials when on official business: Provided further, That as to all common carriers by vehicle which enter, operate in, or leave the District of Columbia, the power to route such vehicles within the District of Columbia, to regulate their equipment other than that specifically named elsewhere in this chapter, to regulate their schedules and their loading and unloading, to locate their stops, and all platforms and loading zones and to require the appropriate marking thereof, is vested in the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided further, That whenever any order, rule, or regulation of the Public Utilities Commission shall be made relative to the routing of common carrier vehicles, to the location of their stops, to the establishment or change in location of platforms, loading zones, or other spaces on the public highway to be reserved for any purpose whatsoever, or to the appropriate marking thereof, or whenever any order, rule, or regulation of the District commissioners shall be made which affects such routing, stops, platforms, zones, or spaces, said order, rule, or regulation shall, prior to promulgation, be referred to a joint board to be composed of the commissioners of the District of Columbia and the members of the Public Utilities Commission, which is hereby authorized and created. Such joint board may, by the affirmative action of any three members thereof, adopt rules and regulations which, when promulgated, shall be binding and shall have the full force and effect of law, and the engineer commissioner shall be the chairman of such joint board, and shall have but one vote. Any of said rules and regulations, after reasonable trial and within a reasonable time, may be changed by the joint board upon the request of the commissioners of the District of Columbia or of the Public Utilities Commission.

(g) The District Commissioners are authorized to prescribe within the limitations of this chapter reasonable penalties of fine, or imprisonments not to exceed ten days in lieu of or in addition to any fine, for the violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under the authority of this chapter not otherwise herein provided for. All traffic, motor vehicle, and vehicle regulations not inconsistent herewith adopted and promulgated prior to July 1, 1931, are continued and shall remain in full force and effect until amended, altered, or revoked.

(h) All regulations promulgated under the authority of this chapter, except those made by the Public Utilities Commission under powers given it by Title 43 of this Code, shall, when adopted, be printed in one or more of the daily newspapers published in the District, and no penalty shall be enforced for any violation of any such regulation which occurs within ten days after such publication, except that whenever the commissioners of the District of Columbia deem it advisable to make effective immediately any regulation relating to parking, diverting of vehicular traffic, or the closing of streets to such traffic, the regulation shall be effective immediately upon placing at the point where it is to be in force conspicuous signs containing a notice of the regulation. The placing at or upon the public highway of any sign relating to parking or regulation of traffic, except by the authority of the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent, or of the joint board, is prohibited: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to any such signs which do not purport to reserve space on the public highways and which the Public Utilities Commission may authorize under the provision of this chapter.

(i) All prosecutions for violations of this chapter, excepting section 40–610, and this act or regulations made and promulgated under the authority of this chapter shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants.

(j) In addition to the fees and charges levied under other provisions of this Act, there is hereby levied and imposed an excise tax for the issuance of every original certificate of title for a motor vehicle or trailer in the District, and for the issuance of every subsequent certificate of title for a motor vehicle or trailer in the District in the case of sale or resale thereof, at the rate of 2 per centum of the fair market value of such motor vehicle or trailer at the time such certificate is issued, as determined by the Assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representatives. As used in this section, the term "original certificate of title" shall mean the first certificate of title issued by the District of Columbia for any particular motor vehicle or trailer. No certificate of title so issued shall be delivered or furnished to the person entitled thereto until the tax has been paid in full. The Assessor of the District of Columbia may require every applicant for a certificate of title to supply such information as he deems necessary as to the time of purchase, the purchase price, and other information relative to the determination of the fair market value of any motor vehicle or trailer for which a certificate of title is required and issued. The issuance of certificates of title for the following motor vehicles and trailers shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this subsection:

(1) Motor vehicles and trailers owned by the United States or the District of Columbia.

(2) Motor vehicles and trailers purchased or acquired by nonresidents prior to coming into the District of Columbia and establishing or maintaining residences in the District.

(3) Motor vehicles and trailers purchased or acquired by nonresidents prior to coming into the District of Columbia and establishing or maintaining a business or businesses in the District. Except as hereinafter provided, it is not intended to exempt from the tax the issuance of certificates of title for motor vehicles and trailers owned by nonresidents who are engaged in business in the District at the time of their purchase or acquisition of such vehicles and trailers and who use such vehicles and trailers in the conduct of their District business or businesses.

(4) Motor vehicles and trailers owned by a utility or public service company for use in furnishing a commodity or service: Provided, That the receipts from furnishing such commodity or service are subject to a gross-receipts or mileage tax in force in the District of Columbia at the time of a certificate of title for any such vehicle or trailer is issued. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 6; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 814, ch. 739, § 4; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, §§ 3, 4; Dec. 19, 1932, 47 Stat. 750, ch. 5; July 2, 1945, 59 Stat. 313, ch. 222; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, title III, § 301.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Paragraph (f) of this section as enacted in 1931 contains the further provision at the end "and section 14 of said Traffic Acts is hereby repealed." That section appeared in the 1929 Code of the District of Columbia as section 251 of title 6.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

This section prior to amendment contained four paragraphs and provided for the appointment of a director of traffic, giving him the power to make the various regulations, beginning 50 days after the enactment of the original act, and contained provisions for the publication of such regulations and for the appointment of an additional assistant to the corporation counsel.

The 1926 act added a paragraph substantially the same as present paragraph (i) but contained the additional proviso "That nothing herein contained shall deprive any person of the right of trial by jury."

The 1931 act adopted this section in the form it now exists. This act became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1932 act added that part of the proviso in paragraph (c) following "Representative in Congress" and preceding "for their official use."

The act of July 2, 1945, cited to text, amended subsec. (c) by adding the last proviso and second par.

The act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, added subsection (j). Sec. 302 of said act provided: "The provisions of this title shall be applicable with respect to all certificates of title issued on or after the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after the approval of this Act."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Traffic Act, as amended, delegates to the commissioners authority to make rules and regulations in relation to traffic on the public highways, and to the Director of Parks authority to make regulations in relation to traffic on the roads in the public parks within the District; and to provide for punishment for violations by proceedings in the police court at instance of corporation counsel and to exclude United States Attorney from any prosecutions except provision involving smoke-screen felony. Persham v. United States (70 App. D. C. 116, 104 Fed. (2d) 249).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

This section is not unconstitutional as vesting legislative power and unregulated discretion in administrative officers. La Forest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES

The requirements of this section for registration of a motor vehicle do not apply to duplicate certificates of title, and the oath required for registration is not required for issuance of a duplicate certificate. Shelton v. U. S. (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 241).

EFFECT ON CONTRACTS OF PURCHASE

Subsection (d) of this section providing that the owner of a motor vehicle shall not operate it upon any public highway in the District of Columbia without first obtaining a certificate of title therefor does not void an otherwise valid contract for purchase of an automobile. Associates Discount Corporation v. Hardesty, 1941 (122 F. 2d 18, 74 App. D. C. 44).

GOVERNMENT-OWNED VEHICLES

Traffic laws of District govern as to mail trucks over orders of Post Office Department. White v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 197, 4 Fed. (2d) 163).

PEDESTRIANS' RIGHT OF WAY

Under the regulations of this act pedestrians are given the right of way at all crosswalks except at controlled crossings. Griffith v. Slaybaugh (58 App. D. C. 237, 29 Fed. (2d) 437).

"PICK-UP AND DELIVERY" OF RAILROADS

In a mandamus action brought by a railroad company to compel the Public Utilities Commission to act on the railroad company's petition for designation of a route for alleged "pick-up and delivery service," relief was denied until the railroad company obtained a certificate of convenience and necessity from the Interstate Commerce Commission. United States ex rel. Arlington & F. Auto R. Co. v. Elgen (68 App. D. C. 392, 98 Fed. (2d) 264).

The question of what constitutes a terminal district is so largely one of fact and so far involves considerations calling for the expert knowledge in technical matters of transportation, that a railroad company seeking by mandamus to require the Public Utilities Commission to designate a route for alleged "pick-up and delivery service" within railroad terminal districts, should pursue its remedy before the Commerce Commission rather than the courts. United States ex rel. Arlington & F. Auto R. Co. v. Elgen (68 App. D. C. 392, 98 Fed. (2d) 264).

PROSECUTION

By (i) last paragraph Congress intended that all prosecutions for violations of the traffic act, except for the violation of the smoke-screen provision in section eleven should be at the instance of the corporation counsel and in the name of the District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Moyer (68 App. D. C. 98, 93 Fed. (2d) 527).

SALE WITHOUT CERTIFICATE OF TITLE

The registration regulation requiring that certificate of title be assigned at time ownership of motor vehicle is transferred, and the regulation requiring that a dealer acquire a certificate of origin with a new motor vehicle should be construed consistently with reference to the effect of a failure to assign and deliver required certificate at time of transfer. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

The sale of used automobile by dealer which had possession thereof with authority from finance company to offer it for sale in regular course of business was not void because certificate of title held by finance company was not assigned to buyer by dealer at time of transfer, as required by registration regulations. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

The purpose of registration regulation that no dealer shall have any used motor vehicle or trailer in his possession unless he shall have a certificate of title for it issued or assigned to him is apparently to prevent persons holding certificate from giving possession of vehicle to a dealer without also delivering certificate to him. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE

Where defendant was convicted for violation of a traffic regulation, and execution of sentence was suspended, such suspension must be vacated because such power is derived from the Federal Probation Act, and though under the District of Columbia Probation Act, the court is authorized to suspend execution, clearly the suspension in this case was not and did not purport to be exercised under the authority of the probation law and was beyond the power of the court. Ziegler v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 618).

VALIDITY AND REASONABLENESS

Regulations prohibiting use of vehicles with solid tires on certain arterial streets were valid and reasonable. Smallwood v. District of Columbia (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

Regulations prohibiting speed in excess of 15 miles an hour on certain bridges were valid and reasonable. District of Columbia v. Bailey (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 367).

Regulations which prevent parking of automobiles on certain streets between 2 a. m. and 8 a. m. to enable the snow-removal machinery of the city to function is a reasonable and proper regulation. District of Columbia v. Smith (68 App. D. C. 104, 93 Fed. (2d) 650).

VIOLATION AS NEGLIGENCE

Violation of an ordinance intended to promote safety is negligence, and if by creating hazard which ordinance was intended to avoid it brings about harm which ordinance was intended to prevent, it is a legal cause of the harm. Ross v. Hartman, 1944 (139 F. 2d 14, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 217, 158 A. L. R. 1370, certiorari denied 64 S. Ct. 790, 321 U. S. 790, 88 L. Ed. 1080).

An ordinance requiring motor vehicles, left unattended in public place, to be locked is a safety measure, and its violation is negligence. Ross v. Hartman, 1944 (139 F. 2d 14, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 217, 158 A. L. R. 1370, certiorari denied 64 S. Ct. 790, 321 U. S. 790, 88 L. Ed. 1080).

Where truck owner's agent violated traffic ordinance by leaving truck unattended, in a public alley, with ignition unlocked and key in switch, and an unknown person drove truck away and negligently ran over plaintiff, the violation of the ordinance was negligence and constituted the "proximate cause" of the injury rendering owner liable therefor. Ross v. Hartman, 1944 (139 F. 2d 14, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 217, 158 A. L. R. 1370, certiorari denied 64 S. Ct. 790, 321 U. S. 790, 88 L. Ed. 1080).

Where defendant's driver was negligent in leaving motor vehicle unlocked and such negligence was proximate cause of accident in which plaintiffs were injured, defendant was liable for damages. R. W. Claxton, Inc., v. Schaff. (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 303, certiorari denied, 69 S. Ct. 168, 335 U. S. 871, 93 L. Ed. 415.)

Violation of a traffic regulation constitutes negligence per se. Rogers v. Cox (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 75 A. 2d 776).

§ 40–603–1. Appeal from assessment of excise tax for issuance of motor vehicle title certificates—Election of remedies.

Any person aggrieved by the assessment of any tax imposed by subsection 40–603 (j) may, within ninety days from the date the person entitled to a certificate of title was notified of the amount of such tax, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407, 47–2408, 47–2409, 47–2410 and 47–2411, and as the same may hereafter be amended. The remedy provided in this section shall not be deemed to take away from the person entitled to such certificate of title any remedy which he might have under any other provisions of law, but no suit by such person for the recovery of a tax, or any part thereof, imposed by subsection 40–603 (j) shall be instituted in any court if such person has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 129, ch. 146, title III, § 303.)

§ 40–603a. Office of Registrar of Titles and Tags.

The employee of the Department of Vehicles and Traffic who is charged with the immediate responsibility for, and exercises supervision over, the issuance of tags and certificates of title and the registration of motor vehicles and trailers shall be known as the Registrar of Titles and Tags. (June 28, 1944, 58 Stat. 527, ch. 300, § 1; June 30, 1945, 59 Stat. 289, ch. 209, § 1.)

§ 40–603b. Issuance of congressional tags.

No part of any District of Columbia appropriations shall be available for any expense for or incident to the issuance of congressional tags except to those persons set out in § 40–603, including the Speaker and the Vice President. (June 28, 1944, 58 Stat. 532, ch. 300, § 8.)

§ 40–605 [6: 246]. Speeding and reckless driving.

(a) No vehicle shall be operated at a greater rate of speed than permitted by the regulations adopted under the authority of this chapter.

(b) Any person who drives any vehicle upon a highway carelessly and heedlessly in willful or wanton disregard of the rights or safety of others, or without due caution and circumspection and at a speed or in a manner so as to endanger or be likely to endanger any person or property, shall be guilty of reckless driving.

(c) Any individual violating any provision of this section where the offense constitutes reckless driving shall upon conviction for the first offense be fined not more than $250 or imprisoned not more than three months, or both; and upon conviction for the second or any subsequent offense committed within two years from the date of any such previous offense such individual shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(d) Any individual violating any provision of this section, except where the offense constitutes reckless driving, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300 or be imprisoned not more than ninety days. COMPILER'S NOTES

The act of 1931 became effective July 1, 1931.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–621, 11–623 and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

The act of 1925 provided for a speed limit of 22 miles an hour except in outlying districts.

The act of 1926 provided for the regulation of speed in outlying districts.

The act of 1931 amended paragraph (a) as it now exists. The act of 1931 also changed the definition of reckless driving in paragraph (b).

The penalties for reckless driving were originally a fine of $25 to $100 and imprisonment of 10 to 30 days for first offense; and a fine of $100 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 30 days to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits on the fines and imprisonment permitted and included the provision that the subsequent offense must be committed within two years.

The 1936 act raised the upper limits for a first offense to those now provided in this section.

The penalties for other offenses provided by this section were originally a fine of from $5 to $25 for a first offense; a fine of from $25 to $100 for a second offense; and a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 30 days to one year for subsequent offenses.

The 1931 act removed the lower limits on the fines and imprisonments and changed the upper limits on third and subsequent offenses as now provided in this section. The 1931 act also included the provisions that subsequent offenses must be committed within one year of the first offense.

The act of Nov. 25, 1942, cited to text, amended subsec. (d) of section by deleting provisions making first offense punishable with $25 fine, second offense within one year punishable with $100 fine, and third offense within one year punishable with $300 fine and/or imprisonment not more than ninety days or both.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE

Where arresting officer testified that he had paced defendant for about two blocks at a speed varying from thirty-three to thirty-eight miles per hour, it cannot be said that the trial judge was wrong in making a finding of guilt. Seidenberg v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 607).

FINE

Where fine was imposed for speeding and was within the statutory limitation, appellate court has no right to disturb it. Seidenberg v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 607).

JURY TRIAL

One charged with driving an automobile recklessly, and so as to endanger property and individuals, has a right to a jury trial. District of Columbia v. Colts (282 U. S. 63, 75 L. Ed. 177, 51 Sup. Ct. 52, affg. 59 App. D. C. 224, 38 Fed. (2d) 535).

REGULATIONS OF DIRECTOR OF TRAFFIC

Provisions of this act not in conflict with regulations of director of traffic, as to speed of vehicles on certain bridges and highways. District of Columbia v. Bailey, (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 367).

Section 40–603 authorized regulation excluding commercial vehicles equipped with solid tires on certain streets, in view of paragraph (a) of this section and act Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 443, § 14, 43 Stat. 1123, 1125. Smallwood v. District of Columbia, 1927 (17 F. 2d 210, 57 App. D. C. 58).

Regulation, excluding commercial vehicles equipped with solid tires from certain streets, was reasonable. Smallwood v. District of Columbia, 1927 (17 F. 2d 210, 57 App. D. C. 58).

§ 40–606 [6: 246a]. Negligent homicide.

Any person who, by the operation of any vehicle at an immoderate rate of speed or in a careless, reckless, or negligent manner, but not wilfully or wantonly, shall cause the death of another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or both.

It shall be the duty of the coroner of the District of Columbia, upon any inquisition taken before him which results in the jury finding that negligent homicide, as defined herein, has been committed on the deceased, to require such witnesses as he thinks proper to give recognizance to appear and testify, or in default thereof to be committed to jail for appearance, in either the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or the police court of the District of Columbia, and the coroner shall return to either said court the said inquisition, testimony, and recognizance or order by him taken or given. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 802 (a), as added June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 385, ch. 266.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section and the next two succeeding sections (§§ 40–607, 40–608) are not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443), and therefore are not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

CROSS REFERENCE

Though this section was enacted after the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, it would seem that such act is inapplicable by its express provision, § 25–127.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONCURRING NEGLIGENCE

If defendant drove bus at an immoderate rate of speed and such act was proximate or direct cause of death of deceased who was riding in another automobile with which the bus collided, defendant was not relieved from guilt of negligent homicide, because negligence of the driver of the automobile concurred in producing the result though acts of other drivers were to be considered so far as they shed light on question of defendant's negligence, but if negligence of other driver was sole cause of decedent's death, defendant was entitled to an acquittal. Prezzi v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 196).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

This section specifies with sufficient certainty the conduct which it is intended to proscribe and punish and hence comes within the requirements of constitutionality. U. S. v. Henderson, 1941 (121 F. 2d 75, 73 App. D. C. 369).

CRIME, ELEMENTS OF

In prosecution for negligent homicide based on death caused by motortruck, the "corpus delicti" consisted of the death of a human being by the instrumentality of a motortruck operated at an immoderate rate of speed or in a careless, reckless or negligent manner but not willfully or wantonly. Ercoli v. U. S., 1942 (131 F. 2d 354, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 360).

EVIDENCE

In prosecution for negligent homicide based on death caused by motortruck, evidence that the motortruck under defendant's control was of tremendous size and weight, that it was being driven on busy city street at speed that made it impossible to stop when defendant first saw pedestrian approximately 25 to 30 feet away, and that automobile in traffic lane to defendant's right obstructed his view of pedestrian until it was too late to stop truck, tended to prove the "corpus delicti", so that defendant's extrajudicial admissions were properly received in evidence. Ercoli v. U. S., 1942 (131 F. 2d 354, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 360).

INSTRUCTIONS

Refusal of defendant's instructions precluding conviction of negligent homicide unless death of deceased was the proximate result of operation of the bus by defendant was not error in view of instruction by the court on same subject matter though nowhere therein did the court use the expression "proximate cause." Prezzi v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 196).

In prosecution for negligent homicide by driver of bus which collided with automobile in which decedent was riding instructions not to ignore other drivers' action because whether defendant was driving at an immoderate rate of speed depended upon all other circumstances, and that if defendant was driving at such speed, then he was one of the causes of the accident, and that if driver of other automobile also caused the accident would make no difference but that defendant was not responsible for acts of the other drivers, were sufficient. Prezzi v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 196).

JUDICIAL COMMENT

In prosecution for negligent homicide by driving a bus at an immoderate rate of speed and colliding with an automobile in which decedent was riding, trial court's comment that in its opinion, and as a matter of common sense, if immoderate speed was established, such speed caused the death, which contradicted or at least materially weakened, previous instruction respecting immoderate speed, and which had a strong tendency to eliminate from the jury, the question whether the acts of the driver of the other automobile were the sole cause of the collision, was reversible error. Prezzi v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 196).

§ 40–607 [6: 246b]. Negligent homicide included in manslaughter where death due to operation of vehicle.

The crime of negligent homicide defined in section 40–606 shall be deemed to be included within every crime of manslaughter charged to have been committed in the operation of any vehicle, and in any case where a defendant is charged with manslaughter committed in the operation of any vehicle, if the jury shall find the defendant not guilty of the crime of manslaughter such jury may, in its discretion, render a verdict of guilty of negligent homicide. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 802 (b), as added June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 385, ch. 266.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE

In prosecution for injuring a person with a motor vehicle and failing to stop and give assistance and report to police, excluding evidence of accused's reputation for tenderness and mercy was not shown to be error where record did not disclose the evidence concerning flight. Morris v. District of Columbia, 1942 (124 F. 2d 284, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 82).

In prosecution for injuring a person with a motor vehicle and failing to stop and give assistance and report to police, where accused asked for a subpoena duces tecum requiring production of statements which record implied were obtained by counsel for the person injured, but where there was nothing in the record to show that, at the trial, a foundation was or could have been laid for admitting the statements in evidence, either to impeach their authors or for any other purpose, there was no basis in the record for an inference that the error, if any, in refusing the subpoena was prejudicial. Morris v. District of Columbia, 1942 (124 F. 2d 284, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 82).

In prosecution for injuring a person with a motor vehicle and failing to stop and give assistance and report to police, excluding evidence that accused carried $100,000 of liability insurance was not prejudicial error where record did not show what testimony concerning flight there may or may not have been. Morris v. District of Columbia, 1942 (124 F. 2d 284, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 82).

§ 40–608 [6: 246c]. Immoderate speed not dependent on legal rate of speed.

In any prosecution under sections 40–606 or 40–607, whether the defendant was driving at an immoderate rate of speed shall not depend upon the rate of speed fixed by law for operating such vehicle. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 802 (c), as added June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 385, ch. 266.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE

This section providing that in any prosecution for negligent homicide whether defendant was driving at an immoderate rate of speed shall not depend upon rate fixed by law for operating the vehicle manifests intent that speed shall be determined as a fact from all surrounding circumstances and this section does not expressly prohibit evidence of speed regulations which are admissible as one of the circumstances for the jury, in determining the question of immoderate speed. Prezzi v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 196).

§ 40–609 [6: 247]. Fleeing from scene of accident—Driving under the influence of liquor or drugs.

(a) Any person operating a vehicle, who shall injure any person therewith, or who shall do substantial damage to property therewith and fail to stop and give assistance, together with his name, place of residence, including street and number, and the name and address of the owner of the vehicle so operated, to the person so injured, or to the owner of such property so damaged, or to the operator of such other vehicle, or to any bystander who shall request such information on behalf of the injured person, or, if such owner or operator is not present, then he shall report the information above required to a police station or to any police officer within the District immediately. In all cases of accidents resulting in injury to any person, the operator of the vehicle causing such injury shall also report the same to any police station or police officer within the District immediately.

Any operator whose vehicle causes personal injury to an individual and who fails to conform to the above requirements shall, upon conviction of the first offense, be fined not more than $500, or shall be imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and upon the conviction of his second or subsequent offense, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Any operator whose vehicle causes substantial damage to any other vehicle or property and fails to conform to the above requirements, shall, upon conviction of the first offense, be fined not more than $100, or be imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both; and for the second or any subsequent offense, be fined not more than $300, or be imprisoned not more than ninety days, or both.

(b) No individual shall, while under the influence of any intoxicating liquor or narcotic drug, operate any vehicle in the District. Any individual violating any provision of this subdivision shall upon conviction for the first offense be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and upon conviction for the second or any subsequent offense be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. Upon conviction of a violation of any provision of this paragraph involving the operator of a motor vehicle the clerk of the court shall certify forthwith such conviction to the designated agent of the commissioners who shall thereupon revoke the operator's permit of such individual.

(c) Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued thereunder which is repealed or amended by this Act, and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal or amendment, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this Act had not been enacted. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1124, ch. 443, § 10; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1427, ch. 317, § 4; Dec. 15, 1944, 58 Stat. 805, ch. 588.)

Compiler's Notes

This section as amended by act of 1931 became effective July 1, 1931.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in §§ 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to §§ 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

Amendment

Prior to amendment in 1931 subsection (a) of this section provided for the giving of the information upon striking "any individual or any vehicle" or where the vehicle has been struck by another vehicle and provided only for the giving of information concerning the driver including the registration and operators permit numbers. The 1931 act also added all that part of the first paragraph of subsection (a) beginning with "if such owner or operator is not present."

The penalties provided for in subsection (a) were originally, for personal injury, a fine of $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 60 days to 6 months for a first offense, and a fine of $500 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 6 months to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits of fines and imprisonment. The penalties for damage to a vehicle prior to the 1931 amendment were a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment of not more than six months for a first offense and a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment of not more than one year for a subsequent offense.

The penalties provided for in subsection (b) were originally a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 60 days to 6 months for a first offense, and a fine of $200 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 6 months to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits of fines and imprisonment.

The act of 1931 also added the present subsection (c) and included former paragraph (c) as the last sentence in present paragraph (b).

The act of Dec. 15, 1944, cited to text, amended section generally by omitting word "motor" preceding "vehicle" wherever appearing in subsec. (a), by inserting "involving the operator of a motor vehicle" following "of this paragraph" in subsec. (b), and reenacting subsec. (c).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Agreement Not To Prosecute

The entry of a nolle prosequi, without more, to an information charging operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated, would not warrant a holding that there was an implied agreement by assistant corporation counsel to withdraw information in consideration of a plea of guilty to less serious charge in another information of operating a motor vehicle on wrong side of street. District of Columbia v. Buckley, 1942 (128 F. 2d 17, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 301, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 57, 317 U. S. 658, 87 L. Ed. 529).

An agreement between assistant corporation counsel and a defendant for withdrawal of an information, to which a nolle prosequi was entered, charging operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated, in consideration of a plea of guilty to less serious charge in another information of operating a motor vehicle on wrong side of street, would not be binding. District of Columbia v. Buckley, 1942 (128 F. 2d 17, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 301, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 57, 317 U. S. 658, 87 L. Ed. 529).

Constitutionality

Subsection (a) of this section making it an offense for a motorist to leave the scene of an accident, without making his identity known, where he has caused substantial damage to property, is not invalid on ground that it is indefinite because it provides no guide to a motorist for determination of what constitutes substantial damage. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 854).

Evidence

In prosecution for driving without permit and leaving scene of collision, tried by court, erroneous admission of officer's testimony that persons who witnessed collision identified accused, in his presence, as driver of automobile involved in collision, was not cured by court's recognition of error and statement that such testimony was disregarded, where competent evidence of accused's guilt was far from conclusive. Penwell v. District of Columbia, (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 891).

Testimony as to manner in which defendant's automobile was driven, identification of defendant as driver, and condition of defendant a short time thereafter, as reported by officers, was sufficient evidence, independent of defendant's confession, to support conviction of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Price v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 142).

In prosecution for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, proof that defendant, while in such condition, collided with another vehicle and left the scene of the collision without stopping, although disclosing two other offenses, was admissible as proof of the offense charged and as merely incidentally proving other offenses. Price v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 142).

It was error to exclude testimony of police officers who observed defendant that, in their opinion, defendant was under influence of intoxicating liquor, on ground that an expert may not testify to his conclusion regarding facts from which the jury are capable of drawing their own conclusions. Even though one is not an expert he may give his opinion based on personal observation as to whether a person is intoxicated. Woolard v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 640).

FAILURE TO REPORT ACCIDENT

Admitted failure of defendant to report automobile accident to police station or officer justified conviction, and failure of prosecution to establish other charge that defendant failed to stop, give name and residence would not invalidate verdict or sentence. Carpenter v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 251).

Laboratory records of urinalysis were properly admitted in evidence where such records were kept in conformity with the formal tests prescribed by 28 U. S. C., § 695. Novak v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 88, reversed, 1947, 160 F. 2d 588, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 95).

In prosecution for drunken driving, admission of records of analysis of specimen of urine taken from defendant who had been legally arrested and was being detained was not an infringement of defendant's rights under U. S. C. Const. Amend. 4 prohibiting unreasonable searches and seizures. Novak v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 88, reversed, 1947, 160 F. 2d 588, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 95).

The taking of specimen of urine from defendant who had been arrested and was being detained for drunken driving and the use in evidence of the analysis of the urine was not violative of defendant's rights under U. S. C. Const. Amend. 5 where specimen was given voluntarily, notwithstanding that police officer who requested specimen was in uniform and did not state that defendant had a right to refuse to give the sample, but did state that "if sample were right it would be to the defendant's benefit." Novak v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 88, reversed, 1947, 160 F. 2d 588, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 95).

FAILURE TO STOP AND GIVE ASSISTANCE

Fact that defendant stopped and parked her automobile at the nearest available point, when informed of the accident, at a distance not exceeding 150 feet from the point where the collision occurred and furnished all the information, is all that the statute requires. Oden v. District of Columbia (65 App. D. C. 50, 79 Fed. (2d) 175).

While defendant testified that he intended to return and give the assistance and information required, the jury was at liberty to disbelieve him under the circumstances, and to conclude from his conduct, as testified to by the District's witnesses, that he did not so intend. Seher v. District of Columbia (68 App. D. C. 207, 95 Fed. (2d) 118).

FORMER JEOPARDY

In prosecution for driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, police judge erroneously sustained defendant's plea of "autrefois convict" alleging that offense of driving on wrong side of street, in respect of which defendant had pleaded guilty, and offense of driving while intoxicated were the outgrowth of one identical act, since the same evidence would not sustain the two charges. District of Columbia v. Buckley, 1942 (128 F. 2d 17, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 301, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 57, 317 U. S. 658, 87 L. Ed. 529).

INSTRUCTIONS

Where there was sufficient evidence independent of defendant's statement to authorize conviction of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated and trial court charged on presumption of innocence, burden of proof and reasonable doubt, requested charge that there could be no conviction upon an uncorroborated confession without first proving the corpus delicti was properly refused. Price v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 142).

PURPOSE

Subsection (a) of this section making it an offense for a motorist to leave the scene of an accident, without making his identity known, where he has caused substantial damage to property, was intended to discourage and punish "hit and run" drivers. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 854).

QUESTIONS FOR JURY

In prosecution for drunken driving, the weight to be given to results of analysis of specimen of defendant's urine and the medical testimony on the meaning thereof was for the jury. Novak v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 88, reversed, 1947, 160 F. 2d 588, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 95).

SPECIMEN ANALYSIS, PROOF

In prosecution for driving automobile while intoxicated, the government must prove that urine specimen taken from defendant and the specimen analyzed by chemists and reported on in court were the same and were in substantially the same condition when tested as when taken. Novak v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 88, reversed, 1947, 160 F. 2d 588, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 95).

Where witness for prosecution testified that he made an analysis of defendant's urine, the right of the defendant was properly protected by withdrawing from the jury all consideration of the urine analysis. The withdrawal of such evidence had the effect of showing the jury that they were to make no inference regarding the test. Woolard v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 640).

SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGE

Motorist who ran into a parked vehicle, mashing in its rear bumper, damaging trunk and skirt, knocking out speedometer, and driving vehicle up and over sidewalk into lamp post caused "substantial damage" within subsection (a) of this section. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 854).

In prosecution of motorist for leaving scene of accident, without making his identity known, after causing "substantial damage" to property, motorist was not entitled to have the prosecution dismissed because of government's failure to prove cost of repairing damage, where there was evidence that motorist caused substantial damage. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 854).

§ 40–610 [6: 248]. Smoke screens.

(a) No individual shall knowingly—

(1) Have in his possession any device designed to cause the emission from a motor vehicle of a dense mass of smoke commonly called a smoke screen;

(2) Use or permit the use of any such device in the operation of any motor vehicle; or

(3) Have in his possession or control any motor vehicle equipped with any such device or specially fitted for the attachment thereto of any such device.

(b) Any individual violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1124, ch. 443, § 11.)

§ 40–611 [6: 249]. Reporting by garage keeper of cars damaged in accidents.

The individual in charge of any garage or repair shop to which is brought any motor vehicle which shows evidence of having been involved in an accident or struck by bullets shall report to a police station within 24 hours after such motor vehicle is received, giving the make of the motor vehicle, the engine number, the registry number, and the name and address of the owner or operator of such motor vehicle. Any such individual failing so to report shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100 for each offense. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1125, ch. 443, § 12.)

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to interfere with the exclusive charge and control prior to March 3, 1925, committed to the Director of the National Park Service over the park system of the District, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to make and enforce all regulations for the control of vehicles and traffic, and limiting the speed thereof on roads, highways, and bridges within the public grounds in the District, under his control, subject to the penalties prescribed in this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 16 (b); July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 835, ch. 760, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1926 amended this section by striking out the words "Chief of Engineers" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital."

By Executive Order 6166, June 10, 1933, the office was changed to National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations.

Act of March 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1, abolished National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations and transferred its powers and duties to the National Park Service.

(a) The provisions of the act entitled "An Act regulating the speed of automobiles in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1906 (34 Stat. 621, ch. 3615), and, in so far as they relate to the regulation of vehicles or vehicle traffic in the District, the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to make police regulations for the government of said District," approved January 26, 1887 (24 Stat. 369, ch. 49) and of the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution to regulate licenses to proprietors of theaters in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved February 26, 1892 (27 Stat. 394, Res. 4, 7) and of the act entitled "An act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1064, ch. 160), are repealed. The provisions of section 20 of the Act entitled "An Act to prevent the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1129, ch. 165), shall not apply to any person operating any motor vehicle in the District.

COMPILER'S NOTES

Subsections (a) and (b) were respectively subsections (a) and (c) of the act as enacted. The act of 1887 referred to is set forth in §§ 1–224 and 1–225. Subsection (b) of § 16 of the act of 1925 is § 40–613. The act of 1917 referred to has been repealed.

"This chapter" referred to in subsection (b) this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

Section 20 of the act entitled "An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes" was repealed by act of Jan. 24, 1934, 48 Stat. 334, ch. 4, § 28.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Act of March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 17, provided as follows:

"SEC. 17. (a) The following provisions of this act shall take effect sixty days after its enactment: Sections 7 (§ 40–301) and 8 (§ 40–303) and subdivision (a) of section 16 (§ 40–614).

"(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a) of this section and in subdivision (b) of section 6 (§ 40–603), the provisions of this act shall take effect upon its enactment."

§ 40–615 [6: 253]. Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 18.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–603, 40–605, 40–609 to 40–615, and as amendments to sections 11–601, 11–616, 11–617, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

§ 40–616. Parking meters.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to secure and to install experimentally, at no expense to the said District, mechanical parking meters or devices on the streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces in the District of Columbia under the jurisdiction and control of said commissioners, such installations to be limited to a linear footage not to exceed the total of the perimeters of four normally sized squares in such District; and said commissioners are authorized and empowered to make and enforce rules and regulations for the control of the parking of vehicles on such streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces, and as an aid to such regulation and control of the parking of vehicles the commissioners may prescribe fees for the privilege of parking vehicles where said meters or devices are installed.

The Commissioners are further authorized and empowered to pay the purchase-price and cost of installation of the said meters or devices from the fees collected, which are hereby appropriated for such purpose, for the fiscal years 1938 and 1939, and thereafter such meters or devices shall become the property of said District, and all fees collected shall be paid to the collector of taxes for deposit in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the revenues of said District. (April 4, 1938, 52 Stat. 192, ch. 62, § 11.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443) and therefore is not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

§ 40–617 [6: 254]. Loitering by public cabs.

The loitering of public cabs and hacks or vehicles of all descriptions around or in front of the hotels, theaters, or public buildings in the District of Columbia, either by stopping, except to take on or discharge a passenger, or unnecessarily slow driving, is hereby prohibited, and any driver of any such cab or hack who wilfully causes the same to loiter either by stopping or slow driving as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished in the police court of the District of Columbia by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $40 for such offense. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make any regulations that may be necessary in furtherance of the purpose of this section, and are hereby given authority to revoke the license of the driver of any public hack or cab who is convicted of a violation of this section. (July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 104, ch. 7, § 12.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443) and is therefore not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POLICE REGULATIONS

This section supersedes police regulation, art. 4, § 8, adopted April 1918. Willis v. District of Columbia (54 App. D. C. 191, 295 Fed. 1012).

PUBLIC STREET

As the space upon which the cab was standing at the time of the arrest of its driver is stipulated to have been the private property of the Washington Terminal Company, by whose authority and permission he was there, it follows that he was not then upon any public street or avenue, and consequently his presence there did not fall within the purview of an act directed against the improper use of public streets and avenues. Reamy v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 359, 273 Fed. 323).

TAXICABS AT HOTELS

This section does not apply to a taxicab stationed near a hotel which was for the exclusive use of the hotel and its guests, as the cab was under jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission and not of the District Commissioners. Bell v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 351, 273 Fed. 315); Parker v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 356, 273 Fed. 320).

§ 40–701. Definitions.

"Person" shall include one or more individuals, firms or unincorporated associations, or corporations.

"Director" shall mean the director of vehicles and traffic of the District of Columbia, including assistants or agents duly designated by the commissioners.

"Recorder" shall mean the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, including assistants or agents duly designated by the recorder.

"Certificate" shall mean a certificate of title for a motor vehicle or trailer issued by the director.

"Owner" shall mean the person to whom such certificate is issued by the director.

"Lien" shall mean any right or interest in or to, or lien or encumbrance upon any motor vehicle or trailer, or the equipment or accessories affixed or sold to be affixed thereto, in favor of a person other than the owner, except (1) a sale of such motor vehicle or trailer accompanied by delivery of possession and on execution of the assignment on the back of the certificate covering it, or (2) any possessory lien now or hereafter provided by law or any lien acquired in any judicial proceeding.

"Instrument" shall mean any written instrument signed and acknowledged by an owner creating such lien.

"Lien information" shall mean the amount, kind, date of lien, name and address of holder, and recorder's record number, if any. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 736, ch. 527, § 1.)

§ 40–702. Lien to appear on certificate of title—Effect of other liens.

During the time a certificate is outstanding for any motor vehicle or trailer, no lien against such motor vehicle or trailer or any equipment or accessories affixed or sold to be affixed thereto shall be valid except as between the parties and as to other persons having actual notice, unless and until entered on such certificate as hereinafter set forth: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to a lien or liens in existence on January 1, 1940, against a motor vehicle or trailer for which a certificate is outstanding at the effective date of this chapter, or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto. The provisions of §§ 42–101 to 42–103, of the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia shall not apply to liens recorded as herein provided and a lien shall have no greater validity or effect during the time a certificate is outstanding for the motor vehicle or trailer covered thereby by reason of the fact that the lien has been filed in accordance with said sections or, in case of a conditional sales contract, that the purchase price of the property does not exceed $100. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 736, ch. 527, § 2.)

§ 40–703. Entry of lien—Priority.

In the absence of agreement of all parties affected and in the absence of circumstances estopping a lienholder from insisting upon such rights, lien shall be entered on the certificate by the recorder and shall have priority among themselves in the following order:

(a) If the motor vehicle or trailer has been previously titled or registered in this or some other jurisdiction, unsatisfied liens shown by the previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership shall be entered in the order in which they appear on such previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership.

(b) Liens for which instruments are presented with the application for the certificate.

(c) Liens, where the instruments are presented for recording, together with the certificate, irrespective of the fact that one or more instruments not entered on the certificate may have been previously presented for recording without such certificate.

(d) As between two or more instruments presented for recording without the certificate, the one first presented for recording shall have priority. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 3.)

§ 40–704. Entry of lien—Form and requirements of instrument creating lien—When lien not entered.

An instrument shall be in writing; shall show the name and address of the holder, the trade name and engine number of the motor vehicle or the trade name and serial number, if any, of the trailer; shall be signed by the parties and acknowledged by the owner in the manner provided by law for deeds of real estate. A lien shall not be entered upon a certificate unless (1) the motor vehicle or trailer has been previously titled or registered in this or some other jurisdiction and the lien is shown upon such previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership; or (2) such an instrument is presented for recording pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; or (3) the lien is shown on the application for a certificate, and was created prior to January 1, 1941, or was created while the motor vehicle or trailer was titled or registered in some other jurisdiction. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 4.)

§ 40–705. Liens to be kept by recorder in director's office.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall assign to the recorder space in the office of the director, and the recorder shall furnish and maintain the necessary furniture, equipment, cards hereinafter mentioned, and other supplies and the required personnel for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 5.)

§ 40–706. Liens shown by application for certificate—Entry of lien—Collection of fees—Absence of liens to be shown—Certificate to holder of first lien.

Applications for certificates, in addition to all other matters which may be required by law, shall show under oath whether or not there are any liens against the motor vehicle or trailer or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto and if so, the lien information in the order of its priority, and shall be accompanied by instruments or any other papers necessary to entitle liens to be entered on the certificate. Upon receipt by the recorder from the director of an application for a certificate and accompanying documents, if any, or on the application for a duplicate, the recorder shall compare the statements in the application as to liens with his records and the documents and instruments accompanying the application and if such statements are incorrect or incomplete or if any of the liens shown by the application are not entitled to be entered on the certificate in the same order as they appear on the application the recorder shall return all of said papers to the director and advise him of the reasons therefor. If the statements as to liens are full, true, and complete and all liens shown by the application are entitled to be entered on the certificate in the same order as they appear on the application, the recorder shall stamp on the application the words, "Statements as to liens in accordance with records," a facsimile of his signature, and the date, shall accept all instruments accompanying the application for recording and shall stamp his record number opposite the statement of each lien on the application for certificate. The recorder shall retain the instruments for his permanent file and collect the fees and charges thereon and return the application and all other papers to the director, who shall thereupon deliver same to a representative of the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, stationed in the office of the director. Said representative shall then collect from the applicant or his representative all fees and charges in connection with the issuance of the certificate and shall return said application and papers to the director. The director shall thereupon issue the certificate and where liens are shown on such an application shall stamp upon each of two cards, the size of which shall be fixed by the director, the information stamped by the director on the face of such certificate and shall deliver such certificate, its application, cards, if any, and the identification-tag application to the recorder. If the application for title shows no liens, the recorder shall stamp on the certificate and on the reverse side of that portion of the application for identification tags known as "Collector's Coupon" the words "No Liens Shown By Records" and the date. If the application shows liens, the recorder shall stamp aforesaid "Collector's Coupon" with the words "Lien Recorded" and shall enter the lien information on certificate and on each of the said cards. The aforesaid stamping and entering shall be made on the face of the certificate in the space provided for the use of the recorder. The recorder shall then deliver both applications and the papers attached and the certificate to the director, who shall retain the application and the papers attached and shall deliver or mail the certificate to the record holder of the first lien shown thereon or his representative; or if there are no liens, then to the owner or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 6.)

§ 40–707. Entry of lien on previously issued certificate.

When it is desired to have a lien entered on a certificate theretofore issued, the instrument and the certificate shall be presented to the recorder in the office of the director and upon the payment of the necessary fees to the representative of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia in the office of the director the recorder shall accept the instruments for recording and unless he has cards covering said motor vehicle or trailer the director shall stamp cards in the manner set forth in section 40–706. The recorder shall enter the lien information on the certificate in the space hereinbefore mentioned and on each of said cards and shall deliver or mail the certificate to the record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown thereon or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 738, ch. 527, § 7.)

§ 40–708. Assignment of lien—Form and requirement of assignment—Entry and recording of assignment—Certificate to holder of first lien.

The rights of the holder of an unsatisfied lien shown on a certificate may be assigned by an assignment in writing, which shall show the name and address of the assignee, the trade name and engine number of the motor vehicle, or the trade name and serial number, if any, of the trailer, and the recorder's record number of the instrument, or, if none, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien shall be signed by the holder of the lien and acknowledged by him in the manner provided by law for deeds of real estate. Upon presentation of an assignment and a certificate and the payment of the prescribed fee to the representative of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia in the office of the director, the recorder shall enter upon the face of the certificate and upon each of the cards hereinbefore described the recorder's record number of the lien which is being assigned, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, the date of the assignment and the words, "Assigned to," and the name and address of the assignee, and the date. The assignment shall be attached to the instrument if the instrument has been filed with the recorder, and, if not, the assignment shall be given a recorder's record number and filed by the recorder and such number shall be entered on the certificate and on each of the cards opposite the entry of the information relative to the assignment. The certificate shall be delivered to the record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown thereon, or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 738, ch. 527, § 8.)

§ 40–709. Entry of lien or assignment where certificate is not available—Recorder to obtain certificate.

Whenever it is desired to enter a lien or an assignment upon a certificate and such certificate is not available, upon delivery to the recorder of the instrument or assignment the recorder shall demand that the person possessing the certificate surrender it for the purpose of entering thereon the lien or the assignment and upon surrender of the certificate the recorder shall perform the same acts as in cases where the certificate was presented with the instrument. This section shall not be deemed to affect the priority given under section 40–703 (c) to a lien where the instrument is presented together with the certificate. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 9.)

§ 40–710. Possession of certificate—Satisfaction of liens.

The record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown upon the certificate shall be entitled to the possession of the certificate and upon satisfaction of his lien he shall, within seventy-two hours, place upon the face of the certificate the recorder's record number of the lien, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, and in either case the word "satisfied," or its equivalent, and his signature, swear to it before a notary public, and forward or deliver the certificate to the holder of the lien next in priority, or, if none, to the owner or to the person designated in writing by the owner.

Upon the satisfaction of any lien other than the first unsatisfied lien shown on the certificate, the record holder of the lien so satisfied shall, within seventy-two hours, make similar entries upon the face of the certificate, and it shall be the duty of the person in possession of the certificate, upon demand, to permit such holder to make said entries. Any person in possession of a certificate shall, upon demand of the recorder, surrender it to the recorder within seventy-two hours for the purpose of entering the lien or assignment thereon. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 10.)

The recorder, upon receipt of a certificate whereon a lien is marked "Satisfied" as set forth in § 40–710, shall enter on the face of the certificate and on each of the cards described in § 40–706, and on the instrument, if any, filed in the recorder's office as hereinafter provided, his said record number, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, and in either case the word "released," a facsimile of his signature and the date. Where for any reason a lien-holder upon satisfaction of his lien has failed to mark the certificate as herein provided and the lien-holder cannot be located, or where the certificate after being so marked has been lost or destroyed and a duplicate certificate issued, the recorder upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to him that the lien has been satisfied shall release it upon the certificate or duplicate certificate, the aforesaid cards and instrument, if any, as above set forth. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 11.)

The fee for recording liens or assignments of liens upon a certificate shall be the sum of $1 for each lien or assignment of lien on each motor vehicle or trailer contained in the instrument, which fee shall include the charge for recording the release of such lien. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 12; Dec. 15, 1945, 59 Stat. 610, ch. 578; June 19, 1948, 62 Stat. 493, ch. 522, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

Act June 19, 1948, increased the recording fee of liens and assignments from 50 cents to $1 on "each motor vehicle or trailer" rather than each "automobile." The words "there shall be no fee for releasing" were deleted.

Act Dec. 15, 1945, cited to text, amended section by inserting "or assignment or release of lien" following "for each lien" and by deleting second sentence which read "There shall be no fee for releasing."

§ 40–712a. Fee for releasing liens.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 40–712, there shall be a fee of 50 cents for recording the release of a lien which is recorded under the provisions of this chapter, prior to June 19, 1948, and no assignment of which is recorded under the provisions of this chapter after June 19, 1948. (June 19, 1948, 62 Stat. 493, ch. 522, § 2.)

§ 40–713. Recording liens, place and method.

The recorder shall maintain, in the space assigned to him in the office of the director, files wherein he shall file one set of the cards hereinbefore described alphabetically under the name of owner and the other under the trade name and engine number if it covers a motor vehicle, or the trade name and serial number, if any, if it covers a trailer. The recorder shall file the instruments at his main office. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 13.)

§ 40–714. False statements as to liens, violations of law, penalties.

Any person intentionally making a false statement with respect to liens in an application for a certificate, or wilfully violating any of the provisions of this chapter, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants, in the name of the District of Columbia. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 14.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES

Section 706 of this title and this section relating to certificates of title apply to duplicate as well as original certificates. Shelton v. U. S. (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 241).

NUMBER OF OFFENSES

One making two false statements, one violating the general perjury statute, § 22–2501, and the other violating this section, commits two offenses, though both statements are under one oath. Shelton v. U. S. (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 241).

PROSECUTION BY CORPORATION COUNSEL

The making of false statement of lien under oath in application for certificate or duplicate certificate of title for motor vehicle in the District of Columbia must be prosecuted by corporation counsel in the name of the District of Columbia, under this section, rather than by the United States attorney in the name of the United States under the general perjury statute, § 22–2501. Shelton v. U. S. (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 241).

REVERSAL

Where counts charging perjury were merged and it could not be determined upon which false statement in application for certificate of title the jury rested its general verdict, but verdict if upon statement as to liens would not support sentence, judgment of conviction was subject to reversal. Shelton v. U. S. (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 241).

§ 40–715. Appropriation.

Appropriation is hereby authorized to be made to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to include in their annual estimates provision for all the expenses of the office of the director and recorder incident to such purposes, and for personnel subject to the limitations of the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673). (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 740, ch. 527, § 15.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 16 of the act approved July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 740, ch. 528, provided as follows: "The provisions of this act shall become effective January 1, 1941. Nothing herein contained shall affect existing liens on motor vehicles and trailers, or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto recorded prior to the effective date of this act."

§ 40–802. Findings and declaration of necessity.

It is hereby declared that the free circulation of traffic of all kinds through the highways of the District is necessary to the health, safety, and general welfare of the public, whether residing in said District, or traveling to, through, or from said District in the course of lawful pursuits; that in recent years the greatly increased use by the public of motor vehicles of all kinds has caused serious traffic congestion on the highways of the District; that the parking of motor vehicles on the highways of the District has contributed to this congestion to such an extent as to interfere seriously with the primary use of such highways for the movement of traffic; that such parking prevents the free circulation of traffic in, through, and from said District impedes rapid and effective fighting of fires and the disposition of police forces in the District, threatens irreparable loss in valuations of property in the District, which can no longer be readily reached by vehicular traffic, and endangers the health, safety, and welfare of the general public; that this parking nuisance can be reduced by providing sufficient off-street parking facilities conveniently located in the several residential, commercial, industrial, and governmental areas of the District; that adequate off-street parking facilities have not been provided by private enterprise; that it may be necessary to supplement private parking spaces by off-street parking facilities provided by public undertaking; and that the enactment of this chapter, as well as the use of land for the purposes set forth in this chapter, is hereby declared to be a public necessity. That, when used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise—

The term "District" means the District of Columbia.

The term "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

The term "agency" means the Motor Vehicle Parking Agency created in section 40–805.

The term "parking facilities" means one or more public off-street parking areas for motor vehicles, including necessary structures. (Feb. 16, 1942, 56 Stat. 91, ch. 76, § 2.)

SAVING CLAUSE

See note under § 40–801.

§ 40–804. Commissioners' powers — Requisition of property—Construction and maintenance—Leasing to private interests—Disposal of property—Establishment of rates—Miscellaneous rules and regulations—Parking meters.

The Commissioners, within the limits of appropriations by Congress therefor, are authorized to exercise all powers necessary and convenient to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the said purposes being hereby declared to be the acquisition, creation, and operation, in any manner hereinafter provided, under public regulation, of public off-street parking facilities in the District as a necessary incident to insuring in the public interest the free circulation of traffic in and through said District. Such powers shall include, but shall not be limited to, the powers hereinafter enumerated:

(a) The power to acquire any property, real or personal, or any interest therein, by purchase, lease, gift, bequest, devise, or grant, or by condemnation under the provisions of sections 16–601, 16–602, 16–604, 16–606 to 16–611 in any area of the District as to which the agency shall have made a determination that public parking facilities are necessary or expedient. Before acquiring any area for parking facilities the Commissioners shall request the National Capital Park and Planning Commission for its recommendations and it shall be the duty of said Commission to report thereon within thirty days of such request.

(b) The power to undertake, by contract or otherwise, the clearance and improvement of any such property as well as the construction, establishment, reconstruction, alteration, repair, maintenance, and operation thereon of parking facilities; to contract, by lease or otherwise, with competitive bidding, with any individual, firm, association, or corporation, private or public, for the operation of any parking facilities for such period, not exceeding five years, as the Commissioners shall determine, and to terminate, without prior notice, any contract in the event of any failure or omission of any party thereto to observe or enforce the rules or schedules of rates made under authority of paragraph (d) of this section. The words "such property" in this paragraph shall include, in addition to property acquired under this chapter, any other property, heretofore or hereafter acquired by the District, until needed for the purpose for which it was acquired, or if no longer needed for the purpose for which it was acquired, or upon which parking facilities may be established without impairing its use for the purpose for which it was acquired: Provided, That in each case the agency shall have made a determination that parking facilities thereon are necessary or expedient. Before establishing any parking facilities upon the property not acquired under authority of this chapter, the Commissioners shall request the National Capital Park and Planning Commission for its recommendations and it shall be the duty of said Commission to report thereon within thirty days of such request.

(c) The power to sell, exchange, transfer, or assign any property, real or personal, or any interest therein, acquired under authority of this chapter, whether or not improved: Provided, That such action shall be in accordance with the general law covering the disposal of such property by the District of Columbia: Provided further, That the agency shall have first determined such property to be no longer necessary for the purposes of this chapter.

(e) The power to secure and install mechanical parking meters or parking devices on the streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces in the District under the jurisdiction and control of the said Commissioners, in addition to those mechanical parking meters and devices installed pursuant to the authority conferred on the said Commissioners by section 40–616, such meters or devices to be located at such points as the Commissioners may determine, and the said Commissioners are authorized and empowered to make and enforce rules and regulations for the control of parking of vehicles on such streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces, and as an aid to such regulation and control of the parking of vehicles the Commissioners may prescribe fees for the parking of vehicles where meters or devices are installed.

(f) The power to lease on competitive bids for terms not exceeding fifty years, any property acquired pursuant to this chapter, or any other property heretofore or hereafter acquired by the District if no longer needed for the purpose for which it was acquired, and to stipulate in any such lease that the lessee shall erect at his or its expense a structure or structures on the land leased, which structure or structures and property shall be used, maintained, and operated for the purposes of this chapter, including purposes incidental thereto, subject to regulation as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, except that the rates for use of space in parking facilities covered by any such lease shall be fixed and regulated by the Commissioners so as to allow to the lessee a fair return, as fixed by the Commissioners, on the cost of such structure or structures, together with an amount sufficient to amortize within the term of any such lease the cost of such structure or structures. Every such lease shall be entered into upon such terms and conditions as the Commissioners shall impose including, but not limited to, requirements that such structure or structures shall conform with plans and specifications approved by the Commissioners, that such structure or structures shall become the property of the District upon termination or expiration of any such lease; that the lessee shall furnish security in the form of a penal bond or otherwise to guarantee fulfillment of his or its obligations, and any other requirement which, in the judgment of the Commissioners, shall be related to the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter. (As amended Feb. 16, 1942, 56 Stat. 91, ch. 76, § 3; Dec. 16, 1944, 58 Stat. 808, ch. 595, § 1; June 19, 1948, 62 Stat. 565, ch. 559.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ESTOPPEL

Appellant's contention, that, by placing the sign upon the meters the District is estopped to urge that Saturday afernoon is not a holiday within the meaning of the traffic regulation, is unfounded since the principle of estoppel generally does not apply to a city or a state when acting in its governmental capacity. Doing v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 396).

PARKING REGULATIONS

Where appellant was convicted for illegal parking on Saturday afternoon and controversy arose by reason of fact that parking meter bore sign limiting parking to one hour, except on Sundays and holidays, his contention that Saturday afternoon was a legal holiday is without merit because Saturday is not a holiday under the statute or regulations issued thereunder. Doing v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 396).

PRESUMPTION

The presumption that everyone is presumed to know the law applies to traffic regulations just as it does to statutes. Doing v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 396).

§ 40–805. Motor-Vehicle Parking Agency—Creation and composition—Term—Powers.

There is hereby created a motor-vehicle parking agency consisting of seven members, namely, a representative of the Federal Works Agency, to be designated by the Administrator thereof; a representative of the National Park Service, to be designated by the Secretary of the Interior; a representative of the Department of Vehicles and Traffic of the District, to be designated by the Commissioners, and four other members, each of whom shall have been a bona fide resident of the District for at least three years immediately preceding his appointment, to be appointed by the Commissioners, without regard to race or creed. The Secretary of the Interior, the Federal Works Administrator, and the Commissioners may from time to time, in their discretion, change their respective designates in office, and they shall name new designates to fill any vacancies caused by the death, resignation, or other inability to serve, of their respective designates in office. The terms of the other four members of the agency shall be four years each, except that in the case of the initial appointments, one shall be for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years. In the case of any vacancy in the position of the members appointed for definite terms the same shall be filled for the remainder of the term. The said agency shall perform the duties imposed upon it by this chapter and such other duties as the Commissioners may assign to it. The Commissioners are authorized to delegate to the agency any or all of the powers vested in the said Commissioners by this chapter, except the powers set forth in paragraphs lettered (a) and (c) in section 40–804. The Commissioners are also authorized to delegate to the agency any or all of the powers vested in said Commissioners by sections 1 and 2 of the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to provide for the parking of automobiles in the Municipal Center", approved June 6, 1940. (Feb. 16, 1942, 56 Stat. 92, ch. 76, § 4, Dec. 16, 1944, 58 Stat. 808, ch. 595, § 2.)

PARKING METER FEES

The following District of Columbia Appropriation Acts provided that the fees from parking meters should be deposited to the credit of the highway fund:

1951—July 18, 1950, ch. 467, § 1, 64 Stat. 467.
1950—June 29, 1949, ch. 279, § 1, 63 Stat. 303.
1949—June 19, 1948, ch. 555, § 1, 62 Stat. 553.
1948—July 25, 1947, ch. 324, § 1, 61 Stat. 443.
1947—July 9, 1946, ch. 544, § 1, 60 Stat. 518.
1946—June 30, 1945, ch. 209, § 1, 59 Stat. 289.
1945—June 28, 1944, ch. 300, § 1, 58 Stat. 526.
1944—July 1, 1943, ch. 184, § 1, 57 Stat. 338.
1943—June 27, 1942, ch. 452, § 1, 56 Stat. 451.
1942—July 1, 1941, ch. 271, § 1, 55 Stat. 528.

§ 40–809. Appropriations—Employment of director—Salaries of employees—Salaries of members of agency.

Appropriations from the highway fund of the District are hereby authorized to carry out the provisions of this chapter for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1942, and thereafter the Commissioners are authorized and directed to include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required from said highway fund and the fund created by this chapter for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, including the payment of salaries and necessary administrative expenses. The Commissioners are authorized to employ a director and such other personal services as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and the salaries of such employees, other than members of said agency, are to be fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., Title 5, §§ 661–663, 664–673, and 674). The Commissioners shall fix the compensation of the members of said agency without reference to the provisions of the Classification Act (U. S. C., Title 5, §§ 661–663, 664–673, and 674): Provided, however, That the compensation of any members shall not exceed $500 per annum: And provided further, That no compensation for services as a member of such agency shall be provided for any member who holds a salaried public office or position, in the District of Columbia or the Federal Government. (Feb. 16, 1942, 56 Stat. 93, ch. 76, § 8.)

SAVING CLAUSE

§ 40–810. Parking restrictions—Vehicles impounded—Penalties.

It shall be unlawful to park, store, or leave any vehicle of any kind, whether attended or not, or for the owner of any vehicle of any kind to allow, permit, or suffer the same to be parked, stored, or left, whether attended or not, upon any public or private property in the District of Columbia, other than public highways, without the consent of the owner of such public or private property and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and their designated agent or agents, are authorized to remove and impound any vehicle parked, stored, or left in violation of this section and section 40–811 and to keep the same impounded until the owner thereof, or other duly authorized person, shall deposit collateral for his appearance in court to answer for such violation, the amount of such collateral to be fixed by the Commissioners in an amount not to exceed $25. Whoever violates the provisions of this section and section 40–811 shall be punished by a fine of not more than $25. Prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this section shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. In any prosecution under this section, proof that a vehicle was parked, stored, or left on public or private property shall be prima facie evidence that the vehicle was so parked, stored, or left without the consent of the owner of such public or private property. (Jan. 15, 1942, 56 Stat. 5, ch. 4, § 1.)

§ 41–101 [23: 5]. Limited partnerships—For what purposes to be formed.

Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, or manufacturing business within the District may be formed by two or more persons upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities prescribed in this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1498.)

§ 41–102 [23: 6]. "General and special partners" defined.

Such partnership may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called general partners and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners are by law, and of one or more persons who shall contribute, in actual cash payments, a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1499.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LIABILITY

Persons who hold themselves out or knowingly permit others to hold them out as partners become bound as partners to all who deal with them in that apparent relation. Orndorff v. Cohen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 794).

§ 41–103 [23: 7]. Number of special partners.

The number of special partners shall in no partnership exceed six. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1500.)

§ 41–104 [23: 8]. Liability of special partners.

The special partners shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund contributed by them to the capital. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1501.)

§ 41–105 [23: 9]. Certificate to be signed.

Persons desirous of forming a limited partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate which shall contain—

First. The name of firm under which such partnership is to be conducted.

Second. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.

Third. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners and their respective places of residence.

Fourth. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.

Fifth. The period at which the partnership is to commence and the period at which it is to terminate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1502.)

§ 41–106 [23: 10]. Acknowledgment and recording.

The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same before a judge of any court in the District, or before any notary public, and such acknowledgments shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgments of deeds of land, and when so acknowledged and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, and shall be recorded by him at large in a book kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1503.)

§ 41–107 [23: 11]. Affidavits to be filed.

At the time of filing the original certificate, with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as directed in section 41–106 an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed therewith in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners to the common stock have been actually and in good faith paid in cash. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1504.)

§ 41–108 [23: 12]. Partnership not formed until certificate and affidavit filed.

No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed, and recorded. nor until an affidavit shall have been made and filed, as directed by sections 41–105, 41–106 and 41–107. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1505.)

§ 41–109 [23: 13]. False statements.

If any false statement, not the result of accident or mistake, shall be made in the certificate or affidavit required by sections 41–105, 41–106, and 41–107, all the persons interested in the partnership shall be liable for all the engagements of such partnership as general partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1506.)

§ 41–110 [23: 14]. Publication.

The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership, when registered, three times a week for at least four weeks immediately after such registry in two newspapers to be designated by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, the first publication to appear within one week after the registry. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1507.)

§ 41–111 [23: 15]. Effect of failure to publish.

If the publication prescribed in section 41–110 be not made, the partnership shall be deemed general. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1508.)

§ 41–112 [23: 16]. Affidavit as to publication.

The affidavits of the publication of the notice required by section 41–110 by the editor or publishers of the newspapers in which the same shall have been published shall be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein contained, the affidavit of any one editor or publisher of each newspaper being sufficient. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1509.)

§ 41–113 [23: 17]. Renewal of partnership.

Every renewal or continuance of a partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged, and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice be given in the manner required by the provisions of this chapter for its original formation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1510.)

§ 41–114 [23: 18]. General partnership to result from failure to properly renew.

Every partnership which shall be renewed and continued otherwise than as provided in this chapter shall be deemed a general partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1511.)

§ 41–115 [23: 19]. What shall be a dissolution.

Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat 1416, ch. 854, § 1512.)

§ 41–116 [23: 20]. Effect of acts after dissolution.

Every partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership under the provisions of section 41–113. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1513.)

§ 41–117 [23: 21]. Name to be used.

The business of the partnership may be conducted under the name of any one or more of the general partners, and with or without the addition of the word Co. or company, as the parties may determine. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1514.)

§ 41–118 [23: 22]. What names to be used in suits.

In any action or suit brought on any contract or engagement of the partnership, or to enforce any liability of the same, the general partners whose names shall be used in the firm or business shall be the only necessary defendants; and any judgment or decree recovered against such defendants shall have the same legal effect and operation and execution thereon shall be enforced and have like effect against the partnership assets as if the judgment or decree had been recovered against the general partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1515.)

CROSS REFERENCES

Partners as witnesses, § 14–304.

§ 41–119 [23: 23]. Effect of use in firm of name of special partner.

If the name of any special partner shall be used in the firm with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1516.)

§ 41–120 [23: 24]. Who to transact business.

The general partners only shall transact the business, and if a special partner shall interfere contrary to this provision he shall be deemed a general partner, but he may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns and advise as to their management. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1517.)

§ 41–121 [23: 25]. Withdrawal of capital.

No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him or paid or transferred to him in the shape of dividends, profits, or otherwise, during the continuance of the partnership, but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if after the payment of such interest any profits shall remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion of such profits. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1518.)

§ 41–122 [23: 26]. Reduction of capital.

If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of capital, with interest, on being notified thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1519.)

§ 41–123 [23: 27]. Assignment with preferences.

Every sale, assignment, or transfer of any property or effects of a partnership, or of any general partner, made by such partnership or general partner when insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency, or after or in contemplation of the insolvency of any general partner, with the intent of giving preference to any creditor of such partnership or insolvent partner, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given by such partnership or general partner under the like circumstances and with the like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1520.)

§ 41–124 [23: 28]. Special partner violating sections 41–122 and 41–123 liable as general partner.

Every special partner who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 41–122 and 41–123 or who shall concur in or assent to any such violation by the partnership or by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1521.)

§ 41–125 [23: 29]. Creditors to have preference over special partner.

In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of a partnership no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as a creditor until the claims of all the other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1522.)

§ 41–126 [23: 30]. Suits to be against general partners only, in what cases.

All suits respecting the business of the partnership shall be brought by and against the general partners only, subject to the provisions of section 41–118, except in those cases in which provision is made in this chapter that special partners shall be deemed general partners and special partnerships general partnerships, in which cases all persons so becoming general partners may be joined with those originally general partners in any suit brought against such partnerships. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1523.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LIABILITY OF PARTNERS

Persons who hold themselves out or knowingly permit others to hold them out as partners become bound as partners to all who deal with them in that apparent relation. Orndorff v. Cohen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 794).

When liability of a partner must be predicated on the fact that one of them was held out by another as a partner, it must appear that the person so held out consented in fact to the holding out, or when the fact of the holding out came to his knowledge, he negligently failed to assert the non-existence of the partnership in time to prevent others from relying thereon. Orndorff v. Cohen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 794).

§ 41–127 [23: 31]. Suits against general and special partners may be prosecuted against general partners.

If, in any case or suit brought against general and special partners, it shall appear at the trial of the case that the special partners or any one of them are not liable to the suit of the plaintiff, the court may proceed to judgment or decree against the partners who may appear to be liable, in the same manner as if such partners were the only parties defendant to the suit, excepting that the partners who may be deemed not liable shall recover their legal costs against the plaintiffs. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1524.)

If, in any case or suit brought against general and special partners, the creditor shall recover a judgment or obtain a decree against the general partners only, and shall afterward discover that special partners, or some one or more of them, have become liable as general partners, he may bring a new suit against such special partner or partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1525.)

§ 41–129 [23: 33]. Judgment prima facie evidence—Merger of partnership debt in judgment.

In the suits mentioned in sections 41–127 and 41–128 the judgment recovered shall be prima facie evidence of the amount due by the partnerships, and the partnership debt shall not be merged in any judgment or decree recovered or obtained against any partner or partners as against any other partner or partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1526.)

§ 41–130 [23: 34]. Voluntary dissolution.

No dissolution of such partnership by act of the partners shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, unless in consequence of the death of one of the partners or insolvency of the partnership or of one of the general partners, nor until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District, and published once a week for four weeks in two newspapers to be designated by the clerk, which publication may be proved by affidavit, and recorded as hereinbefore prescribed for the publication of the certificate for the formation of such partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1527.)

§ 41–131 [23: 35]. Liability of the general partners.

The general partners shall be liable to account to each other and to the special partners for the management of the concern, both at law and in equity. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1418, ch. 854, § 1528.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RIGHT TO SUE

The law does not forbid partners to sue each other at law merely because they are or have been partners. It is only when the adjustment of the matter in controversy involves an investigation and audit of the partnership account that resort must be had to equity. Boyle v. Smith (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 428).

Chapter 2.—DISSOLUTION AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS

Sec.

41–201. Composition with creditors on dissolution.
41–202. Memorandum of exoneration may be furnished—Use of memorandum in evidence or to release judgment.
41–203. Other partners not discharged.
41–204. Partners' right of contribution.

§ 41–201 [23: 1]. Composition with creditors on dissolution.

Where a partnership is dissolved, by mutual consent or otherwise, any partner may make a separate composition or compromise with any creditor of the partnership; and such a composition or compromise shall be a full and effectual discharge to the debtor who makes the same, and to him only, of and from all and every liability to the creditor with whom the same is made, according to the terms thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1494.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

It is not within the general scope of the authority of one partner to make or endorse negotiable paper in the firm name. Presbrey v. Thomas (1 App. D. C. 171).

§ 41–202 [23: 2]. Memorandum of exoneration may be furnished—Use of memorandum in evidence or to release judgment.

Every such debtor who makes such composition or compromise may take from the creditor with whom he makes the same a note or memorandum, in writing, exonerating him from all and every individual liability incurred by reason of his connection with the partnership, which note or memorandum may be given in evidence by such debtor, in bar of such creditor's right of recovery against him; and if such liability be by judgment, then, on the production and filing with the clerk of the notes or memorandum, the clerk shall enter the judgment as released by the plaintiff as far as the compromising debtor is concerned. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1495.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DISCRETION OF COMMISSION

In public utility rate proceeding, Public Utility Commission's refusal of demand of intervening Price Administrator that thoroughgoing examination be made into rate base, rate of return, operating expenses, depreciation, and all other matters relative to establishment of fair return was not an abuse of discretion. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

FEDERAL LAWS, SCOPE OF

The right conferred on Price Administrator to intervene in public utility rate proceeding does not include the power to compel the regulatory party to undertake a complete investigation against its better judgment or upon lines contrary to governing statute. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

POWER TO FIX RATES

The power to fix public utility rates is a legislative power which has been delegated by Congress to Public Utility Commission of District of Columbia, and in its exercise, within constitutional limits, discretion of commission may not be controlled even by courts. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

§ 41–203 [23: 3]. Other partners not discharged.

Such compromise or composition with an individual member of a firm shall not be held to discharge the other partners, nor shall it impair the right of the creditor to proceed against such members of the partnership as have not been discharged; and the members of the partnership so proceeded against shall be permitted to set off any demand against the creditor which could have been set off had the suit been brought against all the individuals composing the firm. Nor shall the compromise or discharge of an individual member of a firm prevent the other members of the firm from availing themselves of any defense that would have been available had this title not been passed, except that they shall not set up the discharge of one individual as a discharge of the other partners, unless it appear that all were intended to be discharged; but the discharge of any such partner shall be deemed a payment to the creditor equal to the proportionate interest of the partner discharged in the partnership concern. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1496.)

§ 41–204 [23: 4]. Partners' right of contribution.

Such compromise or composition of a member of a firm with a creditor of such firm shall in no wise affect the right of the other partners to call on the member who makes it for his ratable proportion of any partnership debt which they may be compelled to pay. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1497.)

TITLE 42.—PERSONAL PROPERTY

Chap. Sec.
1. Recordation of instruments 42–101

Chapter 1.—RECORDATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec.
42–101. Recording of bills of sale, chattel mortgages, and deeds of trust.
42–102. Instruments relating to chattels need not be transcribed—Instruments retained by recorder.
42–103. Conditional sales.

§ 42–101 [25: 177]. Recording of bills of sale, chattel mortgages, and deeds of trust.

No bill of sale, mortgage, or deed of trust to secure a debt of any personal chattels whereof the vendor, mortgagor, or donor shall remain in possession, shall be valid or effectual to pass the title therein, except as between the parties to such instruments and as to other persons having actual notice of it, unless the same be executed, acknowledged, and within ten days from the date of such acknowledgment filed in the office of the recorder of deeds and the said filing of such instrument therein as aforesaid as to third persons not having notice of it as aforesaid shall be operative only from the time within the said ten days when it is delivered to said recorder. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 546; Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

AMENDMENT

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ACTUAL NOTICE

The sale is not void as to persons who had "actual notice of it" before their rights accrued. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE

A mortgagee cannot throw the buyer of mortgaged property off guard concerning protection which this section gives to him and take advantage at the same time of what otherwise would or might have been discovered, and thus if the mortgagee clothes mortgagor with indicia of ownership, or gives him authority to sell the property, or stands by in silence and watches the mortgagor deal with it as owner, the mortgagee nullifies the effect of recording by his inconsistent representation. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

The opportunity to investigate is foundation of the "constructive notice" afforded by this section and when it exists unimpaired by any act of mortgagee, this section casts burden of investigation on those who may deal with the mortgagor, and their failure to make it assumes something of the quality of negligence, but this section is a bulwark, not a trap, and mortgagee is favored only so long as he acts consistently with its conditions, and when he goes further and either by his conduct prevents purchaser from making usual investigation or takes advantage of circumstances which he knows or reasonably should know would have such effect, he destroys the foundation on which his own protection rests. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

DATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

"Record is required within 10 days after * * * the act of acknowledgement. There is nothing in the law which requires that acknowledgment of the instrument be of its date, and, unless the delay in acknowledging be unreasonable and intervening rights accrue during the period of delay the recorded instrument will have the same force and effect as if acknowledged on the date of its execution." R. P. Andrews Paper Co. v. Southern Soda Fountain Co. (46 App. D. C. 84).

Rights under the mortgage do not relate back to the time of the execution of the deed where mortgage was not acknowledged or recorded until after mortgagor had contracted new debts with third parties without notice. In re Nolan Motor Co., Inc. ((D. C.-D. C.), 25 Fed. Supp. 186).

The code regarding recordation of chattel mortgages does not require acknowledgment simultaneous with the execution thereof. In re Nolan Motor Co., Inc. ((D. C.-D. C.), 25 Fed. Supp. 186).

FAILURE TO DELIVER POSSESSION

Failure to deliver possession to the buyer did not make the sale void, but was a fact to be considered by the jury in determining whether or not the sale was fraudulent. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

LANDLORD'S LIEN

Quaere: Whether landlord's lien is embraced within provision requiring recordation of conditional sales contract. R. P. Andrews Paper Co. v. Southern Soda Fountain Co. (46 App. D. C. 84).

PROPERTY WITHIN SECTION

This chapter applies to chattels, generally, not merely to automobiles, and accordingly a construction peculiarly applicable to motor vehicles is not appropriate. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

PURPOSE

This chapter is intended ordinarily to make a recorded instrument effective to give constructive notice to all with whom person in possession may undertake to deal, but the protection is not entirely one-sided or absolute, and this section has the further function of providing an opportunity for investigation of the title and discovery of liens. Fogle v. General Credit, 1941 (122 F. 2d 45, 74 App. D. C. 208, 136 A. L. R. 814).

UNRECORDED BILL OF SALE

Failure to record bill of sale does not make sale void as to marshal who levied on the property with notice of the transfer of title. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

UNRECORDED TRANSFER

Unrecorded transfer is good inter partes. V. G. Fisher Art Co. v. Hutchins (41 App. D. C. 156), citing Colbert v. Baetjer (4 App. D. C. 416).

§ 42–102 [25: 178]. Instruments relating to chattels need not be transcribed—Instruments retained by recorder.

It shall not be necessary for the recorder of deeds to spread such instruments upon the records of his office, but the same shall be indexed in the manner as deeds to real estate are indexed, and said instruments shall be kept on file and shall be open to inspection by the public, and shall have the same force and legal effect as if they were actually recorded in the books of said office. For filing and indexing such aforesaid instruments the recorder of deeds shall collect $1 each. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 546a, added Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section (paragraph 2 of § 546) appeared for the first time in the 1925 act. Paragraph 1 was an amendment to § 546 of D. C. 1901 (§ 42–101 herein).

§ 42–103 [25: 179]. Conditional sales.

No conditional sale of chattels in virtue of which the property is delivered to the purchaser, but by the terms of which the title is not to pass until the price of said chattels is fully paid, where the purchase-price exceeds $100, shall be valid as against third persons acquiring title to said property from said purchaser without notice of the terms of said sale, unless the terms of said sale are reduced to writing and signed by the parties thereto and acknowledged by the purchaser and filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, and said writing shall be indexed as if the purchaser were a mortgagor and the seller a mortgagee of such chattels, and shall be operative as to third persons without actual notice of it from the time of being filed. And for filing and indexing such an instrument, the recorder of deeds shall collect $1. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 547; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 533, ch. 1329; Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment added the words "when the purchase price exceeds $100."

The 1925 amendment added the words "where the purchase price exceeds $100," deleted the words "and recorded in the same manner as a chattel mortgage, as hereinabove provided," and inserted in lieu thereof the words "and filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia," deleted the words "so recorded," and inserted in lieu thereof the word "filed" at the end of the first sentence, and added the last sentence.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNEE OF LEASE

Assignee of lease held not third person "acquiring title to said property from said purchaser." Palm v. Bachrach (55 App. D. C. 302, 5 Fed. (2d) 125).

CONSTRUCTION AND APPLICATION

Quaere: Whether creditor of vendee in contract of conditional sale, or of purchaser (without notice) from him, are entitled to the benefits of this section. Baum v. Knabe Mfg. Co. (33 App. D. C. 237).

"Since this statute restricts the rights of property by regulating its use its scope may not be broadened by construction." Gill v. Kahl-Holt Co. (47 App. D. C. 53).

Lease construed as conditional sales agreement. Stern v. Drew (52 App. D. C. 191, 285 Fed. 925, distinguishing Randolph & Co. v. Columbia Graphophone Co., 45 App. D. C. 146). See also Smith v. Gilmore (7 App. D. C. 192), as to determination of intention of parties to such agreements.

ELECTION OF REMEDIES

Election of remedies as affecting rights under conditional bill of sale. Smith v. Gilmore (7 App. D. C. 192)

FICTITIOUS NAMES, USE OF

A conditional seller who records conditional sale agreement obtains full protection under this section, even though such instrument was executed in a fictitious name by buyer. Zweig v. Schwartz (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 857).

LANDLORD'S LIEN

Unrecorded conditional sale contract of chattels brought upon leased premises is superior to landlord's lien on chattels. Stern Co. v. Rosenberg (67 App. D. C. 99, 89 Fed. (2d) 843).

NOTICE

Where conditional buyer of $400 diamond ring perpetrated fraud in representing herself to be another person, but sellers did not record conditional sale agreement and second-hand dealer purchased ring for $75 in usual course of business from one known to the dealer, the price paid was not so inadequate as to constitute "notice" to the second-hand dealer of possible defects in the title acquired by him. Zweig v. Schwartz (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 857).

ORAL AGREEMENT

An assignee of after-acquired property takes it subject to the conditions with which it is encumbered, notwithstanding that such encumbrance is an oral conditional sales agreement. Gill v. Kahl-Holt Co. (47 App. D. C. 53)

TITLE WITHHELD

"A sale and delivery of personal property on condition that the title remain in the vendor until performance of the condition authorizes the vendor, in case of failure to fulfill the conditions, to repossess himself of the property, not only from the vendee but from those holding under him. * * * Such a condition may exist either in the case of a sale for cash or on time." Minnix Co. v. L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Co. (33 App. D. C. 357).

Title does not pass until condition is fulfilled. Minnix Co. v. L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Co. (33 App. D. C. 357). See Wall v. De Mitkiewicz (9 App. D. C. 109).

UNRECORDED CONDITIONAL SALE

When property under conditional sale contracts is reserved in the vendor until the purchase price is paid, such contracts are valid even though unrecorded except as against third persons acquiring title without notice of the terms of sale. Baum v. Knabe Mfg. Co. (33 App. D. C. 237).

Unrecorded conditional sale was valid against judgment, creditor levying upon buyer's property. The provision that it should not be valid against third persons without notice applies only in favor of subsequent purchasers and mortgagees. Higgins v. Central Cigar Co. (59 App. D. C. 9, 32 Fed. (2d) 400).

Unrecorded conditional sale contract superior to levy on an automobile, the latter not transferring any title. C. I. T. Corp. v. Carl (66 App. D. C. 232, 85 Fed. (2d) 809).

At common law a conditional bill of sale was valid not only as between parties but also as to third parties, but under this section when purchase price exceeds $100, unless seller protects his lien by recording the conditional sale agreement, the buyer may convey an indefeasible title to a third party for value and without notice. Zweig v. Schwartz (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 857).

Even though conditional buyer perpetrated fraud in representing herself to be another person, conditional sellers who did not avail themselves of benefit of this section could not recover from subsequent buyer if he was a purchaser for value and acquired title without notice of the conditional sale. Zweig v. Schwartz (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 857).

WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIEN

Conditional sale contract, not of record, is inferior to warehouseman's lien. Fidelity Storage Co. v. Reliable Stores Corp. (63 App. D. C. 83, 69 Fed. (2d) 569).

§ 43–107 [26: 7]. Joint rates.

The term "joint rates" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title with reference to street railways shall be taken to mean rates between unrelated lines in effect on March 4, 1913, under then existing law or under contract, or which may thereafter be specifically authorized by law. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 974, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–108 [26: 8]. Extension or extensions.

The term "extension or extensions" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title shall include the reasonable extension of the service and facilities of every street railroad, street railroad corporation, gas plant, gas corporation, electric plant, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telephone line, telegraph line, and telegraph corporation as the same are defined in chapters 1–10 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 974, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–109 [26: 9]. Street railroad.

The term "street railroad" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every such railroad, whether wholly or partly in the District of Columbia, by whatsoever power operated, or any extension or extensions, branch or branches thereof, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for compensation, and includes all equipment, construction, maintenance, repairs, switches, spurs, tracks, terminals, terminal facilities of every kind, trackage, joint or reciprocal trackage, transfers of passengers between street railways having connecting lines and street railways having independent lines, subways, tunnels, and stations, used, operated, or owned by or in connection with any such street railroad, and all the property of the same used in the conduct of its business. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 974, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–110 [26: 10]. Street railroad corporation.

The term "street railroad corporation" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, and person doing business in the District of Columbia, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any street railroad or any cars or other equipment used thereon or in connection therewith. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 975, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–111 [26: 11]. Common carrier—Exempt organizations.

The term "common carrier" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes express companies and every corporation, street railroad corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any agency or agencies for public use for the conveyance of persons or property within the District of Columbia for hire. Steam railroads, express companies subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Washington Terminal Company, and the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, and all companies engaged in interstate traffic upon the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay and the Washington and Old Dominion Railway, excepting as to the regulation of its operation inside of the District of Columbia, and the Arlington and Fairfax Railway Company, excepting as to the regulation of its operation inside of the District of Columbia, are excluded from the operation of chapters 1–10 of this title, and are not included in the term "common carrier." (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 975, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1; Feb. 25, 1916, 39 Stat. 13, ch. 34; Aug. 21, 1916, 39 Stat. 521, ch. 367; Aug. 26, 1916, 39 Stat. 536, ch. 412.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of February 25, 1916, added the following: "and the Washington and Old Dominion Railway, excepting as to the regulation of its operation inside of the District of Columbia."

Act of August 21, 1916, added the following: "express companies subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission."

Act of August 26, 1916, added all beginning with "and the Washington and Old Dominion" and ending with "District of Columbia."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EMERGENCY PRICE CONTROL ACT

One who owned and rented taxicabs to others for operation in the District of Columbia was a "common carrier" within this section and was entitled, under provision of former Emergency Price Control Act, 50 U. S. C. App. § 942 (c), to exemption from price control, though rentals which he charged were not actually controlled by Public Utilities Commission. In re Rice (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 617).

OWNERSHIP

Under this section providing that term "common carrier" includes every person owning, operating, controlling, or managing any agencies for public use for conveyance of persons or property within the District of Columbia for hire, any person who owns such facilities, regardless of whether he personally operates them, is a "common carrier" subject to regulation by Public Utilities Commission of the District. In re Rice (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 617).

TAXICAB COMPANY

A taxicab company is a common carrier within this act and subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission. Terminal Taxicab Co. v. Kutz (241 U. S. 252, 60 L. Ed. 984, 36 Sup. Ct. 583).

§ 43–112 [26: 12]. Gas plant.

The term "gas plant" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes all buildings, easements, real estate, mains, pipes, conduits, service pipes, services, pipe galleries, meters, boilers, water-gas sets, retorts, fixtures, condensers, scrubbers, purifiers, holders, materials, apparatus, personal property, and franchises, and property of every kind used in the conduct of the business operated, owned, controlled, used or to be used for or in connection with or to facilitate the manufacture, distribution, sale, or furnishing of gas (natural or manufactured) for light, heat, or power. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 975, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–113 [26: 13]. Gas corporation.

The term "gas corporation" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, or person manufacturing, making, distributing, or selling gas for light, heat, or power, or for any public use whatsoever in the District of Columbia, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, and in said district owning, operating, controlling, or managing any gas plant, except where the gas is made or produced and distributed by the maker on or through private property solely for its own use or the use of its tenants and not for sale to or for the use of others. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 975, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

The term "electric plant" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes all engines, boilers, dynamos, generators, storage batteries, converters, motors, transformers, cables, wires, poles, lamps, meters, easements, real estate, fixtures, and personal property, materials, apparatus, and devices of every kind operated, owned, used or to be used for or in connection with or to facilitate the generation, transmission, distribution, sale, or furnishing of electricity for light, heat, or power, and any conduits, ducts, or other devices, materials, apparatus, or property for containing, holding, or carrying electrical conductors used or to be used wholly or in part for the transmission of electricity for light, heat, or power, except where electricity is made, generated, produced, or transmitted by a private person or private corporation on or through private property solely for its own use or the use of tenants of its building and not for sale to or for the use of others. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 975, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–115 [26: 15]. Electrical corporation.

The term "electrical corporation" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, or person doing business in the District of Columbia, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any electric plant, including any water plant, or water property, or water falls, or dam, or water-power stations, except where electricity is made, generated, produced, or transmitted by a private person or private corporation on or through private property solely for its own use or the use of tenants of its building and not for sale to or for the use of others. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–116 [26: 16]. Water-power company.

The term "water-power company" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, managing, or controlling any plant or property, dam or water supply, canal, or power station for the development of water power for the generation of electrical current or other power or for the distribution or sale of such electrical current or other power. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–117 [26: 17]. Telephone corporation.

The term "telephone corporation" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, and persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any plant, wires, poles for the reception, transmission, or communication of messages by telephone, telephonic apparatus or instruments, or any telephone line or part of telephone line, used in the conduct of the business of affording telephonic communication for hire, or which licenses, lets, or permits telephonic communication for hire. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–118 [26: 18]. Telephone line.

The term "telephone line" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes conduits, ducts, poles, wires, cables, cross arms, receivers, transmitters, instruments, machines, and appliances, and all devices, real estate, franchises, easements, apparatus, fixtures, property, appurtenances, and routes used, operated, controlled, or owned by any telephone corporation to facilitate the business of affording telephonic communication for hire, or which licenses, lets, or permits telephonic communication. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–119 [26: 19]. Telegraph corporation.

The term "telegraph corporation" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, and person, their lessees, trus,-tees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any plant, wires, poles, or property for the purposes of communication, or of transmitting or receiving messages by telegraph, or by any telegraphic apparatus or instrument, or any telegraph line or part of telegraph line used in the conduct of the business of affording for hire, communication by telegraph, or which licenses, lets, or permits telegraphic communication for hire. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–120 [26: 20]. Telegraph line.

The term "telegraph line" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes conduits, ducts, poles, wires, cables, cross-arms, instruments, machinery, appliances, and all devices, real estate, franchises, easements, apparatus, fixtures, property, and routes used, operated, controlled, or owned by any telegraph corporation to facilitate the business of affording communication by telegraph for hire. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–121 [26: 21]. Pipe-line company.

The term "pipe-line company" when used in chapters 1–10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, or person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, managing, or controlling the supply of any liquid, steam, or air through pipes or tubing to consumers for use or for lighting, heating, or cooling purposes, or for power. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43–122 [26: 22]. Chapters 1–10 of this title applicable to transportation of passengers, freight, or property within the District of Columbia—Construction in connection with Constitution and interstate commerce laws.

Chapters 1–10 of this title shall apply to the transportation of passengers, freight, or property from one point to another within the District of Columbia, and any common carrier performing such service; and chapters 1–10 of this title shall be so applicable and be so construed as to be free from conflict with those provisions of the Constitution of the United States and the laws in pursuance thereof relating to interstate commerce. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 977, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GARAGE BUSINESS

A taxicab company which has the exclusive right to taxicab passengers from the Washington terminal, and the exclusive right to the taxicab business out from certain hotels, is to this extent, under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission, but the Commission has no jurisdiction over its garage business, or rates charged on such business. Terminal Taxicab Co. v. Kutz (241 U. S. 252, 60 L. Ed. 984, 36 Sup. Ct. 583).

SINGLE OPERATOR

An operator of a single passenger sedan is not a public utility and does not come under the jurisdiction of an order of Public Utilities Commission requiring financial protection of his patrons. Bell v. Harlan (57 App. D. C. 255, 20 Fed. (2d) 271).

§ 43–123 [26: 23]. Corporations subject to chapters 1–10 of this title.

Corporations formed to acquire property or to transact business which would be subject to the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, and corporations possessing franchises for any of the purposes contemplated by chapters 1–10 of this title shall be deemed to be subject to the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, although no property may have been acquired, business transacted, or franchises exercised. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 977, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

43–209. Authority of District of Columbia Commissioners to continue—Ordinances and regulations to remain in force until modified by the Public Utilities Commission.

§ 43–201 [26: 126]. Members—Eligibility of Commissioners—Oath.

The Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia shall be composed of three commissioners as follows: (1) The Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, and (2) two persons appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Each of the appointed commissioners shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 per annum. Of the two commissioners first appointed after December 15, 1926, one shall be appointed for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years, commencing July 1, 1926. The terms of office of all successors shall expire three years after the expiration of the terms for which their predecessors were appointed; but any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The commission shall at least biennially elect a chairman by a majority vote of its members. No commissioner, other than the said Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, shall, during his term of office, hold any other public office. The commissioners of the District of Columbia shall furnish the Public Utilities Commission with suitable offices and quarters. No person, other than the said Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, shall be eligible to the office of commissioner of the Public Utilities Commission who has not been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia for a period of at least three years next preceding his appointment or who has voted or claimed residence elsewhere during such period. No person shall be eligible to the office of commissioner of said Public Utilities Commission who is, or who shall have been during a period of five years next preceding his appointment, directly or indirectly interested in any public utility operating, owning, or having an interest in property in the District of Columbia; or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or contract of any such public utility. If any such commissioner shall voluntarily become so interested, his office shall ipso facto become vacant; and if any such commissioner shall become so interested otherwise than voluntarily he shall, within a reasonable time, divest himself of such interest, and if he fails to do so his office shall become vacant. Before entering upon the duties of his office each commissioner, the secretary of the commission, the counsel of the commission and every employee of said commission shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office, and shall in addition thereto make oath or affirmation before and file with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia that he is not pecuniarily interested, voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, in any public utility in the District of Columbia. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 920, ch. 8, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY

Congress of the United States exercises exclusive legislative powers within the District of Columbia, and the Public Utilities Commission is merely an administrative agency. Patrick v. Smith (60 App. D. C. 6, 45 Fed. 2d) 924).

§ 43–203 [26: 128]. Acts of prior Commission validated.

Sections 43–201 to 43–203 shall not be construed (1) to invalidate any subpœna, valuation, order, rule, regulation, or revocation, or any rescission, alteration, modification, amendment, or suspension thereof issued by the commission prior to the date on which the commissioners first appointed under section 43–201 take office; or (2) to invalidate any complaint served, or any investigation, inquiry, or hearing held or commenced, or any determination, or decision rendered by the commission prior to such date; or (3) to invalidate, abate, or discontinue any action, suit, trial, or proceeding commenced by or against such commission prior to such date. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 921, ch. 8, § 2.)

§ 43–204 [26: 116]. Corporation counsel as counsel of Commission—Duties—Additional compensation—Employment of additional counsel—Enforcement of orders.

The corporation counsel of the District of Columbia shall be the general counsel of the commission and shall receive from and be paid out of the appropriations provided and to be provided for the expenses of the commission in addition to his compensation otherwise provided by law the sum of $1,000 per annum, payable in equal monthly installments. It shall be the duty of the general counsel to represent and appear for the commission in all actions and proceedings involving any question under chapters 1–10 of this title, or under or in reference to any act, order, or proceeding of the commission, and if directed to do so by the commission, to intervene, if possible, in any action or proceeding in which any such question is involved; to commence and prosecute all actions and proceedings directed or authorized by the commission, and to expedite, in every way possible, final and just determination of all such actions and proceedings; to advise the commission and each commissioner, when so requested, in regard to all matters in connection with the powers and duties of the commission and of the members thereof, and generally to perform all duties and services as attorney and counsel to the commission which the commission may reasonably require of him. The assistants to the corporation counsel shall perform such duties relating to matters arising under chapters 1–10 of this title and all other matters as the corporation counsel may prescribe. The commission may, if at any time it deems necessary, employ other attorneys at law as additional assistants to the said general counsel for the performance of such extraordinary legal services for or in behalf of the commission at such special compensation for such additional assistants as the commission may prescribe, which said compensation shall be paid out of the appropriations provided for the expenses of the commission. The said corporation counsel and any of his assistants designated by him or by the commission shall have the right to appear and prosecute any civil, quasi criminal, or criminal case to recover any penalty, forfeiture, fine, or for the imposition of any punishment provided for in chapters 1–10 of this title whether instituted by or on behalf of the United States of America or by or on behalf of the District of Columbia or otherwise, and on every appeal provided by law. The commission may enforce its orders in any case by mandamus or other legal or equitable remedy in any court of competent jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the corporation counsel or his assistants to represent the commission in every such proceeding. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 993, ch. 150, § 8, par. 91.)

§ 43–205 [26: 117]. People's counsel—Duties, term of office, salary, qualifications.

There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an additional counsel of the commission to be known as the people's counsel, who—

(1) Shall represent and appear for the people of the District of Columbia at all hearings of the commission and in all judicial proceedings involving the interests of users of the products of or service furnished by public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission;

(2) Shall represent and appear for petitioners appearing before the commission for the purpose of complaining in matters of rates or service; and

(3) May investigate the service given by, the rates charged by, and the valuation of the properties of, the public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission.

(b) The term of office of the people's counsel shall be four years, and he shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 a year. No person shall be appointed as people's counsel who has not been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia continuously for a period of at least five years immediately preceding the effective date of his appointment, or who has not been engaged in the actual practice of law before the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia for a period of at least five years. No person shall be eligible to the office of people's counsel who is, or who shall have been during a period of five years next preceding his appointment, directly or indirectly interested in any public utility operating, owning, or having an interest in property in the District of Columbia, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or contract of any such public utility. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 921, ch. 8, § 3.)

§ 43–206 [26: 121]. Employees — Compensation — Expenses—Expenditures.

The commission shall have the power in each and every instance to employ and to prescribe the duties of such officers, clerks, stenographers, typewriters, inspectors, experts, and employees as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, and to fix and pay their compensation within the appropriations provided by Congress subject to the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, ch. 13). The commission is hereby authorized, within the appropriation made by Congress, to incur and pay incidental expenses for postage, printing, blanks, books, law books, books of reference, and periodicals, stationery, binding, rebinding, repairing and preservation of records, desks, office furniture and supplies, traveling expenses of the commission, the commissioners, and every officer, agent, and employee thereof, and all other general expenses reasonably necessary to be incurred in carrying out the purposes of chapters 1–10 of this title. All payments and disbursements, as provided in chapters 1–10 of this title, shall be made by the disbursing officer of the District of Columbia upon proper vouchers, certified as required by the commission; and the commission is hereby also granted power and authority to designate and appoint during its pleasure such officers, clerks, inspectors, and employees of the District of Columbia and members of the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia to perform any of the duties which the commission may from time to time, respectively, assign to them, and to employ any assistance within the limits of the appropriations for its use made by Act of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 994, ch. 150, § 8, par. 95.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

It is not clear that the last clause of the first sentence was superseded in its entirety by the act of Mar. 4, 1923 (the Classification Law), 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265.

§ 43–207 [26: 124]. Power withdrawn from Interstate Commerce Commission—Rules and regulations of said commission to remain in force.

The authority vested by law in the Interstate Commerce Commission by virtue and under the Act of Congress, approved May 23, 1908, entitled "An Act authorizing certain extensions to be made in the lines of the Anacostia and Potomac River Railroad Company, the Washington Railway and Electric Company, the City and Suburban Railway of Washington, and the Capital Traction Company, in the District of Columbia and for other purposes" (35 Stat. 246, ch. 190), shall no longer be exercised by the Interstate Commerce Commission: Provided, That the orders, rules, and regulations made by the Interstate Commerce Commission by virtue of and under the said Act of Congress, approved May 23, 1908, shall continue to be in force until changed, repealed, altered, or amended by the commission created by chapters 1–10 of this title, which said commission is hereby given power and jurisdiction to issue and, at its pleasure, to revoke all permits, or licenses, to carry chapters 1–10 of this title into effect, and its rules and regulations shall be valid and binding on all public-service corporations and on all persons. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 995, ch. 150, § 8, par. 96.)

GAS RATES

Commission is without power to fix rates at which gas piped from another State will be supplied to local distributing company. Galloway v. Bell (56 App. D. C. 172, 11 Fed. (2d) 558).

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Where telephone company, operating in the District, received a letter from U. S. attorney requesting company to discontinue service because phone was used in violation of District gambling statute, an injunction against the United States attorney would be improper because his action was that of the United States. Fay v. Miller (C. A. D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 986).

RIGHT TO COMPEL FURNISHING SERVICE

Appellant has no positive right to compel the power company to furnish service to him contrary to its own rules and regulations duly approved by the Commission, the company's right to suspend or discontinue the service in accordance with its notice can neither be controlled nor restrained. Lewis v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (62 App. D. C. 63, 64 Fed. (2d) 701).

§ 43–302 [26: 25]. Use of equipment of other companies—Application to commission to require such use in event of disagreement.

Every utility doing business in the District of Columbia having tracks, conduits, subways, poles, wires, switchboards, exchanges, works, or other equipment shall, for a reasonable compensation, permit the use of the same by any other public utility whenever public convenience and necessity require such use, and such use will not result in irreparable injury to the owners or other users of such equipment; nor in any substantial detriment to the service to be rendered by such owners or other users. In case of failure to agree upon such use, or the conditions or compensation for such use, any public utility or any person, firm, copartnership, association, or corporation interested may apply to the commission, and if after investigation the commission shall ascertain that public convenience and necessity require such use and that it would not result in irreparable injury to the owners or other user of such equipment not in any substantial detriment to the service to be rendered by such owners or other users of such equipment, it shall by order direct that such use be permitted and prescribe the conditions and compensation for such joint use. Such use so ordered shall be permitted and such conditions and compensation so prescribed shall be the lawful conditions and compensation to be observed, followed, and paid, subject to recourse to the courts upon the complaint of any interested party, as hereinafter provided, which provisions, so far as applicable, shall apply to any action arising on such complaint so made. Any such order of the commission may be from time to time revised by the commission upon application of any interested party or upon its own motion after hearing and notice by order in writing. Whenever any public utility or person shall propose any change in any law relating directly or indirectly to the property or operations of any public utility the said proposed change shall also and at the same time be submitted to the commission, which may take testimony and give a public hearing thereon, and the commission shall recommend such bills as will in its judgment protect the interests of the public and such public utility and transmit the same to the proper committees of the Senate and House of Representatives. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 978, ch. 150, § 8, par. 5.)

§ 43–305 [26: 28]. Commission to ascertain cost of construction, replacement value, outstanding stock—Information to be printed in annual report.

The commission shall ascertain, as soon and as nearly as practicable, the amount of money expended in the construction and equipment of every public utility, including the amount of money expended to procure any right of way; also the amount of money it would require to secure the right of way, reconstruct any roadbed, track, depots, cars, conduits, subways, poles, wires, switchboards, exchanges, offices; works, storage plants, power plants, machinery, and any other property or instrument not included in the foregoing enumeration used in or useful to the business of such public utility, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the public utility. It shall ascertain the outstanding stock, bonds, debentures, and indebtedness, and the amount, respectively, thereof, the date when issued, to whom issued, to whom sold, the price paid in cash, property, or labor therefor, what disposition was made of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, so far as ascertainable, the amount purporting to be due thereon, the floating indebtedness of the public utility, the credits due the public utility, other property on hand belonging to it, the judicial or other sales of said public utility, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid, and in what manner paid therefor, and the taxes paid thereon. The commission shall also ascertain in detail the gross and net income of the public utility from all sources, the amounts paid for salaries to officers and the wages paid to its employees, and the maximum hours of continuous service required of each class. Whenever the information required by this section is obtained it shall be printed in the annual report of the commission. In making such investigation the commission may avail itself of any information in possession of any department of the government of the United States or of the commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 978, ch. 150, § 8, par. 6.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

VALUATION

Where consent decree fixed rate base, established a sliding scale of rates, and provided that if rates yielded more than a certain per cent return, one-half of excess should be used in reduction of future rates, and Public Utilities Commission, after full hearing on proper notice, directed electric company to file new lower rate schedules, the new rate order, which would allow fair return on fair valuation, was not invalid on ground that company had not consented thereto nor on ground that valuation requirements of this section had not been complied with. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 521, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1303, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1834).

§ 43–307 [26: 30]. Valuation—Notice and hearing—Statement of valuation to be filed.

Before final determination of such value the commission shall, after notice of not less than thirty days to the public utility, hold a public hearing as to such valuation in the manner hereinafter provided for a hearing, which provisions, so far as applicable, shall apply to such hearing. The commission shall, within ten days after such valuation is determined, serve a statement thereof upon the public utility interested, and shall file a like statement with the District Committees in Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 978, ch. 150, § 8, par. 8.)

§ 43–312 [26: 35]. Utilities to have office in the District of Columbia—Books and records of utilities not to be removed from the District of Columbia—Records may be kept at general office of utility.

Each public utility shall have an office within the District of Columbia in which it shall keep all such books, accounts, papers, and records as shall be required by the commission to be kept within the District of Columbia. No books, accounts, papers, or records required by the commission to be kept within the District of Columbia shall be at any time removed from the District of Columbia, except upon such condition as may be prescribed by the Commission: Provided, That public utilities operating in the District of Columbia and elsewhere who have their general or executive offices outside of the District, may continue to keep their books, accounts, records, and so forth, at their executive or general offices, such public utilities being required, however, to produce before the commission such books, accounts, records, and papers from time to time as the commission may order. § 43–315 [26: 38]. Depreciation account—Rates of depreciation—Application of depreciation fund.

Every public utility shall carry a proper and adequate depreciation account. The commission shall ascertain and determine what are the proper and adequate rates of depreciation of the several classes of property of each public utility. These rates shall be such as will provide the amounts required over and above the expense of maintenance to keep such property in a state of efficiency corresponding to the progress of the industry. Each public utility shall conform its depreciation accounts to such rates so ascertained and determined by the commission. The commission may make changes in such rates of depreciation from time to time as it may find to be necessary. The commission shall also prescribe rules, regulations, and forms of accounts regarding such depreciation which the public utility is required to carry into effect. The commission shall provide for such depreciation in fixing the rates, tolls, and charges to be paid by the public. All moneys in this fund may be expended in keeping the property of such public utility in repair and good and serviceable condition for the use to which it is devoted, or invested, and, if invested, the income from the investments shall also be carried in the depreciation fund. This fund and the proceeds thereof shall be used for no other purpose than as provided in this section, unless with the consent and by order of the commission. Nothing in chapters 1–10 of this title shall be taken to prohibit a public utility, with the consent of the commission, from providing a sliding scale of rates and dividends according to what is commonly known as the Boston sliding scale, or other financial device that may be practicable and advantageous to the parties interested. No such arrangement or device shall be lawful until it shall be found by the commission, after investigation, to be reasonable and just and not inconsistent with the purposes of chapters 1–10 of this title. Such arrangement shall be under the supervision and regulation of the commission. The commission shall ascertain, determine, and order such rates, charges, and regulations, and the duration thereof, as may be necessary to give effect to such arrangement, but the right and power to make such other and further changes in rates, charges, and regulations as the commission may ascertain and determine to be necessary and reasonable, and the right to alter or amend all orders relative thereto, is reserved and vested in the commission notwithstanding any such arrangement and mutual agreement. NOTES TO DECISIONS

DEPOSITS

Order of Public Utilities Commission which permits deposits in advance from those unable to establish financial responsibility was not discriminatory. Riegel v. Public Utilities Comm. (60 App. D. C. 111, 48 Fed. (2d) 1023).

EMERGENCY FLEET CORPORATION

The Emergency Fleet Corporation, although organized as a private corporation under District of Columbia laws, is entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the Post Roads Act of 1866 giving it special rates for telegraph service. United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corp. v. Western Union Tel. Co. (275 U. S. 415, 72 L. Ed. 345, 48 Sup. Ct. 198).

EMERGENCY PRICE CONTROL ACT

In determining whether power of Public Utility Commission of District of Columbia to regulate utility rates had been restricted by amendment to Emergency Price Control Act, 50 U. S. C. App., § 901 et seq. and § 961, the purpose of said act and amendment were required to be considered. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

On application of gas company to Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia for a rate increase in accordance with a sliding scale arrangement entered into in 1935, Commission should afford president's representatives the opportunity to intervene pursuant to amendment to Emergency Price Control Act, 50 U. S. C. App., § 901 et seq. and § 961 et seq., and grant them opportunity to fully test the inflationary trend, if any, which proposed increase in rates might portend. Byrnes v. Flanagan (D. C., D. C. 1943, 48 F. Supp. 703).

Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia could not proceed on application of gas company for a rate increase in accordance with a sliding scale arrangement entered into in 1935 alone, in face of amendment to Emergency Price Control Act, 50 U. S. C. App., § 901 et seq. and § 961 et seq., requiring public utilities seeking general increase in their rates which were in effect on September 15, 1942, to first give 30 days' notice to president, or such agency as he may designate, and consent to timely intervention by such agency before the federal, state or municipal authority having jurisdiction to consider such increase. Byrnes v. Flanagan (D. C., D. C. 1943, 48 F. Supp. 703).

§ 43–318 [26: 41]. Utilities to furnish accounts and reports—Information to be included.

Each public utility shall furnish to the commission in such form and at such times as the commission shall require, such accounts, reports, and information as shall show in itemized detail: Depreciation; salaries and wages; legal expenses; taxes and rentals; quantity and value of material used; receipts from residuals, by-products, services, or other sales; total and net costs; net and gross profits; dividends and interest; surplus or reserve; prices paid by consumers; and in addition such other items, whether of a nature similar to those hereinbefore enumerated or otherwise, as the commission may prescribe, in order to show completely and in detail the entire operation of the public utility in furnishing its product or service to the public. § 43–319 [26: 42]. Annual report of commission.

The commission shall publish annual reports showing its proceedings relating to all the public utilities of each kind in the District of Columbia, and such other occasional reports as it may deem advisable. The commission shall also publish in its annual reports the value of all property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public, of every public utility as to whose rates, charges, service, or regulations any hearing has been held by the commission or the value of whose property has been ascertained by it under the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 980, ch. 150, § 8, par. 20.)

§ 43–320 [26: 43]. Commission to fix adequate and serviceable standards—Regulations for testing products, service, and meters.

The commission shall ascertain and fix adequate and serviceable standards for the measurement of quality, pressure, initial voltage, or other condition pertaining to the supply of the product or service rendered by any public utility, and prescribe reasonable regulations for examining and testing such product or service and for the measurement thereof. It shall establish reasonable rules, regulations, specifications, and standards to secure the accuracy of all meters and appliances for measurements, and every public utility is required to carry into effect all orders issued by the commission relative thereto. The commission shall provide for the examination and testing of any and all appliances used for the measuring of any product or service of a public utility. Any consumer or user may have any such appliance tested upon payment of the fees fixed by the commission. The commission shall declare and establish reasonable fees to be paid for testing such appliances on the request of the consumers or users, the fee to be paid by the consumer or user at the time of his request, but to be paid by the public utility and repaid to the consumer or user if the appliance be found defective or incorrect to the disadvantage of the consumer or user. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 980, ch. 150, § 8, par. 22.)

§ 43–322 [26: 45]. Commission may purchase material and equipment for tests—Entry on premises of utilities for purpose of tests.

The commission may purchase such materials, apparatus, and standard measuring instruments for such examination and tests as it may deem necessary. The commission, its agents, experts, or examiners, shall have power to enter upon any premises occupied by any public utility for the purpose of making the examinations and tests provided for in chapters 1–10 of this title, and to set up and use on such premises any apparatus and appliances and occupy reasonable space therefor. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 23.)

Every public utility shall file with the commission, within a time to be fixed by the commission, schedules, which shall be open to public inspection, showing all rates, tolls, and charges which it has established and which are in force at the time for any service performed by it within the District of Columbia, or for any service in connection therewith or performed by any public utility controlled or operated by it. The rates, tolls, and charges shown on such schedules shall not exceed the rates, tolls, and charges allowed by law on March 4, 1913, and shall be the lawful rates, tolls, and charges within the District of Columbia, and shall remain and be in force until set aside by the commission. § 43–325 [26: 48]. Copy of rate schedule to be available for public inspection.

A copy of so much of said schedules as the commission shall deem necessary for the use of the public shall be printed in plain type and kept on file in every station and office of such public utility where payments are made by the consumers or users, open to the public, in such form and place as to be readily accessible to the public and so as to be conveniently inspected. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 26.)

§ 43–326 [26: 49]. Schedule of joint rates to be filed.

Where a schedule of joint rates or charges is, or may be, in force between two or more public utilities, such schedule shall in like manner be printed and filed with the commission, and so much thereof as the commission shall deem necessary for the use of the public shall be filed in every such station or office, as provided in section 43–325. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 27.)

§ 43–327 [26: 50]. Change in schedule—Notice.

No change shall be made in any schedule, including schedules of joint rates, except upon ten days' notice to the commission, and all such changes shall be plainly indicated upon existing schedules, or by filing new schedules in lieu thereof ten days prior to the time the same are to take effect: Provided, That the commission, upon application of any public utility, may prescribe a less time within which a reduction may be made. NOTES TO DECISIONS

Discretion of Commission

In public utility rate proceeding, Public Utility Commission's refusal of demand of intervening Price Administrator that thoroughgoing examination be made into rate base, rate of return, operating expenses, depreciation, and all other matters relative to establishment of fair return was not an abuse of discretion. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

Bus and street car transportation between points in the District of Columbia and points on the Virginia side of the Potomac River, which operations were performed within territorial limits of the District of Columbia municipal zone and involved intrastate transportation subject to regulation by the Commissions of Virginia and the District of Columbia, was not "interurban" but "urban transportation," and, as such, it was not within jurisdiction of Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate fares for such transportation. Capital Transit Co. v. U. S. (D. C., D. C. 1944, 55 F. Supp. 51).

Hearing, Sufficiency of Record showed that the Director of Economic Stabilization and the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration of the United States as interveners in a rate proceeding before the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia were offered every opportunity for a full hearing. Vinson v. Washington Gas Light Co., 1944 (64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883, affirming 137 F. 2d 547).

Power to Fix Rates

The power to fix public utility rates is a legislative power which has been delegated by Congress to Public Utility Commission of District of Columbia, and in its exercise, within constitutional limits, discretion of commission may not be controlled even by courts. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S.

730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, 50 U. S. C. App. § 901 et seq. and the Inflation Control Act of 1942, 50 U. S. C. App. § 961 et seq., did not limit powers conferred by law on regulatory commissions over utility rates nor prohibit such commissions from permitting any increase in utility rates which were not shown to be necessary to prevent actual hardship, nor endow a different federal agency with new and superior rights and powers over utility rates. Vinson v. Washington Gas Light Co., 1944 (64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883, affirming 137 F. 2d 547).

RECONSIDERATION AFTER INTERVENTION

Record showed that Director of Economic Stabilization and Administrator of the Office of Price Administration as interveners in a rate proceeding before the Public Utilities Commission in the District of Columbia requested the reconsideration of the basic principle of sliding scale arrangement and demanded the suspension of the sliding scale and re-examination of its basis in a complete investigation of all the elements that entered into the determination of a utility rate by a regulatory body and that such demands were properly denied. Vinson v. Washington Gas Light Co., 1944 (64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883, affirming 137 F. 2d 547).

§ 43–402 [26: 54]. Commission may adopt rules and regulations.

The commission shall have power to adopt reasonable and proper rules and regulations relative to all inspections, tests, audits, and investigations, and to adopt and publish reasonable and proper rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of public utilities and other parties before it. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 982, ch. 150, § 8, par. 32.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FEDERAL LAWS, SCOPE OF

The right conferred on Price Administrator to intervene in public utility rate proceeding does not include the power to compel the regulatory party to undertake a complete investigation against its better judgment or upon lines contrary to governing statute. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

INTERVENTION, EFFECT OF

The intervention of the Director of Economic Stabilization and Administrator of Office of Price Administration in rate proceeding before the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia was in subordination to Commission's standing rule that intervention should not change or enlarge the issues. Vinson v. Washington Gas Light Co., 1944 (64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883, affirming 137 F. 2d 547).

§ 43–403 [26: 55]. Commission to keep informed as to conduct of business—May obtain from utilities all necessary information.

The commission shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the business of all public utilities is conducted, and shall have the right to obtain from any public utility all necessary information to enable the commission to perform its duties. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 982, ch. 150, § 8, par. 33.)

§ 43–404 [26: 56]. Inspection of books and examination of officers of utilities.

The commission or any commissioner or any person or persons employed by the commission for that purpose shall, upon demand, have the right to inspect the books, accounts, papers, records, and memoranda of any public utility, and to examine, under oath, any officer, agent, or employee of such public utility in relation to its business and affairs. Any person other than one of said commissioners who shall make such demand shall produce his authority to make such inspection or examination. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 982, ch. 150, § 8, par. 34.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Similar provisions, § 43–314 et seq.

§ 43–405 [26: 57]. Production of records of utilities compellable by summons—Attendance of witnesses—Duties of district attorney and corporation counsel.

The commission may require, by order or subpœna, to be served upon any public utility in the same manner that a summons is served in a civil action in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, the production within the District of Columbia at such time and place as it may designate of any books, accounts, papers, or records kept by such public utility in any office or place without the District of Columbia, or verified copies in lieu thereof, if the commission shall so order, in order that an examination thereof may be made by the commission under its direction. Any public utility failing or refusing to comply with any order or subpœna shall for each day it shall so fail or refuse forfeit and pay to the District of Columbia the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action to be brought in the name of said District.

Attendance of witnesses and the production of such documentary evidence may be required from any place in the United States. And in case of disobedience to a subpœna the commission, or any party to a proceeding before the commission may invoke the aid of any court of the United States or the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents under the provisions of this section. And the said commission is hereby given power to call on any district attorney of the United States, the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any counsel of the commission to enforce the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title in the proper courts of the United States, and on such call it shall be the duty of the said district attorney, corporation counsel, or any counsel of the commission, upon request of said commission, to enforce the provisions of this section, the cost and expenses incurred to be paid out of the appropriations for the expenses of the courts of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 982, ch. 150, § 8, par. 35.)

§ 43–406 [26: 58]. Appointment of investigating agents—Powers.

For the purpose of making any investigation with regard to any public utility the commission shall have power to appoint, by an order in writing, an agent, whose duties shall be prescribed in such order. In the discharge of his duties such agent shall have every power whatsoever of an inquisitorial nature granted in chapters 1–10 of this title to the commission and shall have power to administer oaths and take depositions. The commission may conduct any number of such investigations contemporaneously through different agents, and may delegate to such agent or agents the taking of all testimony bearing upon any investigation or hearing. The decision of the commission shall be based upon its examination of all testimony and records. The recommendations made by such agents shall be advisory only, and shall not preclude the taking of further testimony, if the commission so order, nor further investigation. § 43–407 [26: 59]. Utilities to furnish information required by commission—Maps, books, reports to be delivered to commission on request.

Every public utility shall furnish to the commission all information required by it to carry into effect the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, and shall make specific answers to all specific questions submitted by the commission. Any public utility receiving from the commission any blanks with directions to fill the same shall cause the same to be properly filled out so as to answer, fully and correctly, each question therein propounded, and in case it is unable to answer any question it shall give a good and sufficient reason for such failure; and said answer shall be verified under oath by the president, secretary, superintendent, or general manager of such public utility, and returned to the commission at its office within the period fixed by the commission. Whenever required by the commission, every public utility shall deliver to the commission any or all maps, profiles, contracts, reports of engineers, and all documents, books, accounts, papers, and records, or copies of any or all of the same, with a complete inventory of all its property, in such form as the commission may direct. NOTES TO DECISIONS

The right conferred on Price Administrator to intervene in public utility rate proceeding does not include the power to compel the regulatory party to undertake a complete investigation against its better judgment or upon lines contrary to governing statute. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes (App. D. C. 1943, 137 F. 2d 547).

Legislative Intent

It is not contemplated that any resident of the District, feeling himself aggrieved, may rush into the courts without first submitting his case to the Public Utilities Commission, whose duty it is primarily to hear and adjust and, if possible, finally dispose of such complaints. Hollis v. Kutz (49 App. D. C. 301, 265 Fed. 451).

§ 43–409 [26: 61]. Commission to notify utility of complaints.

The commission shall prior to such formal hearing notify the public utility complained of that a complaint has been made, and ten days after such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time and place for a hearing and an investigation as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 39.)

§ 43–410 [26: 62]. Notice as to hearings—Compulsory attendance of witnesses.

The commission shall give the public utility and the complainant, if any, ten days' notice of the time and place when and where such hearing and investigation will be held and such matters considered and determined. Both the public utility and complainant shall be entitled to be heard and shall have process to enforce the attendance of witnesses. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 40.)

§ 43–411 [26: 63]. Reasonable rates may be ordered—Notice to be given utility affected thereby.

gation it shall be found that any regulation, time schedule, act, or service complained of is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory, or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this section, or if it is to be found that reasonable service is not supplied, the commission shall have power to determine and substitute therefor such other regulations, time schedules, service, or acts and to make such orders respecting and such changes in such regulations, time schedules, service, or acts as shall be just and reasonable. And upon any investigation for the purpose of determining upon and requiring any reasonable extension or extensions of lines or of service that shall promise to be compensatory within a reasonable time, the commission shall have power to fix, determine, and require every such extension or extensions to be made and the terms and conditions upon which the same shall be made: Provided, That no hearing shall be had and no order shall be made respecting such extension or extensions, without notice to the public utility affected thereby, as provided in section 43–410. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 41.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONALITY

The constitutional rights of private consumers of gas are not invaded by rates established by the Public Utilities Commission at a higher rate than is charged to the Government. Hollis v. Kutz (255 U. S. 452, 65 L. Ed. 727, 41 Sup. Ct. 371).

COST OF CAPITAL

In proceedings before Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia relating to fixing gas rates, question before Commission was what constitutes a reasonable allowance based on cost of common stock capital, and by "cost of capital" is meant interest charges and enough more to attract capital to the company and to maintain its credit. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (D. C., D. C. 1944, 55 F. Supp. 627).

DETERMINATION OF REASONABLENESS

Gas rates fixed by Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia, to be valid, must enable company to operate successfully, to maintain its financial integrity to attract capital, and to compensate its investors for risks assumed. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (D. C., D. C. 1944, 55 F. Supp. 627).

§ 43–412 [26: 65]. Expenses of investigation or revaluation to be borne by utility—Deposit for costs—Limitation of expenditures in rate and revaluation hearings.

The expenses of any investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding of any nature by the Public Utilities Commission of or concerning any public utility operating in the District of Columbia, and all expenses of any litigation, including appeals, arising from any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding, or from any order or action of the said commission, shall be borne by the public utility investigated, valued, revalued, or otherwise affected as a special franchise tax in addition to all other taxes imposed by law, and such expenses with interest at 6 per centum per annum may be charged to operating expenses and amortized over such period as the Public Utilities Commission shall deem proper and be allowed for in the rates to be charged by such utility. When any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or other proceeding is begun the said Public Utilities Commission may call upon the utility in question for the deposit of such reasonable sum or sums as in the opinion of said commission, it may deem necessary from time to time until the said proceeding or the litigation arising therefrom is completed, the money so paid to be deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the appropriation account known as "miscellaneous trust fund deposit, District of Columbia" and to be disbursed in the manner provided for by law for other expenditures of the government of the District of Columbia, for such purposes as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Any unexpended balance of such sum or sums so deposited shall be returned to the utility depositing the same: Provided, That the amount expended by the commission in any valuation or rate case shall not exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the existing valuation of the company investigated, and that the amount expended in all other investigations shall not exceed one-tenth of 1 per centum of the existing valuation for any one company for any one year. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 42; Mar. 3, 1927, 44 Stat. 1351, ch. 304; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 43–711 provides as follows: "If any provisions of §§ 43–412, 43–704 to 43–711 or the application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity of the remainder of said sections and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby."

AMENDMENTS

The act of Mar. 3, 1927, 44 Stat. 1351, ch. 304, added paragraph 42a.

The act of Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 3, struck out both paragraphs 42 and 42a and inserted in lieu thereof a new paragraph 42, reading as above.

The 1935 amendment added the following: "and all expenses of any litigation, including appeals, arising from any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding, or from any order or action of the said commission."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FRANCHISE TAX

The application of the rule of assessment provided for in this section does not impose an unconstitutional burden upon the utilities company.

PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

Later statute requiring utility to bear expenses of investigation or revaluation by Public Utilities Commission prevails over a previous statute which requires a utility to pay expenses only where utility is at fault. Washington R. & Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (64 App. D. C. 243, 77 Fed. (2d) 366).

§ 43–413 [26: 66]. Separate hearings on complaints—Complaints not to be dismissed because of absence of direct damage.

The commission may, in its discretion, when complaint is made of more than one rate or charge, order separate hearings thereon, and may consider and determine the several matters complained of separately and at such times as it may prescribe. No complaint shall of necessity at any time be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 43.)

§ 43–414 [26: 67]. Summary investigation.

Whenever the commission shall believe that any rate or charge may be unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, or that any reasonable service is not supplied, or that an investigation of any matter relating to any public utility should for any reason be made, it may, on its own motion, summarily investigate the same with or without notice. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 44.)

§ 43–415 [26: 68]. Hearings after summary investigation.

If after making such investigation the commission becomes satisfied that sufficient grounds exist to warrant a formal hearing being ordered as to the matters so investigated, it shall furnish such public utility interested a statement notifying the public utility of the matters under investigation. Ten days after such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time and place for a hearing and an investigation as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 45.)

§ 43–416 [26: 69]. Notice of hearing—Hearing to be conducted as though complaint had been filed.

Notice of the time and place for such hearing shall be given to the public utility and to such other interested persons as the commission shall deem necessary, as provided in section 43–410, and thereafter proceedings shall be had and conducted in reference to the matter investigated in like manner as though complaint had been filed with the commission relative to the matter investigated, and the same order or orders may be made in reference thereto as if such investigation had been made on complaint. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 46.)

§ 43–417 [26: 70]. Utility may make complaint.

Any public utility may make complaint as to any matter affecting its own product or service with like effect as though made by the commissioner or upon reasonable complaint as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 47.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43–418 [26: 71]. Commissioners and agents may administer oaths, issue subpœnas—Proceeding to punish for contempt.

Each of the commissioners and every agent provided for in section 43–406, for the purposes mentioned in chapters 1–10 of this title, shall have power to administer oaths, certify to official acts, issue subpœnas, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, records, documents, and testimony. In case of disobedience on the part of any person or persons to comply with any order of the commission or any commissioner, or any subpœna, or on the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be interrogated before the commission or its agent authorized, it shall be the duty of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or a judge thereof, on application of a commissioner, to compel obedience by attachment proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpœna issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 48.)

§ 43–419 [26: 72]. Witness fees.

Each witness who shall appear before the commission or its agent by its order shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided for witnesses in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia on March 4, 1913, which shall be audited and paid in the same manner as fees in criminal cases within the District of Columbia are audited and paid, upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witnesses and approved by the chairman of the commission. No witnesses subpœnaed at the instance of parties other than the commission shall be entitled to compensation for attendance or travel unless the commission shall certify that his testimony was material to the matter investigated, and that his attendance as a witness was reasonably necessary. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 49.)

§ 43–420 [26: 73]. Testimony may be taken by deposition.

The commission or any party may, in any investigation, cause the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the District of Columbia to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in District Courts. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 50.)

§ 43–421 [26: 74]. Record of proceedings to be kept—Testimony to be taken stenographically.

A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the commission or its agents on any formal investigation had, and all testimony shall be taken down by a stenographer appointed by the commission. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 51.)

§ 43–422 [26: 76]. Transcript of evidence or proceedings, certified by stenographer, to be received in evidence—Copy of transcript to be furnished without cost.

A transcribed copy of the evidence and proceedings, or any specific part thereof, in any investigation taken by a stenographer appointed by the commission, being certified by such stenographer to be a true and correct transcript of all the testimony in the investigation or of a particular witness, or of other specific part thereof, carefully compared by him with his original notes, and to be a correct statement of the evidence and proceedings had in such investigation so purporting to be taken and transcribed, shall be received in evidence with the same effect as if such reporter were present and testified to the fact so certified. A copy of such transcript shall be furnished on demand, free of cost, to any party to such investigation. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 53.)

Chapter 5.—SALE AND MERGER OF UTILITIES

Sec.
43–501. Assignment of franchise—Acquisition of stocks and bonds of competing utilities.
43–502. Antimerger law.
43–503. Merger of street railways permitted.

§ 43–501 [26: 77]. Assignment of franchise—Acquisition of stocks and bonds of competing utilities.

No franchise nor any right to or under any franchise to own or operate any public utility as defined in chapters 1–10 of this title or to use the tracks of any street railroad shall be assigned, transferred, or leased, nor shall any contract or agreement with reference to or affecting any such franchise or right be valid or of any force or effect whatsoever unless the assignment, transfer, lease, contract, or agreement shall have been approved by the commission in writing. The permission and approval of the commission to the assignment, transfer, or lease of a franchise under this section shall not be construed to revive or validate any lapsed or invalid franchise or to enlarge or add to the powers and privileges contained in the grant of any franchise or to waive any forfeiture. It shall be unlawful for any street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electric corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, or other public utility corporation, directly or indirectly, to acquire the stock or bonds of any other corporation incorporated for or engaged in the same or similar business as it is, unless authorized in writing to do so by the commission, and every contract, transfer, agreement for transfer or assignment of any such stock or bonds without such written authority shall be void and of no effect. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 54.)

PURCHASE OF OTHER COMPANIES

Under authority of this paragraph, the Washington Gas Light Company was granted permission by the Public Utilities Commission to purchase the stocks and bonds of various other gas-light companies. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Dann (63 App. D. C. 142, 70 Fed. (2d) 746).

§ 43–502 [26: 78]. Antimerger law.

It shall be unlawful for any foreign public utility corporation, or for any foreign or local holding corporation, or for any local street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electric corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, or any other local public utility corporation, directly or indirectly, to own, control, or hold or vote stock or bonds of any public utility corporation organized under any general incorporation law or special act of the United States or authorized under any law of the United States to do business in the District of Columbia, except as heretofore or hereafter expressly authorized by Congress; and it shall be unlawful for any public utility corporation organized or authorized as aforesaid to sell or transfer any portion of its stock or bonds to any other public utility corporation or holding corporation whatsoever, unless heretofore or hereafter expressly authorized by Congress so to do; and every contract, transfer, agreement to transfer, or assignment by any said public utility corporation organized or authorized as aforesaid of any portion of its stock or bonds without such authority shall be utterly void and of no effect. The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, on application of the District of Columbia by its commissioners or attorney, or on application of the United States by its proper officer, or on application of any shareholder interested in any such corporations, shall have jurisdiction in equity to dissolve any public utility corporation organized under any general incorporation law or special section of the United States, or authorized under any law of the United States to do business in the District of Columbia, for violation of any of the provisions of this section or of their charters; and further, to require any foreign public utility corporation, or foreign or local holding corporation which owns, holds, or controls, or which shall hereafter own, hold, or control any such stock or bonds contrary to any of the provisions of this section, to sell or dispose of the same and to refrain from voting such stock or bonds: Provided, That in case the allegations in any bill filed in said court relate to the ownership of stock or bonds of a local corporation by any foreign corporation, then it must be shown to the satisfaction of the court that such ownership includes at least twenty per centum of the capital stock of the local corporation.

The inhibitions and restrictions contained in this section are hereby removed, so far and only so far, as they affect the acquisition by any corporation of the stocks or bonds of any of the corporations referred to in section 43–503: Provided, Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this paragraph of this section.

The word "foreign" when used in this section shall be construed to mean foreign to the District of Columbia, and the word "local" when used in this section shall be construed to mean local in the District of Columbia.

Each provision of this section and every part of each provision is hereby declared to be an independent provision, and the holding of any provision or provisions, or part or parts thereof, to be void, ineffective, or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other provision or part thereof. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 1006, ch. 150, § 11; Mar. 4, 1925, 43 Stat. 1265, ch. 527, §§ 2, 3.)

AMENDMENT

Act of 1925 provides that the inhibitions and restrictions in this section are thereby removed so far, and only so far, as they affect the acquisition by any corporation of the stocks or bonds of any of the corporations approved by Public Utilities Commission. Congress also reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this act or any provision thereof.

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "section" in the second sentence of the first paragraph is undoubtedly a misprint for "Act."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE

In electric rate proceeding, an exhibit which allegedly contained information purporting to show that the holding companies owning common stock of the electric company involved were engaged in conspiracy to violate this section was properly excluded, since the Public Utilities Commission was justified in refusing to take into account the collateral issues posed by the tendered exhibit. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 533, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

§ 43–503 [26: 79]. Merger of street railways permitted.

Any or all of the street railway companies operating in the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to merge or consolidate, either by purchase or lease by one company of the properties, and/or stocks or securities of any of the others, or by the formation of a new corporation to acquire the properties and/or stocks or securities and to succeed to the powers and obligations of each or any of said companies under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by a vote of a majority in amount of the stock of the respective corporations and as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no merger of said companies shall be finally consummated until the same is approved by a joint resolution of Congress. Such new corporation shall be incorporated under the provisions of chapter 2 of title 29 of this Code, as far as applicable, with issues of stock at a stated par value and/or of no par value, as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this section or any provision thereof. (Mar. 4, 1925, 43 Stat. 1265, ch. 527, §§ 1, 3.)

STREETCAR MERGER

Paragraph "Second" of the preamble of the joint resolution to authorize merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, approved January 14, 1933, was amended to read as follows by act February 16, 1933, 47 Stat. 819, ch. 94, § 1:

"Second. The New Company shall be incorporated under the provisions of subchapter IV of chapter XVIII of the Code of Law of the District of Columbia and pursuant to an act of Congress entitled 'An Act to permit the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes', approved March 4, 1925, with power subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission to acquire, construct, own, and operate directly transit properties within the District of Columbia and either directly or through subsidiaries in adjacent States, including the power to acquire, own, and operate the properties to be conveyed to the New Company in accordance with this agreement, and to acquire and own the stock and/or bonds of said companies and of any other company or companies engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus in the District of Columbia and adjacent States with the power to mortgage its property rights, and franchises, and to conduct such other activities as may be useful or necessary in connection with or incident to the foregoing purposes, including the power to buy, sell, hold, own, and convey real estate within and without the District of Columbia. Said New Company when incorporated shall become and remain subject in all respects to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia or its successors to the extent of the jurisdiction now or hereafter vested in it or them by law over corporations engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus within the District of Columbia: Provided, That before they are recorded, the articles of incorporation and/or any amendments thereto shall be approved by the Public Utilities Commission."

"SEC. 2. That Congress hereby expressly reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this resolution."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

REMOVAL OF TRACKS

Commissioners of District of Columbia had the right to require the removal of tracks from streets where the Public Utilities Commission has lawfully ordered the abandonment of street railway service. Capital Transit Co. v. Hazen (68 App. D. C. 91, 93 Fed. (2d) 250).

Chapter 6.—GAS AND ELECTRIC CORPORATIONS

Sec.

43–601. Public Utilities Commission—General powers.
43–602. Approval of construction of gas or electric plant.
43–603. Inspectors of gas and electric meters—Inspection of meters—Commission to make rules and regulations.
43–604. Excessive charges to defeat suit to collect for gas or electricity furnished.
43–605. Appointment and removal of inspectors and assistant inspectors of gas and meters.
43–606. Inspector of gas and meters to transfer books to commission.

§ 43–601 [26: 80]. Public Utilities Commission—General powers.

The commission shall, within its jurisdiction—

Have general supervision of all gas corporations and electrical corporations having authority under any general or special law or under any charter or franchise to lay down, erect, or maintain wires, pipes, conduits, ducts, or other fixtures in, over, or under the streets, highways, and public places in the District of Columbia for the purpose of furnishing or distributing gas or of furnishing or transmitting electricity for light, heat, or power, or maintaining underground conduits or ducts for electrical conductors, and all gas plants and electric plants owned, leased, or operated by any corporation.

Investigate and ascertain, from time to time, the quality and quantity of gas supplied by persons or corporations; examine or investigate the methods employed by such persons and corporations in manufacturing, distributing, and supplying gas or electricity for light, heat, or power, and in transmitting the same, and have power to order such reasonable improvements as will reasonably promote the public interest, preserve the public health, and protect those using such gas or electricity and those employed in the manufacture and distribution thereof or in the manufacture and operation of the works, wires, poles, lines, conduits, ducts, and systems connected therewith, and have power to order reasonable improvements and extensions of the works, wires, poles, lines, conduits, ducts, and other reasonable devices, apparatus, and property of gas corporations and electrical corporations.

Have power by order to fix from time to time standards for determining the purity or the measurement of the illuminating power of gas to be manufactured, distributed, or sold by persons or corporations for lighting, heating, or power purposes, and to prescribe from time to time the efficiency of the electric supply system, of the current supplied, and of the lamps furnished by the persons or corporations generating and selling electric current, and by order to require the gas so manufactured, distributed, or sold to equal the standards so fixed by it, and to prescribe from time to time the reasonable minimum and maximum pressure at which gas shall be delivered by said persons or corporations. For the purpose of determining whether the gas manufactured, distributed, or sold by such persons or corporations for lighting, heating, or power purposes conforms to the standards of illuminating power, purity, and pressure, and for the purpose of determining whether the efficiency of the electric supply system, of the current supplied, and of the lamps furnished conforms to the orders issued by the commission, the commission shall have power, of its own motion, to examine and investigate the plants and methods employed in manufacturing, delivering, and supplying gas or electricity, and shall have access, through its members or persons employed and authorized by it to make such examinations and investigations, to all parts of the manufacturing plants owned, used, or operated for the manufacture, transmission, or distribution of gas or electricity by any such person or corporation. Any employee or agent of the commission who divulges any fact or information which may come to his knowledge during the course of any such inspection or examination, except in so far as he may be directed by the commission, or by a court or judge thereof, or authorized by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 986, ch. 150, § 8, par. 55.)

The commission shall appoint inspectors of gas meters, whose duty it shall be, when required by the commission, to inspect, examine, prove, and ascertain the accuracy of any and all gas meters used or intended to be used for measuring or ascertaining the quantity of gas for light, heat, or power furnished by any person or corporation to or for the use of any person or corporation, and when found to be or made to be correct, the inspector shall seal all such meters and each of them with some suitable device, which device shall be recorded in the office of the commission.

No corporation or person shall furnish, set, or put in use any gas meter which shall not have been inspected, proved, and sealed by an inspector of the commission.

The commission shall appoint inspectors of electric meters, whose duty it shall be, when required by the commission, to inspect, examine, and ascertain the accuracy of any and all electric meters used or intended to be used for measuring and ascertaining the quantity of electric current furnished for light, heat, or power by any person or corporation to or for the use of any person or corporation, and to inspect, examine, and ascertain the accuracy of all apparatus for testing and proving the accuracy of electric meters; and when found to be or made to be correct the inspector shall stamp or mark all such meters and apparatus with some suitable device, which device shall be recorded in the office of the commission. No corporation or person shall furnish, set, or put in use any electric meter the type of which shall not have been approved by the commission or any meter not approved by an inspector of the commission.

Every gas corporation and electrical corporation shall provide, repair, and maintain such suitable premises and apparatus and facilities as may be required and approved by the commission for testing and proving the accuracy of gas and electric meters furnished for use by it, and by which apparatus every meter may be tested.

If any consumer to whom a meter has been furnished shall request the commission in writing to inspect such meter, the commission shall have the same inspected and tested; if the same, on being so tested, shall be found to be more than two per centum defective or incorrect to the prejudice of the consumer, the inspector shall order the gas or electrical corporation forthwith to remove the same and to place instead a correct meter, and the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the corporation; if the same, on being so tested, shall be found to be correct, the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the consumer.

The commission shall prescribe such rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this section as it may deem necessary and shall fix uniform reasonable charges for the inspection and testing of meters upon complaint. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 987, ch. 150, § 8, par. 57; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 568, ch. 38.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "four per centum, if an electric meter, or more than" in the fifth paragraph following the word "than" the first time it appears; and deleted the words "if a gas meter" following the words "two per centum" where they appear in said paragraph.

The inspector shall give bond to the extent of double his annual salary, and shall take an oath or affirmation, before some officer legally qualified to administer the same, that he will faithfully, diligently, and impartially discharge the duties of his office. The appointment and power to remove the inspector of gas and meters and assistant inspectors of gas and meters from office is hereby vested in the commission. Chapter 7.—ORDERS AND COURT PROCEEDINGS

Sec.

43–701. Schedules to conform to orders of Commission—Changes in schedules to be first approved by Commission.
43–702. Commission may rescind, alter, or amend orders fixing rates.
43–703. Rates to be in force and to be prima facie reasonable.
43–704. Application to District Court for instructions—Application for reconsideration.
43–705. Appeal to District Court from certain orders—Precedence over other civil causes—Proceeding when additional evidence proper—Statement to accompany decision—Subsequent appeals—Commission not liable for costs or damages.
43–706. Appeal limited to questions of law.
43–707. Orders to remain in force pending appeal—Suspension of order.
43–708. Certification of question to United States Court of Appeals.
43–709. Authority of Commission to rescind its order after appeal is filed.
43–710. Method of review exclusive.
43–711. Saving clause.
43–712. Production of incriminating evidence compellable, immunity from prosecution.
43–713. Commission to furnish certified copies of orders.

§ 43–701 [26: 86]. Schedules to conform to orders of commission—Changes in schedules to be first approved by Commission.

All public utilities to which an order of the commission applies shall make such changes in their schedules on file as may be necessary to make the same conform to said order, and no change shall thereafter be made by any public utility in any such rates, tolls, or charges, or in any joint rate or rates, without the approval of the commission. Certified copies of all other orders of the commission shall be delivered to the public utility affected thereby in like manner, and the same shall take effect within such reasonable time thereafter as the commission shall prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 61.)

All rates, tolls, charges, time and condition of payment thereof, schedules, and joint rates fixed by the commission shall be in force and shall be prima facie reasonable until finally found otherwise in an action brought for that purpose. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 63.)

If at any time the commission shall be in doubt of the elements of value to be by them considered in arriving at the true valuation under the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, they are authorized and empowered to institute a proceeding in equity in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia petitioning said court to instruct them as to the element or elements of value to be by them considered as aforesaid, and the particular utility under valuation at the time shall be made party defendant in said action.

Any public utility or any other person or corporation affected by any final order or decision of the commission may, within thirty days after the publication thereof, file with the commission an application in writing requesting a reconsideration of the matters involved, and stating specifically the errors claimed as grounds for such reconsideration. No public utility or other person or corporation shall in any court urge or rely on any ground not so set forth in said application. The commission, within thirty days after the filing of such application, shall either grant or deny it. Failure by the commission to act upon such application within such period shall be deemed a denial thereof. If such application be granted, the commission, after giving notice thereof to all interested parties, shall, either with or without hearing, rescind, modify, or affirm its order or decision. The filing of such an application shall act as a stay upon the execution of the order or decision of the Commission until the final action of the Commission upon the application: Provided, That upon written consent of the utility such order or decision shall not be stayed unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. No appeal shall lie from any order of the Commission unless an application for reconsideration shall have been first made and determined. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 64; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 882, ch. 742, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The act of 1935 has completely reworded the provisions of this section for a reconsideration of a final order of the Commission, and omitted reference to precedence over other civil causes, and to liability for costs.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AGREEMENT NOT TO RESELL PRODUCT

Utility may require agreement from user not to remeter and resell current. Lewis v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (62 App. D. C. 63, 64 Fed. (2d) 701).

COMPLAINT AND HEARING

A formal complaint and hearing before the Commission are not necessary conditions precedent to a suit in equity. Hollis v. Kutz (255 U. S. 452, 65 L. Ed. 727, 41 Sup. Ct. 371, affg. 49 App. D. C. 301, 265 Fed. 451).

COSTS ON APPEAL

Appeal taken by the Public Utilities Commission from the order of the District Court of the United States for the District in a rate case was an administrative proceeding and the costs of printing the record and the brief of the Commission upon the appeal were expenses of the proceeding, although the appeal wherein these expenses were incurred was dismissed as a result of changed conditions. Washington R. & Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (64 App. D. C. 243, 77 Fed. (2d) 366).

LEGISLATIVE INTENT

Congress intended that the court shall revise the legislative discretion of the Commission by considering the evidence and full record of the case and entering the order it deems the Commission ought to have made. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

§ 43–705 [26: 89a]. Appeal to District Court from certain orders—Precedence over other civil causes—Proceeding when additional evidence proper—Statement to accompany decision—Subsequent appeals—Commission not liable for costs or damages.

The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any appeal from an order or decision of the Commission. Any public utility or any other person or corporation affected by any final order or decision of the Commission, other than an order fixing or determining the value of the property of a public utility in a proceeding solely for that purpose, may, within sixty days after final action by the Commission upon the petition for reconsideration, file with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia a petition of appeal setting forth the reasons for such appeal and the relief sought; at the same time such appellant shall file with the Commission notice in writing of the appeal together with a copy of the petition. Within twenty days of the receipt of such notice of appeal the Commission shall file with the clerk of the said court the record, including a transcript of all proceedings had and testimony taken before the Commission, duly certified, upon which the said order or decision of the Commission was based, together with a statement of its findings of fact and conclusions upon the said record, and a copy of the application for reconsideration and the orders entered thereon: Provided, That the parties, with the consent and approval of the Commission, may stipulate in writing that only certain portions of the record be transcribed and transmitted. Within this period the Commission or any other interested party shall answer, demur, or otherwise move or plead. Thereupon the appeal shall be at issue and ready for hearing. All such proceedings shall have precedence over any civil cause of a different nature pending in said court, and the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall always be deemed open for the hearing thereof. Any such appeal shall be heard upon the record before the Commission, and no new or additional evidence shall be received by the said court. The said court, or any justice or justices thereof, before whom any such appeal shall be heard, may require and direct the Commission to receive additional evidence upon any subject related to the issues on said appeal concerning which evidence was improperly excluded in the hearing before the Commission or upon which the record may contain no substantial evidence. Upon receipt of such requirement and direction the Commission shall receive such evidence and without unreasonable delay shall transmit to the said court the findings of fact made thereon by the Commission and the conclusions of the Commission upon the said facts.

Upon the conclusion of its hearing of any such appeal the court shall either dismiss the said appeal and affirm the order or decision of the Commission or sustain the appeal and vacate the Commission's order or decision. In either event the court shall accompany its order by a statement of its reasons for its action, and in the case of the vacation of an order or decision of the Commission the statement shall relate the particulars in and the extent to which such order or decision was defective.

Any party, including said Commission, may appeal from the order or decree of said court to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, which shall thereupon have and take jurisdiction in every such appeal. Thereafter the Supreme Court of the United States may, upon a petition for certiorari granted in its discretion, review the said case.

Said Commission shall not, nor shall any of its members, officers, agents, or employees, be taxed with any costs, nor shall they or any of them be required to give any supersedeas bond or security for costs or damages on any appeal whatsoever. Said Commission, or any of its members, officers, agents, or employees, shall not be liable to suit or action or for any judgment or decree for any damages, loss, or injury claimed by any public utility or person, nor required in any case to make any deposit for costs or pay for any service to the clerks of any court or to the marshal of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 65; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 882, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

This section was substituted by the 1935 act for paragraph 65 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided as follows: "That every proceeding, action, or suit to set aside, vacate, or amend any determination or order of the Commission, or to enjoin the enforcement thereof, or to prevent in any way any such order or determination from becoming effective shall be commenced, and every appeal to the courts or right of recourse to the courts shall be taken or exercised, within one hundred and twenty [120] days after the entry or rendition of such order or determination, and the right to commence any such action, proceeding, or suit, or to take or exercise any such appeal or right of recourse to the courts, shall terminate absolutely at the end of such one hundred and twenty days."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

"AFFECTED", DEFINITION

The word "affected", as used in this section was chosen by Congress to expand the privilege of complaint and appeal beyond that contemplated by words it used in other statutes, and beyond the conventional tests used in equity suits seeking restraint of governmental action. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1945, 151 F. 2d 609, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 227, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

DECISION UNDER PRIOR LAW

Though the burden of proof was upon the party contesting a finding of the Commission, the court must exercise its own judgment where challenged for a mistake of law, failure of evidence or contrary to weight of evidence. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Public Utilities Comm. (51 App. D. C. 77, 276 Fed. 327).

EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT FINDINGS

Where Public Utilities Commission's witness found that investors' appraisal of return required on common stock capital of gas company was 11.68 percent, and company's witnesses fixed it at 10.98 percent, both exclusive of cost of financing, and earnings-price ratio of companies involved to which Commission's witness testified was 10.54 percent, Commission's action in substituting 9 percent as a reasonable allowance in fixing rates and in amending sliding scale order so as to reduce primary rate of return from 6½ percent to 5¾ percent, was void, as not supported by substantial evidence. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (D. C., D. C. 1944, 55 F. Supp. 627).

FINAL AND CONCLUSIVE ORDERS

Where each year during which sliding scale arrangement under consent decree had been in effect, electric rates were fixed by an order of Public Utilities Commission, the annual orders became final and conclusive when no person affected thereby availed himself of right of appeal under this section, and therefore the rates so fixed became the legal rates for the periods during which they were to endure, and neither the United States, as a consumer, nor any other party affected thereby could brand them as illegal. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 533, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

FINDINGS OF COMMISSION

Findings of administrative agency such as Public Utility Commission of District of Columbia, where there is evidence to support them, may not be set aside by court. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

A mere general opinion of Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia in relation to gas rates, unsupported by findings of fact based on substantial evidence is ineffective. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (D. C., D. C. 1944, 55 F. Supp. 627).

JURISDICTION OF COURTS

Congress may vest in the courts of the District power to review the discretion of a Public Utilities Commission fixing rates for a public service corporation, and enter the order which they deem the commission should have made. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

NATURE OF APPEAL

The right of appeal from order of public service commission is statutory in character, and extent of the right in each case depends upon meaning of language used in the statute, and not upon ordinary requirements of injunction suits. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1945, 151 F. 2d 609, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 227, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

PERSONS AFFECTED

The term "person affected", as used in this section includes a consumer of a public utility company. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App.

D. C. 1945, 151 F. 2d 609, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 227, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

The United States, as a customer of public utility company, had standing as a "person affected" to prosecute its petition of appeal in the District Court from an order of Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia determining rates which the company could charge for sale of electric energy in District of Columbia. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1945, 151 F. 2d 609, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 227, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

RECORD OF CASE

Order of District Court vacating Public Utility Commission's order granting utility a rate increase could not be reversed on theory that district judge did not have before him record of case before commission where material parts of record were brought to attention of district judge at time of hearing and before his decision was rendered. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Byrnes, 1943 (137 F. 2d 547, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 107, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 191, 320 U. S. 730, 88 L. Ed. 431, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 731, 321 U. S. 489, 88 L. Ed. 883).

VALIDITY

A section of the statute providing for review is not rendered wholly void by the inclusion in it of an invalid provision for ultimate appeal to the Supreme Court. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

§ 43–706 [26: 89b]. Appeal limited to questions of law.

In the determination of any appeal from an order or decision of the Commission the review by the court shall be limited to questions of law, including constitutional questions; and the findings of fact by the Commission shall be conclusive unless it shall appear that such findings of the Commission are unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 66; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 883, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1935 amendment inserted the above section in lieu of paragraph 66 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided as follows: "That no injunction shall issue suspending or staying any order of the commission, except upon application to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or a judge thereof, and only upon notice to the commission and after hearing had."

§ 43–707 [26: 89c]. Orders to remain in force pending appeal—Suspension of order.

All orders and decisions of the Commission shall remain in full effect, except as provided in section 43–704 hereof, unless and until they are suspended, superseded, or rescinded by the Commission or are vacated by lawful order of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia: Provided, That if in any petition made to the said court appealing from an order or decision of the Commission it be alleged that substantial and irreparable property loss would be occasioned to the petitioner by the operation of the said order pending the determination of the said appeal, the court shall set a time and place for hearing upon the said allegation after not less than three days' notice to the Commission (during which period the execution of the order or decision shall be stayed), and the said court may then, upon a clear showing of the irreparable and substantial property loss as alleged, suspend the effective date of the said order. No such suspension shall be for a greater period than sixty days without further order after notice or hearing by the court. In the event of the issuance of an order suspending the operation of any order of the Commission, the court may include therein such provision as it deems advisable for the preservation of records or accounts and the impounding or otherwise securing of moneys necessary to give effect to the order of the Commission in the event the said order is sustained. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 67; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1935 amendment substituted the above section for paragraph 67 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided the procedure formerly followed upon introduction of new evidence.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ERROR OF LAW

High profits of electric company and alleged fact that Public Utilities Commission had not been as vigilant as it might have been in driving down the company's rates did not establish an error of law requiring judicial remedy and did not justify retrospectively holding invalid rate schedules authorized by the Commission over a course of many years. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 533, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

The earnings, in percentages, are meaningful only when they are related to electric company's total capital structure which presents a task for the Public Utilities Commission, and federal appellate court should not impose its judgment to effect that earnings were unlawful unless it is clearly shown that the rates which gave rise to the earnings were invalid because they woefully neglected the interests of consumers. U. S. v. Public Utilities Commission of District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 533, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 1305, 331 U. S. 816, 91 L. Ed. 1835).

§ 43–708 [26: 89d]. Certification of question to United States Court of Appeals.

The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any justice thereof before whom an appeal from an order of the Commission is pending, may certify to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia any questions or propositions of law concerning which instructions are desired for the proper disposition of the appeal; and thereupon the Court of Appeals may either give binding instructions on the questions and propositions certified or may require that the entire record in the cause be sent up for its consideration, and thereupon shall decide the whole matter in controversy in the same manner as if it had been brought there by writ of error or appeal. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 68; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1913 act substituted the above section for paragraph 68 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided procedure formerly followed when the Commission rescinded, altered, modified, or amended its order.

§ 43–709 [26: 89e]. Authority of Commission to rescind its order after appeal is filed.

The Commission may at any time, rescind, alter, modify, or amend its order. If, after appeal is filed, the Commission shall rescind the order or decision appealed from, the appeal shall be dismissed; if it shall alter, modify, or amend the same, such altered, modified, or amended order or decision shall take the place of the original order and the court shall proceed thereon as though the late order had been made by the Commission in the first instance. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 69; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, §2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1913 act substituted the above section for paragraph 69 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which fixed the burden of proof on the party adverse to the Commission.

§ 43–710 [26: 89f]. Method of review exclusive.

The method of review of the orders and decisions of the Commission provided by paragraphs 43–704 to 43–709, herein, shall be exclusive. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 150, § 8, par. 69a, as added Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

§ 43–711 [26: 89g]. Saving clause.

If any provisions of sections 43–412, 43–704 to 43–711 or the application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity of the remainder of said sections and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 885, ch. 742, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 5 of the act of 1935 provided as follows:

"No proceeding or litigation, except a proceeding involving solely the valuation of the property of any public utility, pending in any court in the District of Columbia on August 27, 1935, shall be affected by any of the provisions hereof."

Sec.
43–901. Penalty for false statements in securing approval of issuance of stock.
43–902. Penalty for demanding or receiving greater or less than established rates.
43–903. Less than rates not to be charged in consideration of consumer furnishing equipment—Exceptions.
43–904. Rebates prohibited—Penalty.
43–905. Penalties for failing or refusing to furnish information, for furnishing false information, for failing to keep proper accounts.
43–906. Penalty for failure or refusal to perform duty enjoined or to obey order of commission.
43–907. Prosecution and penalty for violation of rules.
43–908. Construction of sections 43–906 and 43–907.
43–909. Penalty for destruction of apparatus or appliance of commission.
43–910. Each day's default to constitute separate and distinct offense.
43–911. Commission may regulate unreasonable and discriminatory rates and fix new rates.
43–912. Fines, penalties, and forfeitures to be paid into Treasury.
43–913. Saving clause—Rights, penalties, and forfeitures under laws and regulations continued—Penalties and forfeitures cumulative.

§ 43–901 [26: 105]. Penalty for false statements in securing approval of issuance of stock.

Each and every director, president, secretary, or other official of any such public utility who shall make any false statement to secure the issue of any stock, certificate of stock, bond, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness, or who shall, by false statement knowingly made, procure of the commission the making of the certificate herein provided, or issue, with knowledge of such fraud, negotiate, or cause to be negotiated, any such stock, certificate of stock, bond, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness in violation of chapters 1–10 of this title, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 80.)

If any public utility or any agent or officer thereof shall, directly or indirectly, by any device whatsoever, or otherwise, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person, firm, or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it in or affecting or relating to the conduct of a street railroad or street railroad corporation, common carrier, gas plant, gas corporation, electric plant, electric corporation, water power company, telephone line, telephone corporation, telegraph line, or telegraph corporation, or pipe line company, or to the production, transmission, delivery, or furnishing of heat, light, water, or power, or the conveyance of telephone or telegraph messages, or for any service in connection therewith than that prescribed in the public schedules or tariffs then in force or established as provided herein, or than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any other person, firm, or corporation other than one conducting a like business for a like and contemporaneous service, such public utility shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be a misdemeanor and unlawful, and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay to the District of Columbia not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for each offense; and such agent or officer so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each offense. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 81.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CASH DEPOSIT

Utility may require cash deposit from customers unable to establish financial responsibility. Riegel v. Public Utilities Comm. (60 App. D. C. 111, 48 Fed. (2d) 1023).

§ 43–903 [26: 107]. Less than established rates not to be charged in consideration of consumer furnishing equipment—Exceptions.

It shall be unlawful for any public utility to demand, charge, collect, or receive from any person, firm, or corporation less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by said public utility in consideration of the furnishing by said person, firm, or corporation of any part of the facilities incident thereto: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any public utility from renting any facilities incident to the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, water, or power, or the supply of any liquid, steam, or air, through pipes or tubing, or the conveyance of telegraph or telephone messages, and paying a reasonable rental therefor; or as requiring any public utility to furnish any part of such appliances which are situated in and upon the premises of any consumer or user, except telephone station equipment upon the subscriber's premises, and, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, meters, and appliances for measurements of any product or service. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 82.)

§ 43–904 [26: 108]. Rebates prohibited—Penalty.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to solicit, accept, or receive any rebate, concession, or discrimination in respect to any service in or affecting or relating to any public utility or the production, transmission, delivery, or furnishing of heat, light, water, or power, or any liquid, steam, or air, or the conveying of telegraph or telephone messages within the District of Columbia, or for any service in connection therewith whereby any such service shall, by any device whatsoever or otherwise, be rendered free or at a less rate than that named in the schedules and tariffs in force as provided in this section, or whereby any service or advantage is received other than is in this section specified. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000 for each offense. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 83.)

§ 43–905 [26: 109]. Penalties for failing or refusing to furnish information, for furnishing false information, for failing to keep proper accounts.

Any officer, agent, or employee of any public utility who shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks, as required by chapters 1–10 of this title, or shall fail or refuse to answer any question therein propounded, or shall knowingly or wilfully give a false answer to any such question, or shall evade the answer to any such question where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or who shall, upon proper demand, fail or refuse to exhibit to the commission or any commissioner or any person authorized to examine the same, any book, paper, account, record, or memoranda of such public utility which is in his possession or under his control, or who shall fail to properly use and keep his system of accounting, or any part thereof, as prescribed by the commission under chapters 1–10 of this title, or who shall refuse to do any act or thing in connection with such system of accounting when so directed by the commission or its authorized representative shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000 for each offense, and a penalty of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000 shall, on conviction, be imposed on the public utility for each such offense when such officer, agent, or employee acted in obedience to the direction, construction, or request of such public utility or any general officer thereof. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 84.)

§ 43–906 [26: 110]. Penalty for failure or refusal to perform duty enjoined or to obey order of commission.

If any public utility shall violate any provision of chapters 1–10 of this title, or shall do any act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided, or shall fail, neglect, or refuse to obey any lawful requirement or order made by the commission, or any judgment or decree made by any court upon its application, for every such violation, failure, or refusal such public utility shall forfeit and pay to the District of Columbia the sum of $200 for each such offense. In construing and enforcing the provisions of this section, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any public utility acting within the scope of his employment and instructions shall in every case be deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such public utility. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 85.)

Chapter 10.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

43–1001. Utilities to report to Commission accidents upon their premises—Commission may investigate.
43–1002. Commission to inquire into neglect or violation of law and have power to enforce all laws affecting utilities.
43–1003. Chapters to be liberally construed—Saving clause.
43–1004. Number of directors of public utilities.
43–1005. Existing laws to remain in force.
43–1006. Action pending March 4, 1913, unaffected by chapters 1–10 of this title.
43–1007. Right of repeal reserved.

§ 43–1001 [26: 114]. Utilities to report to Commission accidents upon their premises—Commission may investigate.

Every public utility shall, whenever an accident attended with loss of human life or personal injury without loss of human life occurs within the District of Columbia, upon its premises, or directly or indirectly arising from or connected with its maintenance or operation, give immediate notice thereof to the commission. In the event of any such accident, the commission, if it deem the public interest requires it, shall cause an investigation to be made forthwith. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 89.)

The commission shall inquire into any neglect or violation of the laws or regulations in force in the District of Columbia by any public utility doing business therein, or by the officers, agents, or employees thereof, or by any person operating the plant of any public utility, and shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to enforce the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title as well as all other laws relating to public utilities. § 43–1003 [26: 118]. Chapters to be liberally construed—Saving clause.

The provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title shall be interpreted and construed liberally in order to accomplish the purposes thereof, and where any specific power or authority is given the commission by the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title the enumeration thereof shall not be held to exclude or impair any power or authority otherwise in chapters 1–10 of this title conferred on said commission. The commission hereby created shall have, in addition to the powers in chapters 1–10 of this title specified, mentioned, and indicated all additional, implied, and incidental power which may be proper and necessary to effect and carry out, perform, and execute all the said powers herein specified, mentioned, and indicated. A substantial compliance with the requirements of chapters 1–10 of this title shall be sufficient to give effect to all the rules, orders, acts, and regulations of the commission, and they shall not be declared inoperative, illegal, or void for any omission of a technical nature in respect thereto. That each section of chapters 1–10 of this title, and every part of each section, are hereby declared to be independent sections and the holding of any section or sections or part or parts thereof to be void, ineffective, or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other section or part thereof. § 43–1004 [26: 131]. Number of directors of public utilities.

The Board of Directors of every public utility shall consist of not more than fifteen nor less than seven members, within which limitation the membership may be in any case increased or diminished, as the stockholders may from time to time determine. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 996, ch. 150, § 8, par. 100.)

§ 43–1005 [26: 132]. Existing laws to remain in force.

Except as modified or changed by chapters 1–10 of this title and until modified or changed under its provisions, all charters, statutes, laws, ordinances, and regulations in force on March 4, 1913, shall remain and continue to be in full force and effect until altered, amended, or repealed according to law: Provided, That all charters, statutes, acts, and parts of acts, laws, ordinances, and regulations enacted prior to March 4, 1913, inconsistent and repugnant to the provisions of chapters 1–10 of this title, and only so far as inconsistent and repugnant thereto, are hereby repealed. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 996, ch. 150, § 8, par. 101.)

§ 43–1101 [26: 172]. Extension of overhead wires in Georgetown—Extension of underground conduits in Mount Pleasant.

The said commissioners may authorize any electric light company existing June 11, 1896, to construct and use under such regulations as the commissioners may fix conduits for the reception of overhead wires existing on said date within the territory formerly known as Georgetown, and to extend the same by an aggregate of not more than one and one-fourth miles of conduit in the same territory. And the United States Electric Lighting Company may extend its underground conduits and wires east of Rock Creek and within the fire limits to Mount Pleasant, and Washington and Columbia Heights under such regulations as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may prescribe. § 43–1103 [26: 174]. Certain existing conduits and overhead wires legalized.

All conduits existing on July 7, 1898, within the fire limits, and all overhead electric light wires existing on July 7, 1898, without the fire limits in the District of Columbia are hereby legalized until otherwise provided by law, and house connections may be made with such overhead electric light wires outside such fire limits. (July 7, 1898, 30 Stat. 664, ch. 571.)

§ 43–1104 [26: 175]. Electric-lighting wires west of Rock Creek.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to issue permits to electric light companies existing on July 8, 1898, in the District of Columbia for the extension of overhead electric wires existing on July 8, 1898, outside the fire limits and west of Rock Creek to be used for lighting purposes only. (July 8, 1898, 30 Stat. 753, Joint Res. No. 59.)

§ 43–1105 [26: 176]. Electric-lighting wires east of Rock Creek.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized, under conditions and regulations to be prescribed by them, to permit the erection of poles and the stringing of overhead wires thereon outside of the fire limits and east of Rock Creek for electric-lighting purposes only. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 602, ch. 1352.)

§ 43–1106 [26: 177]. Permits for repair, extension, and enlargement of conduits.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to grant permits for the repair, enlargement, and extension, under proper regulations, of electric-lighting conduits existing on June 6, 1900, and in every conduit constructed or to be constructed under the provisions of this section, three ducts shall be reserved for the use of the United States and the District of Columbia. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 563, ch. 789.)

§ 43–1107 [26: 194]. Extension of conduits—Ducts for use of fire and police wires—Maximum price of current—Additional charge for nonpayment of bills.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to grant permits for the repair, enlargement, and extension, under proper regulations, of electric-lighting conduits existing on March 3, 1899, and in every conduit constructed or to be constructed under the provisions of this section, three ducts shall be reserved for the use of the United States and the District of Columbia. As a condition for the right to use conduits built prior to March 3, 1899, or built or to be built under the provisions of this section, the electric lighting companies shall be required at all times to furnish to the public and to private consumers in all parts of the District of Columbia standard arc lights of not less than one thousand actual candlepower, at a rate not exceeding seventy-two dollars per annum for each arc light. The maximum price of electric current sold or furnished to any consumer in the District of Columbia shall not exceed ten cents per kilowatt hour. If consumers other than the Government shall not pay monthly electric bills within ten days after the same shall have been presented, said companies may charge and collect from said consumer so failing to pay said bill as aforesaid eleven cents per kilowatt hour for the electric current furnished to said consumer during said month: And provided further, The right to amend, modify, or repeal the privileges granted in this section, and to further limit the prices herein specified, is hereby expressly reserved; any company charging or collecting an amount in excess of the rates prescribed in this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay to the District of Columbia the sum of fifty dollars for each and every offense, to be collected as other fines are collected in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1053, ch. 422.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital was changed to Director of National Parks, Buildings and Reservations by Ex. Or. No. 6166, June 10, 1933. This in turn was changed to Director of National Park Service by act of March 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1.

The following laws are not of general application and are deemed to be executed, but are set out as notes so as to make them available. They appeared in the Code of 1929 and Supplement. Sections 124 to 130V were in title 19, of the 1929 code. Sections 107, 107a, 107b and 107c were in title 20 of that code. They are set out as they appeared in that code, retaining the section number and wording.

§ 124. Certain conduits across E and F Streets, southwest, authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to issue a permit to the Terminal Refrigerating and Warehousing Corporation, its successors or assigns, for the laying of an underground conduit and pipes from square 328 across and under E Street southwest, to and into square 327; and traversing all public alleys in said square, and from square 328 across and under F Street southwest, to and into square 329, for refrigerating purposes, under the following conditions, namely: The conduit and pipes therein laid shall be laid in a straight direction at right angles to the building lines of said streets; they shall be located as directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and be laid under their inspection and the cost of such inspection and the replacing of pavements, curbs, and sidewalks disturbed shall be paid by the parties to whom the permit shall be granted: Provided, That such conduit and pipes shall be used for no purpose other than refrigeration. Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal this section. (Feb. 28, 1931, 46 Stat. 1459, ch. 344.)

§ 125. Pipe lines for use of Griffith-Consumers Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Griffith-Consumers Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, the owner of square 661 in the city of Washington in the District of Columbia, said square being bounded on the north by R Street, on the south by S Street, on the east by Half Street, and on the west by First Street, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use not more than ten pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from a point or points within said square 661, in and through R Street, due east to Half Street, east, and thence north on Half Street, east, to a point opposite lots 12 or 13 in square east of square 708 (through which said lots the said Griffith-Consumers Company on April 14, 1932, had an easement to run said pipe lines), thence through said lots or any other lots in said square east of square 708 which may be acquired by the said Griffith-Consumers Company or through which it may secure an easement, and to the pierhead line of the Anacostia River. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 1.)

§ 126. Same; regulation and rentals.—All the construction and use provided for in section 125 of this title shall be under such regulations and rentals as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may make and establish in connection therewith. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 2.)

§ 127. Same; title of United States not affected.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 125, 126 of this title shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned streets or affect any right, title, or interest of the United States in or to land within square east of square 708. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 3.)

§ 128. Same; right of repeal reserved.—The Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal sections 125–127 of this title at any time. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 4.)

§ 129. Pipe lines for use of Gulf Refining Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Gulf Refining Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Texas and registered and doing business in the District of Columbia, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use not more than ten pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from a point or points within square 662 in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, said square being bounded on the north by R Street, on the south by S Street, on the east by Water Street and South Capitol Street, and on the west by Half Street (west), in and through Water Street, South Capitol Street, in an easterly direction to lot 4 of square south of square 708, which lot is bounded on the north by lands of the Standard Oil Company, on the south by S Street, extended, on the east by Anacostia River, and on the west by South Capitol Street. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 1.)

§ 130. Same; regulation and rental.—All the construction and use provided for in section 129 of this title shall be in accordance with plans approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and under such regulations and rentals as the said commissioners may make and establish in connection herewith. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 2.)

§ 130a. Same; title of United States not affected.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 129 and 130 of this title shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned streets, or affect any right, title, or interest of the United States in or to land within square south of square 708. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 3.)

§ 130b. Same; right of repeal reserved.—The Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 129–130a of this title at any time. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 4.)

§ 130c. Closing of portion of U Street, southwest, authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to close, upon the recommendation of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, that portion of U Street southwest, lying between First Street and Half Street southwest, as may be rendered useless or unnecessary by reason of the construction of an electric light and power plant on squares 665 and 667 adjoining said street: Provided, That the said Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall sell to the abutting property owners the land contained within the portion of said street to be closed for cash at a price not less than the assessed value of contiguous lots, and the money received therefrom paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, and that such lands shall thereafter be assessed on the books of the assessor of the District of Columbia the same in all respects as other private properties in the District. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 318, ch. 265, § 1.)

§ 130d. Closing of portion of Water Street authorized; construction and operation of pipe lines, etc., to Anacostia River.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to close, upon the recommendation of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, that portion of Water Street between U and V Streets southwest; and said commissioners are hereby authorized to give title to the owners of square 667 abutting on Water Street that portion of Water Street so closed lying west of the direct southerly projection of the west line of Half Street as existing on June 15, 1932, north of U Street southwest, upon notification from the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital of the receipt from all claimants in absolute quitclaim deeds to the United States of all lands in square east of 667, east of the direct southerly projection of the west line of Half Street, as existing on June 15, 1932, north of U Street southwest, and such other land as may be acquired by the owners of square 667 in square east of south of 667, subject to the right of said owners to construct and operate any pipe lines and intake and discharge tunnels in or under the same to the Anacostia River, and provided that all of said lands deeded to private owners by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia under this section shall thereafter be assessed on the books of the assessor of the District of Columbia the same in all respects as other private properties in the District of Columbia. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 318, ch. 265, § 2.)

§ 130e. Pipe lines, etc., under streets south of T Street and east of Second Street, southwest.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to grant any and all permits for the construction and operation of any pipe lines and intake and discharge tunnels in or under the public streets, roads, and highways south of T Street southwest and east of Second Street southwest to the Anacostia River as may become necessary in the construction, installation, and operation of any electric lighting and power plant, provided the same will not interfere with the development of other property located within this area. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 319, ch. 265, § 3.)

§ 130g. Pipe lines for use of Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to issue a permit to Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain, repair, renew, and use not more than four underground pipe lines from the parcel of real estate owned by The Philadelphia,

Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, and leased or to be leased to and occupied by Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company on the northerly side of New York Avenue Northeast, to the parcel of real estate owned by said Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company, in square 4038, parcel 142/25, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, across and under New York Avenue Northeast, under the following conditions, namely: Said pipe lines shall be laid, constructed, and located as directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and under their inspection and the cost of such inspection, and of replacing pavements, curbs, and sidewalks disturbed, shall be paid by the party or parties to whom said permit shall be granted: Provided, That said pipe lines shall be used for the purpose of transporting petroleum and petroleum products, and for no other purpose whatsoever. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 1.)

§ 130i. Same; permission not to affect title.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 130g or 130h shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned street. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 3.)

§ 130j. Same; right of repeal reserved.—Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal sections 130g–130i of this title. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 4.)

§ 130k. Pipe lines for use of Smoot Sand and Gravel Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Smoot Sand and Gravel Corporation, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, the owner of squares 705, 707, and east of 708, and part of square 708, in the District of Columbia, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from any point or points within any such square or such part of square, in and through Half Street, First Street, P Street, Q Street, R Street, Potomac Avenue, reservation 246 and reservation 247, to any point or points within any such square or such part of square, or to the pierhead line of the Anacostia River. (Apr. 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 162, ch. 84, § 1.)

§ 130m. Same; permission not to affect title.—No permission granted or enjoyed under section 130k or 130*l* shall vest any right, title, or interest in or to the land within the streets or reservations referred to in section 130k hereof. (Apr. 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 163, ch. 84, § 3.)

§ 130o. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company; abandonment of substation authorized; repeal of certain laws.—Sections 1–3 of the act approved February 3, 1909 (35 Stat. 593, c. 61), are hereby repealed; and, upon the completion by it of the substitute facilities authorized by section 2 hereof, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized, without any further or other authority, to abandon and remove the Seventh Street substation built and maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said act of February 3, 1909, and to abandon the ticket agency and baggage accommodations maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said act. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 497, ch. 415, § 1.)

§ 130p. Waiting room on platform authorized.—In lieu of the said substation and facilities maintained at the intersection of Seventh Street and C Street Southwest, in the city of Washington. The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized to construct and maintain on the train platform an enclosed waiting room for passengers, with convenient means of ingress and egress leading from and to the street level below. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 2.)

§ 130u. Same; title and interest.—That no permission granted or enjoyed under sections 130s or 130t shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within Fifteenth Street Southeast. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 896, ch. 753, § 3.)

§ 130v. Same; amendment.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 130s–130u is hereby expressly reserved. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 896, ch. 753, § 4.)

§ 107a. Same; regulation by Commissioners.—All the construction and use provided for in section 107 of this title shall be under such regulations and rentals as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may make and establish in connection therewith and all plans and specifications for such construction shall be subject to their approval. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have full authority to designate the location and to cause such repairs or relocation of said pipe lines as the public necessity may require, any such repairs or relocation to be at the expense of the Steuart Brothers, Incorporated, its successors or assigns. (June 20, 1936, 49 Stat. 1541, ch. 620, § 2.)

§ 107c. Same; right of repeal, etc., reserved.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 107–107b of this title is hereby expressly reserved. (June 20, 1936, 49 Stat. 1541, ch. 620, § 4.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXISTING LINES

Under this section the Commissioners of the District might authorize the wires of any "existing telegraph, telephone or electric light company," to be laid under streets and alleys whenever public interest may exercise such authority. Chesapeake & Potomac Tel. Co. v. Manning (186 U. S. 238, 46 L. Ed. 1144, 22 Sup. Ct. 881).

§ 43–1402 [26: 178]. Removal of telephone poles and wires—Area of removal—Duties of Commissioners—Extension of conduits.

All telephone poles and wires attached thereto not the property of the United States or the District of Columbia existing June 20, 1902, upon the streets and avenues within the section of the District of Columbia bounded by a line beginning at Second and B Streets southeast and running thence along B Street south, Third Street west, Missouri Avenue, Sixth Street west, B Street north, Twenty-third Street west, Rock Creek, Cincinnati Street, Columbia Road, Sixteenth Street west (extended), Park Street, Whitney Avenue, Eleventh Street west, R Street north, New Jersey Avenue, C Street north, and Second Street east to the point of beginning, except as hereinafter provided, shall from time to time, as may be prescribed by the Commissioners of said District, be taken down and removed. The work of taking down and removing said poles and wires shall be done under the direction of said Commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of said Commissioners to enforce compliance with the provisions of sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive, as expeditiously as may be consistent with the public interests; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered from time to time to authorize any individual, company, or corporation operating on June 20, 1902, and maintaining a telephone plant or system, partly overhead and partly underground, in the District of Columbia, to extend and enlarge its system of underground conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes in or under any or all of the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, or other public highways in said city and District as may be requisite and necessary for the purposes of sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive, and for the reception of such other cables and wires as may be reasonably required in the future by the growth of such individual, company, or corporation or to adequately meet the requirements of the public for telephone service. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 393, ch. 1136, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONERS

Commissioners of the District might authorize wires of telephone, telegraph or electric light company to be laid under streets and alleys whenever public interest may exercise such authority. Chesapeake & Potomac Tel. Co. v. Manning (186 U. S. 238, 46 L. Ed. 1144, 22 Sup. Ct 881.)

§ 43–1403 [26: 179]. Plans of conduits to be submitted to Commissioners—Permits—Removal of poles—Wires for house connections—Telephone companies.

From time to time any individual, company, or corporation, maintaining and operating on June 20, 1902, a telephone plant or system in said District, partly overhead and partly underground, shall prepare and submit to the said Commissioners a plan or plans, or application or applications, in writing, showing the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, and other public highways in or under which it is proposed to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes, and giving the general dimensons, length, and course thereof, and before any such conduit, subsidiary, or manhole is constructed it shall be necessary to obtain the approval and permission of said Commissioners. Said Commissioners are empowered to require that all proposed conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes shall be constructed in accordance with the approved plan or permit; and upon the approval by said Commissioners of any such plan, or the issuing of any such permit, providing for the construction of underground conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes within the section in said District described in section 43–1402 the construction therein provided for shall be proceeded with diligently, and upon the completion thereof, or as soon thereafter as may be, without impairing the efficiency of the telephone service in said District, the individual, company, or corporation constructing such conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes shall place its cables and wires therein and take down and remove from the streets and avenues in which such conduits are constructed all poles and wires except such as said Commissioners may, in accordance with the provisions of sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive, permit to remain for the purpose of distributing wires for house connections. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 393, ch. 1136, § 2.)

Any individual, company, or corporation owning and maintaining such poles and wires attached thereto on or over any street or avenue within the section of the District described in section 43–1402 who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to remove the same, as provided in section 43–1403, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every day during which such failure to remove said poles and wires shall continue, which amount may be recovered by the District of Columbia in any court of competent jurisdiction. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 394, ch. 1136, § 3.)

§ 43–1405 [26: 181]. Erection and maintenance of telephone poles in alleys—Poles outside designated limit—Temporary permits.

Said Commissioners are empowered to authorize the erection and maintenance of poles in the alleys of said city and District and the stringing thereon of telephone conductors from alley poles or housetop fixtures in one square to alley poles or housetop fixtures in another square for the purpose of enabling house connections to be made, and also to authorize the erection of telephone poles in the District of Columbia outside the limits of the section of said District described in section 43–1402 and the stringing thereon of telephone conductors for house connections or for connection with lines outside the District of Columbia; also to authorize the erection of such poles and the stringing thereon of such wires in the streets and avenues of said city and District in the parts thereof in which there are no public alleys, and in such other places as the public interests do not require that the lines be placed underground, or in places where it shall be deemed by said commissioners impracticable to advantageously place or operate such lines underground. During the progress of the work provided for in section 43–1402 said commissioners are also empowered to issue temporary permits for the erection and maintenance of poles and overhead conductors in places where the lines are ultimately to be placed underground, but where the work can not be immediately done because of the greater urgency of work in other localities, or for other reasons satisfactory to said commissioners; but in issuing such temporary permits said commissioners shall bear in mind the purpose and policy of sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive, which is to cause to be removed from the streets and avenues within the section of said District described in section 43–1402 all poles and wires attached thereto, except as hereinbefore provided, as expeditiously as may be without interfering with or impairing the efficiency of the telephone service in said District and without denying to the public reasonable telephone facilities at all times. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 394, ch. 1136, § 4.)

§ 43–1406 [26: 182]. Regulations for inspection—Ducts for use of fire and police wires.

All subways, conduits, manholes, and overhead lines constructed or erected under the provisions of sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive, shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time prescribe as to inspection, location, character of conduit construction, and height of poles and wires: Provided, That in all conduits so constructed such space shall be furnished to the District of Columbia as may be necessary for its fire-alarm or police-patrol wires or cables, carrying low potential currents of electricity, free of charge: And provided further, That the number of ducts so reserved in any one conduit shall not be more than three. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 5.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 43–1401.

§ 43–1407 [26: 183]. Repairs and renewals.

The said commissioners are empowered to authorize any such individual, company, or corporation owning and operating on June 20, 1902, any lines of street poles and wires and any alley poles or alley-pole line within the District of Columbia and outside of the section described in section 43–1402 to continue to maintain the same, with such repairs and renewals as may be necessary to keep them in good order and condition of repair, and to add thereto such poles and wires as may be necessary for the purpose of making house connections or for connecting with telephone lines outside the District of Columbia. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 6.)

§ 43–1408 [26: 184]. Right to alter or repeal reserved.

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 43–1402 to 43–1408, inclusive. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 7.)

§ 43–1409 [26: 185]. Removal of telegraph poles and wires—Duties of Commissioners—Extension of conduits.

All telegraph poles and the wires attached thereto, not the property of the United States or the District of Columbia, upon the streets, avenues and alleys on March 3, 1905 within the fire limits of the District of Columbia, except as hereinafter provided, shall from time to time, as may be prescribed by the commissioners of said District, be taken down and removed. The work of taking down and removing said poles and wires shall be done under the direction of said commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of said commissioners to enforce compliance with the provisions of sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, as expeditiously as may be consistent with the public interests; and the said commissioners are hereby empowered, from time to time, to authorize any company or corporation on March 3, 1905, or thereafter operating and maintaining a telegraph plant or system in the District of Columbia to locate and construct a system of underground conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes in or under any or all of the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, or other public highways in said District, as may be requisite and necessary for the purpose of sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, and for the reception of such other conduits, cables, and wires as may be reasonably required in the future by the growth of such company or corporation or its assigns, or to adequately meet the requirements of the public for telegraph service. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 984, ch. 1415, § 1.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43–1410 [26: 186]. Plans of conduits to be submitted to Commissioners—Permits—Removal of poles—Wires for house connections—Telegraph companies.

From time to time, any company or corporation, or its assigns, on March 3, 1905, or thereafter maintaining and operating a telegraph plant or system in said District, shall prepare and submit to the said commissioners a plan or plans or application or applications, in writing, showing the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, and other public highways in or under which it is proposed to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes, and giving the general dimensions, length, and course thereof; and before any such conduit, subsidiary, or manhole is constructed it shall be necessary to obtain the approval and permission of said Commissioners. Said Commissioners are empowered to require that all proposed conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes shall be constructed in accordance with the approved plan or permit; and upon the approval by said Commissioners of any such plan, or the issuing of any such permit, providing for the construction of underground conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes within the said limits described in section 43–1409, or in such part thereof as said Commissioners shall require and direct, the construction therein provided for shall be proceeded with diligently, and upon the completion thereof, or as soon thereafter as may be without impairing the efficiency of the telegraph service in said District, the company or corporation constructing such conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes shall place its cables and wires therein and take down and remove from the streets and avenues in which such conduits are constructed all poles and the wires thereon, except such as said commissioners may, in accordance with the provisions of sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, permit to remain for the purpose of distributing wires for house or other connections. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 2.)

§ 43–1411 [26: 187]. Penalties.

Any company or corporation now or hereafter owning and maintaining such poles and wires attached thereto on or over any street or avenue within the said limits described in section 43–1409, which shall willfully neglect or refuse to remove the same, as provided in section 43–1409, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every day during which such failure to remove said poles and wires shall continue, which amount may be recovered by the District of Columbia in any court of competent jurisdiction. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 3.)

§ 43–1412 [26: 188]. Erection and maintenance of telegraph poles in alleys—Poles outside designated limits—Temporary permits.

Said Commissioners are empowered to authorize the erection and maintenance of poles in the alleys of said District, and the stringing thereon of wires or conductors for telegraph purposes from alley poles or house-top fixtures in one square to alley poles or house-top fixtures in another square for the purpose of enabling house connections to be made, and to authorize the erection of poles and the stringing thereon of wires on and upon the streets and avenues of said District in the parts thereof in which there are no public alleys and in such places as the public interests do not require that the lines be placed underground, or in places where it shall be deemed by said commissioners impracticable to advantageously place or operate such lines underground. During the progress of the work provided for in section 43–1409 said commissioners are also empowered to issue temporary permits for the erection and maintenance of poles and overhead conductors in places where the lines are ultimately to be placed underground, where the work can not be immediately done because of the greater urgency of work in other localities, or for other reasons satisfactory to said commissioners; but in issuing such temporary permits said commissioners shall bear in mind the purpose and policy of sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, which is to cause to be removed from the streets and avenues within the said limits described in section 43–1409 all poles and wires attached thereto, except as hereinbefore provided, as expeditiously as may be without interfering with or impairing the efficiency of the telegraph service in said District and without denying to the public reasonable telegraph facilities. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 4.)

§ 43–1413 [26: 189]. Conduits in public parks or reservations.

Any officer of the United States Government charged with the care, maintenance, and supervision of any public park or reservation may grant permission to any company or corporation maintaining and operating a telegraph plant or system in said District on March 3, 1905, or thereafter, upon application being made therefor, to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes in said park or reservation, under such reasonable regulations as said officer may prescribe, unless, in the judgment of said officer, said construction will result in injury to the United States or its properties. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 4a.)

§ 43–1414 [26: 190]. Regulations for inspection—Ducts for use of fire and police wires.

All subways, conduits, manholes, and overhead lines constructed or erected under the provisions of sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time prescribe as to inspection, location, character of conduit construction, and height of poles and wires: Provided, That in all underground conduits so constructed such space shall be furnished to the said District of Columbia and the United States as may be necessary for their telegraph, fire alarm, and police-patrol wires or cables carrying low potential currents of electricity, free of charge: And provided further, That the number of ducts so reserved in any one conduit shall not be more than two. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 5.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Rules and regulations, see notes to § 43–1401.

§ 43–1415 [26: 191]. Repairs and renewals.

The said commissioners are empowered to authorize any such company or corporation owning and operating lines of street poles and wires on March 3, 1905, or thereafter and any alley poles or alley-pole line or house-top wires within the said District and outside of the limits described in section 43–1409 to continue to maintain the same, with such repairs and renewals as may be necessary to keep them in good order and condition of repair, and to add thereto such poles and wires as may be necessary for their telegraphic purposes. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 6.)

§ 43–1416 [26: 192]. Right to alter or repeal reserved—Rights under U. S. C., title 47, section 1 et seq. preserved.

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, but nothing herein shall abridge or lessen the rights granted telegraph companies under title 47, section 1 et seq. of the Code of the Laws of the United States of America. (Mar. 3, 1905. 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 7.)

§ 43–1417 [26: 193]. Rights to build and lay conduits not to be paid for in event of condemnation.

If at any time the District of Columbia or the National Government shall acquire, by purchase, condemnation proceedings, or otherwise, the property of any telegraph company in the District of Columbia, nothing shall then be paid for the rights accorded under sections 43–1409 to 43–1417, inclusive, to build and lay such conduits. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

By this act Congress enacted that the Commissioners of the District shall have the power to lay water mains, pipes, fireplugs, and hydrants for the public safety, comfort, or health. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521); Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 371, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616.)

§ 43–1502 [20: 1372]. Water department — Operations of to be under direction of Engineer's Office.

The operations of the water department of the District of Columbia shall be under the direction of the engineer's office of the District, subject to the control of the commissioners. (July 1, 1882, 22 Stat. 143, ch. 263, § 2.)

§ 43–1503 [20: 1373]. Water supply—Rules and regulations.

Full power is given to the commissioners to supply the inhabitants of the District with the Potomac water from the aqueduct mains or pipes laid in the streets and avenues by the United States; and to make all laws and regulations for the proper distribution of the same, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to the control of the Chief of Engineers, as provided in title 40, section 51, of the Code of Laws of the United States. The supply of Potomac water may be extended to points in the District beyond the limits of Washington upon like terms and conditions as are provided by law for the supply of the same in that city. (R. S., D. C., § 195; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3; June 10, 1879, 21 Stat. 9, ch. 16; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JURISDICTION

United States possesses complete jurisdiction, both of a political and municipal nature, over the District of Columbia. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521).

§ 43–1504 [20: 1374]. Fiscal year of water department.

The fiscal year of the water department of the District of Columbia shall conform to the regular fiscal year of the General Government; the rates shall be levied and collected annually. (July 1, 1882, 22 Stat. 144, ch. 263, § 2.)

§ 43–1505 [20: 1375]. Water-main taxes and rents to be uniform.

Water-main taxes and water rents shall be uniform in said District. (June 10, 1879, 21 Stat. 9, ch. 16.)

§ 43–1506 [20: 1376]. Water registrar.

The water registrar shall perform such duties connected with the water department of the District as may be proper and necessary, under the direction of the commissioners. He shall give bonds for the faithful performance of his duty in the sum of ten thousand dollars. (Leg. Assem., Aug. 23, 1871, ch. 108, § 16; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The acts of 1874 and 1878 are the organic acts of those years, and the sections referred to are those which confer upon and define the powers of the Commissioners.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43–1507 [20: 1377]. Prevention of water waste.

In order to prevent unnecessary waste of Potomac water, and in order to more fully enforce the laws in relation to the distribution of the same, the Chief of Engineers is authorized, after giving notice, to shut off the water when such notice shall be disregarded from any places where a waste of water is occurring. (R. S., D. C., § 214.)

§ 43–1508 [20: 1378]. Use of Potomac water for mechanical and manufacturing purposes.

The use of Potomac water for mechanical and manufacturing purposes, or for private fountains, street and pavement washers, shall be allowed only when, in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers, it will not be detrimental to the general distribution of water in the District of Columbia. (R. S., D. C., § 215; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

§ 43–1509 [20: 1379]. Water supply in large quantities to be determined by meters maintained by consumers.

The supply of water to all manufacturing establishments, hotels, livery-stables, and other places requiring a large quantity, shall be determined by meters erected and maintained at the expense of the consumer. (R. S., D. C., § 216.)

§ 43–1510 [20: 1380]. Water mains and service sewers erected at discretion of Commissioners—Costs assessed against abutting property.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed, whenever in their judgment the same may be necessary for the public safety, health, comfort, or convenience, to construct water mains and service sewers in any street, avenue, road, or alley in the District of Columbia; and the assessor of said District shall levy assessments for the same against abutting property in the amount and manner hereinafter prescribed. § 43–1511 [20: 1381]. Assessments for water mains.

For laying or constructing water mains in the District of Columbia assessments shall be levied at the rate of three dollars per linear front foot against all lots or land abutting upon that part of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which a water-main shall be laid, and for laying or constructing service sewers in the District of Columbia assessments shall be levied at the rate of one dollar per linear front foot against all lots or land abutting upon that part of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which a sewer shall be laid: Provided, That assessments for water mains and service sewers in the case of lots or parcels of land not more than one hundred feet in depth shall be levied upon the fronts or rears of such lots or parcels of land, and not upon both the fronts and rears of such lots or parcels of land; but lots or parcels of land more than one hundred feet in depth, except corner lots, shall be assessed upon both their fronts and rears when water-mains or service sewers are laid abutting the same: Provided, That corner lots shall be assessed for water-mains and service sewers only on their short fronts with a depth of not exceeding one hundred feet; any excess of the other front over one hundred feet shall be subject to assessment, as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That the areas of all lots or parcels of land which have been assessed for water mains by the square foot under any previous Act of Congress, or of the late legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, shall not be again assessed for water mains: Provided further, That when the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall deem it advantageous to lay water mains or service sewers on each side of any street, avenue, road, or alley assessments shall be levied at the rate, within the time and in the manner in this section provided for, against the lots abutting the side of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which the water-main or service sewer is laid. (Aug. 11, 1894, 28 Stat. 275, ch. 253; Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 244, ch. 1417, § 2; Dec. 22, 1927, 45 Stat. 11, ch. 5; July 3, 1930, 46 Stat. 989, ch. 848.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1904 replaced the act of 1894 and included assessments for service sewers as well as water-mains.

Act of 1927 provided that rates of assessment in effect on June 30, 1927, for laying or constructing water mains and service sewers in the District of Columbia under provisions of act of 1904 should continue in effect during the remainder of the fiscal year 1928 and thereafter.

Act of 1930 increased the rate previously in effect.

NOTES TO DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR ACT

ASSESSMENT IN EXCESS OF COST

Assessment exceeding actual cost of the work is not bad where the laying of the main was a part of a water-system and the assessment included a fund to keep the system in efficient repair. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521).

FRONTAGE RULE INAPPLICABLE

If the paving of an avenue be treated as an original improvement, converting a highway into a paved city street, its constitutional infirmities are emphasized by reason of the existence of physical conditions forbidding any equal, fair, or equitable application of the frontage rule of taxing benefits. If considered as a repair of the avenue, in the form of repaving, its validity must be condemned on theory that it taxes individual property fronting on the improvement for all or fixed portion of the expense, to exemption of all other property in the municipality. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

NECESSITY AND BENEFITS OF WORK

This act must be deemed conclusive alike of the question of the necessity of the work, and of the benefits as against abutting property; and to open such questions for review by the courts, on the petition of any and every property holder, would create endless confusion; and when questions submitted to Commission, the inquiry becomes in its nature judicial. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521); Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 900, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616).

POWERS OF CONGRESS

Congress has the power to provide for assessments in the District of Columbia for the opening of streets. Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 371, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616).

Congress of the United States has the entire control over the District for every purpose of government. Sims v. Rives (66 App. D. C. 24, 84 Fed. (2d) 871).

§ 43–1511a. Increased rate of assessment for laying mains.

The rate of assessment for laying or constructing water mains in the District of Columbia under the provisions of section 43–1511, is hereby established at $1.90 per linear foot for any water mains constructed or laid on and after July 1, 1947. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 360, ch. 258, Art. V, § 2.)

§ 43–1512 [20: 1382]. Assessor to give notice of assessments.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall give notices as herein provided of the levying of assessments for water mains and service sewers. Assessments shall be levied within sixty days after the completion of the main or service sewer, and the owner or owners affected by such assessments shall be notified that the same have been levied by a notice which shall be served upon the owner of the lot or parcel of land if he or she be a resident of the District of Columbia, and his or her residence be known. If the owner be a nonresident or his or her residence be unknown, the notice shall be served on his or her agent or tenant. The service of such notice, where the owner or his or her agent or tenant resides in the District of Columbia, shall be personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age, either a member of his family or in his employ, at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant; and return of such service, stating the manner thereof, shall be made in writing under oath and filed in the office of the assessor of the District of Columbia. If there be no agent or tenant known to said assessor, and the owner or owners be not residents of the District of Columbia, or if the owner be a resident of the District of Columbia and can not be found therein, and no person of suitable age as aforesaid can be found at his or her residence or place of business, notice shall be given by advertisement once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published in said District, and in said publication of said notice each several piece of property shall be described in a separate paragraph, and the cost of such advertisement shall be added to the amount of said assessment and collected in the same manner that said assessment is collected. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 245, ch. 1417, § 3.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43–1513 [20: 1383]. Water main and service sewer assessments payable in three installments.

Assessments for water mains and service sewers shall be payable in three equal installments, the first of which shall be due and payable without interest within thirty days from date of service of notice or of the last publication of notice as the case may be, the second within one year, and the third within two years from the date of assessment, and interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be charged on all amounts which shall remain unpaid at the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of notice or last publication as the case may be; but the owner of the property assessed may, at his option, at any time after the levying of such assessment, pay the same in full: Provided, That if any installment of any assessment for water main or service sewer levied under the provisions of sections 43–1510 to 43–1517, inclusive, shall not be paid when due and payable the property against which said assessment was levied may be sold for said delinquent installment at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if said instalment shall not have been paid prior to said sale. § 43–1514 [20: 1384]. Assessment of property in county of Washington for water mains and service sewers.

Property in the county of Washington, not subdivided into blocks or lots, or both, shall not be assessed for water mains or service sewers until subdivided: Provided, That where houses are built on any unsubdivided land and connection is made with a water main or service sewer, assessment shall be made as herein provided for in the case of subdivided property by assessing a frontage of fifty feet on each side of said connection with a depth of one hundred feet, except that no double assessment shall be levied; said assessment to be levied within sixty days after said connection is made; and if such unsubdivided land is thereafter subdivided into blocks or lots, such lots shall be assessed as herein provided as to subdivided lands, but the fifty feet on each side of said connection, with a depth of one hundred feet, shall not be again assessed: Provided further, That assessments at the rate and in the manner herein provided for shall be levied against each lot or parcel of land abutting any water main or service sewer in all subdivisions of land, within sixty days after the recording of such subdivision in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia, except in cases where said lots or parcels of land have been previously assessed for the same main or service sewer. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 5.)

§ 43–1515 [20: 1385]. Relevying assessments when assessments declared void.

The assessor of the District of Columbia is hereby authorized and directed in cases where water-main assessments, or assessments for service sewers, may be quashed, canceled, set aside, or declared void by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or may otherwise be canceled or set aside, by reason of an imperfect or erroneous description of the lot or parcel of ground against which the same shall have been levied, by reason of such tax or assessment not having been authenticated by the proper officer or by reason of a defective return of service of notice, or for any technical reason other than the right of the authorities of the District of Columbia to levy assessment or lay the main or service sewer in respect of which assessment was levied, to relevy such assessment at the rate and in the manner provided for in sections 43–1510 to 43–1517, inclusive: Provided, That such reassessment shall be made within sixty days from date of such cancellation. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 7.)

§ 43–1516 [20: 1386]. Disposal of funds received by collector of taxes.

All sums received by the collector of taxes under the provisions of sections 43–1510 to 43–1517, inclusive, on account of assessments levied for the construction of service sewers shall be credited to the appropriation under which the sewer was constructed for the fiscal year in which such sums shall be received. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 8.)

§ 43–1517 [20: 1387]. Definition—Service sewer.

A service sewer within the meaning of the provisions of sections 43–1510 to 43–1517, inclusive, shall be a sewer with which connection may be directly made for the purpose of providing sewerage facilities to abutting property, and such sewers shall be so indicated on the records of the sewer division of the engineer department of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 9.)

§ 43–1518 [20: 1388]. Refund of overpaid assessments.

In all cases where a water-main has heretofore been or may hereafter be laid in a public street or way, and in order to secure the laying of such main the cost or a part thereof has been paid to the District of Columbia prior to the laying of said main by any person or corporation, there shall be repaid from time to time to such person or corporation, out of the collections from the assessment for such main, all of the amounts so paid over and above the assessment chargeable against the land owned or controlled by said person or corporation. (June 2, 1900, 31 Stat. 252, ch. 612, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LIABILITY OF COLLECTOR OF TAXES

Where record showed that protest made upon payment of water bill was handed to water registrar with request that he show protest to commissioners, and there was no showing that collector of taxes took any part in the controversy or committed any of the acts which compelled the payment or that he had any notice that bill was being paid under protest no personal liability rested on collector upon showing that the collection was erroneously made. Farrell v. Ward (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 46).

§ 43–1520 [20: 1390]. Water rents—Rates.

The following schedule of water rents in the District of Columbia shall be fixed by the commissioners of said District:

For the use of water for domestic purposes through unmetered services, $9.85 per annum for all tenements two stories high, or less, with a front width of sixteen feet, or less; for each additional front foot or fraction thereof greater than one-half, 62 cents; and for each additional story or part thereof, one-third of the charges as computed above. For business places that are not required to install meters under existing regulations, the rates in effect June 30, 1930, to be increased by 40 per centum per annum. For the use of water through metered services, a minimum charge of $8.75 per annum for seven thousand five hundred cubic feet of water, and 7 cents per one hundred cubic feet for water used in excess of that quantity. For water for building construction purposes when not supplied through a meter, 6 cents per one thousand brick and 3 cents per cubic yard of concrete, with a minimum charge of $1 for each separate building project. All water required for purposes which are not covered by the foregoing classifications shall be paid for at such rates as may be fixed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (July 3, 1930, 46 Stat. 988, ch. 848.)

INCREASE IN RENTS FROM JULY 1, 1947

Rents increased 25 per centum, see § 43–1520a.

§ 43–1520a. Increase in water rents.

Water rents charged by the District of Columbia for water used in the District of Columbia on and after July 1, 1947, shall be increased 25 per centum over the rents now in effect. Whenever the application of this increase to an existing rate results in a rate with a fractional part of a cent, the rate shall be, if the fraction be one-half cent or more, the nearest higher amount not containing a fraction, and, if the fraction be less than one-half cent, the nearest lower amount not containing a fraction. In computing the rent for the consumption of water in excess of the minimum amount allowed by law for metered service, if the rent is charged for a period beginning prior to July 1, 1947, and ending thereafter, the rent for such excess consumption shall be prorated. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 360, ch. 258, Art. V, § 1.)

§ 43–1521 [20: 1391]. Commissioners to have authority to collect water rates in advance.

The commissioners have authority to provide for the collection of water rates, in advance or otherwise, from the owner or occupants of all buildings or establishments using the water; and to provide for stopping the supply of water to any dwelling or establishment upon a failure to pay the rate, and to carry into full effect the provisions of this chapter. (R. S., D. C., § 197; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The acts of 1874 and 1878 are the organic acts of those years, and the sections referred to are those which confer upon and define the powers of the Commissioners.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LIABILITY OF PRIOR TENANT

A tenant, who became secondarily liable for water bill which accrued during prior tenancy by his failure to give written notice of acquiring control of premises within five days thereof as required by this section and order issued by Commissioners of District of Columbia, was entitled to pay accrued water rent without submitting to the cutting off of his water supply, and could look to prior tenant for indemnity regardless of prior tenant's lack of consent notwithstanding his protest. Simmons v. Quick (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 656).

Fact that a tenant, by failing to give written notice of acquiring control of premises within five days thereof as required by this section and order issued by Commissioners of District of Columbia, became secondarily liable for water bill which accrued during a prior tenancy, did not relieve prior tenant of his primary liability. Simmons v. Quick (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 656).

A tenant who was seeking reimbursement for water bill which accrued during a prior tenancy stood in the shoes of a creditor and could not recover more than was actually due by prior tenant. Simmons v. Quick (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 656).

A purchaser of property could not be compelled to pay for water used by former occupants of purchased property either by sections 1519 to 1522 of this title regulating water system or regulations issued by commissioners pursuant thereto. Farrell v. Ward (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 46).

SCOPE OF OFFICIAL DUTIES

Commissioners and water registrar, in requiring purchaser of property to pay for water used by former occupants of purchased property, were acting within scope of their official duties, and even though they made a mistake in exercise of judgment or acted on erroneous construction of the law, they could not be held personally liable to purchaser. Farrell v. Ward (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 46).

VOLUNTARY PAYMENT

A tenant who failed to give written notice of acquiring control of premises within five days thereof as required by this section and order issued by Commissioners of District of Columbia, and who was thereafter required to pay water bill which accrued during a prior tenancy upon municipal authorities' threatening suspension of water service, was not a mere "volunteer," so as to preclude recovery from prior tenant. Simmons v. Quick (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 656).

§ 43–1522 [20: 1392]. Water rates not to be a source of revenue.

The water rates levied in the District of Columbia shall never be a source of revenue other than as a means of keeping up to said District a supply of water, but shall constitute a fund exclusively for the maintenance, management, and repair of the system of water-distribution. (R. S., D. C., § 198; July 12, 1876, 19 Stat. 87, ch. 180, § 18; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1876 extended water taxes, water rents, and taxation for water mains, over all parts of the District of Columbia.

Act of 1885 extended points of water supply beyond Washington and Georgetown.

§ 43–1523 [20: 1393]. Water tax to be a fund to defray cost of water distribution.

The water tax authorized to be levied and collected by the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a fund to be used exclusively to defray the cost of distribution of the water, including all necessary fixtures and machines connected with such distribution. (R. S., D. C., § 203.)

§ 43–1524 [20: 1394]. Water rents from Washington Aqueduct to be applied to improvement of same.

All water rents derived from the Washington Aqueduct shall be applied to the improvement and repair of the same, and for no other purpose. (R. S., D. C., § 217.)

§ 43–1525 [20: 1395]. Fire plug tax.

To aid in the erection, maintenance, and efficiency of fire-plugs, a special annual tax may be levied on all buildings in the City of Washington within five hundred feet of any main water-pipe, into which, or the premises connected therewith, the water has not been introduced, and the owners or occupants of which do not pay any annual water-rate in accordance with law. (R. S., D. C., § 205; June 17, 1890, 26 Stat. 159, ch. 428.)

§ 43–1526 [20: 1396]. Rates.

The fire-plug tax shall be levied with reference to the value of the building so taxed, and shall not be more than five dollars nor less than one dollar per year. (R. S., D. C., § 206.)

§ 43–1527 [20: 1397]. To cease upon introduction of water.

Whenever the water is introduced, in conformity with law, into any building or premises, the fire-plug tax thereon shall cease. (R. S., D. C., § 207.)

§ 43–1528 [20: 1398]. Levy upon discontinuance of water service.

Whenever water is discontinued from any building or premises into which it has been introduced, such building shall be subject to the fire-plug tax from the date of the discontinuance of the water. (R. S., D. C., § 208.)

§ 43–1529 [20: 1399]. Water not to be diverted beyond District.

Except as provided in sections 43–1530 and 43–1531 no portion of the water conveyed or to be conveyed through or by means of the Washington Aqueduct, or any appurtenance thereof, shall be diverted to the supply or use of any building, premises or establishment located outside of the limits of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 544, ch. 199.)

§ 43–1530 [20: 1400]. Commissioners authorized to deliver water in nearby Maryland—Contract.

For the protection of the health of the residents of the District of Columbia and the employees of the United States Government residing in Maryland near the District of Columbia boundary, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon the request of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, a body corporate, established by chapter 313 of the acts of 1916 of the State of Maryland, or upon the request of its legally appointed successor, are authorized to deliver water from the water-supply system of the District of Columbia to said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its successor for distribution to territory in Maryland within the Washington Suburban Sanitary District as designated in the aforesaid act, or any amendment thereto, and to connect District of Columbia water-mains with water-mains in the state of Maryland at such points at or near the District of Columbia line as may be agreed upon from time to time by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, under the conditions hereinafter named, namely:

That before such connections shall be made the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its legally-appointed successor shall secure authority from the Legislature of the state of Maryland to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners of the District of Columbia outlining the conditions under which the service is to be rendered.

The agreement between the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its legally appointed successor shall provide, among other things—

First. That the meters on each of said connections shall be located within the District of Columbia and shall remain under the jurisdiction of the commissioners of the District of Columbia.

Second. The rates at which water will be furnished, said rates to be based on the actual cost to the United States and the District of Columbia of delivering water to the points designated above, including an interest charge at 4 per centum per annum and a suitable allowance for depreciation.

Third. That payments for water so furnished shall be made through the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia at such times as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may direct, said payments to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as other water rents collected in the District of Columbia are deposited.

Fourth. That at no time shall the amount of water furnished the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its successor exceed the amount that can be spared without jeopardizing the interests of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

Fifth. That the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have at all times the right to investigate the distribution system in Maryland, and if, in their opinion, there is a wastage of water they shall have the right to curtail the supply to said sanitary district to the amount of such wastage. (Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1043, ch. 160; June 30, 1930, 46 Stat. 838, ch. 764; Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 100.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section, after having been amended by the act of June 30, 1930, 46 Stat. 838, ch. 764, was repealed and reenacted as set out in the text by the act of 1932.

§ 43–1531 [20: 1401]. Delivery of water to Arlington County, Virginia.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion and subject to the approval of the Chief of Engineers, upon the request of the board of supervisors of Arlington County, Virginia, to permit the delivery of water from the Federal water supply pumping station at the Dalecarlia Reservoir to the Arlington County sanitary district, created by an act of the General Assembly of the state of Virginia, of March 15, 1922, and to connect the force main of said pumping station with the water main in Arlington County at the southerly end of the Chain Bridge: Provided, That all expenses of installing said connection and its appurtenances and any subsequent changes therein shall be borne by said Arlington County, which shall pay such charges for the use of such water as may be determined from time to time in advance by the Secretary of War, the payments to be made at such time and under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, all payments for the use of water to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as other water rents collected in the District of Columbia are deposited: And provided further, That the Secretary of War may revoke at any time any permit for the use of said water that may have been granted. (Apr. 14, 1926, 44 Stat. 251, ch. 140, § 1.)

§ 43–1531a. Delivery of water to Falls Church, Virginia, and adjacent areas—Installation expenses—Payments for water—Revocation of permit.

The Secretary of War, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, and the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, is hereby authorized in his discretion, upon request of the town council of the town of Falls Church, Fairfax County, Virginia, or any other competent State or local authority in the Washington metropolitan area in Virginia, to permit the delivery of water from the District of Columbia water system at the Dalecarlia Filtration Plant, or at other points on said water system to the Falls Church water system for the purpose of supplying water for the use of said town and such adjacent areas as are now or shall hereafter be served by the water system of said town; or to any other competent State or local authority in said metropolitan area in Virginia. The Secretary of War is hereby further authorized, in his discretion and upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, and said Board of Commissioners, to permit the delivery of such water through the water mains of Arlington County by a connection to Arlington mains at the southerly end of Chain Bridge, or to make connections with the Arlington County water system at one or more points along the boundary line of Arlington County: Provided, That all expense of installing any such connection or connections or other appurtenances and any subsequent changes therein shall be borne by said town of Falls Church, or such other communities of said metropolitan area requesting such services: Provided further, That all payments for water taken directly from the mains of the water supply system of the District of Columbia at the Dalecarlia Filtration Plant, or from other points on said water system, shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Secretary of War and said Board of Commissioners may prescribe; all such payments to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as other water rents now collected in the District of Columbia are now deposited, but for water as may be supplied through the water mains of Arlington County, as hereinabove authorized, such payments shall be made by said Arlington County in the same manner as payments for water supplied for the use of said Arlington County: Provided further, That payment for water delivered to communities in said metropolitan area from or through the water mains of Arlington County shall be made to said county as may be mutually arranged on an equitable basis and as approved by the Secretary of War and said Board of Commissioners: And provided further,

That the Secretary of War, directly or upon the request of the Board of Commissioners, may revoke at any time any permit for the use of said water that may have been granted. (June 26, 1947, 61 Stat. 181, ch. 149, § 1.)

§ 43–1531b. Investigation of distribution systems outside District of Columbia.

That the Secretary of War, through the Chief of Engineers, shall have the right at all times to investigate the distribution systems of any community outside the District of Columbia supplied with water from the said District of Columbia water system and if, in his opinion, there is an excessive wastage of water, he shall have the right to curtail the supply to said communities to the amount of such wastage. (June 26, 1947, 61 Stat. 182, ch. 149, § 2.)

§ 43–1531c. Acquiring of lands for pipe lines authorized.

The Secretary of War or the said Board of Commissioners is hereby authorized to acquire by purchase or condemnation all necessary lands, easements, and rights-of-way for pipe lines within the District of Columbia, needed for the purposes of section 43–1531a. (June 26, 1947, 61 Stat. 182, ch. 149, § 3.)

§ 43–1532 [20: 1402]. Acquisition of land and right of way for pipe lines.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to acquire by purchase or condemnation all necessary lands, easements, and rights of way for pipe lines within the District of Columbia to connect the force main of said pumping station with the water main in Arlington County as herein authorized. (Apr. 14, 1926, 44 Stat. 252, ch. 140, § 2.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43–1533 [20: 1403]. Potomac water to be furnished to charitable institutions without charge.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to furnish Potomac water without charge to charitable institutions and such institutions as receive annual appropriations from Congress, to an amount to be fixed in each case by the said commissioners, not to exceed a rate of one hundred gallons per day for each inmate of said institutions; and for all water used beyond such an amount, to be ascertained by water meters installed and maintained at the expense of the consumer, the institution shall be charged at the prevailing rate for the use of water in the District of Columbia, which shall be collected in the manner prescribed for the collection of water rents. The said commissioners are further authorized to furnish Potomac water without charge to churches to an amount to be fixed in each case by the said commissioners, and any amount used in excess of the amount allowed, to be ascertained in the manner aforesaid, shall be charged and collected as hereinbefore described. For the purposes of this section a charitable institution is one whose objects are primarily eleemosynary; and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to include educational institutions other than charity schools wholly supported by voluntary contributions or institutions supported wholly or in part by Congressional appropriation. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 742, ch. 742, § 1.)

§ 43–1534 [20: 1404]. Unlawful tapping of water pipe—Penalty.

The unlawful tapping of any water pipe laid down in the District by authority of the United States is a misdemeanor and an indictable offense; and any person convicted of such offense in the criminal court of the District shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year. (R. S., D. C., § 218.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See U. S. C., title 40, § 56.

§ 43–1535 [20: 1405]. Chief of Engineers to inform United States attorney for District of Columbia of all violations.

It is the special duty of the Chief of Engineers to bring to the notice of the attorney of the United States for the District of Columbia, or to the grand jury, any infraction of section 43–1534. (R. S., D. C., § 219.)

§ 43–1536 [20: 1406]. Penalty for damaging or defacing water pipes.

Every person who maliciously breaks, injures, defaces, or destroys any main or pipe, bend, branch, valve, hydrant, service-pipe, or any other fixture used for the distribution of water throughout the streets and avenues, or for its introduction into the houses, tenements, or buildings of the District of Columbia, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the District jail for not more than two years. (R. S., D. C., § 220; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The 1885 act provides: "And hereafter the supply of Potomac water may be extended to points in the District beyond the limits of Washington and Georgetown upon like terms and conditions as are provided by law for the supply of the same in those cities."

§ 43–1537 [20: 1407]. Mains or pipes—Laying for use of public buildings.

No greater number of main pipes of the Washington Aqueduct shall be laid at the expense of the United States than are sufficient to furnish the public buildings, offices, and grounds with the necessary supply of water. The cost of any main pipe, for the supply of water to the inhabitants of Washington, must be paid by the District of Columbia, in the manner provided by law. (R. S., U. S., § 1805; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The 1895 act provides in part: "All general laws, ordinances and regulations of the city of Washington be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to that part of the District of Columbia formerly known as the city of Georgetown."

§ 43–1538 [20: 1408]. Unauthorized opening.

No person, unless by consent of the Chief of Engineers, shall tap or open the mains or pipes laid or hereafter to be laid by the United States, under a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500. (R. S., U. S., § 1803.)

§ 43–1539. District of Columbia water system defined.

As used in section 43–1450, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(b) "District of Columbia water system" or "water system" means any and all of the facilities used or to be used for the supply of raw or partly purified water wherever situated and all of the facilities used or to be used for the distribution of purified water situated within the District of Columbia which are operated by the District of Columbia Water Division or the Washington Aqueduct Division of the Washington District of the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, or both. (June 2, 1950, 64 Stat. 195, ch. 218, § 1.)

§ 43–1540. Loans authorized to expand water system.

(a) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to accept loans for the District of Columbia from the United States Treasury and the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States is hereby authorized to lend to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, such sums as may hereafter be appropriated, to finance the expansion and improvement of the water system when sufficient funds therefor are not available from the District of Columbia water fund established by chapter 15 of title 43: Provided, That the total principal amount of loans made under the provisions of this section shall not exceed $23,000,000: And provided further, That a loan for use in any fiscal year must first be specifically requested of the Congress in connection with the budget submitted for the District of Columbia for that fiscal year, with a full statement of the work contemplated to be done and the need thereof, and must be specifically approved by the Congress. Such loans shall be in addition to any other loans heretofore or hereafter made to the Commissioners for any other purpose, and when advanced shall be deposited in full in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the said District of Columbia water fund.

(b) The loans authorized under this section, or any parts thereof, shall be advanced to the Commissioners on their requisitions therefor and shall be available to the Commissioners or the Chief of Engineers, Department of the Army, for the performance of the said expansion and improvement of the water system, and shall be available until expended.

(c) The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall be repaid any moneys advanced under this section of this Act, including interest thereon, beginning in fiscal year 1961 and concluding in fiscal year 1980, in such annual amounts as the Congress shall hereafter direct; interest thereon shall begin to accrue as of the dates the respective advancements are credited to the water fund.

(d) Loans made under this section shall be at such rate or rates of interest as would, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be the lowest interest rate available to the District of Columbia on the date of the approval of each loan, respectively, were said District authorized by law to issue and sell obligations to the public, at the par value thereof, in a sum or sums equal to the amounts of such loans, maturing serially over a comparable period of years in comparable installments of principal and interest, and secured by a first pledge of and lien upon all the general fund revenues of said District.

(e) Moneys for the payments to the United States Treasury herein required shall be included in the budget estimates of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, beginning with the budget estimates for fiscal year 1961, and shall be payable from the water fund. (June 2, 1950, 60 Stat. 195, ch. 218, § 2.)

44–105. Waiting-room on platform authorized.
44–106. Reversion of property to District of Columbia—Adequate walkways provided.
44–107. Right of repeal reserved.

§ 44–101 [19: 86]. Sale of unclaimed freight.

Whenever any freight, baggage, or other property transported by a common carrier to, or deposited with a common carrier at, any point in the District of Columbia, shall remain unclaimed by the owner or consignee, or the charges thereon shall remain unpaid for the space of six months after arrival at the point to which the same shall have been directed or transported, or after deposit as aforesaid, and the owner or person to whom the same is consigned, or by whom the same shall have been deposited, shall, after notice of such arrival, or after notice to take away such property so deposited, neglect or refuse to receive the same and pay the charges thereon within such period of six months, then it shall be lawful for such carrier to sell such freight, baggage, or other property at public auction, after giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of sale, once a week for three successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 642.)

§ 44–102 [19: 87]. Disposition of property under court order.

Upon the application of such carrier, verified by affidavit, to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia holding a special term, setting forth that the place of residence of the owner or consignee of any such freight, baggage, or other property is unknown, or that such freight, baggage, or other property is of such perishable nature, or so damaged, or showing any other cause that shall render it impracticable to give the notice or delay the sale for the period provided in section 44–101, then it shall be lawful for such court to make an order authorizing the sale of such freight, baggage, or other property upon such terms as to notice as the nature of the case may admit of and to such court shall seem meet: Provided, That in case of perishable property the affidavit and proceedings required and authorized by this section may be had before the municipal court in cases where the value of the property involved does not exceed one thousand dollars. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 643; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 534, ch. 1329; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134; Mar. 3. 1921, 41 Stat. 1310, ch. 125, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1902 added at the end of this section of the 1901 act the words "in cases where the value of the property involved does not exceed three hundred dollars."

Act of 1909 changed the name from justice of peace court to municipal court of the District of Columbia.

Act of 1921 amended this section by changing the end thereof from "three hundred dollars" to "one thousand dollars."

§ 44–103 [19: 88]. Disposition of proceeds of sale.

The residue of moneys arising from any such sale, under either section 44–101 or 44–102, after deducting the amount of charges, including charges for transportation, the cost of handling and storage, demurrage, and the costs and expenses of proceedings to authorize the sale, and of advertising and sale, shall be paid to the owner of such freight, baggage, or other property on demand. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 644.)

§ 44–104 [19: 130*o*]. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company—Abandonment of substation authorized—Repeal of certain laws.

Upon the completion by it of the substitute facilities authorized by section 44–105 hereof, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized, without any further or other authority, to abandon and remove the Seventh Street substation built and maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of Act of February 3, 1909 (35 Stat. 593, ch. 63), and to abandon the ticket agency and baggage accommodations maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said Act. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 497, ch. 415, § 1.)

§ 44–105 [19: 130p]. Waiting room on platform authorized.

In lieu of the said substation and facilities maintained at the intersection of Seventh Street and C Street Southwest, in the City of Washington, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized to construct and maintain on the train platform an enclosed waiting room for passengers, with convenient means of ingress and egress leading from and to the street level below. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 2.)

§ 44–106 [19: 130q]. Reversion of property to District of Columbia—Adequate walkways provided.

The area in square south of 463 on the map of the City of Washington heretofore used for station purposes shall revert to the District of Columbia upon the completion of these improvements: Provided, That the said Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company shall construct and maintain thereon, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, adequate walkways to the adjacent streets. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 3.)

§ 44–107 [19: 130r]. Right of repeal reserved.

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 44–104 to 44–106. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 4.)

PAVING REGULATIONS—REPEAL

All provisions of law making it incumbent upon any street-railway company to bear the expense of policemen at street railway crossings and intersections, the laying of new pavement, the making of permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to the pavement of streets and public bridges, and the permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to public bridges over which the streetcar lines operate, are hereby repealed, such repeal to be effective on the date the unification herein authorized becomes operative: Provided, That the Capital Transit Company herein provided for shall bear the entire cost of paving, repairs, or replacements incident to track repairs, replacements, or changes made at a time when the street or bridge is not being paved, and shall bear one-half the cost of other paving, repaving, or maintenance of paving between its track and for two feet outside the outer rails, and shall bear the excess cost of construction and maintenance of public bridges: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall relieve said Capital Transit Company from liability for street paving as owner of real estate apart from right-of-way occupied by its tracks as provided by section 8 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, and for other purposes," approved September 1, 1916, as amended to date. (Jan. 14, 1933, 47 Stat. 759, ch. 10, § 3.)

§ 44–202 [26: 122]. Street railways to furnish sufficient cars—Power, equipment, appliances, and service—Rules and regulations—Penalties.

Every street railroad company or corporation owning, controlling, leasing or operating one or more street railroads within the District of Columbia shall on each and all of its railroads supply and operate a sufficient number of cars, clean, sanitary, in good repair, with proper and safe power, equipment, appliances and service, comfortable and convenient, and so operate the same as to give expeditious passage, not to exceed fifteen miles per hour within the city limits or twenty miles per hour in the suburbs, to all persons desirous of the use of the said cars, without crowding said cars. The Public Utilities Commission is hereby given power to require and compel obedience to all of the provisions of this section, and to make, alter, amend and enforce all needful rules and regulations to secure said obedience; and said commission is given power to make all such orders and regulations necessary to the exercise of the powers herein granted to it as may be reasonable and proper; and such railroad companies or corporations, their officers and employees, are hereby required to obey all the provisions of this section, and such regulations and orders as may be made by said commission. Any such company or corporation, or its officers or employees, violating any provision of this section, or any of the said orders or regulations made by said commission, or permitting such violation, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. And each day of failure or neglect on the part of such company or corporation, its officers or employees, to obey each and all of the provisions and requirements of this section, or the orders and regulations of the commission made thereunder, shall be regarded as a separate offense. (May 23, 1908, 35 Stat. 250, ch. 190, § 16.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

As originally enacted, the words "not to exceed fifteen miles per hour within the city limits or twenty miles per hour in the suburbs" after the words "expeditious passage" were included. These speed limits have been superseded by various traffic regulatory laws. See §§ 40–602 (j), 40–603, 40–605.

Chapter 3.—PASSENGER MOTOR VEHICLES FOR HIRE

Sec.
44–301. Passenger motor vehicles for hire to carry insurance—Exceptions—Sinking fund.

§ 44–301 [20: 1731a]. Passenger motor vehicles for hire to carry insurance—Exceptions—Sinking fund.

The Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia is hereby directed to require any and all corporations, companies, associations, joint-stock companies or associations, partnerships, and persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, operating, controlling, managing, or renting any passenger motor vehicles for hire in the District of Columbia, except as to operations licensed under paragraph (b) of section 44–2331, and except such common carriers as have been expressly exempted from the jurisdiction of the Commission, to file with the Commission for each motor vehicle to be operated a bond or bonds, policy or policies, of liability insurance or certificate of insurance in lieu thereof in a solvent and responsible surety or insurance company authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, conditioned for the payment to any person of any judgment recovered against such corporations, companies, associations, joint-stock companies or associations, partnerships, and persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, or renters of their cabs, for death or for injury to any person or injury to any property, or both, caused in the operation, maintenance, use, or by reason of the defective construction of such motor cabs or other vehicles. Any such bond or undertaking or policy of liability insurance shall be in such form and on such terms or conditions as the Commission may direct: Provided, That such bond or policy may limit the liability of the surety or insurer on any one judgment to $5,000 for bodily injuries or death and $1,000 for damage to or destruction of property, and all judgments recovered upon claims arising out of the same subject of action to $10,000 for bodily injuries or death and $1,000 for damages to or destruction of property, to be apportioned ratably among the judgment creditors according to the amount of their respective judgments. Any such policy of liability insurance shall be issued only by such insurance companies as may have been authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, and any such bond or undertaking shall be secured by a corporate surety approved by the Superintendent of Insurance of the District of Columbia. No such insurance company or corporate surety shall engage in or conduct the business of insuring or bonding any risk arising out of the operation of any passenger motor vehicle for hire required to be insured or bonded under this section unless the Superintendent of Insurance shall find that the management of such company is capable, by experience or otherwise, of conducting such business in the public interest and unless such insurance company or corporate surety shall possess a certificate of approval issued by said Superintendent for such business. Every such insurance company or corporate surety, whether or not it shall be a mutual company, shall have and shall at all times maintain reserves for losses, unearned premiums, and all other liabilities as will meet the requirements of any regulation issued by the Superintendent of Insurance and applicable to such company or such classifications of companies. The Superintendent of Insurance shall be empowered to make reasonable rules and regulations governing the writing of such insurance and the making of such bonds and the business of insuring or bonding such risks, including the expenses of management, administration, and acquisition of business and the rates to be charged. The Superintendent of Insurance is authorized and empowered, after hearing, to withdraw his certificate of approval of the business of insuring or bonding taxicab risks of any insurance company or corporate surety violating any provision of this Act or of the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder. No such bond or policy of insurance may be canceled unless not less than twenty days prior to such cancelation or termination notice of intention so to do has been filed in writing with the Commission unless cancelation is for nonpayment of premiums, in which event five days' notice as above provided shall be given. It shall be unlawful to operate any vehicle subject to the provisions of this paragraph unless such vehicle shall be covered by an approved bond or policy of liability insurance as provided herein. The Public Utilities Commission shall have the power to make all reasonable rules and regulations which, in its opinion, are necessary to make effective the purposes of this section.

Any owner of a public vehicle required hereby to file a bond or policy of insurance may, in lieu thereof:

(a) File with the Public Utilities Commission a blanket bond, or a blanket policy of liability insurance, in an amount to be approved by said Commission, but not to exceed $75,000, conditioned as required by this chapter, and covering all vehicles lawfully displaying the trade name or identifying the design of any individual, association, company or corporation.

(b) Create and maintain a sinking fund in such amount as the Public Utilities Commission may require, but not in excess of $75,000, and deposit the same, in trust, for the payment of any judgment recovered against such owner, as provided in this chapter, with such person, official or corporation as said commission shall designate.

Provided, That should any such owner elect to comply with the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, such owner shall first file with the Public Utilities Commission an admission of liability, in conformity with the principle of respondent superior for the tortious acts of the driver or drivers of such vehicle or vehicles aforesaid as shall be driven with the trade name or identifying design of such owner.

Any cash or collateral deposit and/or any sinking fund herein provided for shall be exempt from attachment or levy for any obligation or liability of the depositor thereof, save as herein provided.

Within the meaning of this paragraph, the word "owner" shall include any corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership or person, and the lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, permitting his, their or its trade name and/or identifying design to be displayed upon vehicles governed by this section.

Any violation of this section or of the regulations lawfully promulgated thereunder shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, and/or cancelation of license.

This section shall become effective sixty days after final passage. (June 29, 1938, 52 Stat. 1233, ch. 809; Dec. 15, 1942, 56 Stat. 1051, ch. 734.)

Compiler's Note

The word "respondent" in the proviso clause probably should be "respondeat."

Amendments

The act of Dec. 15, 1942, cited to text, struck out former fourth sentence of first paragraph and inserted fourth to seventh sentences inclusive, set out above.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Display of Insurance Sticker

This section requiring taxicab insurance and the display of a sticker evidencing such insurance is for the protection of pedestrians and others traveling the streets as well as for passengers, and the requirement is not limited to the times when the vehicle is being used or offered for hire. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

Since this section requires taxicab to display current insurance sticker at all times, allegation in information charging failure to display sticker "while transacting business" may be treated as surplusage. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

Notice of Cancelation

Where this section and first insurer's liability policy covering taxicab authorized cancelation only on filing of notice with public utility commission and insured, on obtaining new policy from second insurer, ceased paying premiums on first policy but first insurer had not, at time of taxicab accident, filed cancelation notice with commission, as between the two insurers, the loss should fall on the second insurer. Amalgamated Casualty Ins. Co. v. Winslow, 1943 (135 F. 2d 663, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 382).

Where this section and first insurer's liability policy covering taxicab authorized cancelation only on filing of notice with public utility commission and insured, on obtaining new policy from second insurer, ceased paying premiums on first policy but first insurer had not, at time of taxicab accident, filed cancelation notice with commission, the first policy had not been canceled as against person injured in taxicab accident and the public. *Amalgamated Casualty Ins. NOTES TO DECISIONS

In General

This act relates solely to commerce. Southern R. Co. v. Taylor (57 App. D. C. 21, 16 Fed. (2d) 517, cert. den. 273 U. S. 767, 71 L. Ed. 882, 47 Sup. Ct. 571).

The intent of Congress in the enactment of this statute, was plainly to create liability on the part of the carriers to their employees and to curtail a part of the defenses which were before legal. Malloy v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 151 Fed. 1019).

Act prospective in operation. Winfree v. Northern P. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 164 Fed. 698, affd. 173 Fed. 65, 44 L. R. A. (N. S.) 841 and 227 U. S. 296, 57 L. Ed. 518, 33 Sup. Ct. 273).

This case distinguishes the extent of liability under this act and that of the act of 1908 (U. S. Comp. St. Supp., p. 1148). Taylor v. Southern R. Co. ((C. C.-Ga.), 178 Fed. 380).

Application of Statute

Where appellant was injured while working in appellee's car barn, he could not recover under § 44–401 of the Code since § 36–501 has become the applicable workman's compensation act for the District and appellee was not a common carrier by railroad and is excepted from the operation of § 36–501. Keffer v. Capital Transit Co. (C. A., D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 808).

Assumption of Risk

This act is so far as assumption of risk is concerned, as applied to the District of Columbia is superseded by section 4 of the act of April 22, 1908. Washington Terminal Co. v. Sampson (53 App. D. C. 179, 289 Fed. 577).

Assumed risk. Malloy v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 151 Fed. 1019).

INTERSTATE COMMERCE

"Interstate" and "intrastate" commerce. Hall v. Louisville & N. R. Co. ((C. C.-Fla.), 157 Fed. 464).

The question of the creation of right of action, by State of by Federal act, depends on whether the carrier is engaged in interstate or intrastate commerce. Hall v. Louisville & N. R. Co. ((C. C.-Fla.), 157 Fed. 464).

NOT REPEALED BY EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY ACT

Insofar as it applies to the District of Columbia and the Territories this act was not repealed by the Employers' Liability Act of April 22, 1908, 35 Stat. 65, ch. 149. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

Right of action to personal representatives. Winfree v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C. A. 9), 173 Fed. 65, 44 L. R. A. (N. S.) 841, affd. 227 U. S. 296, 57 L. Ed. 518, 38 Sup. Ct. 273).

TERRITORIES

VESSELS

Not applicable to marine torts within admiralty jurisdiction. Alaska S. S. Co. v. McHugh (268 U. S. 23, 69 L. Ed. 825, 45 Sup. Ct. 396).

This act does not have the same effect as regards ship owners engaged in coastwise trade in Alaska as it does in the District of Columbia. Alaska S. S. Co. v. McHugh (268 U. S. 23, 69 L. Ed. 825, 45 Sup. Ct. 396).

Act does not apply to vessels generally. Pawnee ((D. C.-Mich.), 205 Fed. 333).

Applies to action for death of sailor from injuries received on vessel used as common carrier in Alaska. Sandstrom v. Pacific S. S. Co. ((C. C. A. 9), 260 Fed. 661).

This act (June 11, 1906), where territorially applicable, embraces carriers by water and modifies or repeals inconsistent admiralty or maritime laws. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

This act (June 11, 1906), applies to the case of a seaman, employed on a vessel engaged in commerce within the Territory of Alaska and between ports thereof and of the State of Washington, who was injured while unloading a cargo at an Alaskan port. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

§ 44–402 [19: 82]. Contributory negligence no bar to recovery.

In all actions brought against any common carriers to recover damages for personal injuries to an employee, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery where his contributed negligence was slight and that of the employer was gross in comparison, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee. All questions of negligence and contributory negligence shall be for the jury. (June 11, 1906, 34 Stat. 232, ch. 3073, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

Where testatrix devised realty to her daughter for life and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of the daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part, and if daughter die without issue then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, a son's interests, whether contingent or vested, were assignable, but he could assign only that which he had. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

Where remainderman's interest was subject to be divested in event of his death, leaving a descendant, prior to death of life tenant, remainderman's assignment of his interest was ineffective as against his descendant on death of remainderman prior to death of the life tenant. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

PERMANENCE

Once title vests, it stays vested until it passes by grant, by descent, by adverse possession or by some operation of law such as escheat or forfeiture; but title does not pass by inaction on the part of the owner. Faulks v. Schrider (69 App. D. C. 137, 99 Fed. (2d) 370).

REVERTER INTERESTS

A possibility of reverter is not an estate under the District Code but it is an interest in property and any interest in property may be disposed of by deed or will. Scott v. Powell (C. A. D. C. 1950, 182 F. 2d 75, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 277).

§ 45–102 [25: 112]. Perpetuities—Excepting charitable uses.

Except in the case of gifts or devises to charitable uses, every future estate, whether of freehold or leasehold, whether by way of remainder or without a precedent estate, and whether vested or contingent, shall be void in its creation which shall suspend, or may by possibility suspend, the power of absolute alienation of the property, so that there shall be no person or persons in being by whom an absolute fee in the same, in possession, can be conveyed, for a longer period than during the continuance of not more than one or more lives in being and twenty-one years thereafter. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1023.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Rule against perpetuities held inapplicable. Hopkins v. Grimshaw (165 U. S. 342, 41 L. Ed. 739, 17 Sup. Ct. 401).

The provisions of this section are made applicable to personalty as well as realty by § 45–823. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

AGREEMENT OF PARTIES

A decree affecting rights under will will be reversed on agreement of parties to enter decree in accordance with agreement. McDonald v. Maxwell (56 App. D. C. 287, 12 Fed. (2d) 822).

ALIENATION OF ACCUMULATIONS

There is in the District of Columbia no specific statutory limitation upon restraint on alienation of accumulations. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable in the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

Under the "common law" of the United States and of the District of Columbia, accumulation of income of a testamentary trust is permitted for as long as the period of the rule against perpetuities. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 3 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

The provision of a testamentary trust which did not violate the rule against perpetuities or this section in creating a trust to be effective for 21 years after death of two named nieces of testator, directing that remainder of trust income after the payment of certain annuities should be reinvested by trustee for increase and benefit of trust fund, was valid under the established common law, notwithstanding amount of income directed to be accumulated was quite large. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

Alternative Contingency

If the testator distinctly makes his gift over to depend upon what is sometimes called an alternative contingency, or upon either of two contingencies, one of which may be too remote and the other cannot be, its validity depends upon the event. Wills v. Maddox (45 App. D. C. 128, cert. den. 240 U. S. 640, 61 L. Ed. 541, 37 Sup. Ct. 113).

"Charitable Trust" Defined

One of the distinguishing elements of a charitable trust is the indefiniteness permitted as to beneficiaries. so that a trust to be used for assisting deserving applicants for admission to a home, who are unable to furnish necessary money, is valid. Washington Loan & Trust Co. v. Hammond (51 App. D. C. 260, 278 Fed. 569).

Class Membership

A life estate left to a class consisting of persons in being but which may open and let in other members who are not in being at the time of the testator's death would be obnoxious to the rule against perpetuities. Lewis v. Cockrell (D. C., D. C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 380).

Construction Avoiding Repugnancy

Where will showed that testator intended to create life estate for widow, to be followed by life estates for his two daughters, and that upon daughters' deaths property should pass to testator's grandchildren and trust created by will provided that "the income thereof * * * shall be equally divided between my two daughters * * * and in the event of the death of either or both, to the use and benefit of their respective child or children" the last part of such provision would be construed to read "and in the event of the death of either or both, the remainder to the use and benefit of their respective child or children", particularly where a literal construction would be repugnant to prohibition against unlawful suspension of alienation and to the rule against perpetuities. Lewis v. Cockrell (D. C., D. C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 380).

Contingent Remainderman

Where remainder had not vested, the invalidity of prior devise would not benefit contingent remainderman but intestacy would result as to the property covered by the prior devise. Lewis v. Cockrell (D. C., D. C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 380).

Devise to Trustees

Devise to trustees held not to create a perpetuity, that is, not to be a limitation upon the property beyond the period of a life or lives in being and twenty-one years. Ould v. Washington Hosp. (95 U. S. 303, 24 L. Ed. 450).

In suit involving validity of a devise of real estate to foreign cemetery association in trust, for care of lot in District of Columbia, such trust is valid by principle of comity and equity will not allow trust to fail for want of trustee and if necessary will appoint a trustee to carry it into effect. Iglehart v. Iglehart (26 App. D. C. 209, affd. 204 U. S. 478, 51 L. Ed. 575, 27 Sup. Ct. 329).

Where testator left residuary estate to trustees to invest and reinvest for 21 years after death of two nieces, to pay annuities from the income and reinvest the remainder, the trustees had at all times power to alienate, and the trust did not violate the statute relating to restraint on alienation. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

Future Interests

Under will creating a trust until 21 years after death of survivor of two named nieces of testator and directing that trust cease at expiration of 21 years after the two lives in being, the future interests created did not violate the "rule against perpetuities." Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

Gifts to Charitable Uses

"Gifts to charitable uses do not come within the purview of the law against perpetuities." Washington Loan & Trust Co. v. Hammond (51 App. D. C. 260, 278 Fed. 569).

Incapacity of Ultimate Taker

The capacity of the ultimate takers is irrelevant on the question whether a future estate violates this section, and it is the instrument creating the future estate which must be examined to determine whether the estate violates this section. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

This section was not intended to make void in its creation any future estate which is limited to take effect immediately at the expiration of the statutory period for the reason that one of the takers has temporary incapacity to convey. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

Under will creating a trust until 21 years after death of survivor of two named nieces of testator and directing that trust cease at expiration of 21 years after the two lives in being, the future interests created did not violate this section merely because, at the termination of the trust, the taker might be an infant who would be a person incapable of alienating an absolute fee. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

Partial Validity

Where there is a statutory permissible period, an accumulation of income of a testamentary trust is bad only with respect to the excess, whereas an accumulation that violates the common law of lives in being plus 21 years is void in its entirety. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

Where testamentary exercise of power, which created trust for testator's widow for life and then for daughters until they should reach age of 25, was invalid as unduly suspending power of alienation, widow's life interest could not be validated by being separated from other provisions. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

Power of Appointment

A testamentary exercise of power of appointment, creating a trust for testator's widow for life and thereafter for daughters until they should reach age of 25, when daughters might take their shares outright, was invalid though widow was alive when donor of power died, since daughter might reach 25 more than 21 years after widow's death. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

The rule that facts existing when donee of power dies, exercising the power by will, may be considered in determining whether absolute ownership vests under exercise of power during lives in being, plus 21 years, would not save testamentary exercise of power by one dying in 1942, where beneficiary born in 1940 would not have taken her share by reaching age of 25 within 21 years of her mother's death if mother had died before 1944. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

Facts existing when donee of power of appointment dies, exercising the power by will, may be considered in determining whether absolute ownership is to vest under exercise of the power during lives in being, plus 21 years from death of donor. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

POWER TO ALIENATE SUSPENDED

Where trustees under a will have at all times the power to alienate, the trust does not violate provisions of this section, and the possibility of suspension of the power of alienation because of infancy or disability of beneficiaries at date of distribution does not invalidate the trust, such suspension being made by law and not by the will. Burdick v. Burdick (D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

SECTIONS CONSTRUED

This section and § 669 (§ 27–113) can be harmonized and construed together—this section applying to cases other than those specially provided for in § 669 (§ 27–113). Iglehart v. Iglehart (204 U. S. 478, 51 L. Ed. 575, 27 Sup. Ct. 329, affg. 26 App. D. C. 209).

TIME WHEN PERIOD BEGINS

In determining validity of exercise of power of appointment, period during which power of alienation might be suspended began at death of donor of the power. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

TRUST CREATED BY WILL

Trust created by will held void except as to one provision, as an attempt to create a perpetuity. Landram v. Jordan (203 U. S. 56, 51 L. Ed. 88, 27 Sup. Ct. 17, affg. 25 App. D. C. 291).

§ 45–103 [25: 113]. Chattels real.

The provisions aforesaid as to future estates shall apply to limitations of chattels real as well as to freehold estates, so that the absolute ownership of a term for years and power to dispose of the same shall not be suspended for a longer period than the absolute power of alienation in respect to a fee simple. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1024.)

§ 45–104 [25: 114]. Estates created by deed or will.

Subject to the provisions aforesaid, a freehold estate as well as a chattel real may be created by deed or will to commence at a future day, absolutely or conditionally; an estate for life may be created in a term for years and a remainder limited thereon; a remainder of freehold or for years, either vested or contingent, may be created expectant on the determination of a term for years, and a fee may be limited on a fee upon a contingency which must happen, if at all, within the period herein prescribed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1025.)

§ 45–105 [25: 115]. Conveyance of land held adversely.

Any person claiming title to land may convey his interest in the same, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 513.)

§ 45–106 [25: 116]. Conveyance of term in excess of one year must be by deed or will.

No estate of inheritance, or for life, or for a longer term than one year, in any real property, corporeal or incorporeal, in the District of Columbia, or any declaration or limitation of uses in the same, for any of the estates mentioned, shall be created or take effect, except by deed signed and sealed by the grantor, lessor, or declarant, or by will. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 492; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out at the end thereof the words "and acknowledged in the manner herein provided" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or by will."

CROSS REFERENCE

Statute of frauds, § 12–301.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ESTOPPEL

"Where one of two contracting parties has been induced or allowed to alter his position on the faith of a contract within the statute, to such an extent that it would be fraud on the part of the other party to set up its invalidity, courts of equity hold that the clear proof of the contract and of the acts of part performance will take the case out of the operation of the statute, if the acts of part performance were clearly such as to show that they are properly referable to the parol agreement." Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

LEASES—ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Lease for rooms in office building was perfectly valid conveyance as between the parties to it, and the parties to this action, although not acknowledged as required by this section, as amended. Munsey Trust Co. v. Alexander (59 App. D. C. 369, 42 Fed. (2d) 604).

LEASES—COVENANT OF RENEWAL

Where lessor had only a life estate, the rights under the lease expired with her, and the remaindermen, by accepting rent after her death, are not estopped to defend against the covenant of renewal in the lease. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

LEASES—NOT UNDER SEAL

Although contract for lease of office rooms was not under seal, it was entitled to specific performance, lessor having spent considerable money in remodeling and lessee having occupied for two years. Hoffman v. F. H. Duehay, Inc. (62 App. D. C. 206, 65 Fed. (2d) 839).

LEASES—TENANTS IN COMMON

A lease for eight years (with privilege of renewal) by one tenant in common is void as to the other tenants who did not sign and seal the lease. The acknowledgment of the lessor was not and could not have been as agent or attorney for her co-owners. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

No amount of acquiescence by the remaining tenants could affect their rights, in the absence of power in the lessor to act as trustee for them, in the execution of the lease. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

PAROL AGREEMENT

An alleged parol agreement by lessor to give lessees after expiration of lease an additional five-year term was not enforceable in absence of evidence of lessor's fraud or execution of the agreement, in view of this section specifying the requirements for a lease for longer than one year and section 301 of title 12 that such a lease shall be an estate by sufferance. Ross v. Brainerd (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 859).

STATUTORY COMPLIANCE

Measuring the instrument by the statutory requirements, enlightened by the forms set forth, which cannot be disregarded, it is not sufficient to grant or create any estate or use in the property since a deed is a written expression of the act of creating an estate or use in land. Schooler v. Schooler (C. A. D. C. 1948, 173 A. 2d 299, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 147).

Chapter 2.—INTERPRETATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec.
45–201. Words of inheritance unnecessary.
45–202. Words "grant" or "bargain and sell" pass whole estate.
45–203. Remainder to heirs—Rule in Shelley's case abolished.
45–204. Posthumous children.
45–205. Die without issue or without leaving issue refers to time of death.

§ 45–201 [25: 131]. Words of inheritance unnecessary.

No words of inheritance shall be necessary in a deed or will to create a fee simple estate; but every conveyance or devise of real estate shall be construed and held to pass a fee simple estate or other entire estate of the grantor or testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by express terms or be necessarily implied therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 502.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

WORDS OF LIMITATION

When word "heir" is used in will as one of limitation, it must be given that effect, but contrary is true, if its use in context clearly indicates that it is intended to constitute a disposition by purchase. Greenwood v. Page, 1944 (138 F. 2d 921, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 166).

§ 45–202 [25: 132]. Words "grant" or "bargain and sell" pass whole estate.

The word "grant," and the phrase "bargain and sell," or any other words purporting to transfer the whole estate shall be construed to pass the whole estate and interest in the property described, unless there be limitations or reservations showing a different intent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 503; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "of the grantor" which appeared after the words "and interest of."

§ 45–203 [25: 133]. Remainder to heirs—Rule in Shelley's case abolished.

Where a remainder shall be limited to the heirs or heirs of the body of a person to whom a life estate in the same premises shall be given, the persons, who, on the termination of the life estate, shall be the heirs or the heirs of the body of such tenant for life shall be entitled to take in fee simple as purchasers by virtue of the remainder so limited. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1027.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Where death of decedent occurred in 1900, before enactment of statute, the common-law rule applied. Noyes v. Parker (68 App. D. C. 13, 92 Fed. (2d) 562).

§ 45–204 [25: 134]. Posthumous children.

Where a future estate shall be limited to heirs, or issue, or children, posthumous children shall be entitled to take in the same manner as if living at the death of their parent; and a future estate depending on the contingency of the death of any person without heirs, or issue, or children shall be defeated by the birth of a posthumous child of such person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1028.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Other provisions concerning rights of posthumous children, §§ 18–103, 18–714.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

UNBORN CHILDREN

"A child en ventre sa mère is deemed to be in esse, for the purpose of taking a remainder, or any other estate or interest which is for his benefit, whether by descent, by devise, or under the statute of distribution." Craig v. Rowland (10 App. D. C. 402).

§ 45–205 [25: 135]. Die without issue or without leaving issue refers to time of death.

In any deed or will of real or personal estate in the District of Columbia, executed after Mar. 3, 1901, the words "die without issue," or the words "die without leaving issue," or the words "have no issue," or other words which may import either a want or failure of issue of any person in his lifetime or at the time of his death, or an indefinite failure of his issue, shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in the lifetime or at the time of the death of such person, and not an indefinite failure of his issue, unless a contrary intention shall appear in the instrument. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 504.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EFFECTIVE DATE OF DEVISE OVER

Under a devise to one person in fee and in case he should die under age and without issue to another in fee, the devise over takes effect upon the death at any time of the first devisee under age and without children. Herrell v. Herrell (47 App. D. C. 30).

Chapter 3.—FORMS—COVENANTS AND WARRANTIES

Sec.
45–301. Forms of instruments.
45–302. Deeds of corporations—Formal requisites—Acknowledgment.
45–303. Covenant binds covenantor and privies in favor of covenantee and privies without so stating.

The deed of a corporation shall be executed by having the seal of the corporation attached and being signed with the name of the corporation, by its president or other officer, and shall be acknowledged as the deed of the corporation by an attorney appointed for that purpose, by a power of attorney embodied in the deed or by one separate therefrom, under the corporate seal, to be annexed to and recorded with the deed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 497; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "chief" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "other."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POWER OF ATTORNEY

Deed of corporation, signed by vice president with power of attorney to act for the corporation, held valid. Eggleston v. Wayland (56 App. D. C. 77, 10 Fed. (2d) 642).

SEAL OF CORPORATION

Lease containing seal of corporation and signed by its vice president, held valid though not acknowledged. Munsey Trust Co. v. Alexander (59 App. D. C. 369, 42 Fed. (2d) 604).

§ 45–303 [25: 143]. Covenant binds covenantor and privies in favor of covenantee and privies without so stating.

When, in any deed, the word "covenant" is used, such word shall have the same effect as if the covenant was expressed to be by the covenantor, for himself, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives, and shall be deemed to be with the grantee or lessee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 505; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, began as follows: "When, in a deed conveying real estate, the words 'the said * * * covenants' are used."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SUBSEQUENT OWNERS

Similar restrictive covenants contained in deeds from the owner of a subdivision to all purchasers, inure to the benefit of the several purchasers and subsequent owners thereof. McNeil v. Gary (40 App. D. C. 397).

§ 45–304 [25: 144]. General warranty.

A covenant by the grantor, in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by the words "with general warranty," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives will warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 506.)

§ 45–305 [25: 145]. Special warranty.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by the words "with special warranty," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming or to claim by, through, or under him. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 507.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

TRUST DEED COVENANTS

Where grantor executing trust deeds creating junior liens warranted the property against persons claiming through her and covenanted to execute any necessary further assurances, the effect of the covenants in the trust deeds creating the junior liens was limited by their terms and by the fact that the grantor possessed and intended to convey only an equity of redemption from prior trusts. Thompson v. Lawson, 1942 (132 F. 2d 21, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 31, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1177, 319 U. S. 759, 87 L. Ed. 1711).

WAIVER

A lessor may waive the breach of a specific covenant by delay in enforcement, or by subsequent acceptance of rent. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

§ 45–306 [25: 146]. Covenant of quiet enjoyment.

A covenant by the grantor, in a deed of land, "that the said grantee shall quietly enjoy said land," shall have the same effect as if he had covenanted that the said grantee, his heirs, and assigns, shall, at any and all times after Mar. 3, 1901, peaceably and quietly enter upon, have, hold, and enjoy the land conveyed by the deed or intended to be so conveyed, with all the rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and to receive the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit, without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim, or demand whatsoever by the said grantor, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons whatever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 508.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COMMERCIAL USE

Where landowner, as lessor, entered into a contract of lease for restaurant purposes, he impliedly warranted title and quiet possession, and, in such circumstances, it was not incumbent upon lessee to search lessor's title to determine if there was a covenant in lessor's deed against commercial use but lessee was entitled to rely upon the warranty. Schwartz v. Westbrook (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 854).

§ 45–307 [25: 147]. Covenant against having encumbered land.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed of land, "that he has done no act to encumber said land," shall be construed to have the same effect as if he had covenanted that he had not done or executed or knowingly suffered any act, deed, or thing whereby the land and premises conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be charged, affected, or encumbered in title, estate, or otherwise. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 509.)

§ 45–308 [25: 148]. Covenant for further assurances.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed of land, "that he will execute such further assurances of said land as may be requisite," shall have the same effect as if he had covenanted that he, his heirs or devisees, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request, at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done and executed, all such further acts, deeds, and things, for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the lands and premises conveyed unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns, as intended to be conveyed, as by the grantee, his heirs or assigns, or his or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised, or required. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 510.)

§ 45–309 [25: 149]. Warranty by life tenant void as to heir.

All warranties which shall be made by any tenant for life, of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, the same descending or coming to any person in reversion or remainder, shall be void and of none effect, and likewise all collateral warranties, of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, by any ancestor, who has no estate of inheritance in possession in the same shall be void against the heir. (4 Ann, ch. 16, § 21, 1705; Kilty Rep., 246; Alex. Br. Stat. 662; Comp. Stat., D. C., 496, § 33.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section sets forth a British statute continued in force by virtue of the act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1). It was obviously impossible to modernize the language of this statute.

Chapter 4.—ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Sec.
45–401. Acknowledgment by attorney.
45–402. Acknowledgment in the District.
45–403. Acknowledgment out of District.
45–404. Acknowledgment in foreign country.
45–405. Acknowledgments in Guam, Samoa, and Canal Zone.
45–406. Acknowledgments in Philippine Islands and Puerto Rico.
45–407. Certain irregular acknowledgments validated.
45–408. Certain defective acknowledgments and executions validated.
45–409. Acknowledgments by married women.

Sec.
45–410. Power of attorney by married woman.
45–411. Absence of acknowledgment.
45–412. Acts of Congress and law of Maryland cumulative as to deeds prior to January 1, 1902.

§ 45–401 [25: 150]. Acknowledgment by attorney.

No deeds of conveyance of either real or personal estate by individuals shall be executed or acknowledged by attorney. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 498.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ENTRY INTO POSSESSION

A lease for more than one year will be valid when the tenant enters into possession and expends large sums of money, notwithstanding the invalidity of the lease under the provision of this section that no deed may be executed by attorney. Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

POWER OF ATTORNEY BEFORE 1901 CODE

When power of attorney was given by two persons jointly to acknowledge deed for the grantor, which power was executed by one of them only, such defective acknowledgment was corrected by acts of Congress April 20, 1838, and March 3, 1865. Hevner v. Matthews (4 App. D. C. 380).

Power of attorney to sell and convey land of married woman and husband and acknowledged by them was valid both by statute and common law. The Civil War did not revoke such power although principals resided in insurrectionary States. Williams v. Paine (7 App. D. C. 116, affd. 169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279).

§ 45–402 [25: 151]. Acknowledgment in the District.

Acknowledgment of deeds may be made in the District of Columbia before any judge of any of the courts of said District, the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any notary public, or the recorder of deeds of said District, and the certificate of the officer taking the acknowledgment shall be to the following effect:

I, A B, a notary public (or other officer authorized) in and for the District of Columbia, do hereby certify that C D, party to a certain deed bearing date on the _____ day of _____, and hereto annexed, personally appeared before me in said District, the said C D being personally well known to me as (or proved by the oath of credible witnesses to be) the person who executed the said deed, and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed.

Given under my hand and seal this ____ day of _____.

A. B. [Seal.]

(Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 493; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment struck out the words "such acknowledgment" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "acknowledgment of deeds."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE TO IMPEACH—NOTARY TAKING ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The evidence to impeach the acknowledgment to a deed for fraud must be clear and convincing. Ford v. Ford (27 App. D. C. 401). Quaere: Whether the act of a notary in taking an acknowledgment is a judicial act or merely ministerial. See, however, Hitz v. Jenks (123 U. S. 297, 31 L. Ed. 156, 8 Sup. Ct. 143).

OMISSION OF WORDS

Quaere: Whether an acknowledgment is sufficient if the words "do hereby certify" as recited in the statute, are omitted. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

Also, as to omission of formal statement that grantor acknowledged "the same to be his act and deed." Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

A deed is fatally defective which omits to state that the grantor was personally known to the officer or that his identity had been proved by the oath of credible witnesses, and which fails to identify the instrument by recital of its date. The recordation of an instrument sc acknowledged is erroneous and of no effect as constructive notice. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

PRIMA FACIE PROOF

"The true view is that the certificate of acknowledgment is prima facie proof of the facts it contains, if within the officers' range, but is open to rebuttal, between the parties, by proof of gross concurrent mistake or fraud. In favor of purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, it is conclusive as to all matters which it is the duty of the acknowledging officer to certify, if he has jurisdiction. As to all other persons it is open to dispute." Ford v. Ford (27 App. D. C. 401).

§ 45–403 [25: 152]. Acknowledgment out of District.

When any deed or contract under seal is to be acknowledged out of the District of Columbia, but within the United States, the acknowledgment may be made before any judge of a court of record and of law, or any chancellor of a State, any judge or justice of the Supreme, District, or Territorial courts of the United States, any justice of the peace or notary public: Provided, That the certificate of acknowledgment aforesaid, made by any officer of the State or Territory not having a seal, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the register, clerk, or other public officer that the officer taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he professed to be. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 495; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329; Mar. 3, 1911, 36 Stat. 1167, ch. 231, §§ 289, 291.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment amended the Act of Mar. 3, 1901, by striking out the words "relating to land" after the word "seal" and also by striking out a second proviso which stated "that a certificate by any such register, clerk, or other public officer, in the form prescribed by the laws of the State or Territory in which such certificate is made or customarily used therein, shall be a sufficient certificate for the purposes of this section."

Act of March 3, 1911, amended Act of June 30, 1902, by striking out the word "circuit" after the word "Supreme."

§ 45–404 [25: 153]. Acknowledgment in foreign country.

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing the section numbers of the Code of Laws of the United States.

§ 45–405 [25: 154]. Acknowledgments in Guam, Samoa, and Canal Zone.

Deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia may be acknowledged in the islands of Guam and Samoa or in the Canal Zone before any notary public or judge, appointed therein by proper authority, or by any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in Guam, Samoa, or the Canal Zone, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the governor or acting governor of such place to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be; and any deeds or other instruments affecting lands so situate, so acknowledged since the 1st day of January, 1905, and accompanied by such certificate shall have the same effect as such deeds or other instruments hereafter so acknowledged and certified. (June 28, 1906, 34 Stat. 552, ch. 3585.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 48, §§ 1358, 1432.

§ 45–406 [25: 155]. Acknowledgments in Philippine Islands and Puerto Rico.

Deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia may be acknowledged in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico before any notary public appointed therein by proper authority, or any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in the Philippine Islands or in Porto Rico, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the executive secretary of Porto Rico, or the governor or Attorney-General of the Philippine Islands to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be. (Mar. 22, 1902, 32 Stat. 88, ch. 273; Mar. 2, 1917, 39 Stat. 968, ch. 145, § 54.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 22, 1902, was amended by striking out the words "or any territory of the United States" after the word "Columbia" and also by changing provision from Attorney General of "Porto Rico" to "Executive-Secretary of Porto Rico."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 48, §§ 742 and 1019.

§ 45–407 [25: 156]. Certain irregular acknowledgments validated.

All acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments of writing under seal made prior to March 3, 1879, in a foreign country, before any secretary of legation, consul, or consular officer of the United States, for lands lying in the District of Columbia, are hereby validated and confirmed, and the same, and the records of the said deeds and instruments, if the said deeds and instruments have been recorded, are declared to be as good and effectual, in behalf of the grantees therein named, and all persons claiming through or under them, as if the said acknowledgments and records had been respectively made and recorded under the provisions of existing laws: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to divest just rights already acquired in good faith by creditors of or purchasers from the grantors in such deeds or instruments. (Mar. 3, 1879, 20 Stat. 353, ch. 174.)

§ 45–408 [25: 157]. Certain defective acknowledgments and executions validated.

All deeds and acknowledgments recorded in the land records of the District prior to January 1, 1902, of any of the following designated classes shall, in favor of parties in actual possession, claiming under and through such deeds, be deemed and held and are declared to be of the same effect and validity to pass the fee simple or other estate intended to be conveyed, and bar dower in the real estate therein mentioned, as if such deeds had in all respects been executed, acknowledged, proved, certified, and recorded according to law, namely:

First. All deeds executed and acknowledged by married women, their husbands having signed and sealed the same, for conveying any real estate, or interest therein, situated in the District;

Second. All acknowledgments of deeds by married women, whether they executed the deed or not, for the purpose of releasing their claims to dower in the lands described therein, situated in the District, in which acknowledgments the form prescribed by law was not followed;

Third. All deeds executed and acknowledged by an attorney in fact duly appointed for conveying real estate situated in the District;

Fourth. All deeds executed and acknowledged, or only acknowledged by such attorney in fact, for conveying real estate situated in the District, as to which the acknowledgment was made before officers different from those before whom proof of the power of attorney was made, and as to which the power of attorney was proved before only one justice of the peace;

Fifth. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District, acknowledged out of the District, before a judge of a United State court, or before two aldermen of a city, or the chief magistrate of a city, or before a notary public or other officer;

Sixth. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District, acknowledged by an attorney in fact, duly appointed, or by an officer of a corporation, duly authorized, who acknowledged the same to be his act and deed, instead of the act and deed of the grantor or of the corporation; and

Seventh. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District to which there was not annexed a legal certificate as to the official character of the officer or officers taking the acknowledgment. (R. S., D. C., § 459; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 515; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added at the end of the paragraph numbered fifth the words "or other officer."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Under laws of Maryland, in force in the District of Columbia in 1859, it was competent for a married woman to execute with her husband a power of attorney to convey her lands therein, which, when acknowledged by her according to the statute relating to the acknowledgment by married women of deeds conveying their real property in the District, thereby became a valid and sufficient instrument to authorize the conveyance by attorney. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45–409 [25: 158]. Acknowledgments by married women.

In all cases mentioned in section 45–408 the certificate of acknowledgment by a married woman made prior to April 10, 1869, must show that the acknowledgment was made "apart" or "privily" from her husband, or use some other term importing that her acknowledgment was made out of his presence, and also that she acknowledged or declared that she willingly executed or that she willingly acknowledged the deed, or that the same was her voluntary act, or to that effect. (R. S., D. C., § 460; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 516; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment inserted after the word "woman," the words "made prior to April 10, 1869."

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45–408. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45–410 [25: 159]. Power of attorney by married woman.

When the power of attorney mentioned in section 45–408 was executed by a married women, the same shall be effectual and sufficient if there is such an acknowledgment of the same as would be sufficient, under the provisions of section 45–409 to pass her estate and interest therein were she a party executing the deed of conveyance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 518; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "is" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "was," also by striking out the words "this chapter" and inserting in lieu thereof the section numbers corresponding to those given above.

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45–408. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45–411 [25: 160]. Absence of acknowledgment.

No deed or conveyance of squares or lots of public land in the city of Washington, made in pursuance of law prior to January 1, 1902, by the commissioner of public buildings or any other authorized officer, shall be deemed invalid in law for the want of an acknowledgment by the commissioner or other authorized officer before such judicial officers, as deeds of real property made between individuals are required by law to be acknowledged. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 514; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "to March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "to the adoption of this Code (January 1, 1902)."

§ 45–412 [25: 161]. Acts of Congress and law of Maryland cumulative as to deeds prior to January 1, 1902.

In all cases of deeds executed and acknowledged prior to January 1, 1902, the Acts of Congress approved May 31, 1832 (4 Stat. 520, ch. 112), and April 20, 1838 (5 Stat. 226, ch. 57), in reference to the acknowledgment and recording of deeds of lands situated in the District, shall be taken and construed as cumulative with the Acts of Maryland on the same subject in force in the District at the passage thereof, and an acknowledgment made and certified in compliance with any one of said Acts, and before any officer authorized by either of said Acts to take an acknowledgment, whether in or out of the District, shall be good and effectual. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 520; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting before the word "the" the words "in all cases of deeds executed and acknowledged prior to the adoption of this Code (January 1, 1902)."

Chapter 5.—EFFECTIVE DATE AND RECORDING OF DEEDS

Sec.

45–501. When deeds take effect.
45–502. Deed first recorded has priority.
45–503. Instruments not executed or acknowledged according to law not to be recorded.
45–504. Record of deeds as evidence.
45–505. Bonds and contracts.
45–506. Maps and plats not to be recorded.

§ 45–501 [25: 171]. When deeds take effect.

Any deed conveying real property in the District, or interest therein, or declaring or limiting any use or trust thereof, executed and acknowledged and certified as provided in sections 30–216, 45–106, 45–302, 45–401 to 45–404 and delivered to the person in whose favor the same is executed, shall be held to take effect from the date of the delivery thereof, except that as to creditors and subsequent bona fide purchasers and mortgagees without notice of said deed, and others interested in said property, it shall only take effect from the time of its delivery to the recorder of deeds for record. (Apr. 29, 1878, 20 Stat. 39, ch. 69; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 499; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

In the fourth line, the 1901 code said "provided as aforesaid." The sections thereof that preceded this section were §§ 492–498 which are compiled herein as §§ 30–216, 45–106, 45–302, and 45–401 to 45–404.

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901 (the 1901 Code) was amended by excluding after the word "effect" the words "and pass the title in the property conveyed to said person from the date of the acknowledgment, provided the same be recorded within three months from said date."

CROSS REFERENCE

Criminal penalty for recording instrument by one who has no color of title, § 22–1302.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

An assignment of rents is not a transfer of an estate in the land, for the owner may transfer the rents and still retain his entire interests in the land. Commercial Credit Co. v. Campbell (64 App. D. C. 64, 74 Fed. (2d) 468).

"CREDITORS," CONSTRUED

"Creditors mentioned (in this section) mean creditors who in the interval of time have fastened upon the property for the payment of their debts, and not general creditors." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

CREDITORS HAVING ACTUAL NOTICE

The delivery of a deed for record is not a prerequisite to its validity as against creditors having actual notice of its existence. Staples v. Warren (46 App. D. C. 363, distinguishing Dulany v. Morse, 39 App. D. C. 523) (as to a conveyance constituting a preference under the bankruptcy act).

DEED WITHHELD FROM RECORD

When deed of trust was not recorded until several weeks after the judgment of the bank was recovered, and there was no evidence that the bank ever had actual notice of its existence until after execution was issued and levied, the conveyance would be ineffectual against the bank, or any purchaser at the sale under that judgment. Hitz v. National Metropolitan Bank (111 U. S. 722, 28 L. Ed. 577, 4 Sup. Ct. 613).

"The fact that a deed once delivered is withheld from record for a long period or until the death of the grantor, either at or without the request of the latter, has no effect to impair its effect as a conveyance of title or to operate any extinguishment." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76), citing Fitzgerald v. Wynne (1 App. D. C. 107); Bunten v. American Security & Trust Co. (25 App. D. C. 226).

DELIVERY ESSENTIAL; OBJECT OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT

"The act of delivery is essential to the existence of any deed, bond, or note. Although drawn and signed, so long as it is undelivered, it is a nullity; not only does it take effect only by delivery, but also only on delivery." Atlas Portland Cement Co. v. Fox (49 App. D. C. 292, 265 Fed. 444, 266 Fed. 1021, quoting from Young v. Clarendon Tp. 132 U. S. 340, 33 L. Ed. 356, 10 Sup. Ct. 107). "The statute is merely one of notice. As stated by Chief Justice Alvey, in Fitzgerald v. Wynne (1 App. D. C. 107): 'The great object of the statutes in requiring deeds of conveyance to be acknowledged and recorded is to prevent the practice of fraud upon creditors and purchasers—to furnish the means of notice and protection to innocent third parties.' To prevent fraud and furnish notice when? At the time the credit is extended or the claim reduced to judgment, on the strength of the debtor's apparent title. Not before the title was acquired, but during its record existence."

A deed conveying real property or any interest therein, or declaring or limiting any use or trust thereof, cannot take effect without delivery to the person in whose favor it is executed. Schooler v. Schooler (C. A. D. C. 1948, 173 A. 2d 299, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 147).

GENERAL INTENT OF REGISTRY

General intent of the statutes of registry is to protect innocent persons against prejudice from secret conveyances, by providing means through which they can know the condition of titles; that where they acquire such knowledge by means other than registry, they do not stand in need of such protection, and do not, as a general rule, come within the purview of the statutes; and that the statutes will be so construed unless their terms exclude such construction. Manogue v. Bryant (15 App. D. C. 245).

ILLEGAL RECORDING

"The record of an instrument that is not permitted by law to be recorded, or that is not proved for record as required by law, is constructive notice to no one." Clark v. Harmer (5 App. D. C. 114).

Where trustees released deed of trust securing note held by bank, recording of release did not give such "constructive notice" to bank or its receiver as would start running of limitations against action to recover damages from the trustees individually for alleged wrongful release. Young v. Howard, 1941 (120 F. 2d 712, 73 App. D. C. 340).

JUDGMENT CREDITORS

"Judgment creditors" are within meaning of the statute, but this applies only to cases where the credit has been extended or judgments have been secured while the record title remained in the debtor. Atlas Portland Cement v. Fox (49 App. D. C. 292, 265 Fed. 444; for dissenting opinion, see 266 Fed. 1021).

JUDGMENT LIENS

Judgment liens extend to all lands "held under apparently perfect legal title by the judgment debtor at the time of the rendition of the judgment, notwithstanding the same might be subject to some secret trust, capable of being placed upon record." American Sav. Bank v. Eisminger (35 App. D. C. 51).

NOTICE NOT REQUIRED

"One is not required to take notice of everything which is put upon the records of the Land Office, even concerning his own property. One who has acquired title is entitled to rest upon his rights; nothing afterwards put upon record, otherwise than by himself or his procurement, can legally affect those rights." Armstrong v. Ashley (22 App. D. C. 368, affd. 204 U. S. 272, 51 L. Ed. 482, 27 Sup. Ct. 270).

NOTICE OF PRIOR EQUITY

"A purchaser with notice of a prior equity superior to the rights of his grantor takes his place and is bound to do that which in equity his grantor was bound to do." Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

NOTICE REQUIRED

"One who deals with land is required to take notice of all conveyances on record at the time at which he deals with it." Armstrong v. Ashley (22 App. D. C. 368, affd. 204 U. S. 272, 51 L. Ed. 482, 27 Sup. Ct. 270). See also Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

PASSAGE OF TITLE

Under District of Columbia law, a deed conveying real property takes effect from the date of the delivery thereof, except that as to creditors, subsequent bona fide purchasers, mortgagees without notice of the deed, and others interested in said property, the deed takes effect from the time of delivery to the recorder of deeds for record. Owens v. Liff (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 921).

A deed conveying real property takes effect from the date of the delivery thereof and, except as to the statutory limitations, it shall take effect only from the time of its delivery to the recorder of deeds for record. Glennon v. Butler (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 519).

PARTICULAR FORM NOT REQUIRED

"No particular form or ceremony is essential to the effective delivery of a deed. Words or acts showing an intention that the deed shall be complete and operative constitute a good delivery." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76).

POSSESSION PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE

Possession by the grantee is prima facie evidence of delivery. Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76). See also, Carusi v. Savary (6 App. D. C. 330).

PRIORITY OF JUDGMENT CREDITOR

A judgment creditor who files a bill in equity to sell the equitable interest of the judgment debtor in real property, has priority over a grantee claiming under a deed executed before (but not filed for record until after) the filing of the bill. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

RECORDING AS TO THIRD PARTIES

"The requirement consists in the duty imposed upon the grantee to record, or suffer the penalty prescribed * * * of having the instrument * * * declared a nullity. * * * Though optional with the grantee as to certain parties as to innocent purchasers and creditors it is required for his protection." Dulany v. Morse (39 App. D. C. 523).

RECORDING OF TRUST DEED FROM STRANGER

Recordation of deed of trust from a stranger to the record title is not constructive notice that the grantor is the grantee of last record owner. Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

SUPERIOR EQUITIES OF PRIOR SPECIFIC LIEN

"A judgment, being but a general lien, must be subordinated to the superior equities of a prior specific lien * * *. The judgment creditor stands in the place of his debtor, and can only take the property of his debtor subject to the equitable charges to which it was justly liable in the hands of the debtor at the time of the rendition of the judgment." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

SUPERSEDING PRIOR ACT

This section superseded prior recording act and applies to all instruments unrecorded at time of its passage. Dulany v. Morse (39 App. D. C. 523).

TRUSTEE IN BANKRUPTCY

Trustee in bankruptcy does not, under our recording statutes, take the property as an innocent purchaser, but "subject to all equities, liens, or encumbrances, whether created by operation of law or by the bankrupt, which existed against the property in the hands of the bankrupt." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

UNEXPRESSED CONDITION

"A deed cannot be delivered to the grantee upon a condition not expressed in the instrument." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76), citing Newman v. Baker (10 App. D. C. 197); Bieber v. Gans (24 App. D. C. 517).

§ 45–502 [25: 172]. Deed first recorded has priority.

When two or more deeds of the same property are made to bona fide purchasers for value without notice, the deed or deeds which are first recorded according to law shall be preferred. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 500.)

§ 45–503 [25: 173]. Instruments not executed or acknowledged according to law not to be recorded.

The recorder shall not accept for record or record any instrument which shall not be executed and acknowledged agreeably to law by the person or party therein granting or contracting with respect to his right, title, or interest in the land therein described. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 555; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 533, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the ending which stated that "and the knowledge by any person of the fact of such record shall not be either constructive or actual notice of the existence of such instrument."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ILLEGAL RECORDING

"The record of an instrument that is not permitted by law to be recorded, or that is not proved for record as required by law, is constructive notice to no one." Clark v. Harmer (5 App. D. C. 114).

INSTRUMENTS TO BE RECORDED

"He is by law required to receive and file, or receive and record * * * such instruments as have been duly executed, and which purport on their face to be of the nature of instruments entitled to be filed or recorded." Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

MANDAMUS TO COMPEL RECORDATION

Use of mandamus to compel recordation. Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

VALIDITY OF INSTRUMENTS

Recorder has no jurisdiction to pass on validity of instruments presented for record. Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

§ 45–504 [25: 174]. Record of deeds as evidence.

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "and" and substituting the word "or" so that it shall read "the record or a copy."

CROSS REFERENCE

Introduction into evidence, §§ 14–401, 14–402.

§ 45–505 [25: 175]. Bonds and contracts.

Any title bond or other written contract in relation to land may be acknowledged, certified, and recorded in the same manner and with like effect as to notice as deeds for the conveyance of land. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 501; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "as deeds for the conveyance of land" which followed the word "manner."

§ 45–506 [25: 176]. Maps and plats not to be recorded.

It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to record any map or plat of the subdivision of land in the District of Columbia in the office of the recorder of deeds for said District, whether such map or plat be attached to a deed or other document or is offered separately for record. (Aug. 24, 1894, 28 Stat. 501, ch. 329.)

45–620. Non compos mentis trustee or mortgagee or committee may by order of the chancellor make conveyance or assurance of mortgaged lands.

§ 45–601 [25: 191]. Mortgages and deeds of trust executed, acknowledged, and recorded same as deeds.

Mortgages and deeds of trust to secure debts, conveying any estate in land, shall be executed and may be acknowledged and recorded in the same manner as absolute deeds; and they shall take effect both as between the parties thereto and as to others, bona fide purchasers and mortgagees and creditors, in the same manner and under the same conditions as absolute deeds. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 521; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, read as follows: "Mortgages and deeds of trust to secure debts, conveying any estate in land, in order to be effectual, shall be executed and recorded in the same manner as absolute deeds; and they shall take effect and pass title to the property conveyed, both as between the parties thereto and as to others, bona fide purchasers and mortgagees and creditors, in the same manner and under the same conditions as absolute deeds."

§ 45–602 [25: 192]. How to be recorded.

It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds to record all such mortgages and deeds of trust in the same manner as absolute deeds. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 523; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the ending which stated "and, after each mortgage, to leave a blank space wherein may be recorded any assignment or release of said mortgage."

§ 45–603 [25: 193]. Estate of mortgagee or trustee conveyed.

The legal estate conveyed to a mortgagee, his heirs and assigns, or to a trustee to secure a debt, his heirs and assigns, shall be construed and held to be a qualified fee simple, determinable upon the release of the mortgage or deed of trust, as hereinafter provided, or the appointment of a new trustee by judicial decree for the causes hereinafter mentioned: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall prevent the passing of an absolute and unqualified estate in fee-simple under a deed made by the mortgagee or trustee in pursuance of the powers conferred by the mortgage or deed of trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 522; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by adding proviso.

CROSS REFERENCE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MORTGAGEE OUT OF POSSESSION

Mortgagee out of possession has no such interest as will permit him to have partition; "much less is the beneficiary under a deed of trust entitled to have partition; for he has no estate whatever, and no possibility even of a right of possession. Nor has the trustee in the deed any such right * * *." Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

Powers and duties of trustees in deeds of trust as to time of sale and price of property are more restricted than trustees for distribution and partition, and the duties of the first type of trustees are measured by the deed of trust. Anderson v. White (2 App. D. C. 408).

Powers and duties of trustees are measured by terms of instrument appointing them, and they do not have the same discretion in exercise of duties as other trustees. Wheeler v. McBlair (5 App. D. C. 375, affd. 172 U. S. 643, 43 L. Ed. 1182, 19 Sup. Ct. 882).

RECOVERY OF POSSESSION BY MORTGAGEE

Mortgagee and mortgagor do not stand in relation of landlord and tenant, and mortgagee, after default, may not recover possession under Landlord and Tenant Act of the District, but must bring ejectment or foreclosure. Willis v. Eastern Trust & Banking Co. (169 U. S. 295, 42 L. Ed. 752, 18 Sup. Ct. 347).

SALE OF MORTGAGED REALTY

A proposed contract of sale of mortgaged realty, in good faith, and in which mortgagor will participate, does not violate this section. Pearson v. Small (65 App. D. C. 243, 82 Fed. (2d) 849).

SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST

The exercise of a power of sale under a deed of trust by a trustee who is, or is associated with, the owner of the debt secured, is improper. Canelacos v. Hollway, 1942 (123 F. 2d 934, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 58, 138 A. L. R. 1010).

A fair sale under deed of trust, to an innocent purchaser for value, should not be set aside because of a trustee's interest in the debt which has been disclosed to the debtor, since under such circumstances there is no good reason for disappointing the reasonable expectations of the purchaser. Canelacos v. Hollway, 1942 (123 F. 2d 934, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 58, 138 A. L. R. 1010).

Where trustees did not conceal their interest in property from debtor executing deed of trust, sale under deed of trust was well advertised and was conducted by reputable auctioneers, debtor made no objection to sale until nearly five months after sale, but expressed approval to purchasers, innocent purchasers for value and strangers to the trustees were entitled to specific performance of their contract of purchase together with their actual damages, if any, but not punitive damages, and judgment requiring the purchasers to account for rents and profits, less certain compensation and expenses on theory that the sale was void, was erroneous. Canelacos v. Hollway, 1942 (123 F. 2d 934, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 58, 138 A. L. R. 1010).

TRUSTEE HOLDS LEGAL TITLE

Trustee holds legal title and a deed by it conveyed whatever title it had. Chesapeake Beach R. Co. v. Washington, P. & C. R. Co. (199 U. S. 247, 50 L. Ed. 175, 26 Sup. Ct. 25), affg. (23 App. D. C. 587).

"The estate of the trustee is a naked legal title without any beneficial interest whatever * * * and they have always held the legal title in strict subordination to the beneficial interest of the debtor and creditor in the transaction." Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

TRUSTEES SALES FOR PARTITION OR DISTRIBUTION

In making a sale the trustee must not place himself in a position where his personal interest conflicts with his duty. Jackson v. Smith (254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 418, 40 Sup. Ct. 10, revg. 48 App. D. C. 565).

Difference between rule applicable to cases of sales by trustees for partition or distribution and sales under ordinary trust to secure loans and enforceable upon stipulated terms. In the former, interests of the beneficiaries are identical, and trustee is charged with absolute duty to arrange and conduct sale; in the latter it is duty of trustee to conduct sale in manner and upon notice prescribed in the trust. Smith v. Jackson (48 App. D. C. 565, revd. on other grounds, 254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 418, 40 Sup. Ct. 10).

Sale by a trustee substituted for the survivor of two trustees, who refused to act, is valid, without there being a substitute for the deceased trustee. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45–604 [25: 194]. Survival of title.

Whenever a mortgage or deed of trust to secure a debt is executed to two or more mortgagees or trustees in fee simple, upon the death of any one or more of them the legal title and the trust attached to it shall be held to survive to the survivor or survivors and the heirs of the last survivor, subject to the provisions aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1272, ch. 854, § 533.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE

The wording indicates no intention that a trustee should be substituted for each of the original Trustees, where there are more than one, but only for the surviving trustee. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45–605 [25: 195]. In suit for money secured by mortgage or for ejectment, the money due may be paid into court and mortgagee required to release and discharge mortgage.

Where any action shall be brought on any bond for payment of the money secured by mortgage, or performance of the covenants therein contained, or where any action of ejectment shall be brought in any court of record by any mortgagee or mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the recovery of the possession of any mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and no suit shall be then depending in any court of equity, for or touching the foreclosure or redeeming of such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments; if the person or persons having right to redeem such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and who shall appear and become defendant or defendants in such action, shall at any time, pending such action, pay unto such mortgagee or mortgagees, or, in case of his, her, or their refusal, shall bring into court where such action shall be depending, all the principal monies and interest due on such mortgage, and also all such costs as have been expended in any suit or suits at law or in equity upon such mortgage (such money for principal, interest, and costs to be ascertained and computed by the court where such action is or shall be depending, or by the proper officer by such court to be appointed for that purpose) the monies so paid to such mortgagee or mortgagees, or brought into such court, shall be deemed and taken to be in full satisfaction and discharge of such mortgage, and the court shall and may discharge every such mortgagor, or defendant, of and from the same accordingly; and shall and may, by rule or rules of the same court, compel such mortgagee or mortgagees, at the costs and charges of such mortgagor or mortgagors, to assign, surrender, or reconvey such mortgaged lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and such estate and interest, as such mortgagee or mortgagees have or hath therein, and deliver up all deeds, evidences, and writings, in his, her, or their custody, relating to the title of such mortgaged lands, tenements, and hereditaments, unto such mortgagor or mortgagors, who shall have paid or brought such monies into the court, his, her, or their heirs, executors, or administrators, or to such other person or persons, as he, she, or they, shall for that purpose nominate or appoint. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 1, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 726; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 395, § 1.)

§ 45–606 [25: 196]. In foreclosure suits court may upon motion by defendant, and admission of right of plaintiff, make a final decree without suit being brought to regular hearing.

Where any bill or bills, suit or suits, shall be filed, commenced, or brought in the court of equity, by any person or persons having or claiming any estate, right, or interest, in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, under or by virtue of any mortgage or mortgages thereof, to compel the defendant or defendants in such suit or suits (having or claiming a right to redeem the same) to pay the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such suit or suits, the principal money and interest due on any such mortgage, or the principal money and interest due on such mortgage, together with any sum or sums of money due on any encumbrance or specialty, charged or chargeable on the equity of redemption thereof, and in default of payment thereof, to foreclose such defendant or defendants of his, her, or their right or equity of redeeming such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments; such equity court, where such suit or suits shall be depending, upon application made to such court by the defendant or defendants in such suit, having a right to redeem such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and upon his or their admitting the right and title of the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such suit, may and shall at any time or times, before such suit or cause shall be brought to hearing, make such order or decree therein, as such court or courts might or could have made therein, in case such suit or cause had then been regularly brought to hearing before such court or courts; and all parties to such suit or suits shall be bound by such order or decree so made, to all intents and purposes, as if such order or decree had been made, by such court, at or subsequent to the hearing of such cause or suit. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 2, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 727; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 396, § 2.)

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Forms of actions abolished, see Rule 2.

§ 45–607 [25: 197]. Foreclosure — Exceptions to payment.

Sections 45–605, 45–606 or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to any case where the person or persons, against whom the redemption is or shall be prayed, shall (by writing under his, her, or their hands, or the hand of his, her, or their attorney, agent, or solicitor, to be delivered before the money shall be brought into such court at law, to the attorney or solicitor for the other side) insist, either that the party praying a redemption has not a right to redeem, or that the premises are chargeable with other or different principal sums, than what appear on the face of the mortgage, or shall be admitted on the other side; nor to any case where the right of redemption to the mortgaged lands and premises in question in any cause or suit shall be controverted or questioned by or between different defendants in the same cause or suit; nor shall be any prejudice to any subsequent mortgagee or mortgagees, or subsequent encumbrancer. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 3, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 728; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 397, § 3.)

§ 45–608 [25: 198]. Infant trustee or mortgagee may convey on petition to court by mortgagor, beneficiary, or guardian.

It shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons, under the age of one and twenty years, by the direction of the court of chancery, signified by an order made upon hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the person or persons for whom such infant or infants shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor or mortgagors, guardian or guardians of such infant or infants, or person or persons entitled to the monies secured by or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any infant or infants are or shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person or persons entitled to the redemption thereof, to convey and assure any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in such manner as the said court of chancery shall, by such order so to be obtained, direct, to any other person or persons; and such conveyance or assurance so to be had and made, as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said infants or infant were, at the time of making such conveyance, or assurance, of the full age of one and twenty years. (7 Ann, ch. 19, § 1, 1708; Kilty's Rep. 247; Alex. Br. Stat. 679; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 79, § 13.)

§ 45–609 [25: 199]. Infant trustee or mortgagee may be compelled by order of court to make conveyance and assurance.

All and every such infant or infants, being only trustee or trustees, mortgagee or mortgagees, as aforesaid, shall and may be compelled by such order so, as aforesaid, to be obtained, to make such conveyance or conveyances, assurance or assurances, as aforesaid, in like manner as trustees or mortgagees of full age are compellable to convey or assign their trust, estates, or mortgages. (7 Ann. ch. 19, § 2, 1708; Kilty's Rept. 247; Alex. Br. Stat. 680; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 79, § 14.)

§ 45–610 [25: 200]. Mortgagee may redeem prior mortgage.

If it so happen there be more than one mortgage at the same time made, by any person or persons to any person or persons, of the same lands and tenements, the several late or under mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall have power to redeem any former mortgage or mortgages, upon payment of the principal debt, interest, and costs of suit, to the prior mortgagee or mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. (4 and 5 W. and M., ch. 16, § 4, 1692; Kilty's Rep. 242; Alex. Br. Stat. 579; Comp. Stat., D. C. 237, § 26.)

§ 45–611 [25: 201]. Appointment of trustee to sell in event of death of mortgagee or trustee.

In case of the death of a sole mortgagee or trustee, or the last survivor of several, if the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust shall not have been paid, the party entitled thereto may file a petition in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, setting forth under oath the execution of the mortgage or deed of trust, the death of the mortgagee or trustee, and the fact that the debt secured by the said mortgage or deed of trust remains unpaid, and such other fact as may be necessary to entitle the petitioner to the relief prayed, and praying for the appointment of a trustee to execute the trusts of the said mortgage or deed of trust. It shall not be necessary to make the heirs at law or devisees of the deceased mortgagee or trustee parties to such proceeding. The court may thereupon lay a rule upon the debtor or parties whose property is bound by said mortgage or deed of trust, unless they shall voluntarily appear and admit the allegations of the petition, to show cause, under oath, on or before the 10th day, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the service of such rule, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. If said party or parties can not be found in said District, service of said rule shall be by publication, according to the practice in equity in said court. If no cause be shown, notwithstanding the service of said rule, against the prayer of said petition, the court may determine in a summary way whether said debt remains unpaid, and if satisfied thereof the said court may, by decree, appoint a new trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee, and vest in him all the title at law and in equity, and all the powers that had been conveyed to and vested in the deceased mortgagee or trustee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1272, ch. 854, § 534; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the words "heirs at law" the words "or devisees."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Quaere: Whether this section and § 538 of the Code (§ 45–614) were intended to supersede the former course of procedure in equity for the removal and appointment of trustees. Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

NEW TRUSTEES APPOINTED

Where trustees appointed under deed of trust died, new trustees were appointed to execute the trusts, and were invested with all the powers which had been conveyed to the deceased trustees. Dawson v. Taylor (55 App. D. C. 237, 4 Fed. (2d) 430).

NO PROVISION REQUIRING NOTICE

The statute does not contain a provision requiring notice, actual or constructive, to all parties in interest. Totten v. Harlowe (66 App. D. C. 373, 88 Fed. (2d) 755).

PUBLICATION UPON ABSCONDING TRUSTEE

Publication need not be had upon an absconding trustee, whose whereabouts is unknown. Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

RES JUDICATA

Where mortgagor's successor, in suit by noteholder's successor for appointment of substitute trustee to sell the realty under deed of trust, raised question of laches and opposed appointment of substitute trustee, an unappealed from summary judgment appointing substitute trustee and directing him to sell the realty was res judicata, precluding mortgagor's successor from raising same question in subsequent suit to enjoin the sale. Mergardt v. Colonial-American Nat. Bank of Roanoke, 1944 (140 F. 2d 701, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 348).

TRUSTEES' REFUSAL TO PERFORM

Trustees' "refusal or disability to perform the trust is the equivalent in equity of a renunciation of the legal estate." Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

§ 45–612 [25: 202]. Defenses against foreclosure.

If matter of defense against the foreclosure of said mortgage or the enforcement of said deed of trust be set up in answer to said rule, the further proceedings shall be according to the practice in equity after answer filed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 535.)

FORECLOSURE

Foreclosure may be had by proceeding in equity, without calling on trustees to sell under power of sale in deed of trust. Utermehle v. McGreal (1 App. D. C. 359, revd. on other grounds, 167 U. S. 688, 42 L. Ed. 326, 17 Sup. Ct. 961).

On petition by holder of note secured by mortgage to participate in proceeds of sale of mortgaged property in foreclosure proceedings instituted by holder of other note, the bar of limitation, or lapse of time, does not apply as in case of an action on the note, but to the remedy for the enforcement of an equitable right in land under the mortgage; hence the same period that would bar an ejectment is required. Cropley v. Eyster (9 App. D. C. 373).

LIMITATIONS OR LACHES

Upon the ground of lapse of time alone, there is no room for the joint application of the statute of limitations and the doctrine of laches where they would conflict with each other, and the equitable doctrine would have the effect of reducing the statutory period of limitations. Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45–613 [25: 203]. Replacement of deceased trustee.

In case of the death of any trustee appointed as aforesaid without having executed the trusts of the mortgage or deed of trust, a like proceeding to that provided for in section 45–611 may be had to appoint a successor to him in the said trusts. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 536.)

§ 45–614 [25: 204]. Appointment of new trustee to sell in event of refusal or inability to act or removal of trustee from District, or for other good cause.

In case of the refusal of any trustee named in a deed of trust to secure a debt to accept the trusts thereby created, or of his resignation of said trust after accepting the same, which is hereby allowed, or of his removal from the District of Columbia, or of his inability to act, or for any other good cause shown, it shall be lawful for any party interested in the execution of such trusts to apply to said court by petition, setting forth the appropriate facts and asking for the appointment of a new trustee in his place, and a like proceeding shall be had for the appointment of such trustee as in the case of the death of a trustee, as directed in sections 45–611 and 45–619 of this title: Provided, That any rule to show cause issued in such case shall be served upon the existing trustee, as provided in said sections. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 538; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "said trust being executed" and also by striking out at the end of said section the words "well as upon the parties interested in the trust, if he and they can be found within the said District" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "provided in said sections."

Lee v. Mitcham (69 App. D. C. 17, 98 Fed. (2d) 298, 117 A. L. R. 1427).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DISCRETION OF COURT

Where deed of trust named first and second successor trustees, one of whom was in jail and the other awaiting trial, the court could in its reasonable discretion appoint a new trustee. Wright v. Pitts (62 App. D. C. 217, 66 Fed. (2d) 197).

EFFECT OF ORDER

Appointment of substitute trustee—conclusiveness of order. Bowen v. Mount Vernon Sav. Bank (66 App. D. C. 139, 85 Fed. (2d) 396).

LACHES

Alleged laches of noteholder's successor in seeking appointment of substitute trustee to sell property under deed to trust in accordance with a prior decree did not go to court's jurisdiction to order a sale under such decree. Mergardt v. Colonial-American Nat. Bank of Roanoke, 1944 (140 F. 2d 701, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 348).

PARTY INTERESTED

Where holder of one of 490 notes brings suit to procure substitution of trustees, it was not necessary to have a class or representative suit. Totten v. Harlowe (66 App. D. C. 373, 88 Fed. (2d) 755).

RES JUDICATA

Where mortgagor's successor, in suit by noteholder's successor for appointment of substitute trustee to sell the realty under deed of trust, raised question of laches and opposed appointment of substitute trustee, an unappealed from summary judgment appointing substitute trustee and directing him to sell the realty was res judicata, precluding mortgagor's successor from raising same question in subsequent suit to enjoin the sale. Mergardt v. Colonial-American Nat. Bank of Roanoke, 1944 (140 F. 2d 701, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 348).

§ 45–615 [25: 205]. Terms of sale.

If the length of notice and terms of sale are not prescribed by the mortgage or deed of trust, or be not left therein to the judgment or discretion of the mortgagee or trustee, any person interested in such sale may apply to the court, before such sale is advertised, to fix the terms of sale and determine what notice of sale shall be given. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 539; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out at the end thereof the words "which terms shall be such as to secure to the creditor the payment of his debt in cash as nearly as may be consistent with justice; and the determination of the court in the premises shall be binding on all parties in interest."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JUDICIAL SALE DISTINGUISHED

Where trustee appointed by the court to succeed surviving trustee who refused to serve made a sale, such sale was not a judicial sale within meaning of Judicial Sales Act (U. S. C., title 28, §§ 847–849), but a sale in accordance with the terms of the trust and the question of notice is governed by this section. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45–616 [25: 206]. Sale of property and deficiency decree in personam—Same relief in re vendor's lien.

In all cases of application to said court to foreclose any mortgage or deed of trust, the equity court shall have authority, instead of decreeing that the mortgagor be foreclosed and barred from redeeming the mortgaged property, to order and decree that said property be sold and the proceeds be brought into court to be applied to the payment of the debt secured by said mortgage; and if, upon a sale of the whole mortgaged property, the net proceeds shall be insufficient to pay the mortgage debt, the court may enter a decree in personam against the mortgagor or other party to the suit who is liable for the payment of the mortgage debt for the residue of said debt remaining unsatisfied after applying to said debt the proceeds of such sale: Provided, That the complainant would be entitled to maintain an action at law or suit in equity for said residue; which decree shall have the same effect and be enforced by execution in the same manner as a judgment at law. And in suits to enforce a vendor's lien on real estate for unpaid purchase money similar relief may be given by a decree of sale and a decree in personam for the unsatisfied residue of the purchase money due. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1204, ch. 854, § 95.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JUDICIAL SALE DISTINGUISHED

Where trustee under deed of trust obtained leave of court in receivership proceeding to sell real estate, such sale did not constitute a judicial sale. Huffines v. American Security & Trust Co. (63 App. D. C. 224, 71 Fed. (2d) 345).

PRIOR LAW

Prior to enactment of this act, R. S. § 808 applied to foreclosure of mortgages in the District of Columbia. Dodge v. Freedman's Sav. & Trust Co. (106 U. S. 445, 27 L. Ed. 206, 1 Sup. Ct. 335); Shepherd v. Pepper (133 U. S. 626, 33 L. Ed. 706, 10 Sup. Ct. 438).

PURPOSE

This section was intended to empower the court to combine in a single action relief by way of foreclosure and personal judgment. Hoffman v. Sheahin, 1941 (121 F. 2d 861, 73 App. D. C. 374).

TIME TO ENFORCE LIABILITY

This section does not extend the time for bringing an independent action to enforce personal liability after foreclosure by nonjudicial sale. Hoffman v. Sheahin, 1941 (121 F. 2d 861. 73 App. D. C. 374).

§ 45–617 [25: 207]. Creditor buying.

If a creditor, for the payment of whose debt property shall be sold under a deed of trust, shall become the purchaser at such sale, he shall be entitled to credit the amount of the purchase money against the debt, and shall be only required to pay to the trustee the excess of the purchase money over his debt, together with such additional amount as may be necessary to defray the expenses of the sale. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 544.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CREDITOR AS PURCHASER

When the creditor becomes a purchaser at the sale, he is entitled to credit the amount of the purchase money to the debt. Orlove v. National Sav. & Trust Co. (68 App. D. C. 387, 98 Fed. (2d) 259); Kosters v. Hoover (69 App. D. C. 66, 98 Fed. (2d) 595).

LIABILITY FOR PROFITS FROM UNLAWFUL SALE

Attorneys who knowingly confederated with receiver held liable for all profits resulting from purchase at foreclosure sale and resale of property, with interest and costs. Jackson v. Smith (254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 418, 41 Sup. Ct. 200, revg. 48 App. D. C. 565).

§ 45–618 [25: 208]. Expenses and commissions.

Among the lawful expenses of a sale under a mortgage or deed of trust is to be allowed a commission on the proceeds of sale to the mortgagee or trustee. Where the mortgage or deed of trust does not fix the rate of commission the mortgagee or trustee shall be allowed a commission of five per centum on the first five hundred dollars and three per centum on the balance of the purchase money actually paid by the purchaser at any sale, and one and one-half per centum on the amount of the purchase money not paid into the hands of the mortgagee or trustee, but credited on the debt, when the creditor becomes a purchaser.

When the property is lawfully advertised for sale under a mortgage or deed of trust, and the sale is prevented by payment of the debt or is suspended or postponed by arrangement between the parties interested, the trustee shall be entitled to a commission of one per centum on the amount of the debt secured in addition to the expenses incurred by him, and he shall be entitled to such allowance as often as such advertisement shall be made necessary by the default of the debtor: Provided, That if a sale shall actually take place under any such advertisement, he shall not be entitled to more than one such allowance in addition to his commission on the proceeds of an actual sale. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 545.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ALLOCATION

In action to foreclose a trust deed, it was for the District Court to allocate compensation and expenses of receiver who was appointed on defendant's motion, in accordance with justice, unburdened by any fixed rule. Camp v. Canelacos, 1942 (131 F. 2d 236, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 337).

§ 45–619 [25: 209]. Release after death of mortgagee or trustee.

In case of the death of a sole mortgagee or trustee or the last survivor of several, as aforesaid, if the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust shall have been paid, and it is desired by the party paying the same to obtain a deed of release, the said party may file a petition in said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, setting forth, under oath, the execution of said mortgage or deed of trust, the death of the mortgagee or trustee, the payment of the debt, and any other fact necessary to entitle the petitioner to the relief prayed, and praying for the appointment of a trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee to execute a deed of release of said mortgage or deed of trust. It shall not be necessary to make the heirs or devisees of the deceased mortgagee or trustee a party to such proceeding. The court may thereupon lay a rule upon the creditor secured by said mortgage or deed of trust, unless he shall voluntarily appear and admit the allegations of the petition, to show cause, under oath, on or before the 10th day, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the service of said rule, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. If said party can not be found in said District, service of said rule shall be by publication according to the practice in equity in said court. If no cause be shown, notwithstanding the service of said rule, against the prayer of the petition, the court may determine in a summary way whether said debt has been paid, and if satisfied thereof may, by decree, appoint a trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee and invest in him the title, in law and in equity, that was in the deceased mortgagee or trustee, for the purpose of executing a deed of release as aforesaid. If matter of defense against the prayer for a release of said mortgage or deed of trust be set up in answer to said rule, the further proceedings shall be according to the practice in equity after answer filed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 537; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the word "heirs" the words "or devisees."

§ 45–620 [25: 210]. Non compos mentis trustee or mortgagee or committee may by order of the chancellor make conveyance or assurance of mortgaged lands.

It shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons, being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, or for the committee or committees of such person or persons, in his, her, or their name or names, by the direction of the chancellor, signified by an order made, upon hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the person or persons, for whom such person or persons, being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor or mortgagors, or of the person or persons intitled to the monies secured by or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any such person or persons being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, is or are, or shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person or persons intitled to the redemption thereof, to convey and assure any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in such manner as the chancellor shall, by such order so to be obtained, direct, to any other person or persons; and such conveyance or assurance, so to be had and made as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said person or persons being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, was or were, at the time of the making such conveyance or assurance, of sane mind, memory, and understanding, and not ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, or had by him, her, or themselves executed the same. All and every person and persons being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, and only trustee or trustees, mortgagee or mortgagees, as aforesaid, or the committee and committees of all and every such person and persons, being ideot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, and only such trustee or mortgagee as aforesaid, shall and may be impowered and compelled, by such order so as aforesaid to be obtained, to make such conveyance or conveyances, assurance or assurances, as aforesaid, in like manner as trustees or mortgagees of sane memory are compellable to convey, surrender, or assign their trust estates or mortgages. (4 Geo. 2, ch. 10, §§ 1 and 2, 1731; Kilty's Rep. 249; Alex. Br. Stat. 700; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 78, § 11.)

RECORDER OF DEEDS, LEASE OF OFFICE SPACE

The recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia is hereby authorized to lease one additional floor in the Century Building, located at 412 Fifth Street Northwest, Washington, District of Columbia, consisting of nine rooms, for the use and occupancy of his office; and he is authorized and directed to pay for said use and occupancy, out of the fees and emoluments of his office, not to exceed $1,500 per annum. (Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1531, ch. 292.)

§ 45–701a. Compensation.

After September 29, 1943, the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, appointed in accordance with section 45–701, shall be paid a salary at the rate of $8,000 per annum. (Sept. 29, 1943, 57 Stat. 569, ch. 249, § 1.)

§ 45–701b. Purchase of machines—Personnel.

The Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia is authorized and empowered to purchase such machines and equipment as he may deem necessary or expedient for the efficient, expeditious, and economical recording of all deeds and other instruments of writing entitled by law to be recorded, and to employ such personnel as may be required to operate the same and to perform necessary services in connection therewith; and all deeds and other instruments of writing entitled by law to be recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds which are recorded by means of such machines or equipment are hereby declared to be legally recorded. (Aug. 4, 1947, 61 Stat. 730, ch. 456.)

§ 45–702 [25: 222]. Deputy recorder—Duties.

The recorder of deeds is authorized to appoint a deputy recorder, and all deeds of conveyance, leases, powers of attorney, and other written instruments required to be filed and recorded, and all copies of instruments and records and certificates authorized by law, filed, recorded, made, and certified by the deputy recorder shall have the same legality, force, and effect as if performed by the recorder. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 549.)

§ 45–703 [25: 223]. Second deputy—His duties and powers.

The recorder of deeds is authorized to appoint a second deputy recorder, who may do and perform any and all acts which the recorder is authorized to do, and all such acts by the said second deputy recorder shall have the same legality, force, and effect as if performed by the recorder; the compensation of said second deputy recorder to be at the rate of $2,000 per annum. And with the approval of the Attorney General of the United States, the recorder of deeds may from time to time fix the number and compensation of all other employees of his office: Provided, That the employees of said office shall not be in excess of the number actually necessary for the proper conduct of said office of the recorder of deeds: Provided, however, That the compensation of the first deputy recorder of deeds and that of the second deputy recorder of deeds shall not be changed except by Act of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1102, ch. 416.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of March 2, 1927, 44 Stat. 1301, provided that for the fiscal year 1928 the personal services in the office of the recorder of deeds should be paid in accordance with the Classification Act. A similar provision for the year 1929 is contained in the act of May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 649.

§ 45–704 [25: 224]. Vacancy.

In case of a vacancy in the office of the recorder by death, resignation, or other cause the deputy recorder shall act until a recorder shall be duly appointed and qualified. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 550; Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out proviso which stated that "no additional expense shall be incurred by the District for said deputy and no other fees shall be allowed than are now provided by law."

§ 45–705 [25: 225]. Public records to be open for inspection.

All public records which have reference to or in any way relate to real or personal property in the District of Columbia, whether the same be in the office of the recorder of deeds or in some other public office in the District of Columbia, shall be open to the public for inspection free of charge. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1277, ch. 854, § 556.)

§ 45–706 [25: 226]. Typewritten records.

The recorder of deeds is authorized and empowered to purchase and use in his office, for the recording of deeds and other instruments of writing required by law to be recorded in said office, typewriting machines, to be paid for as appropriations may be made from time to time; and all deeds and other instruments of writing entitled by law to be recorded in said office which shall be recorded by typewriting machines are hereby declared to be legally recorded.

The recording of all instruments filed for record in the office of the recorder of deeds shall be done with book typewriter, except in those cases where, on account of the character of the work, the use of a pen shall be found by the recorder to be necessary. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 551; June 27, 1906, 34 Stat. 489, ch. 3553.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, did not contain the second paragraph of this section.

§ 45–707 [25: 227]. Certain records to be recopied—Expense.

The recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia is authorized and directed to recopy such of the records in his office as may, in his judgment and that of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of its justices appointed by it for that purpose, need recopying in order to preserve the originals from destruction: Provided, That the expense thereof shall not in any one fiscal year exceed the sum of one thousand dollars certified to by the said District Court, or by one of its justices appointed by it for that purpose, and audited and allowed by the General Accounting Office. (Feb. 26, 1907, 34 Stat. 994, ch. 1636; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENT

The 1921 act substituted "general accounting office" for "accounting officer of the Treasury."

§ 45–708 [10: 14]. Fees of recorder of deeds.

The legal fees for the services of the recorder shall be as follows:

For filing, recording, and indexing, or for making certified copy of any instrument containing two hundred words or less, $1, and 20 cents for each additional hundred words, to be collected at the time of filing, or when the copy is made.

For each certificate and seal, 50 cents.

For searching records extending back two years or less next preceding current date, 50 cents, and 15 cents for each additional year, to be paid by the party for whom the search may be made.

For recording a plat or survey, 20 cents for each course such survey may contain.

For recording a town plat, 25 cents for each lot such plat may contain.

For taking any acknowledgment, 50 cents.

For filing and indexing a bill of sale of chattels, or a mortgage or deed of trust thereof, or a conditional bill of sale of chattels or any release or satisfaction of any such, $1.50.

For filing and indexing any other paper required by law to be filed in his office, 50 cents.

In addition to the fees herein required, all corporations hereafter incorporated in the District of Columbia shall pay to the recorder of deeds at the time of the filing of the certificate of incorporation 50 cents on each thousand dollars of the amount of capital stock of the corporation as set forth in its said certificate: Provided, however, That the fee so paid shall not be less than $50: Provided further, That the recorder of deeds shall not file or record any certificate of organization of any incorporation until it has been proved to his satisfaction that all the capital stock of said company has been subscribed for in good faith, and not less than 10 per centum of the par value of the stock has been actually paid in cash, and the money derived therefrom is then in the possession of the persons named as the first board of trustees. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 552; Feb. 4, 1905, 33 Stat. 689, ch. 299; June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 384, ch. 265.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1905 amendment added the last paragraph.

The 1935 amendment raised the various fees and added the eighth paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ENTRANCE FEE

Entrance fee is not a tax, but compensation for a privilege applied for and granted, and it does not represent either property or business being done, it is immaterial that in fixing its amount no apportionment is made between the property owned or the business done within the State and that owned or done elsewhere. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

Entrance fee is not a charge laid upon interstate commerce; nor a charge furtively directed against interstate commerce, and it should apply to foreign corporations as well as domestic. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

This section does not deprive foreign corporation of its property without due process as the entrance fee is not measured by property, either within or without the jurisdiction. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

§ 45–709 [25: 228]. Fees and emoluments of recorder of deeds deposited with collector of taxes.

All of the fees and emoluments of the office of recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia shall be paid at least weekly to the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia for deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 1.)

§ 45–710 [25: 229]. Estimates for annual appropriations—Building, equipment and supplies.

The annual estimates of appropriations for the government of the District of Columbia shall include estimates of appropriations for the operation and maintenance of the office of the recorder of deeds. And appropriations are hereby authorized for a suitable record building for the office of the recorder of deeds, and for personal services, rentals, office equipment, office supplies, and such other expenditures as are essential for the efficient maintenance and conduct of such office. (Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 2.)

§ 45–711. Recordation of service and discharge certificates—Fee—Constructive notice—Certified copies.

The recorder shall also receive for record and record all certificates of service and certificates of discharge of persons released from active duty in or discharged from the armed forces of the United States, for which no fee shall be charged or collected, but the record of any certificate authorized by this section to be recorded shall not constitute constructive notice of the existence or contents of such certificate. For making certified copies of any of the foregoing certificates from the records in the office of the recorder the usual fees shall be charged. (Apr. 27, 1945, 59 Stat. 100, ch. 101.)

§ 45–712. Office closed on Saturdays.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, the Office of the Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia shall be closed on every Saturday. (Aug. 2, 1946, 60 Stat. 860, ch. 758, § 1.)

§ 45–713. Time extended for recording writings.

Any writing, the time for recording of which expires on a Saturday, or on a Sunday, shall be deemed to have been recorded within the time prescribed if such writing be recorded on the first day thereafter other than Sunday or a legal holiday. (Aug. 2, 1946, 60 Stat. 861, ch. 758, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FEE TAIL CONVERTED INTO FEE-SIMPLE ESTATE

Devise held to create estate tail, and, therefore, under Maryland Act of 1786, converted into fee simple. Dengel v. Brown (1 App. D. C. 423).

Devise held to convey fee. Young v. Norris Peters Co. (27 App. D. C. 140); Atkins v. Best (27 App. D. C. 148).

Where a will gave to the granddaughter of testatrix real property until she should marry or attain the age of twenty-one years in either of which events, whichever happened first, the property was given to the granddaughter and her children, but if the granddaughter died before she attained the full age of twenty-one years without having been married, or if she married and died without leaving a child or children, then to testatrix' son, and the daughter married at twenty-four, had a son who predeceased her, she took a fee-simple title. Young v. Munsey Trust Co. (72 App. D. C. 73, 111 Fed. (2d) 514).

§ 45–803 [25: 263]. Absolute or qualified.

An estate in fee simple may be either absolute or qualified, as to one and his heirs during an existing condition of things of uncertain duration. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1013.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RECOGNIZED FEES

Qualified, determinable, or defeasible fees were known at common law and are recognized in the District of Columbia. Roberds v. Markham (D. C. D. C. 1948, 81 F. Supp. 38).

§ 45–804 [25: 264]. Freeholds—Chattels real—Chattel interests.

Estates of inheritance and estates for life shall continue to be denominated freeholds, and estates for years shall be chattels real; estates at will or by sufferance shall be chattel interests, but shall not be liable, as such, to sale under execution; and all estates may be subject to conditions precedent or subsequent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1014.)

§ 45–805 [25: 265]. Estates pur autre vie.

An estate for the life of a third person, whether limited to heirs or otherwise, shall be deemed a freehold only during the life of the grantee or devisee, but after his death it shall be deemed a chattel real and be a part of his personal estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1015.)

§ 45–806 [25: 266]. Estates classified—Possession—Expectancy.

Estates are either in possession or in expectancy. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1016.)

§ 45–807 [25: 267]. Estate in possession.

An estate in possession exists when the owner has an immediate right to the possession of the land. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1017.)

§ 45–808 [25: 268]. Estate in expectancy.

An estate in expectancy is either a reversion or a future estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1018.)

§ 45–809 [25: 269]. Reversions.

A reversion is the residue of an estate left in the grantor who has conveyed, or in the heirs of the devisor who has devised a particular estate less than his own, and which residue returns to his or their possession on the expiration of the particular estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1019.)

§ 45–810 [25: 270]. Future estates.

A future estate is one limited to commence at a future day, either without the intervention of a precedent estate or after the expiration or determination of a precedent estate created at the same time and by the same conveyance or devise. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1020.)

§ 45–811 [25: 271]. Remainder and conditional limitation.

If it is to commence upon the full expiration of such precedent estate, it is a remainder and may be transferred by that name. If it is to commence on a contingency which, if it happen, will abridge or determine such precedent estate before its expiration, it shall be known as a conditional limitation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1021.)

§ 45–812 [25: 272]. Vested and contingent future estates.

A future estate is vested when there is a person in being who would have an immediate right to the possession of the land upon the expiration of the intermediate or precedent estate, or upon the arrival of a certain period or event when it is to commence in possession. It is contingent when the person to whom or the event upon which it is limited to take effect in possession or become a vested estate is uncertain. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1022.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADVERBS OF TIME CONSTRUED

"Adverbs of time—as where, there, after, from, etc.—in a devise of a remainder are construed to relate merely to the time of the enjoyment of the estate, and not the time of the vesting in interest." Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443). See also Vogt v. Vogt (26 App. D. C. 46); Johnson v. Washington Loan & Trust Co. (33 App. D. C. 242, affd. 224 U. S. 224, 56 L. Ed. 741, 32 Sup. Ct. 421); Breneman v. Herdman (35 App. D. C. 27).

CONSTRUCTION

A construction which may lead to intestacy is not favored. Caine v. Payne (C. A. D. C. 1950, 182 F. 2d 246, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 404).

Following the material tenor of the language, the use of the words "survivors" or "survivor" refers not to survival at the time of testator's own death, but means survivorship among the nephews at the time of the death of the sister or niece, the immediate precedent beneficiary in point of time. The court must construe the will so that the intent of testator will have vitality. Caine v. Payne (C. A. D. C. 1950, 182 F. 2d 246, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 404).

CONTINGENT ESTATE

Where interest devised to grandniece followed a life estate to testator's widow, it was a "remainder," and where it was to become effective only on the death of testator's two daughters without descendants it was a "contingent remainder," and where only one daughter had died without descendants such contingent remainder had not vested, and until it had, the grandniece could take nothing. Lewis v. Cockrell (D. C., D. C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 380).

EXPRESS OR IMPLIED TERMS

Where "the absolute power of disposal was given in express and unequivocal terms, or clearly and unmistakably implied, to the first taker, the remainder over was void." Montgomery v. Brown (25 App. D. C. 490).

INTERPRETATION

Adverbs of time, as "after", etc., are to be construed to relate to the time of the enjoyment of the estate and not to the time of vesting of an interest. District of Columbia v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1948, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

LIMITATIONS

In terms of the law of future interests, there are alternative limitations and supplanting limitations. The former requires survival of the remaindermen to the end of the preceding interests. The latter does not necessarily require such survival. It imposes a condition, the happening of which replaces the remaindermen with another. Scott v. Powell (C. A. D. C. 1950, 182 F. 2d 75, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 277).

REMAINDER INTERESTS TAXABLE

Under the statutory definition of vested interests, the interests herein presented are vested remainders. Simultaneously, the remainder interests are subject to be divested should the remaindermen, or any of them, fail to survive the life estate. Such interests are subject to taxation. Keep v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 181 F. 2d 789, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 206).

SUBSTITUTION OF REMAINDERMAN

Where testatrix devised realty to her sister for life, then to her daughter for life, and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of the daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part and if daughter should die without issue then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, and in any case, if the three sons should die leaving a descendant or descendants, the descendent or descendants to take the share his, her, or their parent would have taken had he lived, as to one-fourth of property, each designated remainderman took a contingent remainder subject to be divested in event of his death leaving a descendant prior to death of second life tenant, so that son's descendant became substituted remainderman when he died before event which constituted contingency on which his interest depended. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d. 297).

VESTED AND CONTINGENT ESTATES DISTINGUISHED

Distinction between vested and contingent remainder. Fields v. Gwynn (19 App. D. C. 99). See also O'Brien v. Dougherty (1 App. D. C. 148); Richardson v. Penicks (1 App. D. C. 261); Marshall v. Augusta (5 App. D. C. 183); Craig v. Rowland (10 App. D. C. 402); Hauptman v. Carpenter (16 App. D. C. 524); Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

To same effect as original annotation, see Reeves v. American Security & Trust Co., 1940 (115 F. 2d 145, 72 App. D. C. 403, certiorari denied 61 S. Ct. 318, 311 U. S. 710, 85 L. Ed. 461).

VESTED ESTATE

Where testator devised his residuary estate to his wife for life and on her death to testator's daughters in fee simple share and share alike and "in the event that either of them be then dead unto the survivor of them", the daughters acquired a "vested interest" and not a "contingent interest" within section 47–1607 which recognizes and taxes separately vested interest and contingent interest. O'Neill v. District of Columbia, 1942 (132 F. 2d 601, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 79).

Where testatrix devised realty to her daughter for life and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of the daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part, and directed that, if daughter should die without issue, then to testatrix's three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, the sons each had a vested remainder in one-fourth of property and contingent remainder in one-twelfth. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

Where testatrix devised realty to her sister for life, then to her daughter for life, and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part and, if daughter should die without issue, then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, and in any case, if the three sons should die leaving a descendant or descendants, the descendant or descendants to take the share his, her, or their parent would have taken had he lived, as to three-fourths of property on death of testatrix, each designated remainderman took a vested remainder in fee simple subject to be divested in event of his death leaving a descendant prior to death of second life tenant and upon the event of divestment, the substituted remainderman took the remainder. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

Under will giving life estate in testamentary trust created therein to testator's stepdaughter, and providing that remainder should be divided, in equal shares, among testator's nephews and nieces listed in will, with the further provision that "the child or children of any one or more of said nephews and nieces deceased taking the parents' share," each nephew and niece named in will, who survived testator, took a "vested remainder interest" upon testator's death, and not a "contingent remainder interest." American Sec. & Trust Co. v. Sullivan (D. C., D. C. 1947, 72 F. Supp. 925).

A future estate is vested when there is a person in being who would have an immediate right to possession upon the expiration of the intermediate or preceding estate, or upon the arrival of a certain period or event when it is to commence in possession. District of Columbia v. Clark (C. A., D. C. 1948, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

VESTED REMAINDERS

There may be vested remainders in equitable estates as well as in legal estates. District of Columbia v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1948, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

VESTING FAVORED

"The law favors the vesting of estates, and is inclined to treat conditions as subsequent rather than precedent." Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

Estates will be held to vest at the earliest possible moment, in absence of testamentary intent to contrary. Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

§ 45–813 [25: 273]. Alternative future estates.

Two or more future estates may be created to take effect in the alternative, so that if the first in order shall fail to vest the next in succession may be substituted for it and take effect accordingly. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1026.)

§ 45–814 [25: 274]. Expectant estates not to be defeated.

No expectant estate can be defeated or barred by any alienation or other act of the owner of the intermediate or precedent estate, nor by any destruction of such precedent estate, by disseizin, forfeiture, surrender, merger, or otherwise, except when such destruction is expressly provided for or authorized in the creation of such expectant estate; nor shall an expectant estate thus liable to be defeated be on that ground adjudged void in its creation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1029.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DOWER RIGHTS IN EXPECTANT ESTATE

This section and § 1030 (§ 45–815) do not change the common-law rule that a widow is not entitled to dower in lands to which her husband had a remainder in fee, if he predeceases the life tenant. Tolty v. Tolty (40 App. D. C. 587).

ESTATE SUBJECT TO DIVESTMENT

Where testatrix devised realty to her sister for life, then to her daughter for life, and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part and, if daughter should die without issue, then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, and in any case, if the three sons should die leaving a descendant or descendants, the descendant or descendants to take the share his, her, or their parent would have taken had he lived, as to three-fourths of property on death of testatrix, each designated remainderman took a vested remainder in fee simple subject to be divested in event of his death leaving a descendant prior to death of second life tenant and upon the event of divestment, the substituted remainderman took the remainder. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

SUBSTITUTION OF REMAINDERMAN

Where testatrix devised realty to her sister for life, then to her daughter for life, and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of the daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part and if daughter should die without issue then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, and in any case, if the three sons should die leaving a descendant or descendants, the descendant or descendants to take the share his, her, or their parent would have taken had he lived, as to one-fourth of property, each designated remainderman took a contingent remainder subject to be divested in event of his death leaving a descendant prior to death of second life tenant, so that son's descendant became substituted remainderman when he died before event which constituted contingency on which his interest depended. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

§ 45–815 [25: 275]. Expectant estate descendible and alienable.

Expectant estates shall be descendible, devisable, and alienable in the same manner as estates in possession. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1030.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

Where testatrix devised realty to her daughter for life and then to testatrix's three sons and the issue of the daughter, if any, in fee simple, the issue to take a one-fourth part, and if daughter die without issue then to the three sons, their heirs and assigns forever share and share alike, a son's interests, whether contingent or vested, were assignable, but he could assign only that which he had. Pyne v. Pyne (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 297).

§ 45–816 [25: 276]. Tenancies in common and joint tenancies.

Every estate granted or devised to two or more persons in their own right, including estates granted or devised to husband and wife, shall be a tenancy in common, unless expressly declared to be a joint tenancy; but every estate vested in executors or trustees, as such, shall be a joint tenancy, unless otherwise expressed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1031; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by adding at the end thereof the words "unless otherwise expressed."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Construction of conveyance to two or more persons prior to adoption of code, see O'Brien v. Dougherty (1 App. D. C. 148) (devise to a class); Carroll v. Reidy (5 App. D. C. 59) (to husband and wife as tenants in common); Alsop v. Fedarwisch (9 App. D. C. 408); Seitz v. Seitz (11 App. D. C. 358).

Where the death of the testator occurred before the enactment of the code, the common law applied. Noyes v. Parker (68 App. D. C. 13, 92 Fed. (2d) 562).

Conveyances to husband and wife, their heirs and assigns forever, prior to adoption of this section, created a tenancy by the entirety, unaffected by the married woman's act. Blount v. United States (59 Ct. Cls. 328).

ESTATES BY ENTIRETIES

Estates by the entireties still exist in the District of Columbia in both personalty and realty. Flaherty v. Columbus (41 App. D. C. 525). See also Marshall v. Lane (27 App. D. C. 276), reforming a deed to create tenancy in common instead of estate of entireties. See opinion of Hoehling J., in Settle v. Settle (56 App. D. C. 50, 8 Fed. (2d) 911, 43 A. L. R. 1079), holding that conveyance to husband and wife "as joint tenants" creates tenancy by entireties.

This section does not abolish common-law tenancies by entireties. Settle v. Settle (56 App. D. C. 50, 8 Fed. (2d) 911, 43 A. L. R. 1079).

Land, which was conveyed to husband and wife as joint tenants, was held by husband and wife as "tenants by the entirety". Herb v. Gerstein (D. C., D. C. 1941, 41 F. Supp. 634).

Husband was entitled to maintain in his own name a suit against tenant for possession of an apartment in a building which he and his wife had purchased as tenants by the entirety. Sandler v. Wertlieb (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 222).

PRIOR LAW

Prior to enactment of this section on January 1, 1902, there was in force in District of Columbia a common law rule that a conveyance or devise to two or more persons, whether as a class or by name, without sufficient indication in instrument of intention that they were to hold in severalty, should be construed as creating a joint tenancy and not a tenancy in common. American Sec. & Trust Co. v. Sullivan (D. C., D. C. 1947, 72 F. Supp. 925).

TENANCIES IN COMMON

Where brother and sister were engaged in a joint business venture regarding a piece of property, the title being in her name solely as a matter of convenience, they were in effect tenants in common. Sheehy v. O'Donoghue (68 App. D. C. 127, 94 Fed. (2d) 252).

A tenant in common owns an undivided interest in the property, and such tenants have no separate estate or interest in any distinct portion of the property over which they have simultaneously rights of property, each being interested according to the extent of his share in every part of the whole property and its proceeds. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

Where testamentary trust created by will directing that children of deceased remainderman should take share that parents would have taken was created after January 1, 1902, children of a deceased remainderman took share of their parent as "tenants in common", and not as "joint tenants", and, hence, upon one of the children subsequently dying before life tenant, estate of the deceased child would take same equal share as surviving child or children would take. American Sec. & Trust Co. v. Sullivan (D. C., D. C. 1947, 72 F. Supp. 925).

§ 45–817 [25: 277]. Coparcenary estates abolished.

There shall be no estate in coparcenary in the District, and where two or more persons inherit from an intestate they shall be tenants in common. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1343, ch. 854, § 956.)

§ 45–818 [25: 278]. Estates for years.

An estate for a determined period of time is an estate for years. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1032.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LEASES

A lease for a term of years creates an estate in the grantee, and the rent reserved may be a lump sum, payable either at the commencement of the term or at its end, subject to such conditions as the lease imposes. Isquith v. Athanas (D. C. Mun. App. 1943, 33 A. 2d 733).

An ordinary lease of tenancy for years must be certain as to commencement, duration and termination or be capable of being made certain by reference to some collateral event or thing which in itself is certain. Smith's Transfer & Storage Co. v. Hawkins (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 267).

Where lease provided that it should continue for one year and if at end of that period war of United States with Germany and Japan had not been terminated, lease should continue until "end of war" with Germany and Japan as determined by proclamation of President of United States or by joint resolution of Congress, the lease provided for termination by collateral event which was certain to happen and therefore the lease did not terminate at end of the primary term. Smith's Transfer & Storage Co. v. Hawkins (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 267).

§ 45–819 [25: 279]. Estates from year to year.

An estate expressed to be from year to year shall be good for one year only. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1033.)

HOLDING OVER

A lease for one year, with a provision that unless the premises are vacated on the day of the expiration of the term, the lessee shall become a tenant for another year, creates a tenancy for one year only, and the tenant holding over becomes a tenant at sufferance. Morse v. Brainerd (42 App. D. C. 448). See also Soper v. Myers (45 App. D. C. 286).

§ 45–820 [25: 280]. Estates by sufferance.

All estates which by construction of the courts were estates from year to year at common law, as where a tenant goes into possession and pays rent without an agreement for a term, or where a tenant for years, after the expiration of his term, continues in possession and pays rent and the like, and all verbal hireings by the month or at any specified rate per month, shall be deemed estates by sufferance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1034; June 30. 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "hirlings" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "hireings."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COMMON LAW

At common law a "tenant by sufferance" had no estate in premises, was not in privity with landlord, could not maintain action of trespass against landlord, was entitled to no notice to quit, was not liable for rent, and had little more than right to insist he was not trespasser. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

At common law, a tenant holding over and paying rent became a "tenant from year to year" and the holding over was impliedly subject to all covenants of expired lease. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

CREATION OF NEW TENANCY

Where landlord obtained a judgment which established her right to possession under sections 1601 et seq. of this title and tenant was granted a stay by the court conditioned upon payment of rent, and thereafter tenant bargained with landlord for additional time upon condition that rent would be paid and that it would be the last extension, tenant could not thereafter assert that landlord had created a new tenancy and had abandoned her right to enforce judgment of possession by accepting rent for the extended period. Trammell v. Estep (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 501).

EXPIRATION OF LEASE

Where in lease tenant agreed to pay insurance, and paid same beyond term of lease, such payment did not extend the lease and he was tenant by sufferance. Forster v. Eliot (52 App. D. C. 107, 282 Fed. 735).

Tenants in possession of property under a lease which had expired were tenants by sufferance. Weaver v. Koester (54 App. D. C. 80, 294 Fed. 1011).

Tenant under six months' lease becomes tenant by sufferance on its expiration, notice of renewal having been verbal and not written. National Cafés v. Elite Laundry Co. (57 App. D. C. 178, 18 Fed. (2d) 828).

Tenant on expiration of one-year lease became tenant by sufferance, and entitled to thirty days' notice to vacate. H. L. Rust Co. v. Drury (62 App. D. C. 329, 68 Fed. (2d) 167).

A tenant who remained in possession paying rent after expiration of written lease became a "tenant by sufferance", not within common-law meaning of term, and hence such tenancy could be terminated by either party upon 30 days' notice. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

The fact that tenant continued in possession of premises after expiration of term lease did not create a "tenancy by sufferance" so as to require landlord to give 30 day notice, where landlord brought action for possession immediately upon expiration of term and continuation in possession was result of temporary injunction order obtained by tenant and landlord rejected rent offered by tenant, notwithstanding landlord accepted damages for wrongful suing out of temporary restraining order. Bell v. Westbrook (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 50 A. 2d 264).

The fact that landlord called tenant a "tenant by sufferance" in complaint in action for possession of premises filed immediately upon expiration of term lease, did not create a "tenancy by sufferance" so as to require landlord to first give tenant a 30 day notice since quoted term was a legal conclusion. Bell v. Westbrook (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 50 A. 2d 264).

LEASE COVENANTS

A holding over by tenant after expiration of lease is subject to all covenants and terms of original lease applicable to new situation. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 707).

Where tenant held over for about 30 months after expiration of written lease, and tenancy could have been terminated on 30 days' notice tenancy created by holding over was impliedly subject to covenant of lease imposing upon tenant liability for cost of needful repairs. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

A covenant in a lease against assigning or subletting without landlord's consent is for benefit of landlord because it is regarded as for his interest to determine who shall be his tenant. Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

NATURE OF SECTION

This section is mandatory and neither parties nor courts are at liberty to disregard its express policy. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

PART OF LEASE

This section was as much a part of lease which tenant claimed to have renewed by holding over after expiration thereof and paying rent as though this section had been written into lease. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

RENEWAL OF LEASE

Under the rule that an election by tenant to renew a lease should precede or be concurrent with expiration of lease and not depend upon after events except insofar as they may reflect the understanding of the parties with respect to a precedent act, the fact that tenant remained in possession after expiration of lease and paid rent shed little light upon his intention to exercise option to renew, and, in absence of other evidence, such holding over presumptively created a mere tenancy by sufferance. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

TENANT HOLDING OVER

A tenant holding over and paying rent becomes a "tenant by sufferance" in sense only that his tenancy may be terminated by tenant or landlord on 30 days' notice in accordance with section 45–904. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

A lapse of two weeks between the expiration of the lease and the filing of the suit is not sufficient to establish a tenancy by sufferance under the terms of the statute. Williams v. John S. Donohoe & Sons, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 239).

TERMINATION BY SUBLETTING

Where tenant under verbal hiring by the month removed herself from rented apartment and sublet it to another with landlord's consent for a designated period, after expiration of such period, landlord was entitled to possession of the apartment on ground that tenant was violating "obligation of tenancy" within Emergency Rent Act, § 45–1605 (b). Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

In absence of restrictions, a tenant under lease for definite term may sublet the premises; but, where tenant has only an estate at sufferance, if tenant sublets contrary to landlord's wishes, landlord may terminate the tenancy immediately. Keroes v. Westchester Apartments, (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

VERBAL RENTING BY MONTH

This section of the code provides that all verbal hirings by the month, or at any specified rate per month, shall be deemed estates by sufferance. Boss v. Hagan (49 App. D. C. 106, 261 Fed. 254, 8 A. L. R. 1508).

Tenancy under verbal hiring by the month, though deemed a tenancy at sufferance by this section is not an estate at sufferance within strict meaning of the common-law term, but is more in the nature of an estate from month to month, or an estate at will, and until the Emergency Rent Act, § 45–1605 (b), became effective was determinable at any time. Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

Tenant holding apartment under verbal hiring by the month was a "tenant at sufferance". Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869); Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

§ 45–821 [25: 281]. Estates from month to month or from quarter to quarter.

An estate may be from month to month or from quarter to quarter, or, as otherwise expressed, it may be by the month or by the quarter, if so expressed in writing. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1035.)

§ 45–822 [25: 282]. Estates at will—When terminated.

An estate at will is one held by the joint will of lessor and lessee, and which may be terminated at any time, as herein elsewhere provided, by either party; and such estate shall not exist or be created except by express contract: Provided, however, That in case of a sale of real estate under mortgage or deed of trust or execution, and a conveyance thereof to the purchaser, the grantor in such mortgage or deed of trust, execution defendant, or those in possession claiming under him, shall be held and construed to be tenants at will, except in the case of a tenant holding under an unexpired lease for years, in writing, antedating the mortgage or deed of trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1036.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

Where plaintiff fails to bring defendant within the statutory definition of a tenant at will, he will not prevail. Spruill v. Brooks (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 204).

LESSEE AFTER FORECLOSURE

Lessee of property sold under foreclosure proceedings becomes the tenant of the purchaser. Bliss v. Duncan (44 App. D. C. 93).

NOTICE AND TIME TO REMOVE PEACEABLY

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time peaceably to remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

RIGHT TO POSSESSION

Where plaintiff sued for possession of property purchased at foreclosure sale against defendant who had previously owned the property but had defaulted on the second trust note, the defense that when the deed of trust was foreclosed defendants automatically became tenants at will under § 45–822 and could not be ousted by reason of § 45–1605 is not applicable since the property did not constitute housing accommodations within the meaning of § 45–1611. Surratt v. Real Estate Exchange, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 587).

§ 45–823 [25: 283]. Provisions applicable to personal property.

All the provisions of this chapter and of sections 45–102 to 45–104, 45–203, 45–204, shall apply to personal property generally except where from the nature of the property they are inapplicable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1036, as added by June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section was originally an amendatory section to prior section in relation to "estates at will."

Chapter 9.—LANDLORD AND TENANT

Sec.

45–901. When notice to quit not necessary.
45–902. Notices to quit—Month to month.
45–903. Tenancy at will—Notice for termination.
45–904. Tenancy by sufferance—When terminated.
45–905. Notice not to be recalled.
45–906. Service of notice.
46–907. Refusal to quit, double rent.
45–908. Agreement as to notice.
45–909. Recovery of real and personal property leased together.

Sec.
45–910. Ejectment or summary proceedings.
45–911. Arrears of rent and double rent.
45–912. Consolidation of actions.
45–913. Procedure to eject married woman who is a tenant.
45–914. Plea of title.
45–915. Landlord's lien for rent.
45–916. Lien—How enforced.
45–917. How attachment enforced.
45–918. Property subject to lien for rent not to be taken on execution without first paying all rent due.
45–919. Distress not void because of irregularity—Party not trespasser ab initio—Special damages only recoverable—Tender of amends defeats recovery.
45–920. Fraudulent removal, conveyance, or concealment of property to defeat lien subjects guilty party to forfeiture of double value of such property.
45–921. Representatives of life tenant may recover from under-tenant proportion of rent.
45–922. Debt may be brought for instalments of rent under lease for life.
45–923. Action of case for use and occupation—Parol agreement evidence of quantum of damages.
45–924. Lunatic, entitled to renewal of lease, or his guardian or committee, under order of court, may surrender lease—Also make new lease.
45–925. Lease made pursuant to section 45–924 valid.
45–926. Accruals from renewals of leases, property of lunatic—Unapplied part at death of lunatic treated as real property, unless lunatic be tenant for life, then personal property.
45–927. Lunatic or infant, or guardian or committee, under order of court, may surrender and take new leases.
45–928. Expenses and costs of renewal chargeable against interest of infant or lunatic.
45–929. Renewed leases shall be to the same uses, trusts, charges, incumbrances, devises, and conditions as surrendered leases were.
45–930. Surrendered and renewed lease of lunatic or infant valid.
45–931. Surrender for new lease good without surrender of under leases—Under leases continue unaffected—All rights and remedies to continue.
45–932. Assignee of reversion.
45–933. Grants of remainders, reversions, and rents good without attornment—Payment of rent without notice valid.
45–934. Fraudulent attornment void—Possession not changed by such attornment—Attornment pursuant to judgment excepted.

§ 45–901 [25: 311]. When notice to quit not necessary.

When real estate is leased for a certain term no notice to quit shall be necessary, but the landlord shall be entitled to the possession, without such notice, immediately upon the expiration of the term. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1218.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXPIRATION OF TERM

The fact that landlord who immediately brought at expiration of term lease, an action for recovery of possession of leased premises, accepted damages from tenant for wrongful suing out of order temporarily restraining landlord from further proceeding with the action, did not constitute waiver of landlord's right to sue for recovery of premises. Bell v. Westbrook (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 50 A. 2d 264).

Landlord who filed on January 2, 1946, a suit for possession of premises was not required to first give a 30 day notice to quit, notwithstanding term lease expired December 31, 1945, since January 1, 1946, being a legal holiday, this section authorizing recovery of possession without notice immediately upon expiration of term was complied with. Bell v. Westbrook (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 50 A. 2d 264).

Where tenants claimed that landlord did not forcibly evict them from the premises, did not file suit for possession until two weeks after the lease had expired, and that the tenants continued to furnish heat and hot water for entire building, and that these acts created a tenancy by sufferance entitling them to a thirty-day notice to quit, the claims were without merit under the provisions of the statute. Williams v. John S. Donohue & Sons, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 239).

When real estate is leased for a certain term, no notice to quit is necessary and the landlord is entitled to possession immediately upon the expiration of the term. Alpert v. Wolf (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 525).

SUBTENANT, NOTICE TO

Where lessee of one portion of premises occupied, added space as subtenant of second lessee, and by supplemental agreement with landlord proposed to occupy added space under covenants of original lease if second lessee vacated, and both leases expired before second lessee vacated, and lessor did not recognize lessee as a tenant of added space by accepting rent from him for such space, lessee occupied added space as a subtenant holding over, and since second lessee had no right to a 30 day notice to vacate, his lease having expired, lessee, as subtenant, also was without right to such notice. Thayer v. Brainerd (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 787).

§ 45–902 [25: 312]. Notices to quit—Month to month.

A tenancy from month to month, or from quarter to quarter, may be terminated by a thirty days' notice in writing from the landlord to the tenant to quit, or by such a notice from the tenant to the landlord of his intention to quit, said notice to expire, in either case, on the day of the month from which such tenancy commenced to run. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1219.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

Landlord who without knowledge of dealings between tenant and corporation accepted corporate checks for rent was not thereby bound by transactions between tenant and corporation, and where there was no written assignment of rental agreement with tenant to corporation and landlord had never accepted corporation as a tenant, service of notice on tenant was sufficient to terminate lease as well as sublease expressly made subject thereto. Haje's, Inc. v. Wire (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 56 A. 2d 158).

DATE NOTICE TERMINATES

While the landlord is not required to specify in the notice the date of the termination of the notice, having done it he is bound by that date. Merritt v. Thompson (53 App. D. C. 233, 289 Fed. 631).

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

A notice to quit which describes the property in the same manner as in defendant's lease, and which gives more than 30 days' notice, held to be sufficient. Bliss v. Duncan (44 App. D. C. 93).

DISMISSAL OF COMPLAINT

In proceeding in landlord and tenant court, where informality of pleading has always been the rule, to recover demised premises on the sole ground that tenancy had been terminated by notice failure of complaint to show that premises were exempt from § 45–1601 et seq. did not require dismissal. U. S. v. Wittek (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 805, reversed and remanded, 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406, remanded 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 377).

Where complaint alleged termination of tenancy by notice and sought recovery of demised premises, even if premises were housing accommodations governed by § 45–1601 et seq., it was still possible that plaintiff could have stated a cause of action by alleging that tenants had violated a condition of their tenancy, and proper procedure was to grant motion to dismiss with leave to amend. U. S. v. Wittek (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 805, reversed and remanded 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406, remanded 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 377).

DUE NOTICE TERMINATES

A landlord is not required to specify, in notice to quit premises leased from month to month date of expiration of notice, but must give notice running for full 30-day period, excluding date of service, and expiring on day of month from which tenancy commenced to run. Young v. Baugh (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 242, appeal dismissed, 39 A. 2d 478).

In fixing time when landlord's notice to tenant to quit leased premises expires, law does not take cognizance of fractions of a day or minute. Young v. Baugh (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 242, appeal dismissed, 39 A. 2d 478).

An agreement whereby property was conveyed to holder of a deed of trust did not affect lease of the premises previously made by owner, but the title taken was subject to the lease, in absence of foreclosure of the deed of trust, even though the lease was not of record, and to terminate the tendency it was necessary that notice to quit expire on the day on which the tenancy commenced to run. Knowles v. Mosher (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 755).

MOOT QUESTIONS

When real estate is leased for a certain time, no notice to quit is necessary and the landlord is entitled to possession immediately upon the expiration of the term. It is not the duty of the court to give opinions upon moot questions or abstract propositions, or to declare principles or rules of law which cannot affect the matter in issue. Moreover, it has often been decided where possession of land was involved under an alleged lease that the question becomes moot after the expiration of such lease. Alpert v. Wolf (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 525).

RECEIPT OF RENT AFTER NOTICE

"The receipt of rent by a landlord, after notice to quit, of rent for a new term or part thereof, amounts to a waiver of his right to demand possession under that notice * * *. But the receipt of rent for the current month, pending the notice to quit, cannot have that effect." Byrne v. Morrison (25 App. D. C. 72).

Acceptance of rent to November 30 is not a waiver of a notice to quit expiring on December 1. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001). See Byrne v. Morrison (25 App. D. C. 72).

A notice to quit served on November 27, 1944, on a monthly tenant whose tenancy ran from the first day of the month would expire January 1, 1945, and acceptance of rent to January 1, 1945, after service of notice would not waive or invalidate such notice. Moncure v. Curry (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 143).

Whether landlord's agent had authority to accept rent paid after service of notice to quit would be immaterial unless payment was for rent beyond termination date of the notice. Moncure v. Curry (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 143).

The acceptance of rent by landlord from month to month tenant only for a period during the running of notice to quit was not a waiver of such notice.—Pointer v. Shepard (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 659).

REVIEW

In action by landlord against one alleged to be a monthly tenant for possession of realty, appellate court could not pass on validity of defense of acceptance of a month's rent after service of notice to quit in absence of statement of proceedings and evidence showing when tenancy began to run or when notice to quit expired, since acceptance of rent to date of such expiration would not waive or invalidate notice. Moncure v. Curry (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 143).

THIRTY-DAY NOTICE

Thirty-day notice, expiring on the day of the month from which the tenancy is alleged by defendant to run, is sufficient, whether estate be from month to month or by sufferance. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001).

Sundays and half holidays on Saturdays under section 1389 (§ 28–616) are not excluded in computing the time given in the notice. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001).

Notice is not bad because it gives 31 days' notice. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001), citing Boss v. Hagan (49 App. D. C. 106, 261 Fed. 254).

A notice dated and served July 1, requiring tenant to vacate on July 31, is insufficient. "By the rule of interpretation, excluding the first day and including the last, there was not full 30 days." Merritt v. Thompson (53 App. D. C. 233, 289 Fed. 631).

Where monthly tenancy commenced on December 15, 1942, landlord's notice, dated June 11, 1943, and served on tenant on June 12, directing him to vacate and quit leased premises 30 days after June 15, 1943, and adding that notice expired July 15, 1943, was not defective as commencing after June 15, less than 30 days before July 15. Klein v. Miles (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 243).

A tenant from month to month is entitled to full 30 days' notice to quit. Klein v. Miles (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 243).

A landlord's notice to quit, dated and served on month to month tenant June 30, 1943, and demanding that tenant quit leased premises at end of 30 days after beginning of next month's tenancy on July 1, 1943, complied with this section requiring 30 days' written notice to quit, expiring on day of month from which tenancy commenced to run, so as to entitle landlord to possession after August 1, on which date notice expired. Young v. Baugh (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 242, appeal dismissed, 39 A. 2d 478).

A notice to quit served on tenant on or about May 14, 1946, requiring month to month tenant to vacate "on or before" July 1, 1946, was not defective because of use of words "on or before", since notice did not require tenant to quit before July 1. Gordon v. Tino (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d. 593).

Where month to month tenancy began on the third of the month, and rent was payable on that day, a notice to quit signed by both landlords, dated and served on October 18, 1946, requiring tenants to vacate premises on the third day of December, 1946, satisfied provision of this section respecting notice to terminate tenancy from month to month. Wynn v. Washington (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 275).

Thirty days' notice to tenant in defense housing project, written on a letterhead of the National Capital Housing Authority and signed by property manager of project, was sufficient though dispossessory proceedings were brought by the United States, rather than by the Authority. Wittek v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 747, reversed 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 377, certiorari granted, 69 S. Ct. 737, 336 U. S. 931, 93 L. Ed. 1092; reversed and remanded 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406).

With respect to 30-day notice of termination of month to month tenancy, that midnight lying midway between the last day of the terminal month and the first day of the new month must be the termination of the thirtieth day of notice. Zoby v. Kosmadakes (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 618).

Tenant may be given more than 30 days' notice of termination of month to month tenancy without affecting validity of notice. Zoby v. Kosmadakes (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 618).

Where tenant complained that the notice to quit was not in accordance with the statute, and the facts show that counting in the usual way from June 1 to July 31 was the sixtieth day, and since the notice required only that the tenant vacate the premises "at the end of" such sixty days, it is clear that the notice gave far more than the thirty days required and fully complied with the Code. Alpert v. Wolf (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 525).

§ 45–903 [25: 313]. Tenancy at will—Notice for termination.

A tenancy at will may be terminated by thirty days' notice in writing by either landlord or tenant. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1220.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Notice to Former Owner

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time to peaceably remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

Unlawful Eviction

The eviction of tenant at will without statutory 30-day notice was unlawful and justified award of damages. Northeast Auto Wreckers v. Sanford (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 292).

§ 45–904 [25: 314]. Tenancy by sufferance—When terminated.

A tenancy by sufferance may be terminated at any time by a notice in writing from the landlord to the tenant to quit the premises leased, or by such notice from the tenant to the landlord of his intention to quit on the 30th day after the day of the service of the notice. If such notice expires before any periodical instalment of rent fall due, according to the terms of the tenancy, the landlord shall be entitled to a proportionate part of such instalment to the date fixed for quitting the premises. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1221.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Acceptance of Rent

Where rental check was sent back and forth several times but was never accepted or redeposited, the question whether these series of events constituted acceptance of the rent and hence that notice to quit became ineffective, was properly submitted to the jury. Rubenstein v. Swagart (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 690).

Construction With Other Laws

Prior to enactment of District of Columbia Emergency Rent Act, § 45–1601 et seq., landlord could have evicted tenant by sufferance at any time and without any reason merely by serving on tenant a 30-day notice to quit followed with possessory action but said § 45–1601 et seq., restrict landlord's rights and protect tenant from eviction except on one of grounds specified. Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869).

A roomer, although a tenant under section 1611 (f) of Title 45, was not a tenant for other purposes, and was not entitled to benefit of this section requiring a notice to quit for termination of a tenancy. Tamamian v. Gabbard (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 513).

Description of Property

Notice to quit, served on tenant at sufferance who had sublet premises for definite period with landlord's consent on ground that tenant was violating obligation of tenancy within § 45–1605 three weeks before any such alleged violation occurred, was premature, and had no anticipatory effect to reach future violations. Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869).

A tenant who remained in possession paying rent after expiration of written lease became a "tenant by sufferance", not within common-law meaning of term, and hence such tenancy could be terminated by either party upon 30 days' notice. Hampton v. Mott Motors (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 247).

Expiration of Notice

An agreement whereby property was conveyed to holder of a deed of trust did not affect lease of the premises previously made by owner, but the title taken was subject to the lease, in absence of foreclosure of the deed of trust, even though the lease was not of record, and to terminate the tenancy it was necessary that notice to quit expire on the day on which the tenancy commenced to run. Knowles v. Mosher (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 755).

Holding Over

Tenant continuing in possession and paying rent under an expired lease becomes a tenant at sufferance and such tenancy is impliedly subject to the provisions of the expired lease. Friedman v. Sherman (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 57).

Improvements

Where tenant of a row house, shortly before expiration of five-year lease, made improvements on the property at a cost of more than $200, but the only improvement landlord was cognizant of was the painting of front porch by tenant, such repairs were not sufficient to have bound tenant for a renewal term of five years, and hence did not constitute notice to landlord that tenant was exercising option contained in lease to renew for a five-year period, and landlord was at liberty, after expiration of lease, to terminate the tenancy and recover possession for landlord's personal occupancy. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Master and Servant Relationship

Where the servant was to do certain work, and while performing the same he was to occupy the premises without charge, the relationship was master and servant, not landlord and tenant. Turner v. Mertz (55 App. D. C. 177, 3 Fed. (2d) 348, 39 A. L. R. 1140).

A landlord's notice to quit to tenant by sufferance, stating that notice expired on 30th day after day of service of notice, substantially complied with this section. Globe Clothing Shop v. Skolnick (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 271).

A notice to tenant by sufferance to quit addressed to "Globe Clothing Shop" was not defective for failure to designate tenant as corporation, partnership, or individual, where notice was personally served on tenant and tenant was not misled by notice. Globe Clothing Shop v. Skolnick (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 271).

Notice Generally

A notice to terminate a tenancy by sufferance is sufficient which requires tenant to quit "at the end of 30 days from the date of service" upon him, instead of on the thirtieth day thereafter. Hayden v. Filippone (51 App. D. C. 246, 278 Fed. 329).

To terminate a tenancy by sufferance, landlord must give tenant a 30-day notice to vacate, but such notice does not need to assign any reason. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Where tenant held over after expiration of lease and landlord desired premises for personal occupancy, 30-day notice to vacate was sufficient to terminate the tenancy notwithstanding that notice did not specify any one of the several grounds which, under the Emergency Rent Control Act, § 45–1605, are made conditions to the right of a landlord to regain possession of residential property. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Where one-year lease of rooming house gave lessor or his assignee right to terminate lease if property was sold during term of lease by giving lessee 90-days notice, it unambiguously provided for 90 days notice only during year lease was in effect, and tenant by holding over and paying rent after lease expired became "tenant by sufferance" and was entitled only to the usual 30-day notice. Arsenault v. Angle (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 709).

Where landlord gave tenant permission to install an air cooling system for leased premises and thereafter gave tenant "permission to use" certain space not covered by lease for purpose of installing parts of the air cooling machinery, the language used did not create a "tenancy by sufferance" so as to require landlord to give tenant a 30 day notice to quit after expiration of lease with respect to the space permissively used. Thayer v. Brainerd (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 787).

Where evidence was insufficient to establish that tenant had any special form of lease, he was merely a tenant at sufferance, and a notice to quit which expired 30 days from December 20 was valid although tenancy commenced on first of the month. Sandler v. Wertlieb (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 222).

NOTICE IN WRITING

A notice served on tenant personally, wherein he is described as "Wm." instead of Richard, and giving him the required length of time in which to vacate is sufficient under this section. "The proceedings in landlord and tenant cases are informal, and if the substantial rights of both parties are preserved, a departure from strict procedure may be ignored." Creel v. Adams (49 App. D. C. 306, 265 Fed. 456).

To terminate a tenancy by sufferance, notice in writing must be given. Beyer v. Smith (59 App. D. C. 32, 32 Fed. (2d) 423, cert. den. 280 U. S. 557, 74 L. Ed. 613, 50 Sup. Ct. 17).

PURPOSE OF NOTICE

The purpose of a thirty days' notice to quit is to terminate a tenancy and upon the expiration of the time fixed in the notice to quit, the tenancy no longer exists Rubenstein v. Swagart (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 690).

PROPERTY USED FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES

Where plaintiff served defendant notice to quit using language of statute, and said also, "The said premises being necessary for me for my immediate personal occupancy"; such notice is sufficient whether the property was being used for business purposes or not. Weaver v. Koester (54 App. D. C. 80, 294 Fed. 1011).

WAIVER OF POSSESSION

The receipt of rent by a landlord for a new term or parts thereof after service of a notice to quit amounts to a waiver of his rights to demand possession under the notice. Christopher v. Shapiro (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 781).

§ 45–905 [25: 315]. Notice not to be recalled.

Neither landlord nor tenant, after giving notice as aforesaid, shall be entitled to recall the notice so given without the consent of the other party, but after the expiration of the notice given by the tenant as aforesaid the landlord shall be entitled to the possession as if he had given the proper notice to quit; and after the expiration of the notice given by the landlord as aforesaid the tenant shall be entitled to quit as if he had given the proper notice of his intention to quit. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1222; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 542, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the word "if," the word "he."

§ 45–906 [25: 316]. Service of notice.

Every notice to the tenant to quit shall be served upon him personally, if he can be found, and if he can not be found it shall be sufficient service of said notice to deliver the same to some person of proper age upon the premises, and in the absence of such tenant or person to post the same in some conspicuous place upon the leased premises. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1223.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DELIVERY TO ADULT

Where one of the landlords went to rented dwelling and inquired for month to month tenant, and, upon being told that she was not at home, delivered 30-day notice to quit to an adult person who came to the door, there was good service of such notice. Pointer v. Shepard (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 659).

DELIVERY TO MINOR SON

A notice delivered by landlord to tenant's son, 17 years of age, at her request, and the same delivered to her by the boy, is served substantially in compliance with the statute. Hockman v. Shreve (50 App. D. C. 140, 269 Fed. 482).

DELIVERY TO TENANT'S WIFE

A landlord left notice to quit with tenant's wife, with a request that she deliver it to him, which was done. "There is nothing in this (section) which requires that the landlord in person or an officer shall make the service. It may be made by any person acting for the landlord. In this case the wife, at the request of the landlord, handed the notice to the tenant, and thus he was personally served. * * * In the case of a notice to quit, service by any person is enough, so long as the tenant receives the notice in time to allow the statutory period of vacate." Hardebeck v. Hamilton (50 App. D. C. 113, 268 Fed. 703).

POSTING ON PREMISES

Where attempt was made at 10:30 p. m. to serve on tenant a notice to quit and another attempt was made at 11 p. m. same evening, and an earlier attempt would have proved unsuccessful and notice to quit was tacked on door of premises, service of notice was sufficient. Lynch v. Bernstein (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 467).

REGISTERED MAIL

Landlord could select Post Office Department as his delivering agent for service of a notice to quit upon tenant by the employment of registered mail, prescribing delivery to addressee only with demand for a return receipt, so long as such method resulted in notice being served personally upon tenant. Craig v. Heil (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 871).

SERVICE, GENERALLY

Where one of the landlords personally handed month to month tenant a 30-day notice to quit, there was good service notwithstanding that tenant, after reading notice, stated she would not accept it and handed it back. Pointer v. Shepard (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 659).

Service of notice to quit upon tenant need not be made by landlord in person but may be made by any person acting for landlord so long as tenant receives notice in time to allow him the statutory period to vacate, the same exactness not being required in serving such a notice as in serving a summons. Craig v. Heil (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 871).

Deputy marshal was entitled to make the service upon the person obviously in charge of the premises, particularly when that person told him he was authorized by the tenant to accept service. Rubenstein v. Swagart (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 690).

The Code describes the manner in which a notice to quit must be served to constitute valid service in this jurisdiction. There is nothing which requires that the landlord in person, or an officer, shall make the service. It may be made by any person acting for the landlord. Glenn v. Mindell (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 835).

Where appellant argues that the party who actually made the service should have been produced and that in his absence testimony was incompetent, the argument is completely without substance in the absence of a statute or decision which requires such mode of proof. Glenn v. Mindell (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 835).

§ 45–907 [25: 317]. Refusal to quit, double rent.

If the tenant, after having given notice of his intention to quit as aforesaid, shall refuse, without reasonable excuse, to surrender possession according to such notice, he shall be liable to the landlord for rent at double the rate of rent payable according to the terms of tenancy for all the time that the tenant shall so wrongfully hold over, to be recovered in the same way as the rent accruing before the termination of the tenancy. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1224.)

§ 45–908 [25: 318]. Agreement as to notice.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the parties to a lease, by agreement in writing, from substituting a longer or shorter notice to quit than is above provided or to waive all such notice. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1236.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AGREEMENT AS TO NOTICE

Provision of lease that tenant, if not in default, was entitled to not less than 30 days' notice to vacate, which notice was to be given, in writing, at least 30 days before the tenancy was intended to be terminated, was a valid contract substitution for section 902 of this title pertaining to notice to terminate a tenancy from month to month. Zoby v. Kosmadakes (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 618).

FAILURE OF RENT—NOTICE WAIVED

Defendant agreed that in the event he should not pay the rent when due he should not be entitled to any notice to quit, the usual thirty days' notice being expressly waived; such contract was specifically authorized by this section. H. L. Rust Co. v. Drury (62 App. D. C. 329, 68 Fed. (2d) 167).

WAIVER OF NOTICE

A notice to quit is a condition precedent to the filing of an action by landlord to obtain premises from tenant but is not jurisdictional and may be waived when tenancy is created or at any later time. Morris v. Breaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 632; Craig v. Heil (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 871).

In landlord's action to recover premises from tenant where tenant testified that she had waived service of a notice to quit, tenant waived defense of failure of landlord to serve such notice. Morris v. Breaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 632).

In landlord's action to recover premises, landlord's failure to give notice to quit is not an automatic defense and can be waived or relinquished. Morris v. Breaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 632).

Where lease provided that no notice to quit should be necessary if default in rent occurred, but in landlord's suit for possession, a confession of judgment and stipulation was filed permitting tenant to continue in possession and providing a new method of rent payment, the lease, including the waiver clause, remained in force and tenant was not entitled to a 30-day notice to quit before a new suit for possession could be filed against him.—Klein v. Insurance Bldg. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 368).

Where in District of Columbia Municipal Court question whether 30 days' notice to quit had been waived by tenant was raised by pleadings but no evidence of waiver was adduced at trial, tenant's failure to call absence of proof to trial court's attention was equivalent to waiver or at least waiver of proof of notice. Zindler v. Buchanon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 616).

§ 45–909 [25: 319]. Recovery of real and personal property leased together.

Whenever real and personal property shall be leased together, as, for example, a house with the furniture contained therein, the landlord, either in an action of ejectment or in the summary proceeding for possession, before the municipal court provided for in sections 11–701 to 11–749 of this Code may have a judgment for recovery of the personalty as well as for the recovery of the realty. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1235; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing name of court from justice of peace to municipal court.

§ 45–910 [25: 320]. Ejectment or summary proceedings.

Whenever a lease for any definite term shall expire, or any tenancy shall be terminated by notice as aforesaid, and the tenant shall fail or refuse to surrender possession of the leased premises, the landlord may bring an action of ejectment to recover possession in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia; or the landlord may bring an action to recover possession before the municipal court, as provided in sections 11–701 to 11–749 of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1225; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing name of court from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONTINUING BREACH OF LEASE

Keeping the same dog in leased apartment with knowledge of landlord from beginning of tenancy and for nearly five years thereafter would not constitute a continuing breach. Stewart v. Shannon & Luchs Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 863).

EMERGENCY RENT CONTROL ACT

The effect of Emergency Rent Control Act, § 45–1605, restricting landlord's right to recover possession of housing accommodations is to create a noncontractual statutory right of possession in tenant, continuing at his option beyond expiration of his lease or rental agreement by depriving landlord, unless he claims under one of the permitted grounds, of right to maintain an action for possession. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Under the Emergency Rent Control Act, § 45–1605, the procedure in landlord's action against tenant for possession of premises, except for restrictions as to grounds upon which landlord may claim right of possession, remains the same as it was previously. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

EVIDENCE

In landlord's action to recover possession of storeroom from tenant after expiration of lease, testimony as to landlord's reasons for seeking of possession was inadmissible. Fowel v. Continental Life Ins. Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 205).

IMPROVEMENTS

Where tenant of a row house, shortly before expiration of five-year lease, made improvements on the property at a cost of more than $200, but the only improvement landlord was cognizant of was the painting of front porch by tenant, such repairs were not sufficient to have bound tenant for a renewal term of five years, and hence did not constitute notice to landlord that tenant was exercising option contained in lease to renew for a five-year period, and landlord was at liberty, after expiration of lease, to terminate the tenancy and recover possession for landlord's personal occupancy. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction of the municipal court over summary suits to recover possession of real property under this section is limited explicitly to actions by landlord against tenant. Spruill v. Brooke (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 204).

NONPAYMENT OF RENT

A landlord could not dispossess tenant for nonpayment of rent and at the same time collect rent from tenant for period extending beyond time of filing of action. Gunn v. Brown (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 518).

NOTICE TO FORMER OWNER

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time to peaceably remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

PARTIES

Where tenant terminated his tenancy by notice acceptable to landlord but tenant's estranged wife remained in possession of premises, landlord's action to recover possession of premises was properly brought against the tenant and it was not necessary that the tenant's estranged wife, who was not a party to lease, should be named as defendant. Scott v. H. G. Smithy Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 45).

PERSONS BOUND BY JUDGMENT

Where owners of building, who had received from former landlord assignments in blank of various leases, directed that blanks be filled up in name of owners' building manager, thereby making him landlord, a judgment in a possessory action by manager against a tenant would be binding on owners. Koehne v. Harvey (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 780).

QUESTIONS FOR JURY

In action by landlord for possession of leased apartment, tenant's testimony that prior to execution of lease, the landlord through its agent knew that tenant intended keeping dog on premises and assured tenant that it would be all right, that from beginning of tenancy and for nearly five years dog was kept on premises with knowledge of landlord who without objection accepted rent during that time, raised issue for jury of whether landlord had waived covenant in lease against keeping animals in apartment. Stewart v. Shannon & Luchs Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 863).

Evidence showing the circumstances surrounding the signing of the lease should have been admitted, at least tentatively, by the trial judge in order for him to determine whether such evidence should have gone before the jury. Newlin v. Weaver Brothers (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 500, rehearing denied 70 A. 2d 61, aff'd 74 A. 2d 65).

Where in an action on the breach of a lease on the ground that tenant had kept a dog in violation of the lease, a question of fact for the jury was presented where tenant claims as evidence of the waiver of the breach that the landlord accepted rent with the knowledge that a dog was being kept by the tenant. Newlin v. Weaver Brothers, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 500, rehearing denied 70 A. 2d 61, aff'd 74 A. 2d 65).

REAL PARTY IN INTEREST

Where leases were assigned to manager of building as landlord under express instructions of owners of building, in light of this section giving landlord right to sue for possession and in light of holding that manager was real landlord, manager was "real party in interest" within meaning of rule 17a restricting right to maintain suit to real party in interest. Koehne v. Harvey (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 780).

WAIVER OF COVENANT

Though oral testimony may not be used to vary the terms of a written lease, such testimony is admissible on the question of whether a written covenant has been waived by an oral estoppel or some other act inconsistent with reliance upon the covenant. Newlin v. Weaver Brothers, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 500, rehearing denied 70 A. 2d 61, aff'd 74 A. 2d 65).

WITHDRAWAL OF PERMISSION

Where lease prohibited keeping of dogs in apartment but landlord conditionally granted tenants permission to keep dog subject to withdrawal if other tenants complained, tenants' refusal to remove dog when permission was withdrawn entitled landlord to recover possession. Shay v. Randall H. Hagner & Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 358).

Where lease contained covenant prohibiting keeping of dogs, and provided that waiver of breach of covenant could not be construed as waiver of covenant, even though landlord conditionally granted permission to tenants to keep dog, the covenant was not waived and could be enforced by action for possession of premises on withdrawal of permission. Shay v. Randall H. Hagner & Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 358).

§ 45–911 [25: 321]. Arrears of rent and double rent.

In either case the landlord may join with his claim for recovery of the possession of the leased premises a claim for all arrears of rent accrued to the termination of the tenancy, and, when the tenant has given the notice, for double rent from the termination of the tenancy to the verdict, or judgment, if the trial be by the court and for damages for waste: Provided, That in such action before the municipal court the amount so claimed shall be within its jurisdiction. If judgment for possession be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, he shall be entitled, at the same time, to a judgment for said arrears of rent, and for said double rent, as the case may be, to the date of the verdict or judgment as aforesaid, and for damages for waste. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1226; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 542, ch. 1329; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "for possession" following the words "by the court."

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LESSEE BREACHING COVENANT

Where lessee had breached covenant against subletting and lessor returned check for rent payment but lessee had continued in possession, lessor was entitled to a judgment for possession and rent. Merritt v. Kay (54 App. D. C. 152, 295 Fed. 973).

LIABILITY FOR RENT

Rent as it fell due became a debt which tenant was bound to pay unless the parties entered into a contrary agreement supported by consideration. Crowder v. Lackey (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 699).

In an action for rent, in the absence of warranty, deceit, or fraud, the tenant has the duty to examine the premises and determine its adaptability for the desired use and there is no duty on the part of the landlord to ascertain the weight of a particular type of a machine which defendant desires to install on the premises. Soresi v. Repetti (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 585).

MONEY JUDGMENT

The recovery of a money judgment for rent in landlord's action for possession of leased premises on ground of nonpayment of rent is but incidental to the main action, which remains basically one for possession. Shipley v. Major (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 540).

PLEADING

Although proceedings in landlord and tenant actions are informal, tenant is entitled to be informed by complaint of nature of recovery sought against him. Shipley v. Major (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 540).

TENDER OF RENT

Landlord's prior refusal of proffered rent would not constitute a waiver which would entitle tenant, when sued for possession because of nonpayment of rent, to a trial on the merits without tendering the rent due, in absence of agreement supported by consideration that tenant could remain in possession without charge. Crowder v. Lackey (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 699).

In action for possession of real property based on nonpayment of rent, defendant had right to defeat action by tendering the rent at the hearing. Crowder v. Lackey (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 699).

§ 45–912 [25: 322]. Consolidation of actions.

If actions be brought separately, either in said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or in the municipal court, for arrears of rent and for the possession, they may be afterwards consolidated and one judgment rendered in them for the possession and also for the rent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1227; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

§ 45–913 [25: 323]. Procedure to eject married woman who is a tenant.

In all cases in which a married woman is or shall hereafter be a tenant of real estate in this District, and has defaulted in the payment of rent therefor or has made other default, it shall be lawful for the landlord to make such re-entry or bring such action for recovery of the demised premises as he or she might do if the lessee were a feme sole and had contracted for the payment of said rents or the performance of other acts and to suffer such re-entry to be made upon default therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1376, ch. 854, § 1169.)

§ 45–914 [25: 324]. Plea of title.

If, in an action in the municipal court to recover possession the defendant shall plead a title in himself or in some person under whom he claims, not derived from the plaintiff, the further proceeding therein shall be as directed in sections 11–701 to 11–749 of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1228; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

§ 45–915 [25: 325]. Landlord's lien for rent.

The landlord shall have a tacit lien for his rent upon such of the tenant's personal chattels, on the premises, as are subject to execution for debt, to commence with the tenancy and continue for three months after the rent is due and until the termination of any action for such rent brought within said three months. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1229.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AMOUNT OF LIEN

Although four months' rent was due operation of landlord's lien was properly restricted to three months' rent under this section creating lien. Klein v. Insurance Bldg. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 368).

TIME OF ATTACHMENT OF LIEN

A landlord's statutory lien exists independently of the several means of enforcement which section 45–916 permits. Moses v. Labofish, 1942 (132 F. 2d 16, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 401).

BANKRUPTCY OF TENANT

A landlord's statutory lien is not a "lien by legal proceedings" within 11 U. S. C. § 107, subd. 2, providing that liens obtained through legal proceedings against a person who is insolvent within four months prior to filing of petition in bankruptcy shall be void. Moses v. Labofish, 1942 (132 F. 2d 16, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 401).

Where landlord brought action to recover possession of premises and rent due and recovered judgment under which levy was made on chattels which had been removed from leased premises after commencement of action, but, before the chattels were offered for sale, tenant filed voluntary petition in bankruptcy, the landlord's statutory lien and right to priority of payment out of proceeds was not impaired by the Bankruptcy Act, 11 U. S. C. §§ 1 et seq. Moses v. Labofish, 1942 (132 F. 2d 16, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 401).

CLAIM IN BANKRUPTCY

A landlord has a lien for rent on property of a bankrupt on leased premises, which may be enforced by making claim in bankruptcy. In re Caplan ((D. C.-Md.), 23 Fed. (2d) 680).

DURATION OF LIENS

Landlord's lien, once it attached, continued to attach no matter in whose hands the chattels may have come, unless displaced by removal of goods or sale in regular course of business, and sale of stock in mass which was not removed did not displace the lien. Fowler v. Rapley (15 Wall. (82 U. S.) 328, 21 L. Ed. 35).

Under this section, landlord acquired a statutory lien on personal property of tenant on premises from time of execution of lease and lien continued in full force for a period of three months after rent was due and until termination of any action to recover on lease. Moses v. Labofish, 1942 (132 F. 2d 16, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 401).

The landlord's lien in District of Columbia is not dormant, but is in effect from the time personal chattels are brought upon leased premises and can only be displaced by a sale of the goods in the ordinary course of trade followed by their removal from the premises. Munday v. Bricklayers, Masons & Plasterers Intern. Union of America (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 398).

Landlord's lien attached to rug on office floor when it was brought on to premises by tenant and continued throughout period of tenancy. Munday v. Bricklayers, Masons & Plasterers Intern. Union of America (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 398).

LIEN SURRENDER OF LEASE

Surrender of lease and wrongful eviction of tenant by landlord as a defense to action for rent, see Okie v. Person (23 App. D. C. 170). See also Richmond v. Cake (1 App. D. C. 447); Hume v. Riggs (12 App. D. C. 355).

PRIORITY

Lien of landlord, so far as respects chattels on the premises, was entitled to priority over deeds of trust, unless the statutory lien was displaced. Beall v. White (94 U. S. 382, 24 L. Ed. 173).

When the landlord is attempting to enforce a lien against chattels of lessee, which chattels were purchased on a conditional sales contract, his lien must be consistent with title and he cannot prevail against vendor of chattels even though conditional sales contract was not recorded. Stern Co. v. Rosenberg (67 App. D. C. 99, 89 Fed. (2d) 843).

Where lease provided that no notice to quit should be necessary if default in rent occurred, but in landlord's suit for possession a confession of judgment and stipulation was filed permitting tenant to continue in possession and providing a new method of rent payment, the landlord's lien for three months' rent subsequently accruing was superior to lien under chattel deed of trust executed more than two months after the tenancy commenced. Klein v. Insurance Bldg. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 368).

Under this section, the landlord's lien takes priority over lien of a subsequently executed chattel deed of trust. Klein v. Insurance Bldg. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 368).

PROPERTY COVERED

Where sale of rug on office floor to tenant's secretary was not made in ordinary course of trade and rug was not removed from premises, though no rent was due when sale was made, rug was subject to landlord's lien for three months' rent which subsequently accrued. Munday v. Bricklayers, Masons & Plasterers Intern. Union of America (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 398).

SECURED LIEN

Landlord to whom chattels are delivered as security for payment of rent "had a lien on the property for the payment of his rent, which was something more than the tacit lien given to a landlord by the statute" and his possession cannot be disturbed without previous payment of the claim. Brown v. Petersen (25 App. D. C. 359).

TIME OF ATTACHMENT OF LIEN

Landlord's lien attached to chattel the moment it was placed upon the premises, and as long as it remained on premises the lien continued until each instalment of rent became due and for three months thereafter, and then ceased as to that instalment. Webb v. Sharp (13 Wall. (80 U. S.) 14, 20 L. Ed. 478).

The landlord's lien for rent commences with the tenancy, and is superior to chattel mortgage given by tenant thereafter. Spilman v. Geiger (61 App. D. C. 164, 58 Fed. (2d) 890).

Landlord's statutory lien attaches at the moment chattels of tenants come upon leased premises. Moses v. Labofish, 1942 (132 F. 2d 16, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 401).

§ 45–916 [25: 326]. Lien—How enforced.

The said lien may be enforced—

First. By attachment, to be issued upon affidavit that the rent is due and unpaid; or, if it be not due, that the defendant is about to remove or sell some part of said chattels.

Second. By judgment against the tenant and execution, to be levied on said chattels, or any of them, in whosesoever hands they may be found.

Third. By action against any purchaser of said chattels, with notice of the lien, in which action the plaintiff may have judgment for the value of the chattels purchased by the defendant not exceeding the rent in arrear. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1230.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45–915.

§ 45–917 [25: 327]. How attachment enforced.

Such attachment may be issued in any action for the recovery of the possession of the leased premises by the landlord, in which the rent in arrear, or double rent, or both, shall be claimed as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for any officer to whom the writ of attachment shall be delivered to be executed to break open an outer or inner door when necessary to the execution of the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1231.)

§ 45–918 [25: 328]. Property subject to lien for rent not to be taken on execution without first paying all rent due.

No goods or chattels whatsoever, lying or being in or upon any messuage, lands, or tenements, which are or shall be leased for life or lives, term of years, at will, or otherwise, shall be liable to be taken by virtue of any execution on any pretence whatsoever, unless the party at whose suit the said execution is sued out, shall before the removal of such goods from off the said premises, by virtue of such execution or extent, pay to the landlord of the said premises, or his bailiff, all such sum or sums of money as are or shall be due for rent for the said premises at the time of the taking such goods or chattels by virtue of such execution: Provided, The said arrears of rent do not amount to more than three months' rent, and in case the said arrears shall exceed three months' rent, then the said party, at whose suit such execution is sued out, paying the said landlord, or his bailiff, three months' rent, may proceed to execute his judgment as he might have done before the making of this section; and the marshal is hereby impowered and required to levy and pay to the plaintiff as well the money so paid for rent, as the execution money. (8 Ann, ch. 14, § 1, 1709; Kilty's Rep. 248; Alex. Br. Stat. 681; Comp. Stat. D. C., 325, § 41.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 45–919 [25: 329]. Distress not void because of irregularity—Party not trespasser ab initio—Special damages only recoverable—Tender of amends defeats recovery.

Where any distress shall be made for any kind of rent justly due, and any irregularity or unlawful act shall be afterwards done by the party or parties distraining, or by his, her, or their agents; the distress itself shall not be therefore deemed to be unlawful, nor the party or parties making it be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio; but the party or parties aggrieved by such unlawful act or irregularity shall or may recover full satisfaction for the special damage he, she, or they shall have sustained thereby, and no more, in an action of trespass or on the case at the election of the plaintiff or plaintiffs: Provided always, That where the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in such action, he, she, or they shall be paid his, her, or their full costs of suit, and have all the like remedies for the same as in other cases of costs: Provided nevertheless, That no tenant or tenants, lessee or lessees, shall recover in any action for any such unlawful act or irregularity as aforesaid, if tender of amends hath been made by the party or parties distraining, his, her, or their agent or agents, before such action brought. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, §§ 19 and 20, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 741, 742; Comp. Stat. D. C., 334, §§ 66, 67.)

§ 45–920 [25: 330]. Fraudulent removal, conveyance, or concealment of property to defeat lien subjects guilty party to forfeiture of double value of such property.

If any tenant or lessee shall fraudulently remove and convey away his or her goods or chattels, or if any person or persons shall wilfully and knowingly aid or assist any such tenant or lessee in such fraudulent conveying away or carrying off of any part of his or her goods or chattels, or in concealing the same; all and every person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to the landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, from whose estate such goods and chattels were fraudulently carried off as aforesaid, double the value of the goods by him, her or them respectively carried off or concealed as aforesaid; to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 3, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 732; Comp. Stat. D. C., 329, § 53.)

§ 45–921 [25: 331]. Representatives of life tenant may recover from under-tenant proportion of rent.

Where any tenants for life shall happen to die before or on the day, on which any rent was reserved or made payable upon any demise or lease of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which determined on the death of such tenant for life, the executors or administrators of such tenant for life shall and may in an action on the case recover of and from such under-tenant or under-tenants of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, if such tenant for life die on the day on which the same was made payable the whole, or if before such day then a proportion, of such rent according to the time such tenant for life lived, of the last year, or quarter of a year or other time in which the said rent was growing due as aforesaid, making all just allowances or a proportionable part thereof respectively. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 15, 1738; Kilty's Rept. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 739; Comp. Stat. D. C. 333, § 64.)

§ 45–922 [25: 332]. Debt may be brought for instalments of rent under lease for life.

It shall and may be lawful for any person or persons, having any rent in arrear, or due upon any lease or demise for life or lives, to bring an action or actions of debt for such arrears of rent, in the same manner they might have done, in case such rent were due, and reserved upon a lease for years. (8 Ann, ch. 14, § 4, 1709; Kilty's Rept. 248; Alex. Br. Stat. 682; Comp. Stat. D. C., 325, § 42.)

§ 45–923 [25: 333]. Action of case for use and occupation—Parol agreement evidence of quantum of damages.

It shall and may be lawful to and for the landlord or landlords, where the agreement is not by deed, to recover a reasonable satisfaction for the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, held or occupied by the defendant or defendants, in an action on the case, for the use and occupation of what was so held or enjoyed; and if in evidence on the trial of such action any parol demise or any agreement (not being by deed) whereon a certain rent was reserved shall appear, the plaintiff in such action shall not therefor be nonsuited, but may make use thereof as an evidence of the quantum of the damages to be recovered. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 14, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 738; Comp. Stat. D. C., 333, § 63.)

§ 45–924 [25: 334]. Lunatic, entitled to renewal of lease, or his guardian or committee, under order of court, may surrender lease—Also make new lease.

In all cases where any lunatic is or shall be intitled, or has right to renew any lease or leases made or granted, or to be made or granted, for the life or lives of one or more person or persons, or for any term or number of years, absolute or determinable on the death of one or more person or persons, or otherwise; it shall and may be lawful to and for such lunatic, or his or her guardian or guardians, committee or committees, of his estate, in his, her, or their name or names, by the direction of the chancellor, signified by an order made on hearing all parties concerned, upon petition, in a summary way, from time to time, to accept of a surrender or surrenders of such lease or leases; and to make and execute to any person or persons, bodies politic, or corporate or collegiate, aggregate or sole, a new lease or leases of the premises comprised in such lease or leases so to be surrendered by virtue of this section, for and during such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years, determinable upon such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years absolute, as was or were mentioned or contained in such lease or leases so surrendered, at the making thereof, or otherwise, as the chancellor for the time being, by any such order, so to be obtained as aforesaid, shall direct. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 1, 1771; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 791; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 74.)

§ 45–925 [25: 335]. Lease made pursuant to section 45–924 valid.

All and every such lease or leases so to be made or executed as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed as good and valid, and effectual in the law, to all intents and purposes, as if such lunatic was at the time of making or executing thereof of sane mind, and had executed the same in his or her own proper person. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 2, 1771; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 791; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 75.)

§ 45–926 [25: 336]. Accruals from renewals of leases, property of lunatic—Unapplied part at death of lunatic treated as real property, unless lunatic be tenant for life, then personal property.

All fines, premiums, foregifts, and sums of money, which shall or may be had, received, or paid for, or on account of the renewing of any such lease or leases as aforesaid, shall (after a deduction of all necessary incident charges and expenses) be paid to the guardian or guardians, committee or committees, of the said lunatic, and be applied and disposed of for the benefit of such lunatic, in such manner as the chancellor shall direct: but, upon the death of such lunatic or lunatics, all such sum or sums of money as shall arise by such fines, premiums, or foregifts, or so much as shall remain unapplied for the benefit of such lunatic or lunatics, at his, her or their death, shall, as between the representatives of the real and personal estates of all such lunatics, be considered as real estate, unless such lunatic or lunatics shall be tenants for life only; and then the same shall be considered as personal estate. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 3, 1771; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 792; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 76.)

§ 45–927 [25: 337]. Lunatic or infant, or guardian or committee, under order of court, may surrender and take new leases.

In all cases where any person under the age of twenty-one years, or any lunatick, is or shall become interested in or intitled to any lease or leases made or granted, or to be made or granted, by any person or persons, bodies politick, corporate or collegiate, aggregate or sole, for the life or lives of one or more person or persons, or for any term of years, either absolute or determinable upon the death of one or more person or persons or otherwise, it shall and may be lawful for such person under the age of twenty-one years, or for his or her guardian or guardians, or other person or persons on his or her behalf, and for such lunatick, or his or her guardian or guardians, committee or committees of the estate, or other person or persons on his or her behalf, to apply to the court of chancery by petition or motion, in a summary way, and by the order and direction of the said court made, upon hearing all parties concerned, such person under the age of twenty-one years, and such lunaticks, or person or persons appointed by the said courts respectively, by deed or deeds only, shall and may be enabled, from time to time, to surrender such lease or leases, and accept and take, in the name, and for the benefit of such person under the age of twenty-one years, or lunatick, one or more new lease or leases of the premises comprised in such lease or leases surrendered by virtue of this section for and during such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years, determinable upon such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years absolute, as was or were mentioned or contained in such lease or leases so surrendered, at the making thereof respectively, or otherwise as the said court shall respectively direct. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 1, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 788; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 70.)

§ 45–928 [25: 338]. Expenses and costs of renewal chargeable against interest of infant or lunatic.

All and every sum and sums of money and other consideration, paid or advanced by any such guardian, trustee, committee or other person, for or on account of the renewal of any such lease or leases, and all reasonable charges incident thereto, shall be paid out of the estate or effects of the infant or lunatick for whose benefit the said lease or leases shall be renewed, or shall be a charge and incumbrance upon the leasehold premisses, together with interest for the same, as the said court shall direct and determine. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 2, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 789; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 71.)

§ 45–929 [25: 339]. Renewed leases shall be to the same uses, trusts, charges, incumbrances, devises, and conditions as surrendered leases were.

The respective leases to be so renewed, shall operate, and be to the same uses, and be liable to the same trusts, charges, incumbrances, dispositions, devises and conditions, as the leases to be, from time to time, surrendered as aforesaid, were or would have been subject to, in case such surrender had not been made. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 3, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 790; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 72.)

§ 45–930 [25: 340]. Surrendered and renewed lease of lunatic or infant valid.

Every such surrender, and such lease or leases granted thereupon, shall be, and be deemed as valid and legal, to all intents and purposes, as if such surrender had been made by and on the behalf of a person of full age, or sane mind. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 4, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 790; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 73.)

§ 45–931 [25: 341]. Surrender for new lease good without surrender of under leases—Under leases continue unaffected—All rights and remedies to continue.

In case any lease shall be duly surrendered, in order to be renewed, and a new lease made and executed by the chief landlord or landlords, the same new lease shall, without a surrender of all the under leases, be as good and valid, to all intents and purposes, as if all the under leases derived thereout had been likewise surrendered at or before the taking of such new lease; and all and every person and persons in whom any estate for life or lives, or for years, shall, from time to time, be vested by virtue of such new lease, and his, her, and their executors and administrators, shall be entitled to the rents, covenants, and duties, and have like remedy for recovery thereof, and the under lessees shall hold and enjoy the messuages, lands, and tenements, in the respective under leases, comprised, as if the original leases, out of which the respective under leases are derived, had been still kept on foot and continued, and the chief landlord and landlords shall have, and be intitled to, such and the same remedy, by distress or entry in and upon the messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments comprised in any such under lease, for the rents and duties reserved by such new lease, so far as the same exceed not the rents and duties reserved in the lease, out of which such under lease was derived, as they would have had in case such former lease had been still continued, or as they would have had, in case the respective under leases had been renewed under such new principal lease. (4 Geo. 2, ch. 28, § 6, 1731; Kilty's Rep. 249; Alex. Br. Stat. 708; Comp. Stat. D. C., 328, § 50.)

§ 45–932 [25: 342]. Assignee of reversion.

The grantee or assignee of the reversion of any leased premises shall have the same right of action against the lessee, his personal representatives, heirs, or assigns, for rent or for any forfeiture or breach of any covenant or condition in the lease which the grantor or assignor might have had; and the assignee of the lessee shall have the same rights of action against the lessor, his grantee, or assignee, upon any covenants in the lease which the lessee might have had against the lessor. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1234.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COVENANT AGAINST ASSIGNING

A covenant in a lease against assigning, being for the benefit of lessor, may be availed of only by him or his representative or assignee. Mars v. Spanos, 1944 (139 F. 2d 369, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 230).

Where landlord made no objection to assignment of lease to partnership and ratified assignment by accepting from partnership and receiver for partnership business rent for two years as it became due, assignors could not question partnership's ownership of lease on ground that lease prohibited assignment except by consent of landlord. Mars v. Spanos, 1944 (139 F. 2d 369, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 230).

COVENANT AGAINST SUBLETTING

Covenant against subletting runs with the land and may be enforced by assignee of reversion. Bailey v. Allan E. Walker & Co. (53 App. D. C. 307, 290 Fed. 282).

EVIDENCE

Defendant could not urge that plaintiff did not have right to bring suit to recover possession of leased premises because there was no proof that lease had been transferred by original lessor to plaintiff, where defendant in answer admitted that he was holding premises as a monthly tenant of plaintiff. Banks v. Torre (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 56 A. 2d 52).

NEW OWNERS' ACTION FOR RENT, USE, AND OCCUPATION

When the new owners purchased the property, they acquired the same right of action for rent, or for use and occupation, against the lessee, if holding over his term, which the original owner had. Selden v. Lee (55 App. D. C. 164, 3 Fed. (2d) 335).

§ 45–933 [25: 343]. Grants of remainders, reversions, and rents good without attornment—Payment of rent without notice valid.

All grants or conveyances of any manors or rents, or of the reversion or remainder of any messuages or lands, shall be good and effectual, to all intents and purposes, without any attornment of the tenants of any such manors, or of the land out of which rent shall be issuing, or of the particular tenants upon whose particular estates any such reversions or remainders shall and may be expectant or depending, as if their attornment had been had and made: Provided, nevertheless, That no such tenant shall be prejudiced or damaged by payment of any rent to any such grantor or conusor, or by breach of any condition for nonpayment of rent, before notice shall be given to him of such grant by the conusee or grantee. (4 Ann, ch. 16, §§ 9 and 10, 1705; Kilty's Rep. 246; Alex. Br. Stat. 660, 661; Comp. Stat. D. C., 496, §§ 31 and 32.)

§ 45–934 [25: 344]. Fraudulent attornment void—Possession not changed by such attornment—Attornment pursuant to judgment excepted.

All and every fraudulent attornment and attornments of any tenant or tenants of any messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall be absolutely null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and the possession of their respective landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, shall not be deemed or construed to be any wise changed, altered, or affected by any such attornment or attornments: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to vacate or affect any attornment made pursuant to and in consequence of some judgment at law, or decree or order of a court of equity, or made with the privity and consent of the landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, or to any mortgagee after the mortgage is become forfeited. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 11, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 737; Comp. Stat. D. C., 332, § 60.)

§ 45–1001 [25: 391]. Definition.

A power is an authority to do some act in relation to lands or the creation of estates therein or of charges thereon which the owner granting or reserving such power might himself lawfully perform. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1037.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Power of surviving trustee to execute power of sale, § 18–606.

§ 45–1002 [25: 392]. General power.

A power is general where it authorizes the alienation in fee, by means of a conveyance, will, or charge, of the lands embraced in the power to any alienee whatever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1038.)

§ 45–1003 [25: 393]. Special power.

A power is special—

First. Where the persons or class of persons to whom the disposition of the lands under the power is to be made are designated.

Second. Where the power authorizes the alienation, by means of a conveyance, will, or charge, of a particular estate or interest less than a fee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1039.)

§ 45–1004 [25: 394]. Beneficial power.

A general or special power is beneficial where no person other than the grantee has, by the terms of its creation, any interest in its execution. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1040.)

§ 45–1005 [25: 395]. Effect of absolute power to owner of particular estate.

Where an absolute power of disposition, not accompanied by any trust, shall be given to the owner of a particular estate for life or years, such estate shall be changed into a fee, absolute in respect to the rights of creditors and purchasers but subject to any future estates limited thereon in case the power should not be executed or the lands should not be sold for the satisfaction of debts. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1041.)

§ 45–1006 [25: 396]. Effect of such power to one without particular estate.

Where a like power of disposition shall be given to any person to whom no particular estate is limited, such person shall also take a fee, subject to any future estates that may be limited thereon but absolute in respect to creditors and purchasers. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1042.)

§ 45–1007 [25: 397]. Effect where no remainder on particular estate.

In all cases where such power of disposition is given and no remainder is limited on the estate of the grantee of the power, such grantee shall be entitled to an absolute fee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1043.)

§ 45–1008 [25: 398]. Construction of power to particular tenant to devise the inheritance.

Where a general and beneficial power to devise the inheritance shall be given to a tenant for life or for years, such tenant shall be deemed to possess an absolute power of disposition, within the meaning and subject to the provisions of sections 45–1005 to 45–1007. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1044.)

§ 45–1009 [25: 399]. Right of grantor to reserve power.

The grantor in any conveyance may reserve to himself any power, beneficial or in trust, which he might lawfully grant to another, and every power thus reserved shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter as if granted to another. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1045.)

§ 45–1010 [25: 400]. Liability of beneficial powers in equity.

Every special and beneficial power shall be liable, in equity, to the claims of creditors, and the execution of the power may be decreed for the benefit of the creditors entitled. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1046.)

§ 45–1011 [25: 401]. General powers in trust.

A general power is in trust when any person or class of persons other than the grantee of such power is designated as entitled to the proceeds, or any portion of the proceeds or other benefits to result from the alienation of the lands, according to the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1047.)

§ 45–1012 [25: 402]. Special powers in trust.

A special power is in trust—

First. When the disposition which it authorizes is limited to be made to any person or class of persons other than the grantee of such power.

Second. When any person or class of persons other than the grantee is designated as entitled to any benefit from the disposition or change authorized by the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1048.)

§ 45–1013 [25: 403]. Trust powers imperative.

Every trust power, unless its execution or nonexecution is made expressly to depend on the will of the grantee, is imperative and imposes a duty on the grantee the performance of which may be compelled in equity for the benefit of the parties interested. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1049.)

§ 45–1014 [25: 404]. Selection under trust powers.

A trust power does not cease to be imperative where the grantee has the right to select any and exclude others of the persons designated as the objects of the trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1050.)

§ 45–1015 [25: 405]. Group of beneficiaries to take equally unless otherwise directed—Trustee with discretion may allot all to one person.

Where a disposition under a power is directed to be made to or among or between several persons, without any specifications of the share or sum to be allotted to each, all the persons designated shall be entitled to an equal proportion. But when the terms of the power import that the estate or fund is to be distributed between the persons so designated, in such manner or proportions as the trustee of the power may think proper, the trustee may allot the whole to any one or more of such persons in exclusion of the others. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1051.)

§ 45–1016 [25: 406]. Execution of trust powers for benefit of creditors and assignees.

The execution in whole or in part of any trust power may be decreed in equity for the benefit of the creditors or assignees of any person entitled to compel its execution when the interest of the objects of such trust is assignable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1052.)

§ 45–1017 [25: 407]. Manner of executing powers.

No power can be executed except by some instrument in writing, which would be sufficient in law to pass the estate or interest intended to pass under the power if the person executing the power were the actual owner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1053.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENT BY CONTRACT

Where power of appointment could be exercised only by will, attempt to assign part of donee's interest by a contract was invalid. Mondell v. Thom, 1944 (143 F. 2d 157, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 145).

§ 45–1018 [25: 408]. Power by grant may not be executed by will.

Where a power to dispose of lands is confined to a disposition by devise or will, the instrument of execution must be a will duly executed; and where a power is confined to a disposition by grant it can not be executed by will, although the disposition is not intended to take effect until after the death of the party executing the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1054.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Wills, §§ 19–107 and 19–203.

§ 45–1019 [25: 409]. Instrument will be deemed execution of power if grantee had no other right to make it.

Every instrument executed by the grantee of a power conveying an estate or creating a charge, which such grantee would have no right to convey or create unless by virtue of his power, shall be deemed a valid execution of the power, although such power be not recited or referred to therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1055.)

Chapter 11.—SALE OF CONTINGENT AND LIMITED INTERESTS

Sec.
45–1101. Sale of contingent interests.
45–1102. Application for sale by verified bill in equity showing all facts.
45–1103. Proceeds of sale of contingent interest held as real property.
45–1104. Sale of all limited interests.

§ 45–1101 [25: 421]. Sale of contingent interests.

Where real estate is limited to one or more for life, with a contingent limitation over to such issue of one or more of the tenants for life as shall be living at the death of their parent or parents, and the deed or will does not prohibit a sale, said court may, on the application of the tenants for life, and if the court shall be of opinion that it is expedient to do so, order a sale of such estate and decree to the purchaser an absolute and complete title in fee simple. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 97.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AUTHORITY OF COURT

This section clothed the court with authority to sell a restricted and particular class of limited estates, and was therefore special legislation, the specific provisions of which had to be given effect as against the more general and more comprehensive provisions of § 100 (§ 45–1104) on the same subject matter. Simon v. Simon (58 App. D. C. 158, 26 Fed. (2d) 530).

BOND OF TRUSTEE

Bond of trustee for sale of property of a minor for reinvestment purposes may not be attacked as invalid by the surety. United States ex rel. Hine v. Morse (218 U. S. 493, 54 L. Ed. 1123, 31 Sup. Ct. 37, revg. 29 App. D. C. 433).

§ 45–1102 [25: 422]. Application for sale by verified bill in equity showing all facts.

Any application for such sale shall be by bill, verified by the oath of the party or parties, in which all the facts shall be distinctly set forth upon the existence of which it is claimed that such sale should be decreed, which facts shall be proved by competent testimony. All of the issue embraced in the limitation who are in existence at the time of the application shall be made parties defendant, together with all who would take the estate in case the limitation over should never vest; and minors of the age of fourteen years or more shall answer in proper person under oath, as well as by guardian ad litem, and all evidence shall be taken upon notice to the parties and the guardian ad litem. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 98.)

§ 45–1103 [25: 423]. Proceeds of sale of contingent interest held as real property.

The proceeds of sale of said real estate shall be held under the control and subject to the order of the court, and shall be invested under its order and supervision upon real and personal security, and the same shall, to all intents and purposes, be deemed real estate and stand in the place of the real estate from the sale of which they are derived, and as such be subject to the limitations of the deed or will. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 99.)

§ 45–1104 [25: 424]. Sale of all limited interests.

Wherever one or more persons shall be entitled to an estate for life or years, or a base or qualified fee simple, or any other limited or conditional estate in lands, and any other person or persons shall be entitled to a remainder or remainders, vested or contingent, or an interest by way of executory devise in the same lands, on application of any of the parties in interest the court may, if all the parties in being are made parties to the proceeding, decree a sale or lease of the property, if it shall appear to be to the interest of all concerned, and shall direct the investment of the proceeds so as to inure in like manner as provided by the original grant to the use of the same parties who would be entitled to the land sold or leased; and all such decrees, if all the persons are parties who would be entitled if the contingency had happened at the date of the decree, shall bind all persons, whether in being or not, who claim or may claim any interest in said land under any of the parties to said decree, or under any person from whom any of the parties to such decree claim, or from or under or by the original deed or will by which such particular, limited, or conditional estate, with remainders or executory devises, were created. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 100.)

Equity had no jurisdiction to decree sale of lands of a lunatic for the purpose of better investment. Clark v. Mathewson (7 App. D. C. 382).

Chapter 12.—USES AND TRUSTS

Sec.
45–1201. The legal estate in cestui que use.
45–1202. Where several are jointly seized of lands to the use of any so seized, the latter shall be deemed to have the possession and seizin of same.
45–1203. Purchaser for value.

§ 45–1201 [25: 481]. The legal estate in cestui que use.

Where lands, tenements, or hereditaments are conveyed or devised to one person, whether for years or for a freehold estate, to the use of or in trust for another, no estate or interest, legal or equitable, shall vest in the trustee, but the person entitled, according to the true intent and meaning of such instrument, to the actual possession of the property and the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, in law or in equity, shall be deemed to have a legal estate therein of the same quality and duration and subject to the same conditions as his beneficial interest, except where the title of such trustee is not merely nominal but is connected with some power of actual disposition or management of the property conveyed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1432, ch. 854, § 1617.)

§ 45–1203 [25: 483]. Purchaser for value.

No implied or resulting trust shall be alleged or established to defeat or prejudice the title of a purchaser for a valuable consideration and without notice of such trust; and where an express trust is created, but is not contained or declared in the conveyance to the trustee, such conveyance shall be deemed absolute in favor of purchasers from the trustee for value and without notice of the trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1432, ch. 854, § 1618.)

Chapter 13.—WASTE

Sec.

45–1301. Writ of waste—Lease forfeited for waste and lessee pays treble damages.
45–1302. Waste not to be committed except with license in writing—Damages and amerciament for waste.
45–1303. Reversioner may forfeit lease for waste of tenant, though he has assigned to another.
45–1304. Joint tenant or tenant in common against cotenant.

§ 45–1301 [25: 491]. Writ of waste—Lease forfeited for waste and lessee pays treble damages.

A man from henceforth shall have a writ of waste in the chancery against him that holdeth by law, or otherwise for term of life, or for term of years, or a woman in dower; and he which shall be attainted of waste, shall leese the thing that he hath wasted, and moreover shall recompense thrice so much as the waste shall be taxed at. (6 Edw. 1, ch. 5, § 1, 1278; Kilty's Rep. 211; Alex. Br. Stat. 83; Comp. Stat. D. C., 319, § 21.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IMPLIED COVENANT

The covenant not to commit, or suffer waste to be committed, is implied in every lease. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

QUESTIONS OF FACT

Whether a tenant by breach of covenant to make repairs has committed waste is a question of fact for trial court. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

WAIVER

A lessor may waive the breach of a specific covenant by delay in enforcement, or by subsequent acceptance of rent. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

Where breach of an express covenant followed by other instances of abuse to property by tenant results in injury to reversion, the waiver implied by acceptance of rent and failure to terminate tenancy upon breach of covenant does not exclude covenant from consideration when issue in action to recover possession is whether conduct of tenant over a period of years justifies finding that waste has been committed. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

WASTE

Acts constituting a breach of an express covenant, which are of such a nature that when followed by other instances of abuse of the property by the tenant result in injury to the reversion, constitute "waste". Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

Breach of covenant to make repairs by failure to replace broken hinge of gate, to reset a fallen fence, to mend broken plaster, or to repaper walls, supplemented by acts evidencing a wanton disregard of landlord's rights, authorized a finding that "waste" has been committed, notwithstanding that each breach of itself might have been too inconsequential to justify a forefeiture of tenant's term. Klein v. Longo (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 359).

§ 45–1302 [25: 492]. Waste not to be committed except with license in writing—Damages and amerciament for waste.

Fermors, during their terms, shall not make waste, sale or exile of house, or woods, nor of any thing belonging to the tenements, that they have to ferm, without special license had by writing of covenant, making mention, that they may do it; which thing if they do, and thereof be convict, they shall yield full damage, and shall be punished by amerciament grievously. (52 Hen. 3, ch. 23, § 2, 1267; Kilty's Rep. 209; Alex. Br. Stat. 46–47; Comp. Stat. D. C., 318, § 19.)

§ 45–1303 [25: 493]. Reversioner may forfeit lease for waste of tenant, though he has assigned to another.

Because that diverse people in times past have let their lands and tenements to divers persons, that is to say, some for term of life or of another man's life, and some for term of years, the said tenants have oftentimes let and granted their estate which they had in the same lands and tenements, to many persons, to the intent that they in the reversion, that is to say, their lessors, their heirs, or their assigns, might not have knowledge of their names, and after the said first tenants continually occupy the said lands and tenements, and thereof take the profits to their proper use, and in the said lands and tenements commit waste and destruction, to the disheritance of them in the reversion: It is ordained and established, that they in the reversion in such case may have and maintain a writ of waste against the said tenants for term of life, of another's life, or for years, and so recover against them the place wasted, and their treble damages, for the waste by them done, as they ought to have done for the waste committed by them before the said grant and lease of their estate. Provided always, that this ordinance hold not place, but where the first tenants before the lease and grant of their said estates, in the manner and form abovesaid, were unpunishable of waste; and also where after the said grant and lease the said first tenants of the said lands and tenements take the profits at the time of the waste done, to their own proper use. (11 Hen. 6, ch. 5, § 1, 1433; Kilty's Rep. 227; Alex. Br. Stat. 243; Comp. Stat. D. C., 320, § 26.)

§ 45–1304 [25: 494]. Joint tenant or tenant in common against cotenant.

Any joint tenant or tenant in common may maintain an action for waste committed by his cotenant, or in a suit for a partition, or a sale for purpose of partition may have said waste charged against the share of the cotenant committing the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1433, ch. 854, § 1622.)

45–1417. Bond required for renewal of licenses.
45–1418. Saving clause.

§ 45–1401 [20: 1970]. Enactment and prohibition clause.

That on and after ninety days from the date of enactment of this chapter it shall be unlawful in the District of Columbia for any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation (foreign or domestic) to act as a real-estate broker, real-estate salesman, business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, or to advertise or assume to act as such, without a license issued by the Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 787, ch. 760, § 1; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1352, ch. 664, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance salesman."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

The provisions of this chapter must be construed in light of purpose of this chapter and evils it was designed to protect against. Eberman v. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 844).

PURPOSE

The protection of public interest is the basis for exercise of police power in enactment of this chapter. Eberman v. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 844).

§ 45–1402 [20: 1971]. Definitions—Exceptions.

Whenever used in this chapter "real-estate broker" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation (foreign or domestic) who, for another and for a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration, or who, with the intention or in the expectation or upon the promise of receiving or collecting a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration, lists for sale, sells, exchanges, purchases, rents, or leases or offers or attempts or agrees to negotiate a sale, exchange, purchase, lease, or rental of an estate or interest in real estate, or collects or offers or attempts or agrees to collect rent or income for the use of real estate, or negotiates or offers or attempts or agrees to negotiate, a loan secured or to be secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance upon or transfer of real estate, or who is engaged in the business of erecting houses or causing the erection of houses for sale on his, their, or its land and who sells, offers, or attempts to sell such houses, or who, as owner or otherwise and as a whole or partial vocation, sells, or through solicitation, advertising, or otherwise, offers or attempts to sell or to negotiate the sale of any lot or lots in any subdivision of land comprising ten lots or more: Provided, however, That this definition shall not apply to the sale of space for advertising of real estate in any newspaper, magazine, or other publication. A "business-chance broker" within the meaning of this chapter is any person, firm, partnership, association, copartnership, or corporation who for a compensation or valuable consideration sells or offers for sale, buys or offers to buy, leases or offers to lease, or negotiates the purchase or sale or exchange of a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business for others.

"Real-estate salesman" means a person employed by a licensed real-estate broker to list for sale, sell, or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy, or to negotiate the purchase or sale, or exchange of real estate, or to negotiate a loan on real estate, or to lease or rent or offer to lease, rent, or place for rent, any real estate, or collect or offer or attempt to collect rent or income for the use of real estate.

"Business-chance salesman" means any person employed by a licensed business-chance broker to list for sale, sell, or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy, to lease or offer to lease, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or exchange of a business, business opportunity, or good will of an existing business for or in behalf of such business-chance broker.

Persons employed by a licensed broker in a clerical capacity or in subordinate positions who receive a fixed compensation and who receive no additional commission or compensation for specific acts of renting or leasing real estate and who do not sell or exchange, or offer or attempt to sell or exchange, real estate or a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business shall not be required to obtain licenses.

One act for a compensation or valuable consideration of buying or selling real estate for or of another, or offering for another to buy, sell, or exchange real estate, or leasing, renting, or offering to lease or rent real estate, or negotiating or offering to negotiate a loan secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance upon or transfer of real estate, except as herein specifically excepted, shall constitute a person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation performing, or offering, or attempting to perform any of the acts enumerated herein, a real-estate broker, unless such act shall be performed or offered or attempted to be performed by a person for and in behalf of a real-estate broker in which event such act shall constitute such person a real-estate salesman.

One act for a compensation or valuable consideration of buying, selling or leasing or exchanging a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business for or of another, or offering for another to buy, sell, exchange, or lease a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business, except as herein specifically excepted, shall constitute the person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation performing or offering or attempting to perform any of the acts enumerated herein, a business-chance broker, unless such act shall be performed or offered or attempted to be performed by a person for or on behalf of a business-chance broker, in which event such act shall constitute such person a business-chance salesman.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to receivers, referees, administrators, executors, guardians, trustees, or other persons appointed or acting under the judgment or order of any court; or public officers while performing their official duty, or attorneys at law in the ordinary practice of their profession; nor to any person, copartnership, association, or corporation, who, as owner or lessor, shall perform any of the acts aforesaid with reference to property owned or leased by them, or to the regular officers and employees thereof, with respect to the property so owned or leased, where such acts are performed in the regular course of, or as an incident to, the management of such property and the investments therein, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Every provision of this chapter applying specifically to an applicant or application for a license as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, and to a real-estate license, and to a licensee licensed as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, and to anyone acting in the capacity of a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman without a license, shall likewise apply in a similar manner, respectively, to every applicant and application for a license as a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, and to every business-chance license, and to every licensee licensed as a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, and to anyone acting in the capacity of a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman without a license. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 787, ch. 760, § 2; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1352, ch. 664, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added in the first paragraph the words beginning "or who is engaged" and continuing to the colon before the words "Provided, however"; deleted the following words which concluded the first paragraph, "as a whole or partial vocation"; deleted the following words which concluded the second paragraph, "for or in behalf of such real-estate broker"; added the third paragraph; deleted from the fourth paragraph the words "as collectors, or in similar subordinate and administrative positions" and inserted in lieu thereof the words that now follow the word "capacity" and conclude the paragraph except the last seven words; added in the fifth paragraph the words "or negotiating or offering to negotiate a loan secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other incumbrance upon or transfer of real estate" and the words beginning "unless such act" and concluding the said paragraph; added the sixth paragraph; added in the seventh paragraph the words beginning "nor to any person" and concluding the said paragraph; and, added the eighth paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ACTS

Under this chapter limiting the causes for suspension or revocation of a license to obtaining a broker's license by false or fraudulent representations, and "where the licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts mentioned herein", has done certain things, the "acts" referred to are those activities set forth in this section defining the meaning of real estate broker and real estate salesman, which activities deal with sale, purchase, or rental of realty and negotiation of loans on realty by one who acts for another and for a consideration. Eberman v. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 844).

RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

In action to recover secret profit allegedly made by broker in purchasing plaintiff's property on broker's own account and reselling it at a profit, evidence required denial of recovery on ground that there was no evidence establishing relationship of real estate broker and client between the parties. Urciolo v. O'Connor (App. D. C. 1945, 149 F. 2d 386).

Where salesman employed by broker was entitled to one-half of the commissions on all sales either made or procured by him, a fiduciary relationship existed with the necessary incidents of good faith and mutual trust, and right of salesman to commission must be determined on such basis rather than the basis of rival or competing brokers. Henderson v. Porter (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 52 A. 2d 779).

§ 45–1403 [20: 1972]. Real Estate Commission created—Membership—Seal—Records—Compensation.

There is hereby created the Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall appoint two persons, not more than one of whom shall have been actively engaged in or closely connected with the business or vocation of real-estate broker or real-estate salesman within five years immediately prior to appointment, who shall serve as members of said Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. In addition thereto, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall serve, ex-officio, as a member of said Real Estate Commission but without added compensation for his services as such. One member of said Commission shall be appointed for a term of one year; one member shall be appointed for a term of two years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; thereafter the term of the members of said Commission shall be for three years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Members to fill vacancies shall be appointed for the unexpired term. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia may remove members of the Real Estate Commission at any time for cause.

The assessor, ex-officio, shall be the chairman of said Real Estate Commission, which is hereby authorized and empowered to elect a treasurer of said Commission and to do all things necessary and convenient for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time by the Commissioners.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall employ and remove at their pleasure a secretary and such assistants as shall be deemed necessary to discharge the duties imposed by the provisions of this chapter and shall prescribe their duties and fix their compensation in accordance with the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall provide for the use of the Real Estate Commission such office space, furniture, stationery, fuel, light, and other proper conveniences as shall be reasonably necessary for carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

The Commission shall adopt a seal with such design as it may prescribe engraved thereon by which it shall authenticate its proceedings. Copies of all records and papers in the office of the Commission, duly certified and authenticated by the seal of said Commission, shall be received in evidence in all courts equally and with like effect as the original. The Commission shall keep a record of all its proceedings and a complete stenographic record of all hearings authorized under this chapter.

All records kept in the office of the Commission under authority of this chapter shall be open to public inspection under reasonable rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commission.

The compensation of members of the Commission, except the ex officio member, shall be $10 each for personal attendance at each meeting, but shall not exceed for any member $1,500 per annum.

The payment of such allowance shall be made from any unexpended balance in the treasury of said Commission remaining on June 30 of the year during which the services have been rendered, and if the unexpended balance is insufficient to meet the total amount of such allowance the rate of compensation shall be reduced to a rate which will permit payment from such unexpended balance. Such expenses shall in no event exceed the total receipts; and if at the close of each fiscal year any funds unexpended in excess of the sum of $1,000 shall be paid into the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no expenses incurred under this chapter shall be a charge against the funds of the United States or the District of Columbia.

All fees and charges payable under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the treasurer of the Commission. The Commission is hereby authorized to refund any license fee or tax, or portion thereof, erroneously paid or collected under this chapter.

It shall be the duty of the auditor of the District of Columbia to audit the accounts of the Commission at the end of each fiscal year and make a report thereof in writing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. The said auditor shall have free access to all books of accounts, papers, and records of the said Commission.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make and enforce, revise, or repeal whatever reasonable regulations may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 788, ch. 760, § 3; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act amended the seventh paragraph to read as it now appears. This paragraph in the 1937 act read as follows, "Each member of the Commission, except the ex-officio member, shall receive an allowance at the rate of $10 for each day of seven hours such member is actually engaged in the performance of duties as a member of the Commission: Provided, however, That no member shall receive in any one year a sum greater than $2,000."

§ 45–1404 [20: 1973]. Qualifications for license.

No license under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued to any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years, nor to any person who cannot read, write, and understand the English language; nor until the Commission has received satisfactory proof that the applicant is trustworthy and competent to transact the business of a real-estate broker or real-estate salesman or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman in such a manner as to safeguard the interests of the public: Provided, however, That a salesman shall have six months from the date of the issuance of his original license to prove his competency, and failure to prove his competency to the satisfaction of the Commission within that period will automatically cancel his original license or any renewal thereof.

In determining competency, the Commission shall require proof that every applicant for a license has a general and fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent, as well as of the provisions of this chapter; and that an applicant for a license as a real-estate broker has a fair understanding of the general purposes and effect of deeds, mortgages, and contracts for the sale or leasing of real estate, and of elementary real-estate practices; and that an applicant for a license as a business-chance broker has a fair understanding of the general purposes and effect of bills of sale, chattel mortgages and trusts, and the provisions of the law governing sales in bulk.

No license shall be issued to any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation whose application has been rejected in the District of Columbia or any State within three months prior to date of application, or whose real-estate license has been revoked in the District of Columbia or any State within one year prior to date of application. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 789, ch. 760, § 4; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman" and the proviso in the first paragraph; rearranged the wording of the first part of the second paragraph and added the words beginning "and that an applicant," the second time the said words appear, and concluding the said paragraph.

§ 45–1405 [20: 1974]. Application for license—Requirements—Location of business—Members—Individual broker's and real-estate salesman's license—Bond—Form, conditions.

Every applicant for a license under the provisions of this chapter shall apply therefor in writing upon blanks furnished by the Real Estate Commission.

The application of every person for a real-estate broker's license or a real-estate salesman's license shall be accompanied by the recommendation of at least two residents of the District of Columbia, real-estate owners, who have owned real estate in the District of Columbia for a period of at least one year and who are not related to the applicant but who have personally known the applicant for a period of at least six months prior to the date of application, which recommendation shall certify that the applicant bears a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, fair dealing, and competency, and recommend that a license be granted to the applicant.

The application of every firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation for a real-estate broker's license shall state the location of the place or places for which said license is desired and set forth the period of time, if any, which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding date of application, accounting for such entire period. Such applications shall also state the name and residence of each individual member or officer of said applicant who actively participates in the brokerage business thereof.

The application of every individual member or officer of a firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation for a real-estate broker's license shall state the full name and residence address of the applicant and the full name and business address of the firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation with which he is or will be associated, the length of time he has been so associated, and in what capacity. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding date of application, accounting for such entire period.

The application of each person for an individual real-estate broker's license shall state the full name of the applicant, his business address, and residence address. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding the date of application, accounting for such entire period.

The application of every person for a real-estate salesman's license shall state the full name of the applicant, his residence address, and the name and business address of the real-estate broker by whom he is or will be employed. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding the date of application, accounting for such entire period. Such application shall be accompanied by a written statement by the broker by whom the applicant is employed or is about to be employed, stating that in his opinion the applicant is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and recommending that the license be granted to the applicant.

Every application for a license under the provisions of this chapter shall be sworn to by the applicant and shall be accompanied by the license fee herein prescribed. In the event that the Commission does not approve the application for a license the fee shall be returned to the applicant.

Every application for a license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of $2,500 in the case of a broker and $1,000 in the case of a salesman, running to the District of Columbia executed by a surety company duly authorized to do business in the District of Columbia: Provided, however, That no bond shall be required of any firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation when the application of every member or officer of such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation actively participating in the brokerage business thereof is accompanied by a bond as provided for in this section. Said bond shall be in form approved by the Commission, and conditioned that the applicant shall conduct himself and his business in accordance with the requirements of this chapter; and for his failure so to do any person aggrieved thereby shall have, in addition to his right of action against the principal thereof, a right to bring suit against the surety on said bond either alone or jointly with the principal thereon, and to recover in an amount not exceeding the penalty of the bond any damages sustained by reason of any act, representation, transaction, or conduct of the principal which may be prohibited by this chapter or enumerated as one of the causes for suspension or revocation of a license granted hereunder. If a recovery be had on any bond the licensee shall restore the bond to its original amount.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished by any prior recovery or recoveries as the case may be.

No suit or action against the surety on any such bond shall be brought later than one year from the accrual of the cause of action thereon. The surety may terminate its liability under such bond by giving thirty days' written notice thereof, served either personally or by registered mail, to the principal and to the Commission; and upon giving such notice the surety shall be discharged from all liability under such bond for any act or omission of the principal occurring after the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of such notice. Unless on or before the expiration of such period the principal shall duly file a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original in substitution of the bond so terminated, the license of the principal shall likewise terminate upon the expiration of such period. Upon making any payment on account of its bond, the surety shall immediately notify the Commission.

In the event the surety becomes insolvent or a bankrupt, or ceases to do business or ceases to be authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, the principal shall, within ten days after notice thereof, given by the Commission, duly file a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original and if the principal shall fail so to do the license of such principal shall terminate.

The Commission, with due regard to the paramount interest of the public, may require other reasonable proof of the honesty, truthfulness, and integrity of the applicant. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 789, ch. 760, § 5; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "executed by two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Commission, or" following the word "Columbia" as said word first appears in the eighth paragraph; and, added the eleventh paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BOND, ACTIONS ON

That plaintiffs recovered various sums on account of rents collected for them by decedent but never accounted for by decedent in an action on bond under this section given by decedent did not bar plaintiffs from asserting an equitable lien on the amount of a special rent account in the hands of decedent's administratrix as a trust fund, in view of provision of this section that the aggrieved person's remedy against the surety is in addition to his right of action against the principal, since remedies were cumulative and nothing less than complete satisfaction of plaintiffs' claims would operate as a bar. Brown v. Christman, 1942 (126 F. 2d 625, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 203).

RECOVERY ON BOND

A salesman of real estate broker who dealt with him as employer or business associate could not recover from surety on broker's bond the balance of commissions which broker failed to pay to salesman, since this section providing for bond to protect "any person aggrieved" by broker's conduct which constitutes fraudulent or dishonest dealings, limits recovery on bond to members of the public. Eberman v. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 844).

No liability exists on the bond since no obligation arises on the part of a broker to repay until demand is made. Moreover, the regulations of Real Estate Commission cannot be extended to the surety. Cundiff v. Wills and Martin v. Wills (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 55).

§ 45–1406 [20: 1975]. Procedure when license refused.

The Commission, after an application in proper form has been filed, shall, before refusing to issue a license, set the application down for a hearing and determination as provided in section 45–1409. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 791, ch. 760, § 6.)

§ 45–1407 [20: 1976]. Details relating to license.

The Commission shall cause to be issued to each licensee a license in such form and size as shall be prescribed by the Commission. Every license shall show the name and address of the licensee, and if licensee is a member or officer of a firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation, the full name and address of such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation shall also be shown on said license. Licenses issued to real-estate salesmen shall in addition show the name and address of the real-estate broker by whom the said salesmen is or will be employed. Each license shall have imprinted thereon the seal of the Commission, and in addition to the foregoing shall contain such matter as shall be prescribed by the Commission. The license of each real-estate salesman shall be delivered or mailed to the real-estate broker by whom such real-estate salesman is employed and shall be kept in the custody and control of such broker. It shall be the duty of each real-estate broker to conspicuously display his license in his place of business.

At any time within six [6] months, but not thereafter, after the issuance of an original license the Commission may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint, in writing, of any person, provided such complaint, or such complaint together with evidence, documentary or otherwise, presented therewith, shall make out a prima facie case that the licensee is unworthy to hold such license, notify the licensee, in writing, that the question of his honesty, competency, truthfulness, and integrity will be reopened and determined de novo. Such written notice may be served by delivery thereof personally to the licensee or by mailing same by registered mail to the last known business address of the licensee. Thereupon the Commission may require and procure further proof of the licensee's trustworthiness and competency, and if such proof shall not be satisfactory such license shall be recalled and shall thereafter be null and void. Upon the recall of any such license it shall be the duty of the licensee to surrender to the Commission such license.

The fee for an original broker's license and every renewal thereof shall be $30: Provided, however, That the fee for an original broker's license and every renewal thereof for individual members, partners, and officers of firms, partnerships, and corporations shall be $30 for the first member, partner, or officer to be designated by the firm, partnership, or corporation and $10 for each additional member, partner, or officer of such firm, partnership, or corporation.

No fee shall be charged for any original license or renewal thereof issued to any firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation all of whose members or officers actively participating in the brokerage business thereof have been issued a broker's license.

The fee for an original real-estate salesman's license and every annual renewal thereof shall be $10.

The fees provided herein for any original license shall be reduced by one-half in all cases where the application for such original license is filed between January 1 and July 1 of any year.

Every license shall expire on the 1st day of July of each year, except that the original or initial licenses, first issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on the 1st day of July, 1938, subject, however, to revocation as hereinbefore provided.

The Commission shall cause to be issued a new license for each ensuing year, in the absence of any reason or condition which might warrant the refusal of the granting of a license, upon receipt of the written request of the applicant and the annual fee therefor, as herein required: Provided, however, That an applicant who, on or before July 1, fails to file said written request and pay the annual fee must comply with all the provisions of this chapter applicable to an original applicant except that the Commission may waive the requirement of furnishing proof of competency. The revocation of a broker's license shall automatically suspend every salesman's license granted to any person by virtue of his employment by the broker whose license has been revoked, pending a change of employer and the issuance of a new license. Such new license shall be issued without charge if granted during the same license year in which the original license is granted.

No person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, within the District of Columbia shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of the District of Columbia for the collection of compensation for any services performed as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, or enforcement of any contract relating to real estate without alleging and proving that such person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation was a duly licensed real-estate broker or real-estate salesman, or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Every broker licensed hereunder shall maintain a place of business in the District of Columbia. If a broker maintains more than one place of business within the District of Columbia, a duplicate license shall be issued to such broker for each branch office maintained; and there shall be no fee charged for any such duplicate license.

When a broker changes the location of his principal place of business he must immediately notify the Commission in writing and return to the Commission his license together with the licenses of all salesmen in his employ, and the Commission shall issue a new license to the broker and to each of the salesmen without charge. Failure to notify the Commission and to return his license when the location of his principal place of business is changed, will automatically cancel the broker's license and the licenses of all salesmen in his employ. However, new licenses for the unexpired term may be issued by the Commission without the payment of any additional fee, provided a written request therefor accompanied by a new bond is filed.

When any real-estate salesman shall be discharged or shall terminate his employment with the real-estate broker by whom he is employed it shall be the duty of such real-estate broker to immediately deliver or mail by registered mail to the Commission such real-estate salesman's license. The real-estate broker shall at the time of delivering or mailing such real-estate salesman's license to the Commission, address a communication by registered mail to the last-known residence address of such real-estate salesman, which communication shall advise such real-estate salesman that his license has been delivered or mailed to the Commission. A copy of such communication to the real-estate salesman shall accompany the license when mailed or delivered to the Commission. It shall be unlawful for any real-estate salesman to perform any of the acts contemplated by this chapter, either directly or indirectly, under authority of said license from and after three days following such delivery or mailing of the said license by said broker to the Commission.

When a salesman shall be discharged or shall terminate his employment with the broker by whom he is employed, it shall be the duty of such salesman to immediately notify the Commission, and it shall be unlawful for him to perform any of the acts contemplated by this chapter either directly or indirectly from and after such termination of employment until such time as he has been employed by another licensed broker and a license has been reissued him by the Commission.

There shall be no additional fee for the reissuance of a salesman's license necessitated by the change of employers nor shall such change work a revocation or require a renewal of the salesman's bond.

A license issued to an individual cannot be transferred to another individual. However, an individual licensed as a broker may, upon written request to the Commission, change his status to that of an individual broker or to that of a partner of a partnership, or to that of an officer of a corporation, for any unexpired term of his license, without the payment of any additional fee, and such change shall not work a revocation or require a renewal of the bond of any such broker. This provision shall not be applicable to any real-estate broker in respect to a change of license to that of a business chance broker or vice versa.

No license shall be issued to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation unless every individual member, partner or officer of such firm, partnership, association, or corporation who actively participates in the brokerage business thereof is licensed as a broker. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 791, ch. 760, § 7; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the figure "$50" and inserted in lieu thereof the figure "$30," and added the rest of the third paragraph; added the sixth paragraph; added the proviso on the end of the first sentence of the eighth paragraph; added the words "or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman" as they appear in the ninth paragraph; deleted the words "real estate" as they appeared in the 1937 act as the second and third words of the first sentence and the third and fourth words of the second sentence of the tenth paragraph; reworded the eleventh paragraph to provide as it now appears, the former paragraph having provided that notice be given "by each licensee" and not having provided for a new bond; and, added the thirteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth paragraphs.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PROOF OF LICENSE

In action for real estate broker's commission on sale of realty, where answer admitted allegation that broker was duly licensed, testimony of broker that he was licensed was sufficient proof without production of the license. McManus v. Newcomb (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 36).

§ 45–1408 [20: 1977]. Suspension or revocation of license—Causes enumerated.

The Commission may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, provided such complaint or such complaint together with evidence, documentary or otherwise, presented in connection therewith, makes out a prima facie case, investigate the conduct of any real-estate broker or real-estate salesman, or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, and shall have the power to suspend or to revoke any license issued under the provisions of this chapter, at any time where the licensee has by false or fraudulent representation obtained a license, or where the licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts mentioned herein, has—

(a) Made any substantial misrepresentation;

(b) Made any false promises of a character likely to influence, persuade, or induce;

(c) Pursued a continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation, or making of false promises through agents or salesmen, or advertising or otherwise;

(d) Acted for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge of all parties for whom he acts;

(e) Accepted a commission or valuable consideration as a real-estate salesman or as a business-chance salesman for the performance of any of the acts specified in this chapter from any person, except the broker under whom he is licensed;

(f) Represented or attempted to represent a real-estate broker or a business-chance broker other than the employer, without the express knowledge and consent of the employer;

(g) Failed, within a reasonable time, to account for or to remit any money, valuable documents, or other property coming into his possession which belong to others;

(h) Demonstrated such unworthiness or incompetency to act as a real-estate broker or real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman as to endanger the interests of the public;

(i) While acting or attempting to act as agent or broker, purchased or attempted to purchase any property or interest therein for himself, either in his own name or by use of a straw party, without disclosing such fact to the party he represents;

(j) Been guilty of any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character from that hereinbefore (prior to Aug. 25, 1937) specified, which constitutes fraudulent or dishonest dealing;

(k) Used any trade name or insignia of membership in any real-estate organization of which the licensee is not a member;

(l) Disregarded or violated any provisions of this chapter;

(m) Guaranteed or authorized or permitted any broker or salesman to guarantee future profits which may result from the resale of real property, or a business, business opportunity, or the goodwill of any existing business;

(n) Placed a sign on any property offering it for sale or for rent or offering it for sale or rent without the written consent of the owner or his authorized agent;

(o) Accepted a compensation from more than one party to a transaction without the knowledge of all the parties to the transaction; or

(p) Failed to restore the bond to its original amount after a recovery on the bond as provided in section 45–1405. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 793, ch. 760, § 8; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1356, ch. 664, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman" in the first paragraph; added the words "or as a business-chance salesman," and deleted the words "except an employer who is a licensed real-estate broker" and inserted in lieu thereof the last eight words in paragraph (e); added the word "or a business-chance broker" in paragraph (f); deleted the word "salesman" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman" in paragraph (h); inserted paragraph (i) in lieu of the former paragraph which read, "Paid or offered to pay a commission or valuable consideration to any person for acts or services in violation of this act, with knowledge of such violation or where reasonable diligence has not been exercised to acquire such knowledge;" added the words "or a business, business opportunity, or the goodwill of any existing business" at the end of paragraph (m); changed the verbs in paragraph (m) and (n) from the present to the past participle; and, inserted paragraph (o) in lieu of the former paragraph which read, "Soliciting, selling, or offering for sale real property by offering free lots, or conducting lotteries, or contests, or offering prizes for the purpose of influencing a purchaser or prospective purchaser of real property." (See second paragraph of § 45–1414 added thereto by the 1939 act which made this deletion.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AMOUNT OF RECOVERY

Where broker makes a secret profit at expense of principal, the principal is entitled only to the net, rather than the gross profit realized by broker. Jay v. General Realties Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 752).

Where broker secretly purchased property for herself without informing principal and later resold property at a profit, broker was entitled to credit for $650 paid for repairs and for $400 paid as commission on resale of the property. Jay v. General Realties Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 752).

The seller is not entitled by reason of the false representation of the broker to be put in a better position than she would have been had his representation been true. Murphy v. O'Donnell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 340).

COMMISSION

Where salesman employed by broker was entitled to one-half of the commissions on all sales either made or procured by him, a fiduciary relationship existed with the necessary incidents of good faith and mutual trust, and right of salesman to commission must be determined on such basis rather than the basis of rival or competing brokers. Henderson v. Porter (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 52 A. 2d 779).

Where salesman was employed on commission basis by broker, salesman would be entitled to commission where he initiated the negotiations and consented that broker might conduct them because of his greater experience and broker agreed that salesman would receive his share of commission in event sale should be made. Henderson v. Porter (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 52 A. 2d 779).

That subsection (n) of this section authorized the suspension or revocation of broker's license for offering property for sale without written consent from owner did not prevent broker from recovery of commissions in such a case where owners had entered into a contract for sale of the property with purchaser produced by broker. Murphy v. Mallos (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 514).

In a broker's suit against the purchaser who took subject to the present lease, such a lease did not obligate the purchaser to pay the rental commission which the former owners had agreed to pay where the purchaser never assumed any obligation to pay the broker. An agreement merely to take land subject to a specified encumbrance is not an agreement to assume and pay the encumbrance and there must be words importing that he will pay the debt to make him personally liable. Schwartz v. Brown (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 62 A. 2d 298).

CONSENT OF OWNER

Under this section, no broker may offer property for sale or rent without the written consent of the owner or his authorized agent. Coldicott v. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 518).

DUTY OF BROKER

A broker owes his principal the highest fidelity and is bound to inform him fully of every development affecting his interest and particularly not to take any step secret or otherwise from which he may reap a personal profit at the expense of the principal. Jay v. General Realties Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 752).

Generally speaking, a broker who has secured his employment by a false representation, or who has by false representation induced his principal to accept an offer, is not entitled to a commission. The law requires the utmost good faith on the part of a broker in his dealings with his principal. Ellis v. Morgan (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 797).

Where broker received deposit from plaintiff as down payment, he was not only an agent but also a trustee of the funds deposited and as such he was subject to the duty to act solely for the benefit of his principal. One may not be an agent of both parties to a transaction without making full disclosure to both and obtaining their consent. Keith v. Berry (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 300).

LISTING CARD

The listing card usually constitutes agreement between property owner and broker, and unless it is superseded by some later writing, or otherwise modified by the parties, it evidences the understanding between them. Coldicott v. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 518).

MISREPRESENTATION

Where seller informed broker that if she sold she would have to have another place and signed deed when broker said he had another available apartment, which in fact was unavailable, broker is liable for his misrepresentation. Murphy v. O'Donnell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 340).

QUESTION OF FACT

Where broker contended that he secured suitable accommodations and seller arbitrarily refused them, a question of fact was presented. Murphy v. O'Donnell D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 340).

RECOVERY OF COMMISSION

To be entitled to recover commission, broker must produce a purchaser who is ready, able and willing to buy on the terms authorized by the principal. Purchaser's signature on contract is some evidence of willingness to proceed but not that he is financially able or ready to do so. Long v. Murchison (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 370).

RECOVERY OF SECRET PROFIT

In action to recover secret profit allegedly made by broker in purchasing plaintiff's property on broker's own account and reselling it at a profit, evidence required denial of recovery on ground that there was no evidence establishing relationship of real estate broker and client between the parties. Urciolo v. O'Connor (App. D. C. 1945, 149 F. 2d 386).

In principal's action against broker for secret profit realized by broker in purchasing property herself through straw men without informing principal and later reselling it at a profit, evidence sustained findings that broker had purchased the property herself through straw men without informing principal. Jay v. General Realties Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 752).

§ 45–1409 [20: 1978]. Hearing before suspension—Court review—Appeal.

The Commission shall, before denying an application for license, or before suspending or revoking any license, set the matter down for a public hearing, and at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing it shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing of any charges made and shall afford said applicant or licensee an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. Such written notice may be served by delivery of same personally to the applicant or licensee or by mailing same by registered mail to the last-known business address of such applicant or licensee. If said applicant or licensee be a salesman the Commission shall also notify the broker employing him, or whose employ he is about to enter, by mailing notice by registered mail to the broker's last-known address. The hearing on such charges shall be at such time and place as the Commission shall prescribe. The Commission shall have the power to issue subpenas or take testimony of any person by deposition in the same manner as prescribed by law in judicial procedure in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in civil cases. It shall also have the power to require the production of books, records, papers, and documents by subpena or otherwise. Any party to any hearing before the Commission shall have the right to the attendance of witnesses in his behalf at such hearing upon making request therefor to the Commission and designating the person or persons sought to be subpenaed. If the Commission shall determine that any applicant is not qualified to receive a license, a license shall not be granted to said applicant, and if the Commission shall determine that any licensee is guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of §§ 45–1401 to 45–1418 this chapter, his or its licenses shall be suspended or revoked. All evidence before and findings of fact made by the Commission and questions of law involved in any final decision or determination of the Commission shall be subject to review by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia upon a writ of certiorari, mandamus, appeal, or by any other method permissible under the rules and practices of said court or the laws of the District of Columbia, and the said court may make such further orders with respect thereto as justice may require: Provided, however, That application is made by the aggrieved party to the court within thirty days after any determination by the Commission or within sixty days after formal request shall be made upon it for action. Such application shall operate as a stay of any action or finding of the Commission revoking or suspending a license, and until final decision by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia such licensee shall have the right to continue in business.

An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the said court on any such appeal on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in civil actions.

Any party to the proceedings desiring it shall be furnished with a copy of such stenographic notes, upon the payment to the Commission of such reasonable fee as it shall, by general rule or regulation, prescribe. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 794, ch. 760, § 9.)

§ 45–1410 [20: 1979]. Provisions applicable to nonresident brokers and salesmen.

A nonresident of the District of Columbia may become a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman in the District of Columbia by conforming to all of the conditions of this chapter, except that the application of such person for a license need not be accompanied by the recommendation of real-estate owners in the District of Columbia prescribed in paragraph 2 of section 45–1405, but in lieu thereof the Commission shall require the filing of like recommendations by similarly qualified real-estate owners of property in the state, territory, or county of such applicant's residence, and with the further exception that a nonresident of the District of Columbia need not maintain a place of business within the District of Columbia if he is licensed in and maintains a place of business in the state in which he resides.

(2) The Commission may recognize, in lieu of the recommendation and statements otherwise required by this chapter to accompany an application for a license, the valid and existing license issued to a nonresident to act as a real-estate broker or salesman by any state having a law for the licensing of such brokers and salesmen similar to this chapter, upon payment of the license fee prescribed by this chapter and the filing by the applicant with the commission of a duly authenticated copy of applicant's license issued by such state: Provided, however, That every nonresident applicant shall file an irrevocable consent that suits and actions may be commenced against such applicant in the proper courts of the District of Columbia by the service of any process or pleadings authorized by the laws of the United States applying to the District of Columbia on the secretary of the Commission, said consent stipulating and agreeing that such service of such process or pleadings on said secretary shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due or personal service had been made upon said applicant in the District of Columbia. Said instrument containing such consent shall be duly acknowledged and if made by a corporation shall be authenticated by the seal thereof. All such applications, except from individuals, shall be accompanied by a duly certified copy of the resolution of the proper officers or managing board, authorizing the proper officer to execute the same. In case any process or pleadings mentioned in this chapter are served upon the secretary of the Commission, it shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the office of the Commission and the other immediately forwarded by registered mail to the residence address given by the applicant against which said process or pleadings are directed: And provided further, That every nonresident of the District of Columbia shall file a bond in form and contents the same as is required of applicants under section 45–1405. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 795, ch. 760, § 10; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 9.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words beginning "and with the further" and concluding the first paragraph.

§ 45–1411 [20: 1980]. Power to obtain evidence.

Each member of the Commission and its duly authorized representatives may administer oaths to witnesses.

In case of the refusal of any person to comply with any subpena issued hereunder or to testify to any matter regarding which he may lawfully be interrogated, the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any judge thereof, on application of any member of the Commission, shall issue an order requiring such person to comply with such subpena and to testify or either, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 11.)

§ 45–1412 [20: 1981]. Further exemptions—Exceptions.

It shall not be necessary for any trustee or auctioneer acting under authority of a power of sale in a mortgage, deed of trust, or similar instrument securing the payment of a bona fide debt nor any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, or any land-mortgage or farm-loan association, organized under the laws of the United States, when engaged in the transaction of business within the scope of its corporate powers and provided by law, to obtain a license under this chapter.

The exemption contained in this section shall not apply to any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, or any land-mortgage or farm-loan association, which for another and for a compensation, performs any of the acts defined herein as the acts of a real-estate broker or business-chance broker in connection with any property, wherein such bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, land-mortgage or farm-loan association has no fiduciary interest such as receiver, referee, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 12; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 10.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the second paragraph.

CROSS REFERENCE

Other exemptions, § 45–1402.

§ 45–1413 [20: 1982]. List of licensees to be published.

The Commission shall publish at least annually a list of the names and addresses of all licensees licensed by it under the provisions of this chapter and of all persons whose license has been suspended or revoked within one year, together with a succinct report of its work during the year. Such list shall be mailed by the Commission to any person in the District of Columbia upon request. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 13.)

§ 45–1414 [20: 1983]. Fraudulent transfers or loans.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation to enter into or become a party to any contract, agreement, or understanding, or in any manner whatsoever to consider, combine, conspire, or act with another or others, (a) to execute a deed conveying real property in the District of Columbia that is not a bona-fide sale but is instead a simulated sale of such property executed for the purpose and with the intent of misleading others as to the value of such property, and which in fact does so mislead and/or defraud others, to their detriment; or (b) to execute a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property situated in the District of Columbia that does not in fact represent security for a bona-fide indebtedness, but which is in reality a simulated transaction, executed for the purpose and with the intent of misleading or deceiving others as to the value of the property and which does mislead, deceive, or defraud others to their detriment.

It shall be unlawful within the District of Columbia for any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation, foreign or domestic, either as owner or otherwise, to offer, give, award, or promise, or to use any method, scheme or plan offering, giving, awarding, or promising free lots in connection with the sale or the offering for sale or an attempt to sell or negotiate the sale of any real estate or interest therein, wherever situated, for the purpose of attracting, inducing, persuading, or influencing a purchaser or a prospective purchaser; or to offer, promise, or give prizes of any name or nature for attendance at or participation in any sale of real estate, by auction or otherwise.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation knowingly to pay a fee, commission, or compensation to anyone for the performance within the District of Columbia of any service or act defined in this chapter as the act of a real-estate broker, real-estate salesman, business-chance broker, or business-chance salesman, who was not duly licensed as such at the time such service or act was performed: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to the division of commission by a broker licensed hereunder with a nonresident cooperating broker. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 14; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 11.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the second and third paragraphs.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

REMEDY OF NONRESIDENT CO-OPERATING BROKER

Under this section, only a District of Columbia broker is authorized to share a commission with a nonresident co-operating broker, and hence nonresident real estate broker could not recover from one who was not a licensed broker, but only a salesman a percentage of commission received from a sale of property in the District. Metzler v. Edwards (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 42).

Provision of this section permitting a broker duly licensed in the District of Columbia to share commission on the sale of real estate with a nonresident co-operating broker establishes that agreements to that effect are not in contravention of public policy and gives, not only a right to a co-operating nonresident broker, but an enforceable remedy as well, and such agreements are enforceable in local courts, notwithstanding prohibition under section 1407 of this title against the maintenance of suits in local courts by an unlicensed broker to recover a commission. Metzler v. Edwards (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 42).

§ 45–1415 [20: 1984]. License revoked on conviction of crime.

Where during the term of any license issued by the Commission the licensee shall be convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia or any State (including Federal courts) of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or other like offense or offenses and a duly certified or exemplified copy of the record in such proceedings shall be filed with the Commission, the Commission shall revoke forthwith the license by it theretofore issued to the licensee so convicted.

In the event that any licensee shall be indicted in the District of Columbia or any State or Territory (including Federal courts) for forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or like offense or offenses, and a certified copy of the indictment be filed with the Commission, or other proper evidence thereof be to it given, the Commission shall have authority, in its discretion, to suspend the license issued to such licensee pending trial upon such indictment.

No license shall be issued by the Commission to any person known by it to have been, within five years theretofore, convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or other like offense or offenses, or to any copartnership of which such person is a member, or to any association or corporation of which said person is an officer, director, or employee, or in which as a stockholder such person has or exercises a controlling interest either directly or indirectly. In the event of the revocation or suspension of the license issued to any member of a copartnership, or to any officer of an association or corporation, the license issued to such copartnership, association, or corporation, shall be revoked by the Commission, unless, within a time fixed by the Commission, where a copartnership, the connection therewith of the member whose license has been revoked shall be severed and his interest in the copartnership and his share in its activities brought to an end, or where an association or corporation, the offending officer shall be discharged and shall have no further participation in its activity. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 15.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 45–1416 [20: 1985]. Penalties—Prosecutions.

Any person or corporation violating any provision of this chapter shall upon conviction thereof, if a person, be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for a term not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and, if a corporation, be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of a corporation, or member, employee, or agent of a firm, partnership, copartnership, or association, who shall personally participate in or be accessory to any violation of this chapter by such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation, shall be subject to the penalties herein prescribed for individuals.

This chapter shall not be construed to release any person, partnership, association, or corporation from civil liability or criminal prosecution under the laws applying to the District of Columbia.

All prosecutions for violation of this chapter shall be begun in the police court of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia and under the direction and charge of the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia. The corporation counsel of the District of Columbia and his assistants shall also be counsel for the Commission in all suits to which it may be a party, and shall advise the Commission and at its request attend any and all hearings which it may hold in the performance of its duties hereunder. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 797, ch. 760, § 16.)

§ 45–1417 [20: 1985a]. Bond required for renewal of licenses.

No license heretofore issued under the authority of this chapter, where the application therefor was accompanied by a bond which does not conform with the requirements of said chapter as amended hereby, shall be reissued or renewed unless the application for such reissuance or renewal shall be accompanied by a bond in accordance with this chapter as amended by this Act. (Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1358, ch. 664, § 12.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "This Act" refer to the act of August 10, 1939, cited to the text of the various sections of this chapter which it amends.

§ 45–1418 [20: 1986]. Saving clause.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or requirement of this chapter is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof. The Congress of the United States hereby declares that it would have passed this chapter, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and requirement thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, or requirements be declared unconstitutional or invalid. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 798, ch. 760, § 17.)

Chapter 15.—OWNERSHIP BY ALIENS

Sec.
45–1501. Ownership of real estate by aliens.
45–1502. Real estate—Ownership by alien individuals or corporation.
45–1503. Corporations controlled by aliens.
45–1504. Forfeiture.
45–1505. Ownership by foreign governments or representatives.

§ 45–1501. Ownership of real estate by aliens.

The act entitled "An Act to better define and regulate the rights of aliens to hold and own real estate in the Territories," approved March 2, 1897, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to extend to aliens the same rights and privileges concerning the acquisition, holding, owning, and disposition of real estate in the District of Columbia as by that act are conferred upon them in respect of real estate in the Territories of the United States. All laws and parts of laws so far as they conflict with the provisions of this section are hereby repealed. (February 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 733, ch. 733.)

STATUTORY REFERENCES

§ 45–1502. Real estate—Ownership by alien individuals or corporation.

It shall be unlawful for any person not a citizen of the United States or who has not lawfully declared his intention to become such citizen, or for any corporation not created by or under the laws of the United States or of some State or Territory of the United States, to hereafter acquire and own real estate, or any interest therein, in the District of Columbia, except such as may be acquired by inheritance: Provided, That the prohibition of this section shall not apply to cases in which the right to hold and dispose of lands in the United States is secured by existing treaties to the citizens or subjects of foreign countries, which rights, so far as they exist by force of any such treaties, shall continue to exist so long as such treaties are in force, and no longer, and shall not apply to the ownership of foreign legations or the ownership of residences by representatives of foreign governments or attachés thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1252, ch. 854, § 396.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section has been modified as to alien individuals by the act of Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 733, ch. 733.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SETTING ASIDE JUDGMENT

A stipulation that tenant who was granted 60-day stay of execution would consent to judgment for landlords suing for possession of leased housing accommodations, would not be set aside for newly discovered evidence that landlords were aliens incapable of owning realty in District of Columbia, where one landlord had declared his intention of becoming a citizen, and the record intimated that the other landlord was an attaché of a foreign legation. Conrad v. Medina (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 562).

VOIDABLE TITLE

Under this section, title of alien to land in District of Columbia is merely voidable and is not void until such time as the land is forfeited by due process of law. Conrad v. Medina (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 562).

§ 45–1503. Corporations controlled by aliens.

No corporation or association of which over fifty per centum of the stock is or may be owned by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, association or associations not citizens of the United States shall hereafter acquire or own any real estate hereafter acquired in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1252, ch. 854, § 397; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 530, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "more than twenty" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "over fifty."

§ 45–1504. Forfeiture.

All property acquired or held or owned in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be forfeited to the United States, and it shall be the duty of the United States attorney for the District to enforce every such forfeiture by bill in equity or other proper process. And in every such suit or proceeding that may be commenced to enforce the provisions of this chapter it shall be the duty of the court to determine the very right of the matter, without regard to matters of form, joinder of parties, multifariousness, or other matters not affecting the substantial rights either of the United States or of the other parties concerned. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1252, ch. 854, § 398.)

§ 45–1505. Ownership by foreign governments or representatives.

An act entitled "An Act to restrict the ownership of real estate in the Territories to American citizens, and so forth," approved March 3, 1887, be so amended that the same shall not apply to or operate in the District of Columbia, so far as relates to the ownership of legations, or the ownership of residences by representatives of foreign governments, or attaches thereof. (Mar. 9, 1888, 25 Stat. 45, ch. 30.)

Chapter 16.—RENT CONTROL

Sec.
45–1601. Purposes—Time limit.
45–1602. Maximum rent ceilings and minimum service standards.
45–1603. General adjustment of maximum rent ceilings.
45–1604. Petition for adjustment.
45–1605. Prohibitions.
45–1606. Administrator.
45–1607. Obtaining information.
45–1608. Procedure.
45–1609. Court review.
45–1610. Enforcement—Penalties.
45–1611. Definitions.

§ 45–1601. Purposes—Time limit.

(a) It is hereby found that the national emergency and the national-defense program (1) have aggravated the congested situation with regard to housing accommodations existing at the seat of government; (2) have led or will lead to profiteering and other speculative and manipulative practices by some owners of housing accommodations; (3) have rendered or will render ineffective the normal operations of a free market in housing accommodations; and (4) are making it increasingly difficult for persons whose duties or obligations require them to live or work in the District of Columbia to obtain such accommodations. Whereupon it is the purpose of this chapter and the policy of the Congress during the existing emergency to prevent undue rent increases and any other practices relating to housing accommodations in the District of Columbia which may tend to increase the cost of living or otherwise impede the national-defense program.

(b) The provisions of this chapter, and all regulations, orders, and requirements thereunder, shall terminate on March 31, 1951; unless the Congress shall by joint resolution insert a later date, except that as to offenses committed, or rights or liabilities incurred, prior to such expiration date, the provisions of this chapter and such regulations, orders, and requirements, shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or prosecution with respect to any such right, liability, or offense. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 788, ch. 553, § 1, as amended Dec. 3, 1945, 59 Stat. 592, ch. 514; June 29, 1946, 60 Stat. 340, ch. 521; Aug. 1, 1947, 61 Stat. 713, ch. 429; Mar. 30, 1948, 62 Stat. 100, ch. 163; April 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 205, ch. 243, § 1; March 31, 1949, 63 Stat. 30, ch. 45; April 19, 1949, 63 Stat. 48, ch. 73, § 1; June 30, 1950, 64 Stat. 310, ch. 428, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

Subsec. (b) amended by act of June 30, 1950, cited to text, which substituted "January 31, 1951, unless the Congress shall by joint resolution insert a later date" for "June 30, 1950".

Subsec. (b) amended by act of March 31, 1949, cited to text, which substituted "April 30, 1949" for "March 31, 1949", and by act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, which substituted "June 30, 1950" for "April 30, 1949".

Subsec. (b) amended by the act of April 29, 1948, cited to text, which substituted "March 31, 1949" for "April 30, 1948".

Subsec. (b) amended by the act of March 30, 1948, cited to text, which substituted "April 30, 1948" for "March 31, 1948".

Subsec. (b) amended by the act of Aug. 1, 1947, cited to text, which substituted "March 31, 1948" for "December 31, 1947".

Subsec. (b) amended by the act of June 29, 1946, cited to text, which substituted "December 31, 1947" for "December 31, 1946".

Subsec. (b) amended by the act of Dec. 3, 1945, cited to text, which substituted "December 31, 1946" for "December 31, 1945".

EXCEPTIONS

Section 7 of the Act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, provided as follows:

"SEC. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the recontrol of any housing accommodations which have been heretofore decontrolled."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GENERALLY

This chapter is justified by public crisis in housing caused by great influx of wartime employees. Heindrich v. Dimas-Aruti (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 138).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

The amendatory Rent Act did not in any way impair the rights and obligations of appellant's contract of purchase and therefore appellant was not deprived of any vested right. Kahn v. Wall (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 862).

Argument that the sixty-five percent clause is discriminatory class legislation and therefore void is without foundation because Congress has the power to make reasonable classifications in order to effectuate the purposes of the act. Kahn v. Wall (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 862).

Retroactive or retrospective laws are not forbidden by the Constitution merely because of such feature. Assuming that the amendatory Rent Act may be classed as retrospective legislation, it cannot be on that count alone declared unconstitutional. Kahn v. Wall (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 862).

We do not think that the office of the Administrator of Rent Control is the proper place for an attack on the constitutionality of the Rent Act. Block v. Tenants (D. C. Mun App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 59).

CONSTRUCTION

This chapter must be liberally construed to effect its obvious purpose and afford relief from conditions which would otherwise impede the war effort. Moore v. Coates (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 68).

This chapter was enacted to prevent injustices which would be expected to flow from acutely overcrowded conditions of a wartime capital, and it should be reasonably construed so as to accomplish its purposes. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867); Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

The District Emergency Rent Act was designed as a model, pre-war, temporary, emergency measure to forestall the skyrocketing of rentals of housing accommodations for defense workers, then concentrating in the District of Columbia. The act is directed primarily at private landlords. United States v. Wittek, 1949 (69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1906).

Rent Act must be considered as a whole and its sections must be read in connection with each other. Dunning v. Randall Hagner Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 770).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

If § 15–201 regarding issuance of execution was in conflict with this chapter which was subsequently adopted, to the extent of the conflict said § 15–201 was required to give way to this chapter. Myers v. H. L. Rust Co., 1943 (134 F. 2d 417, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 218).

The provisions of this chapter supersede older code enactments wherever there is conflict between them. Lingo v. Wolfe (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 270).

PURPOSE

This chapter is designed to prevent increases in cost of living and other impediments to the national defense program, and the purpose of this chapter is to freeze landlord-tenant relationships existing at the time of the adoption of this chapter. Myers v. H. L. Rust Co., 1943 (134 F. 2d 417, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 218).

This chapter was not intended to restore possession to occupant, who had violated obligations, against owner of premises who in good faith sought to recover possession of property for immediate and personal use as a dwelling. Leonardo v. Leonardo, 1944 (145 F. 2d 849, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 258).

Though this chapter was enacted primarily for benefit of tenants, it did not intend that rights given tenants should be used to frustrate rights reserved to landlord, and where rights of purchaser of leased property to be used for purchaser's residence were clearly established, tenant must yield regardless of hardships involved. Arsenault v. Angle (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 709).

This chapter was passed primarily for protection of tenants, but did not intend to prevent free sale of dwelling property and did not intend that rights given tenant should be used to frustrate rights reserved to landlord. National Metropolitan Bank of Washington v. Judge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 446); Hicks v. Bigelow (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 55 A. 2d 924).

It is practically inconceivable that Congress would have subjected its government-owned low-rent housing program in the District to the additional controls prescribed by the District of Columbia Emergency Rent Act. United States v. Wittek, 1949 (69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1906).

The claim that the act is unconstitutional because the emergency ceased to exist is without merit, for it must be assumed that Congress, by its latest extension, found a continuing existence of the emergency justifying continued existence of the act. The court is not prepared by the process of judicial notice to override a judgment of Congress so recently exercised. Kahn v. Wall (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 862).

§ 45–1602. Maximum rent ceilings and minimum service standards.

(1) On and after the thirtieth day following the enactment of this chapter, subject to such adjustments as may be made pursuant to sections 45–1603 and 45–1604, maximum-rent ceilings and minimum-service standards for housing accommodations excluding hotels, in the District of Columbia shall be the following:

(a) For housing accommodations rented on January 1, 1941, the rent and service to which the landlord and tenant were entitled on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941, but which had been rented within the year ending on that date, the rent and service to which the landlord and tenant were last entitled within such year.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941, nor within the year ending on that date, the rent and service generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations as determined by the Administrator.

(2) On and after the thirtieth day following the enactment of this chapter, the landlord or other person in charge of and conducting any hotel in the District of Columbia shall post in a conspicuous place in each room thereof used for living or dwelling purposes, a card or sign plainly stating the rental rate per day of such room, and a copy of such rates for each room shall be filed with the Administrator. Subject to such adjustment as the Administrator may determine to be necessary in order that said rates shall conform to the standard set forth in this section and to such adjustment as may be made pursuant to sections 3 and 4, said rates when posted and filed with the Administrator, shall constitute the maximum-rent ceiling for the housing accommodations specified: Provided, That the transient rates so posted shall not exceed the established or standard rate charged by the landlord as of January 1, 1941, except that after written notice by the landlord to the Administrator such landlord may make such addition or deduction to or from such rate as will compensate for (1) a substantial change since January 1, 1941, in maintenance or operating costs or expenses, or (2) a substantial capital improvement or alteration made since January 1, 1941, and such addition or deduction shall be subject to review by the Administrator, and he may by order adjust such maximum-rent ceiling to provide the rental rate generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations as determined by the Administrator. Posted rates shall conform to the following:

(a) In the case of apartment units, the rental rate shall be that which the landlord was entitled to receive on January 1, 1941, except in those instances where it is shown that a special rate less than the established or standard rate charged by the landlord as of January 1, 1941, was being charged, a rate may be posted at such established or standard rate: Provided, That the rate being charged the current occupant shall not be increased.

(b) Where apartment units are changed from furnished to unfurnished, or vice versa, the rate shall be that charged by the landlord for comparable housing accommodations on January 1, 1941: Provided, That no such change may be made without the consent of the current occupant, if there be one.

(c) Where housing accommodations are changed from permanent to transient use, the rate shall not exceed that posted for comparable accommodations.

(d) In the case of a hotel not in operation January 1, 1941, the rental rates posted shall be the rates generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations.

(e) For the purposes of this section, the term "hotel" means an establishment operating under a hotel license and occupied by an appreciable number of persons who are provided customary hotel services such as maid service, furnishing and laundering of linen, telephone and secretarial or desk service, use and upkeep of furniture and fixtures, and bellboy service.

(3) After April 30, 1948, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the following housing accommodations, and no maximum rent ceilings or minimum service standards shall be prescribed with respect thereto:

(a) Any housing accommodations in hotels, which accommodations are used exclusively for transient occupancy, that is, for living quarters for nonresidents upon a short-time basis;

(b) Any housing accommodations the construction of which was completed after March 31, 1948, or which are additional housing accommodations created by conversion after March 31, 1948, except as hereinafter provided;

(c) Nonhousekeeping, furnished housing accommodations, located within a single dwelling unit not used as a rooming or boarding house, but only if (A) no more than two paying tenants, not members of the landlord's immediate family, live in such dwelling unit, and (B) the remaining portion of such dwelling unit is occupied by the landlord or his immediate family.

(4) Any housing accommodations resulting from any conversion created on or after May 1, 1949, shall continue to be housing accommodations subject to maximum rent ceilings and minimum service standards unless the Administrator issues an order decontrolling them, which he shall issue if he finds that the conversion resulted in additional, self-contained family units as defined by regulations issued by him.

(5) (a) After June 30, 1950, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to, and no maximum rent ceiling or minimum service standards shall be prescribed for, any furnished nonhousekeeping housing accommodations which are rented as rooms without kitchen privileges or facilities for cooking (but not in a suite of two or more rooms), and when and for such period as any of the housing accommodations in any building used as a rooming house are decontrolled under this paragraph (a) the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to, and no maximum rent ceilings or minimum service standards shall be prescribed for, such building.

(b) After June 30, 1950, self-contained family units (as defined by regulations issued by the Administrator) located in hotels shall continue to be housing accommodations subject to maximum rent ceilings and minimum service standards unless the Administrator issues an order decontrolling them, or any of them, which he shall issue if he finds that such hotel is primarily engaged in furnishing accommodations for transients. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 788, ch. 553, § 2; April 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 205, ch. 243, § 2; April 19, 1949, 63 Stat. 49, ch. 73, §§ 2, 3 and 5; June 30, 1950, 64 Stat. 321, ch. 428, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 30, 1950, cited to text, added subsection (5).

The act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, amended subsection (2) (e), added the words "except as hereinafter provided" to subsection (3) (b), and added subsection (4).

The act of April 29, 1948, cited to text, added subsection (3).

EXCEPTIONS

Section 7 of the act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, provided as follows:

"SEC. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the recontrol of any housing accommodations which have been heretofore decontrolled."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADMINISTRATOR'S DETERMINATION

Under this section requiring, for accommodations not rented during 1940, the rent and service generally prevailing for comparable accommodations "as determined by the Administrator," 1944 order of Administrator fixing rent ceiling for particular premises, and prescribing future minimum service standard therefor, was not retroactive, and hence no rent ceiling existed until determined by the Administrator, but until then rights of lessor and lessee were fixed by the lease. Moore v. Coates (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 68).

The Rent Administrator's order determining rental was of no effect, and he properly set it aside on discovering that, contrary to landlord's representation, premises were rented on rental freeze date; landlord's remedy being to seek adjustment rather than determination of rent. Gould v. Delsnider (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 140, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54, reversed, 1946, 154 F. 2d 844, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

Under this chapter, no maximum rent ceiling existed until determined by Rent Administrator, and until then the rights of the parties were those fixed by their lease agreement. Wilkerson v. Montgomery (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 102).

Under this chapter, Rent Administrator cannot set aside a valid and subsisting lease between parties providing for lower rentals than rent ceiling established by Administrator. Hildebrand v. Nee (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 640).

After Administrator of Rent Control had determined rent ceiling for particular premises, he was without jurisdiction to order that such determination constituted fair and reasonable rent as of beginning of tenancy or to order refund by landlord and rule that upon payment of such refund, landlord should not be liable for damages or penalties. Kern v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 793).

The ruling of the Administrator that since the records of expenses for the year 1941 had become unavailable, he was entitled to take a later year as a base and compare subsequent years with such base year, was error. The Administrator may not substitute 1945 or any other year for the base year for this would amount to an administrative amendment of an act of Congress. Corey v. Fitzgerald (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 230).

The Rent Administrator acted beyond his scope of authority when he ordered that there was no proper reason for the subdivision of housing accommodations into two units when in fact for some time there have been and are actually two tenants in occupancy and by improvements landlord has provided accommodations which now lend themselves better than before to double or even triple occupancy. Block v. Means (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 163).

The order of the Rent Administrator fixing the rent ceiling made under § 45–1602 (1) (c) of Rent Act is not appealable. A finding of fact is not an appealable order. Weiner v. McMahon (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 525).

There is nothing in the Rent Act to compel an owner to continue to re-rent his property for housing purposes, and when a vacancy occurs, he may remove it from the rental market, occupy it himself, re-lease it or convert it to commercial use. But when the landlord permits its actual use as housing accommodations, even though the lease may state otherwise and even though the property was once free from rent control, the Rent Act applies. White v. Allen (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 252, see also 71 A. 2d 613).

Where proceedings before Administrator were under § 2 (1) (c) of the Rent Act, under which the Administrator determined the rent ceilings for housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941, no appeal lies from such determination. White v. Allen (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 252, see also 71 A. 2d 613).

ADOPTION OF CEILING

A general order of Administrator of Rent Control requiring landlords to file petitions for determination of maximum rent ceilings, and reciting that, until further notice, Administrator will assume, but not concede, that first rent collected by landlord is fair and reasonable, was not an adoption of rent then charged as a "maximum rent ceiling", and landlord's petition for court review of adjustment of rent or service on basis of such order was properly dismissed. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

CEILING RENT AS RETROACTIVE

Where premises were not rented during 1940, lessee could not recover excess of rent paid for 1942 and 1943 over the ceiling fixed by Rent Administrator in 1944 for such premises. Moore v. Coates (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 68).

Under this section requiring for accommodations not rented during 1940 the rent and services generally prevailing for comparable accommodations, "as determined by the Administrator", an order by Administrator fixing maximum rent ceiling for particular premises effective March 16, 1943, was intended to apply only prospectively, and hence tenant could not recover excess of rent paid prior to effective date of order over ceiling fixed by Rent Administrator. Dekelbaum v. Lloyd (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 174).

Rent Administrator's interpretation of maximum rent regulation as authorizing only prospective rent adjustments was entitled to persuasive weight in determining whether rent adjustment order should have been made retroactive. Dekelbaum v. Lloyd (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 174).

An order of Rent Administrator fixing maximum rent ceiling on apartment, which was entered after commencement of action to recover amount paid in excess of rent ceiling, had no retroactive effect. Wilkerson v. Montgomery (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 102).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

Without an existing maximum rent ceiling or maximum service standard as defined in this section, a proceeding for adjustment under § 45–1604 was unauthorized, and the procedural and review provisions of §§ 45–1608 and 45–1609 were inapplicable. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113)

Section 1608 of this title expressly provides that under stated circumstances, without action of Rent Administrator, the findings and recommended order of examiner in proceeding under section 1604 of this title relating to adjustment of rent ceiling and service standards may be deemed findings and order of Administrator, does not require that examiner's findings and order in proceeding under subsection (1) (c) of this section, for establishment of minimum service standard, be regarded as a determination by Administrator, without action on Administrator's part. Sager v. Parker (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 349).

EQUITABLE ESTOPPEL

Where landlord petitioned under Section 4 of Rent Act for an adjustment and where Administrator made no determination, such act did not preclude landlord from asserting a defense to tenant's suit for damages that the examiner's recommended order was not a sufficient basis for tenant's suit. The principles of equitable estoppel do not apply where the legal position first asserted is not successfully maintained. Parker v. Sager (C. A. D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

EVIDENCE

Trial court, in considering motion to dismiss, was entitled to take into account the text of the Rent Administrator's findings and also defendant's affidavit. Banks v. Thorwarth (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 906).

FINDINGS OF EXAMINER

Plaintiff was not bound in the present action by the rent examiner's findings where the finding was made by a rent examiner and the record does not show consideration and approval of such findings by the Administrator himself. Banks v. Thorwarth (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 906).

FURNISHED PREMISES

Where tenant rents unfurnished premises at ceiling price and rents furniture from a third person in a bona fide arrangement which is not designed to evade section 45–1601 et seq., landlord would have a valid defense against a claim of violation thereof. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

Landlord whose rent ceiling is fixed on basis of unfurnished rental cannot evade regulation against increase in rent without prior approval of Rent Administrator by renting property furnished. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

GRADUATED RENTALS

Where lease for a term of years provided for a fixed rental for the full term payable monthly on a graduated scale beginning at $125 per month, the monthly payment of $125, payable at time of effective date of this chapter which "froze" rent as of that date, was not a "monthly rental" which controlled rent for remainder of term. Isquith v. Athanas (D. C. Mun. App. 1943, 33 A. 2d 733).

MAXIMUM RENT

Rental payable for housing accommodations rented on January 1, 1941, became by this section maximum rent, and no landlord may collect more without official action by Rent Administrator. Gould v. Delsnider (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 140, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

NEW HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS

Where new housing accommodation was not rented on critical date under this chapter, rent payable under lease was controlling and valid for period prior to administrator's finding as to rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844).

Where premises rented on critical date under this chapter, was a frame building described as a "shack", and after that date a new owner installed water, plumbing and electricity and a bathroom with tub and overhanging shower, finished walls, installed electric refrigerator and electrically controlled kerosene furnace, rebuilt front entrance, planted flowers in yard and made repairs and completely furnished the house except for silver and linen, the completely equipped and furnished house was a new "housing accommodation" within subsection (1) (A–C) of this section which was not rented on critical date so that ceiling rent was the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844).

Where defendant on rent freeze date was renting apartment unfurnished and subsequently sublet apartment to plaintiffs completely furnished and supplied with various services, the accommodations sublet to plaintiffs were new accommodations to which ceilings on old accommodations did not apply, and, in absence of a determination of a rent ceiling for such new accommodations, the agreement of the parties controlled as to amount of rent payable, precluding an action by plaintiffs for overceiling rents. James v. Noorbolm (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 105).

Painting interior and exterior, replacing gutters and downspout, installing new hot water heater and gas range, and repairing and finishing floor did not constitute complete rehabilitation of leased premises, or "substantial capital improvements" or create "new housing accommodations" authorizing overceiling rent. Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

What constitutes new housing accommodations so as to authorize overceiling rent, as distinguished from improvements to old accommodations within this section is ordinarily question of fact, but becomes question of law where evidence is compelling one way or the other. Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

Where landlord removed a staircase and built a bathroom and made other improvements but did not make room for a larger number of tenants, the accommodations did not differ sufficiently to constitute new or different housing accommodations from that previously rented. Block v. Means (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 64 A. 2d 163).

The change in the use of space from occupancy by a number of roomers to occupancy of the same space as an apartment by one or more persons, without more, results as a matter of law in the creation of new housing accommodations under the statute. All the circumstances surrounding the change, including details of the use of the space and services rendered should be considered whereupon it becomes a question of fact. Banks v. Thorwarth (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 906).

The question whether accommodations involved are new, or are old ones with substantial capital improvement, is a question of fact for a jury. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 653).

OWNER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

If a rent ceiling is automatically created by statute prior to determination by Administrator of Rent Control, owner must determine for himself the rent he may charge and service he must furnish, and assume responsibility for violation of rent ceiling or minimum service standards, making him liable civilly, though not criminally. Moore v. Coates (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 68).

When a maximum rent ceiling is established for particular housing accommodations, landlord is entitled to charge and receive that amount and no more regardless of number of occupants, unless order fixing ceiling provides for a carrying rent dependent upon number of occupants. Glassman v. Graver (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 56 A. 2d 160).

RES JUDICATA

An order of the Administrator would not be res judicata or give rise to the application of the doctrine of estoppel by judgment under the circumstances here presented. Banks v. Thorwarth (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 906).

SERVICE STANDARD

Where rental schedule filed by landlord under this section listed "storage locker" as one of services supplied the tenants, this section, if it had effect of requiring continuance by landlord of the "service" of furnishing storage facilities, did not place a greater responsibility on landlord for care of goods stored than that expressly agreed upon by the parties. Barclay, Inc., v. Maxfield (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 768, 53 A. 2d 276).

The word "entitled" in provision of this section and § 45–1610 (a) authorizing tenant to recover damages from landlord upon proof of failure to furnish minimum service standard to which tenant was entitled on freeze date under this chapter, means having a right to, and indicates that service standard consists only of services tenant was entitled to as of right on freeze date, and not those which were furnished gratuitously or as a matter of courtesy. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

In order to entitle tenant to recover damages from landlord for violation of minimum service standard under this section and § 45–1610, such service need not be specifically contracted for in lease or rental agreement. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

In landlord's action for possession of leased premises and for money judgment for rent, landlord's alleged failure to make repairs did not constitute a defense on ground that such failure violated "minimum service standard" under this section, where no services from the landlord were required under any criteria for minimum service permitted under this section. Mitchell v. David (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 51 A. 2d 375).

The minimum service standard under subsection (1) (c) of this section is a question of fact to be determined by Administrator of Rent Control, and his determination is not an exact computation but is his judgment based on his view of evidence before him. Sager v. Parker (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 349, affirmed, 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

A determination of minimum service standard under subsection (1) (c) of this section by an examiner could not be accepted by Rent Administrator without his personal consideration of evidence on which examiner arrived at his conclusion, notwithstanding that examiner's order stated that it would be deemed to be that of Administrator unless written request for review was filed within fixed time or unless a rehearing or extension of time was granted within discretion of examiner or Administrator. Sager v. Parker (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 349, affirmed, 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

UNIT FOR RENT CEILINGS

The unit for which a rent ceiling is fixed by the Emergency Rent Act is not the real estate or the premises but the combination of real estate, all personal property, all facilities and all services connected with the use or occupancy and for which rent was payable. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844). See also, James v. Noorbolm (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 105).

§ 45–1603. General adjustment of maximum rent ceilings.

Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator a general increase or decrease since January 1, 1941, in taxes or other maintenance or operating costs or expenses has occurred or is about to occur in such manner and amount as substantially to affect the maintenance and operation of housing accommodations generally or of any particular class of housing accommodations, he may by regulation or order increase or decrease the maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard, or both, for such accommodations or class thereof in such manner or amount as will in his judgment compensate, in whole or in part, for such general increase or decrease. Thereupon such adjusted ceiling or standard shall be the maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard for the housing accommodations subject thereto. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 789, ch. 553, § 3.)

§ 45–1604. Petition for adjustment.

(a) Any landlord or tenant may petition the Administrator to adjust the maximum-rent ceiling applicable to his housing accommodations on the ground that such maximum-rent ceiling is, due to peculiar circumstances affecting such housing accommodations, substantially higher or lower than the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations; whereupon the Administrator may by order adjust such maximum-rent ceiling to provide the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations as determined by the Administrator.

(b) Any landlord may petition the Administrator to adjust the maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard, or both, applicable to his housing accommodations to compensate for (1) a substantial rise, since January 1, 1941, in taxes or other maintenance or operating costs or expenses, or (2) a substantial capital improvement or alteration made since January 1, 1941; whereupon the Administrator may by order adjust such maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard in such manner or amount as he deems proper to compensate therefor, in whole or in part, if he finds such adjustment necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter: Provided, That no such adjusted maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard shall permit the receipt of rent in excess of the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations as determined by the Administrator.

Provided further, That the Administrator may by order adjust the maximum rent ceiling or minimum service standard hereunder although the landlord fails to produce evidence of facts occurring in the period from January 1, 1941, to December 31, 1945, if the landlord proves circumstances which in the opinion of the Administrator excuse the failure to produce evidence of such facts.

(c) Any tenant may petition the Administrator on the ground that the service supplied to him is less than the service established by the minimum-service standard for his housing accommodations, but in the case of a hotel, is less than the established or standard service supplied as of January 1, 1941; whereupon the Administrator may order that the service be maintained at such minimum-service standard, or that the maximum-rent ceiling be decreased to compensate for a reduction in service, as he deems necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Any landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to reduce the service supplied by him in connection with any housing accommodations; whereupon the Administrator, if he determines that the reduction of such services is to be made in good faith for valid business reasons and is not inconsistent with carrying out the purposes of this chapter, may, by order, reduce the minimum-service standard applicable to such housing accommodations and adjust the maximum-rent ceiling downward in such amount as he deems proper to compensate therefor.

(e) Any tenant may petition the Administrator to adjust the maximum-rent ceiling applicable to his housing accommodations on the ground that such maximum-rent ceiling permits the receipt of an unduly high rent; whereupon the Administrator may by order adjust such maximum-rent ceiling in such manner or amount, as shall, in his judgment, effectuate the purposes of this chapter and provide a fair and reasonable rent for such housing accommodations.

(f) A petition made pursuant to this section shall be subject to the provisions of sections 45–1608 and 45–1609. Any adjusted maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard ordered pursuant to this section shall be the maximum-rent ceiling or minimum-service standard for the housing accommodations subject thereto; except that in the event that the adjustment order is stayed or set aside by the court in accordance with section 45–1609, the maximum-rent ceiling and minimum-service standard theretofore applicable to such housing accommodations under this chapter shall remain in full force and effect. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 790, ch. 553, § 4; June 30, 1950, 64 Stat. 310, ch. 428, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 30, 1950, cited to text, added the proviso in subsection (b).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

A landlord, basing his right under subsection (b) of this section to increased ceilings for rents because of increased costs, must show an increase in present and anticipated future costs, and records showing costs of landlord's predecessor are entirely competent to make such a showing, if the landlord shows that such records are applicable to himself. Stokes v. Realest Corp. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 532).

Facts agreed to by petitioner's counsel but which did not appear in the examiner's statement of evidence or in any other evidentiary form in the record and carrying neither the approval nor certification of the Rent Administrator, are not part of the record and cannot be considered on appeal. Bailey v. Maple (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 333).

ADMINISTRATOR'S DETERMINATION

Ruling of Administrator that since the records of expenses for the year 1941 had become unavailable, he was entitled to take a later year as a base and compare subsequent years with such base year, was error. The Administrator may not substitute 1945 or any other year for the base year, for this would amount to an administrative amendment of an act of Congress. Corey v. Fitzgerald (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 230).

ADOPTION OF CEILING

A general order of Administrator of Rent Control requiring landlords to file petitions for determination of maximum rent ceilings, and reciting that, until further notice, Administrator will assume, but not concede, that first rent collected by landlord is fair and reasonable, was not an adoption of rent then charged as a "maximum rent ceiling", and landlord's petition for court review of adjustment of rent or service on basis of such order was properly dismissed. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

Where petitioner did not submit rent schedule for approval but instead accepted previously approved schedules, as the legal rent ceilings, and abided by those schedules, the established rent ceilings were legal, at least from the time of acquisition of the property by the present landlord. Fairmac Corp. v. Roberts (D. S. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 684).

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT

Moneys spent for new electric refrigerators and for installation of an oil burner are not such expenditures as to be considered capital improvements. Sharpe v. Goldwyn (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 185).

The term "substantial capital improvement" means a substantial betterment from the viewpoint of housing accommodations and not necessarily from the viewpoint of the landlord's investment. A replacement of the coal and heating unit with an oil burning unit does not constitute a substantial capital improvement. Rosen v. Powers (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 200).

COMMERCIAL AND NONCOMMERCIAL PORTIONS

Where there is a single tendency and nothing in the record to show that either landlord or tenant ever regarded it as divisible, no separate toilet facilities for the housing and alleged commercial part thereof, only one heating unit, one meter for electricity, gas and water, it was error for Rent Administrator to rule that the unit was both a commercial and housing accommodation. Wayne v. Burke (D. C. Munn. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 669).

CONCLUSIVENESS OF FINDINGS

An administrator is not bound to follow an earlier ruling which he considered improper. Bailey v. Maple (D. C. Mun. App. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 333).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

Without an existing maximum rent ceiling or maximum service standard as defined in § 45–1602, a proceeding for adjustment under this section was unauthorized, and the procedural and review provisions of §§ 45–1608 and 45–1609 were inapplicable. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

DISMISSAL

Where it appears that after reversal of the original judgment and remand, there was a lapse of eleven months before case was calendared for trial, under rule 37 (e) of the Municipal Courts, defendant was entitled at most to a dismissal without prejudice. If an order of dismissal had been entered, plaintiff would be free to file action anew since dismissal would not have been an adjudication on the merits, and defendant was not prejudiced by denial of motion to dismiss. Clarke v. Cleckley (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 616).

Landlord's contention that there is no authority in law for dismissal of the petition except for want of prosecution is clearly without merit. Where petitioner fails to show a basis for relief, the administrator must of necessity deny relief. Whether such denial takes the form of a dismissal or otherwise is immaterial. Rosen v. Powers (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 200).

EQUITABLE ESTOPPEL

Where landlord petitioned under Section 4 of Rent Act for an adjustment, and where Administrator made no determination, this did not preclude landlord from asserting a defense to tenant's suit for damages that the examiner's recommended order was not a sufficient basis for tenant's suit. The principles of equitable estoppel do not apply where the legal position first asserted is not successfully maintained. Parker v. Sager (C. A., D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

EXPENSE RATIO

Where examiner averaged the expenses for the years 1942 through 1947, inclusive, and had allowed a sufficient rental increase to make up for the excess of such averaged operating expenses over the operating expenses for 1941, such method was improper because it failed to take into account the various items of operating expenses for the base year and intervening years. Shapiro v. Bombardier (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 772).

FINDINGS CONCLUSIVE

Where the Rent Administrator, upon review of the findings of the examiner, states his findings of fact or affirms the facts as found, such findings are conclusive if supported by substantial evidence. Winkler v. Ballard (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 669).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Where, after remand of the case by the court, the examiner went to the premises and inspected them in the presence of the landlord, the actual appearance and condition of the units certainly constituted evidence which probably spoke louder and clearer on the issue than would any other type of evidence. Accordingly, the findings must be sustained. Block v. Tenants (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 59).

In a petition for increased rent because of increased operating costs and substantial rise in taxes, Administrator was justified in using the fiscal year basis rather than the calendar year. Dysert v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 655).

The basis of calculation used by the Rent Administration must be in sufficient detail so that the parties may, if they desire, raise suitable objections before the Administrator and on appeal. The basis of calculations used in different cases must be reasonably consistent and if a different method is used in an individual case, reasons for such change in method must be shown. Ostrow v. Horning, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 277).

Where the Administrator, by reference in his findings to page numbers of the record, has made the actual figures used by the examiner or Administrator easily ascertainable, it is sufficient to indicate the basis of calculation of formula adopted by the Administrator. Dysert v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 655).

Evidence substantiated findings of Administrator that a distinction exists between apartments on the one hand ad hotel rooms for transit guests on the other, and that the cost of supplying maid service, linen, etc. is approximately the same for different rooms regardless of size, location, or relative rental value, and that room rent as distinguished from apartment rent had been customarily increased on a flat dollarwise basis. Sulzer v. Bellevue Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 407).

Whether, as a result of peculiar circumstances, the rent ceilings are substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations is a question to be decided by the Rent Administrator. Fairmac Corp. v. Roberts (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 684).

Administrator, under the statute, may not use different methods in ordering rent increases in different cases except where a reasonable basis exists for such variations. Sulzer v. Bellevue Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 407).

Grounds for Increase

Landlords are entitled to receive increased rentals due to increased price levels only, and not because of other elements, such as those making up for deferred maintenance. Proctor v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 665).

Housing and Rent Act

The authority of Congress to enact legislation for control of rents in the states is not the same exercised in controlling rents in the District of Columbia, and the Housing and Rent Acts of 1947 and 1948, 50 U. S. C. App. §§ 1894, 1901, authorizing a 15 percent increase in rent when voluntarily agreed to by landlord and tenant is not unconstitutional because specially made inapplicable to the District of Columbia. Thorn v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 223).

In enacting the Housing and Rent Acts of 1947 and 1948, 50 U. S. C. App. §§ 1894, 1901, Congress did not intend thereby to amend this chapter to authorize a 15 percent increase in rent where voluntarily agreed to between landlord and tenant by written lease. Thorn v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 223).

Insufficiency of Petition

Burden was on the petitioner to supply a full and complete statement of all the evidence introduced at the hearing. If such statement failed to supply several necessary elements which may or may not have been included in the evidence, the Administrator might assume that any statement of evidence not submitted contained substantial support for the findings of fact and recommended order of the examiner. Crisp v. Giles (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 204).

Where petition failed to state the total rents collected by the landlord before petition was filed or those authorized by the Rent Administrator's order, and was otherwise incomplete, decision of Administrator will be affirmed. Crisp v. Caldwell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 206).

Minimum Service

Where Rent Administrator had refused to grant relief on tenant's petition charging landlord with failing to maintain minimum service and tenant did not seek review of that determination, the same matter could not be reexamined in action against landlord for damages for failure to maintain minimum service. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

If a tenant feels that landlord fails to comply with minimum service standard, tenant may seek relief before Rent Administrator or he may bring a court action for double value of services refused or for $50, whichever is greater, but he cannot pursue his remedy before Administrator and, failing in that, retry the same issues in action for damages. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

Though Administrator committed an error in his findings, it was harmless where petitioner alleged that there had been a diminution in the minimum service standard on ground that owners had withdrawn a resident manager, and instead of paying rent on the premises to the manager the petitioner was thereafter compelled to pay it at a downtown office. Moreover no evidence was submitted as to how much the rental value of the apartment was reduced. Newberry v. H. L. Rest Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 342).

Nature of Proceeding

Landlord's petition filed with Rent Administrator for an increase in rentals to compensate for increased maintenance, operating costs, taxes, and capital improvements was not in the nature of an "in rem" action, but designation of the proceedings by an examiner of the Rent Administration as an in rem action, if error, was harmless. Stokes v. Realest Corp. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 532).

Operating Expenses or Costs

Legal fees paid to an attorney for the dissolution of a corporation formerly owning the building, and expenditures for refinancing the mortgage thereon, are not operating expenses. Sharpe v. Goldwyn (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 185).

Peculiar Circumstances

"Peculiar circumstances" means unusual or special circumstances which keep the landlord and tenant from bargaining freely and does not include improvements in streets, paving or planting of shrubbery, etc. Bailey v. Maple (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 333).

Peculiar circumstances are those which negate the existence of ordinary bargaining considerations or are abnormal circumstances not generally present in a normal rental bargain. Fairmac Corp. v. Roberts (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 684).

Peculiar circumstances are those which negate the existence of ordinary bargaining considerations or are abnormal circumstances not generally present in a normal rental bargain. Cox v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 659).

Prerequisites for Petition

Prerequisite to a § 4 proceeding for adjustment is a rent ceiling in effect and without such a ceiling, the petition for adjustment does not apply. Section 4 clearly covers improvements made after rent ceiling are in effect. Cox v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 659).

Question of Fact

An acceptance comprehends receipt of something and intention to retain it, and that intention is usually a question of fact. It is always a question of fact where, from other uncontroverted facts relative to intention, contradictory inferences may be drawn. Little v. French (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 534).

In an action for possession of the apartment for landlord's immediate and personal use, trial judge was correct when he refused to take from the jury the question as to whether the landlord had accepted rent payments for period after the expiration of the notice to quit. Little v. French (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 534).

RENTAL AND EXPENSE RATIO

Subsection (b) of this section providing that any landlord may petition Rent Administrator to adjust maximum-rent ceiling or minimum service standard applicable to his accommodations to "compensate" for substantial rise in taxes or other maintenances or operating costs or expenses or a substantial capital improvement or alteration, was not intended to make up for past losses, but to permit administrator to maintain in whole or in part same ratio between rentals and expenses as existed on freeze date, or to balance rentals with expenses. Stokes v. Realest Corp. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 532).

Administrator is not concerned with net income from housing accommodations but only with increase in rent sufficiently to compensate in whole or in part for increased operating expenses. Hall v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 656).

Where petitioner rested entire case on position that since 1947 operating expenses exceeded those of 1940 by more than 25 percent, the rental should be similarly increased, such a contention is erroneous since it is not the yardstick laid down by the Rent Act. To compensate the landlord properly, a comparison between a dollar increase in expenses and a similar dollar increase in rentals must be made. Crips v. Giles (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 204).

The Rent Administrator is not to adjust rent on a net income basis. Therefore, on a petition for the adjustment of rent on account of increased costs, the previous increases allowed on a different basis are neither relevant nor material. Rosen v. Powers (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 200).

Where Rent Administrator averaged expenses for the years 1941 to 1947 inclusive, deducted the 1941 expenses from such average and granted a sufficient rent increase to produce the difference, it is improper and orders based thereon must be reversed. (Proctor v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 665).

Rent Act makes no provision for a fair return to the landlord and we have ruled that net income is not a proper basis for adjustment of rents. Cox v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 659).

RENT FOR COMPARABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Where premises rented on critical date under Emergency Rent Act, was a frame building described as a "shack", and after that date a new owner installed water, plumbing and electricity and a bathroom with tub and overhanging shower, finished walls, installed electric refrigerator and electrically controlled kerosene furnace, rebuilt front entrance, planted flowers in yard and made repairs and completely furnished the house except for silver and linen, the completely equipped and furnished house was a new "housing accommodation" within Emergency Rent Act which was not rented on critical date so that ceiling rent was the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844).

Under subsection (a) of this section, authority of the administrator to adjust rents is not based merely upon peculiar circumstances, but is limited to adjustments only when the rent ceiling is due to peculiar circumstances affecting the complained of housing accommodations substantially higher or lower than the rent prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Thorn v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 223).

Where petitioner had received two increases, making rent ceiling not greatly disproportionate to ceiling on neighboring property, and fixed with tenant's consent, Administrator is not bound to grant additional increase. Bailey v. Maple (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 333).

Where an increase was granted for some apartments, including that of the petitioner, to compensate for increased expenditures made on the entire apartment house, such a result could be justified only if there were a finding that the 1950 rentals for some of the apartments were, due to peculiar circumstances, substantially lower than the rentals generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Since no such finding was made, the Administrator was without power to act. Newberry v. H. L. Rest Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 342).

Increases may be granted where a proper showing is made that costs and expenses have increased and where a finding is made, based upon substantial evidence, that the new schedules do not exceed those existing for comparable housing accommodations. Ostrow v. Horning, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 277).

Where only a portion of the units in a building are involved, there is no reason why they should not be compared with other units in the same building since units such as these are likely more comparable to other units in the same building than to units in another building in another location. Block v. Tenants (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 59).

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

Where a new landlord appears during the pendency of a proceeding, a substitution of parties may be made, even on appeal, because the fundamental issue is whether the expenses of the operation of the property, regardless of ownership, have increased. Dysert v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 655).

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

Records show that the Rent Administrator was fully justified in his finding that the landlord's records for recent years were not kept according to sound accounting principles. Where it is apparent that the accountant's statement was prepared from such records, such evidence is insufficient. Rosen v. Powers (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 200).

§ 45–1605. Prohibitions.

(a) It shall be unlawful, regardless of any agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, for any person to demand or receive any rent in excess of the maximum-rent ceiling, or refuse to supply any service required by the minimum-service standard, or otherwise to do or omit to do any act in violation of any provision of this chapter or of any regulation, order, or other requirements thereunder, or to offer or agree to do any of the foregoing. Nothing herein shall be construed to require the refund of any rent paid or payable for the use or occupancy of housing accommodations prior to the 30th day following the enactment of this chapter.

(b) No action or proceeding to recover possession of housing accommodations shall be maintainable by any landlord against any tenant, notwithstanding that the tenant has no lease or that his lease has expired, so long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, unless—

(1) The tenant is (a) violating an obligation of his tenancy (other than an obligation to pay rent higher than rent permitted under this Act or any regulation or order thereunder applicable to the housing accommodations involved or an obligation to surrender possession of such accommodations) or (b) is committing a nuisance or using the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose or for other than living or dwelling purposes, or

ciation has been acquired by persons who are or were tenants in occupancy of at least 65 per centum of the dwelling units in the structure or premises at the time said cooperative corporation or association either (1) acquired or leased said structure or premises, or (2) entered into a contract or option to acquire or lease said structure or premises, whichever date is earliest, and who as such stockholders or members are entitled to possession of their respective dwelling units in the structure or premises by virtue of proprietary leases or otherwise, and this provision shall apply whether such corporation or association acquired or leased such structure or premises or entered into a contract or option to do so prior to or after the effective date of this amendatory Act or unless as the holder of stock or membership acquired in the cooperative corporation or association prior to March 1, 1949, a stockholder or member was entitled to possession of a dwelling unit in the structure or premises by virtue of a proprietary lease or otherwise, or

(3) The landlord has in good faith contracted in writing to sell the property for immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling by the purchaser and that the contract of sale contains a representation by the purchaser that the property is being purchased by him for such immediate and personal use and occupancy, or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of substantially altering, remodeling, or demolishing the property and replacing it with new construction, the plans for which altered, remodeled, or new construction having been filed with and approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or

(5) The housing accommodations are nonhousekeeping, furnished, accommodations located within a single dwelling unit not used as a rooming or boarding house as defined by this chapter and the remaining portion of which dwelling unit is occupied by the lessor or his immediate family, or

(6) The landlord, being a recognized school or an accredited nonprofit university, has a bona fide need for the premises for educational, research, administrative, or dormitory use.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to remove, or attempt to remove, from any housing accommodations the tenant or occupant thereof or to refuse to renew lease or agreement for the use of such accommodations because such tenant or occupant has taken or purposes to take action authorized or required by this chapter or any regulation, order, or requirement thereunder. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 791, ch. 553, § 5; Sept. 26, 1942, 56 Stat. 759, ch. 564, § 1; Aug. 1 1947, 61 Stat. 721, ch. 442; April 19, 1949, 63 Stat. 49, ch. 73, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, added the proviso in subsection (b) (2).

The Act of Aug. 1, 1947, cited to text, added paragraph 6 to subsec. (b).

The act of Sept. 26, 1942, cited to text, amended section by striking period at end of par. (4) of subsec. (b) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "or", and by adding par. (5) to subsec. (b).

EXCEPTIONS

Section 7 of the act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, provided as follows:

"SEC. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the recontrol of any housing accommodations which have been heretofore decontrolled."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BAD FAITH

In action by landlord to recover possession of rooming house, petition of landlord filed with rent administrator for an increase of rent could not form basis of a charge of bad faith on part of landlord as attempting to evade this chapter. Downs v. Karsh (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 620).

The issue of good faith is usually one of fact. Ill will on the part of the landlord toward a tenant, while properly considered as bearing on the landlord's good faith, does not necessarily establish bad faith as a matter of law. McMahon v. Weiner (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 682).

CEILING PREVAILING AT HEARING DATE

Where order of Rent Administrator stated that maximum rent ceiling on premises was determined to be $135 per month effective January 26, 1943, the order did not have effect of determining the rent ceiling prevailing on the property at the hearing date. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

CHOICE OF OCCUPANCY

This chapter does not prevent an owner from occupying his own premises provided such occupancy is sought in good faith and not for purpose of evading this chapter. Colwell v. Stonebraker (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 866).

This chapter does not prevent an owner from occupying his own premises provided such occupancy is sought in good faith and not for purpose of evading this chapter. Shaffer v. Bowes (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 690).

Where defendant occupied room having lowest rental in house at time plaintiff leased entire premises for purpose of making her home there and renting other rooms in house, and plaintiff requested defendant to move to another room as plaintiff desired possession of that room because it was best room from which to operate premises, plaintiff was entitled to possession of such room notwithstanding this chapter. Shaffer v. Bowes (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 690).

Where owner has several properties available, and it is necessary for him to occupy one, and thereby remove a tenant by sufferance, choice of which property he shall occupy is for owner. Downs v. Karsh (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 620); McSweeney v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 469).

Under this chapter where owner has several properties available, choice of which one he shall occupy is for him, provided such occupancy is sought in good faith and not for purpose of defeating this chapter. Colwell v. Stonebraker (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 866); Shaffer v. Bowes (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 690); Staves v. Johnson (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 870).

CONSENT JUDGMENT

Where tenant, in landlord's action to recover premises, consented to entry of judgment for landlord after a hearing on the merits, judgment was valid and tenant's subsequent motions to quash writ of restitution and for an indefinite stay of execution were properly overruled. Morris v. Breaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 632).

A writ of restitution would not be quashed for failure of clerk of court to give tenant notice of entry of judgment, where trial court ordered judgment for landlords suing for possession of premises, pursuant to stipulation by which tenant receiving 60-day stay of execution consented to judgment for landlords. Conrad v. Medina (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 562).

A stipulation that tenant who was granted 60-day stay of execution would consent to judgment for landlords suing for possession of leased housing accommodations, would not be set aside for newly discovered evidence that landlords were aliens incapable of owning realty in District of Columbia, where one landlord had declared his intention of becoming a citizen, and the record intimated that at least one of the landlords was an attaché of a foreign legation. Conrad v. Medina (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 562).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

Subsection (b) of this section does not violate U. S. Const. Amend. 5. Walsh v. Cooper (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 883).

CONSTRUCTION

Court, in construing this section with reference to right of landlord to bring an action against tenant for possession, cannot imply congressional intent to require notice by landlord to tenant stating reasons for terminating tenancy or attach any condition to the right to bring suit which Congress did not authorize. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

The privileges reserved to owners by this chapter must be reasonably construed and enforced. Heindrich v. Dimas-Aruti (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 138).

Rent Act must be considered as a whole and its sections must be read in connection with each other. Dunning v. Randall Hagner Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 770).

Actual use of the premises as housing accommodations governs, even though a lease may employ terms other than housing accommodations and indicate a different use intention as in case of property zoned for commercial use. Lease provisions, like the ones here involved, are subservient to the provisions of the Act. White v. Allen (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 252, see also 71 A. 2d 613).

CREATION OF NEW TENANCY

Where landlord obtained a judgment which established her right to possession under § 45–1601 et seq. and tenant was granted a stay by the court conditioned upon payment of rent, and thereafter tenant bargained with landlord for additional time upon condition that rent would be paid and that it would be the last extension, tenant could not thereafter assert that landlord had created a new tenancy and had abandoned her right to enforce judgment of possession by accepting rent for the extended period. Trammell v. Estep (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 501).

DEFENSE HOUSING PROJECT

This chapter did not apply to defense housing project which had been erected by Navy Department in Washington so as to require United States bringing dispossess proceedings to allege grounds of possession required by subsection (b) of this section, since this chapter does not specifically mention the United States as a landlord, and since statutes which in general terms divest pre-existing rights or privileges may not be applied to the sovereign without express words to that effect. Wittek v. U. S. (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 747 reversed 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 377, certiorari granted 69 S. Ct. 737, 336 U. S. 93, 93 L. E. 1092, reversed and remanded 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406).

ESTOPPEL

In landlord's action to recover possession, where judgment for possession was entered on December 2, 1941, the fact that tenant had received benefit of stipulation staying execution of judgment to January 31, 1942, did not "estop" tenant from claiming benefit of this chapter which was approved on December 2, 1941, since it was intervention of this chapter which changed the relationship of the parties. Myers v. H. L. Rust Co., 1943 (134 F. 2d 417, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 218).

EVIDENCE

In possessory action, evidence that landlord on leasing city dwelling for one year informed tenant that landlord wished dwelling back at expiration of year on July 31, 1942, and that landlord's period of occupancy of farm was to expire at end of 1942, sustained determination that landlord sought possession in "good faith" for personal use within this chapter. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

Evidence that landlord, when leasing property for precisely one year, made it plain that at expiration of lease he wished premises back, reiterated it almost two months before expiration of lease, and sued for possession two months after expiration of lease, sustained determination that landlord required property for "immediate" use, within this chapter. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

In landlord's action to recover possession of premises for personal use as dwelling, that rent of selected premises is low when contrasted with that of similar housing units, availability of other quarters, objection to or even ill will toward particular tenant, are matters properly admitted in evidence as bearing on "good faith" of landlord, but no one, or all in combination, necessarily constitute "bad faith". Colwell v. Stonebraker (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 866).

In landlord's action to recover possession of apartment for her personal use, evidence that gasoline rationing made it impossible for landlord's husband to continue to commute from their home to his office in the apartment building supported finding of "good faith" of landlord in seeking possession of apartment. Colwell v. Stonebraker (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 866).

Where tenant submitted question of landlord's failure to maintain minimum service to Rent Administrator, it was tenant's duty to present all evidence bearing on the question and fact that certain matters existing at date of hearing before Administrator were not mentioned in petition before Administrator would not authorize action for damages. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

Where landlord sues for possession of dwelling house, claiming that she required property for immediate purpose of making substantial alterations and remodeling, evidence as to whether landlord could obtain from War Production Board necessary priority orders for the work, was sufficient for jury and would not justify ruling as matter of law that there was not good faith in landlord's claim or that her need for property was not immediate within this section. Klein v. Hilton (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 77).

Under subsection (b) (1) of this section landlord seeking possession of dwelling house, claiming that she required property for immediate purpose of making substantial alterations and remodeling, was not required to prove that she could obtain from the War Production Board the necessary priority orders for the work. Klein v. Hilton (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 77).

In action by landlord to recover possession of apartment for his immediate and personal use, where landlord's good faith is an issue, evidence of the existence of other available apartments in the building is admissible. Abbott v. Fant (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 618).

Evidence sustained plaintiff's claim that possession of dwelling was sought for her own immediate personal use as a residence under exception to this section. Miller v. Prophet (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 450).

Evidence sustained finding that religious corporation, which sought to recover house from tenant for use for students to whom corporation was obligated to provide free food and shelter, sought recovery of premises in good faith as required by this section. Hoffman v. Apostolic Works (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 848).

In action by purchaser of leased rooming house for possession thereof for her own residence purposes after expiration of one-year lease under which tenant was holding over as tenant by sufferance, testimony concerning price paid for rooming house business by tenant and amount thereof she had recouped was properly excluded as having no bearing on question of plaintiff's good faith, legality of notice of termination of tenancy, or any other question. Arsenault v. Angle (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 709).

Evidence of ill will toward a tenant is properly received in evidence in determining whether landlord seeks possession in good faith, within meaning of subsection (b) (2) of this section, or whether his dominant purpose is to rid himself of a tenant he considers undesirable. Staves v. Johnson (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 870).

Evidence tending to show animosity toward tenant and her children and a desire that they leave the property was sufficient to sustain trial court's finding of lack of good faith of landlord in attempting to recover possession of leased premises allegedly for his personal use, so as to justify denial of possession to landlord under subsection (b) (2) of this section. Staves v. Johnson (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 870).

Under subsection (b) (2) of this section, good faith is ordinarily a question of fact, and finding of good faith or lack thereof when supported by substantial evidence will not be disturbed. Black v. Tamamian (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 547).

Where prior judgment had determined that landlord did not seek possession of housing accommodation in good faith under subsection (b) (2) of this section, evidence of new facts arising since prior suit concerning mainly health of landlord's wife and increasingly injurious effect on her health of lack of adequate and comfortable sleeping quarters sustained finding that possession in subsequent action was sought by landlord in good faith for his immediate personal use and occupancy. D. C. Code 1940, § 45–1605 (b) (2). Id.

Evidence authorized finding that landlord required premises for his own use and occupancy within provisions of this section and was entitled to possession. Craig v. Heil (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 871).

The fact that a house is not available for occupancy as a family residence until extensive alterations and repairs are completed is a matter of evidence to be considered, along with other evidence, in determining the good faith of an owner seeking possession. Brauer v. O'Daniel (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 89).

In action by owner against occupant to recover possession of a four-story, 14-unit, walkup apartment building, which owner had allegedly purchased for use as a residence, evidence that, though some apartments in building had been vacant for several months, owner had made no attempt to rent them out, was an element properly considered by the jury as indicative of owner's state of mind, in determining the question of his good faith. Brauer v. O'Daniel (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 89).

In landlord's suit to recover possession of house, complaint describing defendant as a tenant at sufferance and evidence showing that he was a tenant by the month did not disclose a fatal variance. Gordon v. Tino (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 593).

In landlord's action to recover rent on basis of ceiling fixed by Rent Administrator, trial court should have admitted evidence of lease which provided for lower monthly rental and which gave lessee option to extend lease upon same terms for two year period, and copy of a letter exercising renewal option, and determined whether alleged original lease was valid and whether option to extend had been validly exercised. Hildebrand v. Nee (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 640).

In action for possession of premises for personal use of landlord court properly refused to permit tenant to show ownership of premises in some one else where it was alleged and undisputed that the plaintiff was landlord and that the defendant was plaintiff's tenant. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 697).

In action by landlord to recover possession of premises for personal use evidence as to whether the landlord would rent to tenant the house next door which landlord owned and which was vacant was properly excluded as irrelevant. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 697).

Evidence was insufficient to show that former owners and their son to whom dwelling house was conveyed were engaged in conspiracy to evict tenant which would prevent son who was purportedly engaged to be married from taking possession for his own occupancy. Resnick v. Hammond (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 495).

Evidence sustained finding that owner of apartment in co-operative building sought possession of apartment in good faith for personal use. Hicks v. Bigelow (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 55 A. 2d 924).

Evidence entitled purchaser of the perpetual use and equity contract to the rights of a landlord within the Rent Act when the substantial nature of these rights, rather than the form of the transaction, is considered. Abbott v. Bralove (D. C. D. C. 1948, 81 F. Supp. 532; affirmed 176 F. 2d 64, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

Where landlord sued for possession, the situation disclosed a genuine issue as to whether landlord sought the premises in good faith for immediate personal use and was a material factual issue. The court must disregard the tenants' affidavits which were based on information and belief and did not conform to the rules. Dewey v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 766, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137).

The trial court, on timely motion of the tenant, should have taken evidence on the question of whether the tenant voluntarily surrendered possession of the premises and if it held that the surrender was not voluntary but resulted from the previous judgment or from actions of the landlord based thereon, the court should have ordered restitution of their premises to the tenant. Quick v. Paregol (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 211).

Even though the evidence complained of may not have been admissible on other grounds, it was clearly admissible in support of the counterclaim on the question as to whether there had been an evasion of the Rent Act. White v. Allen (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 252, see also 71 A. 2d 613).

Examination of Witnesses

Where landlord sought possession of a dwelling house in order to demolish a building and erect an apartment building thereon, denying cross-examination of plaintiff as to whether she had materials available and subcontracts arranged for the construction of the proposed apartment building in order to shed light on the issue of plaintiff's good faith, was error. Tatum v. Townsend (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 478).

Forcible Entry and Detainer

Subsection (b) of this section, prohibiting suit for possession by landlord except for specified reasons, is inapplicable to forcible entry and detainer action. Brooks v. Trigg (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 51 A. 2d 302).

Furnished Premises

Where tenant rents unfurnished premises at ceiling price and rents furniture from a third person in a bona fide arrangement which is not designed to evade section 45–1601 et seq., landlord would have a valid defense against a claim of violation of the rent act. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

Landlord whose rent ceiling is fixed on basis of unfurnished rental cannot evade regulation against increase in rent without prior approval of Rent Administrator by renting property furnished. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

Good Faith

The fact that owners suing to recover possession of residential property under this chapter desired their married daughter and her two children to live with them, and that if they found rooms available after they took possession they would rent such rooms to others, did not impugn their "good faith." Klein v. Fields (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 398).

Under this chapter, in determining question of landlord's "good faith" in seeking possession of premises, state of mind, intent, and purposes of landlord as reflected in the evidence may be considered. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

In examining question of good faith of landlord in seeking possession of premises under this chapter all circumstances should be considered which will shed light on whether a proper case for possession has been established. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

Evidence supported finding that owners of dwelling house were acting in good faith in filing proceeding under this chapter to gain possession of dwelling for their immediate personal use and as a dwelling. De Bobula v. Coppedge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 255).

Where substantial evidence supported finding that owners of leased premises, suing for possession, were seeking to occupy their own property as a dwelling, owners' good faith as affecting their rights under this section was an issue of fact for trial judge. Heindrich v. Dimas-Aruti (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 138).

Purchaser of residential property having established that he sought possession in good faith for his personal occupancy as a dwelling, was entitled to recover possession from vendor's tenant who had received the notice of termination of lease provided for therein. Mason v. Curro (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 164).

"Good faith", within subsection (b) (2) of this section, means generally that the landlord honestly intends to actually occupy the premises, that occupancy for his own use is primary motive, and that he is not guided by an ulterior motive to evade or defeat the purposes of this chapter. Staves v. Johnson (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 870).

"Good faith", within subsection (b) (2) of this section, does not exist if the landlord's dominant purpose is to evict the tenant. McSweeney v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 469).

In landlord's suit to recover possession of house, whether landlords in good faith desired to obtain possession of house for personal use as a dwelling was a question for jury. Gordon v. Tino (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 593).

This chapter does not undertake to regulate profits on the sale of property, and fact that co-operative group had paid a large profit on the purchase of building had no bearing on personal good faith of the purchaser of a co-operative apartment in seeking to evict a tenant in possession in order to obtain apartment for personal occupancy. Hicks v. Bigelow (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 55 A. 2d 924).

The fact that cooperative apartment plans may have the incidental effect of ousting present tenants by sufferance is not evidence of bad faith on the part of the purchasers of individual apartments, nor can such effect be, per se, construed as evidence of an intentional evasion of the Rent Act. Abbot v. Bralove (D. C. D. C. 1948, 81 F. Supp. 532, aff'd 176 F. 2d 64, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

In a suit for possession for immediate and personal use, the crucial issue whether landlord seeks possession in good faith is an extraordinary issue of fact since it involves the state of mind or motives rather than the ascertainment of a fact in the ordinary sense. Dewey v. Clark (C. A., D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 766; 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137).

In a suit for possession, the presence of the question of good faith as a crucial issue should cause the court to hesitate more than ordinarily before concluding that it is in a position to deny a trial. Dewey v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 766, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137).

Immediate and Personal Use

The word "immediate", as used in this chapter permitting landlord to obtain possession in good faith for his immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling need not always mean desperate. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

Where landlord, suing hold-over tenant at sufferance for possession of leased property used as rooming house, did not say that he required property for his immediate personal use and occupancy as dwelling, but said that he proposed to continue operation thereof as rooming house, trial judge properly refused to oust tenant. Lingo v. Wolfe (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 270).

An intent to use part of residence as a dental office or to rent parts to roomers does not negative honest purpose to use and occupy premises as owner's dwelling as ground for dispossessing tenants, notwithstanding this section. Heindrich v. Dimas-Aruti (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 138).

In suit by owner against occupant to recover possession of a four-story, 14-unit, walkup apartment building which owner allegedly purchased for use as a residence, evidence justified finding that need of owner was bona fide and immediate, within meaning of subsection (b) (2, 4) of this section. Brauer v. O'Daniel (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 89).

Prohibitions of this section provide protection for tenants by preventing their arbitrary ouster during the critical housing shortage, but this section containing the prohibitions does not ignore the rights of an owner who brings himself within provisions of this section and shows a real, immediate need for his own property. Brauer v. O'Daniel (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 89).

A landlord could not maintain a suit to recover possession of a dwelling house on the ground that she desired possession for her immediate and personal use, where she did not become owner of the premises and did not become landlord until nearly a month after filing of the original complaint, notwithstanding she was equitable owner when the original complaint was filed. Dewey v. Clark (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 475, 67 A. 2d 291, reversed on other grounds, 180 F. 2d 766, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137); Thompson v. Clark (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 477, 67 A. 2d 291, reversed on other grounds, 180 F. 2d 766, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137).

Where landlord, suffering from an incurable disease, sued for possession of another apartment in the same building for the use of her personal nurse whom she needed close by to minister to her in her illness, she is entitled to possession even though apartment is not to be actually occupied by landlord. Manogue v. Heilbroner (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 876).

Improvements

Where tenant of a row house, shortly before expiration of five-year lease, made improvements on the property at a cost of more than $200, but the only improvement landlord was cognizant of was the painting of front porch by tenant, such repairs were not sufficient to have bound tenant for a renewal term of five years, and hence did not constitute notice to landlord that tenant was exercising option contained in lease to renew for a five-year period, and landlord was at liberty, after expiration of lease, to terminate the tenancy and recover possession for landlord's personal occupancy. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Inapplicable to United States

The District of Columbia Emergency Rent Act does not apply to government-owned, defense housing in the District. United States v. Wittek, 1949 (69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1906).

Lease Violations

A tenant may not create new tenancy by removing from leased property and placing it completely in charge of sublessees in violation of terms of lease, as this chapter protects only actual tenants, not mere middlemen. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 707).

Where tenants brought their dogs into building after effective date of this chapter, right to keep dogs on leased premises was neither a "privilege" nor a "facility" within this chapter, and therefore this chapter did not preclude landlord from exercising right under lease to revoke permission to keep dogs. Mee v. Marlyn Apartment Co. (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 864).

Under this section, administrator may determine rent ceiling only on property which was not rented on maximum rent date of January 1, 1941, or within the preceding year. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

A tenant's removal from leased property and subletting thereof in its entirety was breach of lease prohibiting subletting in whole or part, though lease had expired and tenant was holding over, so that landlord was entitled to recover possession of property. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 707).

Where lease expressly limited use of premises to use as a dwelling only, its use as a dwelling and for dressmaking without objection from landlords over a long period prior to enactment of this chapter, which was limited in its scope to property rented for living or dwelling purposes, neither took the premises out of the scope of this chapter, nor constituted a violation of her tenancy. Carow v. Bishop (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 598).

A tenant who permitted some of her immediate family to live in leased premises and who had kept roomers, but who never removed furniture from leased premises and who was there daily and had access to all rooms, although she had purchased another house, did not thereby violate rental agreement prohibiting subletting. Simmons v. Weinsoff (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 58 A. 2d 497).

LEASE, VALIDITY OF

Rent Act is primarily concerned with protecting a tenant's right to possession so long as he pays rent and does not violate obligations of tenancy, and in maintaining rent ceilings and required standards. The Act provides means for enforcing these purposes, but to declare a lease made in violation of a general order void in its entirety and to hold that landlord has no rights under it would add a new penalty not provided by the Act. Amos v. Cummings (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 87).

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

Complaint alleging that after rent had been reduced to comply with this chapter, four suits had been instituted against plaintiff by or on behalf of defendants to recover possession of house and that all four suits were brought maliciously without just cause and in bad faith, stated a claim on which relief might be granted. Soffos v. Eaton (App. D. C. 1945, 152 F. 2d 682).

A complaint which alleged that tenant left leased premises as result of stipulation signed by himself and his attorney and in compliance with resulting judgment in landlord's action under this chapter to secure possession, and which further alleged that landlord's statement in regard to his intention to immediately occupy designated premises as a dwelling were fraudulent, could not be upheld as stating a cause of action for "malicious prosecution," where it appeared that the action upon which suit was based terminated in landlord's favor. Simpkins v. Brooks (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 549).

MANDATORY INJUNCTION

In suit for mandatory injunction requiring defendants to restore possession of an apartment, record supported findings that plaintiffs had breached obligation under verbal understanding pursuant to which they took possession, that defendants had given written notice to quit, and that defendants sought in good faith to recover possession of property for immediate and personal use as a dwelling. Leonardo v. Leonardo, 1944 (145 F. 2d 849, 79 U. S. App. D. C. 258).

NOTICE TO QUIT

Notice to quit, served on tenant at sufferance who had sublet premises for definite period with landlord's consent on ground that tenant was violating obligation of tenancy within this section three weeks before any such alleged violation occurred, was premature, and had no anticipatory effect to reach future violations. Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869).

In landlord's action to recover premises for his own use, defenses that court had no jurisdiction because landlord had served no notice to quit and that tenant's waiver of such notice had been conditioned upon ability to find new quarters which she failed to do, could have been raised at trial, and when advanced respectively on motion to quash writ of restitution and on motion for indefinite stay of execution, were too late. Morris v. Breaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 632).

Where tenant held over after expiration of lease and landlord desired premises for personal occupancy, 30-day notice to vacate was sufficient to terminate the tenancy notwithstanding that notice did not specify any one of the several grounds which, under this section, are made conditions to the right of a landlord to regain possession of residential property. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

This section does not require that tenant be given a notice stating grounds upon which landlord claims right to possession before an action for possession is instituted. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

Where one-year lease unambiguously gave lessor or his assignee right to terminate lease if property was sold during term of lease by giving lessee 90 days' notice, refusal to admit testimony to explain terms of lease, in action by purchaser of premises for possession thereof, to show that lessee was entitled to 90 days' notice to vacate where he held over after expiration of one year's tenancy and continued to pay rent, was not error. Arsenault v. Angle (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 709).

A roomer if he had failed to pay rent was not entitled to protection of this chapter and could be evicted without notice. Tamamian v. Gabbard (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 513).

Notice to quit rented premises was not ineffective because served upon only one tenant the other being in a foreign country, where defendants not only were cotenants of the property but also partners in a rooming house venture conducted thereon. Tatum v. Townsend (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 478).

Notice to quit rented premises was not ineffective because served upon only one tenant the other tenant being in a foreign country, where the evidence indicated that the notice reached the wife of the other tenant, who was also his attorney in fact. Tatum v. Townsend (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 478).

NUISANCE

Where the complaint charged specifically that defendant was creating a nuisance by permitting a fire hazard in that she permitted the gas range to remain lighted during absence from premises, it was improper to consider in proof of the nuisance charge, the several incidents of burning of food which occurred while she was present in the apartment. Reese v. Wells (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 899).

ORDINARY WEAR AND TEAR

Where it was determined that the premises were housing accommodations under the Rent Act and there was no covenant regarding repairs, landlord could not recover for repairs due to ordinary wear and tear. Friedman v. Sherman (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 57).

PERSONS ENTITLED TO SUE

Husband was entitled to maintain in his own name a suit against tenant for possession of an apartment in a building which he and his wife had purchased as tenants by the entirety. Sandler v. Wertlieb (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 222).

PLEADING

In action by landlords, who were husband and wife, to obtain possession of housing accommodations from tenants, where the landlords held the property as tenants by the entirety, verification of complaint by husband only was sufficient. Wynn v. Washington (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 275).

A complaint by landlord for possession of apartment alleging that tenants had refused to allow landlord to rent part of apartment to a suitable person in accordance with their agreement and with order of Rent Control Administrator stated a cause of action. Block v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 646); Thompson v. Clark (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 477, 67 A. 2d 291, reversed on other grounds, 180 F. 2d 766, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 137). Dewey v. Clark (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 475).

Informality of pleadings is the rule in landlord and tenant cases, but the court has never said that a suing landlord may allege one thing, and, over objection, prove another. Reese v. Wells (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 899).

POSSESSION, RIGHT TO

Where owner of rooming house occupied by tenant was faced with possibility of having to lease son-in-law's home because of son-in-law's inability on Army pay to continue her support, it was not necessary that owner wait until actually forced to leave before seeking to obtain possession of rooming house as a means of providing shelter and a living. Downs v. Karsh (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 620).

This chapter does not deprive an owner of right to occupy his own property in possession of tenants if occupancy is sought in good faith and is not for purpose of evading or defeating purposes of this chapter. Downs v. Karsh (D. C. 1943, 33 A. 2d 620).

Where tenant at sufferance twice sublet apartment for definite terms with express consent of landlord and landlord after it had knowledge that persons in addition to second sublessee were occupying apartment expressly consented that second sublease continue to its expiration date, and accepted rent throughout remaining period of sublease landlord had no right to demand possession because of anything which had occurred prior to expiration date of second sublease on ground that tenant was violating "obligation of tenancy" within this section. Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869).

In testing landlord's right to possession under this chapter permitting landlord to obtain possession for immediate and personal use, the spirit as well as the letter of the law should be considered and flimsy showing should not form basis for ousting tenant. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

Where landlord sought possession of premises for his immediate and personal use as dwelling within this chapter, the fact that surrender of premises to landlord would result in ousting eight roomers who had rented from tenant and were not parties to action did not deprive landlord of right to possession. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

The fact that landlord worked in Alexandria, Va., did not deprive him of protective purview of this chapter which permits landlord in good faith to recover possession of property for his immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling. Gould v. Butler (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 867).

Purchaser of residential property in order to obtain possession thereof as against vendor's tenant was required to establish his claim under exception in this section prohibiting maintenance of action for possession of housing accommodations against a tenant. Mason v. Curro (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 164).

Where there was no evidence to contradict landlord's good faith or her need of dwelling house for her own personal use and occupancy as a dwelling, she was entitled to possession under this section for her immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling. Olessoff v. Osbourn (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 514).

The fact that landlord's sister and brother-in-law who proposed to move in with landlord had lived in their present quarters for 20 years, did not preclude landlord from recovering possession of house under this section for her immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling. Olessoff v. Osbourn (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 514).

Where it is established that the sale of residence is made in good faith and the purchase is made for immediate personal use and occupancy as a dwelling, the right to recover possession against tenant under subsection (b) (3) of this section is not affected by fact that the purchaser contracted not directly with the legal owner but with one who contracted to buy from the legal owner, nor by fact that the sale was for a profit. Knowles v. Mosher (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 755).

Subsection (b) of this section, although prohibiting dispossession of tenant continuing to pay rent, does not preclude dispossession of tenant who fails to pay rent. Tamamian v. Gabbard (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 513).

Where in suit for possession of property purchased at foreclosure sale, defendant had previously owned the property but had defaulted on the second trust note, the defense that when the deed of trust was foreclosed, defendants automatically became tenants at will under § 45–822 and could not be ousted by reason of § 45–1605 is not applicable since the property does not constitute housing accommodations within the meaning of § 45–1611. Suratt v. Real Estate Exchange, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 587).

Contracts, where possible, are to be given their ordinary meaning. Tenants who purchased stock in a hotel operated on a semi-cooperative basis gained no estate in the land. Beck v. Bechtel Hotel (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 36).

Landlord's claim that she could not be required to restore the premises to tenant because she had spent money in improvements and had installed other tenants in the accommodations is without merit, since the improvements were made and premises rented to other tenants during the pendency of an appeal from a judgment in her favor. Quick v. Paregol (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 211).

Possession on the grounds of substantially altering or remodeling the property may be gained by the landlord only after the plans for remodeling have been approved and after suit has been filed in the court. Quick v. Paregol (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 211).

Landlord's contention that restitution will not be ordered after the tenant's term has expired is without merit, since it ignores the effect of the Act which gives tenants the right to continued occupancy of the housing accommodations so long as rent control continues and so long as they pay their rent and comply with the terms of the tenancy. Quick v. Paregol (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 211).

Presumptions

Where lack of good faith of landlord who sought to recover possession of housing accommodations for personal occupancy as a dwelling under subsection (b) (2) of this section had been established in prior suit, presumption was, in absence of evidence to contrary, that such lack continued to exist, especially in view of comparatively short time elapsing between the two suits, and landlord was required to produce evidence of new facts and changed situation to overcome previously established fact of absence of good faith and presumption of its continuance. Black v. Tamamian (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 547).

Prior Judgment as Bar

Action by owners for possession of residential property under this chapter, on ground that they desired possession for their immediate use as a dwelling, was not barred by prior judgment for defendant in action between same parties, where transcript showed that, when prior judgment was introduced in evidence, owners' attorney stated without contradiction that findings for defendant were based on fact that 30-day notice to quit required by § 45–904 to be served on tenant to terminate tenancy had been invalidated by acceptance of rent by owners' rental agent for a period extending beyond expiration date of notice, and present action was brought after expiration date of the second notice. Klein v. Fields (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 398).

Landlord was not entitled to possession because of allegedly unlawful use of leased premises by tenant where law was so modified while action for possession was pending that use complained of was no longer unlawful and such use had not injured physical property, estate or purse of landlord and was the very use contemplated under original letting. Cosby v. Shoemaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1943, 34 A. 2d 27).

Premises used for dwelling purposes were subject to this chapter and landlord could not recover possession except by establishing violation by tenant of provisions of this chapter. Cosby v. Shoemaker (D. C. Mun. App. 1943, 34 A. 2d 27).

If complaint which alleged that tenant left leased premises as result of stipulation signed by himself and his attorney and in compliance with resulting judgment in landlord's action under this chapter to secure possession, and which further alleged that landlord's statement in the action in regard to his intention to immediately use designated premises as a dwelling were false, were construed as an attack on the judgment in the landlord and tenant proceeding, the complaint was a collateral attack on the judgment and did not state a cause of action. Simpkins v. Brooks (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 549); Resnick v. Hammond (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 495).

Proceeding To Recover Possession

In landlord's action to recover possession of apartment, where judgment for possession was entered December 2, 1941, with stay of execution until January 31, 1942, pursuant to stipulation of parties, and tenant paid rent for December and January, landlord's direction to clerk in March, 1942, to issue writ of restitution for possession constituted the "maintaining of a proceeding" against a "tenant in possession" of "housing accommodations" within this chapter, and therefore writ of restitution was improperly granted in absence of compliance with this chapter. Myers v. H. L. Rust Co., 1943 (134 F. 2d 417, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 218).

Under this section, the procedure in landlord's action against tenant for possession of premises, except for restrictions as to grounds upon which landlord may claim right of possession, remains the same as it was previously. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

The effect of this section restricting landlord's right to recover possession of housing accommodations is to create a noncontractual statutory right of possession in tenant, continuing at his option beyond expiration of his lease or rental agreement by depriving landlord, unless he claims under one of the permitted grounds, of right to maintain an action for possession. Warthen v. Lamas (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 759).

In proceeding in landlord and tenant court, where informality of pleading has always been the rule, to recover demised premises on the sole ground that tenancy had been terminated by notice failure of complaint to show that premises were exempt from this chapter did not require dismissal. U. S. v. Wittek (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 805, reversed and remanded 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406, remanded 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 337).

Where complaint alleged termination of tenancy by notice and sought recovery of demised premises, even if premises were housing accommodations governed by this chapter, it was still possible that plaintiff could have stated a cause of action by alleging that tenants had violated a condition of their tenancy, and proper procedure was to grant motion to dismiss with leave to amend. U. S. v. Wittek (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 805, reversed and remanded 69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1406, remanded 171 F. 2d 8, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 337).

Rent Act does not require that the person suing for possession be the owner of a fee simple title. It is sufficient if the plantiff be the landlord. Glennon v. Butler (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 519).

A landlord may recover possession of his property when occupancy is sought in good faith and not to evade or defeat the purpose of the Act, even though it is shown that he will not require the whole thereof as a personal dwelling but only when there has been a full disclosure of this information at the trial. Frankfurt v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 197).

Where housing development was originally built by the United States and later sold to a veteran's co-operative housing association, and a member thereof sued for possession of an individual apartment for personal use, decision does not turn on whether appellant is a landlord, but rather upon the legal effect of a series of contracts and transfers of title affecting the project as a whole and the individual apartment involved. Appellant's argument that the agreement to extend appellee's lease until the end of rent control was made without consideration to him and therefor void is unfounded because, if consideration exists, it is not necessary that it run to the person seeking to enforce the agreement. Owens v. Liff (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A 2d 921).

Purpose

The purpose of subsection (b) of this section was to protect tenant's possession and not to give to tenant means of effective subletting which tenant did not previously have. Keroes v. Westchester Apartment (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

Subsection (b) (3) of this section permitting landlord to recover possession of premises when he has in good faith contracted to sell the property for immediate personal use is to protect tenant from being evicted under a simulated sale. Knowles v. Mosher (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 755).

Questions of Fact

When there is substantial evidence challenging good faith of the landlord, in seeking to recover possession of premises allegedly for his own personal use, a question of fact is raised for determination by the jury or trial court. Staves v. Johnson (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 870).

Where there is substantial evidence challenging the good faith of a landlord seeking to recover possession of a house under this section, a question of fact is raised for determination by the jury or trial court. Olessoff v. Osbourn. (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 514).

The question whether the housing accommodations involved are new ones not rented on the critical date, or are old ones with substantial capital improvements or alterations, is a question of fact. Such a question must, unless evidence is compelling one way or the other, be decided by the jury. Martin v. Schlein (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 614).

Remodeling

In suit by landlord to obtain possession of dwelling house from tenant for immediate purpose of making substantial alterations and remodeling, landlord was not required to elect whether work of remodeling would be performed by National Housing Agency or by private builder, with both of whom she had negotiated. Klein v. Hilton (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 77).

Landlords, who sought to recover possession of premises under subsection (b) (4) of this section for the immediate purpose of substantially altering and remodeling the property and replacing it with new construction, and who offered evidence that plans therefor had been approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia were not required to show, additionally, approval of the work by the Civilian Production Administration. Carow v. Bishop (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 598).

Where landlords seek to recover possession of premises under subsection (a) (4) of this section for immediate purpose of altering and remodeling the property and replacing it with new construction, recovery of possession might be defeated upon showing of complete inability of landlords to remodel because of Civilian Production Administration regulations, but failure to obtain approval of the work by the Administration would not bar the action although the regulations could properly be considered by the court on the question of good faith. Carow v. Bishop (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 598).

Landlord's suit to recover possession of a dwelling house for the purpose of demolishing it and erecting apartment building on the lot was premature, where construction plans had not been approved by the District of Columbia Commissioners as required by subsection (b) (4) of this section at the time the suit was filed and notice of such approval was not given until almost two months later on the day before the trial of the case. Tatum v. Townsend (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 478).

Res Judicata

Judgment of landlord and tenant court in favor of tenant in action by landlord to recover premises for his own use was res judicata in subsequent action in municipal court for same relief. Scholl v. Tibbs (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 352).

The fact that landlord, in first action to secure housing accommodations for his own use, described defendant as a tenant at will and in second action described defendant as a monthly tenant, did not avoid application of res judicata doctrine, particularly where briefs filed in first action also described defendant as a monthly tenant. Scholl v. Tibbs (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 352).

Where judgment in first action followed a judicial determination of basic controversy as to whether landlord was entitled to maintain a possessory action against tenant, although no formal trial was held, such judgment was conclusive to same extent as if rendered after a formal trial. Scholl v. Tibbs (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 352).

An adjudication that landlord in former suit did not seek possession of housing accommodations in good faith for personal occupancy as a dwelling under subsection (b) (2) of this section was not res judicata of question of good faith in landlord's subsequent action under same subsection. Black v. Tamamian (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 547).

Where tenant's petition for rent refund was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction of relief sought, and Administrator had undertaken to make findings on some of the questions in controversy, such findings are without effect and are not res judicafa in any other proceedings involving the question. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A 2d 642).

Residential Versus Commercial Property

Whether property is commercial and therefore free from control, or whether it is partly residential, is ordinarily a question of fact. In determining such an issue, due weight must be given to such factors as whether the parties have treated the two portions as separate and distinct or as a unit, prior leases, acts of the parties, the time during which the landlord-tenant relationship has existed and the nature and services of the units involved. Such questions should be submitted to the jury. Bellmore v. Baum (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 588).

Showing Premises

Landlord's right under this section to show rented premises for sale must be exercised reasonably and in good faith and cannot be used to harass tenant or unreasonably interfere with his enjoyment of possession. National Metropolitan Bank of Washington v. Judge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 446).

Refusal by tenant, whose possession depended wholly on this chapter, to permit landlord to show property for sale at reasonable times, was a violation of an obligation of tenancy which, if persisted in, would authorize order for surrender of premises. National Metropolitan Bank of Washington v. Judge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 446).

Landlord's right to sell, reserved to landlord under subsection (b) (1, 3) of this section, includes right to show premises at reasonable times. National Metropolitan Bank of Washington v. Judge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 446).

Stage of Proceedings

Where trial court misinterpreted decision on a former appeal when case was remanded, and reinstated its earlier ruling, such action constituted error. It follows that while the case was pending before the Administrator on such remand and until a new ceiling was fixed, the monthly rental continued to apply. Acuino v. Winthrop (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 602).

Stay of Proceedings

Where judgment of another court first obtaining jurisdiction enjoined owner from conveying property to colored persons and subsequently the judgment was stayed pending an appeal, whereupon the property was bought by colored persons who instituted proceeding against tenant to obtain possession for their own personal use, dismissal of plaintiff's proceedings was error, but the proceedings should have been stayed until disposition of appeal in first case. Williams v. Pearson (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 663).

The Municipal Court for District of Columbia did not have the power, in order to accomplish ends of justice, to temporarily stay execution of judgment in favor of landlords suing tenant for possession of leased housing accommodations. Conrad v. Medina (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 562).

Subletting

Where § 45–1611 provides that the term "tenant" includes a person entitled to the use of any housing accommodations, but the definitions of said § 45–1611 are expressly limited to "as used in this Act [chapter]", such definitions are controlling for the purposes of this chapter but do not purport to make that a subletting, which was not a subletting prior to this chapter, and hence the taking of roomers does not violate a covenant against "subletting" without landlord's written consent. Beall v. Everson (D. C. Mun. App. 1943, 34 A. 2d 41).

Where tenant under verbal hiring by the month removed herself from rented apartment and sublet it to another with landlord's consent for a designated period, after expiration of such period, landlord was entitled to possession of the apartment on ground that tenant was violating "obligation of tenancy" within subsection (b) (1) (a) of this section. Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

Tenant by Sufferance

Prior to enactment of this chapter, landlord could have evicted tenant by sufferance at any time and without any reason merely by serving on tenant a 30-day notice to quit followed with possessory action, under § 45–904, but this chapter restricts landlord's rights and protects tenant from eviction except on one of grounds specified. Westchester Apartments v. Keroes (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 869).

Tenancy under verbal hiring by the month, though deemed a tenancy at sufferance by § 45–820 is not an estate at sufferance within strict meaning of the common-law term, but is more in the nature of an estate, from month to month, or an estate at will, and until this section became effective was determinable at any time. Keroes v. Westchester Apartments (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 36 A. 2d 263).

A tenant continuing in possession and paying rent under an expired lease becomes a tenant at sufferance and such tenancy is impliedly subject to the provisions of the expired lease. Where with the implied consent of the landlord, the tenant used the major part of the premises for residence purposes, it is clear that the accommodations come within the meaning of the Rent Act. Friedman v. Sherman (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 57).

Tenant's Rescission

This section, prohibiting actions by landlord to recover possession even though tenant has no lease or though his lease has expired, restricts landlord's right to evict tenant and does not apply to actions by tenants for rescission for landlord's violation of this chapter or regulation thereunder. Friedman v. Kennedy (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 72).

Terms of Lease

To require a man and his wife and a child to sign separate rental agreements and use such agreements as a basis for charging a higher rental would constitute an obvious evasion of the Rent Act as it is entirely clear that the per person rental was not intended to apply to members of a family unit. Block v. Gates (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 295).

Unlawful Eviction

A complaint which alleged that tenant left leased premises as the result of stipulation signed by himself and his attorney and in compliance with the resulting judgment in landlord's action under this chapter to secure possession failed to charge an "unlawful eviction," notwithstanding that it was alleged that landlord's statement in his action in regard to his intention to use premises for his own immediate personal use as a dwelling were fraudulent. Simpkins v. Brooks (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 549).

If complaint, which alleged that tenant left leased premises as result of stipulation signed by himself and his attorney and in compliance with resulting judgment in landlord's action under this chapter to secure premises for his personal use as a dwelling, was not intended as an attack on the previous judgment, but intended to relate only to events occurring since the judgment, mere allegation that premises were available March 15, and that landlord had not moved in by June 24 did not, without more, show that tenant was fraudulently evicted. Simpkins v. Brooks (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 49 A. 2d 549).

Waiver

Whether there was constructive waiver of covenant in lease against subletting by landlord's acceptance of rent must be determined as of date when landlord's action to recover possession of leased property because of such subletting was commenced. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 707).

A landlord's acceptance of monthly rent payment three days after commencement of his suit against tenant to recover possession of leased property because of defendant's breach of lease by subletting did not constitute "waiver" of such breach. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 707).

Where landlord, at time premises were rented, understood that entire premises were to be occupied by a daughter of tenants, but tenants divided premises into apartments which they sublet and landlord, with full knowledge of the subletting, continued to accept monthly rent in advance for four years without making any protest regarding the subletting, landlord waived right to claim that subletting constituted a violation of an obligation of the tenancy so as to secure eviction of tenants under subsection (b) (1) of this section. Thompson v. Gray (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 594).

§ 45–1606. Administrator.

There is hereby created in and for the District of Columbia the office of Administrator of Rent Control. The Administrator shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and shall be a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia for not less than three years prior to his appointment. He shall devote his full time to the Office of Administrator and shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 per annum. The Administrator shall establish offices, acquire supplies and equipment, and employ such personnel, subject to approval by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, without regard to race or creed, as may be necessary in the performance of his functions under this chapter. The Administrator shall submit a semiannual report to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for transmittal to the Congress of the United States. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 791, ch. 553, § 6.)

§ 45–1607. Obtaining information.

(a) The Administrator may make such studies and investigations, and obtain or require the furnishing of such information under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as he deems necessary or proper to assist him in prescribing any regulation or order under this chapter, or in the administration and enforcement of this chapter, and regulations and orders thereunder. For such purposes the Administrator may administer oaths and affirmations, may require by subpena or otherwise the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documents at any designated place, may require persons to permit the inspection and copying of documents, and the inspection of housing accommodations and may, by regulation or order, require the making and keeping of records and other documents. No person shall be excused from complying with any requirement under this section because of his privilege against self-incrimination, but the immunity provisions of U. S. C., title 49, sec. 46, shall apply with respect to any individual who specifically claims such privilege. In the event of contumacy or refusal to obey any such subpena or requirement under this section, the Administrator may make application to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for an order requiring obedience thereto. Thereupon the court, with or without notice and hearing, as it in its discretion may decide, shall make such order as is proper and may punish as a contempt any failure to comply with such order.

(b) The Administrator shall have authority to promulgate, issue, amend, or rescind rules and regulations, subject to approval by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and to issue such orders as may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter or to prevent the circumvention or evasion thereof. The Administrator may require a license as a condition of engaging in any rental transaction involving the subletting of any housing accommodations or the renting of housing accommodations in a rooming or boarding house, or in a hotel. For the purposes of this chapter the term "rooming or boarding house" means a house in which living quarters are rented by the householder to more than four persons. No fee shall be charged for the issuance to any person of any such license and no such license shall contain any provision not prescribed by this chapter or which could not be prescribed by regulation, order, or requirement thereunder. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 792, ch. 553, § 7; Sept. 26, 1942, 56 Stat. 759, ch. 564, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of Sept. 26, 1942, cited to text, amended section by deleting word "two" and inserting in lieu thereof word "four" in third sentence of subsec. (b).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONTRACTS

Where under this chapter, Administrator's regulation prescribed certain duties for rooming-house operators, including duty of filing schedules and of having maximum rentals established, this chapter entered into and formed a part of contract for sale of rooming-house business as if expressly referred to or incorporated in terms of contract. Tucker v. Beazley (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 191).

VALIDITY OF ORDERS

Order of rent administrator requiring landlords of premises newly placed on rental market to file an application for determination of a maximum ceiling before any future tenancy begins, which order was duly issued and promulgated and was designed to keep landlords from fixing their own rent ceiling without prior approval by the administrator, is valid as being clearly consonant with basic purposes of this chapter. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

§ 45–1608. Procedure.

(a) Any petition filed by a landlord or tenant under section 45–1604 shall be promptly referred to an examiner designated by the Administrator. Notice of such action, in such manner as the Administrator shall by regulation prescribe, shall be given the tenant and landlord of the housing accommodations involved. If the petition be frivolous or without merit, the examiner shall forthwith dismiss it. Such order of dismissal may be reviewed by the Administrator in the manner provided in subsection (c) of this section. The examiner shall grant a hearing upon the petition except in cases dismissed under this subsection.

(b) Hearings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Administrator. The landlord and tenant shall be given an opportunity to be heard or to file written statements, due regard to be given the utility and relevance of the information offered and the need for expedition. In any such hearing the common-law rules of evidence shall not be controlling.

(c) The examiner, after hearing, shall make findings of fact and recommend an appropriate order. Copies of such findings and order shall be served upon the parties to the proceeding in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe by regulation. Within five days after such service, any such party may request that the recommended order be reviewed by the Administrator. If there be no such request within such five days, the findings and recommended order of the examiner shall thereupon be deemed to be the findings and order of the Administrator: Provided, That the Administrator may review the proceedings, as herein provided, on his own motion at any time within ten days after service of the examiner's findings and order upon the parties. The Administrator may, in his discretion, grant a hearing upon the request. Upon such request or motion, the record in the case shall be forthwith transferred to the Administrator for review and he may, in his discretion, grant a hearing. He shall state his findings of fact or affirm the examiner's findings of fact which findings in either case shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence, and shall make an appropriate order. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 792, ch. 553, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADJUSTMENT OF RENT

The Rent Administrator's order determining rental was of no effect, and he properly set it aside on discovering that, contrary to landlord's representation, premises were rented on rental freeze date; landlord's remedy being to seek adjustment rather than determination of rent. Gould v. Delsnider (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 140, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54, reversed, 1946, 154 F. 2d 844, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

Under this chapter, Rent Administrator cannot set aside a valid and subsisting lease between parties providing for lower rentals than rent ceiling established by Administrator. Hildebrand v. Nee (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 640).

The proper method to be used in administering the Rent Act is that the examiner and the Administrator should consider the various items of operating expenses for the base year and for the last year of operation and should make such adjustments as are necessary, based upon expenses for the intervening years and other relevant data. Sharpe v. Goldwyn (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 185).

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW, NECESSITY

Where rent ceiling during period of tenants' occupancy was based on landlord's misrepresentations but examiner in proceedings for a redetermination of ceiling refused to set a new ceiling on ground that premises had been withdrawn from rental market, so that ceiling under which tenants had paid rent remained the only ceiling which had been fixed for property, and tenants did not seek administrative or statutory review of examiner's order, tenants could not establish over-ceiling charges for rent on which to base an action to recover double amount allegedly collected by landlord in excess of rent ceiling. Schachter v. Singer (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 45 A. 2d 364).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

Without an existing maximum rent ceiling or maximum service standard as defined in § 45–1602, a proceeding for adjustment under § 45–1604 was unauthorized, and the procedural and review provisions of this section and § 45–1609 were inapplicable. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

DISMISSAL

The Municipal Court has exclusive jurisdiction over actions by tenants to recover rent over-charges and Penalties. The Rent Administrator was correct in ordering a petition for such recovery dismissed since he has no jurisdicton. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

EQUITABLE ESTOPPEL

Where landlord petitioned under Section 4 of Rent Act for an adjustment, and where Administrator made no determination, it did not preclude landlord from asserting as a defense to tenant's suit for damages that the examiner's recommended order was not a sufficient basis for tenant's suit. The principles of equitable estoppel do not apply where the legal position first asserted is not successfully maintained. Parker v Sager (C. A. D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

FINDINGS CONCLUSIVE

Where trial court found on conflicting evidence that there was no refusal of landlord to furnish services required by Rent Administrator's order, appellate court was bound by such finding. Hicks v. Behrend (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 78).

Where evidence sustained Rent Administrator's finding that landlord was entitled to a 10 percent increase in rents under section 1604 (b) of this title, Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia would be violating fundamental principles applicable to court review of administrative findings, to hold that administrator's conclusion was not supported by substantial evidence or was plainly wrong. Stokes v. Realest Corp. (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 532).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Rent Administrator on landlord's petition for adjustment in rent ceilings is not bound by common law rules of evidence and he has inherent right to take judicial notice of certain facts not presented in evidence, but is not allowed right to reach an ultimate fact determinative of case without the slightest attempt to incorporate into record the basic facts essential to his conclusion. Aquino v. Knox (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 237).

Findings of fact by Rent Administrator on landlord's petition for adjustment in rent ceilings need not be set out in detail but they must be shown with substantial particularity to enable petitioner seeking review of Administrator's order to rebut them, and a reviewing court to follow path which has been used. Aquino v. Knox (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 237).

Where the Rent Administrator, upon review of the findings of the examiner, states his findings of fact or affirms the facts as found, such findings shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence. Winkler v. Ballard (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 669).

Findings of fact made by examiner and approved by the Administrator, that landlord had not violated the minimum service standard with respect to bed linen were beyond the power of the examiner or Administrator where the evidence showed laxity in cleaning petitioner's room. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

ORDERS REVIEWABLE

The Rent Act nowhere expressly authorizes control of meal charges. If, as the Administrator claimed, the meal rates were subject to control, such control rests on the premise that the furnishing of meals is a privilege or facility connected with the use and occupancy of the housing accommodations and therefore a part of the service standard. Until the service standard was completed, the rent ceiling could not be completed. Hearn v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 219).

PETITION

Landlord's complaint seeking to recover possession of dwelling property under this chapter would not be held bad because it did not contain an allegation that proceeding was in good faith. De Bobula v. Coppedge (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 255).

REHEARING

Where landlord insisted that a hearing de novo be ordered, new evidence be received, and new findings be made by District of Columbia Rent Administrator following a recommended order by examiner denying increase requested by landlord, landlord could not complain that effective date of the increase as ordered was postponed by reason of the second hearing and order. Thorn v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 223).

Contention that landlord was denied a hearing is without foundation where the case had already been heard and was not remanded for a hearing on all the issues and where upon an inspection of the premises by the examiner in the presence of counsel for the Administrator, the landlord and his manager neither tendered nor offered additional evidence. These facts constituted a sufficient hearing. Block v. Tenants (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 59).

RES JUDICATA

Where tenant's petition for rent refund was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction of relief sought, and Administrator had undertaken to make findings on some of the questions in controversy, such findings are without effect and are not res judicata in any other proceedings involving the question. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

§ 45–1609. Court review.

(a) Within ten days after issuance of an order of the Administrator under section 45–1604, any party may file a petition to review such action in the Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, and shall forthwith serve a copy of such petition upon the Administrator. Thereupon, the Administrator shall certify and file with the court a transcript of the record upon which the order complained of was entered. Upon the filing of such transcript, the court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to affirm or set aside such order, or remand the proceeding: Provided, That the Administrator may at any time, upon reasonable notice and in such manner as he shall deem proper, rescind, modify, or set aside, in whole or in part, any such order at any time notwithstanding the pendency of the petition to review.

(b) No objection that has not been urged before the Administrator shall be considered by the court, unless the failure to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. No order shall be set aside or remanded unless the petitioner shall establish to the satisfaction of the court that the order is not in accordance with law, or is not supported by substantial evidence. The commencement of proceedings under this section shall not, except as provided in subsection (d), operate as a stay of the Administrator's order.

(c) The Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia is hereby granted exclusive jurisdiction to review any order of the Administrator made pursuant to section 45–1604. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, subject to review as provided by law relative to other judgments of the court. Three judges of the municipal court, selected in such rotation as the judges of the court shall determine, shall sit in all proceedings under this section and shall participate in the decision of such cases.

(d) No court shall issue any interlocutory order or decree staying the effectiveness of any provision of this chapter or any regulation or order issued thereunder, unless the person objecting to such provision, regulation, or order, shall file with the court an undertaking with a surety or sureties satisfactory to the court for the payment, in the event such objection is not sustained, of the amount by which the maximum rent, if any, permitted under such provision, regulation, or order, exceeds or is less than the amount actually received or paid while such stay is in effect. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 793, ch. 553, § 9; April 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 206, ch. 243, § 3 (a), (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The act of April 29, 1948, cited to text, substituted "Municipal Court of Appeals" for "Municipal Court" in the first sentence of subsection (a) and first sentence of subsection (c).

SUITS PENDING IN THREE-JUDGE COURT

Sec. 4 of the act of April 29, 1948, cited to the text, provided as follows:

"SEC. 4. All cases now pending before the statutory three-judge court of the municipal court which have not been presented to that court for decision at the time this Act takes effect shall forthwith be certified by said court to the Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. Nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any judgment or decree of the statutory court (consisting of three judges of the municipal court as heretofore provided by law) rendered subsequent to the effective date of this Act in cases heretofore presented to that court and now awaiting decision."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADMINISTRATOR'S DETERMINATION

The order of the Rent Administrator fixing the rent ceiling made under § 45–1602 (1) (c) of the Rent Act is not appealable, and, furthermore, a finding of fact is not an appealable order. Weiner v. McMahon (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 67 A. 2d 525).

AFFIRMANCE

In tenant's proceeding before District of Columbia Rent Administrator on petition for adjustment of rent or services, wherein tenants sought determination only that premises were rented on statutory freeze date for claimed sum per month, and such matter was one which could properly be decided only by the Municipal Court, Administrator's dismissal of tenant's petition was proper and was affirmed notwithstanding it was based on wrong reason. Schlein v. Evans (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 35).

BURDEN OF PROOF

One seeking a reversal in an appellate court has the burden of affirmatively establishing error. Jennings v. Gilbertson (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 839).

COMPELLING ORDERS

Three-judge Municipal Court of District of Columbia could not require Administrator of Rent Control to promulgate an order that collection of rent for accommodations as to which no ceiling had been fixed is subject to refunding to tenant of excess over ceiling subsequently determined. Kern v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 793).

CONSTRUCTION

Subsection (a) of this section must be read in conjunction with subsection (c) of this section. Fabianich v. Hart (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 881).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

Without an existing maximum rent ceiling or maximum service standard as defined in § 45–1602, a proceeding for adjustment under § 45–1604 was unauthorized, and the procedural and review provisions of § 45–1608 and this section were inapplicable. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

EQUITABLE ESTOPPEL

Where landlord petitioned under Section 4 of Rent Act for an adjustment, and where Administrator made no determination, it did not preclude landlord from asserting as a defense to tenant's suit for damages that the examiner's recommended order was not a sufficient basis for tenant's suit. The principles of equitable estoppel do not apply where the legal position first asserted is not successfully maintained. Parker v. Sager (C. A. D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

FINAL ORDERS

Denial of a preliminary injunction is not a final order nor is it a form of an interlocutory order from which appeal lies. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 671).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Rent Administrator is not concerned with net income from housing accommodations, but only with increase in rent sufficient to compensate in whole or in part for increased operating expenses. Hall v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 656).

Where examiner's findings that reduction in service did not form sufficient basis for an adjustment of maximum rent is supported by substantial evidence, it will not be set aside. Hall v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 656).

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

It was not error for the trial court to deny appellant's request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, for trial court rules provide that in actions tried on the facts without a jury the court may, if requested by any party, find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law. The rule is permissive, not mandatory. Eide v. Traten (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 522).

JUDGMENT

Judgment on reciprocal claims between different parties should be set off against each other and satisfaction of both should be entered in the amount of the smaller claim. Block v. Gates (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 215, modified on other grounds, 68 A. 2d 898).

JUDICIAL NOTICE

Court will take judicial notice that during the war the government and various persons in official and unofficial positions urged that the public forego luxury items which consumed manpower and critical war materials. It cannot be said as a matter of law that the landlord's refusal to supply such items rendered him guilty of a service standard violation. Connolly v. B. F. Saul Co., Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 236).

MOOT QUESTIONS

Where payment of judgment in action to recover double rent under § 45–1610, if any, was an involuntary one, issue in case was not rendered moot. King v. McKnight (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 714).

Where in the record itself, nothing is revealed concerning an alleged payment, court cannot resolve dispute in respect thereof on the basis of contradictory statements in the brief. Acuino v. Winthrop (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 602).

ORDERS RESCINDED

Section 9 of the Rent Act authorizes the Administrator at any time to rescind, modify, or set aside a section 4 order, but a section 4 order cannot be summarily set aside and a new order entered without consideration of the evidence offered. Hearn v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 219).

ORDERS REVIEWABLE

This section, giving municipal court exclusive jurisdiction to review any order of the administrator made "pursuant to" section 45–1604, refers to orders specifically provided for said § 45–1604, and does not authorize review of any order made in course of proceeding under § 45–1604. Fabianich v. Hart (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 881).

Under this section giving municipal court exclusive jurisdiction to review orders made pursuant to § 45–1604 and under § 45–1604, authorizing only orders definitely fixing new rent ceilings or adjusted minimum service requirements, municipal court had no jurisdiction to review order directing rehearing in proceeding under said section 45–1604. Fabianich v. Hart (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 881).

A general order of Administrator of Rent Control requiring landlords to file petitions for determination of maximum rent ceilings, and reciting that, until further notice, Administrator will assume, but not concede, that first rent collected by landlord is fair and reasonable, was not an adoption of rent then charged as a "maximum rent ceiling", and landlord's petition for court review of adjustment of rent or service on basis of such order was properly dismissed. Sager v. Stamps (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 113).

Municipal Court of Appeals was not required to pass upon the validity of an interpretative order of the Administrator under this chapter, where neither tenant nor landlord had sought a court review of such order. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 863).

Where petitioner asserts that there is nothing in the record to indicate by what means the examiner and the Administrator arrived at the ceiling fixed, the claim is without merit where the record shows that testimony was taken and exhibits were introduced and considered on a personal inspection by the examiner. Jennings v. Gilbertson (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 839).

Where an error charged relates to the refusal of the examiner to grant a continuance of the hearing, such a refusal is in the field of discretion and is seldom reviewable on appeal. Jennings v. Gilbertson (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 839).

Where the evidence presented showed that the Administrator's determination of the ceiling was under § 2 of the Act, despite the contention of the claimant that it was under § 4, no appeal lies. Cox v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 659).

Rent Act provides that objections not urged before the Administrator shall not be considered by the court, unless failure to urge them shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. Where no extraordinary circumstances are presented, orders are not reviewable. Jennings v. Gilbertson (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 74 A. 2d 839).

Where examiner averaged the expenses for years 1942 through 1947, inclusive, and allowed a sufficient rental increase to make up for the excess of such averaged operating expenses over the operating expenses for 1941, such method was improper because it failed to take into account the various items of operating expenses for the base year and intervening years. Shapiro v. Bombardier (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 772).

Where there is a single tenancy and nothing in the record that either landlord or tenant ever regarded it as divisible, no separate toilet facilities for the housing and alleged commercial part thereof, only one heating unit, one meter for electricity, gas and water, it was error for Rent Administrator to rule that the unit was both a commercial and housing accommodation. Wayne v. Burke (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 669).

Contention of Administrator that an order entered under § 7 of Rent Act is not reviewable because Act limits review to those under § 4 is without merit. If this position were correct, then in any § 4 proceeding, after time for review of the order had passed, the Administrator could issue an order under § 7 abrogating or changing the § 4 order and thereby effectively prevent court review of the § 4 proceeding. Hearn v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 219).

Where ceiling has been regularly and properly established and has stood unchanged throughout the term, it could be rendered invalid only by alteration, or change of the building, real estate, service or facilities. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 73 A. 2d 653).

Where petitioner specifically requested Administrator to issue an order declaring a refund for over-charges, failure of the Administrator to bring suit is not reviewable on appeal where no objection was urged before the Administrator, no extraordinary circumstances were shown and no reason shown why petitioner should not have filed suit himself. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

ORDERS SET ASIDE

Order of Rent Administrator adjusting rent ceilings of various apartments on landlord's petition would be set aside on subsequent petition by landlord as not supported by substantial evidence, and as denying due process where Administrator made general finding that landlord's expenses had increased substantially and entitled landlord to increase to extent allowed and then further found that to give a larger increase would raise rents above those for comparable housing accommodations without showing what if any comparable housing accommodations were used in making up the order. Aquino v. Knox (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 237).

Where examiner and Rent Administrator compared the operating expenses for the last year of operations with those of the first year and granted an increase sufficient to produce in full the increase in expenditures determined by this method, such procedure is improper and must be set aside. Hall et. al v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 656).

Where Rent Administrator averaged expenses for the years 1941 to 1947 inclusive, deducted the 1941 expenses from such average, and granted a sufficient rent increase to produce the difference, such procedure is improper and orders based thereon must be reversed. Proctor v. Miller (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 665).

Failure of an examiner and Rent Administrator to make detailed findings of fact showing basis for rental increase allowed, and failure to make allowance for the fact that expenses for last year's operation is not typical, is improper and order must be set aside. Hall v. Ring Management Company (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 656).

PETITION FOR REVIEW

The petition for review must be dismissed where there is no final order of the Administrator which can be reviewed where the filing of a petition prevented the examiner's recommended order from becoming effective. Parker v. Williams (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 770).

QUESTION FOR JURY

The question whether accommodations involved are new ones, or old ones with substantial capital improvement, is a question of fact for the jury. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 653).

QUESTIONS NOT RAISED BELOW

No objection that has not been urged before the Rent Administrator may be considered by the court unless the failure to urge such objection may be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. Crisp v. Giles (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 204).

RECORD

Where in District of Columbia Municipal Court tenant's brief described in detail proceedings before Rent Administrator but such statements were unsupported by record, appellate court could not determine whether tenant by applying to Rent Administrator for rent adjustment because of landlord's alleged failure to supply minimum service exhausted remedies and was precluded from recovering damages for failure to supply minimum services. Zindler v. Buchanon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 616).

It may be that the rent increase ordered by the Administrator was justified by the record before him, but the record does not disclose what the total rent increase in dollars amounted to. On numerous occasions the court has pointed out the necessity of including in the record figures on which at least the approximate correctness of the Administrator's finding may be determined. Corey v. Fitzgerald (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 230).

Facts asserted by the petitioner's counsel, which do not appear in the examiner's Statement of Evidence or any other evidentiary form in the record and bear no approval or certification of the Rent Administrator, are not part of the record and cannot be considered on appeal. Bailey v. Maple (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 333).

REMEDY AS EXCLUSIVE

The remedy provided by this section for review of the orders of the Administrator is exclusive, and a party dissatisfied with such order must pursue the remedy given, and cannot in an action brought for violation of that order collaterally attack it. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 863).

TIME FOR APPEAL

Where 10-day period under subsection (a) of this section for filing of a petition to review an order of Rent Administrator expired on a Sunday, and petition for review was filed with clerk of court on Monday, petition was timely. Wayne v. Burke (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 714; see also Wayne v. Burke, 68 A. 2d 669).

§ 45–1610. Enforcement—Penalties.

(a) If any landlord receives rent or refuses to render services in violation of any provision of this chapter, or of any regulation or order thereunder prescribing a rent ceiling or service standard, the tenant paying such rent or entitled to such service, or the Administrator on behalf of such tenant, may bring suit to rescind the lease or rental agreement, or, in case of violation of a maximum-rent ceiling, an action for double the amount by which the rent paid exceeded the applicable rent ceiling and, in case of violation of a minimum-service standard, an action for double the value of the services refused in violation of the applicable minimum-service standard or for $50, whichever is greater in either case, plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as determined by the court. Any suit or action under this subsection may be brought in the municipal court of the District of Columbia regardless of the amount involved, and the municipal court is hereby given exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all such cases.

(c) No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties in any court on any grounds for or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in good faith pursuant to any provision of this chapter or any regulation, order, or requirement thereunder, notwithstanding that subsequently such provision, regulation, order, or requirement may be modified, rescinded, or determined to be invalid. The Administrator may intervene in any suit or action wherein a party relies for ground of relief or defense upon this chapter or any regulation, order, or requirement thereunder. No costs shall be assessed against the Administrator in any proceedings had or taken in accordance with this chapter.

(d) Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of this chapter, or any regulation, order, or requirement thereunder, he may make application to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for an order enforcing compliance with this chapter or such regulation, order, or requirement, and upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order, shall be granted without bond. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 794, ch. 553, § 10; April 19, 1949, 63 Stat. 49, ch. 73, § 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, repealed subsection (b).

EXCEPTIONS

Section 7 of the act of April 19, 1949, cited to text, provided as follows:

"SEC. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the recontrol of any housing accommodations which have been heretofore decontrolled."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ACCORD AND SATISFACTION

Agreement between the parties which stated that "in consideration of your having permitted us to sub-let the apartment during period that rent control is continued, we release you from and waive any claim against you," was an accord and satisfaction, relieving landlord from liability. Perper v. Danford (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 773).

On question whether a payment by a tenant to a landlord was rent, or whether such payment constituted an accord and satisfaction as to which party should pay for the installation of a new furnace in the rented premises, evidence sustained finding that it was in accord and satisfaction. Bond v. Pinchot and Pinchot v. Bond (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 924).

ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

Where plaintiff in action under this section to recover double amount of alleged over-ceiling rents charged was permitted to go outside lease to establish a prima facie violation of section 45–1602, exclusion of evidence rebutting such showing was error, where excluded evidence merely put the lease in its proper setting. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

In action under this section to recover double over-ceiling rent charge, where issue was whether landlord had received rent in excess of legal ceiling and lease was offered merely as evidence that defendants contracted for rent in excess of legal ceiling, and hence was collateral to the main issue, parol evidence was admissible to vary terms of lease. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

Where parol evidence was necessary to explain two items on face of lease, testimony that individual defendant leased furnished premises to plaintiff in dual capacity as agent of corporate defendant which owned property and as agent of third person who owned furniture and that, in distribution of rent received by individual defendant, corporate defendant did not receive more than maximum rent ceiling, was admissible in tenant's action to recover double amount of alleged over-ceiling rent charges. Fulton R. Gordon, Inc. v. Schram (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 662).

In prosecution of landlord for violating an order of rent administrator by failing to file application for determination of maximum rent ceilings before the beginning of a tenancy, negative evidence showing lack of receipt was competent to show landlord's failure to file, and mere statement by official witnesses that there was a possibility that papers might have been lost went only to weight of evidence. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

ADMINISTRATIVE FINDINGS

Under this chapter, administrator in a proceeding for adjustment of rent ceilings can properly inquire into subject of what premises rented for on freeze date for incidental purpose of enabling him to decide what rent should be, but his finding as to what rent was on that date would not be binding on municipal court in subsequent litigation between the parties for rent overcharges. Evans v. Schlein (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 32).

AMENDMENT OF PLEADINGS

Where it appeared that defendant in action to recover double rent should have been permitted to restate his defense in an amended answer so that trial court would be able to determine whether complaint and answer presented any issues of fact or whether case was one turning entirely on question of law, refusal to grant defendant leave to file amended answer was improper. King v. McKnight (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 714).

Court's rules permit an amendment to the complaint as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served. Where defendant has not answered but has filed a motion to dismiss, such a motion is not a responsive pleading within the meaning of the rule. Lustine v. Williams (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 900).

AMOUNT OF RECOVERY

Proof of landlord's violation of the minimum service standard under this section may be made by showing failure to comply with the standard in one or more particulars, but the action is a single action, and where tenant does not prove the value of the services refused recovery is limited to $50, though the standard was violated in many particulars. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 863).

Where house was rented for $15.50 a month on rental freeze date and subsequent tenants paying $100 a month sued for double amount of overcharge, judge improperly computed overcharge on basis of $85, which was ceiling fixed by order of Rent Administrator, who had vacated order on discovering falsity of landlord's representation that premises were not rented on freeze date. Gould v. Delsnider (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 140, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54, reversed, 1946, 154 F. 2d 884, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

Where house was rented for $15.50 a month on rental freeze date and was later bought by defendant, who remodeled and modernized it at cost of $2,500 and rented it to plaintiffs for $100 a month without petitioning Administrator for rent increase in case of a capital improvement, court had no discretion to award plaintiffs less than double the amount of overcharge as provided by this section. Gould v. Delsnider (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 42 A. 2d 140, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54, reversed, 1946, 154 F. 2d 884, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

This section is limited to receipt of rent in violation of this chapter or of any provision or order thereunder prescribing a rent ceiling, and finds no support in a failure, however contumacious to comply with Rent Administrator's orders of a different character. Dekelbaum v. Lloyd (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 174).

Where this chapter fixed maximum rent to which landlord was entitled for a lease of housing accommodations as $250, lease providing for a monthly rental of $265, was ineffective to raise the rent ceiling, and tenant was entitled to recover under subsection (a) of this section, double the amount paid in excess of the ceiling. Wilner v. Vartanian (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 88).

Lease of premises consisting of 31 rooms and 6 baths, and used for the general purposes of a hotel or lodging house, was a lease of "housing accommodations" and subject to this chapter, and was not excluded therefrom as a "hotel." Wilner v. Vartanian (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 88).

In tenants' action against landlords to recover for overcharge of rent and for failure to maintain minimum service standards under this section, amount of recovery is limited strictly to right to recover twice overcharge and double value of services refused. Evans v. Schlein (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 32).

Under subsection (a) of this section authorizing tenant's recovery only of value of services which landlord fails to furnish, or $50, whichever is greater, when value of services is not proved, only one item of $50 may be recovered. Zindler v. Buchanon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 616).

A violation of Rent Act is to be considered entire. If twice the total over-charge exceeds the $50.00 minimum, such larger amount is the maximum which may be recovered by a tenant and he may not recover $50.00 for each separate violation. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 274).

ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Failure to submit proof of value of services of tenant's attorneys in action to recover double amount of rent paid in excess of maximum rent ceiling did not prevent trial judge from awarding a fee under subsection (a) of this section, since trial judge would be considered an expert on value of legal services. Tyler v. Dixson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 648).

Where award of fees to tenant's attorney in action to recover double amount of rent paid in excess of maximum rent ceiling appeared to be generous in amount but not so manifestly excessive as to constitute an abuse of discretion, award would not be disturbed, but additional attorneys' fees for services rendered in connection with appeal would be denied. Tyler v. Dixson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 648).

Appellee's request for additional allowance for attorneys' fees to cover appellate services is improper. Fees for such services whether in trial or appellate courts should be fixed by the trial court. Heitmuller v. Berkow (C. A., D. C. 1948, 171 F. 2d 741, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 342).

There being no court rule allowing same, transcript cannot be taxed as costs nor are attorneys' fees on appeal allowable. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 653).

It is a correct rule of law that attorney's fee allowed under a statute not providing specifically that it go to the attorney is an allowance to the party and not to the attorney, and may be credited in arriving at a net judgment between the parties. The court should set off the claim, costs and allowances of one party against those of the other; and also the claim of an attorney for a charging lien should not defeat such a setoff. Block v. Gates (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 898).

Bill of Particulars

A bill of particulars, which alleged that plaintiff as tenant in apartment called upon landlord to perform certain painting and refinishing necessary to bring apartment up to minimum service standard under § 45–1605 (a), that landlord refused to do so, and that plaintiff thereupon had the work performed, that reasonable value of such work was $115.08 and that, under this chapter, plaintiff was entitled to recover twice the value of his services, costs and attorney's fees was sufficient. Goldberg v. Roumel (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 253).

On its face, a bill of particulars stated an over-charge of rent for which the defendant would be liable for statutory damages irrespective of an erroneous theory as to the amount recoverable since an improper measure of damages is not a ground for dismissal. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 274).

Burden of Proof

Tenant claiming that landlord had refused to maintain minimum service standard with respect to decorating apartment occupied by its tenant, had burden of establishing such fact. Goldberg v. Roumel (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 790).

In prosecution of a landlord for violation of a general order of rent administrator, government had burden to prove that landlord failed to comply with terms of order and that failure to do so was a willful one. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

To prove violations of the Rent Act, it is incumbent on the tenant first to establish the existence of the ceiling and standard. Eide v. Traten (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 522).

Tenant by his answer and counterclaim admitted that he had not paid rent for the period from September 15 to October 31 and that he owed $97.50 for such period. Unless, as tenant claims, the landlord had collected rent in excess of the ceiling and had violated the minimum service standard, the allegation was an affirmative defense and the trial court properly ruled that the burden was on the tenant to proceed and proce his defense. Eide v. Traten (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 522).

In a suit by a tenant for damages for violation of minimum service standard for lack of heat, it was not error to dismiss claim where plaintiff failed to make out a prima facie case since there was no evidence that the minimum service standard included furnishing heat by the landlord. Bond v. Pinchot and Pinchot v. Bond (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 213).

In order to obtain damages for violation of service standard, the tenant must show that he has been deprived of a service to which he was entitled as of right. Hutchinson v. Peacock (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 903).

Ceiling

For housing accommodations not rented within year ending January 1, 1941, no maximum rent ceiling exists until determined by Administrator of Rent Control, and until then, parties' rights are those fixed by lease agreement and there can be no violation of the ceiling. Kern v. Cogswell (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 59 A. 2d 793).

Where ceiling has been regularly and properly established and has stood unchanged throughout the term, it could have been rendered invalid only by alteration, or change of the building, real estate, service or facilties. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 653).

Commercial User

Where tenant who had been renting first floor only for $50 rented entire building for $80 in 1939, and subsequently sublet second floor for $30 which had automatically become the rent ceiling for second floor, and first floor was not subject to this chapter because used commercially, this chapter was not violated. Ridolfi v. Benton (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 58 A. 2d 723).

Where landlord and tenant had consistently treated first and second floors of building as divisible, and use of one floor was not essential to use of the other, fact that the two floors were rented as a whole at time of passage of this chapter and on freeze date, did not require that premises be considered as a whole, nor preclude subsequent execution of separate leases, and rental for first floor, used mostly for barber shop, was a matter for agreement between parties. Ridolfi v. Benton (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 53 A. 2d 723).

Criminal Prosecutions

Where after conviction under § 10 (b) of the Rent Act, but before sentence, the section was stricken from the act, the pending prosecutions for violations committed while section was in force should have been continued because they were saved by the saving clause contained in 1 USCA § 109. Quick v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 71 A. 2d 771).

Dismissal

Dismissal with prejudice by stipulation of parties of actions involving defendants' counterclaim for failure of plaintiff landlord to repair a refrigerator in apartment rented to defendants, did not dispose of defendants' counterclaim in subsequent action for failure to repair refrigerator concerning a period subsequent to the periods involved in the previous actions. Block v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 493).

Equitable Estoppel

Where landlord petitioned under Section 4 of Rent Act for an adjustment, and where Administrator made no determination, this did not preclude landlord from asserting as a defense to tenant's suit for damages that the examiner's recommended order was not a sufficient basis for tenant's suit. The principles of equitable estoppel do not apply where the legal position first asserted is not successfully maintained. Parker v. Sager (C. A. D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 657, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 4).

Estoppel

Tenant's right to services supplied by landlord on statutory freeze date was guaranteed by § 45–1605 and was not lost by tenant's agreement to take the apartment "as is," neither did such agreement estop the tenant from maintaining action for damages under this section. Baker v. Rosen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 58 A. 2d 687).

Fair Trial

In prosecution of landlord for violation of rent regulation, alleged circumstances that cause was first prosecution of kind brought under subsection (b) of this section, that tenants who testified against landlord were motivated by malice engendered by a prior civil action between them and landlord, that assistant general counsel was appointed special prosecutor for the one case, and that witnesses caused prejudicial newspaper accounts to be published, in absence of an affirmative showing that such circumstances deprived landlord of a fair trial, were irrelevant. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

Intervention by Administrator

Where in the course of a trial, intervention by the Administrator was sought and granted, appellant's claim that such procedure tended to disrupt the orderly course of the trial by placing opposing counsel at a disadvantage is without merit. Generally, the Administrator should be required to make his decision on intervention at the commencement of the trial, but that is a matter resting largely in the discretion of the trial court. Turner v. Bowman (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 231).

JURISIDICTION

Exclusive jurisdiction is invested in municipal court by subsection (a) of this section to determine all actions for rent overcharges and includes power to decide all incidental and preliminary questions including specifically the question as to whether property was rented on the freeze date and at what rental. Evans v. Schlein (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 32).

The Administrator was correct in dismissing petition for refund of rent over-charges for lack of jurisdiction, inasmuch as the Municipal Court has exclusive jurisdiction over actions by tenants to recover rent over-charges and penalties for failure to provide minimum service standards. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

LIABILITY OF AGENT

A defendant signing lease as agent for undisclosed landlord and contracting therein for payment of overceiling rent could not escape liability to tenant for excess rent by having turned over to landlord the monies unlawfully collected after deducting defendant's commissions. Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

A defendant signing lease "as agent for the owner only" did not thereby escape liability for double amount of overceiling rent collected, where defendant did not disclose identity of owner, notwithstanding that identity of owner was matter of public record. Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

Where appellant's duties were more janitorial than managerial, and authority with respect to rent was limited to renting at rates fixed by owner, collecting them and turning them over, the amount of rent was no concern of the agent. Having no authority to fix them, the agent was under no duty to ascertain whether they were within the ceiling, and the agent was, therefore, not liable for rental over-charges. Delpan v. Karosky (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 72 A. 2d 33).

Where broker is authorized to receive rent for landlord, he is a "person" within meaning of Rent Act and liable to tenant for over-charges. It is no defense that he is not a party to the lease. Dunning v. Randall Hagner Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 770).

Where defendant was the undisclosed agent of the actual landlord but had described itself as the landlord and executed the lease in its own name, the tenant could not deny his landlord's title. Also, under these circumstances, the defendant could not deny he was the landlord and was liable for violation of the minimum service standard. Goldberg v. Charles C. Koones & Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 495).

LIABILITY OF LANDLORD

That a tenant, as between himself and his subtenants, violated this chapter in collecting rentals not fixed by the Administrator, did not relieve the landlord from responsibility for complying with this chapter. Hall v. Henry J. Robb (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 863).

Under § 45–1603 requiring for accommodations not rented during 1940 the rent and services generally prevailing for comparable accommodations, "as determined by the Administrator", an order by Administrator fixing maximum rent ceiling for particular premises effective March 16, 1943, was intended to apply only prospectively, and hence tenant could not recover excess of rent paid prior to effective date of order over ceiling fixed by Rent Administrator. Dekelbaum v. Lloyd (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 41 A. 2d 174).

Although there can be no violation of a rent ceiling until such ceiling is established by Rent Administrator, landlord cannot willfully refuse to comply with Administrator's order directing an immediate filing of applications for determination of rent ceilings without subjecting himself to criminal liability. Wilkerson v. Montgomery (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 102).

Where order of Rent Administrator fixing maximum rent ceiling on apartment was based on assumption that the ceiling was for furnished quarters, fact that tenant declined to use furniture in apartment and exercised her privilege of bringing into the apartment her own furniture would not show a violation of maximum rent ceiling by Administrator in charging maximum as fixed by Administrator's order. Wilkerson v. Montgomery (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 102).

Where appellant bought a $10,000 property from stepfather with a down payment of only $300, followed by appellant's two suits seeking possession for personal use, and by extensive improvements, and the immediate renting of an apartment at a substantially higher rent, there was sufficient evidence to establish intent to evade the Rent Act. Frankfurt v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 197).

Though in a possessory action, the rights of the parties and the condition of plaintiff's claim are to be tested by the facts as they existed on the day the suit was filed, the rule is different in a criminal prosecution in which the government alleged a device or arrangement with intent to evade the Rent Act. Such an offense would not necessarily be reflected in a single act or limited to a single day. Frankfurt v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 65 A. 2d 197).

MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

In motion for summary judgment, it is not enough for an affiant to state that he has personal knowledge of the facts, but he must state the facts themselves in detail. The burden of establishing the non-existence of any genuine issue is upon the moving party. Schwartz v. Sandidge (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 869).

MOTION TO DISMISS

A motion to dismiss concedes all facts well pleaded and if the complaint states a cause of action, however loosely drawn it may be, it is not subject to dismissal. Such motion may ony be granted when it appears certain that the plaintiff would not be entitled to relief under any state of facts which could be proved in support of the claim. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 274).

NATURE OF ACTION

An action to recover double amount of excess rent collected in violation of this chapter, was not an action for a statutory "penalty or forfeiture" within bar of one year statute of limitations of section 201 of Title 12. Heitmuller v. Berkow (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 51 A. 2d 302); Heitmuller v. Berkow (App. D. C. 1948, 165 F. 2d 961).

Action to recover for rent over-charges is not one in contract based on a lease, but one to recover a statutory obligation arising from an unlawful act. Dunning v. Randall Hagner Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 770).

ORDERS REVIEWABLE

Where petitioner specifically requested Administrator to issue an order declaring a refund for over-charges, failure of the Administrator to bring suit is not reviewable on appeal when no objection was urged before the Administrator, no extraordinary circumstances were shown, and no reason shown why petitioner should not have filed suit himself. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

PARTIES

Fact that during a period of the tenancy rented premises were occupied not only by tenant but also by her "girl friend" and that the two shared the rental and expenses did not preclude tenant from bringing action to recover double amount of rent paid in excess of maximum rent ceiling prescribed by this chapter. Tyler v. Dixson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 648).

Occupancy by several tenants of a housing unit under separate agreements with landlord did not prevent them from joining in an action for violation of a rent ceiling when their combined payments exceeded maximum ceiling for housing unit. Glassman v. Graver (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 56 A. 2d 160).

PENALTIES

The Act provides means for enforcing violations of its provisions and to hold a landlord who has violated the Act in one respect to be deprived of all rights under other provisions would be adding a new penalty not provided by statute. Ostrow v. Horning, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 277).

QUESTION FOR JURY

The question whether housing accommodations are new ones not rented on critical date under this chapter or are old ones with substantial capital improvements or alterations, is a question of fact, which, in tenant's action to recover double amount of excess rent, must, unless evidence is compelling one way or the other, be decided by jury. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844).

Whether real estate agent agreed to take care of everything necessary to establish rent ceiling was for jury. Norris v. Rael (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 766).

Whether housing accommodations are new ones not rented on the critical date, or old ones with substantial capital improvements or alterations, is a question of fact which must be decided by the jury unless the evidence is compelling one way or another. Norris v. Rael (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 766).

In prosecution of landlord for failure to file an application for determination of maximum rent ceiling as required by an order of rent administrator, conflicting testimony that application was not received by administrator's office and was not on file and testimony of landlord that application was filed was for jury. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

The question whether accommodations involved are new ones, or old ones with substantial capital improvement, is a question of fact for jury. Sawyer v. Warner (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 63 A. 2d 653).

REDUCTION OF SERVICES

Even if place or person for receiving rent could be considered a service supplied in connection with use and occupancy of housing accommodations, landlord could designate a different agent to receive rent without being liable under subsection (a) of this section for reduced services. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

Finding that tenant had been denied service of a resident manager who would take charge of packages left for tenant in his absence, which service had been furnished tenant on freeze date under subsection (a) of this section, was insufficient to authorize tenant to recover damages from landlord for violation of service standard, in absence of further finding that such service was furnished to tenant on freeze date as a matter of right, and not gratuitously. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

REMEDY AS EXCLUSIVE

A tenant may not minimize statutory liability for exceeding rent ceiling by suing for mere reimbursement, since statutory remedy is exclusive. Moore v. Coates (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 68).

REPAIRS, RECOVERY FOR

Where there was no agreement by landlord to repair, landlord's only duty was to maintain minimum service standard provided in this chapter, and tenant, upon claiming that landlord breached such duty in refusing to paint walls and refinish floors of apartment, was required to rely upon remedies provided by this section, and he could not make the repairs himself and then sue for twice their cost. Goldberg v. Roumel (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 47 A. 2d 790).

In landlord's action for possession of rented apartment for failure of tenants to pay rent, wherein tenants counterclaimed for failure of landlord to repair refrigerator although refrigeration was a service standard prescribed by rent administrator, evidence sustained finding that landlord had inexcusably failed to supply refrigeration and that tenants were entitled to recover on their counterclaim as against contention that landlord was not notified of bad condition of refrigerator and did not refuse to repair. Block v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 493).

RES JUDICATA

Where tenants commenced proceedings before rent administrator to determine rent charged by landlord on freeze date but administrator made no affirmative finding on that issue and held that evidence failed to establish rent increase over that payable on freeze date or that premises were rented on freeze date, and dismissed petition administrator was without jurisdiction to determine that there had been an overcharge and dismissal was not res judicata of any issue in tenants' subsequent action before municipal court to recover for rent overcharges and failure to provide minimum services under this chapter. Evans v. Schlein (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 32).

Where tenant's petition for rent refund was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction of relief sought, and Administrator had undertaken to make findings on some of the questions in controversy, such findings are without effect and are not res judicata in any other proceedings involving the question. Levy v. Arsenault (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 642).

Where tenant sought an order restoring the services which had been withdrawn, or a corresponding reduction in rent, and failing to get either, then began present litigation seeking statutory damages for landlord's alleged refusal to furnish the services in question, he had no right to maintain suit because the issues had already been tried by the Administrator and determined against him. Connolly v. B. F. Saul Co., Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 236).

RESCIND, DEFINITION OF

In this section, authorizing tenant to sue to rescind lease if landlord receives rent or refuses to render services as required by § 45–1601 et seq. or regulation thereunder, "rescind" must be given its commonly accepted meaning, so that, when tenant obtains rescission, lease is annulled and abrogated. Friedman v. Kennedy (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 72).

SERVICE STANDARD

The word "entitled" in provision of subsection (a) of this section and § 45–1602 authorizing tenant to recover damages from landlord upon proof of failure to furnish minimum service standard to which tenant was entitled on freeze date under this chapter, means having a right to, and indicates that service standard consists only of services tenant was entitled to as of right on freeze date, and not those which were furnished gratuitously or as a matter of courtesy. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

In order to entitle tenant to recover damages from landlord for violation of minimum service standard under subsection (a) of this section and § 45–1602, such service need not be specifically contracted for in lease or rental agreement. Roumel v. Goldberg (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 46 A. 2d 114).

Where apartment contained a refrigerator at time of rental to defendants, and administrator in determining rent for apartment, also determined that rent was based upon a minimum service standard including repairs, landlord was required to keep refrigerator in repair regardless of agreement relieving landlord of duty to keep refrigerator in repair. Block v. Wilson (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 493).

Where tenant claimed that there was a violation of the service standard because the furniture in her apartment was not of the value indicated by the landlord, it is the furniture and not the value of it which constitutes the service. The tenant should have applied to the administrator for a reduction in rent as she is permitted to do if she felt the apartment did not warrant the maximum rent. Astin v. Phillips (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 690).

Where tenants of an apartment house sued their landlord for damages for his alleged refusal to render services as required by the applicable minimum service standard, the evidence supported a finding that those services applied only to those rented on a daily or hotel basis and not to tenants' apartments. Astin v. Phillips (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 690).

There was substantial evidence to support the view that the minimum service standard for the premises included the making of repairs to the roof by the landlord, and there was also substantial evidence to support the view that the repairs were refused. Bond v. Pinchot and Pinchot v. Bond (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 213).

There was ample evidence in the record to support trial court's findings that landlord refused to supply the services requested, i. e., heat, hot water and maintenance of the apartment in habitable conditions. Block v. Gates (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 215, modified on other grounds, 68 A. 2d 898).

A tenant is under no duty and generally has no right to attempt to repair those parts of a central system outside his own apartment. Goldberg v. Charles C. Koones & Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 495).

To have a refusal of services within the meaning of the Rent Act, the landlord must have some knowledge of the need for the services and an opportunity to furnish them. Bischoff v. Person (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 716).

STANDARD OF RECOVERY

Tenants must rely on the Rent Act for their remedies and consequently they must also rely on it for their standard of recovery. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 69 A. 2d 274).

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

The rule is well settled in this jurisdiction that a suit under the District of Columbia Emergency Rent Act for the recovery of rent overcharges is governed by the general three-year limitation contained in Code 1940, § 12–201, as an action, the limitations of which is not otherwise specially prescribed. Lustine v. Williams (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 900).

SUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE

Evidence justified landlord's recovery of rented premises on ground that they were rented for office purposes and were being used by tenant for living purposes, and denial of the tenant's counterclaim on ground that rent charged on a commercial basis was illegal under this chapter because the premises constituted "housing accommodations," within the meaning of section 1611 (a) of this title. De Bobula v. Winston (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 57 A. 2d 742).

Evidence authorized conviction of landlord of violating this chapter by willfully violating order of rent administrator requiring the filing of an application for determination of a maximum rent ceiling. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

Evidence sustained finding that there had been no failure on part of landlord to render minimum services under this chapter to apartment tenant seeking damages. Zindler v. Buchanon (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 61 A. 2d 616).

Where, on statutory freeze date, service supplied by landlords included, among other things, window shades, refrigerator, and repairs inside and outside, and the uncontradicted evidence showed that landlords had refused to furnish window shades or refrigerator and had failed or refused to do any decorating or to make other essential repairs, a prima facie case was made out by tenant that he was entitled to some damages, if no more than the $50 named in this section. Baker v. Rosen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 58 A. 2d 687).

Question whether repairs or remodeling constitute new housing is ordinarily a question of fact. Lustine v. Williams (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 900).

Where landlord acted on claim that the premises, when rented at the lowest figure, were unfurnished, whereas they were rented furnished to the tenant and that the furnished premises were new accommodations not subject to the old rent ceiling and further, where tenant disputed this, claiming that the furniture never belonged to the landlord but was formerly owned by a previous tenant, trial court was justified in finding either that the furniture was not supplied by the landlord or if it was, that its addition did not result in new accommodations. Turner v. Bowman (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 68 A. 2d 231).

Where trial judge ruled as a matter of law that there had been no substantial change or alteration so as to constitute new accommodations, such ruling is substantiated where the findings of fact are supported by the evidence. Cummings v. Peters (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 516).

A refusal of services as contemplated by the Act need not be explicit, and a repeated failure to perform a duty may be equivalent to a refusal. Bischoff v. Person (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 73 A. 2d 716).

THIRD PARTY PRACTICE

Where a third party defendant was not served with notice of the motion for summary judgment, such a defendant was deprived of no rights by such failure and cannot complain. Court properly exercised its discretion in passing on the motion. Schwartz v. Sandidge (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 869).

WILLFUL VIOLATION

To establish a "willful" violation of this chapter, only proof of a knowing violation is required, and specific proof of malice or bad purpose is not contemplated. Watkins v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 227).

§ 45–1611. Definitions.

As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "housing accommodations" means any building, structure or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes in the District of Columbia (including, but without limitation, houses, apartments, hotels, rooming- or boarding-house accommodations, and other properties used for living or dwelling purposes) together with all services supplied in connection with the use or occupancy of such property.

(b) The term "services" includes the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, furnishings, furniture, window shades, screens, awnings, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, janitor service, the removal of refuse, and the making of all repairs suited to the housing accommodations or necessitated by ordinary wear and tear, and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

(c) The term "rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received per day, week, month, year, or other period of time as the case may be, for the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease for such accommodations.

(d) The term "maximum-rent ceiling" means the maximum rent which may be demanded or received for the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or the transfer of a lease for such accommodations.

(e) The term "minimum-service standard" means the minimum service which may be supplied in connection with the renting or leasing of housing accommodations.

(f) The term "tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

(g) The term "landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, or other person entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

(h) The term "person" includes one or more individuals, firms, partnerships, corporations, or associations and any agent, trustee, receiver, assignee, or other representative thereof.

(i) The term "documents" includes leases, agreements, records, books, accounts, correspondence, memoranda, and other documents, and drafts and copies of any of the foregoing. (Dec. 2, 1941, 55 Stat. 794, ch. 553, § 11.)

SEPARABILITY PROVISIONS, APPROPRIATIONS AND SHORT TITLE

SECS. 12–14 of the act of Dec. 2, 1941, cited to text, provided:

"SEC. 12. SEPARABILITY.—If any provision of this Act or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the Act and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

"SEC. 13. APPROPRIATION.—There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such funds as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, to be paid out of money in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia not otherwise appropriated.

"SEC. 14. SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Emergency Rent Act'."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANIMALS ON PREMISES

Where tenants brought their dogs into building after effective date of this chapter, right to keep dogs on leased premises was neither a "privilege" nor a "facility" within this chapter, and therefore this chapter did not preclude landlord from exercising right under lease to revoke permission to keep dogs. Mee v. Marlyn Apartment Co. (D. C. 1943, 31 A. 2d 864).

The right to keep a dog in leased premises was neither a "privilege" nor a "facility" within this chapter, and therefore this chapter did not preclude landlord from exercising right under lease to revoke permission to keep dog. Shay v. Randall H. Hagner & Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 38 A. 2d 617).

COUNTERCLAIMS

This chapter permitting landlord to petition Rent Administrator for increased rentals based upon operating costs, or capital improvements or alterations, is exclusive, and landlord sued for penalty on account of exaction of rent in excess of ceiling could not maintain counterclaim for rental value of furnishings of apartment. Norris v. Rael (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 766).

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS

Leased property, used and operated by hold-over tenant as rooming house, constituted "housing accommodations" within this chapter, so as to preclude landlord from recovering possession of property for purpose of continuing such operation, though tenant was operating establishment as business for profit and did not personally live in house. Lingo v. Wolfe (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 37 A. 2d 270).

Business property not used for dwelling purposes was not governed by this chapter. J. & J. Slater, Inc. v. Brainerd (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 714).

Where premises rented on critical date under this chapter, was a frame building described as a "shack", and after that date a new owner installed water, plumbing and electricity and a bathroom with tub and overhanging shower, finished walls, installed electric refrigerator and electrically controlled kerosene furnace, rebuilt front entrance, planted flowers in yard and made repairs and completely furnished the house except for silver and linen, the completely equipped and furnished house was a new "housing accommodation" within § 1602 (1) which was not rented on critical date so that ceiling rent was the rent generally prevailing for comparable housing accommodations. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844).

Where apartment in rear of first floor could not be rented or used conveniently except in connection with use of front room occupied by barber shop, and was never separately rented, but first floor was treated as a unit, rent being based primarily upon commercial use of the barber shop, second floor which was continuously used for dwelling and had separate entrance, but not first floor was within subsection (a) of this section. Ridolfi v. Benton (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 58 A. 2d 723).

The definition of housing accommodations seems plainly to prescribe that the use of the premises shall determine whether the Rent Act is to apply and this seems to be the test even though the property is zoned for commercial use. When so zoned, it must be used commercially to be free from the control of the Rent Act. White v. Allen (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 70 A. 2d 252, see also 70 A. 2d 613).

LANDLORD

One who purchased an apartment in co-operative building and pursuant thereto acquired stock in corporate owner of building and a proprietary lease for 99 years with right of 100-year renewals was a "landlord" within subsection (g) of this section and was entitled to maintain suit for possession of her apartment for own personal use. Hicks v. Bigelow (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 55 A. 2d 924).

Under subsection (g) of this section the person suing for possession need not be the owner of a fee simple title, but it is sufficient if the plaintiff is the landlord. Mancuso v. Santucci (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 697).

The Act contains no express reference to the United States as a landlord or to the application of the Act to government-owned housing of any kind, and does not apply to government housing in the District. United States v. Wittek, 1949 (69 S. Ct. 1108, 337 U. S. 346, 93 L. Ed. 1906).

Evidence entitles the purchaser of perpetual use and equity contract to the rights of a landlord within the Rent Act when the substantial nature of these rights rather than the form of the transaction is considered. Abbot v. Bralove (D. C. D. C. 1948, 81 F. Supp. 532, aff'd 176 F. 2d 64, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

The defendant purchasers of a cooperative apartment, because of their proprietary rights, voice in the management of the building, voice in any proposed sale or mortgage of the property, plus the exclusive right to perpetual occupancy of an apartment in the dwelling, and other facts of ownership, are landlords within the definitions contained in the Rent Act. Abbot v. Bralove (D. C. D. C. 1948, 81 F. Supp. 532, aff'd 176 F. 2d 64, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

PERSON

Religious corporation which furnished free food and shelter to its students was a "person" and was capable of using house for "occupancy as a dwelling" within provision of § 45–1605 authorizing a landlord to recover possession from a tenant if he seeks in good faith to recover possession for his immediate and personal use and occupancy as a dwelling. Hoffman v. Apostolic Works (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 848).

A defendant signing lease as agent for undisclosed landlord and contracting therein for payment of overceiling rent was a "person" against whom tenant could bring action for overceiling rent under section 1610 of this title. Mayer v. Buchanan (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 50 A. 2d 595).

Where broker is authorized to receive rent for landlord, he is a "person" within meaning of the Rent Act and liable to tenant for over-charges, and it is no defense that he is not a party to the lease. Dunning v. Randall Hagner Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 770).

RENT

Landlord's contention that monthly payments were paid under an agreement for the right to sub-let is untenable. The payments constitute rent because the subletting was a use of the apartment and anything paid for such use constitutes rent. Perper v. Danford (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 63 A. 2d 773).

Making a security deposit in connection with the rental of housing accommodations constitutes both a detriment to the tenant and a benefit to the landlord within the classical definition of consideration and is within the term "rent." Block v. Gates (D. C. Mun. App. 1949, 66 A. 2d 215, modified on other grounds, 68 A. 2d 898).

RIGHT TO POSSESSION

Where plaintiff sued for possession of property purchased at foreclosure sale, against defendant who had previously owned the property but had defaulted on the second trust note, the defense that, when the deed to trust was foreclosed, defendants automatically became tenants at will under § 45–822 and could not be ousted by reason of § 45–1605, is not applicable as the property did not constitute housing accommodations within the meaning of § 45–1611. Surratt v. Real Estate Exchange, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1950, 76 A. 2d 587).

TENANT

A lessee who has sued to rescind lease is not a "person entitled to the use or occupancy" of premises within definition of "tenant" in this chapter, and hence cannot retain possession. Friedman v. Kennedy (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 40 A. 2d 72).

A tenant who had sublet the leased premises and was not in possession thereof, although entitled to possession, was a "tenant" within meaning of this chapter and was entitled to the protection thereof until dispossessed by the landlord. Hall v. Henry J. Robb, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 863).

Where tenant terminated tenancy by notice acceptable to landlord but tenant's estranged wife remained in possession after lease was terminated, she was no longer "entitled" to occupancy within meaning of subsection (f) of this section. Scott v. H. G. Smithy Co. (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 53 A. 2d 45).

The occupant of one room in a house for whom owners provided furnishings, linens, towels, and daily maid service was a "roomer" and not a "tenant". Tamamian v. Gabbard (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 513).

The fact that occupancy relates to one room only is not decisive as to whether occupant is a "roomer" or a "tenant", since tenancy may exist with respect to a single room. Tamamian v. Gabbard (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 55 A. 2d 513).

UNIT FOR RENT CEILINGS

The unit for which a rent ceiling is fixed by this chapter is not the real estate or the premises but the combination of real estate, all personal property, all facilities and all services connected with the use or occupancy and for which rent was payable. Delsnider v. Gould (App. D. C. 1946, 154 F. 2d 844). See also, James v. Noorbolm (D. C. Mun. App. 1946, 47 A. 2d 105).

Chapter 17.—SERVICEMEN'S READJUSTMENT

Sec.

45–1701. Disability of minority removed—Investment by building associations.
45–1702. Direct-reduction loans authorized.

§ 45–1701. Disability of minority removed—Investment by building associations.

(a) The disability of minority of a resident of the District of Columbia who is eligible for guaranty of a loan pursuant to chapter 11C of title 38, United States Code, and of a minor spouse of any such resident (when acting jointly with such resident) is hereby removed with respect to the incurring of any obligation all or part of which is guaranteed under the provisions of said chapter or in conjunction with which a secondary loan is so guaranteed, and with respect to the exercise of the rights of ownership in any property acquired with the proceeds of any such obligation, including the right to sell, convey, lease, encumber, improve, or maintain the same and to further obligate himself incident to his exercise of such rights.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any building association or building and loan association or any savings and loan association, incorporated or unincorporated, organized and operating under the laws of the District of Columbia, or any Federal savings and loan association whose main office is in the District of Columbia, may invest its funds in: (1) Property-improvement loans insured or insurable under sections 1701–1706 of Title 12, United States Code; (2) loans to veterans of World War II when guaranteed in whole or in part by a loan guaranty certificate issued under chapter 11C of title 38, United States Code, including, without limitation, such loans as are unsecured and such loans as are junior to another mortgage or lien upon the security; and (3) other secured or unsecured loan for property alteration, repair, or improvement or for home equipment: Provided, That no such unsecured loan not insured or guaranteed by a Federal agency shall be made in excess of $2,000: Provided further, That the total amount loaned or invested and held in unsecured loans not insured or guaranteed by a Federal agency as provided for under this subsection at any one time shall not exceed 15 per centum of the association's assets. (May 1, 1946, 60 Stat. 159, ch. 245, § 2.)

SHORT TITLE

Section 1 of the Act of May 1, 1946, cited to text provided: "That this Act [this chapter] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Servicemen's Readjustment Enabling Act of 1945'."

§ 45–1702. Direct-reduction loans authorized.

Any building association, building and loan association, or savings and loan association organized and operating under the laws of the District of Columbia, is authorized to lend money to veterans of World War II and others upon the security of a first deed of trust or first mortgage upon real estate, to be repaid in monthly or quarterly payments to be applied first to interest and the balance to principal until the indebtedness is paid in full, and without subscription to, or ownership of any shares, and such loans shall be known as direct-reduction loans. Direct-reduction-loan borrowers, and all persons assuming or obligated under direct-reduction loans made or held by such association shall be members of the association, and at all meetings of the members of the association, each borrower or each obligor upon a direct-reduction loan shall be entitled to one vote as such member. (May 1, 1946, 60 Stat. 159, ch. 245, § 3.)

§ 46–102 [8: 252]. Inmate of institution applying for relief—Definition of "needy blind person."

As used in this chapter, the term "needy blind person" shall be construed to mean any person who by reason of the loss or impairment of eyesight is of such condition that he can not be rehabilitated for self-support through the facilities offered by the Vocational Rehabilitation Service for the District of Columbia, United States Office of Education, and who is unable to provide himself with the necessities of life and who has not sufficient means of his own to maintain himself and who is otherwise qualified as further set forth in this chapter, and nothing in this chapter shall prevent any blind person in sound mental and physical condition who is an inmate of an institution for the care of the indigent from applying for the benefits under this chapter on the condition that they leave such institution upon the granting of such relief. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 744, ch. 639, § 2.)

§ 46–103 [8: 253]. Eligibility for aid—Age—Residence—Liability of relatives for.

In order that any person who shall have become blind while a resident of the District of Columbia may be entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter such person must be at least sixteen years of age and a resident of the District of Columbia for one year next preceding his application for aid hereunder: Provided, That in order that any person whose blindness originated while he was not a resident of the District of Columbia may be entitled to aid hereunder, such person must be at least twenty-one years of age and must have been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia for a period of five years during the nine years immediately preceding the filing of his application for aid hereunder and must have resided in the District of Columbia continuously for at least one year immediately preceding the date of the application: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or render void, so far as blind persons are concerned, any existing statutes which create or define a liability on the part of certain persons to support and provide for poor relatives. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 744, ch. 639, § 3.)

§ 46–104 [8: 254]. Application for aid—Affidavit—Contents.

To receive aid under this chapter, the applicant shall file his application with the Board or its designated agency, accompanied by an affidavit signed by himself stating his age, sex, places of residence during the period stipulated in the District of Columbia, his financial resources, and incomes, the name and address of his next of kin, degree of blindness, how long blind, what employment he has had, his general physical condition, and such other information as the Board or its designated agency may designate. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 4.)

§ 46–105 [8: 255]. Evidence of blindness—Amount of aid—Appeal from agency.

No aid shall be granted hereunder until the board or its designated agency is satisfied from the evidence of at least two reputable citizens of the District of Columbia that they know the applicant has the residential qualifications to entitle him to the aid asked for, and from the evidence of a duly licensed and practicing oculist whose duty it shall be to describe the condition of the applicant's eyes and to testify to his blindness, which evidence shall be in writing subscribed to by such witnesses, subject to the right of cross-examination by either the Board or its designated agency; and if the Board or its designated agency is satisfied by such testimony that the applicant is entitled to aid hereunder, it shall, without delay, allow such sum as it finds needed: Provided, That no aid shall be furnished any individual with respect to any period with respect to which he is receiving old-age assistance: Provided further, That in the case of a blind dependent child living with its parents or parent such aid shall not exceed $30 per month: And provided further, That any agency designated by the Board hereunder shall transmit to the Board a record of its actions in granting or refusing to grant aid to each blind applicant, and any blind applicant who is dissatisfied with the finding of such agency regarding his application for aid, may appeal to the Board who shall grant such applicant a full hearing, after reasonable notice, and shall then consider the application; and, if a majority of the Board in attendance at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall find that the applicant is entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter, they shall then and there award such aid as they deem proper.

On the death of a recipient of aid under this Act such reasonable funeral expenses as the Board or its designated agency may deem necessary may be paid for the burial of such person and such funeral expenses so paid may be recovered in the same manner as provided in sections 46–111 and 46–112 for the recovery of amounts expended as aid. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 5; Aug. 21, 1941, 55 Stat. 656, ch. 391, § 1.)

The act of Aug. 21, 1941, cited to text, added the last sentence.

§ 46–106 [8: 256]. Aid to blind person—Increase or decrease of allowance—Appeal—Aid pending appeal.

The Board or its designated agency shall investigate annually, or oftener, the qualifications of blind persons who receive aid hereunder, and may increase or decrease the allowance within the limits prescribed by this chapter; or if said designated agency is satisfied that any person receiving aid under this chapter is not entitled to such aid, it shall discontinue such aid and shall forthwith notify such person and the Board of such action: Provided, however, That the person receiving such aid may take an appeal to the Board from such action as if it were an original application for aid: And provided further, That such an appeal must be filed within sixty days from the notification by the designated agency to the beneficiary hereunder of the intended reduction or discontinuance of aid. If any such appeal be filed, the said aid shall be restored pending the findings of the board on said appeal. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 6.)

§ 46–107 [8: 257]. Blind person receiving aid not to solicit alms.

No persons shall be eligible to receive aid under the provisions of this chapter who, after receiving said aid publicly solicits alms in any manner, either by wearing, carrying, or exhibiting signs denoting blindness for the securing of alms, or by any signs calling attention to blindness exhibited on wares and merchandise, or the carrying of receptables for the purpose of securing alms, or the doing of the same by proxy or by stationary or house-to-house begging, or any other means of publicly securing aid. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 7.)

§ 46–108 [8: 258]. Aid to blind person to cease on removal from District of Columbia—Temporary absence.

Any person qualifying for and receiving aid hereunder who removes himself from the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia and thereby ceases to be a resident shall no longer be entitled to the benefits and aid under the provisions of this chapter. Absence for a reasonable length of time, as designated by the Board, shall not work a forfeiture hereunder. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 8.)

§ 46–109 [8: 259]. Refusal to work—Refusal to submit to treatment.

The benefits hereof shall not be granted to any person between the ages of sixteen and fifty-five years who, having no occupation and being both physically and mentally capable of some useful occupation, or of receiving vocational or other training, refuses for any reason to engage in such useful occupation, or refuses to avail himself of such vocational or other training: Provided, That no person shall be entitled to the benefits of this chapter who shall refuse to submit to any treatment or operation for blindness when such treatment or operation is recommended by three examining oculists and approved by the Board or its designated agency. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 9.)

§ 46–110 [8: 260]. No benefits when intentional destruction of eyesight—Loss of eyesight through crime or vicious habits.

No person shall be eligible to the benefits of this chapter who shall hereafter either intentionally deprive himself of his eyesight or assist in the destruction thereof by others; or hereafter shall lose his eyesight during the perpetration of a criminal offense; or shall hereafter lose his eyesight by reason of vicious habits. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 10.)

§ 46–111 [8: 261]. Liability of relatives for aid to blind person—Agency authorized to recover amount paid.

The kindred of any person otherwise entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter, in line and degree of spouse, father, child, or grandchild, living in the District of Columbia and of sufficient ability so to do shall be bound to support such person, in the order above named and in proportion to their respective ability. If at any time during the continuance of aid the Board of Commissioners, or its designated agency has reason to believe that a spouse, father, child, or grandchild is reasonably able to assist him, it shall be empowered to bring suit, after notifying such person of the amount of such aid, against such spouse, father, child, or grandchild to recover the amount of such aid provided under this chapter, or such part thereof as such spouse, father, child, or grandchild was reasonably able to pay. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 11.)

§ 46–112 [8: 262]. Deduction of aid to blind persons from estates of assisted persons—Transfer of property to Board or agency as security.

At the death of a recipient of aid under this chapter, or of the last survivor of a married couple either one of whom have received aid, the total amount of aid since the first grant, together with simple interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, shall be deducted and allowed by the proper courts out of the proceeds of his property as a preferred claim against the estate of the person so assisted, and refunded to the Treasurer of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, leaving the balance for distribution among the lawful heirs in accordance with law: Provided, That upon sufficient cause, such as mismanagement, failure to keep in repair, or the inability of any recipient of aid properly to manage his property, the designated agency of the Board may demand the assignment or transfer of such property, or a proper part thereof, upon the first grant of such aid, or at any time thereafter that it deems advisable for the purpose of safeguarding the interest of any applicant or for the protection of the funds of the District of Columbia. Such agency shall establish such rules and regulations regarding the care, management, transfer, and sale of such property as it deems advisable and shall provide for the return of the balance of the claimant's property into his hands whenever the assistance is withdrawn or the claimant ceases to request it. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 12.)

§ 46–113 [8: 263]. Penalty for fraud in obtaining allowance for blind person.

Any person who attempts to obtain, or obtains, by false representation, fraud, or deceit, any allowance under this chapter, or who receives any allowance knowing it to have been fraudulently obtained, or who aids or assists any person in obtaining or attempting to obtain an allowance by fraud, shall upon conviction in the police court of the District of Columbia be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 13.)

§ 46–114 [8: 264]. Appropriation for — Accounts — Appointment of one to stand in loco parentis.

In order to carry out the provisions of this chapter there is authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, the sum of $75,000, payable from the revenues of the District of Columbia, and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937, and annually thereafter, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall include in the estimate of appropriations for said District of Columbia, such an amount as may be necessary for this purpose; and the Board shall assign such personnel in the employ of the District of Columbia as may be necessary to administer this chapter and said Board or its designated agency shall keep and render separate account of the funds expended and separate statistical reports of the persons aided, under the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That whenever necessary said Board shall appoint an acceptable member of the personnel to stand in loco parentis to any minor qualifying for aid hereunder. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 14.)

§ 46–115 [8: 265]. Board of Commissioners—Cooperation with Social Security Board.

The Board of Commissioners or its designated agency is hereby authorized and directed to cooperate in all necessary respects with the Social Security Board of the United States Government in the administration of this chapter, and to accept any sums allotted or apportioned by such Board as are available under the provisions of the Social Security Act. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 15.)

§ 46–116 [8:266]. Care for blind—Liberal construction—Saving clause.

The provisions of this chapter are to be liberally construed to effect its objects and purposes, and if any section, subsection, or subdivision of this chapter is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 16.)

Chapter 2.—OLD-AGE ASSISTANCE

46–204. Old-age assistance inalienable and exempt from levy.
46–205. Recipient of old-age assistance—Reasonable funeral expenses authorized.
46–206. Application for old-age assistance.
46–207. Investigation of applicant for assistance.
46–208. Change or suspension of old-age assistance.
46–209. Inquiry into old-age assistance improperly obtained.
46–210. Old-age assistance obtained by fraud—Penalty.
46–211. Liability of relatives for support—Suit to recover.
46–212. Estate of recipient liable for assistance—Transfer of property to board as security.
46–213. Appropriation for old-age assistance.
46–214. Expenses for old-age assistance to be paid as other expenses.
46–215. Board of Commissioners—Cooperation with Federal Social Security Board.

§ 46–201 [8: 281]. Old-age assistance—Definitions.

The care and assistance of aged persons who are in need and whose physical or other condition or disabilities seem to render permanent their inability to provide properly for themselves is hereby declared to be a special matter of public concern and a necessity in promoting the public health and welfare. To provide such care and assistance at public expense a system of old-age assistance is hereby established for the District of Columbia. The term "assistance" whenever used in this chapter shall be construed to include relief, aid, care, or support. The pronoun "he" or "his" when used herein shall be construed to include persons of either sex. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 640, § 1.)

§ 46–202 [8: 282]. Eligibility—Age—Residence requirements—Other relief not given except medical aid.

Assistance may be granted only to an applicant who (a) is a citizen of the United States; (b) has attained the age of sixty-five years or upward; (c) has resided in the District of Columbia for five years or more within the nine years immediately preceding application for assistance, and who has resided therein continuously for one year immediately preceding the said application; (d) is not at the time of making application an inmate of any prison, jail, workhouse, insane asylum, or any other public reformatory or correctional institution; (e) is not a habitual tramp or beggar; (f) has no child or other person financially able to support him and legally responsible for his support; and (g) has not made a voluntary assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of qualifying for such assistance.

During the continuance of the old-age assistance no recipient shall receive any other relief from the District of Columbia except for medical and surgical and nursing care. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 2.)

§ 46–203 [8: 283]. Agency to administer old-age assistance—Amount—Reference to Home for Aged and Infirm—Hearing and Review.

The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall administer old-age assistance under this chapter through such agent or agency as it may designate. It shall prescribe the form of and print and supply the blanks for applications, reports, and affidavits, and such other forms as it may deem advisable, and shall make rules and regulations necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter, and shall make and render any and all reports required by the federal Social Security Board or otherwise authorized or required by law. The amount of the assistance which any such person shall receive, and the manner of providing it, shall be determined by the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, with due regard to the conditions existing in each case. The Board of Commissioners may, in lieu of the assistance herein provided, refer any applicant to the Board of Public Welfare for admission to the Home for Aged and Infirm, whenever, in the judgment of the said Commissioners, such action may be in the public interest or in the best interest of the applicant. Any applicant for old-age assistance whose claim for initial relief or modification of relief is denied may apply to the agency designated by the Commissioners for the administration of this chapter for hearing and review of said claim and the determination of the designated agency on such appeal shall be final except that the Commissioners of the District of Columbia in their discretion may grant a further review of the matters embraced in the aforesaid application.

If, in the opinion of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, the recipient is incapable of taking care of himself or his money, it may direct the payment to any responsible person for the benefit of the pensioner, or may suspend payment if deemed advisable. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 3.)

§ 46–204 [8: 284]. Old-age assistance inalienable and exempt from levy.

All assistance given under this chapter shall be inalienable by any assignment or transfer and shall be exempt from levy or execution under the laws of the United States and the District of Columbia. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 4.)

§ 46–205 [8: 285]. Recipient of old-age assistance—Reasonable funeral expenses authorized.

On the death of a recipient of old-age assistance such reasonable funeral expenses as the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency may deem necessary may be paid for the burial of such person. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 5.)

§ 46–206 [8: 286]. Application for old-age assistance.

A person requesting assistance under this chapter shall make his application therefor to the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency. The person requesting assistance may apply in person, or the application may be made by another in his behalf. The application shall be made in writing and under oath. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 6.)

§ 46–207 [8: 287]. Investigation of applicant for assistance.

Upon the receipt of an application for assistance an investigation and record shall be promptly made of the circumstances of the applicant. The object of such investigation shall be to ascertain the facts supporting the application made under this chapter and such other information as may be required by the rules hereunder formulated. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 7.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 46–208 [8:288]. Change or suspension of old-age assistance.

All assistance under this chapter shall be reviewed from time to time as frequently as may be required by the rules hereunder formulated. After such further investigation as may be deemed necessary the amount and manner of assistance may be changed or the assistance may be withdrawn if it is found that the recipient's circumstances have changed sufficiently to warrant such action, and all cases in which relief is being extended shall be reviewed every six months. It shall be within the power of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency at any time to cancel and revoke assistance and to suspend payments for such periods as it may deem proper. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 8.)

§ 46–209 [8: 289]. Inquiry into old-age assistance improperly obtained.

If at any time the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency has reason to believe that any assistance has been improperly obtained, it shall cause special inquiry to be made. If, on inquiry it appears that it was improperly obtained, it shall be canceled. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 9.)

§ 46–210 [8: 290]. Old-age assistance obtained by fraud—Penalty.

Any person, who by means of a wilfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation, or other fraudulent device, obtains or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain (a) assistance to which he is not justly entitled; (b) a larger amount of assistance than that to which he is justly entitled; (c) payment of any forfeited installment grant; (d) or aids or abets in the buying or in any way disposing of the property of an old-age assistance recipient, without the consent of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $500 or imprisoned for a period not to exceed six months, or both. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 10.)

§ 46–211 [8: 291]. Liability of relatives for support—Suit to recover.

The kindred of any person otherwise entitled to old-age assistance under the provisions of this chapter, in line and degree of spouse, father, child, or grandchild, living in the District of Columbia and of sufficient ability so to do shall be bound to support such person, in the order above named and in proportion to their respective ability. If at any time during the continuance of old-age assistance the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency has reason to believe that a spouse, father, child, or grandchild is reasonably able to assist him, it shall be empowered to bring suit, after notifying such person of the amount of old-age assistance, against such spouse, father, child, or grandchild to recover the amount of assistance provided under the chapter, or such part thereof as such spouse, father, child, or grandchild was reasonably able to pay. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 11.)

§ 46–212 [8: 292]. Estate of recipient liable for assistance—Transfer of property to Board as security.

At the death of recipient of an old-age assistance, or of the last survivor of a recipient married couple, the total amount of assistance since the first grant, together with simple interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, shall be deducted and allowed by the proper courts out of the proceeds of his property as a preferred claim against the estate of the person so assisted, and refunded to the Treasurer of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, leaving the balance for distribution among the lawful heirs in accordance with law: Provided, That upon sufficient cause, such as mismanagement, failure to keep in repair, or the inability of any recipient of assistance properly to manage his property, the designated agency of the Commissioners may demand the assignment or transfer of such property, or a proper part thereof, upon the first grant of such assistance, or at any time thereafter that it deems advisable for the purpose of safeguarding the interest of an applicant or for the protection of the funds of the District of Columbia. Such agency shall establish such rules and regulations regarding the care, management, transfer, and sale of such property as it deems advisable and shall provide for the return of the balance of the claimant's property into his hands whenever the assistance is withdrawn or the claimant ceases to request it. If the District of Columbia collects from the estate of any recipient of old-age assistance any amount with respect to old-age assistance furnished him under this chapter, one-half of the net amount so collected shall be paid to the United States in accordance with the provisions of title 42, sections 301–306, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 12.)

§ 46–213 [8: 293]. Appropriation for old-age assistance.

Congress shall appropriate annually and make available to the order of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia such sums as may be needed to pay the share of the District of Columbia for old-age assistance, provided under this chapter together with a sufficient sum to defray its share of the administrative expenses to be incurred in connection therewith, and include such sums in the annual District of Columbia Appropriation Act. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for the purposes for which it was appropriated, additional sums shall be appropriated by Congress as occasion demands to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, ch. 640, § 13.)

§ 46–214 [8: 294]. Expenses for old-age assistance to be paid as other expenses.

All necessary expenses incurred by the District of Columbia in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the District of Columbia are paid. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, ch. 640, § 14.)

§ 46–215 [8: 295]. Board of Commissioners—Cooperation with Federal Social Security Board.

The Board of Commissioners or its designated agency is hereby authorized and directed to cooperate in all necessary respects with the Social Security Board of the United States Government in the administration of this chapter, and to accept any sums allotted or apportioned by such Board as are available under the provisions of Title 42, chapter

7, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, ch. 640, § 15.)

§ 46–301 [8: 311]. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise—

(a) The term "employer" means every individual and type of organization for whom services are performed in employment;

(b) (1) "Employment" means any service performed prior to the effective date of this chapter which was employment as defined in this Act prior to such date, and subject to the other provisions of this subsection, service performed on and after the effective date of this Act, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract of hire, written or oral, express or implied;

(2) The term "employment" shall include an individual's entire service, performed within or both within and without the District if—

(A) the service is localized in the District; or

(B) the service is not localized in any State but some of the service is performed in the District and (i) the individual's base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, then the place from which such service is directed or controlled, is in the District; or (ii) the individual's base of operations or place from which such service is directed or controlled is not in any State in which some part of the service is performed but the individual's residence is in the District.

(3) Services covered by an arrangement pursuant to section 46–316 between the Board and the agency charged with the administration of any other State or Federal unemployment compensation law, pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employer are deemed to be performed entirely within the District, shall be deemed to be employment if the Board has approved an election of the employer for whom such services are performed, pursuant to which the entire service of such individual during the period covered by such election is deemed to be employment for an employer.

(4) Service shall be deemed to be localized within a State if—

(A) the service is performed entirely within such State; or

(B) the service is performed both within and without such State, but the service performed without such State is incidental to the individual's service within the State, for example, is temporary or transitory in nature or consists of isolated transactions.

(5) The term "employment" shall not include—

(A) domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority;

(B) casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business;

(C) service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one in the employ of his father or mother;

(D) service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States which is (a) wholly owned by the United States, or (b) exempt from the tax imposed by section 1600 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (26 U. S. C.) or by virtue of any other provision of law: Provided, That, in the event that the Congress of the United States, on or before the date of the enactment of the chapter, has permitted or in the event that the Congress of the United States shall permit States to require any instrumentalities of the United States to make contributions to an unemployment fund under a State unemployment compensation law, then, to the extent so permitted by Congress, and from and after the date as of which such permission becomes effective, or January 1, 1940, whichever is the later, all of the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to such instrumentalities in the same manner, to the same extent, and on the same terms as to all other employees, individuals, and services: Provided further, That if the District of Columbia should not be certified by the Social Security Board under section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.) for any year, the payments required of any instrumentality of the United States or its employees with respect to such year shall be refunded by the District Unemployment Compensation Board in accordance with the provisions of section 46–304 (i): Provided, however, That any employer required to make retroactive payment of any contributions shall be given thirty days from October 17, 1940, within which to make such retroactive payments without incurring any penalty for the late payment of such contributions and all interest charges shall commence one month from October 17, 1940;

(E) service performed in the employ of the District, or of any other State, or of any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by the District or by one or more States or political subdivisions; and any service performed in the employ of any instrumentality of the District or of one or more States or political subdivisions to the extent that the instrumentality is, with respect to such service, exempt under the Constitution of the United States from the tax imposed by section 1600 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.);

(F) service performed in the employ of a Senator, Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, insofar as such service directly assists him in carrying out his legislative duties;

(G) service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

(H) service with respect to which unemployment compensation is payable under any other unemployment compensation system established by an Act of Congress;

(I) (1) service performed in any calendar quarter in the employ of any organization exempt from income tax under section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (26 U. S. C.), if—

(a) the remuneration for such service does not exceed $45; or

(b) such service is in connection with the collection of dues or premiums for a fraternal beneficiary society, order, or association, and is performed away from the home office, or is ritualistic service in connection with any such society, order, or association; or

(c) such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at a school, college, or university;

(2) service performed in the employ of an agricultural or horticultural organization exempt from income tax under section 101 (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (26 U. S. C.);

(3) service performed in the employ of a voluntary employees' beneficiary association providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such association or their dependents, if (i) no part of its net earnings inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and (ii) 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of making such payments and meeting expenses;

(4) service performed in the employ of a voluntary employees' beneficiary association providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such association or their dependents or their designated beneficiaries, if (i) admission to membership in such association is limited to individuals who are officers or employees of the United States Government, and (ii) no part of the net earnings of such association inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

(5) service performed in any calendar quarter in the employ of a school, college, or university, not exempt from income tax under section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (26 U. S. C.), if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university, and the remuneration for such service does not exceed $45 (exclusive of room, board, and tuition);

(J) service performed in the employ of a foreign government (including service as a consular or other officer or employee or a nondiplomatic representative);

(K) service performed in the employ of an instrumentality wholly owned by a foreign government—

(1) if the service is of a character similar to that performed in foreign countries by employees of the United States Government or of an instrumentality thereof; and

(2) if the Secretary of State shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury that the foreign government, with respect to whose instrumentality exemption is claimed, grants an equivalent exemption with respect to similar service performed in the foreign country by employees of the United States Government and of instrumentalities thereof;

(L) service performed as a student nurse in the employ of a hospital or nurses' training school by an individual who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school chartered or approved pursuant to State law; and service performed as an interne in the employ of a hospital by an individual who has completed a four years' course in a medical school chartered or approved pursuant to State law;

(M) service performed by an individual for a person as an insurance agent or as an insurance solicitor, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission;

(N) service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(O) service covered by an arrangement between the Board and the agency charged with the administration of any other State or Federal unemployment compensation law pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employer during the period covered by such employer's duly approved election are deemed to be performed entirely within such agency's State;

(P) service performed by an individual for a person as a real-estate salesman, real-estate solicitor, or real-estate agent, if all of such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission.

(6) INCLUDED AND EXCLUDED SERVICE.—If the services performed during one-half or more of any pay period by an individual in employment for the person employing him constitute employment, all the services of such individual in employment for such period shall be deemed to be employment; but if the services performed during more than one-half of any such pay period by an individual in employment for the person employing him do not constitute employment, then none of the services of such individual in employment for such period shall be deemed to be employment. As used in this subsection the term "pay period" means a period (of not more than thirty-one consecutive days) for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual in employment by the person employing him. This subsection shall not be applicable with respect to services performed in a pay period by an individual in employment for the person employing him, where any of such service is excepted by paragraph 5 (H) of subsection (b).

(c) "Wages" means all remuneration for personal services, including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash. Gratuities customarily received by an individual in the course of his employment from persons other than his employer shall be treated as wages received from his employer. The reasonable cash value of remuneration in any medium other than cash, and the reasonable amount of gratuities, shall be estimated and determined in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Board, except that such term "wages" shall not include—

(1) that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to any individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year and after December 31, 1939;

(2) the amount of any payment with respect to services performed on and after the effective date of this chapter, made to, or on behalf of, an individual in its employ under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for such individuals generally or for a class or classes of such individuals (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of (A) retirement, or (B) sickness or accident disability, or (C) medical and hospitalization, expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or (D) death, provided such individual (i) has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment or, if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premiums (or contribution to premiums) paid by his employer, and (ii) has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon his withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of his employment with such employer;

(3) the payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the individual in employment) (A) of the tax imposed upon an individual in its employ under section 1400 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.); or

(4) dismissal payments on and after the effective date of this chapter, which the employer is not legally required to make.

(d) "Earnings" means all remuneration payable for personal services, including wages, commissions, and bonuses, and the cash value of all remuneration payable in any medium other than cash whether received from employment, self-employment, or any other work. Gratuities received by an individual in the course of his work shall be treated as earnings. The reasonable cash value of any remuneration payable in any medium other than cash, and a reasonable amount of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Board.

(e) An individual shall be deemed "unemployed" with respect to any week during which he performs no services and with respect to which no earnings are payable to him, or with respect to any week of less than full-time work if the earnings payable to him with respect to such week are less than his weekly benefit amount.

(f) "Base period" means the first four out of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year.

(g) The term "benefits" means the money payments to an individual, as provided in this chapter, with respect to his unemployment.

(h) "Benefit year" with respect to any individual means the fifty-two-consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual first files a valid claim for benefits, and thereafter the fifty-two-consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual next files a valid claim for benefits after the termination of his last preceding benefit year. Any claim for benefits made in accordance with section 46–311 (b) shall be deemed to be a "valid claim" for the purposes of this subsection if the individual has during his base period been paid wages for employment by employers equal to not less than whichever is the lesser of (1) twenty-five times his weekly benefit amount, and (2) $250.

(i) The term "computation date" means the 30th day of June of each year as of which rates of contributions are determined for the next following calendar year, except that the first computation date under the provisions of this chapter shall be the last day of the third calendar quarter immediately preceding the effective date of this chapter, as of which rates of contribution, commencing with the effective date of this chapter, are determined for the remainder of that calendar year.

(j) The term "Board" means the District Unemployment Compensation Board established by section 46–315.

(k) "Calendar quarter" means the period of three consecutive months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, or December 31, or the equivalent thereof as the Board may by regulation prescribe.

(m) The phrase "employment office" means a free public employment office or branch thereof, operated by the Social Security Board or by any department or agency of the United States or by any department or agency of the District of Columbia or any free public employment office maintained as a part of a State-controlled system of public employment offices.

(n) The term "month" means calendar month; except as the Board may otherwise prescribe.

(o) The term "week" means the calendar week or such period of seven consecutive days as the Board may by regulation prescribe.

(p) "Fund" means the District unemployment fund established by section 46–302, to which all contributions required and from which all benefits provided under this chapter shall be paid.

(q) "State" includes, in addition to the States of the United States of America, Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia (herein referred to as the "District").

(r) "Employing unit" means any individual or type of organization, including any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint-stock company, insurance company, or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, or the legal representative of a deceased person, which has, or subsequent to January 1, 1936, had, in its employ one or more individuals performing services for it within the District.

(s) The phrase "dependent relative" means a spouse, mother, father, stepmother, stepfather, brother, or sister, who, because of age or physical disability, is unable to work, or a child under sixteen years of age, or a child who is unable to work because of physical disability, who is wholly or mainly supported by the individual receiving the benefit. For the purposes of this subsection the term "child" shall mean any son, daughter, stepson, or stepdaughter, regardless of age, whom the claimant is morally obligated to support. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 946, ch. 794; § 1; Feb. 13, 1936, 49 Stat. 1138, ch. 68; June 23, 1936, 49 Stat. 1888, ch. 726, § 9; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1112, ch. 680, § 14; Apr. 22, 1940, 54 Stat. 149, ch. 127, § 1; July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 730, ch. 524, § 1; Oct. 17, 1940, 54 Stat. 1204, ch. 898, § 1; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 100, ch. 117.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

In paragraph (h), the 1935 act refers to the Board established by § 15 of that act (§ 46–314 herein). However, the Board is established by § 16 (§ 46–315 herein).

Section 2 of the act approved July 2, 1940, provided as follows:

TRANSITION PROVISIONS

"(a) As used in this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise—

"(1) 'old law' means the unemployment-compensation law prior to its amendment by this title;

"(2) 'new law' means the unemployment-compensation law as amended by this title;

"(3) 'effective date' means the date upon which the new law becomes effective; and

"(4) 'continuous period of compensable unemployment' means a period of unemployment beginning prior to and continuing up to and after the effective date in the case of an individual who, prior to the effective date, has filed a claim for benefits for a week or weeks of unemployment in such period: Provided, That the individual has satisfied the requirements of paragraph 2 of subsection (a) of section 10 of the old law and has not exhausted his rights to benefits pursuant to subsection (b) of section 8 of the old law prior to the effective date.

"(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided in subsection (c) of this section, the new law shall be exclusively applicable with respect to any individual on and after the effective date. No provision of the old law shall be construed to limit or extend the rights of any individual as fixed by the new law, after the new law becomes exclusively applicable with respect to such individual as provided in this section.

"(c) With respect to any individual who is unemployed during a continuous period of compensable unemployment (as defined in paragraph 4 of subsection (a) of this section) sections 1 (d), 8 (a) (insofar as it relates to the determination of the weekly benefit rate for total unemployment), 8 (b), 8 (c), 8 (d), and 10 (a) (2) of the old law shall be exclusively applicable until the expiration of such continuous period of compensable unemployment.

"(d) Upon application by an employer, filed pursuant to suitable regulations by the Board, the Board shall determine the extent to which the employer's contributions paid for the first six months of the calendar year 1940 were in excess of his contributions due for said period under the new law and shall make an adjustment for that amount, without interest, solely in connection with subsequent contributions by him."

AMENDMENTS

Paragraph (7) in subsection (b) was added by the act of Feb. 13, 1936. It was amended by act of June 23, 1936, to read as above. As originally enacted it read: "(7) Service performed in the employ of the following: All religious institutions and schools maintained by them; colleges or universities, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual."

Paragraph (8) of subsection (b) was added by act of June 25, 1938. Paragraph (p) [(b)] was also added by the last-mentioned act.

Paragraph (9) in subsection (b) was added by the act of April 22, 1940. Section 2 of this last-mentioned act provided that said paragraph (9) should "be effective January 1, 1940."

Act of July 2, 1940, added paragraph (b) (10), and the proviso to subsection (c), and substituted subsections (d), (e), and (f) as above for the former subsections which provided as follows:

"(d) The phrase 'weekly wage' as applied to any individual who has been engaged in employment for at least thirty hours in each of twenty-six or more weeks within the period of one hundred and four weeks ending with the week in which such individual was last engaged in employment, means the sum obtained by dividing the total of the wages earned in all the weeks within such period in which he was engaged in employment at least thirty hours by the number of such weeks; and, as applied to any individual who has not been engaged in employment for at least thirty hours in each of twenty-six or more weeks within such period of one hundred and four weeks, means the sum obtained by dividing the total of the wages earned in such period by the total number of weeks within such period in which he was engaged in employment.

"(e) The phrase 'totally unemployed' means that the individual concerned has performed in the particular week no services whatsoever for which remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) is payable, has not engaged in any self-employment, and is found by the Board to have been unable to engage in any self-employment in which he was formerly engaged.

"(f) The phrase 'partially unemployed' means that the individual concerned has failed to earn in the particular week remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) of at least $2 more than the benefit he would be entitled to receive under this Act with respect to such week if totally unemployed and otherwise eligible."

Other amendments made by act of July 2, 1940, were as follows: In subsection (g) the words "or a child who is unable to work because of physical disability" were inserted following the words "sixteen years of age"; in subsection (n), the words "or elsewhere," were inserted after the word "District" and the rest of the sentence omitted. The new subsection (o) was also added by this act.

Act of October 17, 1940, substituted paragraph (4) as above for the former paragraph (4) which read as follows: "(4) service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States." Section 2 of this act provided as follows: "This act shall be effective as of January 1, 1940: Provided, however, That any employer required to make retroactive payment of any contributions shall be given thirty days from the enactment of this Act within which to make such retroactive payments without incurring any penalty for the late payment of such contributions and all interest charges shall commence one month from the date of the enactment of this Act."

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 4, 1943, cited to text, amended section generally.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 25 of act June 4, 1943, cited to text, provided: "This Act (§§ 46–301 to 46–325) shall take effect as of 12:01 antemeridian on the first day of the next succeeding calendar quarter following the enactment of this Act (§§ 46–301 to 46–325)."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARITABLE OR EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATION

In excepting from this chapter service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund or foundation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, etc., Congress included every nonprofit organization designed and operating for the benefit and enlightenment of the community, the State or the Nation, or those organizations commonly designated "charitable" in the law of trusts. International Reform Federation v. District Unemployment Compensation Board, 1942 (131 F. 2d 337, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 282, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 324, 317 U. S. 693, 87 L. Ed. 555).

In the enactment of this chapter it was within discretion of Congress to include charitable or educational institutions on the same terms as business or social organizations or if it included the former, to limit in such way as Congress thought proper the enjoyment of the preferred position, and the language of this section evinces a clear purpose to exclude charitable or educational institutions without limiting the enjoyment of their preferred positions and all that is requisite under this section is that the institution claiming exemption shall be organized and operated exclusively for one of the named purposes. International Reform Federation v. District Unemployment Compensation Board, 1942 (131 F. 2d 337, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 282, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 324, 317 U. S. 693, 87 L. Ed. 555).

In order to be classified as a "charitable corporation" entitled to exemption from payment into fund under this chapter, it is not necessary that corporation's principal objective be to provide for the poor, the sick and the needy. International Reform Federation v. District Unemployment Compensation Board, 1942 (131 F. 2d 337, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 282, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 324, 317 U. S. 693, 87 L. Ed. 555).

The International Reform Federation whose principal purpose and activities were promotion of sociological reform, suppression of gambling and political corruption, substitution of arbitration and conciliation for both industrial and international war, suppression of the white slave traffic, harmful drugs and kindred evils, was exempt as a "charitable or educational corporation" from the chapter, and was not affected by incidental political activities. International Reform Federation v. District Unemployment Compensation Board, 1942 (131 F. 2d 337, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 282, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 324, 317 U. S. 693, 87 L. Ed. 555).

Where New York corporation formed for improvement of its members in marksmanship, and to promote introduction of system of rifle practice as part of military drill of National Guard, and to provide suitable range, was organized under McKinney's N. Y. membership corporations law, for incorporation of societies for social and recreative purposes, the corporation was not "organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes" within this section exempting corporation organized for such purposes from liability for unemployment contributions. National Rifle Ass'n of America v. Young, 1943 (134 F. 2d 524, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 290).

In determining whether corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within exemption clause in this section, recourse must be had to its charter and the statute under the authority of which it was organized. National Rifle Ass'n of America v. Young, 1943 (134 F. 2d 524, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 290).

A corporation, whose object in part, as indicated by its charter, was for the mutual welfare, protection, and improvement of business methods among merchants and for protecting the interests of certain classes of businesses to enable them to profitably conduct their business, was not exempt as organized exclusively for "educational or scientific purposes" from this chapter, notwithstanding corporation's purposes were to be accomplished by educational methods. Better Business Bureau of Washington, D. C. v. District Unemployment Compensation Board (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 614).

CONSTRUCTION

Exemptions from taxation in general, and especially exemptions from unemployment contributions under this chapter, are to be strictly construed. National Rifle Ass'n of America v. Young, 1943 (134 F. 2d 524, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 290).

This chapter should be liberally construed to accomplish their purposes and extend their coverage with consequent strict construction of exemption provisions of this section. Better Business Bureau of Washington, D. C. v. District Unemployment Compensation Board (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 614).

The contributions required by this chapter are "taxes", and exemptions from such taxes are strictly construed. Better Business Bureau of Washington, D. C. v. District Unemployment Compensation Board (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 614).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

In ascertaining whether a corporation organized under § 29–601 relating to benevolent, charitable, educational, and similar corporations was exempt from this chapter, said section must be considered but said section cannot be conclusive in face of specific objects selected by corporation for inclusion in its charter. Better Business Bureau of Washington, D. C. v. District Unemployment Compensation Board (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 614).

DETERMINATION OF EXEMPTION

To come within exemption of this section, corporation must be organized and operated exclusively for one or more of named purposes, and, though its primary purpose is within exemption, it cannot have benefit thereof if it has other purposes beyond scope of exemption. Better Business Bureau of Washington, D. C. v. District Unemployment Compensation Board (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 34 A. 2d 614).

PURPOSE

Where this section exempted service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund or foundation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, without including the limitation that no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, which appeared in other laws, intent of Congress was to make the exception apply where the primary and exclusive purpose was religious, charitable or educational. International Reform Federation v. District Unemployment

Compensation Board, 1942 (131 F. 2d 337, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 282, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 324, 317 U. S. 693, 87 L. Ed. 555).

§ 46–302 [8: 312]. District Unemployment Fund.

(a) There is hereby established the District unemployment fund, as a special deposit in the Treasury of the United States, into which shall be paid all contributions received or collected pursuant to this chapter and from which shall be paid all benefits and refunds provided for under this chapter. The fund shall consist of three separate accounts: (1) A clearing account, (2) an unemployment-trust-fund account, and (3) a benefit account, and be managed and controlled by the Board in the manner provided in this Act; and the Board shall keep complete and accurate accounts of the status of the fund and shall include a statement of such status in its yearly report to Congress. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 947, ch. 794, § 2; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 105, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 4, 1943, cited to text, amended section generally.

§ 46–303 [8: 313]. Employer contributions.

(a) Each employer who employs one or more individuals in any employment shall for each month, beginning with the month of January 1936 and ending December 31, 1939, pay contributions equal to the following percentages of the total wages payable (regardless of the time of payment) with respect to such employment by him during such month:

(1) With respect to employment during the calendar year 1936, the rate shall be 1 per centum;

(2) With respect to employment during the calendar year 1937, the rate shall be 2 per centum;

(3) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1938 and 1939, the rate shall be 3 per centum.

(b) Each employer shall pay contributions equal to 2.7 per centum of wages paid by him during the calendar year 1940 and thereafter, until the effective date of this chapter, with respect to employment after December 31, 1939.

(c) FUTURE RATES BASED ON BENEFIT EXPERIENCE.—

(1) The Board shall maintain a separate account for each employer, and shall credit his account with all of the contributions paid by him after June 30, 1939, with respect to employment subsequent to May 31, 1939.

(2) Benefits paid to an individual with respect to any week of unemployment which was based on an initial claim filed after June 30, 1939, and before July 1, 1940, shall be charged against the account of his most recent employer. Benefits paid to an individual on an initial claim for benefits filed after June 30, 1940, shall be charged against the accounts of his base period employers. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total amount of the base period wages paid to the individual by all of his base period employers.

(3) The standard rate of contributions payable by each employer shall be 2.7 per centum.

(4) (i) No employer's rate of contribution for any calendar year or part thereof shall be reduced below the standard rate unless and until his account could have been charged with benefits paid throughout the thirty-six-consecutive-calendar-month period ending on the computation date applicable to such year or part thereof.

(ii) If the amount in the fund as of the computation date is less than 5 per centum of the total pay rolls subject to contributions under this chapter for the twelve-consecutive-month period ending on said computation date, the contribution rate for each employer shall be increased by the percentage differential between said 5 per centum of such total pay rolls and said fund's percentage of such total pay rolls, but in no event shall the contribution rate for any employer be more than 2.7 per centum. Said percentage differential for each employer shall be computed to the next highest one-tenth of 1 per centum.

(iii) If, on December 20 of any calendar year, the amount in the fund becomes less than 2.4 per centum of the total annual pay rolls subject to contribution under this chapter for the twelve-consecutive-month period ending on the preceding June 30, the Board shall make a declaration to that effect. Effective the quarter following such announcement, each employer's rate of contribution shall be the standard rate.

(iv) CONTRIBUTION RATES AFTER TERMINATION OF MILITARY SERVICE.—When the Board finds that the continuity of an employer's employment experience has been interrupted solely by reason of one or more of the owners, officers, managers, partners, or majority stockholders of such employer's employing enterprise having served in the armed forces of the United States of America or any of its allies during a time of war, such employer's employment experience shall be deemed to have been continuous throughout the period that such individual or individuals so served in such armed forces, including the period up to the time it again resumes the status of an employer liable for contributions under this Act, provided it resumes such status within two years from the date of discharge of such individual or individuals or from the date of the termination of such war, whichever date is the earlier. For the purposes of this paragraph (iv), in determining an employer's contribution rate his average annual pay roll shall be the average of his last three annual pay rolls.

(5) The Board shall for any uncompleted portion of the calendar year beginning with the effective date of this chapter and for each calendar year thereafter classify employers in accordance with their actual experience in the payment of contributions and with respect to benefits charged against their accounts. Each employer's contribution rate for each subsequent year or part thereof shall be calculated on the basis of his records filed with the Board and benefit payments disbursed through the applicable computation date.

(6) If, as of the date such classification of employers is made, the Board finds that an employing unit has failed to file any report in connection therewith, or has filed a report which the Board finds incorrect or insufficient, the Board shall make an estimate of the information required from such employing unit on the basis of the best evidence reasonably available to it at the time, and notify the employing unit thereof by registered mail addressed to its last-known address. Unless such employing unit shall file the report or a correct or sufficient report, as the case may be, within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice, the Board shall compute such employing unit's rate of contribution on the basis of such estimates, and the rates so determined shall be subject to increase, but not to reduction, on the basis of subsequently ascertained information.

(7) (a) If the business of any employer is transferred in whole or in part, the transferee shall be deemed a successor for the purpose of this section. In case the transfer of any of the assets of a covered employer's business by any means whatever, otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade, such transfer shall be deemed a transfer of business and shall constitute the transferee a successor hereunder, unless the Board, on its own motion or on application of an interested party, finds that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The transferee has not assumed any of the transferor's obligations; and

(2) The transferee has not continued or resumed transferor's good will; and

(3) The transferee has not continued or resumed the business of the transferor, either in the same establishment or elsewhere; and

(4) The transferee has not employed substantially the same employees as those the transferor had employed in connection with the assets transferred.

(b) The successor, if not already subject to this section, shall become an "employer" subject hereto on the date of such transfer, and shall accordingly become liable for contributions hereunder from and after said date.

(c) The successor shall take over and continue the employer's account, including its reserve and all other aspects of its experience under this section, in proportion to the pay roll or employees assignable to the transferred business as determined for the purposes of this section by the Board. The successor shall be secondarily liable for any amounts owed by the employer to the fund at the time of such transfer; but such liability shall be proportioned to the extent of the transfer of business and shall not exceed the value of the assets transferred.

(d) The benefit chargeability of a successor's account under section 3 (c) if not accrued before the transfer date shall begin to accrue on the transfer date, in case the transferor's benefit chargeability was then accruing; or shall begin to accrue on the date otherwise applicable to the successor, or on the date otherwise applicable to the transferor, whichever is earlier, in case the transferor's benefit chargeability was not accruing on the transfer date. Similarly, benefits from a successor's account, if not chargeable before the transfer date shall become chargeable on the transfer date, in case the transfer was then chargeable for the benefit payments; or shall become chargeable on the date otherwise applicable to the successor or on the date otherwise applicable to the transferor, whichever is earlier, in case the transferor was chargeable for the benefit payments on the transfer date.

(e) The account taken over by the successor employer shall remain chargeable with respect to accrued benefit and related rights based on employment in the transferred business, and all such employment shall be deemed employment performed for such employer.

(f) The contribution rates applicable with respect to the accounts of the successor employer and a transferring employer shall be respectively determined or redetermined as of the next preceding June 30 computation date, to apply from the date of transfer of business until the close of the current calendar year, and shall thereafter be determined whenever required by section 3 (c), as follows: For the purposes of section 3 (c), the Board shall determine the "experience under this section" of the successor employer's account and of the transferring employer's account by allocating to the successor employer's account for each period in question the respective proportions of the transferring employer's pay roll and the benefits which the Board determines to be properly assignable to the business transferred.

(g) SPECIAL COMBINATIONS OF EXPERIENCE.—Any successor employer who has failed to obtain credit for its predecessor's experience, solely because of the provisions of section 3 (c) (7) of the Act prior to its amendment by this Act, may file a written application for such allowance after the effective date of this Act. In the event the Board finds that such employer is entitled to such combination of experience under the provisions of section 3 (c) (7) as amended by this Act, the combination shall be allowed effective for the calendar year next succeeding the date of such application.

(8) Variations from the standard rates of contributions for each calendar year or part thereof shall be determined as of the applicable computation date in accordance with the following requirements:

i. If as of the computation date the total of all contributions credited to any employer's account, with respect to employment since May 31, 1939, is in excess of the total benefits paid after June 30, 1939, then chargeable or charged to his account, such excess shall be known as the employer's reserve, and his contribution rate for the ensuing calendar year or part thereof shall be—

(A) 2.7 per centum if such reserve is less than 1 per centum of his average annual pay roll;

(B) 2 per centum if such reserve equals or exceeds 1 per centum but is less than 1.5 per centum of his average annual pay roll;

(C) 1.5 per centum if such reserve equals or exceeds 1.5 per centum but is less than 2 per centum of his average annual pay roll;

(D) 1 per centum if such reserve equals or exceeds 2 per centum but is less than 3 per centum of his average annual pay roll;

(E) 0.5 per centum if such reserve equals or exceeds 3 per centum but is less than 3.5 per centum of his average annual pay roll;

(F) 0.1 per centum if such reserve equals or exceeds 3.5 per centum of his average annual pay roll.

ii. If as of the computation date the total amount of benefits paid and chargeable to an employer's account for the periods after June 30, 1939, is more than the total contributions credited to his account with respect to employment since May 31, 1939, then his contribution rate for the ensuing calendar year or part thereof shall be 2.7 per centum.

iii. Except as otherwise provided in this section, whenever through inadvertence or mistake erroneous charges or credits are found to have been made to experience-rating accounts, the same shall be readjusted as of the date of discovery and such readjustment shall not affect any computation or rate assigned prior to the date of discovery but shall be used on the next computation date in calculating future contribution rates.

(9) As used in this subsection—

(a) The term "annual pay roll" means the total amount of wages for employment paid by an employer during a twelve-month period ending ninety days prior to the computation date;

(b) The term "average annual pay roll", except for the purposes of paragraph (4) (iv) of this subsection, means the average of the annual pay rolls of any employer for the three consecutive twelve-month periods ending ninety days prior to the computation date;

(c) The term "base period wages" means the wages paid to an individual during his base period for employment;

(d) The term "base period employers" means the employers by whom an individual was paid his base period wages;

(e) The term "most recent employer" means that employer who last employed such individual immediately prior to such individual's filing an initial claim for benefits.

(10) At least one month prior to the final date upon which the first contributions for any calendar year or part thereof become due from any employer at a contribution rate determined under this subsection, the Board shall notify such employer of his rate of contributions and of the benefit charges upon which such rate was based. Such determination shall become conclusive and binding upon the employer unless, within fifteen days after the mailing of notice thereof to his last-known address, or in the absence of mailing, within fifteen days after the delivery of such notice, the employer files an application for review and a redetermination, setting forth his reasons therefor. Upon receipt of such application, the Board shall voluntarily adjust such matter or shall grant an opportunity for a fair hearing and promptly notify the employer thereof. All such hearings shall be held before a Contribution Rate Review Committee composed of three members who shall be employees of the Board and appointed by the Board. The findings and decision of this Committee shall not be subject to review by the District Auditor. No employer shall have standing, in any proceeding involving his rate of contributions or contribution liability, to contest the chargeability of his account of any benefits paid in accordance with a determination, redetermination, or decision pursuant to section 46–311, except on the ground that the services on the basis of which such benefits were found to be chargeable do not constitute services performed in employment for him and only in the event that he was not a party to such determination, redetermination, or decision or to any other proceedings under this chapter in which the character of such services was determined. The employer shall be promptly notified of the Board's denial of his application or of the Board's redetermination, both of which shall become final unless, within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice thereof to his last-known address, or in the absence of mailing, within fifteen days after the delivery of such notice, a petition for judicial review is filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. In any proceedings under this subsection the findings of the Board as to the facts, if supported by evidence and in the absence of fraud, shall be conclusive and the jurisdiction of said court shall be confined to questions of law. Such proceedings shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under section 46–312 and under section 36–501. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner as is provided in other civil cases.

(d) The contributions payable pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall become due and be paid by each employer to the Board in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe, and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of individuals in such employer's employ. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 947, ch. 794, § 3; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 731, ch. 524, § 1; Nov. 21, 1941, 55 Stat. 781, ch. 500, § 1; Nov. 9, 1942, 56 Stat. 1016, ch. 636; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 105, ch. 117; July 11, 1946, 60 Stat. 527, ch. 557; July 26, 1947, 61 Stat. 494, ch. 342, § 1, 2.)

AMENDMENTS

In paragraph (a) (3) the 1940 amendment struck out the following words: ", and 1940,"; struck out paragraph (a) (4); in paragraph (b) struck out the letter "(b)" and inserted in lieu thereof the letter "(c)" and added a new paragraph (b); in the original paragraph (b) struck out the words "calendar year 1941" and substituted in lieu thereof "second six months of the calendar year 1942", substituted the word "paid" for the word "payable", and changed the figure "3" to "2.7."

The act of July 26, 1947, cited to text, amended subsec. (c) (9) (b) and added subsec. (c) (4) (iv).

Sec. 3 of said act provided:

SEC. 3. The amendments made by this Act shall be effective with respect to employment on or after July 1, 1943. The amount of any contributions or interest thereon paid to the Board by any employer in excess of the amount such employer would have been required to pay if the amendments made by this Act had been in effect on and after July 1, 1943, shall, for the purposes of section 4 (i) of the District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Act, be subject to adjustment against subsequent contributions by him. Notwithstanding the period of limitation prescribed in such section 4 (i), the employing unit which paid such excess amount of contributions or interest thereon may make application under such section 4 (i) within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act for an adjustment thereof.

The act of July 11, 1946, cited to text, made the following amendments effective as of 12:01 antemeridian on the first day of the next succeeding calendar quarter following the enactment of this act:

(1) Subsec. (c) (5) last sentence amended;

(2) Subsec. (c) (7) amended generally;

(3) Subsec. (c) (8) amended by adding paragraph iii;

(4) Subsec. (c) (10) amended by inserting fourth sentence.

The act of June 4, 1943, cited to text, amended section generally.

The act of Nov. 9, 1942, cited to text, struck out "1943" in subdivision (3) (c) and inserted "1944".

The act of Nov. 21, 1941, cited to text, struck out "1942" in subdivision (3) (c) and inserted "1943".

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BURDEN OF PROOF

A partnership leasing and operating corporation's plant had burden of proving that timely request was made that District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Board combine experience of partnership and corporation in determining partnership's unemployment compensation contributions. Schlosberg v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 881).

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

A corporation and partnership leasing and operating corporation's plant were not parties to or subject of "merger, consolidation or other form of reorganization," and change effected was not mere "change in legal identity or form," but was complete change in substantial as well as formal ownership of business, and partnership was not "owned or controlled by substantially same interests as predecessor," and hence experience of corporation and partnership could not be combined in determining partnership's unemployment compensation contributions, notwithstanding that partnership retained corporation's manager and employees. Schlosberg v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 881).

Under this section requiring employers to pay contributions at different rates based on differences in experience, where admission of partners' wives into partnership caused no change in management or risk, partnership was the same employer after as before admission, and partnership was not required to pay contributions at a new rate. Cohen v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 883).

CONSTRUCTION

This chapter should be interpreted in accordance with its purpose which is to protect employees. Cohen v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 883).

ESTOPPEL

Collection by District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Board of unemployment compensation contributions from partnership leasing and operating corporation's plant at rates paid by corporation did not estop board, after discovering change of ownership, from collecting contributions at proper rate. Schlosberg v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 881).

EVIDENCE

Witness' oral testimony, that he requested in letter written three years before to District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Board that experience of corporation and partnership leasing and operating corporation's plant be combined in determining partnership's unemployment compensation contributions, warranted board's finding that timely request was not made. Schlosberg v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 881).

NATURE OF CONTRIBUTIONS

Compulsory unemployment contributions under this chapter are "taxes". National Rifle Ass'n of America v. Young, 1943 (134 F. 2d 524, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 290).

NECESSITY FOR REQUEST

Subsection (c) (7) of this section enabling two or more employing units to combine their experience, on timely request, after a change in legal identity or form, did not require request by partnership which admitted wives of partnership into the firm without change in management or risk, in order to avoid necessity for paying contributions at different rates based on differences in experience, since there was only one employing unit. Cohen v. District Unemployment Compensation Bd. (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 883).

§ 46–303a. Employer contributions by the District of Columbia.

Appropriations for the District of Columbia shall be available for payment by the District of Columbia of its contributions as an employer, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (June 28, 1944, 58 Stat. 530, ch. 300, § 2.)

CODIFICATION

Section comprised the second paragraph of section 2 of act June 28, 1944, which was the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1945, and was not enacted as a part of the District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Act.

1943—June 27, 1942, ch. 452, § 2, 56 Stat. 458.
1942—July 1, 1941, ch. 271, § 2, 55 Stat. 538.
1941—June 12, 1940, ch. 333, § 2, 54 Stat. 341.

§ 46–304. Method of paying employer contributions.

(a) The contributions required by section 46–303 shall be paid to and collected by the Board, and shall, immediately upon collection, be deposited in the clearing account of the fund. All moneys so required to be paid to and collected by the Board shall be subject to audit by the District auditor.

(b) Not later than the last day of the following month after the close of each calendar quarter, or at such other time as the Board may by regulations prescribe, every employer shall make a return of, and shall pay the contributions which shall have accrued with respect to, wages paid during such quarter with respect to employment. Each such return shall be filed with the Board, and shall contain such information and be made in such manner as the Board may by regulation prescribe. No extension of time for filing the return or for payment of the contributions shall be allowed to any employer, except as herein provided.

(c) If the contributions are not paid when due, there shall be added, as part of the contributions, interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month from the date the contributions became due until paid.

(d) In the event of the dissolution, insolvency, receivership, bankruptcy, composition, or assignment for benefit of creditors of any employer, contributions then or thereafter due from such employer under this section shall have priority over all other claims, except taxes due the United States or the District, and wages (not exceeding $600 with respect to any individual) due for services performed within the three months preceding such event.

(e) If any employer liable to pay the contribution or tax imposed by section 46–303 neglects and refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest) shall be a lien upon all of the property and rights to property, whether real or personal belonging to such person. Such lien shall not be valid as against any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser, or judgment creditor until notice thereof has been filed by the Board with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. The Board may cause a civil action to be filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia to enforce the aforesaid lien by sale of any property or rights to property, whether real or personal, of the delinquent employer affected by said lien. All persons having liens upon or claiming any interest in the property or rights to property sought to be sold, as aforesaid, shall be made parties to the proceedings and brought into court. The court shall proceed to adjudicate all matters involved therein and finally determine the merits of all claims to a lien upon the property and rights to the property in question, and in all cases where a claim or interest of the Board therein is established, may decree a sale of such property and rights of property by the proper officer of the court, and any sale made pursuant to such proceedings shall be made subject to any and all valid liens existing against said property or rights to property, at the date of filing of the notice of lien. Such action shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date, and shall be entitled to preference on the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review of this chapter. In any suit to enforce a lien hereunder the owner of the property or rights of property affected by said lien may be allowed to file with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia a written undertaking with two or more sureties to be approved by the court, or with corporate surety approved by the court, to the effect that he and they will pay the judgment that may be recovered and costs which judgment shall be rendered against all the persons so undertaking. Upon the approval of said undertaking the property or rights of property shall be released from such lien. No such undertaking shall be approved by the court until the owner of the property or rights of property in question shall have given at least two days' notice to the Board of his intention to apply to the courts therefor. Each notice shall give the names and residences of the persons intended to be offered as sureties and the time when the motion for such approval will be made, and such sureties shall make oath if required that they are worth over and above all debts and liabilities double the amount of said lien. The Board may appear and object to such approval. When corporate surety is offered and the undertaking bears a certificate of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia that said corporation holds authority from the Secretary of the Treasury to do business in the District of Columbia and has a process agent therein, no notice shall be required. Such an undertaking as above mentioned may be offered before any suit is brought in order to discharge the property from such lien, in which case notice shall be given as aforesaid to the Board and the same proceedings shall be had as above directed in relation to the undertaking to be given after the commencement of the suit, except that when the surety is a corporation and the undertaking bears a certificate of the clerk of said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia that said corporation holds authority from the Secretary of the Treasury to do business in the District of Columbia, and has a process agent therein, no notice shall be required; and said undertaking shall be to the effect that the owner of said property or rights of property and his said sureties will pay any judgment that may be rendered in any suit that may thereafter be brought for the enforcement of said lien. If such undertaking be approved before any suit is brought, the surety or sureties may be made parties to such suit; if the undertaking be approved after suit is brought, the surety or sureties shall ipso facto become parties to the suit, and in either case the decree of the court shall be against the surety or sureties as well as the owner. Subject to such regulations as the Board may prescribe, the Board shall issue a certificate of release of the lien if the Board finds that the liability for the amount of the contribution or tax imposed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been satisfied or for any other reason deemed proper by the Board. Such lien shall continue to be valid for a period of ten years from the date of filing of the notice thereof with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, unless the same shall have been released of record, as hereinbefore provided. The foregoing remedy of the Board shall be cumulative and no action taken by the Board shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the Board to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this chapter.

(f) Whenever any employing unit contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor for any employment which is a part of its usual trade, occupation, profession, or business, said employing unit shall report to the Board, in accordance with applicable regulations, the name and address of each and every such contractor or subcontractor so employed. Unless such report is made the employing unit shall for all purposes of the chapter be deemed to employ each individual in the employ of each such contractor or subcontractor for each day during which such individual is engaged solely in performing such employment. Any employing unit who thus becomes liable for and pays contributions with respect to individuals in the employ of any such contractor or subcontractor, however, may recover same from such contractor or subcontractor.

(g) In payment of any contribution, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(h) COLLECTIONS.—If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest thereon, the amount due may be collected by civil action in the name of the Board, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions or interest thereon from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review of this chapter. This subsection shall not be construed to mean that the Board shall be required to use only this means of collecting delinquent contributions but it may use any other legal method which it deems advisable.

(i) REFUNDS.—If not later than three years after the date on which any contributions or interest thereon were paid, an employing unit which has paid such contributions or interest thereon shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or for a refund thereof because such adjustment cannot be made, and the Board shall determine that such contributions or interest or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the Board shall allow such employing unit to make an adjustment thereof, without interest, in connection with subsequent contribution payments by it, or if such adjustment cannot be made the Board shall refund said amount, without interest, from the clearing account or benefit account upon checks issued by the Board or its duly authorized agent. For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the Board's own initiative. Should benefits have been paid based upon work records filed by the employing unit, claiming an adjustment or refund, such benefit should be disregarded for purposes of figuring such adjustment or refund, and any such benefit payments already having been made at the time of the adjustment or refund, based upon records filed with this Board by such employing unit, shall to that extent be allowed and shall not be deemed to have been paid erroneously. All refunds paid pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to a prior audit by the District auditor.

(j) Upon application by an employer, filed pursuant to suitable regulation by the Board, the Board shall determine the extent to which the employer's contributions paid for the first six months of the calendar year 1940 were in excess of his contributions due for said period under Public, Numbered 719, Seventy-sixth Congress, and shall make an adjustment for that amount, without interest, solely in connection with subsequent contributions by him.

(k) The Board, or the executive officer provided for under section 46–315 (b), with the consent of the Board, may prescribe the extent, if any, to which any ruling, regulation, or decision relating to this chapter shall be applied without retroactive effect.

(l) The Board, with the approval of the corporation counsel and the District auditor, may compromise any civil case arising under this chapter. Whenever a compromise is made by the Board in each such case, there shall be placed in the minutes of the Board the opinion of an attorney of the Board with the reasons therefor, including a statement of (1) the amount of the contributions due, (2) the amount of interest due on such contributions, and (3) the amount actually paid in accordance with the terms of the compromise. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 948, ch. 794, § 4; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 731, ch. 524, § 1; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 108, ch. 117.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 3 of Title I of the said 1940 act is as follows: "This title shall take effect as of 12: 01 antemeridian, July 1, 1940."

AMENDMENTS

The above paragraph (b) was substituted for (b) of the 1935 act. The old section read as follows:

"(b) Not later than the fifteenth day after the close of each month, every employer shall make a return of and shall pay the contributions which shall have accrued with respect to wages payable with respect to employment by him within such month. Each such return shall be made under oath (except where the amount of the contribution payable is less than $10), shall be filed with the Board, and shall contain such information and be made in such manner as the Board may by regulations prescribe. No extension of the time for filing the return or for payment of the contributions shall be allowed to any employer."

Paragraph (f) was added by the 1940 act.

For effect of amendment, see note to § 46–301.

The act of June 4, 1943, cited to text, amended section generally.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RECOVERY OF CONTRIBUTIONS

Where Unemployment Compensation Board, after hearing, granted exemption from liability for unemployment contributions, but employer had not changed its position and was not injured by reason of Board's act, the employer was not entitled to recover contributions previously paid under protest, on grounds of "estoppel" and "res judicata" since the Board could reverse an erroneous ruling retrospectively as well as prospectively. National Rifle Ass'n of America v. Young, 1943 (134 F. 2d 524, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 290).

§ 46–305. Service on nonresident employers.

Any nonresident employer, for whom services constituting employment subject to this chapter are performed, shall be deemed to have appointed the Director of Vehicles and Traffic of the District of Columbia as his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all processes in any action or proceedings against such nonresident arising out of, or incident to, this chapter, and said employment shall be a signification that any such process against him served, as herein provided, shall have the same effect and validity as if served on him personally in the District of Columbia. Service of such process shall be made by leaving a copy thereof (with a fee of $2) in the hands of the Director of Vehicles and Traffic of the District of Columbia, or other persons in charge of his office, and such service shall be sufficient service upon such nonresident: Provided, That notice of such service and a copy of the process are forthwith sent, by registered mail, by the plaintiff to the defendant and the defendant's return receipt attached to the writ and entered with the initial pleading. The court in which the action is pending may order such extensions as may be necessary to afford the defendant a reasonable opportunity to defend the action, and no judgment by default in any such action shall be granted until at least twenty days shall have elapsed after the notice of such service has been sent to the defendant as hereinabove prescribed. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 949, ch. 794, § 6; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 111, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 6 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to appropriations, was amended generally as section 5 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–306 [8: 317]. Deposit in unemployment trust fund.

All moneys received in the District unemployment fund from sources other than the unemployment trust fund, except as provided in section 46–304 (i) and section 46–301 (b) (5) (D), shall be immediately paid over to the Secretary of the Treasury to the credit of the unemployment trust fund, to be held in trust for the District upon the terms and conditions provided in section 904 of the Social Security Act. (U. S. C. Title 42, section 1104.) (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 949, ch. 794, § 7; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 112, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 7 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was amended generally as section 6 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–307 [8: 318]. Amount and duration of benefits.

(a) On and after January 1, 1938, benefits shall become payable from the benefit account of the District unemployment fund. All benefits shall be paid through employment offices, in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe.

(b) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the amount appearing in column B in the table set forth in this subsection on the line on which in column A of such table appears the total wages for employment paid to such individual by employers during that quarter of his base period in which such wages were the highest.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT TABLE

COLUMN A	COLUMN B	COLUMN C
Wages paid in highest quarter of base period	Weekly benefit amount	Qualifying amount
$37.50 to $138	$6	$150
$138.01 to $161	7	175
$161.01 to $184	8	200
$184.01 to $207	9	225
$207.01 to $230	10	250
$230.01 to $253	11	250
$253.01 to $276	12	250
$276.01 to $299	13	250
$299.01 to $322	14	250
$322.01 to $345	15	250
$345.01 to $368	16	250
$368.01 to $391	17	250
$391.01 to $414	18	250
$414.01 to $437	19	250
$437.01 and over	20	250

(c) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less the earnings (if any) payable to him with respect to such week. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "earnings" shall include only that part of the remuneration payable to him for such week which is in excess of 40 per centum of his weekly benefit amount for any week. Such benefit, if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.

(d) Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to twenty times his weekly benefit amount or one-half of the wages for employment paid to such individual by employers during his base period, whichever is the lesser: Provided, That such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.

(e) DEPENDENT'S ALLOWANCE.—In addition to the benefits payable under subsections (b) and (c) of this section, each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week $1 for each dependent relative, but not more than $3 shall be paid to an individual as dependent's allowance with respect to any one week of unemployment, nor shall any weekly benefit which includes a dependent's allowance be paid in the amount of more than $20. The dependent's allowance is not to be taken into consideration in calculating the claimant's total amount of benefits in subsection (d) of this section.

(f) (1) BENEFITS AFTER TERMINATION OF MILITARY SERVICE.—Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of this chapter the benefit rights of trainees shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions of this subsection for the periods and with respect to the matters specified herein. Except as herein otherwise provided, all other provisions of this chapter shall continue to be applicable in connection with such benefits.

(2) The term "military service" as used in this subsection means active service in the land or naval forces of the United States, but the service of an individual in any reserve component of the land or naval forces of the United States who is ordered to active duty in any such force for a period of thirty days or less shall not be deemed to be active service in such force during such period.

(3) The term "trainee" as used in this subsection means an individual who entered military service after March 31, 1940, who continued such service for not less than ninety consecutive days and whose military service was terminated on or before the six months after the war in which the United States is now engaged has been terminated by a treaty of peace proclaimed by the President of the United States.

(4) In determining a trainee's "benefit year" (as defined by section 46–301 (h)) the weeks and parts of weeks between the date of his entrance into military service and the date of termination of such service shall be excluded.

(5) In determining a trainee's "base period" (as defined in section 46–301 (f)) the completed and uncompleted calendar quarters between the date of his entrance into military service and the termination of such service shall be excluded.

AMENDMENT

The section as contained in the 1935 act provided as follows:

"(a) Subject to the provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the Board shall pay, from the District Unemployment Fund, to every eligible individual (1) with respect to each week, commencing with the week beginning January 2, 1938, in which such individual was totally unemployed, a week's benefit, which shall be an amount, computed to the nearest half-dollar, equal to 40 per centum of his weekly wage, plus 10 per centum of such weekly wage if he has a dependent spouse, plus an additional 5 per centum of such weekly wage for each dependent relative: Provided, That in no case shall the amount paid to any such individual for any week exceed $15, or 65 per centum of his weekly wage, whichever is the lesser; and (2) with respect to each week commencing with the week beginning January 2, 1938, in which such individual was partially unemployed, an amount which when added to the total amount of remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) payable for services performed by such individual during such week, will total $2 more than the week's benefit to which he would be entitled if totally unemployed during such week.

"(b) With respect to unemployment occurring within any period of fifty-two weeks, benefits shall be payable to every eligible unemployed individual (1) in the ratio of one-third of a week's benefit to each credit week which occurred within the period of one hundred and four weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment, until a total amount equivalent to sixteen times a week's benefit has been paid to him; and (2) after such total has been paid, in the ratio of one-twentieth of a week's benefit to each credit week which occurred within the period of two hundred and sixty weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment.

"(c) All payments of benefits under this section shall be charged, in accordance with the applicable ratio, against the earliest credit week or part thereof available for such purpose.

"(d) As used in this section, the term 'credit week' means a week in which the individual concerned performed some employment, against which no benefits have been charged, and with respect to which no benefits were paid to the individual: Provided, That any week occurring within the customary school vacation period shall not be counted as a credit week in the case of any individual who attended a school, college, or university in the last preceding school term, and returns to a school, or college, or university at the end of such vacation period."

Section, formerly section 8 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was amended generally as section 7 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–308 [8: 319]. Method of paying benefits.

Moneys shall be requisitioned from the Board's account in the unemployment trust fund solely for the payment of benefits and refunds as provided under section 46–304 (i) and section 46–301 (b) (5) (D) in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Board. The Board shall from time to time requisition from the unemployment trust fund such amounts not exceeding the amounts standing to the Board's account therein as it deems necessary for the payment of benefits and refunds for a reasonable future period. Upon receipt of the amount requisitioned, the Board shall deposit it in the benefit account of the District unemployment fund in the Treasury of the United States as a special deposit to be used solely to pay the benefits and refunds provided in this chapter. All payments of benefits shall be made by checks drawn by the Board, or its duly authorized agent, shall be made through the employment offices designated by the Board, and shall be subject to a post, but not a prior, audit by the District auditor. AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 9 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was amended generally as section 8 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–309 [8: 320]. Eligibility for benefits.

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if it has been found by the Board—

(a) that he has made a claim for benefits with respect to such week in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe;

(b) that he has during his base period been paid wages for employment by employers equal to not less than the amount appearing in column "C" of the table in section 46–307 (b), on the line on which in column "B" his weekly benefit amount appears;

(c) that he is physically able to work;

(d) that he is available for work and has registered and inquired for work at the employment office designated by the Board, with such frequency and in such manner as the Board may by regulation prescribe: Provided, That failure to comply with this condition may be excused by the Board upon a showing of good cause for such failure; and the Board may by regulation waive or alter the requirements of this subsection as to such types of cases or situations with respect to which it finds that compliance with such requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter;

(e) that he has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week. No week shall be counted as a week of unemployment for the purposes of this subsection—

(1) unless it occurs within the benefit year which includes the week with respect to which he claims payment of benefits;

(2) if benefits have been paid with respect thereto; and

(3) unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto as provided in this section and section 46–310, except for the requirements of this subsection and of subsection (f) of section 46–310.

(Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 950, ch. 794, § 10; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 733, ch. 524, § 1; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 114, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENT

The 1940 amendment inserted the present paragraphs (2) and (5). In the 1935 act they appeared as follows:

"(2) that he has performed employment in at least thirteen weeks within the period of fifty-two weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment;"

"(5) that he has been totally unemployed and otherwise eligible for benefits under this act for a waiting period of at least three weeks with respect to which he received no benefits, prior to the week for which he claims benefits; and for the purpose of computing such waiting period, two weeks of partial unemployment shall be counted as one week of total unemployment. Such weeks of unemployment need not be consecutive but may be accumulated over the period of fifty-two weeks prior to the week for which he claims benefits; and * * *."

§ 46–310 [8: 321]. Disqualification for benefits.

(a) An individual who has left his most recent work voluntarily without good cause, as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which he so left nor with respect to the three weeks of consecutive unemployment immediately following.

(b) An individual who has been discharged for misconduct occurring in the course of his most recent work, proved to the satisfaction of the Board, shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which such discharge occurred nor with respect to such additional number of consecutive weeks of unemployment immediately following (not less than one nor more than four) as the Board may determine, under regulations prescribed by it, in proportion to the degree of such misconduct.

(c) If an individual otherwise eligible for benefits fails, without good cause as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it either to apply for new work found by the Board to be suitable when notified by any employment office, or to accept any such work when offered to him, he shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which such failure occurred nor with respect to the three weeks of continuous unemployment immediately following. In determining whether or not work is suitable within the meaning of this subsection the Board shall consider (1) the physical fitness and prior training and experience of the individual, (2) the distance of the place of work from the individual's place of residence, and (3) the risk involved as to health, safety, or morals.

(d) Benefits shall not be denied to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lock-out, or other labor dispute; (2) if the wages, earnings, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

(e) If an individual under twenty-one years of age otherwise eligible for benefits fails, without good cause as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, to attend courses at a vocational or other school when recommended by the manager of the employment office or by the Board and such courses are available at public expense, he shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to any week in which such failure occurred.

(f) An individual shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to any week if it has been found by the Board that such individual is unemployed in such week as a direct result of a labor dispute, such as a strike, lock-out, or jurisdictional labor dispute still in active progress in the establishment where he is or was last employed: Provided, That this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board that—

(1) he is not participating in or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused his unemployment; and

(2) he does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the dispute, there were members employed at the premises at which the dispute occurs, any of whom are participating in or directly interested in the dispute: Provided, That if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises.

(g) An individual shall not be eligible for benefits for any week with respect to which he has received or is seeking unemployment compensation under any other unemployment compensation law of another State or of the United States: Provided, That if the appropriate agency of such other State or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply. § 46–311. Determination of claims.

(a) Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain in places readily accessible to individuals in his service printed statements concerning such regulations or such other matters as the Board may by regulations prescribe. Each employer shall supply such individuals with copies of such printed statements or materials relating to claims for benefits as the Board may by regulation prescribe. Such printed statements or materials shall be supplied by the Board to each employer without cost to him.

(b) Promptly after an individual has filed a claim for benefits, an agent of the Board designated by it for such purpose shall make an initial determination with respect thereto which shall include a determination with respect to whether or not such benefit may be payable, and if payable, the week with respect to which payments will commence, the maximum duration thereof, and the weekly benefit amount, except that in any case in which the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of section 46–310 (e), the agent shall promptly transmit such claim to an appeal tribunal which shall make a decision thereon after such investigation as it deems necessary, and after affording the parties opportunity for fair hearing in accordance with subsection (e) of this section, and the claimant and interested parties shall be given notice thereof and permitted to appeal therefrom to the Board and the courts as is provided in this chapter for notice of, and appeals from, decisions of appeal tribunals. An initial determination may, for good cause, be reconsidered. The claimant and other parties to the proceedings shall be promptly notified of the initial determination or any amended determination and the reasons therefor. Benefits shall be denied or, if the claimant is otherwise eligible, paid promptly in accordance with such initial determination except as hereinafter otherwise provided. The claimant or any party to the determination may file an appeal from such initial determination or from a reconsideration of such determination within ten days after notification thereof, or after the date such notification was mailed to his last known address. If upon such initial determination benefits are allowed but the record of the case indicates that a disqualification has been alleged or may exist, benefits shall not be paid prior to the expiration of the period for appeal as hereinafter provided. If an appeal is duly filed with respect to a matter other than the weekly benefit amount or maximum duration of benefits payable, benefits with respect to the period prior to the final decision of the Board shall be paid only after such decision: Provided, That if an appeal tribunal affirms an initial determination allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken. If, subsequent to such initial determination, benefits with respect to any week for which a claim has been filed are denied for reasons other than matters included in the initial determination, the claimant shall be promptly notified of the denial and the reasons therefor, and may appeal therefrom in accordance with the procedure herein described for appeals from initial determinations.

(c) To hear and decide appealed claims, the Board shall appoint one or more appeal tribunals to hold hearings in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Board at which all parties shall be given opportunity to present evidence and to be heard. In the conduct of such hearings, the parties shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or other technical rules of procedure, but the appeal tribunal shall use due diligence to ascertain the true facts of the case.

(d) Each appeal tribunal shall consist of either an examiner regularly employed by the Board on a salaried basis or a body composed of an examiner who shall act as chairman, and, without regard to the civil-service laws otherwise applicable, of one representative of employees and one representative of employers, each designated by the Board. No representative shall be regularly employed by the Board, nor shall any person acting in any case on behalf of the Board have any interest, direct or indirect, in the case. In no case shall the hearings proceed unless the examiner designated as a member of an appeal tribunal is present; and if either or both of such representatives fail to appear for any such hearings or are disqualified from participating in any such hearings, the examiner shall proceed to hear the case: Provided, That the Board may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of any member of an appeal tribunal. Each such representative shall be paid for each day on which he actively engaged or was present and prepared to engage in the conduct of any such hearings, such sums, not in excess of $10, as the Board shall by regulation prescribe.

(e) An appeal tribunal, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall, unless such appeal is withdrawn, affirm or modify the finding of facts and the initial determination. The parties shall be duly notified of the decision of such appeal tribunal, together with the reasons therefor. The Board, under regulations prescribed by it, may permit further appeal by any party or may, upon its own motion, affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the appeal tribunal or may set it aside and order a rehearing or the taking of additional evidence before the same or a different appeal tribunal. Unless a petition for such appeal is filed within ten days after the date of notification or mailing of the decision of an appeal tribunal, or within such ten-day period the Board has taken action on its own motion in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, the decision of the appeal tribunal shall constitute the decision of the Board and shall be effective as such. Any decision of an appeal tribunal which is not so modified or so appealed within such ten-day period is final for all purposes, except as provided in section 46–312 (a), and is not subject to review by the District auditor. All decisions rendered by the Board affirming, reversing, or modifying any decision of an appeal tribunal shall become effective immediately, unless the Board shall otherwise order, and are not subject to review by the District auditor.

(f) A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with an appealed claim. All testimony at every hearing on any such claim shall be taken down by a stenographer, but shall not be transcribed except upon order of the Board or in the event of an appeal pursuant to section 46–312 (a). Upon any such appeal, a copy of all the testimony and of the findings of fact upon which the Board's decision was based shall be filed with the court, and the facts so found shall, if supported by evidence, be binding on the court.

(g) Witnesses subpenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the Board. Such fees shall be deemed part of the expense of administering this chapter. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 951, ch. 794, § 12; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 116, ch. 117.)

§ 46–312 [8: 323]. Court review.

(a) Within thirty days after the decision of the Board has become final, any party to the proceeding may appeal from the decision to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Upon the filing of any such appeal notice thereof shall be served upon the Board by the appellant and upon any other party to the proceedings. Such appeal shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases. It shall not be necessary on any such appeal to enter exceptions to the rulings of the Board and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. In no event shall any appeal act as a supersedeas. In any appeal under this section the findings of the Board, or of the examiner or appeal tribunal, as the case may be, as to the facts, if supported by evidence and in the absence of fraud, shall be conclusive, and the jurisdiction of said court shall be confined to questions of law: Provided, That no appeal shall be permitted under this section by any party who has not first exhausted his administrative remedies as provided by this chapter.

(b) An appeal may be taken from a decision of such court to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 953, ch. 794, § 13; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 118, ch. 117.)

S. App. D. C. 290).

§ 46–313. Administration.

(a) The Board is hereby authorized and directed to administer the provisions of this chapter. Subject to the Civil Service Act (5 U. S. C. §§ 632, 633, 635, 637, 638, 640, 642; 18 U. S. C. §§ 208 to 212, and 40 U. S. C. § 42) the Board is further authorized to employ such officers, examiners, accountants, attorneys, experts, agents, and other persons, and to make such expenditures as may be necessary to administer this chapter, and to authorize any such person to do any act or acts which could lawfully be done by the Board. The Civil Service Commission is hereby authorized and directed to confer a competitive classified civil-service status upon those employees performing services for the Board on July 1, 1940: Provided, (1) That such employees are certified by the Board as having rendered satisfactory service for not less than six months; (2) that they qualify in such appropriate noncompetitive examination as may be prescribed by the Civil Service Commission; however, all employees certified by the Board in accordance with condition (1) hereof shall automatically be eligible to take such noncompetitive examination; (3) that they are citizens of the United States; and (4) that they are not disqualified by any provision of section 3 of Civil Service Rule V. The Board may, in its discretion, require bond from any of its employees engaged in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The Board is further authorized to make and enforce all reasonable regulations which may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such regulations shall become effective five days after they have been published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District.

(c) The Board shall each year, not later than March 1, submit to Congress a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding calendar year, and containing such recommendations as the Board wishes to make.

(d) The Board shall, whenever it believes that a change in the contribution or benefit rates is necessary to protect the solvency of the fund, at once recommend such change to Congress if in session.

(e) FEDERAL-STATE COOPERATION.—In the administration of this chapter the Board shall cooperate to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this chapter, with the Social Security Board, created by the Act of Congress, entitled "The Social Security Act, as amended" (42 U. S. C. § 301 et seq.), and is authorized and directed to take such action, through the adoption of appropriate rules, regulations, administrative methods, and standards, as may be necessary to secure to the District and its citizens all advantages available under the provisions of such Act (42 U. S. C. § 301 et seq.), under the provisions of sections 1602 and 1603 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (26 U. S. C.), and under the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for cooperation with States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes", approved June 6, 1933, as amended (29 U. S. C. §§ 49–49c, 49d, 49e–49h, 49j, 49k, and 39 U. S. C. § 338). The Board shall comply with the regulations of the Social Security Board relating to the receipt or expenditure by the States of moneys granted under any of such Acts and shall make such reports, in such form and containing such information as the Social Security Board may from time to time require, and shall comply with such provisions as the Social Security Board may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

The Board may afford reasonable cooperation with every agency of the United States charged with the administration of any unemployment-insurance law.

(f) DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.—Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, information obtained from any employing unit or individual pursuant to the administration of this chapter and determinations as to the benefit rights of any individual shall be held confidential and shall not be disclosed or be open to public inspection in any manner, whether by subpena or otherwise, revealing the individual's or employing unit's identity. Any claimant (or his legal representative) shall be supplied with information from the records of the division, to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of his claim in any proceeding under this chapter with respect thereto. Subject to such restrictions as the Board may by regulation prescribe, such information may be made available to any agency of this or any other State, or any Federal agency, charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation law or the maintenance of a system of public employment offices, or the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the United States Department of the Treasury, and information obtained in connection with the administration of the employment service may be made available to persons or agencies for purposes appropriate to the operation of a public employment service. Upon request therefor the Board shall furnish to any agency of the United States charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, and may furnish to any State agency similarly charged, the name, address, ordinary occupation, and employment status of each recipient of benefits and such recipient's rights to further benefits under this chapter. The Board may request the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States to cause an examination of the correctness of any return or report of any national banking association rendered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and may in connection with such request transmit any such report or return to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States as provided in section 1606 (c) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.).

(g) In the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter, any member of the Board and any duly authorized representative thereof shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpenas to compel attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of this chapter.

(h) In the case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpena issued to, any person, the Board may invoke the aid of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records. Such court may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the Board or officer designated by the Board, there to produce records, if so ordered, or to give testimony touching the matter in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. Any person who shall, without just cause, fail or refuse to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records, if in his power so to do, in obedience to the subpena of the Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or both.

(i) No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the Board or in obedience to the subpena of the Board or any member thereof or any officer designated by it, or in any cause or proceeding instituted by the Board, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 953, ch. 794, § 14; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 733, ch. 524, § 1; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 118, ch. 117.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "Title" refers to Title I of the 1940 act that amends this section.

Section 3 of Title I of 1940 act is as follows: "This title shall take effect as of 12:01 antemeridian, July 1, 1940."

Section 3 of Civil Service Rule V referred to in subsection (a) is as follows:

"3. Disqualifications.—The Commission may, in its discretion, refuse to examine an applicant for appointment or reinstatement or to certify an eligible for any of the following reasons: (a) Dismissal from the service for delinquency, inefficiency, or misconduct; (b) physical or mental unfitness for the position for which he applies: Provided, That the Commission may, in its discretion, exempt from the physical requirements established for any position a disabled honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine upon a certificate of the United States Veterans' Administration attesting that he has completed an appropriate and sufficient rehabilitatory course of training for the duties of the class of positions in which employment is sought; And provided further, That the Commission, may in its discretion, waive the physical requirements in the case of a disabled veteran not so trained to permit his examination; (c) criminal, infamous, dishonest, immoral, or notoriously disgraceful conduct; (d) intentionally making a false statement as to any material fact, or practicing any deception or fraud in securing examination, registration, certification, or appointment; (e) refusal to furnish testimony as required by rule XIV; and (f) the habitual use of intoxicating beverages to excess.

"Any of the reasons stated in the foregoing clauses (b) to (f), inclusive, shall also be good cause for removal from the service."

AMENDMENT

The 1940 act inserted the present paragraph (a). This paragraph appeared in the 1935 act as follows:

"(a) The Board is hereby authorized and directed to administer the provisions of this act. The Board is further authorized to employ such officers, examiners, accountants, attorneys, experts, agents, and other persons, and to make such expenditures, as may be necessary to administer this act, and to authorize any such person to do any act or acts which could lawfully be done by the Board. The Board may, in its discretion, require bond from any of its employees engaged in carrying out the provisions of this act."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Evidence relating to the practices and methods of the D. C. Unemployment Compensation Board is excludible as the statute specifically prohibits the disclosure of information given it by employers, including the identity of the employer. It would be against the public interest to permit obtaining by indirection what is directly prohibited by statute. Orndorff v. Cohen (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 62 A. 2d 794).

§ 46–314 [8: 325]. Method of paying administrative expenses.

All moneys received by the Board from the United States under title III of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. §§ 501 to 503) or from other sources for administering this chapter shall, immediately upon such receipt, be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a special deposit to be used solely to pay such administrative expenses (including expenditures for rent, for suitable office space in the District of Columbia, and for lawbooks, books of reference, and periodicals), traveling expenses when authorized by the Board, and allowances to field men for furnishing privately owned motor vehicles in the performance of official duties at rates not to exceed $24 per month. All such payments of expenses shall be made by checks drawn by the Board and shall be subject to audit by the District auditor in the same manner as are payments of other expenses of the District. All moneys received by the Board pursuant to section 302 of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. § 302), shall be expended solely for the purposes and in the amounts found necessary by the Social Security Board for the proper and efficient administration of this chapter. In lieu of incorporation in this chapter of the provision described in section 303 (a) (9) of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. § 302 (a) (9)), the Board shall include in its annual report to the Congress, provided in section 46–313 (c), a report of any moneys received after July 1, 1941, from the Social Security Board under title III of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. §§ 501 to 503), and any unencumbered balances in the unemployment compensation administration fund as of that date, which the Social Security Board finds have, because of any action or contingency, been lost or have been expended for purposes other than, or in amounts in excess of, those found necessary by the Social Security Board for the proper administration of this chapter. AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 15 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter was amended generally as section 14 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 14, 1943, cited to text.

The act of July 1, 1941, cited to text, added the second paragraph.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF AMENDMENT

Sec. 2 of the act of July 1, 1941, cited to text, provided: "This Act shall take effect as of 12:01 o'clock antemeridian July 1, 1941".

§ 46–315 [8: 326]. District Unemployment Compensation Board.

(a) There is hereby established the District Unemployment Compensation Board, to be composed of the Commissioners of the District as members ex officio, and one representative of employees and one representative of employers to be appointed by the Commissioners. Each such representative shall be a resident of the District and shall hold office for a term of three years from the date of his appointment; except that any representative appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. The president of the Board of Commissioners of the District shall be chairman of the Board.

(b) The Board shall administer this chapter through an executive officer to be appointed and employed by the Board, subject to section 46–313 (a). Such executive officer shall act as secretary of the Board and is hereby authorized to act in the name of the Board in all matters specifically delegated to him by the Board.

(c) The Commissioners of the District shall serve on the Board without additional compensation, but the representatives of employees and employers, respectively, shall be paid $10 for each day of active service.

(d) The Board, as herein established, shall be and constitute a body corporate with an official seal which shall be judicially noticed, and shall be capable of suing and being sued as such. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 954, ch. 794, § 16; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 121, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 16 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter was amended generally as section 15 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–316. Reciprocal arrangements.

(a) The Board is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocal arrangements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other States or of the Federal Government, or both, whereby—

(1) services performed by an individual for a single employing unit for which services are customarily performed by such individual in more than one State shall be deemed to be services performed entirely within any one of the States (i) in which any part of such individual's service is performed or (ii) in which such individual has his residence or (iii) in which the employing unit maintains a place of business, provided there is in effect, as to such services, an election, approved by the agency charged with the administration of such State's unemployment-compensation law, pursuant to which all the services performed by such individual for such employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within such State;

(2) potential rights to benefits accumulated under the unemployment-compensation laws of one or more States or under one or more such laws of the Federal Government, or both, may constitute the basis for the payment of benefits through a single appropriate agency under terms which the Board finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests and will not result in any substantial loss to the fund;

(3) wages or services, upon the basis of which an individual may become entitled to benefits under an unemployment-compensation law of another State or of the Federal Government, shall be deemed to be wages for employment for the purpose of determining his rights to benefits under this chapter, and wages for employment, on the basis of which an individual may become entitled to benefits under this chapter shall be deemed to be wages or services on the basis of which unemployment compensation under such law of another State or of the Federal Government is payable, but no such arrangement shall be entered into unless it contains provisions for reimbursements to the fund for such of the benefits paid under this chapter upon the basis of such wages or services, and provisions for reimbursements from the fund for such of the compensation paid under such other law upon the basis of wages for employment, as the Board finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests; and

(4) contributions due under this chapter with respect to wages for employment shall for the purposes of section 46–304 be deemed to have been paid to the fund as of the date payment was made as contributions therefor under another State or Federal unemployment-compensation law, but no such arrangement shall be entered into unless it contains provisions for such reimbursement to the fund of such contributions and the actual earnings thereon as the Board finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests.

(b) Reimbursements paid from the fund pursuant to paragraph 3 of subsection (a) of this section shall be deemed to be benefits for the purpose of sections 46–306 to 46–308. The Board is authorized to make to other State or Federal agencies and to receive from such other State or Federal agencies reimbursements from or to the fund, in accordance with arrangements entered into pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

(c) The administration of this chapter and of other State and Federal unemployment-compensation and public-employment-service laws will be promoted by cooperation between the District and such other States and the appropriate Federal agencies in exchanging services and making available facilities and information. The Board is therefore authorized to make such investigations, secure and transmit such information, make available such services and facilities, and exercise such of the other powers provided herein with respect to the administration of this chapter as it deems necessary or appropriate to facilitate the administration of any such unemployment-compensation or public-employment-service law, and in like manner to accept and utilize information, services, and facilities made available to the District by the agency charged with the administration of any such other unemployment-compensation or public-employment-service law.

(d) To the extent permissible under the laws and Constitution of the United States, the Board is authorized to enter into or cooperate in arrangements whereby facilities and services provided under this chapter and facilities and services provided under the unemployment-compensation law of any foreign government may be utilized for the taking of claims and the payment of benefits under the employment-security law of the District or under a similar law of such government. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 954, ch. 794, § 17; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 121, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 17 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter was amended generally as section 16 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943.

§ 46–317 [8: 328]. Records and reports.

(a) Every employing unit, whether or not liable to pay contributions under section 46–303, shall keep such true and accurate work records with respect to all individuals employed by it as the Board may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection by the Board and shall be subject to being copied by the Board or their authorized representative at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary.

(b) The Board may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports in connection with its business, covering employment, employees, wages, earnings, unemployment and related matters, as the Board deems necessary to the effective administration of this chapter. Except as hereinbefore provided in section 46–13 (f), information thus obtained may not be divulged. Any person who violates any provision of this section or section 46–13 (f) shall be fined not less than $20 nor more than $200 or imprisoned not longer than ninety days, or both. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 955, ch. 794, § 18; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 122, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 18 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter was amended generally as section 17 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–318 [8: 329]. Protection of rights and benefits.

(a) No agreement by any individual to waive any of his rights under this chapter or to pay any part of the contribution payable by his employer with respect to his or any other individual's employment, shall be valid; nor shall any employer make, require, or permit any deduction from the wages payable to his employees for the purpose of paying any part of the contributions required of the employer under this chapter, or require or attempt to induce any individual to waive any right he may acquire under this chapter. Any employer who violates any provision of this subsection shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

(b) No assignment, pledge, or encumbrance of any right to benefits which are or may become due or payable under this chapter shall be valid or enforceable; and the right to any such benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, or any other remedy whatsoever provided for the collection of debt; and the benefits received by any individual so long as they are not mingled with other funds of the recipient shall be exempt from any remedy whatsoever for the collection of all debts except debts accrued for necessaries furnished to such individual, his spouse, or his dependents during the time when such individual was unemployed.

(c) No individual seeking to establish a claim for benefits shall be charged any fee whatsoever by the Board or its representatives, or by the court or any officer thereof. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceeding before the Board or its representative or the court may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent; but no such counsel or agent shall either charge or receive for such services more than an amount approved by the Board. Any person who violates any provision of this subsection shall, for each such offense, be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 955, ch. 794, § 19; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 123, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 19 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was amended generally as section 18 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–319 [8: 330]. Penalties.

(a) Whoever makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to obtain or increase any benefit or other payment provided for in this chapter for himself or any other individual, shall, for each such offense, be fined not more than $100 or imprisoned not more than sixty days, or both.

(b) Any employing unit, and any officer or agent of any employing unit or any other person, who furnishes a false record or makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to avoid the payment of any or all of the contributions required of such employing unit under this chapter, or to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or who fails or refuses to pay the contributions or other payment or to furnish any reports required of him under this chapter, shall for each such offense be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both. For purposes of this subsection an officer of a corporation charged with any duty required by this chapter shall be personally liable to prosecution under this section.

(c) Any person who shall willfully violate any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation thereunder, the violation of which is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the terms of this chapter, and for which a penalty is neither prescribed herein nor provided by any other applicable statute, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200 or by imprisonment for not longer than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day such violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate offense.

(d) Any person who, by reason of his fraud, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which he is not entitled shall, in the discretion of the Board, be liable to repay such sum to the Board, to be deposited in the fund; be liable to have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter; or may have such sum waived in the discretion of the Board. If any person, other than by reason of his fraud, is paid any sum as benefits under this chapter, to which he was not entitled, he shall not be liable to repay such sum, but in the discretion of the Board be liable to have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him with respect to the benefit year current at the time of such receipt: Provided, however, That no such recoupment from future benefits shall be had if such sum is received by such person without fault on his part and such recoupment would defeat the purpose of this chapter or would be against equity and good conscience; or in the discretion of the Board such recoupment has been waived. In any case in which, under this subsection, a claimant is liable to repay to the Board any sum, such sum may be collected without interest, by civil action in the name of the Board. The disbursing officer and certifying officer of the Board shall not be held liable for any amounts certified or paid by them, in good faith, prior to the effective date of this chapter, or subsequent thereto, to any person where the refund, recoupment, adjustment, or recovery of such amount is waived under this subsection or where such refund, recoupment, adjustment, or recovery under this subsection is not completed prior to the death of the person against whom such refund, recoupment, adjustment, or recovery has been authorized. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 20; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 123, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 20 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was generally amended as section 19 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–320 [8: 331]. Disposition of fines.

The amount of all fines collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be turned over to the Board and by it paid into the District unemployment fund. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 21; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 124, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

§ 46–321. Representation in court.

(a) On the request of the Board the United States attorney for the District of Columbia shall represent the Board in any action in court arising under this chapter, or in connection with the administration and enforcement of its provisions, or the rules and regulations authorized thereunder, including actions for the collection of contributions due hereunder; but in any civil action the Board may be represented by its own counsel.

(b) Violations of any provision of this chapter shall be prosecuted by the United States attorney for the District of Columbia. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 22; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 124, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 22 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to similar subject matter, was amended generally as section 21 of such act by section 1 of the amendatory act of June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–322. All audits by District auditor.

All audits herein prescribed shall be made by the District auditor in the same manner as are all other audits of the District. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 23; June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 125, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

Section, formerly section 23 of act Aug. 28, 1935, cited to text, which related to right to amend or repeal is now section 46–323 and subject matter of this section is based on section 22 of said act Aug. 28, 1935, as amended by section 1 of act June 4, 1943, cited to text.

§ 46–323. Right to amend or repeal.

All rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or by acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of Congress to amend or repeal this chapter at any time. (Aug. 28, 1935, ch. 794, § 24, as added June 4, 1943, 57 Stat. 125, ch. 117.)

AMENDMENTS

STATUTORY REFERENCE

U. S. C., title 31, § 665, above referred to reads as follows: "No executive department or other Government establishment of the United States shall expend, in any one fiscal year, any sum in excess of appropriations made by Congress for that fiscal year or involve the Government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriations unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law. Nor shall any department or any officer of the Government accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in cases of sudden emergency involving the loss of human life or the destruction of property. All appropriations made for contingent expenses or other general purposes, except appropriations made in fulfillment of contract obligations expressly authorized by law, or for objects required or authorized by law without reference to the amounts annually appropriated therefor, shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, be so apportioned by monthly or other allotments as to prevent expenditures in one portion of the year which may necessitate deficiency or additional appropriations to complete the service of the fiscal year for which said appropriations are made; and all such apportionments shall be adhered to and shall not be waived or modified except upon the happening of some extraordinary emergency or unusual circumstance which could not be anticipated at the time of making such apportionment, but this provision shall not apply to the contingent appropriations of the Senate or House of Representatives; and in case said apportionments are waived or modified as herein provided, the same shall be waived or modified in writing by the head of such executive department or other Government establishment having control of the expenditure, and the reasons therefor shall be fully set forth in each particular case and communicated to Congress in connection with estimates for any additional appropriations required on account thereof. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be summarily removed from office and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month. (R. S. § 3679; Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1484, § 4, 33 Stat. 1257; Feb. 27, 1906, ch. 510, § 3, 34 Stat. 48.)"

§ 47–106 [20: 626]. Apportionment of appropriations for contingent and miscellaneous expenses.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, so apportion appropriations made for contingent and miscellaneous expenses under the Metropolitan police, fire department, electrical department, and other offices or departments of the government of the District of Columbia as to prevent deficiencies in said appropriations. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 561, ch. 1351.)

§ 47–107 [20: 627]. Appropriations for contingent expenses—Accounting.

All expenditures from appropriations made for contingent expenses of the District of Columbia shall be accounted for in the General Accounting Office as other expenditures for the District, and a detailed statement of such expenditures shall be reported to Congress in accordance with section 104 of title 5 of the Code of Laws of the United States. (Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145; July 18, 1888, 25 Stat. 314, ch. 676; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1888 amendment repealed from the 1885 act the following: "That thereafter all appropriations made for contingent expenses of the District of Columbia shall be expended under the direction and in the sole discretion of the Commissioners."

The 1921 act transferred the duties of the Treasury in this matter to the General Accounting Office. The 1885 act provided for an accounting "in the Treasury Department."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

U. S. C., title 5, § 104, above referred to reads: "The head of each department shall require of the disbursing officers, acting under his direction and authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the moneys which may have been from time to time during the next preceding year expended by them. (R. S., § 193; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1, 45 Stat. 986.)"

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POWERS OF COMPTROLLER GENERAL

No greater powers were given to the Comptroller General than had been enjoyed by his predecessors. Mare v. Alexander ((D. C.-Mass.), 2 Fed. (2d) 895, affd. 5 Fed. (2d) 964).

SHIPPING BOARD EMERGENCY FLEET CORPORATION

The Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation organized as a private corporation under District of Columbia laws, is an entity distinct from the United States and its financial transactions are within the control of its own officers. Mandamus to subject a claim against it to the audit of the Comptroller General must therefore be refused. United States ex rel. Skinner and Eddy Corp. v. McCarl (275 U. S. 1, 72 L. Ed. 131, 48 Sup. Ct. 12).

§ 47–108 [20: 636a]. Permanent appropriations repealed.

(a) Effective July 1, 1935, such portion of any Acts as provide appropriations from the appropriation accounts appearing on the books of the Government and listed in subsection (b) of this section are hereby repealed, and any balances remaining in, or but for this provision would accrue to, such accounts shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia. Any claims accruing on or after July 1, 1935, which but for this section properly would have been charged to these appropriation accounts shall, upon proper audit, be certified to Congress for appropriation, which is hereby authorized.

(b) (1) Militia fund from fines, District of Columbia (DCs592).

(2) Industrial Home School fund, District of Columbia (DCs463).

§ 47–111 [20: 637]. Membership dues of District of Columbia employees to be specifically authorized.

No money appropriated by any Act of Congress shall be expended for membership fees or dues of any officer or employee of the District of Columbia in any society or association or for expenses of attendance of any person at any meeting or convention of members of any society or association, unless such fees, dues, or expenses are authorized to be paid by specific appropriations for such purposes or are provided for in express terms in some general appropriation. (June 26, 1912, 37 Stat. 184, ch. 182, § 8.)

§ 47–112 [20: 638]. Disbursing officer—Appointment—Bond—Duties.

The disbursing officer shall be appointed by the Commissioners, and shall give bond to the United States in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, for the benefit of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and all persons interested conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office in the disbursing and accounting, according to law, for all moneys of the United States and of the District of Columbia that may come into his hands, which bond shall be approved by the said Commissioners and the Secretary of the Treasury and be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That advances in money shall be made, on the requisition of said Commissioners, to the said disbursing officer instead of to the Commissioners, and he shall account for the same as required by section 47–309. Said disbursing officer shall be subordinate to the commissioners, and they shall in every respect be responsible to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals for the acts and doings of said disbursing officer.

The disbursing officer is authorized to pay laborers and employees of the District of Columbia, and such payments shall be made upon pay rolls or other vouchers audited and approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, and certified by the Commissioners as required by section 47–309. Said pay rolls and other vouchers shall be included in the account of the Commissioners.

The accounts of the disbursing officer shall be audited by the auditor of the District of Columbia, who shall promptly forward the same to the Commissioners for their approval. (Mar. 3, 1891, 26 Stat. 1064, ch. 546; July 14, 1892, 27 Stat. 151, ch. 171; June 30, 1898, 30 Stat. 526, ch. 540.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This section does not impose responsibility for the faults of the disbursing clerk upon the auditor. District of Columbia v. Petty (229 U. S. 593, 57 L. Ed. 1343, 33 Sup. Ct. 881).

§ 47–113 [20: 639]. Deputy disbursing officer—Duties—Bond.

The deputy disbursing officer shall, in the absence of the disbursing officer, be authorized to transact all duties pertaining to said disbursing officer, and shall be required to give bond to the said disbursing officer in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his office, but said disbursing officer to be responsible to the United States, District of Columbia, and the people whom he pays, as required by law. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 555, ch. 789.)

§ 47–114 [20: 640]. Advances to the major and superintendent of police.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia may advance to the major and superintendent of the Metropolitan police, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, from the appropriation for miscellaneous and contingent expenses of the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia, sums of money, not exceeding three hundred dollars at any one time, to be used only for the prevention and detection of crime, and to be accounted for monthly on itemized vouchers to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 27, 1904, 33 Stat. 381, ch. 1628.)

§ 47–115 [20: 641]. Advances to director of public welfare.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the director of public welfare, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia and upon such security as may be required of said director by the commissioners, sums of money not to exceed $400 at any one time, to be used for expenses in placing and visiting children, traveling on official business of the board, and for office and sundry expenses, all such expenditures to be accounted for to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia within one month on itemized vouchers properly approved. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1289, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is repeated in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1933 (47 Stat. 370, ch. 308) and in the Appropriation Act for 1934 (June 16, 1933, 48 Stat. 243, ch. 93) and thereafter, including the act for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 326, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47–116 [20: 642]. Advances to chief probation officer of juvenile court.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the chief probation officer of the juvenile court upon requisition previously approved by the judge of the juvenile court and the auditor of the District of Columbia, sums of money not to exceed $50 at any one time, to be expended for transportation and traveling expenses to secure the return of absconding probationers, and to be accounted for monthly on itemized vouchers to the accounting officer of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1286, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is repeated in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1933 (47 Stat. 367, ch. 308) and in the Appropriation Act for 1934 (48 Stat. 240, ch. 93) and thereafter, including the act for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 324, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47–117 [20: 643]. Advances to superintendent of penal institutions.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the general superintendent of penal institutions, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, and upon such security as the commissioners may require of said superintendent, sums of money not exceeding $100 at one time, to be used only for expenses in returning escaped prisoners, payable from the maintenance appropriations for the workhouse and reformatory, all such expenditures to be accounted for to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia within one month on itemized vouchers properly approved. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1286, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for 1933 and 1934 (47 Stat. 370, ch. 308 and 48 Stat. 244, ch. 93), repeated this authority but increased to $200 the sum that might be advanced. It was increased to $300 in the act for 1940 (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1026, ch. 281) and for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 327, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47–118 [20: 643a]. Advances to librarian of Public Library.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the librarian of the Public Library, upon requisition previously approved by the Auditor of the District of Columbia, not exceeding $50 at the first of each month, for the purchase of certain books, pamphlets, periodicals, or newspapers, or other printed material. (June 19, 1948, 62 Stat. 543, ch. 555, § 1.)

(June 26, 1912, 37 Stat. 184, ch. 182, § 10; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7; Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 1; June 7, 1926, 44 Stat. 697, ch. 480.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section has been reworded by the compiler to express the present state of the law. It formerly made provision for payment of fees into the Treasury to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportion as appropriations for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year are paid from the Treasury of the United States and the revenues of the District of Columbia. It is believed that these provisions no longer apply, see acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, 669, ch. 249, § 1, which provided as follows:

"Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States excepting such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis, * * * and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

The appropriation act of June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 539, ch. 302, § 1, made a lump-sum appropriation as follows: "Any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:"

Subsequent appropriation acts contained similar provisions, changing only the amount of the appropriation and the fiscal year (see act of June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1). These appropriation acts did not, however, provide for the repeal of the provisions of the 1922 act above quoted. This was done by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, § 8, which added Title 10 to the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690.

From the foregoing it would seem that there is no longer any apportionment of expenses or segregation of revenues unless specific provision is made therefor by Congress subsequent to the repeal provision.

Section 10 of the act of 1912 closed with a clause reading as follows: "and the annual wheel tax on all automobiles or other motor vehicles." This tax is no longer being collected and the above-quoted words were deleted as obsolete.

AMENDMENTS

The 1912 act provided that the payments should be credited equally to the District and the United States.

The 1921 act provided fees "paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in equal parts shall be paid for each fiscal year into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportions as appropriations for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year are paid from the Treasury of the United States and the revenues of the District of Columbia."

The act of Apr. 24, 1926, related to the fees of the offices of register of wills and recorder, see §§ 19–404, 45–709.

The provision of the 1912 act including "The tax of one-half of one cent paid by any street or other railroad company for each passenger carried across the Highway Bridge" was deleted by the June 7, 1926, act.

The District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1934 (June 16, 1933, 48 Stat. 244, ch. 93) provided: "To provide a working capital fund for such industrial enterprises as may be approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, $35,000: Provided, That the various departments and institutions of the District of Columbia and the Federal Government may purchase, at fair market prices, as determined by the Commissioners, such surplus products and services as meet their requirements; receipts from the sale of products and services shall be deposited to the credit of said working capital fund, and said fund, including all receipts credited thereto, shall be used as a revolving fund for the fiscal year 1934 for the purchase and repair of machinery, tools, and equipment, purchase of raw materials and manufacturing supplies, purchase, maintenance, and operation of nonpassenger-carrying vehicles, purchase and maintenance of horses, and purchase of fuel for manufacturing purposes; for freight, personal services, and all other necessary expenses; and for the payment to inmates or their dependents of such pecuniary earnings as the Commissioners may deem proper."

AMENDMENTS

The act of June 28, 1944, cited to text, amended section by inserting "1945" for "1930", and by omitting last sentence which read "the Commissioners * * * working capital fund.".

§ 47–132 [20: 657]. Money received from sale of animals and materials to be paid into Treasury.

All moneys received from the sales of animals or materials of any sort, purchased under appropriations made for the District of Columbia since July 1, 1878, other than for the water department, shall be paid into the treasury of the United States, to the credit of the District unless otherwise provided by law. (Mar. 2, 1889, 25 Stat. 808, ch. 370, § 3; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7.)

§ 47–133 [20: 658]. Appropriations for playground employees to be paid from District revenues.

The appropriations for salaries of employees of the playgrounds shall be paid wholly out of the revenues of the District of Columbia. (June 26, 1912, 37 Stat. 153, ch. 182.)

§ 47–134 [20: 670b]. Annual Federal payment.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, and for each fiscal year thereafter, there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, as the annual payment by the United States toward defraying the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia, the sum of $6,000,000. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1085, ch. 367, title I; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The former law, the act of June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249 (D. C. 1929, title 20, § 670a) has been repealed by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8. It provided as follows: "Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States, except such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis."

AMENDMENT

This section was repeated in the Appropriation Act of 1940.

§ 47–201 [20: 659]. Salaries of force for protection of courthouse—Payment—Estimates.

The salaries of the force necessary for the care and protection of the courthouse in the District of Columbia and of the salary of the Superintendent of the Washington Asylum and Jail shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the Treasury of the United States in the manner prescribed by the District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for the respective years for which such sums are provided, and estimates for such expenses shall each year hereafter be submitted in the annual estimates for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia. (July 31, 1894, 28 Stat. 202, ch. 174; Mar. 2, 1911, 36 Stat. 1003, ch. 192; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249; Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title X, as added by May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1125, ch. 681, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1911 amendment combined the Washington jail and the Washington asylum into one institution called, "Washington Asylum and Jail."

The act of June 29, 1922, cited to the text, which formed the basis for percentage liabilities, was repealed by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8, adding title X to the act of Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690. The repealing act does not provide any substitute provision, and the 1922 act contains a provision repealing all prior inconsistent acts. However, acts making apropriations for the Departments of State, Commerce, and Justice, and for the judiciary, have, since the act of Apr. 27, 1938, 52 Stat. 265 ch. 180, § 1, down to and including the act of May 14, 1940, 54 Stat. 207, ch. 189, § 1, contained the following provision: "Sixty per centum of the expenditures for the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia from all appropriations under this title and 30 per centum of the expenditures for the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia from all appropriations under this title shall be reimbursed to the United States from any funds in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia."

The Deficiency Appropriation Act of June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1125, ch. 681, § 1, and other such acts including the Second Deficiency Appropriation Act of June 27, 1940, 54 Stat. 639, ch. 437, contained the following language: "The foregoing sums for the District of Columbia, unless otherwise therein specifically provided, shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the Treasury of the United States in the manner prescribed by the District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for the respective years for which such sums are provided."

It may also be noted that there is now made a lump-sum appropriation, July 29, 1939, 53 Stat. 1085, ch. 367, title I (§ 47–134).

§ 47–202 [20: 660]. Estimates—Repairs to schools.

A detailed statement of the expenditure of the appropriation made for repairs and improvements to school buildings and grounds and for repairing and renewing heating, plumbing, and ventilating apparatus, and installation of sanitary drinking fountains in buildings not supplied with same, and the taking down, transferring, and the re-erection of portable schools shall be submitted with the annual estimates. (Mar. 3, 1915, 38 Stat. 910, ch. 80.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 23, ch. 18, provided for the General Accounting Office.

§ 47–203 [20: 661]. Estimates for schools to be in accordance with 5-year building program.

Estimates of expenditures for buildings and grounds for the public schools of the District of Columbia, shall hereafter be prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved February 26, 1925. (Feb. 26, 1925, 43 Stat. 994, ch. 342, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of February 26, 1925, referred to in the text is omitted from the code, except § 5 which is classified as § 31–804 and § 9 which is this section.

(Leg. Assem., Aug. 23, 1871, ch. 108, § 7; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

The salary now paid is governed by the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673).
The 1874 act vested authority in the Commissioners.

§ 47–303 [20: 630]. Deputy collector of taxes—Duties—Bond.

The deputy collector of taxes shall perform such duties as may be required of him by the collector, and the collector may require the said deputy collector to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties; but the collector shall in every respect be responsible, as now provided by law, to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected. (June 11, 1896, 29 Stat. 394, ch. 419.)

§ 47–304 [20: 631]. Cashier in collector's office—Duties—Responsibility.

The cashier (in the collector's office) shall, in the necessary absence or inability of the collector, from any cause, perform his duties without any additional compensation; and the collector may require the said cashier to give bond for the faithful performance of such duties during the absence or inability of the collector; but the collector shall in every respect be responsible, as now provided by law, to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected. (Aug. 6, 1890, 26 Stat. 294, ch. 724.)

§ 47–305 [20: 632]. Account books to be kept by collector.

It shall be the duty of the collector to keep in his office account books, in which shall be entered: First, the dates of payment of all taxes; second, the amounts paid; third, the names of the persons by whom payment has been made; fourth, the years paid for; fifth, the property paid on; and sixth, the names of the persons to whom assessed. His books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any officer who may be authorized by the commissioners to examine the same. (Leg. Assem., Aug. 23, 1871, ch. 108, § 1; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

Chapter 4.—DESIGNATION OF PROPERTY FOR ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION

Sec.

47–401. Squares, lots, blocks, parcels, to be numbered—City of Washington.
47–402. Designation to be official.
47–403. Daily transcript from records of recorder of deeds and register of wills.
47–404. Designation of land for assessment—Beyond city limits.
47–405. Designation of land to be numbered.
47–406. Designation of land—Plat books to be made under authority of Commissioners—Custody of surveyor.
47–407. Surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of records of deeds, wills, condemnations, and decrees.
47–408. Designation given to land sufficient for tax sales purposes.
47–409. Sale of property belonging to the United States—Report of sale.

§ 47–401 [20: 671]. Squares, lots, blocks, parcels to be numbered—City of Washington.

For the purposes of facilitating assessment and taxation of real estate in the District of Columbia, the following system of designating the several parcels of land therein is hereby prescribed, and every designation given in conformity with said system shall be a sufficient description of the parcel of land to which it relates, for all purposes of assessment and collection of taxes and assessments of every kind:

Each square in the city of Washington shall bear a number or other designation that will distinguish it from every other square in said city.

Each lot or parcel of ground in each such square shall bear a number or other designation that will distinguish it from every other lot or parcel of ground in such square.

Each block in each subdivision in said District outside of the limits of the city of Washington shall bear a number that will distinguish it from every other such block.

Each lot or parcel of land in each such block shall bear a number that will distinguish it from every other lot therein.

Each piece or parcel of unsubdivided land and each parcel of land deeded by metes and bounds in said District shall have a distinctive designation.

As nearly as practicable, in the judgment of the commissioners, the numbers in each of the aforesaid squares, blocks, or parcels of land requiring to be numbered shall be in a regularly increasing numerical sequence and order, beginning with the lowest number practicable; and, in case of the lots, shall commence at the same relative location in each of the squares, blocks, or parcels of land, and be continued in the same relative order.

It shall be the duty of the said commissioners to cause a record of the designations of the several aforesaid parcels of land to be made in accordance with the foregoing system, in the office of the surveyor of said District; and hereafter it shall be the duty of the surveyor, in giving numbers to blocks or lots of future subdivisions, to be governed by said system. (Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1376, ch. 457, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Insofar as this section provides a numbering system for blocks, subdivisions, and parcels of land within the District but lying outside the city of Washington, it has been superseded by §§ 47–404 to 47–408.

§ 47–403 [20: 673]. Daily transcript from records of recorder of deeds and register of wills.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cause to be made a daily transcript, and entry on the records of said assessor, of the designations of lots or parcels of land in said District appearing in instruments of conveyance received for record in the office of the recorder of deeds, and the designations of lots or parcels of land in said District transferred by probated wills; and the person or persons whom the Commissioners of said District may designate for the purpose of making such transcript shall for this purpose at all times during office hours have full access to the records of the recorder of deeds and the register of wills of said District; and the assessor shall daily furnish the surveyor with a copy of such transcript. (Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1377, ch. 457, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Insofar as this section provides a numbering system for blocks, subdivisions, and parcels of land within the District but lying outside the city of Washington, it has been superseded by § 47–407.

CROSS REFERENCE

Transcript from surveyor's office, § 47–407.

§ 47–404 [20: 674]. Designation of land for assessment—Beyond city limits.

For the purpose of facilitating the assessment and taxation of real property in the territory within the limits of the District of Columbia lying outside of the city of Washington the following system of designating the several subdivisions, blocks, lots, and parcels of land is hereby prescribed, and each and every designation made or given in conformity with said system shall be deemed a sufficient description of the property to which it relates for all purposes of assessment and the collection of taxes and assessments of every kind. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 737, ch. 735, § 1.)

§ 47–405 [20: 675]. Designation of land to be numbered.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be given numbers to all of said blocks or squares, lots or parcels of land as said blocks, squares, lots, or parcels of land have been formed by the highway-extension plan, of record on February 23, 1905, in the office of surveyor of the District of Columbia, and subdivisions existing on February 23, 1905, and to place the numbers so given upon the said highway-extension plan: Provided, That in all cases where two or more blocks or parts of contiguous existing subdivisions are surrounded as a group by existing streets or roads, or by proposed streets of the highway-extension plan, such group shall be numbered as a block or square upon the recorded plats of the highway-extension plan: Provided further, That where lots are numbered in duplicate in any block or square which includes parts of two or more existing subdivisions, new lot numbers shall be given said lots numbered in duplicate, and new lot numbers shall also be given to all parts of lots remaining after the extension of streets or alleys by dedication, condemnation, or purchase, whereby parts of lots have become public property: Provided further, That new lot numbers shall also be given to all parts of original and subdivided lots existing on February 23, 1905, on the records of the assessor and the surveyor of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 737, ch. 735, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SQUARE BOUNDARIES

Streets projected by the highway commission are designated as "square boundaries." Hazard v. Blessing (55 App. D. C. 114, 2 Fed. (2d) 916).

POWERS OF COMMISSIONERS

Commissioners could not open street running through corners of two squares and across proposed street. Rudolph v. Warwick (56 App. D. C. 128, 10 Fed. (2d) 993).

The commissioners were authorized and directed to number all the blocks or squares, lots or parcels of land which had been formed by the highway extension plan as shown by the records of the surveyor of the District of Columbia. Hazard v. Blessing (55 App. D. C. 114, 2 Fed. (2d) 916).

§ 47–406 [20: 676]. Designation of land—Plat books to be made under authority of Commissioners—Custody of surveyor.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cause to be prepared a series of volumes of plats, on a scale of one hundred feet to the inch, embracing all the land in said District outside the city of Washington, these plats to show at all times the separate parcels of land created by subdivisions, sales, wills, condemnations, dedications, decrees of court, or otherwise, each with its distinctive number. Said books shall be kept in the office of the surveyor of said District, and shall be numbered according to the first and last page numbers of each volume, the pages being numbered continuously, and indefinitely rising in numbers as new books are opened to record changes in the outlines of parcels from any cause. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 3.)

§ 47–407 [20: 677]. Surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of records of deeds, wills, condemnations, and decrees.

For the purpose of keeping said books constantly current and up to date, the said commissioners shall cause an employee of the surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of all deeds of conveyance, wills, condemnations, decrees, and other instruments or proceedings by which boundaries are changed; for which purpose, such employee of the surveyor's office shall at all times during business hours have full and free access to all records of the recorder of deeds, register of wills, clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, marshal, and other officials; and the surveyor shall furnish to the assessor a copy of such transcript, from which a duplicate set of taxation and assessment plat books shall be maintained by the said assessor: Provided, That the current series of taxation and assessment plat books in the surveyor's office shall be the standard book of reference for all purposes of assessment and taxation by all departments of the government of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 4.)

§ 47–408 [20: 678]. Designation given to land sufficient for tax sales purposes.

The designation given as hereinbefore prescribed in section 47–404 to each block or square, lot or parcel of land, respectively appearing on the records of the assessor of the District of Columbia at the time any assessment or tax is levied for which such property may become subject to sale, shall be a complete and official designation of said block or square, lot or parcel of land, for the purpose of the collection of taxes or assessments of any kind, and the designations so given shall be considered good and sufficient descriptions in any advertisements of such property for sale for delinquent taxes or assessments. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 5.)

§ 47–409 [20: 962]. Sale of property belonging to the United States—Report of sale.

It shall be the duty of the Director of the National Park Service, within ninety days after the sale of any lots or squares belonging to the United States in the city of Washington, to report the fact to the proper officers of the District, giving the date of sale, the number of the lot and square, and the name of the purchaser; and such lots or squares shall be liable to taxation by the District from the day of sale. (R. S., D. C., § 143; Feb. 26, 1925, 43 Stat. 983, ch. 339, § 3; Mar. 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The functions of the Office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital were transferred to the Office of National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations, and the first mentioned agency abolished by the President's Reorganization Plan No. 1, Executive Order 6166, § 2. The act of Mar. 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1 provided that thereafter the Office of National Parks, Buildings and Reservations should be known as the National Park Service.

Chapter 5.—RATES, RECORDS, AND SURPLUS FUNDS

Sec.

47–501. Assessment of taxes on real and personal property—Rate of taxation—Collection.
47–502. Treasury Department to keep record of receipts and disbursements relative to District of Columbia.
47–503. Disposition of surplus funds—To be applied to succeeding year's expenditures.

§ 47–501 [20: 681]. Assessment of taxes on real and personal property—Rate of taxation—Collection.

For the purpose of defraying such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may from time to time appropriate for, there hereby is levied for each and every fiscal year, a tax at such rate on the real and personal property subject to taxation in the District as will, when added to the other taxes and revenues of the District, produce money enough to enable the District to pay promptly and in full all sums directed by Congress to be paid by the District, and for which appropriation has been duly made; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia hereby are empowered and directed to ascertain, determine, and fix annually such rate of taxation as will, when applied as aforesaid, produce the money needed to defray the share of the expenses of the District during the year for which the rate is fixed; and the Commissioners of the District shall, in accordance with existing law, cause all such taxes and revenues to be promptly collected and, when collected, to be daily deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the District for the purposes herein set out. (June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

A minimum rate of 1.75 percent on real and tangible personal property for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, was set out by the act of Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 692, ch. 690, title VII, § 1. That section was amended by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, title VI, § 7, which set the minimum rate for the year ending June 30, 1939. But the act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 3, amended the 1937 section as amended to read, "For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, the rate of taxation imposed on real and tangible personal property in the District of Columbia shall be 1.75 per centum of the assessed value of such property." It is believed that it was an inadvertence on the part of Congress in making the $1.75 rate for the fiscal year of 1940 mandatory. In all probability it was intended to provide that the rate should not be less than $1.75, as was done in the case of the two preceding years, but even though it was intended to make the $1.75 rate mandatory for the fiscal year 1940, this would take all discretionary power from the Commission for that year only, and since, up to January 1, 1941, no rate has been fixed by Congress for any fiscal year subsequent to 1940, the rate would seem to be within the absolute discretion of the Commissioners.

The act from which this section was taken also levied a tax "on such intangible personal property as is subject to taxation in the District of Columbia, at the rate of five-tenths of one per centum on the full market value thereof" and contained a further provision, "the rate fixed herein on intangible personal property not to be made less but which may be increased by the Commissioners in their discretion to any rate not in excess of the rate imposed upon real estate." A rewording of these clauses, included in the comparable section of the 1929 Code, have been deleted because the Revenue Act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1) provided: "The tax on intangible personal property imposed by any law relating to the District shall not apply with respect to any year subsequent to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939."

RATE FOR FISCAL YEARS 1948 AND 1949

The Act of July 16, 1947, ch. 258, Art. II, 61 Stat. 359, provided:

For each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1948, and June 30, 1949, respectively, the rate of taxation imposed for the District of Columbia on real and tangible personal property shall not be less than 2 per centum on the assessed value of such property.

RATE FOR FISCAL YEAR 1950

The Act of May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VII, § 701, provided:

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, the rate of taxation on real property in the District of Columbia shall not be less than 2.15 per centum on the assessed value of such property.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MIGRATORY PROPERTY

This section and § 47–1201 et seq. authorizing taxation by District of Columbia of all tangible "personal property subject to taxation" contemplates personal property having a definite and permanent situs in the District and not temporarily brought into District by nonresident, and this section and said § 47–1201 et seq. apply only to property that has acquired a fixed, definite and permanent taxable situs. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

§ 47–502 [20: 682]. Treasury Department to keep record of receipts and disbursements relative to District of Columbia.

The treasury department shall accurately keep an account showing all receipts and disbursements relative to the revenues and expenditures of the District of Columbia, and shall also show the sources of the revenue, the purpose of expenditure, and the appropriation under which the expenditure is made; and any and all revenue derived from property not owned wholly or in part by the District of Columbia, as between the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be the property of the United States. (June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, title X, § 38.)

AMENDMENT

The act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, title X, § 8, repealed that part of this section reading as follows: "and where the United States is the owner of ground or the holder thereof in trust for the public, upon which improvements have been made at the joint expense of the United States and the District of Columbia, the revenues therefrom shall first be used to pay the United States 3 per centum of the full value of the ground as a ground rent, and the remainder shall be divided between them in the same proportion that each contributed to said improvements, and for such purposes the assessor for the District of Columbia shall fix the full value of the ground after he has first made oath that he will fairly and impartially appraise the same." That act also repealed the following language of the 1922 act, cited to the text: "; and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

§ 47–503 [20: 683]. Disposition of surplus funds—To be applied to succeeding year's expenditures.

If, for any fiscal year, the District of Columbia should raise and deposit in the treasury to its credit, more money derived from taxation, privileges, and other sources authorized in this chapter than may be necessary for the purposes therein, such excess shall be available the succeeding year, in the discretion of the Commissioners, either for the purpose of meeting the expense chargeable to the District of Columbia and/or for the further purpose of enabling the Commissioners to fix a lower rate of taxation for the year following the one in which said excess accrued than they might otherwise be able to do; and the agencies through which the District of Columbia collects its revenue derived from taxation shall also collect for the United States any revenues which by section 47–502 become the sole property of the United States, and said revenues shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as "miscellaneous receipts"; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall not be restricted in submitting to the Bureau of the Budget their estimates of the needs of the District, but they shall, as near as may be bring them within the probable aggregate of the fixed proportionate appropriations to be paid by the United States and the District of Columbia. (June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section formerly contained the words, "but the revenues from the property known as Center Market shall not be so collected," following the words "miscellaneous receipts," but this market is no longer in existence, see Act of June 6, 1930, 46 Stat. 523, ch. 412 and note to § 10–137. For this reason that part of the section above quoted has been deleted.

Chapter 6.—TAX ASSESSOR

Sec.

47–601. Assessor of District of Columbia to prepare annual tax ledgers—Statement of assessment and taxes.
47–602. Assessor to furnish bonds.
47–603. Records to be kept by assessor—Duties of assessor.
47–604. Board of assistant assessors—Appointment—Qualifications—Clerk.
47–605. Assistant assessors—Three members to assess real property and three members to assess personal property.
47–606. Assessor to have power to administer oaths and summon witnesses.

§ 47–601 [20: 691]. Assessor of District of Columbia to prepare annual tax ledgers—Statement of assessment and taxes.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall be charged with the duty of preparing the annual tax ledgers on a numerical system, which shall be finished or completed at such time as will allow preparation by him of tax bills for collection purposes. Upon the completion of the tax ledgers, said assessor shall prepare a statement showing the total amount of the assessment of both real and personal property, and the total amount of taxes to be collected under said assessment; which statement shall be receipted by the collector of taxes in triplicate, and said collector shall be held responsible under his bond for all such taxes, except such as he may not be able to collect after fully complying with the requirements of law. The original receipt of said assessment and taxes shall be forwarded by the assessor to the General Accounting Office, the duplicate to the auditor of the District of Columbia, and the triplicate shall be retained by the collector. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 8; Mar. 31, 1892, 27 Stat. 13, ch. 30; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1921 act provided for the creation and duties of the General Accounting Office.

The 1926 act added the first sentence.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall give bond to the District of Columbia for the faithful and efficient performance of all the duties of his office in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with sureties to be approved by the commissioners of said District. (July 7, 1898, 30 Stat. 666, ch. 571.)

§ 47–603 [20: 748]. Records to be kept by assessor—Duties of assessor.

All records and accounts in any way relating or pertaining to the bookkeeping, accounting, and collection of taxes and assessments which, prior to June 25, 1938, were prepared by the assessor of the District of Columbia and kept in the office of the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia shall be transferred to and kept in the office of the said assessor. The said assessor shall be charged with the duties heretofore required of the collector of taxes in relation to the preparation and issuance of tax bills and bills for special taxes and assessments, the preparation for public inspection of lists of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold or which may hereafter be sold for the nonpayment of any general or special taxes or assessments, the furnishing of certified statements over his hand and official seal of all taxes and assessments general and special that may be due at the time of making the said certificate, and the preparation of the lists of taxes on real property in said District subject to taxation on which taxes are levied and in arrears on the 1st day of July in each year. On or before September 1 of each year the assessor shall prepare and retain in his office tax accounts in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District showing the assessed owners, amount, description, and value of real property listed for taxation in the District of Columbia, and on or before April 1 of each year the assessor shall prepare and retain in his office personal tax accounts in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District showing the names and addresses of assessed owners, and the location and value of the property assessed. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 11.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

For the duties referred to in the second sentence, see § 47–1010.

§ 47–604 [20: 693]. Board of assistant assessors—Appointment—Qualifications—Clerk.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia shall appoint six discreet persons, who shall have been bona fide residents of the District of Columbia for the period of at least five years, and conversant with real estate values therein, as a permanent board of assistant assessors. Each person so appointed on said board shall, within ten days after receiving notice thereof, take and subscribe an oath to diligently, faithfully, and impartially perform all and singular the duties imposed upon him by law. If any such appointee shall fail to qualify as aforesaid within the time prescribed, or shall fail to enter upon the discharge of his duties within fifteen days after such qualification, the appointment shall be void, and the commissioners shall forthwith appoint another suitable person, who shall qualify as above provided. And said commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to appoint a clerk for said board of assistant assessors; and said clerk shall also be the clerk for the board of equalization and review hereinafter provided for. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 282, ch. 287, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160; Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment changed the number of persons from three to five; struck out following the words "assistant assessors", the first time they appear. The following words, "shall hold office for a term of four years, unless sooner removed by said Commissioners for cause satisfactory to them"; and inserted the following words, "the assessor of the District of Columbia and the members of the permanent board of assistant assessors shall not be removed except for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance of office," which were repealed by the 1917 act. That part of the section as it appeared in the 1894 act providing for particular revision and equalization returns to be made before the first Monday in January 1895 has now been omitted as obsolete.

The 1926 amendment raised the number of members from five to six.

The law as originally enacted provided for salary of $3,000. The salary paid is now governed by the Classification Act of 1923 (42 Stat. 1488), U. S. C., title 5, § 673.

§ 47–605 [20: 694]. Assistant assessors—Three members to assess real property and three members to assess personal property.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall designate three of the members of said Board of Assistant Assessors for the assessment of real estate, and the three other members of said board to assess personal property, in accordance with law; all members of said board, together with the assessor of the District of Columbia, as chairman, shall constitute the Board of Equalization and Review of real-estate assessments, and also the Board of Personal Tax Appeals: Provided, That the assessor of the District of Columbia shall act as chairman, ex officio, of the several boards aforesaid. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment provided that three members should serve on the board to assess personal property. See amendment note to preceding section (§ 47–604.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

TESTIMONY OF ASSESSOR

In appraising property for tax assessment, a district assessor may not testify as expert witness in condemnation proceedings. Johnson v. Reichelderfer (60 App. D. C. 186, 50 Fed. (2d) 336).

However, see § 14–309.

§ 47–606 [20: 695]. Assessor to have power to administer oaths and summon witnesses.

The assessor of the District of Columbia and each member of said Board of Assistant Assessors in the discharge of any of the duties devolved upon him or them, or the Board of Equalization and Review, may administer all necessary oaths or affirmations. The assessor of the District of Columbia, or in his absence the temporary chairman of said board, shall have power to summon the attendance of any person before said board to be examined under oath touching such matters and things as the Board of Assistant Assessors or the said Board of Equalization and Review may deem advisable in the discharge of their duties; and any member of the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia may serve subpœnas in his behalf. Such fees shall be allowed witnesses so examined, to be paid out of the contingent fund of the commissioners, as are allowed in civil actions before the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Any person summoned and examined as aforesaid who shall knowingly make false oath or affirmation shall be guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof be punished according to the laws in force for the punishment of perjury. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 285, ch. 287. § 13.)

Chapter 7.—ASSESSMENT OF REAL PROPERTY

Sec.

47–701. Assessments to be made in the name of the owner.
47–702. Assessments to be made annually.
47–703. Assessments to be by lot and square.
47–704. Commissioners to supply Board of Assistant Assessors with plats.
47–705. Assistant assessor's valuation to be made separately for improvements and each tract or lot.
47–406. Board of Assistant Assessors to make annual tabulated report of property assessed.
47–707. Penalties.
47–708. Board of equalization and review—To meet annually—Notice of meetings.
47–709. Valuation of real property to be complete on the first Monday of June annually.
47–710. Real property and improvements becoming subject to taxation to be listed annually.
47–711. New buildings under roof to be included in list.
47–712. Assessment of omitted property—Voided assessments, reassessment of property.
47–713. Assessments to be according to true value of the property—Taxes on subdivisions made from July to December, inclusive.
47–714. Subdivisions made during January, February, March, April, May, or June—Taxation, special assessment.
47–715. Redistribution of assessment on application by owner of unsubdivided tract.
47–716. Application for redistribution or reassessment—Notice—Validity.
47–717. Reassessment of real estate by board of assistant assessors.
47–718. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company or Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company property—Taxation.
47–719. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company—Terminals—Taxation.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DECEASED OWNERS

Where wills of deceased nonresident owners of lots had not been probated in District of Columbia and it was not shown that commissioners were given notice of deaths of owners or who became owners under the wills, it was proper to assess lots in names of deceased owners. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Realty held by devisees as tenants in common was properly assessed under this section in the name of their testatrix even after probate of her will. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT

Where will placing record title to lot in husband and wife as trustees was probated after husband had acquired tax title in individual name, assessment in name of husband only was sufficient to give due notice of the assessment, within requirements of "due process of law". W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Persons owning undivided interests in realty in District of Columbia as devisees or heirs of deceased former owner are not prejudiced by assessment of such realty in name of their decedent because this section permitting such assessment places them on notice that assessment will be thus carried on tax rolls. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

PASSING OF POSSESSION

The quoted phrase as used in this section authorizing undivided real property of a deceased person to be assessed in name of such deceased person until it is divided, according to law, or has "otherwise passed into the possession of some other person or persons", refers to a passing other than by intestacy or the will itself. Turner v. Deming (App. D. C. 1946, 155 F. 2d 181, certiorari denied 67 S. Ct. 80, 329 U. S. 727, 91 L. Ed. 629).

Realty which passed into possession of testatrix's four children as tenants in common under the will did not thereby pass into possession of "some other person or persons", within this section, and hence assessment of the realty in testatrix's name was authorized. Turner v. Deming (App. D. C. 1946, 155 F. 2d 181, certiorari denied 67 S. Ct. 80, 329 U. S. 727, 91 L. Ed. 629).

PROPERTY NOT TO BE ASSESSED

Poles, conduits, wires, and lamps are not to be assessed under the real estate tax law. Rudolph v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (58 App. D. C. 54, 24 Fed. (2d) 882, 57 A. L. R. 865).

PURPOSE

This section permitting assessment of undivided real property of a deceased person in the name of decedent was intended to relieve taxing authorities of the burden of tracing heirs and devisees and their heirs and devisees, all of whom might own undivided interests in the same property. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

RECORD OWNER

Taxes must be assessed in the name of the record owner of the property. Tepper v. Fraser (63 App. D. C. 174, 70 Fed. (2d) 778).

TAX TITLE HOLDER

Where tax deed was made in accordance with § 47–1003, it was proper to assess taxes in name of tax title holder. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Where will placing record title to lot in husband and wife as trustees was probated after husband had acquired tax title in individual name, assessment in name of husband only was valid as being in name of "owner" within statutory requirement and the irregularity did not invalidate the assessment in view of "laches" in nonpayment of taxes from 1921 to 1929 and again from 1931 to 1934. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

TRUSTEE

Where will placing record title to lot in trustee was probated after trustee had acquired tax title in individual name, even if assessment in name of record holder under will was required, assessment in name of the trustee individually was proper. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

UNDIVIDED REAL PROPERTY

Realty owned by devisees as tenants in common was "undivided real property" within this section permitting assessment of undivided real property of a deceased person in decedent's name. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

Realty which was devised to testatrix's four children as tenants in common did not become "divided" when it passed to the children under the will, so as to preclude assessment of the realty in name of testatrix under this section. Turner v. Deming (App. D. C. 1946, 155 F. 2d 181, certiorari denied, 67 S. Ct. 80, 329 U. S. 727, 91 L. Ed. 629).

VALIDITY

Conveyance of title would not affect validity of assessment in grantor's name where conveyance was not recorded until after the assessment. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

§ 47–702 [20: 697]. Assessments to be made annually.

Assessments of real estate in the District of Columbia for purposes of taxation shall be made annually in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as heretofore provided by law for making biennial assessments of real estate in said District. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 3; Sept. 1, 1916, 39 Stat. 678, ch. 433; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "as heretofore provided by law" refer to this chapter, the basic law of which is the 1894 act, cited to the text. (See amendment note.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act provided "That real property shall be assessed and valued in the year 1896, and every third year thereafter, as herein provided."

The 1916 act provided for biennial assessments "in the same manner as is now required by law for triennial assessments."

CROSS REFERENCE

Time for payment, delinquency, § 47–1209.

§ 47–703 [20: 697a]. Assessments to be by lot and square.

Real estate in the city of Washington, except such as may be exempt by law from taxation, shall be assessed according to the number of the squares and lots thereof, or parts of lots, and upon the number of the square or superficial feet in each square or lot, or parts of a lot, and in the county the agricultural lands shall be assessed by the acre, and suburban lots by the square foot, as in the city of Washington. (Mar. 3, 1883, 22 Stat. 569, ch. 137, § 5; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

AMENDMENT

The 1895 act incorporated Georgetown into the city of Washington and directed "that the squares in Georgetown" be "renumbered, so that no square shall hereafter bear a like number to any square in the city of Washington."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FRONT-FOOT RULE

Assessment under front-foot rule held invalid. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525); Dougherty v. American Secur. & Trust Co. (59 App. D. C. 301, 40 Fed. (2d) 813, cert. den. 282 U. S. 854, 75 L. Ed. 757, 51 Sup. Ct. 31); Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

In applying this general law as to front-foot rule, which extends throughout the District, to a special assessment for street improvement not exclusively benefiting adjacent property-owners, the assessment cannot be upheld if it is in excess of the benefits and is not equal and fair in view of existing physical conditions, as where there is no relative equality in the value and depth of the abutting properties. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

In applying the front-foot rule under this act, the size, shape, improvements, or favorable location of property is not the test in determining validity of an assessment, but rather the relation of the property to other properties facing on the avenue and in the immediate vicinity. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

A road improvement assessment under the front-foot rule was canceled as inequitable as applied to a triangular-shaped lot. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

§ 47–704 [20: 698]. Commissioners to supply Board of Assistant Assessors with plats.

The commissioners shall furnish each member of said Board of Assistant Assessors with the necessary maps and field books, which shall contain an accurate list of each tract, together with a pertinent description of the real property situate in the District of Columbia, and, as far as may be known, the owner thereof; and also such blanks, forms, books, surveys, and plats as may be necessary for a systematic statement of the property to be assessed, and shall also furnish the said Board of Assistant Assessors with the necessary conveyance to view said property for assessment. Upon the completion of the assessment the said Board of Assistant Assessors shall deposit with the assessor of the District of Columbia all maps, field books, surveys, and plats, and all notes and memoranda thereof, and same shall be open to inspection by any taxpayer of said District. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 4.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Appointment of Board, § 47–605.

§ 47–705 [20: 699]. Assistant assessor's valuation to be made separately for improvements and each tract or lot.

Said Board of Assistant Assessors shall, from actual view and from the best sources of information in its reach, determine the value of each separate tract or lot of real property in the District of Columbia in lawful money, and shall separately estimate the value of all improvements on any tract or lot, and shall note the same in the proper field book, which shall be carried out as part of the value of such tract or lot, and shall also return the dimensions of each tract or lot, and said assistant assessors shall also perform such other official duties as may be required of them by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 6.)

§ 47–706 [20: 700]. Board of Assistant Assessors to make annual tabulated report of property assessed.

Said Board of Assistant Assessors shall annually on or before the 1st Monday of January make out and deliver to the assessor of the District of Columbia a return in tabular form, contained in a book to be furnished by the commissioners, of the amount, description, and value of the real property subject to be listed for taxation in the District of Columbia. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 7; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act provided "that said board of assistant assessors shall, on or before the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter make out etc."

The 1926 act provided that assessments be made annually (see § 47–702 and notes thereto).

§ 47–707 [20: 701]. Penalties.

Any person who shall refuse or knowingly neglect to perform any duty enjoined on him by law, or who shall consent to or connive at any evasion of the provision of sections 47–604 to 47–712 shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to removal from office and to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each offense. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 8.)

§ 47–708 [20: 702]. Board of Equalization and Review—To meet annually—Notice of meetings.

The assessor and deputy assessor of the District and the board of all of the assistant assessors, with the assessor as chairman, shall compose a Board of Equalization and Review, and as such Board of Equalization and Review they shall convene in a room to be provided for them by the Commissioners, on the first Monday of January of each year, and shall remain in session until the first Monday in April of each year, after which date no complaint as to valuation as herein provided shall be received or considered by such Board of Equalization and Review. Public notice of the time and place of such session shall be given by publication for two successive days in two daily newspapers in the District not more than two weeks or less than ten days before the beginning of said session. It shall be the duty of said Board of Equalization and Review to fairly and impartially equalize the value of real property made by the board of assistant assessors as the basis for assessment. Any five of said Board of Equalization and Review shall constitute a quorum for business, and, in the absence of the assessor, a temporary chairman may be selected. They shall immediately proceed to equalize the valuations made by the board of assistant assessors so that each lot and tract and improvements thereon shall be entered upon the tax list at their value in money; and for this purpose they shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments, and in determining them they may raise the valuation of such tracts or lots as in their opinion may have been returned below their value and reduce the valuation of such as they may believe to have been returned above their value to such sum as in their opinion may be the value therof. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 9; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act contained the words "eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter," which have been replaced by the words "each year" at the end of the first sentence in view of the 1926 act (see § 47–702 and notes thereto).

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 law and provided for the termination of sessions, fixed the last day for receiving complaints, and changed the quorum requirement from three to five members.

The 1939 amendment added the words "and deputy assessor" and "all of the" in the first phrase.

§ 47–709 [20: 703]. Valuation of real property to be complete on the first Monday of June annually.

The valuation of the real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be completed not later than the first Monday of May annually. The valuation of said real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be approved by the Commissioners not later than July 1 annually, and when approved by the Commissioners shall constitute the basis of taxation for the next succeeding year and until another valuation is made according to law, except as hereinafter provided. Any person aggrieved by an assessment, equalization, or valuation made, may, within ninety days after October 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 10; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act contained the words "eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter" which have been replaced by the word "annually" following the word "June" in view of the 1926 act (see § 47–702 and notes thereto).

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and changed the last day for equalization from the first Monday in June to the first Monday in May, provided for the last day for valuation, set July 1 as the final day for approval by the Commissioners, and added the method of appeal.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "pursuant to this paragraph" following the word "made" the first time it appears in the last sentence before the proviso, changed the date in the same sentence from "August 1" to "April 1," and added the proviso.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NEXT SUCCEEDING YEAR

Where this chapter provided for annual assessment of real estate and that annual valuation of real estate should constitute basis of taxation "for the next succeeding year", the quoted phrase had reference to taxes which are levied for a designated fiscal period and did not include inheritance tax which is never part of an annual tax levy on the mass of property in a taxing district. Fisher v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 164 F. 2d 707).

§ 47–710 [20: 704]. Real property and improvements becoming subject to taxation to be listed annually.

Annually, on or prior to July 1 of each year, the board of assistant assessors shall make a list of all real estate which shall have become subject to taxation and which is not then on the tax list, and affix a value thereon, according to the rules prescribed by law for assessing real estate; shall make return of all new structures erected or roofed, and additions to or improvements of old structures which shall not have been theretofore assessed, specifying the tract or lot of land on which each of such structures has been erected, and the value of such structure, and they shall add such valuation to the assessment made on such tract or lot. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause, the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of such damage: Provided, That the Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments between September 1 and September 30 and determine the same not later than October 15 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after October 15 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 11; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and changed the first proviso from "That the Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect to said assessments and determine the same between the first Monday of July of the same year" to read as it now does except that the dates were "between July 1 and July 15" and "not later than August 1" and "after August 1," and added the entire appeal method.

The 1939 amendment changed the dates in the first proviso from "July 1 and July 15" to "September 1 and September 30" and from "August 1" to "October 15" both times it appeared, and added the second proviso.

§ 47–711 [20: 705]. New buildings under roof to be included in list.

In addition to the annual assessment of all real estate made on or prior to July 1 of each year there shall be added a list of all new buildings erected or under roof prior to January 1 of each year, in the same manner as provided by law for all annual additions; and the amounts thereof shall be added as assessment for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause prior to January 1 of each year the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of said damage for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. The Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year between March 1 and March 31 and determine said complaints not later than April 15 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after April 15 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 3; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and incorporated the second sentence in its entirety, changed the wording in the third sentence from "in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year and determine said complaints between the first and third Mondays of January of the same year" to "in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year between January 1 and January 15 and determine said complaints not later than February 1 of the same year" and added the appeal method with the date as "February 1."

The 1939 amendment changed the dates from "January 1 and January 15" to "March 1 and March 31," and from "February 1" to "April 15" both times it appeared, and added the proviso.

§ 47–712 [20: 706]. Assessment of omitted property—Voided assessments, reassessment of property.

If said Board of Assistant Assessors shall learn that any property liable to taxation has been omitted from the assessment for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be their duty at once to reassess such property for each and every year for which it has escaped assessment and taxation and report the same, through the assessor, to the collector of taxes, who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes so in arrears as other taxes are collected: Provided, That no property which has escaped taxation shall be liable under this section for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment, except in the case of property involved in litigation.

If the board of assistant assessors shall learn that any property liable to taxation has been omitted from the assessment for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be their duty at once to reassess this property for each and every year for which it has escaped assessment and taxation, and report the same, through the assessor, to the collector of taxes who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes so in arrears as other taxes are collected: Provided, That no property which has escaped assessment and taxation shall be liable under this section for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment, except in the case of property involved in litigation. In addition to the duties of the assessor hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the assessor upon reassessment as herein provided to notify the taxpayer by writing of the fact of such reassessment. Any person aggrieved by any reassessment made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after notice of said reassessment, appeal from said reassessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 12; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and deleted the word "said" after the word "if" at the beginning of the section, added the words "assessment and" after the word "escaped" in the proviso, and added the last two sentences to the proviso.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NO ASSESSMENT MADE

In the absence of statutory provision for reassessment for prior years, none can validly be made. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

THREE-YEAR PERIOD

No property which has escaped taxation shall be liable for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

CROSS REFERENCE

Manner of serving notice, § 47–2411.

§ 47–713 [20: 707]. Assessments to be according to true value of the property—Taxes on subdivisions made from July to December, inclusive.

All real estate in the District of Columbia subject to taxation, including improvements thereon, shall be listed and assessed at not less than the full and true value thereof in lawful money.

Whenever a subdivision of any lot or parcel of land in the District of Columbia, or any portion of any such lot or parcel is made during the months of July, August, September, October, November, or December, the general tax due and payable upon such lot or parcel of land for prior years and for the first half of the then current fiscal year shall then be paid, and all water main and sewer assessments and special assessments of any kind thereon shall then become due and payable, and be paid before such subdivision shall be admitted to record in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia; and the general tax thereon for the last half of the then current fiscal year shall be due and payable in the following May. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 616, ch. 1352, § 5; Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1195, ch. 95, § 1; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1921 amendment added the second paragraph.

The 1922 and the 1926 acts provided for assessment of real property at not less than the full market value, whereas the 1902 act provided for assessment at not less than two-thirds of the true market value.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DUTY OF TAXPAYER

Local statute imposes on the taxpayer the duty truthfully to fill out the proper blanks in the schedule furnished by the assessor. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47–714 [20: 708]. Subdivisions made during January, February, March, April, May, or June—Taxation, special assessment.

Whenever such subdivision is made during the months of January, February, March, April, May, or June, the total general tax assessed against the original lot or parcel of land for prior years and for the then current fiscal year, and all water main and sewer assessments and special assessments of any kind thereon, shall become due and payable and be paid before such subdivision is admitted to record in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 2.)

§ 47–715 [20: 709]. Redistribution of assessment on application by owner of unsubdivided tract.

Whenever application is made in writing to the assessor of the District of Columbia by the owner of any tract of land in said District not subdivided into lots and of record as a subdivision in the office of the surveyor of said District, for the redistribution of any general or special taxes or assessments then levied or due thereon, or whenever such application is made by the owner of any parcel of such tract for such redistribution, any such general or special taxes or assessments levied or due against the entire tract of which such parcel is a part shall be redistributed so that the owner of any such parcel may pay the proportion of such entire taxes or assessments equitably chargeable thereon. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 3.)

§ 47–716 [20: 710]. Application for redistribution or reassessment—Notice—Validity.

Whenever application is made according to law for the reassessment or redistribution of taxes by reason of the subdivision of any tract of land in the District, the board of assistant assessors charged with the assessment of real estate in the District is hereby authorized and directed to reassess and redistribute any general or special assessment or tax levied or due and unpaid in accordance with provisions of laws for the assessment and equalizations of valuations of real estate in the District for taxation. The assessor shall promptly notify the owners of record of the land, the taxes of which shall be reassessed or redistributed. Notices in such case shall be served upon each lot or parcel owner if he or she be a resident of the District and his or her residence known, and if he or she be a nonresident of the District, or his or her residence unknown, such notice shall be served on his or her tenant or agent, as the case may be, and if there be no tenant or agent known to the Commissioners, then they shall give notice of such assessment by advertisement twice a week for two weeks in some newspaper published in said District. The service of such notice, where the owner or his tenant or agent resides in the District, shall be either personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant; and return of such service, stating the manner thereof, shall be made in writing and filed in the office of said Commissioners. Any person aggrieved by such reassessment or redistribution, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404.

Any reassessment or redistribution made under sections 47–713 to 47–716 shall be as valid and effectual upon the various parts of the property, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the tax or assessment so reassessed or redistributed had been laid originally thereon under the various laws appertaining thereto. No payment or failure to pay a tax or assessment upon any such part shall change or affect the liability of the other parts of such property for any tax or assessment so reassessed or redistributed. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 4; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added the first paragraph of this section to the 1937 act while the remainder of the section is as it was in the 1921 act.

§ 47–717 [20: 711]. Reassessment of real estate by Board of Assistant Assessors.

The Board of Assistant Assessors charged with the assessment of real estate in the District of Columbia is hereby authorized and directed to reassess or redistribute any such general or special assessment or tax levied or due and unpaid in accordance with the provisions of laws for the assessment and equalizations of the valuations of real estate in the District of Columbia for taxation, after notice to owners of record of the land to be assessed, with right of appeal within ten days to the Board of Equalization and Review, as prescribed in section 47–708 and the assessor of said District is hereby authorized and directed to promptly reassess or redistribute any general or special assessment of any kind levied or due and unpaid, as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 5.)

§ 47–718 [20: 736]. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company or Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company property—Taxation.

The property owned or occupied by the Washington Terminal Company, or by the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, or by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company under authority of this Act, or otherwise, together with the improvements that may be put thereon, shall be subject to taxation in the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as other property in the District, and all tracks and sidings shall be taxed as real estate: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made, laid, or levied on the stations, terminals, and lines of railroad located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said stations, terminals, and lines of railroad were located, constructed, and maintained without the use of bridges, tunnels, viaducts, retaining walls, or other structures necessary or properly employed to elevate or to depress the same as required by this Act; it being the true intent and meaning hereof that the lines of railroad and terminals hereby authorized shall be assessed and valued for the purpose of taxation and taxed on the same basis as if the same were not constructed and maintained by means of such bridges, tunnels, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures: Provided, That such portions of the terminal structure or viaduct as may be constructed and used for storage or like commercial purpose shall be subject to taxation in the same manner as other property in the District of Columbia. (Feb. 28, 1903, 32 Stat. 914, ch. 856, § 6.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "This Act" is the act cited to the text, the act of February 28, 1903, 32 Stat. 909, ch. 856 (§§ 7–1213, 7–1214, and this section). This act supplements the act referred to in the note to § 47–719 and provides for a union railroad station. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges for the companies concerned, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47–719 [20: 737]. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company—Terminals—Taxation.

The property occupied by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, or by the Washington Terminal Company, under authority of this Act, together with the improvements which may be put thereon, shall be subject to tax by the District of Columbia the same as other property in the District of Columbia: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made or levied on the railroad or terminals located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said railroad and terminals were so located, constructed, and maintained without the use of bridges, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures necessary or properly employed to elevate the same as required by this Act, it being the true intent and meaning hereof that the railroad and terminals hereby authorized shall be assessed and valued for purposes of taxation and taxed on the same basis as if the same were not constructed and maintained by means of such bridges, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures. (Feb. 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 779, ch. 354, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "this act" is the act cited to the text, act of February 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 774, ch. 354 (§ 7–1212 and this section). This act provides for the formation of a terminal company, the building of a new railroad station and joint trackage and viaducts thereto, and for eliminating certain grade crossings. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges to the companies concerned, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47–720 [20: 738]. Baltimore and Potomac, bridges and tunnels assessed for taxation.

The property occupied by the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company under authority of this section, together with the improvements which may be put thereon, shall be subject to tax by the District of Columbia the same as other property in the District of Columbia: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made, laid, or levied on the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company on account of any bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway which shall be located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, and forming part of said railroad, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said railroad was wholly located and constructed on the surface of the ground; it being the true intent and meaning hereof that any such bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway forming a part of said railroad shall be assessed and valued for purposes of taxation and taxed on the same basis as any other equal portion of railroad situated within the said District of Columbia not constructed on, in, through, or upon any such bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway. (Feb. 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 773, ch. 353, § 14.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "this act" is the act cited to the text, act of February 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 767, ch. 353 (§§ 7–507, 7–508, 7–1211, and 47–720). The act provides that the railroad company is to relocate part of its tracks, eliminate certain grade crossings, and to depress and elevate trackage. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47–721 [20: 739]. Reassessment of taxes declared void by court.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed, in all cases where general taxes or assessments for local improvements in the District of Columbia may be quashed, set aside, or declared void by the District Court of said District, by reason of an imperfect or erroneous description of the lot or parcel of ground against which the same shall have been levied by reason of such tax or assessment not having been authenticated by the proper officer, or of a defective return of service of notice, or for any technical reason other than the right of the public authorities to levy the tax or make the improvement in respect of which the assessment was levied, to reassess the lot or parcel of ground in respect of such general taxes or the improvement mentioned in such defective assessment, with power to collect the same according to existing laws relating to the collection of assessments and taxes: Provided, That in cases where such taxes or assessments shall be quashed or declared void by said court, for the reasons hereinbefore stated, the reassessment herein provided for shall be made within ninety days after the judgment or decree of said court quashing or setting aside such taxes or assessments and any amount theretofore paid upon an assessment which has been declared void shall be credited the owner upon the reassessment made under the provision of this section. (Apr. 24, 1896, 29 Stat. 98, ch. 123.)

CROSS REFERENCE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARITABLE LESSEE

Under this section exempting from taxation buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity except if any portion of building or grounds is larger than is absolutely required and actually used for its legitimate purpose and none other, where lessor was public charity but building and grounds were larger than were absolutely required and actually used for the lessor's legitimate purpose, the fact that lessee was also a public charity would not exempt the building from taxation. Hebrew Home for the Aged v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1944, 142 F. 2d 573).

Where both lessor and lessee were public charities and lessee agreed to erect building which at expiration of term would become lessor's property, the building and the land were "larger than was absolutely required and actually used" for the lessor's legitimate purposes within this section granting exemption from taxation and therefore the building was not exempt from taxation. Hebrew Home for the Aged v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1944, 142 F. 2d 573).

MANUFACTURING PROPERTY

Act exempting manufacturing property from taxation does not create a contract in the sense that it cannot be repealed. Welch v. Cook (97 U. S. 541, 24 L. Ed. 1112).

MODIFICATION OF DISMISSAL ORDER

Where it was impossible to tell from complaint in action to remove certain property from tax rolls whether during certain years there was a synagogue as well as a place for taking ceremonial baths on premises involved, order dismissing amended complaint would be modified on appeal to allow an amendment so that it might be determined whether plaintiff was entitled to relief for such years. Combined Congregations of District of Columbia v. Dent, 1944 (140 F. 2d 9, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 254).

RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS

Findings of Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia that a building was not primarily and regularly used for religious worship and study, and therefore was not exempt and there was no evidence upon which to base any apportionment of valuation under § 2 of the Act affirmed. Fellowship Foundation v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1949, 179 F. 2d 56, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 40).

SEPARATE STRUCTURES

This section exempting "churches" from taxation refers to the building rather than the institution, and a separate structure maintained by Jewish Congregations for ceremonial baths was not within such exemption. Combined Congregations of District of Columbia v. Dent, 1944 (140 F. 2d 9, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 254).

§ 47–801a. Government property—Property of educational, charitable, religious or scientific institutions—Additional grounds of—Profits arising from sale of.

The real property exempt from taxation in the District of Columbia shall be the following and none other:

(a) Property belonging to the United States of America.

(b) Property belonging to the District of Columbia.

(c) Property belonging to foreign governments and used for legation purposes.

(d) Property belonging to the Commonwealth of the Philippines and used for Government purposes.

(e) Property heretofore specifically exempted from taxation by any special Act of Congress, in force December 24, 1942, so long as such property is used for the purposes for which such exemption is granted. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall report annually to the Congress the use being made of such specifically exempted property, and of any changes in such use, with recommendations.

(f) Art gallery buildings belonging to and operated by organizations which are not organized or operated for private gain, and are open to the public generally, and for admission to which no charge is made on more than two days each week.

(g) Library buildings belonging to and operated by organizations which are not organized or operated for private gain and are open to the public generally.

(h) Buildings belonging to and operated by institutions which are not organized or operated for private gain, which are used for purposes of public charity principally in the District of Columbia.

(i) Hospital buildings, belonging to and operated by organizations which are not organized or operated for private gain, including buildings and structures reasonably necessary and usual to the operation of a hospital.

(j) Buildings belonging to and operated by schools, colleges, or universities which are not organized or operated for private gain, and which embrace the generally recognized relationship of teacher and student.

(k) Buildings belonging to and used in carrying on the purposes and activities of the National Geographic Society, American Pharmaceutical Association, The Medical Society of the District of Columbia, the National Lutheran Home, the National Academy of Sciences, Brookings Institution, the American Forestry Association, the American Tree Association, the Carnegie Institution of Washington, the American Chemical Society, the American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf, and buildings belonging to such similar institutions as may be hereafter exempted from such taxation by special Acts of Congress.

(l) Cemeteries dedicated to and used solely for burial purposes and not organized or operated for private gain, including buildings and structures reasonably necessary and usual to the operation of a cemetery.

(m) Churches, including buildings and structures reasonably necessary and usual in the performance of the activities of the church. A church building is one primarily and regularly used by its congregation for public religious worship.

(n) Buildings belonging to religious corporations or societies primarily and regularly used for religious worship, study, training, and missionary activities.

(o) Pastoral residences actually occupied as such by the pastor, rector, minister, or rabbi of a church: Provided, That such pastoral residence be owned by the church or congregation for which said pastor, rector, minister, or rabbi officiates: And provided further, That not more than one such pastoral residence shall be so exempt for any one church or congregation.

(p) Episcopal residences owned by a church and used exclusively as the residence of a bishop of such church.

(q) Buildings belonging to organizations which are charged with the administration, coordination, or unification of activities, locally or otherwise, of institutions or organizations entitled to exemption under the provisions of sections 47–801a to 47–801f, and used as administrative headquarters thereof.

(r) (1) Grounds belonging to and reasonably required and actually used for the carrying on of the activities and purposes of any institution or organization entitled to exemption under the provisions of sections 47–801a to 47–801f.

(2) Additional grounds belonging to and forming a part of the property of such institutions or organizations as of July 1, 1942. Such exemption shall be granted only upon the filing of a written application to the Commissioners, supported by an affidavit that such additional grounds are not held for profit or sale but only for the enlargement and expansion of said institution or organization.

If, however, at any future date the grounds so exempted, or any portion thereof, shall be sold and a profit shall result from such sale the taxes thereon for each year from the date of acquisition of such property for which no tax has been paid shall immediately become due and payable, without interest: Provided, however, That the total of such taxes shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net profit derived from such sale. The Commissioners shall be furnished a copy of the contract of sale together with other evidence necessary to establish the amount of profit or loss therefrom at least ten days prior to the date of settlement of such sale. Taxes assessed under this subparagraph shall constitute a lien upon such property. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1089, ch. 826, § 1; Apr. 9, 1943, 57 Stat. 61, ch. 41, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of April 9, 1943, cited to text, amended par. (k) by inserting after words "the American Forestry Association" the words "the American Tree Association."

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 2 of act April 9, 1943, cited to text, provided as follows: "The amendment made by this Act shall take effect as of December 24, 1942."

REPEAL OF OTHER LAWS

Section 7 (a, b) of act Dec. 24, 1942, cited to text, provided as follows:

"The following Acts or parts thereof are hereby repealed:

"(a) Section 1 of "An Act exempting from taxes certain property in the District of Columbia and to amend the 'Act to provide for the creation of corporations in the District of Columbia by general law' ", approved June 17, 1870 (16 Stat. 153);

"(b) Section 8 of 'An Act for the support of the Government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and for other purposes', approved March 3, 1875 (18 Stat. 503); * * *".

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARITABLE ORGANIZATIONS

Under subsection (h) of this section granting exemption from taxation of buildings belonging to and operated by institutions which are not organized or operated for private gain, which are used for purposes of public charity principally in the District of Columbia, a concurrence of ownership and operation in one institution is not essential, but there must be use by charitable organization and ownership by a charitable organization. Catholic Home for Aged Ladies v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 161 F. 2d 901).

Where charitable organization transferred home to its charitable auxiliary which operated charitable home for old ladies, the home was exempt from taxation, notwithstanding the property was not used by owner. Catholic Home for Aged Ladies v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 161 F. 2d 901).

CONGRESSIONAL INTENT

Appellant's contention that the United States, to protect its lien, was obligated to pay District taxes assessed against the property after the federal lien arose, is without foundation since the general policy of the United States is not to pay real estate taxes to the District of Columbia in the absence of evidence of Congressional intent to create such suggested exception to this policy. Cobb v. United States (C. A. D. C. 1949, 172 F. 2d 277, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 228).

CONSTRUCTION OF EXEMPTION

Exemptions from taxation are construed strictly. Hebrew Home for the Aged v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1944, 142 F. 2d 573).

Tax exemptions must be strictly construed. Combined Congregations of District of Columbia v. Dent, 1944 (140 F. 2d 9, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 254).

EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES, PROPERTY FOR

Where, after institution of suit to obtain a declaratory judgment that certain property was used for educational purposes and therefore not taxable, Congress adopted this chapter declaring that the property and other similar property in District of Columbia was not taxable, determination in favor of owner of property was affirmed. District of Columbia v. American Pharmaceutical Ass'n, 1942 (133 F. 2d 43, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 94).

Where university acquired realty, income from which was used only to accumulate funds for purchase of additional property with intention of erecting buildings on realty for use in connection with university's educational facilities and also acquired other realty, income from which was used for educational purposes, the realty was not exempt from taxation under Act Mar. 2, 1867, 14 Stat. 438, as amended by Act May 23, 1938, 52 Stat. 351, exempting property of university "used only for education of youth". Howard University v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 155 F. 2d 10).

RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS

To entitle property owned by a religious corporation to exemption from taxation under subsection (n) of this section, two elements must be established, namely, that the building belongs to a religious corporation or society and that it is primarily and regularly used for religious worship, study, training, and missionary activities. Calvary Baptist Church Extension Ass'n v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 327).

Where church organization, desiring to construct a Sunday school building on its property, organized a separate corporation to avoid effect of a restrictive covenant in deed to the church limiting church indebtedness, and building constructed by separate corporation was used for Sunday school purposes and by other organizations of which the church organization was a part, the entire building so constructed was exempt from taxation under subsection (n) of this section. Calvary Baptist Church Extension Ass'n v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 158 F. 2d 327).

§ 47–801a–1. Disabled American Veterans property.

The property situated in square 153 in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, described as lot 132, owned, occupied, and used by the Disabled American Veterans, is hereby exempt from all taxation so long as the same is so owned and occupied, and not used for commercial purposes, subject to the provisions of sections 47–801b, 47–801c and 47–801e. (May 15, 1946, 60 Stat. 181, ch. 257, § 1.)

§ 47–801a–2. National Society of the Colonial Dames of America.

The property in the District of Columbia described as lot numbered 801, in square numbered 1285, together with the improvements thereon, known as premises number 2715 Q Street Northwest, and the furnishings therein, owned by the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the District of Columbia, shall be exempt from taxation, national and municipal, so long as the same is used for nonprofit purposes. (Sept. 7, 1949, 63 Stat. 694, ch. 564.)

§ 47–801b. Income producing property of exempt institutions.

If any building or any portion thereof, or grounds, belonging to and actually used by any institution or organization entitled to exemption under the provisions of sections 47–801a to 47–801f are used to secure a rent or income for any activity other than that for which exemption is granted such building, or portion thereof, or grounds, shall be assessed and taxed. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1091, ch. 826, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RENTAL OF ROOMS

Where unmarried rector occupied rectory as part of his compensation, fact that rector rented three rooms in the rectory to persons other than his immediate family to help cover household expenses was not the use of the building "to secure income for an activity other than that for which the exemption was granted" so as to annul exemption from real estate taxes provided by § 47–801a for pastoral residence owned by church. District of Columbia v. Vestry of St. James Parish (App. D. C. 1946, 153 F. 2d 621).

§ 47–801b–1. Use of property by agencies of the United States or American Red Cross—Abatement of unpaid taxes.

The use and occupancy of real property in the District of Columbia by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States of America, or by the American Red Cross, on a basis which does not result in the receipt of rent or income to the owner thereof within the meaning of section 47–801b, shall not operate to terminate the tax-exempt status of such property if exempted from taxation prior to such use and occupancy; and, further, that any taxes, penalties, or interest which may be due by reason of such change in the use and occupancy of such property and unpaid when this joint resolution shall be approved by the President shall be abated: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed as authorizing any refund of any taxes, penalties, or interest paid prior to November 30, 1945. (Nov. 30, 1945, 59 Stat. 589, ch. 501.)

§ 47–801c. Report as to use of exempt property.

Every institution, organization, corporation, or association owning property exempt under the provisions of paragraphs d to q, inclusive, of section 47–801a shall, on or before March 1, 1943, and on or before March 1 of each succeeding year, furnish the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a report, under oath, showing the purposes for which its exempt property has been used during the preceding calendar year. Upon written application by the institution, organization, corporation, or association filed before March 1 of any year, the Commmissioners may extend the time for filing said report for a reasonable period. A copy of such report shall be forwarded to the Congress by the Commissioners.

If such report is not filed within the time provided herein, or as extended by the Commissioners, the property of the institution, organization, corporation, or association affected shall immediately be assessed and taxed until the required report is filed: Provided, however, That such tax shall be for a minimum period of thirty days. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1091, ch. 826, § 3.)

§ 47–801d. Abatement or refund of tax assessed against exempt property.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon written application by the owner of real property, filed within ninety days from December 24, 1942, are authorized to abate any tax assessed against any real property exempted by sections 47–801a to 47–801f where such tax was assessed after January 1, 1941, or to refund any such tax within the limitations of appropriations therefor. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1091, ch. 826, § 4.)

§ 47–801e. Appeal, persons entitled.

Any institution, organization, corporation, or association aggrieved by any assessment of real property deemed to be exempt from taxation under the provisions of sections 47–801a to 47–801f may appeal therefrom to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 3 and 4 of title IX of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1939, as amended: Provided, however, That payment of the tax shall not be prerequisite to any such appeal. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1091, ch. 826, § 5.)

§ 47–801f. Rules and regulations.

The Commissioners are authorized to make and promulgate such rules and regulations as they may deem necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of sections 47–801a to 47–801f: Provided, That such rules and regulations shall include provision for mailing annually, on or before February 1 of each year, to each of the institutions, organizations, corporations, or associations required by section 3 of this Act to file annual reports, notice of its contingent tax liability under this Act, together with a copy of any standard form for such reports which shall have been prescribed by the Commissioners under authority of this section. (Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1091, ch. 826, § 6; Sept. 29, 1943, 57 Stat. 568, ch. 248.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of Sept. 29, 1943, cited to text, amended section by adding the proviso.

§ 47–802. Repealed. Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1092, ch. 826, § 7 (f).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Where education phase of corporation was at most incidental and collateral to the social, recreative, promotional, and propaganda phases which constituted its major reasons for existence, it was not exempt from tax under this section. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

MT. VERNON SEMINARY

Mt. Vernon Seminary in the District of Columbia was exempt from taxation as a corporation whose property was held solely for educational purposes, no income inuring to any individual, and not for private gain, even though its receipts had exceeded its expenditures, resulting in a net profit to the institution. District of Columbia v. Mt. Vernon Seminary (69 App. D. C. 251, 100 Fed. (2d) 116).

STANDARDS

If school measures up to standards of curriculum and pedagogy set by the Government it comes within the reason for the subsidy which is implicit in a tax exemption. District of Columbia v. Mt. Vernon Seminary (69 App. D. C. 251, 100 Fed. (2d) 116).

§ 47–803 [20: 714]. Property of United States, District of Columbia, and foreign legations.

No property except that of the United States or the District of Columbia and property owned by foreign governments for legation purposes shall be exempt from assessments for improvements. (Mar. 3, 1903, 32 Stat. 961, ch. 992.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47–804. Repealed. Dec. 24, 1942, 56 Stat. 1092, ch. 826, § 7 (e).

§ 47–805 [20: 716]. Louise Home.

The buildings and grounds of the Louise Home, and all property held by the trustees thereof for the purposes of the trust contained in a certain deed from William W. Corcoran dated November 21, 1869, and recorded in liber 630 at folio 458 of the land records of the District of Columbia, on the square numbered one hundred and ninety-six shall be free from all taxes and assessment by the municipal authorities, or by the United States, so long as the same shall be held and used for the purposes of the said trust. (Mar. 3, 1875, 18 Stat. 508, ch. 168, § 2.)

§ 47–806 [20: 717]. Sheridan tapestries.

No personal taxes be levied against certain tapestries, which were presented to the late Lieutenant-General Philip H. Sheridan for gallant and meritorious services, and which were on exhibition in the National Museum on April 27, 1904, so long as they are exhibited in said museum. (Apr. 27, 1904, 33 Stat. 364, ch. 1628.)

§ 47–807 [20: 718]. Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

For and in consideration of the expenses the said stockholders will be at, not only in cutting the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, erecting locks and dams, providing aqueducts, feeders, and other works, and in improving and keeping the same in repair, the said canal and all other works aforesaid, or required to improve the navigation thereof, at any time hereafter, with all their profits, subject to the limitations herein provided, and to none other, shall be, and the same are hereby, vested in the said stockholders, their heirs and assigns, forever, as tenants in common, in proportion to their respective shares, and be forever exempt from the payment of any tax, imposition, or assessment whatsoever. (General Assembly of Virginia, Jan. 27, 1824; 4 Stat. 796, Appendix I, § 9; Mar. 3, 1825, 4 Stat. 101, ch. 52.)

AMENDMENT

The 1825 act confirms the act of the legislature of the State of Virginia entitled "An act incorporating the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company," and "An act of the State of Maryland, confirming the same." The 1825 act contains the words of this section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

The provision in the charter which requires the jury to do what they would be competent to do without such provision, and which, in order to ascertain a compensation which should be just toward the public as well as toward the individual, they ought to do, cannot be considered repugnant to the Constitution; citing and quoting Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. v. Key, 3 Cranch (7 U. S.) 599, 601. Bauman v. Ross (167 U. S. 548, 42 L. Ed 270, 17 Sup. Ct. 966).

FORFEITURE FOR NONUSER

The question of forfeiture by nonuser could be established only by a direct proceeding on the part of the public authorities, and a decision to that effect in a proper tribunal, and cannot be made an issue for the first time in the trial of the question of private rights. Mackall v. Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. (94 U. S. 308, 24 L. Ed. 161).

GENERAL CREDITORS

A general creditor of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company had notice of the statute granting said company its charter. Macalester v. Maryland (114 U. S. 598, 29 L. Ed. 233, 5 Sup. Ct. 1065).

RIPARIAN RIGHTS

The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company does not own or possess riparian rights along the line of its canal within the limits of the city of Washington. Morris v. United States (174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946, 19 Sup. Ct. 649).

§ 47–808 [20: 719]. Oak Hill Cemetery—Property inalienable and exempt from taxation.

The property owned by "The Oak Hill Cemetery Company" shall be forever inalienable by the said corporation, and shall be exempted from all public assessments and taxes so long as the same shall remain dedicated to the purposes of a cemetery. (Mar. 3, 1849, 9 Stat. 775, ch. 128, § 10.)

§ 47–809 [20: 720]. Corcoran Gallery of Art—Real property and works of art.

The buildings described in a certain deed from William W. Corcoran to the trustees of the Corcoran Gallery of Art, dated May 10th, 1869, and recorded May 18th, 1869, in liber D, No. 8, folio 294 et seq., one of the land records of Washington County, District of Columbia, and the grounds connected therewith, together with all of the works of art that may be contained therein, shall be free from all taxes and assessments by the municipal authorities, or by the United States, so long as the same shall be held and used for the purposes set forth in said deed. (May 24, 1870, 16 Stat. 139, ch. 111, § 4.)

§ 47–810 [20: 721]. Corcoran Gallery of Art—Endowment fund.

All property held as endowment fund by the trustees of the Corcoran Gallery of Art, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, for the purpose of revenue to support said institution, shall be, and the same is hereby, declared exempt from all taxation and assessments by the municipal authorities or by the United States so long as the same shall be so held. (Jan. 26, 1887, 24 Stat. 364, ch. 43.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act contained the following proviso which has been omitted as obsolete: "Provided, That real estate purchased prior to January 26, 1887, by said trustees in the management of the endowment fund shall be exempt from taxation only while so held, and not to exceed five years from January 26, 1887."

§ 47–811 [20: 722]. Howard University.

The property, real and personal, of the Howard University shall be exempt from taxation so long as such property shall be used only for the purposes set forth in the charter of said institution: Provided, That nothing in this section shall exempt any real estate of said university from assessment and liability for special improvements authorized by law: Provided also, That this section shall not include any real estate sold or contracted to be sold by said university to any other person than the United States, the title to which may be still in the said university. (June 16, 1882, 22 Stat. 105, ch. 222, § 3.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

INCOME OF PROPERTY

Where university acquired realty, income from which was used only to accumulate funds for purchase of additional property with intention of erecting buildings on realty for use in connection with university's educational facilities and also acquired other realty, income from which was used for educational purposes, the realty was not exempt from taxation under act Mar. 2, 1867, 14 Stat. 438, as amended by act May 23, 1938, 52 Stat. 351, exempting property of university "used only for education of youth". Howard University v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 155 F. 2d 10).

§ 47–812 [20: 723]. Luther Statue Association.

The lands acquired and held by the Luther Statue Association, and the statue erected thereon, and all the improvements and appurtenances thereto, shall be entirely exempt from taxation, and shall not be chargeable or assessed for any purpose whatever: Provided, That this section may be modified, repealed or amended, whenever Congress may see fit to do so. (Mar. 3, 1885, 23 Stat. 350, ch. 334, § 4.)

§ 47–813 [20: 724]. Saint Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church.

A certain piece of land situated in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, known as lots nine and eleven, in square seven hundred and eighty-eight of the plan of that city, and occupied by the church known as Saint Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, and all the buildings, grounds, and property appurtenant thereto and used in connection therewith in the District of Columbia, shall be exempt from any and all taxes or assessments, national, municipal, or county. (Feb. 23, 1887, 24 Stat. 411, ch. 214.)

§ 47–814 [20: 725]. Young Woman's Christian Home.

The property, whether real or personal, owned by the "trustees of Young Woman's Christian Home" and used exclusively for the charitable purposes of said organization shall be exempt from taxation. (Feb. 23, 1887, 24 Stat. 413, ch. 217, § 2.)

§ 47–815 [20: 725a]. Young Women's Christian Association.

All property of the Young Women's Christian Association of the District of Columbia located in the District of Columbia and occupied and used by such association for its legitimate purposes shall be exempt from all national and municipal taxation so long as such property is so occupied and used. (June 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 709, ch. 461, § 1.)

§ 47–816 [20: 725b]. Young Women's Christian Association—Remission of accrued taxes.

The Young Women's Christian Association of the District of Columbia is hereby relieved from any accrued liability to the United States or the District of Columbia for taxes imposed upon any of the property of such association located in the District of Columbia for any tax period during which such property was occupied and used by such association for its legitimate purposes. (June 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 709, ch. 461, § 2.)

§ 47–817 [20: 726]. Young Men's Christian Association.

All property belonging to the Young Men's Christian Association of the District of Columbia, used and occupied by that association, shall, so long as the same is so owned and occupied, be exempt from taxation, national and municipal: Provided, That where ground of said association is larger than is reasonably required for its use, or is not actually used for the legitimate purposes of said association, or if said ground or buildings shall be used for private gain, such portion of said ground or buildings as shall not actually be used for the purposes of said association, or from which it derives a rent or income, such portion of the same, or a sum equal in value to such portion, shall be taxed against such association. (Aug. 6, 1894, 28 Stat. 999, ch. 230.)

§ 47–818 [20: 727]. Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical Association.

When the Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical Association shall have acquired title in fee simple to the whole or a part, as the case may be, of the property known as Cedar Hill, in the village of Anacostia, in the District of Columbia, and formerly occupied as the homestead of the late Frederick Douglass, said land and premises shall be, and hereby are declared to be exempt from all taxes and assessments for taxation so long as the same shall be used for the purposes of this incorporation. Congress reserves the right to amend or repeal this section. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 663, ch. 806, §§ 7, 8.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The "purposes of this incorporation" are contained in the act cited to the text.

§ 47–819 [20: 728]. Edes Home.

The property held by The Edes Home actually and exclusively used and occupied for a home for aged and indigent widows shall while and as long as so actually and exclusively used and occupied, be free from any tax, burden, or assessment, laid or to be laid by the United States or under any authority emanating therefrom. This section shall be and remain at all times subject to repeal, alteration, or amendment by the Congress of the United States. (May 1, 1906, 34 Stat. 162, 163, ch. 2075, §§ 2, 6.)

§ 47–820 [20: 729]. General Education Board.

All real property of the General Education Board within the District of Columbia which shall be used by the corporation for the educational or other purposes of the corporation as aforesaid, other than the purpose of producing income, and all personal property and funds of the corporation held, used, or invested for educational purposes as aforesaid, or to produce income to be used for such purposes, shall be exempt from taxation: Provided, however, That this exemption shall not apply to any property of the corporation which shall not be used for, or the income of which shall not be applied to, the educational purposes of the corporation: And provided further, That the corporation shall annually file with the Secretary of the Interior of the United States a report in writing, stating in detail the property, real and personal, held by the corporation, and the expenditure or other use or disposition of the same or the income thereof during the preceding year.

This charter shall be subject to alteration, amendment, or repeal at the pleasure of the Congress of the United States. (Jan. 12, 1903, 32 Stat. 769, ch. 91, §§ 6, 7.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "as aforesaid" refer to the preceding sections of the act cited to the text.

Chapter 9.—FAMILY DWELLINGS OCCUPIED BY OWNERS

Sec.

47–901. Quarterly payments—Statement of taxes—Interest.
47–902. Extension of time of payment.
47–903. Restrictions on sale for delinquent taxes.
47–904. Sales invalidated where based on errors in computation of taxes due.
47–905. Affidavit as to domicile and ownership.

§ 47–901 [20: 740]. Quarterly payments—Statement of taxes—Interest.

Each fiscal year, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall send to the owner of each family dwelling-house occupied by such owner upon written application therefor an itemized statement of the taxes payable with respect to such dwelling-house not less than thirty days prior to the time when the first instalment of real-estate taxes for such fiscal year becomes due and payable. Such statement shall include all real-estate taxes which are due and payable in such fiscal year and all instalments of special assessments which have been levied, charged, or assessed prior to, and are due and payable in, such fiscal year, with respect to the family dwelling-house occupied by the owner. Such taxes and assessments shall be payable, at the election of the taxpayer, in four equal instalments, in the months of September, December, March, and June, and no interest shall be payable with respect to any such instalment unless it is unpaid after the time it is due. Any real-estate tax or special assessment or any instalment thereof with respect to any family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof not included in such statement shall not be due or payable during the fiscal year for which the statement is sent; and any such tax or assessment or any instalment thereof otherwise chargeable, assessable, or payable during such fiscal year shall be included in the statement for the next succeeding fiscal year. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1347, ch. 130, § 1.)

Cross Reference

Time for payment, delinquency, § 47–1209.

§ 47–902 [20: 741]. Extension of time of payment.

The collector of taxes of the District of Columbia shall extend the time for the payments of real-estate taxes and special assessments payable after January 1, 1933, on any family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof, or any instalment of such taxes or assessments, for not more than ninety days, if written application for such extension is filed with the collector before such taxes or instalment thereof are due. Such extension shall be granted only if, in the judgment of the collector of taxes, satisfactory evidence is presented by the owner that, through unemployment or other emergency, the owner is unable to make such payment. No such application shall be granted unless the application is accompanied by the payment, to the collector, of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on the amount of the taxes or assessments or instalments thereof for the time of the extension applied for. In any case in which the amount of the tax or assessment or instalment due is paid prior to the expiration of the period of the extension there shall be deducted from the amount payable an amount equal to such part of the interest payable with respect thereto as represents the unexpired portion of the period of the extension. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 2.)

§ 47–903 [20: 742]. Restrictions on sale for delinquent taxes.

No family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof shall be sold for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments unless notice has been personally served upon such owner or sent by registered mail, addressed to him at such dwelling-house, not less than thirty days prior to the date of such sale. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 3.)

§ 47–904 [20: 743]. Sales invalidated where based on errors in computation of taxes due.

No sale for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments with respect to a family dwelling-house owned by the occupier thereof shall be valid if such sale is in consequence of an error or omission in the computation of the amount of taxes due thereon. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This is an exception from the general provision set out in § 47–1015.

§ 47–905 [20: 745]. Affidavit as to domicile and ownership.

This chapter shall be deemed as applying only to such occupant and owner as shall have filed with the assessor of the District of Columbia an affidavit as to domicile and ownership. The form of the affidavit shall be prepared by the assessor of the District of Columbia, and shall show the beginning of domicile, the time when ownership began, the street number, the number of the square and lot, and all trusts, if any, against the property. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 6.)

§ 47–1001 [20: 791]. Delinquent tax list—Publication of notice—Competitive proposals—Sale.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall prepare a list of all taxes on real property in said District subject to taxation on which said taxes are levied and in arrears on the first day of July of each year hereafter; and the commissioners of said District shall fix date of sale. The notice of sale and the delinquent tax list shall be advertised once a week for two weeks in the regular issue of one morning and one evening newspaper published in the District of Columbia; and notice shall be given, by advertising twice a week for two successive weeks in the regular issue of two daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia, that such delinquent tax list has been published in two daily newspapers, giving the name of each and the dates and the issues containing said list, and such notice shall be published in the two weeks immediately following the week in which the delinquent tax list shall have been published: Provided further, That competitive proposals shall be invited by the Commissioners from the several newspapers published in the District of Columbia for publishing the said delinquent tax list. If the taxes due, together with the penalties and costs that may have accrued thereon, shall not be paid prior to the day fixed for sale, the property will be sold, under the direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, at public auction at the office of the said collector of taxes, commencing at least three weeks after the first publication of said notice and continuing on each following day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, until all said delinquent property is sold; a description sufficient to identify the property shall be considered a proper description. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 1; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 632, ch. 1358, § 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 9; Mar. 2, 1927, 44 Stat. 1303, ch. 271; May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 650, ch. 659; Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1268, ch. 314.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1898, 1902, and 1926 acts contained a provision for the publication of a pamphlet and for notice of the publication thereof, the 1902 and 1926 acts altering the time and duration of the notice.

The 1927 amendment abolished this pamphlet and inserted the second sentence.

The 1928 and 1929 acts are appropriation acts that merely re-enact the provisions of the 1927 act.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

Sections 47–1001 to 47–1003 providing in part for public sale of delinquent tax property are not inconsistent with former section 800 of Title 20 of the 1929 D. C. Code providing an additional method for collecting taxes, and said former section 800 of former Title 20 did not repeal said §§ 47–1001 to 47–1003. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

REQUIREMENT OF NOTICE

Publication of notice for two weeks, once a week in one newspaper, was proper to comply with the provisions of the District Code requiring publication, morning and evening, once a week, for two weeks. Tayloe v. Kjaer (C. A. D. C. 1948, 171 F. 2d 343, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 183).

§ 47–1001a. Notice to record owner of amount of tax levy.

Annually and subsequent to July 1, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall mail to the record owner of each lot or parcel of land upon which a real estate tax has been levied by the District of Columbia as of July 1 of the same year, a notice of the amount of such real estate tax, and of the manner in which the amount of such real estate tax is payable according to law; and such notice shall state whether there were any delinquent real estate taxes unpaid on July 1 of the year in which such notice is sent: Provided, That if the address of the owner be unknown, such notice shall be mailed to his agent, if known; and if there be more than one record owner of any lot or parcel, notice mailed to one of the owners shall be deemed compliance with this section: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall affect in any way the provisions of section 47–1103: Provided further, That failure of the property owner or his agent to receive such notice shall not relieve the property owner of the payment of any penalty or interest as required by law for the delinquent payment of real estate taxes. (June 25, 1938, ch. 702, § 12, as added Oct. 5, 1943, 57 Stat. 570, ch. 256.)

§ 47–1002 [20: 792]. Sale of property—Purchase by District.

Upon the day specified in section 47–1001 the Commissioners shall proceed to sell or cause to be sold any and all property upon which such taxes remain unpaid, and continue to sell the same every secular day until all the real property as aforesaid in section 47–1001 shall have been brought to auction and sold. In case no other person bids the amount due, together with penalties and costs, on any lot, the said collector of taxes shall bid the amount due, together with penalties and costs, on the same and purchase it for the District. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 633, ch. 1358, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment inserted the words "together with penalties and costs" in both places where they appear.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LAND SUBJECT TO EASEMENTS

Sale of real property for non-payment of taxes does not extinguish an easement with which the property is burdened. District of Columbia v. Capital Mortg. & Title Co. (D. C., D. C. 1949, 84 F. Supp. 788).

§ 47–1003 [20: 793]. Deposit required—Certificate of sale—Tax deed—Redemption.

The collector of taxes shall require from every purchaser of property sold as aforesaid a deposit sufficient, in his judgment, to guarantee a full and final settlement for such purchase. Every purchaser other than the District of Columbia at any sale of property as aforesaid shall pay the full amount of his bid, including surplus, if any, to the collector of taxes within five days after the last day of sale, and in case such payment is not made within the time specified the deposit of the person so failing to make payment shall be forfeited to the District of Columbia, and said collector of taxes shall then issue the certificate of sale for such property to the next highest bidder, and if payment of the amount of the bid of said next highest bidder be not made within two days thereafter, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall set aside both sales for which the bids were made; and the said collector of taxes shall thereupon be held to have bid the amount due on the said lot and to have purchased it for the District. Immediately after the close of the sale, upon payment of the purchase money, the said collector of taxes shall issue to the purchaser a certificate of sale, and if the property shall not be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the last day of sale, by payment to the collector of taxes of said District, for the use of the legal holder of the certificate, the amount for which it was sold at such sale, exclusive of surplus, and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, a deed shall be given by the Commissioners of the District, or their successors in office, to the purchaser at such tax sale, his heirs or devicees, or to the assignee of such certificates, which deed shall be admitted and held to be prima facie evidence of a good and perfect title in fee simple to any property bought at said sale herein authorized: Provided, That no deed shall be issued unless application therefor be made within five years from the last day of sale, and if no such application be made then the owner of any property sold as aforesaid, or any other person having an interest therein at the time of redemption, may redeem the property by paying to the collector of taxes for the legal holder of the certificate the amount for which it was sold at such sale, exclusive of surplus, plus interest thereon for the first two years after the date of such certificate of sale at the rate hereinabove provided, and for three years thereafter at the rate of 6 per centum per annum; that when the said property is redeemed as aforesaid, the collector of taxes shall, within five days thereafter notify the owner of record of such tax sale certificate at his last known address, by registered mail, of the redemption of such certificate; that within five years from the time that payment has been made to the collector of taxes to redeem such tax sale certificate, the owner thereof may apply for, and, upon the surrender of the certificate, shall receive from the District of Columbia the payment made as hereinbefore prescribed; that upon the failure of the owner of such tax sale certificate to apply within the period of five years, as hereinbefore prescribed, such money shall be forfeited to the District of Columbia, and be deposited by the collector of taxes in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the general revenues of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no deed shall be issued until all taxes and assessments appearing upon the tax books against the property are paid, with penalties, interests, and costs, including taxes for the years for which the District purchased the property at tax sale: Provided, That no property advertised as aforesaid shall be sold upon any bid not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs; but in case the highest bid on any property is not sufficient to meet the taxes, penalties, and costs thereon said property shall thereupon be bid off by the said collector of taxes, in the name of the District of Columbia; but the property so bid off shall not be exempted from assessment and taxation, but shall be assessed and taxed as other property; and if within two years thereafter such property is not redeemed by the owner or owners thereof, or their legal representatives, by the payment of the taxes, penalties and costs due at the time of the sale and that may have accrued after that date, and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, or if any property two years after having been so bid off at any sale in the name of said District under sections 47–1001 to 47–1009 or any other law in force is not or has not been so redeemed as aforesaid (unless it shall be shown that the sale for taxes was irregular and void), then the commissioners of the District, or their successors shall in the name of and on behalf of the District of Columbia, sell said property at public or private sale and issue to any purchaser of such property a deed, which deed shall have the same force and effect as the deed hereinbefore provided for in this section for property sold at the regular annual sale: Provided, however, That no deed shall be issued until all assessments, taxes, costs, and charges due the District, of whatsoever nature, shall have been paid in full: And provided also, That minors or other persons under legal disability be allowed one year after attaining full age or after the removal of such legal disability to redeem the property so sold, or bid off by the collector of taxes in the name of the District of Columbia as aforesaid, from the purchaser or purchasers, his, her, or their assigns, or from the District of Columbia, on payment of the amount of purchase money so paid therefor, with eight per centum per annum interest thereon as aforesaid, together with all taxes and assessments that have been paid thereon by the purchaser or his assigns between the day of sale and the period of redemption with eight per centum per annum interest on the amount of such taxes and assessments. When such property is redeemed from a purchaser other than the District of Columbia, and when such property shall be redeemed from the District of Columbia, it shall, except as to the period of redemption, be upon the terms and conditions hereinabove provided for in the case of redemption by persons not under legal disability: Provided, however, That failure on the part of the District, from any cause whatsoever, to enforce the liens acquired aforesaid shall not release the property from any tax whatsoever that may be due the District: Provided further, That at any time after any property shall have been bid off as aforesaid by the collector of taxes, and before the expiration of the time allowed for the redemption thereof, the collector of taxes of said District, may issue to any person or persons, upon the payment of a sum not less than the aggregate amount of the taxes, penalties, and costs due at the time the property was bid off by the collector and that may have accrued after that date, a certificate of sale, and if the property shall not be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the date of such certificate, by payment to the collector of taxes of said District, for the use of the legal holder of the certificate, the amount exclusive of surplus paid by the person or persons to whom such certificate was issued and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, a deed shall be given by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their successors in office, to the legal holder of such certificate, which deed shall have the same force and effect as the deed hereinbefore provided for in this section for property sold at the regular annual sale; and that the foregoing provisions in this section in reference to the sale at public or private sale of property in the District of Columbia advertised for sale for taxes and bid off by the collector of taxes be, and the same are also hereby, made applicable to all property in the District of Columbia subject to taxation where taxes levied and in arrears on July 1, 1897, or at any time prior thereto, have not been paid, and which at any sale held previous to said date were bid off in the name of the District of Columbia; and when for any reason any tax sale of real property in the District of Columbia may be set aside or canceled, such property may be readvertised and sold at the next ensuing annual sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 3; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 633, ch. 1358, § 3; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 9; Feb. 22, 1944, 58 Stat. 20, ch. 29.)

Compiler's Note

Sections 47–1011 to 47–1014 provide an alternative method to that given in this section for sale of property which has been bid in at a tax sale in the name of the District.

Amendments

The 1902 amendment added the first sentence and the part of the section following the words "Provided further," and lowered the first percentage provision from 15% per annum to 12% per annum and the second percentage provision from 10% per annum to 8% per annum, and provided the third percentage provision should be 12% per annum.

The 1938 amendments changed these provisions to their present amount.

The act of Feb. 22, 1944, cited to text, amended section by the addition of the first proviso.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Protection of Interests

Where interests under wills had apparently been extinguished by valid tax title to stranger before trustee under will acquired tax title in individual name, burden was on the trustee, not upon the commissioners, to act for protection of the beneficial interests, and the commissioners did not have burden of searching out the interests under the wills and making a decision regarding their validity. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Conveyance for Lesser Amount

Under this section and §§ 47–1001 and 47–1002 providing for public sale of delinquent tax property, the commissioners had no authority to convey property for less than all assessments, taxes, costs, penalties, and charges due the District of Columbia. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Where, under this section, commissioners had no authority to convey property for less than all assessments, taxes, costs, penalties, and charges due District of Columbia, the purpose of former section 800 of Title 20 of the 1929 D. C. Code creating such authority and a method for selling the property was, not to repeal this section, but rather to provide for disposition on terms not permissible prior thereto with safeguard of judicial approval when the sale should be made on the new terms. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

Redemption

Where the "date of redemption" column in assessor's tax record was used for both genuine redemptions within statutory period and payments made on issue of tax deed, tax deed was not objectionable on ground that sale made in January, 1932, stood redeemed on March 10, 1934, on tax records where evidence established that amounts entered in the "date of redemption column" were amounts paid by purchaser in return for tax deed. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

TAX DEED

The provision in the Code that the District's tax deed shall be prima facie evidence of a good and perfect title in fee simple is not to be interpreted as indicating a Congressional intent that a junior District lien shall be superior to a senior federal lien. Cobb v. United States (C. A. D. C. 1949, 172 F. 2d 277, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 228).

TAX TITLE, EFFECT OF

Title evidenced by a tax deed given in compliance with statutory requirements expunges all interests which spring from record title and vests in the holder a new and complete title to the property in fee simple. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

No right of dower passed by the tax deed involved. If the deed had any effect at all it was to expunge the inchoate dower right. Cobb v. Shore (C. A. D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 980).

§ 47–1004 [20: 793a]. Changed interest rates to apply only to sales after June 25, 1938.

These amendments (of section 47–1003) shall apply only to tax sales held after June 25, 1938, and section 47–1003, without said amendments, shall remain in full force and effect as to all tax sales held prior to June 25, 1938. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 9 (d).)

§ 47–1005 [20: 794]. Property sold for taxes redeemable within 2 years from sale.

The owner of any property sold as aforesaid, or any other person having an interest therein at the time of redemption, may redeem the same from such sale at any time within two years after the last day of sale by paying to the collector of taxes, for the use of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, the sum mentioned in the certificate of sale therefor, exclusive of surplus with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum after the date of such certificate of sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 4; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words "exclusive of surplus," reduced the percentage provision from 15% per annum to 12% per annum, and deleted the following words which appeared in the 1898 act following the present last word: "Together with any tax or assessment which the holder of said certificate shall have paid between the days of sale and redemption, with interest on the same at the rate of ten per centum per annum," and the words "or authorized agent of the owner" following the word "owner" the first time it is used.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

The code provides for the sale of the real property subject to taxation on which said taxes are unpaid after the notice of sale and delinquent tax list shall have been advertised as required under the statute, and the redemption of the property so sold within two years. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

The statute supplies remedial procedure by which to obtain necessary information where there has been a refusal to file return as requested by law. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47–1006 [20: 795]. Report of tax sale to be filed with recorder of deeds—Disposition of surplus on redemption.

The collector of taxes shall, within twenty days, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the last day of the sale hereinbefore provided for as aforesaid, file with the recorder of deeds a written report, in which he shall give a statement of the property sold, other than that sold to the District of Columbia, to whom it was assessed, the taxes due, to whom sold, the amount paid, the date of sale, the cost thereof, and the surplus, if any. Any surplus remaining after the collection of taxes, penalties, and costs on any real estate shall be collected as hereinbefore provided for, and shall be deposited by the collector of taxes to the credit of the surplus fund, to be paid to the owner or owners, or their legal representatives, in the same manner as other payments made by the District: Provided, That if any property sold for taxes, as herein provided, is redeemed from such sale within two years from last day of sale, any surplus paid at time of sale shall be paid by the District of Columbia to the legal holder of certificate of sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 5; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words, "exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays," and the proviso; deleted the words "in sections one hundred and sixty-one and one hundred and sixty-two, chapter six, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to the District of Columbia" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "as hereinbefore provided for."

§ 47–1007 [20: 796]. Commissioners not to convey any property if sale is void.

The said commissioners shall not convey any property sold for taxes if they shall discover, before the conveyance, that the sale was for any cause invalid and ineffectual to give title to the property sold; but they shall cancel the sale and cause the purchase money, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any, to be refunded to the purchaser, his representatives or assigns: Provided, That if any conveyance made by the said commissioners, of property sold for taxes, shall at any time be set aside by decree of any court as invalid, the party in whose favor the decree is rendered shall pay to the party holding such conveyance, his heirs or assigns, the amount paid for such taxes and conveyances, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 6; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words, "together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any" and the proviso.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LIMITATIONS

Statute limits reimbursement by the District of Columbia to those instances where the Commissioners "discover, before the conveyance, that the sale was for any cause invalid and ineffectual to give title to the property sold." Cobb v. Shore (C. A., D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 980).

§ 47–1008 [20: 797]. Payment of expenses of advertising.

The expenses of advertising shall be paid by a charge of fifty cents for each lot or piece of property advertised. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 7; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 7; May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 650, ch. 659.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment reduced the charge from one dollar and twenty cents to fifty cents.

The 1928 amendment deleted the words "and the printing of said pamphlet" following the word "advertising" (see amendment note to § 47–1001).

§ 47–1009 [20: 798]. Assessor to furnish information.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall furnish information with respect to taxes, special assessments, and valuations to any person having any interest in the property with respect to which such information is requested. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 8; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 8; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of 1898 provided that a copy of a pamphlet listing the property on which taxes are in arrears, with notice of sale, should be delivered to any taxpayer applying therefor to the office of the collector of taxes.

The 1902 act provided: "The assessor of the District of Columbia shall have the records of his office open to inspection of the public, free of charge at such time or times as the public interest will permit."

§ 47–1010 [20: 799]. Assessor to keep list of property sold for taxes for public inspection.

It shall be the duty of the assessor for the District of Columbia to prepare and keep in his office, for public inspection, a list of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold, or which may hereafter be sold, for the nonpayment of any general or special tax or assessment levied or assessed upon the same, said list to show the date of sale and for what taxes sold; in whose name assessed at the time of sale; the amount for which the same was sold; when and to whom conveyed if deeded, or, if redeemed from said sale, the date of redemption. (Feb. 6, 1879, 20 Stat. 283, ch. 50; May 13, 1892, 27 Stat. 37, ch. 74; Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 11.)

AMENDMENTS

The duties set forth in this section were created and placed upon the collector of taxes by the 1879 act, cited to the text.

The 1892 act transferred them to the assessor.

The 1917 act transferred these duties back to the collector by the following words quoted therefrom: "and the collector of taxes shall hereafter be charged with the duties heretofore required of the assessor in relation to * * * the preparation for public inspection of lists of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold, or which may hereafter be sold, for the nonpayment of any general or special tax or assessment."

The 1938 act, cited to the text, transferred these duties back to the assessor (§ 47–603).

§ 47–1011 [20: 800a]. Liens on real estate for unpaid taxes—Enforcement—Redemption before sale.

Whenever any real estate in the District of Columbia has been, or shall hereafter be, offered for sale for nonpayment of taxes or assessments of any kind whatsoever, and shall have been bid off in the name of the District of Columbia, and more than two years shall have elapsed since such property was bid off as aforesaid and the same has not been redeemed as provided by law, the Commissioners of said District may, in the name of the District aforesaid, petition the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, sitting in equity, to enforce the lien of said District for taxes or other assessments on the aforesaid property by decreeing a sale thereof; and up to the time of the sale hereinafter provided for such property may be redeemed by the owner or other person having an interest therein by the payment of all taxes or assessments due the District of Columbia upon said property and all legal penalties and costs thereon, together with such other expenses as may have been incurred by said District prior to, and as a result of, the filing of the action herein provided for. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1153, ch. 111, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This act, §§ 47–1011 to 47–1014, repealed and superseded act of February 14, 1929, 45 Stat. 1173, ch. 197, § 1, D. C. Code 1929, title 20, § 800. Section 2 of the act of February 14, 1929, repealed all acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith. Sections 47–1011 to 47–1014 provide an alternative method for selling property bid in for the District at tax sales. For the older method, see § 47–1003.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LAND SUBJECT TO EASEMENTS

Sale of real property for non-payment of taxes does not extinguish an easement with which the property is burdened. District of Columbia v. Capital Mortg. & Title Co. (D. C. D. C. 1949, 84 F. Supp. 788).

PRIOR LAW

Sections 47–1001 to 47–1003 providing in part for public sale of delinquent tax property is not inconsistent with former section 800 of Title 20 of the 1929 D. C. Code providing an additional method for collecting taxes, and said former section 800 of former Title 20 did not repeal said §§ 47–1001 to 47–1003. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

REDEMPTION

Where the "date of redemption" column in assessor's tax record was used for both genuine redemptions within statutory period and payments made on issue of tax deed, tax deed was not objectionable on ground that sale made in January, 1932, stood redeemed on March 10, 1934, on tax records where evidence established that amounts entered in the "date of redemption column" were amounts paid by purchaser in return for tax deed. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

TAX LIEN

Tax liens and sales of the District are governed by Title 47, and since no reference is made in the statute to a lien for taxes except in connection with taxes in arrears, it is a reasonable interpretation that the lien does not arise prior to the occurrence of a delinquency. Cobb v. United States (C. A. D. C. 1949, 172 F. 2d 277, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 228).

§ 47–1012 [20: 800b]. Real estate to be sold—Notice to owner—Parties defendant—Court order—Validity of service and sale.

Before any such action shall be instituted, the aforesaid Commissioners shall cause notice to be given in the name appearing upon the records of the assessor as the owner of such property, by registered mail directed to the last known address of such person, and by publication once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia, against said person and "all other persons having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest in or to the real estate proposed to be proceeded against, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns," by such designation, to appear before them on a day certain, which day shall be at least ten days after the last publication of said notice, and show cause, if any they have, why the said real estate should not be proceeded against. For the purpose of the proceedings herein provided for, the person appearing by the assessor's records, at the time of the first publication of notice, as the owner of such property, and any other persons who may appear in response to the publication aforesaid and claim to have an interest in such property, shall be deemed proper parties defendant in any such proceedings. Upon the filing of the petition aforesaid, the court shall enter an order directed to the person or persons named as defendants therein and "to all other persons having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest in the real estate proposed to be sold, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns," by such designation, directing them to appear on a day certain, which day shall be not less than thirty days after the date of the last publication of said order, and show cause, if any they have, why said real estate should not be proceeded against and sold. The said order shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia, and such publication shall be considered as sufficient service upon such person or persons as cannot be found by the marshal within the District of Columbia or who are nonresident or unknown, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns; and the proceedings or sale of such real estate shall not be rendered invalid if the true owner or owners or any other person or persons having any right, title, or interest in said real estate shall not be included as a party to the suit, if it shall appear that the publication herein provided for shall have been duly made. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1154, ch. 111, § 2.)

§ 47–1013 [20: 800c]. Court to decree sale by collector of taxes—No penalty if defect in tax sale.

Upon proof in said suit of the failure of the owner of any such property to redeem the same as provided by law, the court shall, without unreasonable delay, decree a sale of the property to satisfy the lien of the District of Columbia for taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and costs, and any other costs or expenses that have been incurred by said District prior to or after the institution of suit and in connection therewith, which said costs shall include court costs, but in no such case shall there be any allowance by the court of a docket fee, attorney's fee, or trustee's commission. All such sales shall be conducted by the collector of taxes or his deputy, by public auction either in the office of said collector or in front of the premises to be sold, as the court may determine, after advertisement for ten consecutive days in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia: Provided, That if it shall appear that there were any substantial defects in any tax sale no part of the penalties and charges incidental to such sales shall be collectible; but nothing herein contained shall in any wise affect any cost incurred by the District of Columbia in the institution and prosecution of the suit. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1154, ch. 111, § 3.)

§ 47–1014 [20: 800d]. Real estate sold—Confirmation of sale—Surplus paid into court—Delivery of deed.

Every such sale shall be reported to and confirmed by said equity court, and no sale shall be made for an amount less than such aggregate taxes, interest, and costs incurred in the institution of suit, including advertising and sale, unless by express order of the court. Any surplus remaining from sales made under sections 47–1011 to 47–1014 shall be paid by the collector of taxes into the registry of the court, to abide its further order for payment to the person or persons entitled thereto; and any such moneys remaining unclaimed for a period of five years after confirmation of any such sale shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States and credited to the revenues of the District of Columbia. Upon confirmation of such sale by order of court and payment of the purchase price, and upon full compliance with all of the terms of sale, the clerk of the court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to the property so sold, which deed shall convey to said purchaser all of the right, title, and estate of all persons whether named in such suit or not. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1155, ch. 111, § 4.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Where, under §§ 47–1001 to 47–1003, commissioners had no authority to convey property for less than all assessments, taxes, costs, penalties, and charges due District of Columbia, the purpose of former section 800 of Title 20 of the 1929 D. C. Code creating such authority and a method for selling the property was, not to repeal said sections 47–1001 to 47–1003, but rather to provide for disposition on terms not permissible prior thereto with safeguard of judicial approval when the sale should be made on the new terms. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

Where interests under wills had apparently been extinguished by valid tax title to stranger before trustee under will acquired tax title in individual name, burden was on the trustee, not upon the commissioners, to act for protection of the beneficial interest, and the commissioners did not have burden of searching out the interests under the wills and making a decision regarding their validity. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

SALE FOR EXCESSIVE AMOUNT

Where tax sale was for more than full amount of accrued taxes, interest, and other charges, former section 800 of Title 20 of the 1929 D. C. Code requiring judicial approval of tax sale of property for less than all assessments, taxes, costs, penalties, and charges due the District of Columbia was inapplicable. W. C. & A. N. Miller Devel- opment Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

SALE, SETTING ASIDE

If proceedings on which tax sale is predicated substantially comply with the statutory directions, courts should not be astute to search for technical grounds on which to set aside the conveyance. Deming v. Turner (D. C., D. C. 1945, 63 F. Supp. 220).

TAX TITLE, EFFECT OF

Title evidenced by a tax deed given in compliance with statutory requirements expunges all interests which spring from record title and vests in the holder a new and complete title to the property in fee simple. W. C. & A. N. Miller Development Co. v. Emig Properties Corporation, 1943 (134 F. 2d 36, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 205, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 983, 318 U. S. 788, 87 L. Ed. 1155).

§ 47–1015 [20: 801]. Validity of sales not affected by certain errors in computation.

No sale of any real property for taxes shall be impaired or made void by reason of any error of the proper officers in making a computation of the amount of taxes due, the expenses attendant on the advertisement and sale, or of the purchase-money and the interest thereon, notwithstanding the sum erroneously computed may have been paid by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns; but all such sales and the deeds which may be granted on the certificates then issued shall be valid and binding as if no such error had been made. (R. S., D. C., § 173.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Family dwellings occupied by the owner are exempted from this provision, see § 47–904.

REFUND OF TAXES

§ 47–1016 [20: 821]. Taxes erroneously paid to be refunded.

The commissioners are hereby authorized and instructed to cause all taxes erroneously paid in the District of Columbia to be refunded by the proper accounting and disbursing officers of said District, upon the certificate of the collector of such erroneous payment, which certificate shall state the nature of the error, the name of the person or persons by whom such excessive payment was made, and such other particulars as may be necessary to satisfy the accounting officers that such claim for reimbursement is just and equitable; and the said accounting and disbursing officers shall pay all moneys so refunded out of, and charge the same to, the fund which was credited with the erroneous payment. (Leg. Assem., Jan. 19, 1872, ch. 31, § 1, p. 52; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1874 act vested power in the Commissioners.

Chapter 11.—SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

Sec.

47–1101. Protest against special assessments—Hearing—Report and exceptions—Decision.
47–1102. Abatement, reduction, or adjustment of special assessment.
47–1103. Notice of levying of special assessment—Publication—Payment of special assessment—Interest.
47–1104. Payment of special assessment after ratification—Sale for nonpayment.
47–1105. Assessment for removal of nuisance—Sale for nonpayment.
47–1106. Reassessment where special assessment set aside—Hearing—Agent's report to Commissioners.
47–1107. Improvements of streets about the Capitol—Assessments by Secretary of the Interior.

§ 47–1101 [20: 746]. Protest against special assessment—Hearing—Report and exceptions—Decision.

Any property owner aggrieved by any special assessment levied by the District of Columbia for any public improvement, other than a special assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, may, within sixty days after service of notice of such assessment as provided in section 47–1103, file with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a protest in writing against such assessment setting forth specifically the grounds of such protest and may request a hearing thereon. No ground of protest not specifically set forth need be considered by the Commissioners. If a hearing is requested the same shall be held, in the discretion of the Commissioners, either before them or before one or more agents designated by them. At such hearing, physical facts which may be ascertained by view may be considered whether proved or not. If the hearing is held before an agent or agents, such agent or agents shall report in writing to the Commissioners the substance of the evidence taken and the arguments made at the hearing, together with the findings (which may include a statement of any physical facts not proved at the hearing but which may be ascertained by view) and the recommendations of such agent or agents. A copy of such report, findings, and recommendations shall be mailed to the protestant ten days before being presented to the Commissioners, and the protestant may, before such report, findings, and recommendations are presented to the Commissioners, file with such agent or agents exceptions to such report and findings, which exceptions shall be presented to the Commissioners with such report, findings, and recommendations. If the Commissioners find that the property of the owner so protesting is not benefited by the improvement for which said assessment is levied, or is benefited less than the amount of such assessment or is unequally or inequitably assessed with relation to other property abutting such improvement, said commissioners shall abate, reduce, or adjust such assessment in accordance with such findings. In computing the time hereinafter provided in which a special assessment may be paid without interest there shall be excluded therefrom the time between the date of the filing of any such protest and the date of mailing notice of the action thereon by the Commissioners. This section shall be effective only as to assessments levied for work completed subsequent to the passage and approval of sections 47–1101 to 47–1106. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1198, ch. 702, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAVING AND IMPROVING STREETS

A different rule prevails as to assessments for paving and improving streets than that which applies for laying water mains in the District, and the legislature may create taxing districts to meet the expense of local improvements and may fix the basis of taxation without encountering the Fourteenth Amendment unless its action is palpably arbitrary or a plain abuse. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

FRONT-FOOT RULE

Assessment under front-foot rule held invalid. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525); Dougherty v. American Secur. & Trust Co. (59 App. D. C. 301, 40 Fed. (2d) 813, cert. den. 282 U. S. 854, 75 L. Ed. 757, 51 Sup. Ct. 31); Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

In applying this general law as to front-foot rule, which extends throughout the District, to a special assessment for street improvement not exclusively benefiting adjacent property-owners, the assessment cannot be upheld if it is in excess of the benefits and is not equal and fair in view of existing physical conditions, as where there is no relative equality in the value and depth of the abuttng properties. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525.)

In applying the front-foot rule, the size, shape, improvements, or favorable location of property is not the test in determining validity of an assessment, but rather the relation of the property to other properties facing on the avenue and in the immediate vicinity. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

A road improvement assessment under the front-foot rule was canceled as inequitable as applied to a triangular-shaped lot. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

REVISION OF ASSESSMENTS

The front-foot rule cannot be applied to the assessment of a lot for paving an alley, which had a boundary of 233.17 feet facing two alleys, which could not be used commercially, and when the lot is assessed 222 percent higher than average assessment of other lots bordering the alleys, the assessment must be revised. Willner v. Hazen (71 App. D. C. 373, 111 Fed. (2d) 511).

One seeking to cancel an alley-paving assessment on a lot, facing two alleys, which, under zoning regulations was limited to one-family detached house, and which was assessed 222 percent higher than other lots, was entitled to trial on the merits, and dismissal of complaint was improperly granted. Willner v. Hazen (71 App. D. C. 373, 111 Fed. (2d) 511).

§ 47–1102 [20: 746a]. Abatement, reduction, or adjustment of special assessment.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized, but not directed, whenever in their judgment and discretion any property upon which a special assessment has been levied by the District of Columbia is not benefited by the improvement for which such special assessment was levied, or is benefited less than the amount of such assessment, or is unequally or inequitably assessed with relation to other property abutting such improvement, to abate, reduce, or adjust such assessment in accordance with such finding. This section shall not apply to any assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, or to any assessment levied for work completed subsequent to the passage and approval of sections 47–1101 to 47–1106, or to any assessment levied under sections 7–622 to 7–633: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting protests filed under the provisions of sections 7–622 to 7–633 within the time prescribed in said sections. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1199, ch. 702, § 2.)

§ 47–1103 [20: 746b]. Notice of levying of special assessment—Publication—Payment of special assessment—Interest.

(a) When any special assessment for a public improvement, with the exception of assessments levied in condemnation proceedings, is levied by the District of Columbia upon any lot or parcel of land, notice of the levying of such assessment shall be served upon the record owner thereof in the manner herein provided and if there be more than one record owner of such lot or parcel of land notice served on one of the owners shall be sufficient. If the address of the owner be unknown or if the owner be a nonresident, such notice shall be served on his tenant or agent. The service of such notice shall be either personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant. If there be no tenant or agent known to the Commissioners, then they shall give notice of such assessment by advertisement once a week for two successive weeks in some daily newspaper of general circulation published in the District of Columbia. The cost of such publication shall be paid out of the general revenues of the District. The notice herein provided for shall be in lieu of any and all other notice now required by law.

This section shall apply to all assessments (other than assessments in condemnation proceedings) notice of which has not been served prior to the approval of sections 47–1101 to 47–1106.

(b) All special assessments authorized to be levied by the District of Columbia for public improvements, with the exception of assessments levied in condemnation proceedings, may be paid without interest within sixty days from the date of service of notice or of the last publication of notice as the case may be. Interest of one-half of 1 per centum for each month or part thereof shall be charged on all unpaid amounts from the expiration of sixty days from the date of service or last publication as the case may be. Any such assessment may be paid in three equal installments with interest thereon. If any such assessment or any part thereof shall remain unpaid after the expiration of two years from date of service of notice or last publication of notice as the case may be, the property against which said assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment or unpaid portion thereof with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if said assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale.

This section shall apply only to assessments for public improvements completed subsequent to June 25, 1938, and assessments for public improvements completed on or before said date shall be levied and collected and bear interest as if said sections had not been passed, except that where service sewers or water mains, or both, have been laid prior to the approval of said sections, but assessments therefor have not been levied for the reason that the property abutting the street, avenue, road, or alley in which the service sewer or water main is laid has not been subdivided, assessments for such sewers or water mains, or both, levied after the approval of said sections because of the subdivision of the property or its connection with the sewer or water main or both, shall be levied, collected, and bear interest as provided in this section. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1199, ch. 702, § 3.)

§ 47–1104 [20: 746c]. Payment of special assessment after ratification—Sale for nonpayment.

Special assessments authorized to be levied in condemnation proceedings instituted by the District of Columbia may be paid without interest within sixty days after the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury. Interest of one-third of 1 per centum for each month or part thereof shall be charged on all unpaid amounts from the expiration of sixty days from the date of the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury. Any such assessment may be paid in five equal installments with interest thereon. If any such assessment or any part thereof shall remain unpaid after the expiration of four years from the date of the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury the property against which said assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment or unpaid portion thereof with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if said assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale. This section shall apply only to assessments ratified or confirmed by the court after June 25, 1938 and assessments ratified or confirmed on or before June 25, 1938 shall be levied and collected and bear interest as if sections 47–1101 to 47–1106 had not been passed. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1200, ch. 702, § 4.)

§ 47–1105 [20: 746d]. Assessment for removal of nuisance—Sale for nonpayment.

All assessments authorized to be levied by the District of Columbia to reimburse it for money expended in the removal of nuisances shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or part thereof from the date such assessment was levied. If any such assessment shall remain unpaid after the expiration of sixty days from the date such assessment was levied the property against which such assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if such assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1200, ch. 702, § 5.)

§ 47–1106 [20: 746e]. Reassessment where special assessment set aside—Hearing—Agent's report to Commissioners.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed, in any case where a special assessment for public improvements in the District of Columbia, other than an assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, has been or hereafter may be quashed, set aside, or declared void by any court for any reason other than the right of the public authorities to levy an assessment for such improvement, to reassess the property in accordance with the benefits received from such improvement, after notice to the owner of the property and an opportunity afforded him to be heard, the hearing to be had before such agent or agents as the commissioners may designate. At such hearing physical facts which may be ascertained by view may be considered, whether proved or not. Such agent or agents shall report in writing to the commissioners the substance of the evidence taken and the arguments made at the hearing, together with the findings (which may include a statement of any physical facts not proved at the hearing which may be ascertained by view) and the recommendations of such agent or agents. A copy of such report, findings, and recommendations shall be mailed to the protestant ten days before being presented to the commissioners, and the protestant may, before such report, findings, and recommendations are presented to the commissioners, file with such agent or agents exceptions to such report and findings, which exceptions shall be presented to the commissioners with such report, findings, and recommendations. The reassessment shall be made within one year from the date the judgment or decree quashing, setting aside, or declaring void the assessment becomes final and not subject to review. Notice of such reassessment shall be given the property-owner in the same manner as if such reassessment was an original assessment, and such reassessment shall bear interest and be collected in the same manner as if such reassessment was an original assessment. The three members of the permanent Board of Assistant Assessors designated by the assessor, to assess personal property, shall under the direction and supervision of the said assessor, assess personal property in the District of Columbia as follows. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The Revenue Act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1) provided: "The tax on intangible personal property imposed by any law relating to the District shall not apply with respect to any year subsequent to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939."

Title VII of said act of July 26, 1939, provided further: "The laws authorizing the imposition by the District of Columbia of intangible personal property taxes and business privilege taxes are hereby extended from and after June 30, 1939, for the following purposes in connection with the taxes accrued or due under such laws prior to July 1, 1939—

"(1) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with such laws and the regulations issued thereunder;

"(2) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such laws;

"(3) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses; and

"(4) For the assessment and collection of such taxes, and the filing of liens therefor."

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment changed the number of assistant assessors from five to six (see amendment note to § 47–604), and raised the number in this section from two to three.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARGE AGAINST OWNER OF PROPERTY

The personal property tax is a definite charge against the owner of the property and the real property tax is a definite charge against the property itself. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47–1202 [20: 752]. Personal property to be assessed at its full value.

All personal property in the District of Columbia subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed at not less than the full and true value thereof in lawful money. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759. § 4.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BASIS OF VALUATION

The assessor cannot be held to any fixed formula or specific catalog of data in determining his proposed personal property assessments and is entitled to base his action on the best information he can procure. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

If valuation of personal property proposed by assessor is correct in dollar amount, as the fair cash value, not less than the full and true value in lawful money, the assessment should be upheld even if the data or method used by him is incomplete or even erroneous, but, if proposed assessment is incorrect in dollar amount, the final assessment must be based on correct value, even though assessor's data and method of computation were correct. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

Where property consisted of tugs, scows and launches which came into the District on the average of once a day and spent more time out of the District than in it, the District could constitutionally tax tangibles used exclusively in interstate commerce, upon a fair apportionment of value, but could not tax them at full value. Smoot Sand & Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1949, 174 F. 2d 505, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 367, certiorari denied, 69 S. Ct. 1515, 337 U. S. 939, 93 L. Ed. 1744).

Where home furnishings and effects were owned by the children in common, each annual assessment on the furnishings of the home should be given a single total valuation and allowed but a single exemption. National Bank of Washington v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 62, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 187).

REVIEW

Where the question of penalties and interest is not raised below, the court will not consider them on appeal since it is essential that the administrative remedy be fully available and exhausted before resort is had to judicial review. National Bank of Washington v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 62, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 187).

§ 47–1203 [20: 753]. Assessor to prepare printed blank forms—Mode of assessment, returns—False affidavit, penalty.

The assessor of the District of Columbia, or his successor in office, shall annually cause to be prepared a printed blank schedule of all tangible personal property and all general merchandise or stock in trade, owned or held in trust or otherwise, subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 47–1201 to 47–1214, 47–1301 to 47–1305, 47–1701 to 47–1709, and of the classes of corporations and companies to be assessed, together with the rate of tax prescribed, to which shall be appended an affidavit in blank, setting forth that the foregoing presents a full and true statement of all such personal property, taxable capital, or other basis of assessment, or either, as the case may be. When said schedule is ready for delivery, notice thereof shall be given by the assessor by advertisement for three successive secular days in one or more of the daily newspapers published in said District, and a copy of said schedule shall be delivered to any citizen applying therefor at the office of the assessor. Every person, association, corporation, firm, or company in said District liable to taxation hereunder, and every association, company, executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee holding personal property in trust liable to taxation hereunder, shall, within thirty days after the last publication of said advertisement, as aforesaid, fill out the proper blanks in said schedule with a full and true statement, as in this section hereinbefore required, and make and sign an affidavit to the truth thereof, as aforesaid, before the assessor or one of the other members of the said board of personal-tax appraisers (and the members of the said board are hereby authorized to administer such and all oaths in connection with their duties as assessor and appraisers without charge), or before any person authorized by law to administer oaths; and the address in the District of Columbia of the person, corporation, or company making affidavit shall in each case be given below his, its, or their signature, and thereupon said board of personal-tax appraisers, or any one of the members thereof, shall assess said property at its fair cash value, and enter the same in the columns upon said blanks provided for that purpose, and the amount thus ascertained shall be entered upon the books for taxation for each fiscal year: Provided, That if any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee shall fail to make and deliver to the assessor or one of the said appraisers, within thirty days after the date of the last advertisement of the notice hereinbefore required, the schedule of his or its said personal property owned, held in trust, or otherwise, as provided for in this section, then the said board of personal-tax appraisers hereinbefore provided for shall without delay, from the best information they can procure, make an assessment against such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, to which they shall add twenty per centum thereof: Provided further, That if the said board of personal-tax appraisers be not satisfied as to the correctness of the return of personal property made by any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, said board may reject said return, and said board, or any one of the members thereof, may, from the best information he or they can procure, or by making such examination of the personal property as may be practicable, assess the same in such amount as may to him or them seem just; and notice of the rejection of the sworn return shall be given to the party interested by leaving the same at the address given in said return, and in all such cases there shall be a right of appeal from the action taken by said appraisers to the board of personal-tax appeals, or to their successors in office, within fifteen days after delivery of said notice of rejection as aforesaid: And provided further, That if any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee shall make a false affidavit touching the matters herein provided for, he or they shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties for that offense now provided by section 22–2501. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This is the only power under the statute for the reassessment of personal property except as provided in § 759 (§ 47–1212). Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

ESTOPPEL

Taxpayer was not estopped from denying, for personal property tax purposes, the figures set up by her in her income tax returns for depreciation purposes. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

MIGRATORY PROPERTY

Section 47–501 and this chapter authorizing taxation by District of Columbia of all tangible "personal property subject to taxation" contemplate personal property having a definite and permanent situs in the District and not temporarily brought into District by nonresident, and said § 47–501 and this chapter apply only to property that has acquired a fixed, definite and permanent taxable situs. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

To justify ad valorem assessment on migratory personal property belonging to a nonresident of taxing district, the statute must show not only the kind and character of migratory property to be taxed, but must provide a method of determining whether articles present on a particular day fairly average the kind, quantity and value of the replacement calculated on an annual basis, and there must be adequate machinery to determine and assess the valuation. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

Where Maryland beer manufacturer, which was not engaged in business in District of Columbia, delivered beer sold to District of Columbia distributor in containers which remained in District only until they were empty, containers which were found in the District on the statutory tax assessment date were not subject to ad valorem assessment, since the District of Columbia statutes do not place ad valorem assessment on migratory personal property belonging to nonresident not engaged in business in the District. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

NONRESIDENT

Where this section, which required filing of return as basis for ad valorem assessment, applied only to persons, associations, corporations or companies in the District of Columbia, a company which did no business in the District and maintained no agencies therein was not required to pay a tax. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

To justify taxation of personal property belonging to nonresident not engaged in business in taxing district, the assessment on which tax is based must, in addition to other safeguards to insure fairness, be required by a statute definitely identifying the kind and character of the property subject to the tax. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

PLACE TAXABLE

Personal property, in absence of a law to the contrary, follows the person of the owner and has its "situs" at his domicile, but one exception is that for purpose of taxation personal property may be taxed at the place where it is actually located. Queen City Brewing Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (134 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 213, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1330, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716).

TAX RETURNS

This section and § 47–1206 require that every resident shall file with the assessor of the District a tax return as of July 1, of each year, containing a true statement of his personal property for the purpose of taxation. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10.)

VALIDITY OF ASSESSMENT

It is fundamental to tax validity that there be a valid assessment. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

It is a rule without exception that if a property tax assessment is not properly made, there is no proper basis for a tax, and a tax attempted to be collected is void. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47–1204 [20: 755a]. Tangible personal property stored in transit.

Nothing in the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1939 contained, nor shall any prior Act of Congress relating to the District of Columbia be deemed to impose upon any person, firm, association, company, or corporation a tax based upon tangible personal property owned and stored by such person in a public warehouse in the District of Columbia for a period of time no longer than is necessary for the convenience or exigencies of reshipment and transportation to its destination without the District of Columbia. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1110, ch. 367, title IV, § 6.)

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see compiler's notes to § 47–1401.

§ 47–1205 [20: 756]. "Resident of the District of Columbia" defined.

Any person maintaining a place of abode in the District of Columbia on the 1st day of July of a taxable year, and for the three months prior thereto, shall be considered as a resident for the purpose of assessment on intangible property wherever located, unless evidence shall be submitted to the assessor of the District of Columbia, satisfactory to him, that such intangible personal property or the income thereof is taxed to said person in some other jurisdiction, or that the assets of a corporation or association represented by shares or certificates constituting such intangible personal property are taxed by the state in which such corporation or association is chartered or organized and in which such person has a legal residence, in lieu of a tax upon such shares or certificates: Provided, That Cabinet officers and persons in the service of the United States Government elected for a definite term of office shall not be considered as residents of the District of Columbia for the purposes of this section. (July

3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 2; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Insofar as any provision of this section applies exclusively to taxation of intangible personal property, it is inoperative, see Compiler's Note to § 47–1201.

AMENDMENT

The 1929 amendment deleted the words, "January 1 of any year, and for six months or more" and inserted in lieu thereof the following: "The 1st day of July of a taxable year, and for three months."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BUSINESS OF HANDLING AND INVESTING FUNDS

Handling, investment, and reinvestment of substantial funds, by what must be a considerable staff of officers, agents, and employees, clearly constitutes the carrying on of business in the District within the meaning of the statute and the applicable decisions. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

One who questions the constitutionality of this act must show that he is within the class of persons with respect to whom the act is alleged to be unconstitutional, and the alleged unconstitutional feature injures him. Heald v. District of Columbia (259 U. S. 114, 66 L. Ed. 852, 42 Sup. Ct. 434).

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE

A resident of Boston who, upon his discharge from military service, entered the Government service in Washington, D. C., always intending to return to Boston when his service had expired, was not liable to tax on his intangible personalty imposed by the District, since Boston continued to be his domicil. Sweeney v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 30, 113 Fed. (2d) 25).

PAYING TAX NOT CONCLUSIVE AS TO RESIDENCE

Fact that appellant paid tax on home in District of Columbia did not create a residence there, for the statute expressly recognizes that persons "maintaining a place of abode" there may have a legal residence elsewhere. Nixon v. Nixon (329 Pa. 256, 198 Atl. 154).

"RESIDENT" CONSTRUED

"Resident" as used in this section means "domiciled," which is the normal and usual meaning of "resident." Sweeney v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 30, 113 Fed. (2d) 25).

A nonstock co-operative membership corporation incorporated under Maryland laws and comprising some 1,150 dairy farmers as members, by carrying on commercial transactions in the District of Columbia, established its "commercial domicile" in the District and was "engaged in business" in the District and was thus subject to intangible personal property tax there, even though its "legal residence" was in Maryland. Maryland & Virginia Milk Producers' Ass'n v. District of Columbia, 1941 (119 F. 2d 787, 73 App. D. C. 399, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 87, 314 U. S. 646, 86 L. Ed. 518).

RETURN REQUIRED

A resident of the District must file personal property return for taxation whether the taxing statute of 1926 is constitutional or not, since it would be taxable under the 1916 act. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695, Cert. den. 299 U. S. 598, 81 L. Ed. 441, 57 Sup. Ct. 191).

A report must be had of the appellant's property in order that an assessment may be made, and this is so whether it is under the act of 1916 or the amending act of 1926. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

Claim made by appellant concerning his payment of taxes upon the income of the stocks owned by him to the Federal collector at Baltimore was without merit, and it was still necessary to file a personal property return with the assessor of the District. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

§ 47–1206 [20: 757]. Returns to be made in July of each year.

Returns of all personal property other than automobiles shall be made in the month of July in the fiscal year in which the assessment is levied and the value of such property shall be made as of the first day of that month except that merchants shall continue to return their average stock in trade as provided in section 47–1212. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 6; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

This section in the 1926 act provided, "That the returns of personal property provided for in section 6 of the said act of July 1, 1902, shall be made during the month of March in the fiscal year preceding the one under which the assessment is to be levied, and, except as otherwise provided by law, the value of tangible and intangible property shall be taken as of January 1 for a basis of assessment for the next fiscal year."

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 47–1212 is the act of Congress making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, approved July 1, 1902.

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 47–1203. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ERROR IN VALUATION

Taxpayer complied with his duty. He made a true statement of his investment in marginal stocks according to the legal requirement and was taxed on the item. The difference between the amount of the investment and the value of the stocks was, at most, an error in valuation and not an omission, since omitted property means property which is not assessed at all and not property which is merely undervalued. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47–1207 [20: 754]. Rate of taxation—Exceptions.

On all tangible personal property, assessed at a fair cash value (over and above the exemptions provided in section 47–1208), including vessels, ships, boats, tools, implements, horses, and other animals, carriages, wagons, and other vehicles, there shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia the rate of tax provided by law. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 618, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 2; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section formerly provided for a tax of 1½ per centum of the assessed value of the property, but the act of 1922, cited to the text, provided that the rates should be fixed annually by the Commissioners.

Acts of September 1, 1916, 39 Stat. 717, ch. 433, § 11, and March 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1046, ch. 160, § 9, added the following paragraph: "The moneys and credits, including moneys loaned and invested, bonds and shares of stock (except the stock of banks and other corporations within the District of Columbia the taxation of which banks and corporations is herein provided for) of any person, firm, association, or corporation resident or engaged in business within said District shall be scheduled and appraised in the manner provided by paragraph one of said section six (section 47–1203) for listing and appraisal of tangible personal property and assessed at their fair cash value, and as taxes on said moneys and credits there shall be paid to the tax collector of said District not less than five-tenths of one per centum (.5%) of the value thereof: Provided, That savings deposits of individuals in a sum not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) deposited in banks, trust companies, or building associations, subject to notice of withdrawal and not subject to check, shall be exempt from this tax: Provided, further, That such tax on moneys and credits shall not apply to bank notes or notes discounted or negotiated by any bank or banking institution, savings institution, or trust company, nor to savings institutions having no capital stock, building associations, firemen's relief associations, secret and beneficial societies, labor unions, and labor-union relief associations, nor to beneficial organizations paying sick or death benefits, or either or both, from funds received from voluntary contributions or assessments upon members of such associations, societies, or unions; nor shall the provisions of this section apply to life or fire insurance companies having no capital stock, nor to the shares of stock of business companies which by reason of or in addition to incorporation receive no special franchise or privilege, but all such corporations shall be rated, assessed, and taxed as individuals conducting business in similar lines are rated, assessed, and taxed: And provided further, That corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations within said District liable to tax under the laws of said District on earnings or capital stock shall not be required to make any report or pay any further tax under this section on the mortgages, bonds, and other securities owned by them in their own right, but such corporations, partnerships, and associations holding such securities as trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or in any other manner shall return and pay the tax imposed by this section upon all securities so held by them as in the case of individuals." The provisions of this paragraph expired as of June 30, 1939, under act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1, except for the purposes set out in the compiler's note under § 47–1201.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Bond Exemptions

Considering the sweeping language of exemption in the bonding acts, there is no difficulty in holding that they apply to the District of Columbia as well as all other portions of the United States. District of Columbia v. Riggs Nat. Bank (58 App. D. C. 349, 30 Fed. (2d) 873).

Cash Used in Business

Where this section required moneys and credits to be assessed at their fair cash value but Maryland corporation operating department stores in New York, Baltimore and Washington reported only cash on hand and in banks in District of Columbia on tax date, taxpayer constantly shifted cash as needs of stores required, and considerably more cash was usually deposited in local bank than was on deposit in local banks on the tax day, determination that all taxpayer's cash was available for use by its Washington store and assessment against taxpayer of a percentage of its cash wherever deposited, fixed by the ratio of Washington sales and profits to total sales and profits, was proper. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia, 1942 (129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

Constitutionality

Federal taxation of the District of Columbia is valid even though residents have not the suffrage and may not vote on the expenditure of money raised. Heald v. District of Columbia (259 U. S. 114, 66 L. Ed. 852, 42 Sup. Ct 434).

Should it ultimately be determined that Congress, disregarding the authoritative rulings of the Supreme Court, intended in this act to tax here property located elsewhere, it would by no means follow that as to persons and property clearly subject to taxation here the act would be void. Heald v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 231, 269 Fed. 1015).

Constitutionality of section which levies tax on intangible personal property cannot be questioned in a mandamus proceeding to compel the District resident to file a return of his personal property. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

Engaging in Business

The handling, investment, and reinvestment of substantial funds, by what must have been a considerable staff of officers, agents, and employees, clearly constitutes the carrying on of business in the District of Columbia within the meaning of this section. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

Original Package Doctrine

The original package doctrine urged by the petitioner concerns only the question whether the property is or is not an import, but the doctrine is immaterial in this case because the tax is imposed even if the property retains its character as an import. Mercury Press v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1948, 173 F. 2d 636, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 203, certiorari denied, 69 S. Ct. 1495, 337 U. S. 931, 93 L. Ed. 1738).

Power to Tax

When Congress legislates for the District of Columbia alone, it acts under the direct authority of the Constitution and in so acting has plenary legislative power. There is no constitutional prohibition upon the Federal Government in respect to the taxation of imports and there was ample power for the tax in the case involved. Mercury Press v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1948, 173 F. 2d 636, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 203, certiorari denied 69 S. Ct. 1495, 337 U. S. 931, 93 L. Ed. 1738).

Residents of District

As appellants are residents of the District and the property taxed is within the District, they are clearly subject to the provisions of this act. Heald v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 231, 269 Fed. 1015).

Review by Supreme Court

Where the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia attempts to interpret this statute it is not entitled to certify questions to the Supreme Court as to the validity of the statute, in view of prior decisions of this court holding that such interpretation would be subject to review by appeal to this court. Heald v. District of Columbia (254 U. S. 20, 65 L. Ed. 106, 41 Sup. Ct. 42).

§ 47–1208 [20: 755]. Personal property exempt from taxation.

The following personal property shall be exempt from taxation.

First. The personal property of all library, benevolent, charitable, and scientific institutions incorporated under the laws of the United States or of the District of Columbia and not conducted for private gain.

Second. Libraries, schoolbooks, wearing apparel, and all family portraits.

Third. Household and other belongings, not held for sale, to the value of one thousand dollars, owned by the occupant of any dwelling-house or other place of abode, in which such household and other belongings may be located.

Fourth. Household and other belongings not held for sale and owned by any person in the public service temporarily residing in the District of Columbia who is a citizen of any state or territory and who is taxed on such personal property in such state or territory. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 10; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815; Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 1006, ch. 150, § 10.)

Amendments

The 1904 amendment deleted the words "articles of personal adornment" preceding and "and heirlooms" following the words "all family portraits" in the second subsection.

The 1913 amendment added the fourth subsection.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RETURN BY STATUTORY ASSIGNEE

Inasmuch as the statute imposes duty on bank president to file return, the receiver being the statutory assignee said duty devolves upon him. Hazen v. Hardee (64 App. D. C. 346, 78 Fed. (2d) 230).

§ 47–1209 [20: 758]. Payment of taxes—To be made semiannually—Mandamus to compel filing sworn return—Expenses.

Real-estate taxes and personal taxes of all kinds, excepting the tax on motor vehicles as herein provided, shall hereafter be payable semiannually in equal instalments in the months of September and March. If either of said instalments on real or personal property shall not be paid within the months when the same is due, said instalments shall thereupon be in arrears and delinquent, and there shall be added and collected with said tax a penalty of 1 per centum per month upon the amount thereof for the period of such delinquency, and such instalment or instalments, with the penalties thereon, shall constitute a delinquent tax to be collected in the manner now provided by law.

If any person neglects or refuses to file a return of personal property as required by law, and the assessor certifies to the Board of Commissioners that, in his opinion, the best information obtainable does not afford a satisfactory basis for assessment, the Board of Commissioners may, by petition to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia for mandamus against such person, compel the filing of a sworn return, and in such case the court shall require the person at fault to pay all expenses of the proceeding. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 5; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 5.)

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Writs of mandamus have been abolished in District Courts, similar relief may be obtained by appropriate action on motion, rule 81 (b).

AMENDMENT

The 1929 amendment added the first sentence of the first paragraph and the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RETURNS

Receiver of insolvent bank is obligated to file tax return, although 100 percent assessment on stock had been levied. Hazen v. Hardee (64 App. D. C. 346, 78 Fed. (2d) 230).

Claim made by appellant concerning his payment of taxes upon the income of the stocks owned by him to the Federal collector at Baltimore was without merit, and it was still necessary to file a personal property return with the assessor of the District. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

Commissioners are specifically authorized to compel the filing of a sworn return by any person required by law to file such a return. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

VOID ASSESSMENT

A tax based upon a void assessment may be questioned or attacked wherever found. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47–1210 [20: 758a]. Assessment of motor vehicles—Dealers' stock excepted—Enforcement.

Motor vehicles taxable by the District of Columbia shall be assessed at their value as of April 1, each year, by the Board of Personal Tax Appraisers, subject to revision on appeal by the Board of Personal Tax Appeals, at the rate fixed for the taxation of other tangible personal property for the fiscal year ending the following June 30. The tax so assessed shall constitute the personal-property tax on such vehicles for the ensuing calendar year, and no motor vehicle registration tag for any tax year shall be issued for motor vehicles subject to taxation on April 1 each year by the District of Columbia until the amount of such tax has been paid in full: Provided, That this section shall not apply to motor vehicles constituting the stock in trade of dealers, which shall be taxed as now provided by law. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable to enforce the provisions of this section. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 3; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not affected by the motor vehicle fuel tax, § 47–1915.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act changed the date in this section from "January first" to "April first."

§ 47–1211 [20: 758b]. Taxable status of motor vehicles as tangible personal property.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the tangible personal-property tax on motor vehicles, except when consisting of stock in trade of merchants, shall be prorated according to the number of months such property has a situs within the District; and all such motor vehicles shall be assessed at their value as of April 1 each year: Provided, however, That where a motor vehicle shall be registered in the District of Columbia for the first time on a date between April 1 of one year and April 1 of the succeeding year, such motor vehicle shall be assessed, for taxation for the period ending with the succeeding April 1, at its value as of date of application for such first registration. § 47–1212 [20: 759]. Mercantile establishments and carriers by water.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons entering the District of Columbia subsequent to June 30th in each year and establishing a place of business for the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, either at private sale or at auction, or engaging in the business of common carrier by vessels, ships, or boats, to conduct such business until a sworn statement of the value of such stock, vessels, ships, and boats has been filed with the assessor of the District of Columbia, who shall thereupon render a bill for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year at the same rate as other personal taxes are levied: Provided, That this shall not apply to vessels, ships, or boats if it shall be made to appear by affidavit that any vessel, ship, or boat has been assessed for taxation and the taxes paid elsewhere.

The assessor is hereby authorized to reassess said stock whenever in his judgment it has been undervalued. The goods, wares, and merchandise of any person or persons who shall fail to pay the tax required by this section within three days after beginning business shall be subject to distraint, and it shall be the duty of the assessor to place bills therefor in the hands of the collector of taxes, who shall seize sufficient of the goods of the delinquent to satisfy said tax: Provided, That said owner shall have the right of redemption within thirty days on payment of said tax, to which shall be added a penalty of one per centum, together with the cost of seizure. The collector shall sell such goods as are not redeemed at public auction, after advertisement for the three days preceding said sale. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 618, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 3; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 563, ch. 1815, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment added words: "or engaging in the business of common carrier by vessels, ships, or boats" after the word "auction" as it appears in the first paragraph; the words "vessels, ships, and boats" after the word "stock" as it appears in the first paragraph; and, the proviso in the first paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MERCHANDISE TAXABLE

This section relates to the assessment of merchandise belonging to persons who enter the District subsequent to June 30th and establish a place of business for the sale of goods, wares, and merchandise either at private sale or at auction. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

REGULATIONS EFFECTIVE

Where regulations provided that average inventory means net cost of goods delivered or the actual cost of goods minus any cash discounts from which a further deduction of 5 per cent, will be allowed, and taxpayer estimated its cost according to retail inventory method of accounting by deducting from resale price the average percentage of markup over cost, the taxpayer was not entitled to an additional 8 per cent, for markdown, since no markdown from resale price could affect cost. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia, 1942 (129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

Where taxpayer made incorrect returns and underpaid its personal property taxes, assessor's practice of applying new regulations permitting greater deductions in determining value of accounts receivable was unauthorized and taxpayer's tax liability was to be determined in accordance with regulations in force when tax returns were filed. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia, 1942 (129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

§ 47–1213 [20: 769]. Board of Personal Tax Appeals—Constitution—Proceedings.

The Board of Assistant Assessors hereinbefore provided for, with the assessor of the District of Columbia as chairman, shall compose a Board of Personal Tax Appeals, and as such Board of Personal Tax Appeals shall convene in a room, to be provided therefor by the said assessor, on the first Monday of September each year and shall continue in session to and including the first Monday of March of the following year, or until such time as their work shall have been completed, and public notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given by advertisement for two consecutive secular days in two daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia. All appeals to said board shall be made within thirty days after notice of fixing an assessment. It shall be the duty of the Board of Personal Tax Appeals to hear all appeals made by any person or persons against the assessments made by the Board of Personal Tax Appraisers and to impartially equalize the value of said personal property as a basis for assessment. Any four members of the said board shall constitute a quorum for business, and in the absence of the assessor a temporary chairman shall be selected. They shall be empowered to diminish or increase such assessments as they may believe to have been returned at other than their true value to such amount as, in their opinion, may be the value thereof, and the action of said board in such cases shall be final. Said board of assistant assessors shall also perform such other official duties as may be required of them by the assessor of the District of Columbia: Provided, That in case the personal tax appraisers shall fail to complete any of the duties in sections 47–1201 to 47–1214, 47–1301 to 47–1305, 47–1701 to 47–1709 to be by them performed within the time provided therefor the taxation provided by this section shall not by reason thereof be invalid; but such appraisers shall proceed with all reasonable diligence to complete such duties, and their acts shall be valid as if performed within the time fixed therefor. If, at any time within any current year, property subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 47–1201 to 47–1214, 47–1301 to 47–1305, 47–1701 to 47–1709 shall have been omitted from assessment, said Board of Personal Tax Appraisers shall immediately proceed to assess the same for the then current year, giving notice in writing to the persons or corporations so assessed, who shall have a right of appeal within ten days from date of said notice. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 11; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 7; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1228, ch. 259, § 7.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1926 amendment added the second sentence of the first paragraph.

The 1929 amendment changed the time for convening and continuing in session in the first paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NOTICE

The statute provides that notice must be given and the opportunity presented to be heard in respect to the assessment of omitted property. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

The admission of the District that no such notice of the assessments was ever given to the company is fatal to the entire claim of the District. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

REASSESSMENT

It is not the policy of the law to favor reassessments. Unless the taxing statute expressly provides for a reassessment, such action is void. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

When taxpayer complied with the duty and made a true statement of his investment in marginal stocks according to the legal requirement and was taxed on the item, the tax authorities could not reassess on a new basis on the theory that the shares of stock were omitted property, since omitted property means property which is not assessed at all and not property which is merely undervalued. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47–1214 [20: 770]. Clerk of Board of Personal Tax Appraisers—Appointment.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to appoint a clerk and assistant clerk to said Board of Personal Tax Appraisers, and three inspectors, all of whom shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the chairman of said board. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 19; Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265.)

AMENDMENT

The law as enacted provided for salaries for these employees. Their salaries are now governed by the Classification Act of 1923.

§ 47–1215. Taxation of rolling stock of railroad, sleeping-car, tank-car, etc., companies—Location within District—Location without District—Applicability of personal property tax laws—Effective date.

(a) The rolling stock of railroad companies, refrigerator-car companies, parlor-car companies, sleeping-car companies, tank-car companies, express companies, car-renting companies, and all other companies owning parlor, sleeping, dining, tank, freight, or any other cars which are operated or run over or upon the line or lines of any railroad or terminal company in the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to be located in said District for purposes of taxation, whether or not the individual units are continuously in the District or are constantly changing, and such property shall be reported, assessed, and taxed within the time, and at the rates prescribed by law for the reporting and taxation of other personal property in the District of Columbia.

(b) Such rolling stock as is primarily located in the District of Columbia shall be reported and taxed at its full and true value on the last day of the calendar year preceding the tax date.

(c) Such rolling stock as is not primarily located in the District of Columbia shall be reported and taxed in the manner following:

(1) Every railroad company operating rolling stock over or upon the line or lines of any railroad or terminal company in the District shall report to the Assessor of the District of Columbia the various classes of such rolling stock so operated by such company whether owned by it or any other railroad company; the number of miles traveled by each class of such rolling stock within the District during the calendar year next preceding the tax date; the total number of miles traveled by each class of such rolling stock on all lines over which such company operates during the calendar year next preceding the tax date; the total full and true value of each class of such rolling stock owned by such company on the last day of the calendar year next preceding the tax date; and such other facts and information as said assessor may require. The taxable portion of the rolling stock of each such company shall be determined by applying the mileage traveled in the District by the various classes of such rolling stock operated in the District by such company to the total mileage traveled by the various classes of such rolling stock on all lines over which such company operates, and the tax shall be assessed on that portion of such rolling stock owned by such company on the last day of the calendar year next preceding the tax date. The mileage and value of the rolling stock owned by such company which is permanently located outside of the District of Columbia shall not be included in the computation of such assessment.

(2) Every parlor-car company and sleeping-car company owning parlor and sleeping cars (except those owned by railroad companies and described in paragraph (1) of this subsection) which are operated in the District over or upon the tracks of any railroad or terminal company, shall report to the Assessor of the District of Columbia the total number of miles traveled by all such cars, and also the miles traveled by such cars within the District, during the calendar year next preceding the tax date; the total full and true value of all of such cars so used as of the last day of the calendar year next preceding the tax date; and such other facts and information as said assessor may require. The taxable portion of the value of the cars owned by any such company and used within the District shall be determined by applying to such value the ratio between the mileage traveled by such cars in the District and the total mileage traveled by such cars within and without the District.
